Sub- ICAI – 55th National Cost Convention – 2014.

Dear Colleagues,

Greetings from the Institute;

The success of any Convention depends on the success of the micro level activities. This naturally is possible only when the entire team of Council Members, Regional Councils, Chapters, professionals, Guests & resource persons, Executives, Students work in cohesive manner. Based on the feedback, I am having from the participants I am overwhelmed by the dedication of all of my colleagues who ensured that the responsibility assigned to them was executed in a picture perfect manner.

Unlike other National Conventions which were held in large metros, I took the gamble of repeating the feat of one my predecessors, to hold the national event once more in Bhubaneswar. All the cogs in the Institute and professional wheel worked in tandem with each other without which this mega event could not have become a major success. The entire credit for the success goes to the Council Members, Regional Council, Chapters, professionals, executives, students and others who were part of this mammoth organisational effort.

I sincerely acknowledge the contribution of Sponsoring organisations who have been continuously supporting the profession to make value additions to the society.

I am a staunch believer in sincere work with dedication and the hand of God and I personally feel that the protective hands of Lord Jagannath hovered above all of us and warded off any obstacles that might have marred the occasion.

If there has been some shortcomings in the event I take the entire responsibility for it.

Thank you for keeping the flag of the Institute and profession flying high for this convention also.
