ICAI RE-CONNECT

Leveraging the Network for Success

THE INSTITUTE OF CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS OF INDIA (ICAI)

The Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) is a statutory body established under the Chartered Accountants Act, 1949 for the regulation of the profession of Chartered Accountants in India. During its more than six decades of existence, ICAI has achieved recognition as a premier accounting body not only in the country but also globally, for its contribution in the fields of education, professional development, maintenance of high accounting, auditing and ethical standards. ICAI now is the second largest accounting body in the world.

ICAI Partner in Nation Building

The Institute, as a part of its role in aiding proactive process towards better governance is called upon to interact with various regulatory/statutory authorities in India on issues of interest touching upon the profession and otherwise. The Institute, on its part, is putting the vast experience of its structure and its members at the disposal of those charged with governance. In this process, the Institute, at regular intervals, provides technical advice and necessary inputs to various Government departments and Ministries.

In addition, ICAI also provides necessary inputs, from time to time, to the Trade Policy Division, Ministry of Commerce of the Govt. of India so as to enable the Indian Government to take part in a more effective manner in negotiations under WTO.

THE COMMITTEE FOR MEMBERS IN INDUSTRY (CMII)

CMII is a Non-standing Committee of the ICAI with the mission : to encourage and enhance close links between the Institute and the Chartered Accountants working in industries in various capacities so as to provide for them, a base of reference in terms of knowledge, expertise, skills and assistance in individual career growth through the development of extensive and intensive relationship with organizations, agencies of the Government, Departments and Ministries of the Central and State Government in such manner as to provide the maximum possible exposures to the world of trade, commerce, industry and Governance, while simultaneously pursuing the goal of providing the maximum of employment opportunities.

Objectives

- To organize campus interviews for newly qualified Chartered Accountants seeking employment through the Institute.
- To explore and develop new avenues of employment for Members in Industry.
- To provide sector specific assistance in improvement of skills of Members in Industry.
- To consider the problems and issues pertaining to the career planning, ethics and other related matters of the Members in Industry.
- To popularize the Placement Portal of the Institute.
- To bring out background materials/publications relevant for Members in Industry.
- To organize programmes on the topics relevant to the Members in Industry.
- To develop a sector-wise data bank of the Members in Industry and continue to develop their involvement in the mainstream of the Institute.
- To encourage and recognize the Corporate entrepreneurs of our profession i.e., Corporate MDs, Chairmen, Presidents, etc. in Industry.
- To consider the ways and means to enhance the participation of the Members in Industry in the activities of the Institute.

MESSAGES

CA. K. Raghu, President, ICAI

Global economic environment is rapidly evolving and in today's complex and dynamic world, the only constant factor is change. In this situation, the Chartered Accountants are contributing its mite in addressing the stakeholders concern. In this scenario, it is important for all Chartered Accountants to remain an active member of the Institute. Corporate success stories have been written with active role for our members. Many of our members have converted low lying corporates into successful Fortune 500s immaterial of the sector or size. Our members have proved that they are complete business leaders. The focus of the 'ICAI Re-connect' is to associate those who have not till now opted for the membership of the Institute.

I wish to congratulate the Committee for Member in Industry for this initiative.

CA. Manoj Fadnis, Vice- President, ICAI

Chartered Accountants play a crucial role in the development of business organizations and make significant contribution to the growth of the economy and nation. The Institute takes a number of steps for the benefit of its members. For the purpose, it is important that the members remain connected with their alma mater. The aim of the 'ICAI Re-connect' is to communicate the privileges and other benefits of being members of the Institute so that the Chartered Accountants who are not keeping the membership status active understand its importance and renew it on continuous basis.

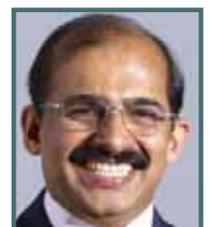

CA. Tarun Jamnadas Ghia, Chairman, Committee for Members in Industry

In this critical phase of the current economic growth, every corporate is looking for newer horizons to maintain their pace of development. The role of our members who are managing the affairs of these corporates have become far more challenging and demanding. Out of the current strength of members of the Institute who are in Industry/engaged in Industry, many of them have been occupying prominent positions such as CMDs, CMOs, CEOs of PSUs and MNCs, both in India and abroad. CMII serves as a platform for facilitating synchronization between the individual goals with organizational goals creating an interface between ICAI and industry and to recognize and project CAs beyond traditional fields as knowledgeable persons on all aspects in the functioning of the company, business and commerce. The Committee for Members in Industry is taking lots of new initiatives during 2014-2015 for members of the Institute working in Industry. The 'ICAI Re-Connect' is one of the endeavours of the Committee highlighting the key benefits/ privilege of being Member of the Institute. I request Chartered Accountants to be an active member of the Institute and participate wholeheartedly in the activities of the Committee for Members in Industry.

CA. Babu Abraham Kallivayalil, Vice Chairman, Committee for Members in Industry

The improvements in technology and communications have changed the businesses between the nations. In the sweeping changes, the role of Members of the Institute is immense. Members of the Institute are the heart and soul of business operations. They are the people who can help the industry and the economies to turn around. In this critical phase, it is required for Chartered Accountants to be an active member of the Institute. I take this opportunity to urge the Chartered Accountants to get/ renew their Membership.

ICAI Re- connect

ICAI Re-connect is a drive to club all the Chartered Accountants who have not opted for the membership of ICAI. Members are the very foundation of an Organisation. We would like to make our foundation even stronger by active participation of our members in Industry and practice.

We have devised three step mechanism to become the member of the Institute:

The institutes' primary function is to prescribe qualification for membership, conducting examination and making arrangement for practical training of candidates, publication and maintenance of register of members qualified to practice the profession, carrying on activities for development of the chartered accountancy as a profession and regulation and maintenance of status of standard and standard of professional qualification of the members.

The Institute has taken number of initiatives for the benefit of its members of ICAI. These include campus recruitment, advance career employment facilitation mechanism, industry specific training programmes, technical publications and documentations.

Today a Chartered Accountant has a very dynamic role to play in the growth and development of business and economy of the country. In the globalize economic scenario, a CA is looked upon by the business organisations as a complete business solution provider. As Indian economy is growing, Indian corporate are becoming truly global and more and more foreign financial Institutions envisaging interest to invest in India.

In this scenario, it is important for all Chartered Accountants to remain an active member of the Institute.

PRIVILEGES OF BEING A MEMBER OF THE INSTITUTE

1. Through the membership of the Institute you are entitled for

- a) Monthly journal of the Institute 'The Chartered Accountant'
 - b) Monthly newsletters of Regional Councils and of Branches of the Institute.
 - c) Participation in the conferences, seminars and other programmes organized by the Institute, Regional Councils and/or Branches at concessional rates
 - d) Regular update of programmes being organized and initiatives taken from time to time for the benefit of the profession and members; Emerging Professional Opportunities, Practice Area Development, Publications of the Institute, Recently announced/benefits from CABF, Group Insurance Scheme (on payment of additional contribution); issuance of Identity Cards, etc.
- The Institute has taken number of initiatives for the benefit of its members in the industry. These include campus recruitment for senior Members, Industry specific training programmes, technical publications and documentations etc..

2. Removal of membership leads to certain Disadvantages Like: -

- Denial of use of designation Chartered Accountant
- Inability to style oneself as Chartered Accountant
- Attracting penal provision such as fine or imprisonment for using the designation Chartered Accountant during the period of removal of membership

You will appreciate that a break in the membership of the Institute deprives you from the privileged benefits that a chartered accountant enjoys and also debars you from participation in the Institute's activities and the programme designed for its members for dissemination of knowledge & professional development.

We extend our warm and cordial invitation to you to join/rejoin as a member of the Institute and to actively associate yourself with our profession in ensuring that the flag of our Institute fly high in the professional arena. To make job easier, we hereby enclose Form 2 for enrolment as a member and Form 9 for renewal of membership which the Chartered Accountants are required to submit to the concerned Regional Office of ICAI for joining/renewing of their membership.

In case you choose not to renew your membership, please inform us the specific reasons why are you not getting it renewed.

ACTIVITIES OF THE COMMITTEE FOR MEMBERS IN INDUSTRY

The Committee for Members in Industry (CMII) is organising various activities, programmes for the members which are given under. We earnestly solicit and invite your views, suggestions to improve and expand the activities of the CMII, with your involvement to the extent possible.

1. Recognize and project CA beyond traditional fields

CMII serves as a platform for facilitating synchronization between the individual goals with organizational goals creating an interface between ICAI and industry and to recognize and project CAs beyond traditional fields as knowledgeable persons on all aspects in the functioning of the company, business and commerce. Please conceive events in which we can involve CFOs, CEOs and higher levels to deliberate on all issues concerning the specific industry. Such exercises will enable the CA to be versatile in all areas concerning the company and the industry, to visualise their roles on higher levels and to come in contact with higher levels of management in an informal manner. We are aware that a CA is versatile, hard working, fully devoted, capable of multi tasking and looking at the transaction from all possible angles and balancing counter acting factors. This can come out by interactive exercises, workshops, conferences covering entire gamut of the industry and attended by all management levels. If possible, you may conceive an outreach program in your company on a date convenient to us to have personal interactions.

2. Campus Placement Programme

CMII organises "Campus Placement Programmes" almost all over the Country twice a year for creating opportunity for both to employing organisations as well as the young professional CAs to meet and explore the possibility of having a mutually beneficial relationship in terms of employment.
