ICSI Lifetime Achievement Award for Translating Excellence in Corporate Governance into Reality:

The ICSI Lifetime Achievement Award was Conferred on Mr. Shiv Nadar, Chairman and Chief Strategy Officer, HCL Technologies Limited for Translating Excellence in Corporate Governance into Reality.

Mr. Arun Jaitley, Hon'ble Union Minister for Finance, Defence and Corporate Affairs, while addressing the august gathering, said that, being the country's premier professional Institute ICSI symbolizes professional excellence and expressed his happiness to note that the ICSI is taking lead in right earnest to take this profession to constantly surging levels of excellence.

Mr. Jaitley further said Companies are instrumental in dealing with minor investors and the quality of governance add to the credibility of the Company, He further stressed upon the fact that Indian economy is slowly coming into the age which has increasing opportunities in corporate sectors and it is a challenge for us to take these opportunities.

Accepting the award, Mr. Shiv Nadar said, "This is a great honour and I thank ICSI and the eminent jury for this recognition. I share this award with our board, management leadership and employees who have set high standards of governance. I believe good corporate governance is critical in enhancing competitiveness, and to create industry-leading profitable growth and superior returns for every stakeholder.

CS R Sridharan, President, ICSI delivered the welcome address, and said that, ICSI being one of the first professional bodies in India to initiate discussion on “Corporate Governance” in the light of Cadbury Committee Report took upon itself the task of promoting Good Governance in Corporate India by taking a number of initiatives in this direction. “One of the important initiatives of the Institute to promote good corporate governance is the ICSI National Award for Excellence in Corporate Governance. The Award was instituted in the year 2001 to promote good governance practices amongst the corporates and to recognize those companies worthy of being exemplified.” he informed. He informed that ICSI will soon come out with the Corporate Governance rating model.

CS Vikas Y Khare, Vice-President, ICSI informed the august gathering about the Corporate Governance Award. He informed that, standards of policies and practices of governance are palpably going up in the Indian corporate sector. This is evident from the responses of the participating companies that responded to our questionnaire. An year on year analysis of the top 10 companies in the last three years shows a significant improvement in the good governance practices being adopted by the Indian companies in areas such as clearly laid procedure for Induction of Independent Directors, attention towards directors’ development and training, Corporate Social Responsibility initiatives, engagement with investors, and Risk Management. He provided his valuable input on the complete evaluation system and informed that the awardee companies which were judged to be the best governed Companies by the Jury , were those companies who were following the best practices and processes not in letter but in spirit. Further he delivered the vote of Thanks.
