Once upon a time there was an Indian rowing team

Humor from

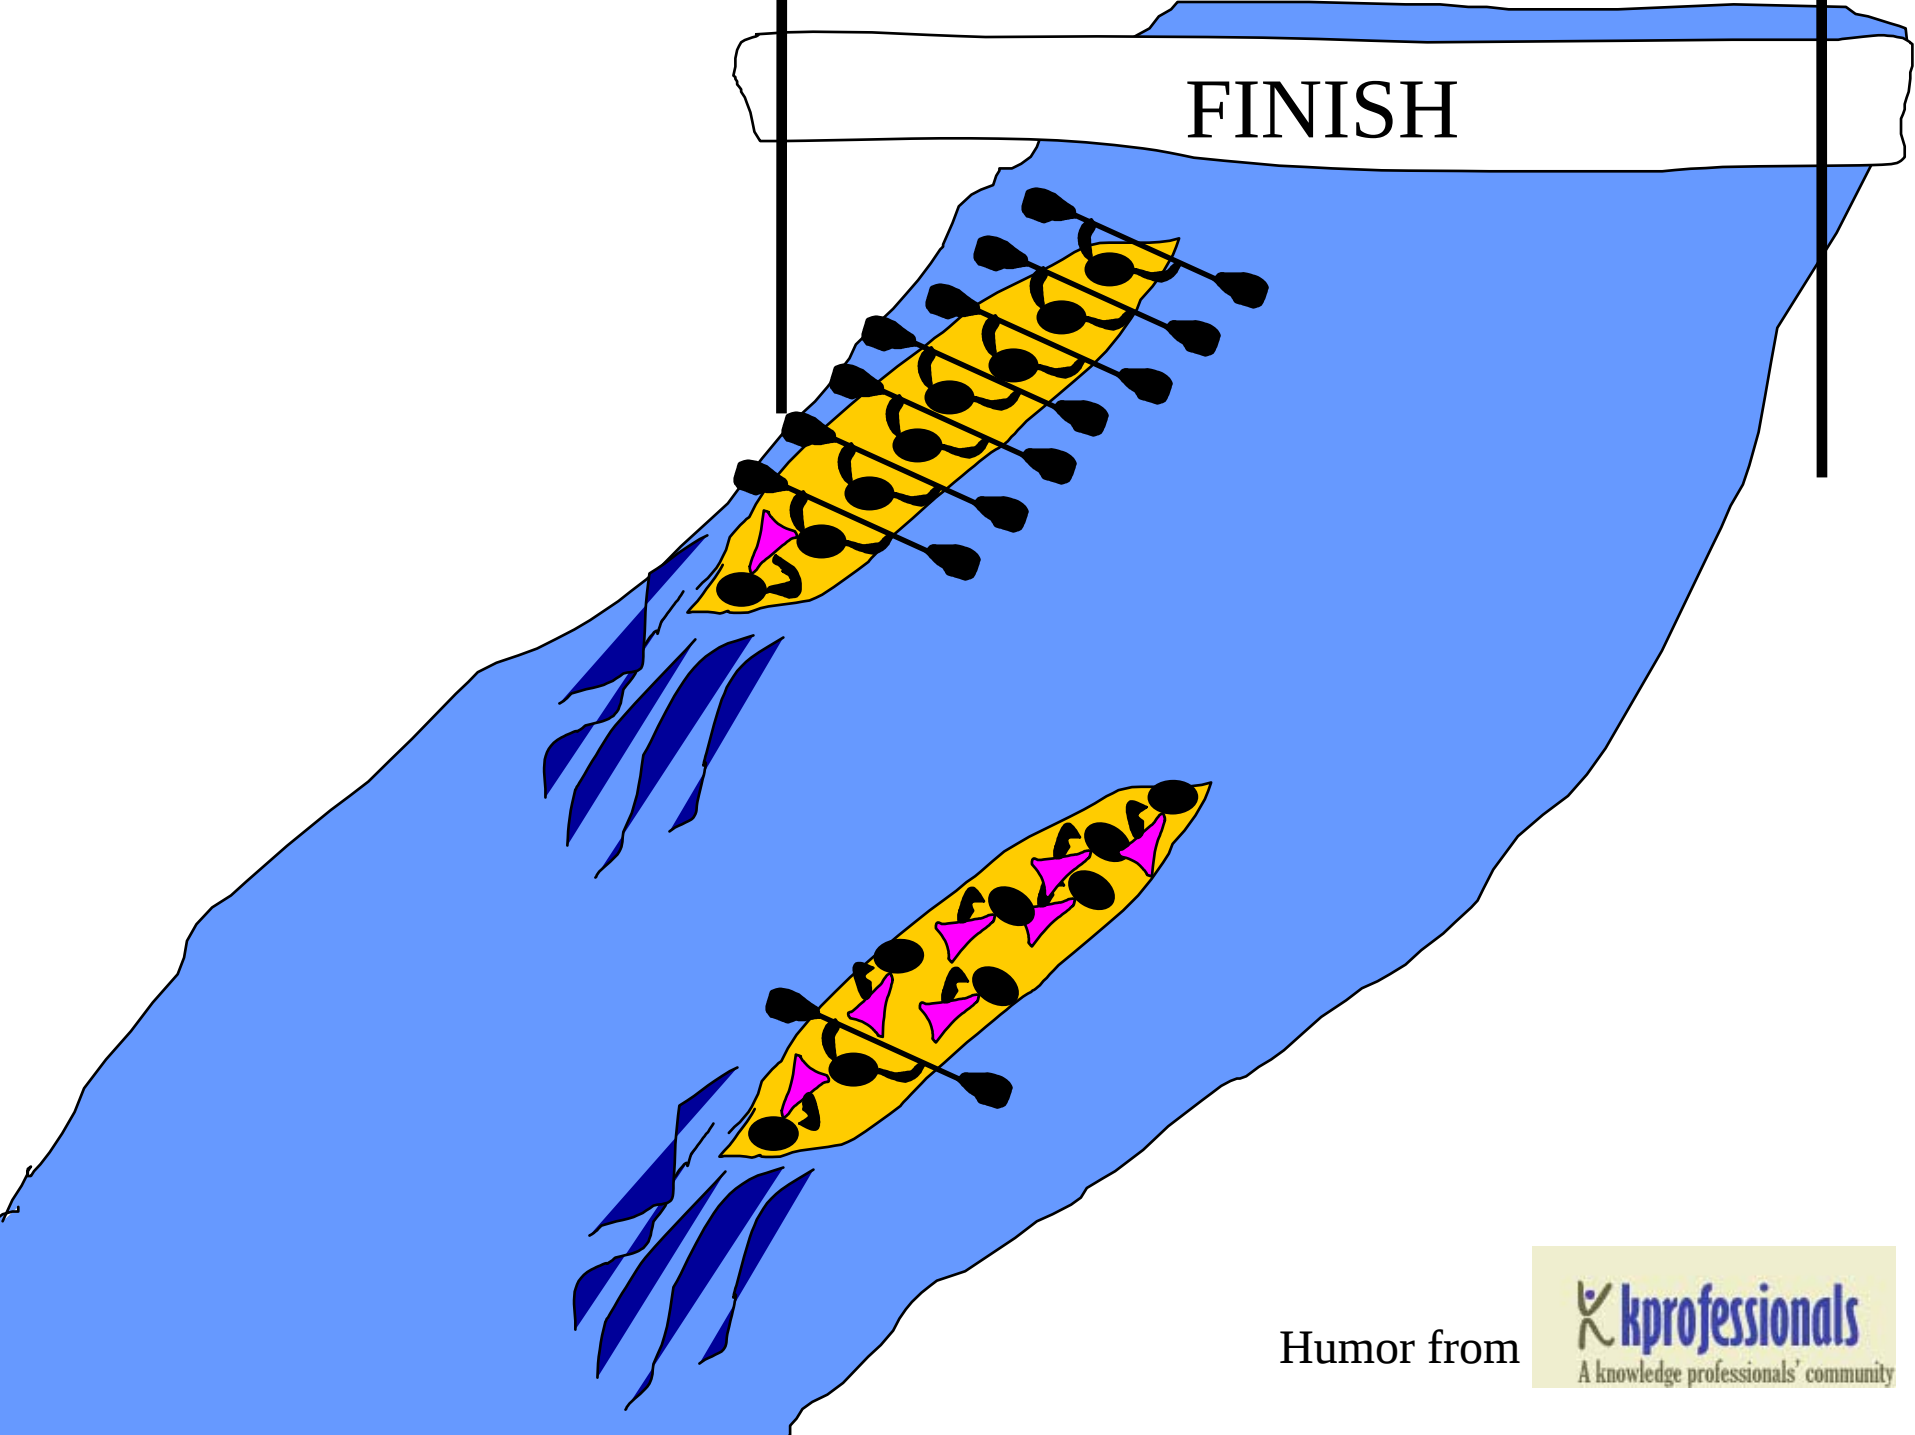

India and Japan agreed to do an annual rowing race.
Each team should contain 8 men.

Humor from

Both teams worked really hard to get in the best shape. The day the race started both teams were in similar condition.the Japanese won by 1 mile.

After several months the consultants came up with the conclusion that there were too many captains and too few rowers in the Indian team. A solution was proposed based on this analysis: the structure of the Indian team has to be changed!

As of today there will be only 4 captains in the team led by 2 managers, one top-manager and one rower. Besides that, they suggested to improve the rower's working environment and to give him higher competencies.

Next year the Japanese won by 2 miles.

But the bonus award was paid to the management for the strong motivation the the team showed during the preparation phase.

Humor from

The consulting company prepared a new analysis, which showed that the strategy was good, the motivation was O.K. but the used tool has to be improved.

Currently the Indian team is designing a new boat.
