

The background of the slide is a photograph of a long, multi-arched bridge spanning a body of water. The scene is captured during sunset or sunrise, with a bright, glowing sun in the upper left corner, casting a warm, golden light across the sky and water. The water's surface is shimmering with reflected light. Several seagulls are visible in flight, some above the bridge and others perched on the railing in the foreground. The overall mood is peaceful and inspiring.

Take Control Of Your Attitudes

By Jim Rohn

We all have tremendous potential.
Each of us has the ability to put our unique human potential into action
and to acquire a desired result.

But the one thing that determines the level of our potential, produces the intensity of our activity and predicts the quality of the result we receive is our attitude.

A person wearing a red jacket and a helmet is riding a bicycle away from the camera on a paved road that curves through a mountainous landscape. The road is flanked by steep, rocky hillsides. In the distance, a small building and some utility poles are visible. The sky is overcast. The bicycle has a green bag on the back rack and a black bag on the front rack.

Attitude determines how much of the future we are allowed to see. It decides the size of our dreams and influences our determination when we are faced with new challenges.

No other person on earth has dominion
over our attitude!!!

People can affect our attitude by teaching us poor thinking habits or unintentionally misinforming us, or providing us with negative sources of influence, but no one can control our attitude unless we voluntarily surrender that control.

No one else “makes us
angry.” We make ourselves
angry when we surrender
control of our attitude.

What someone else may
have done is irrelevant.
We choose; not they.
They merely put our
attitude to a test.

If we select a volatile attitude by becoming hostile, angry, jealous or suspicious, then we have failed the test.

A close-up, profile shot of a man with dark, wavy hair and a light beard. He is looking down and to the left with a thoughtful or somber expression. The lighting is dramatic, coming from the side, highlighting his facial features against a dark, out-of-focus background. He is wearing a dark-colored button-down shirt.

If we condemn ourselves
by believing that we are
unworthy, then again,
we have failed the test.

If we care at all about ourselves, then we must accept full responsibility
for our own feelings.

We must learn to guard against those feelings that have the capacity to lead our attitude down the wrong path, and to strengthen those feelings that can lead us confidently into a better future.

If we want to receive the rewards the future holds in trust for us, then we must exercise the most important choice given to us as members of the human race by maintaining total dominion over our attitude.

Our attitude is an asset, a treasure
of great value that
must be protected
accordingly.

When you have the right attitude,
you can do the remarkable.

A photograph of a sunset or sunrise. The sun is a bright, glowing orb in the center of the frame, partially obscured by the silhouettes of tall grasses in the foreground. The sky is a warm, orange-yellow color. The grasses are dark and silhouetted against the bright light of the sun. In the background, there are some faint outlines of what might be power lines or distant structures.

When you recognize your gifts, you can change anything for yourself that you wish to change. If you don't like how something is going for you, change it!!!

If something isn't enough, change it!!!
If something doesn't suit you; change it!!!
If something doesn't please you, change it!!!

You don't ever have to be the same after today. If you don't like your present address, change it— you're not a tree!

Having the right attitude is an essential prerequisite for success and happiness.

The right attitude is one of the fundamentals of the good life.

That is why we must constantly examine our feelings about our role in the world and about our possibilities for achieving our dreams.

It is our emotional nature that governs most of our daily conduct in our personal and business world!

It is the emotional aspect of our experiences that determines our behavior!

How we feel about life's events is a powerful force
that can either freeze us in our tracks or inspire
us to take immediate action on any given day.

A photograph of a person sitting on a rocky shore, looking out at a large wave crashing. The sky is cloudy and the ocean is blue. The person is wearing a light-colored shirt and dark pants. The wave is creating a large splash of white water.

With the right attitude, human beings
can move mountains. With the wrong attitude, they can be crushed by the smallest grain of sand.
