Facts Of Life

I Have Learned

That to ignore the facts
does not change the facts.

That the easiest way
for me to grow as a person is to surround
myself with people
smarter than I am.

That having a child
fall asleep in your arms is one of the most peaceful
feelings in the world.

A serene landscape featuring a calm body of water, likely a lake or river, surrounded by lush greenery and numerous cherry blossom trees in full bloom. The blossoms are a vibrant pinkish-purple, creating a soft, romantic atmosphere. In the foreground, several small, blue wooden rowing boats are moored, their hulls reflecting the light. The sky is a pale, hazy blue, suggesting a clear day. The overall scene is peaceful and picturesque, capturing the essence of a spring day in a park or natural setting.

That being kind is more important
than being right.

That no matter how serious your life requires you to be,
everyone needs a friend to act goofy with.

That sometimes all a person needs is a hand to hold and a heart to understand.

That life is like a roll of toilet paper. The closer it gets to the end, the faster it goes.

That it's those small daily happenings that make life so spectacular.

That one should keep his words both soft and tender,
because tomorrow he may have to eat them.

That the best classroom in the world is at the feet of an elderly person.

That everyone you meet deserves to be greeted with a smile.

That no one is perfect until you fall in love with them.

That opportunities are never lost; someone will take the ones you miss.

That I can't choose how I feel, but I can choose what I do about it.

That when you
harbor bitterness,
happiness will
dock elsewhere.

That a smile is an inexpensive way to improve your looks.

That everyone wants to live on top of the mountain, but all the happiness and growth occurs while you're climbing it.

That it is best to give advice in only two circumstances; when it is requested and when it is a life threatening situation.

That the less time I have to work with, the more things I get done.

When you make the
biggest mistake ever,
something good
comes from it.

When you think the world has turned its back on you, take a look: you most likely turned your back on the world.

When you think you have no chance of getting what you want,
you probably won't get it, but if you believe in yourself, probably, sooner or later, you will get it.

Always tell someone how you feel about them; you will feel much better when they know.

That just one person saying to me, "You've made my day!" makes
my day!!!

Always remember the compliments you received. Forget about the rude remarks. Your life will be better.

Thank You Very Much
