

Grow Your Life More!!!

Today you know more than you did at this time yesterday.

Today you are one day closer to becoming the person you were meant to be.

Today you have more experience, and more wisdom than you did just one day ago. So what's the best thing to do today? More!

You are more today than you've ever been before. What a waste it would be to ignore that! What a waste it would be not to make full use of it! Now that you've become more, it's time to do more.*

Right now, you have what it takes to put more effort into your work,
more love into your relationships,
more discipline into your actions,
more passion into your life.

The tools and opportunities available to you have grown.
So use them to make your results and your life grow, too - not next week, not in a few days, but right now.

What can you improve just a little bit today? Those little improvements add up, compounding on each other until you've soon forged your life into a masterpiece.*

Remember that your life can be what you want it to be. Do what you can, for who you can, with what you have, and where you are.

Remember to count your blessings, not your troubles. When you focus on what is good, your mind replays your blessings all day long.

Remember that you'll make it through whatever comes along.
Patience is the ability to idle your motor when you feel like stripping your gears.

Remember that most of the answers you need are within you.*
You can embrace them for both the losses as well as the gains and you can become receptive to the divine plan for your lives.

Remember to always reach for the best that is within you. It is up to you to determine how your life will look, and how it will feel to you.

Remember those dreams waiting to be realized. Pursue your dreams. Reach for the stars. Take a leap of faith.

Remember that decisions are too important to leave to chance.
The choice you make today will usually affect tomorrow.

Remember that not getting what you want is sometimes a wonderful stroke of luck. We take for granted the things that we have and should be giving thanks for.

Remember that happiness is more often found in giving than getting. Happiness is enhanced by others but does not depend upon others.

Remember that life's treasures are people, not things. A hug is a great gift..one size fits all. It can be given for any occasion and it's easy to exchange.

A black and white photograph of a person with long dark hair, wearing a white dress, standing on a vast set of wide, light-colored stone or concrete steps. The person is positioned in the lower center of the frame, looking away from the camera towards the top of the stairs. The stairs recede into the distance, creating a strong sense of perspective. The lighting is dramatic, with deep shadows and bright highlights on the steps. In the top right corner, there is a black rectangular box containing white and yellow text.

Remember that miracles can still happen. They will continue to happen so long as we have eyes to see and ears to hear.

You have more today than ever before. So go out and make more of this day than you've ever done.

Today is truly golden, and you have what it takes to make your life shine more brightly with each passing moment. You really can do it, you know!*

A wide-angle landscape photograph taken during the 'golden hour' of sunset or sunrise. The sky is a gradient of soft orange, yellow, and pale blue. Below the horizon, rolling hills and a vast field are visible, bathed in the warm light of the low sun. On the right side of the image, a paraglider with a yellow and orange canopy is seen in flight, suspended in the air. The overall mood is peaceful and inspiring.
