4. Due date :Due date of filing Return of Income (ROI) [Explanation 2 to Section 139 (1)]

Category of person	Due date
1. Company	September 30, 2015
2. Any person other than a company :
2.1 Where the accounts of the assessee are required to be audited under any law	September 30, 2015
2.2 Where the assessee is a “ working partner ” in a firm whose accounts are required to be audited under any law	September 30, 2015
2.3 In any other case	July 31, 2015
3. In the case of an assessee who is required to furnish a report of transfer pricing under section 92E	November 30, 2015

Notes :

- Where the last day for filing return of income/loss is a day on which the income-tax office is closed, the assessee can file the return on the next day afterwards on which the office is open and, in such cases, the return will be considered to have been filed within the specified time limit [CBDT Circular No. 639 dated 13/11/1992].
- Even if fixed remuneration is paid to the working partner of a firm whose accounts are required to be audited, the due date for filing ROI for the firm as well as working partner shall be 30th September.
- If ROI is filed after due date then :
 1. Interest u/s 234A shall be payable
 2. Revised return cannot be filed
 3. Following losses can't be carried forward as per section 80 :
 - Loss of a speculative or non-speculative business (not being unabsorbed depreciation);
 - Short-term and long-term capital loss; and
 - Loss (not being unabsorbed depreciation) from the activity of owning and maintaining race horses.
 4. Deduction under section 80-IA/IAB/IB/IC/ID/IE shall not be allowed [Section 80AC].

5. Prescribed form [Rule 12(1)] :

❧ Fourth Proviso to Section 139(1)

- ▶▶ A person, being a resident other than not ordinarily resident in India,
- ▶▶ who is not required to furnish a return under this sub-section [i.e. Section 139(1)]
- ▶▶ but who during the previous year has any asset (including any financial interest in any entity) located outside India or signing authority in any account located outside India,
- ▶▶ shall furnish, on or before the due date, a return in respect of his income or loss for the previous year in such form and verified in such manner and setting forth such other particulars as may be prescribed

Analysis of Fourth Proviso to Section 139(1)

It is mandatory for a firm or a company to furnish ROI. Other persons are required to file ROI if total income exceeds basic exemption limit. Fourth Proviso has been inserted in Section 139(1) to make it mandatory for a person to furnish ROI if following conditions are fulfilled :

(a) the person is resident in India (but not RNOR) and

(b) the person has during the previous year :

- ▶▶ any asset located outside India or
- ▶▶ any financial interest in any entity located outside India (e.g. shares in a foreign company or share of profit in a firm/AOP/BOI) or
- ▶▶ signing authority in any bank account located outside India even if the bank account is in the name of any other person.

If the aforesaid two conditions are satisfied then person is required to furnish ROI even if his income does not exceed basic exemption limit.

❧ Fifth Proviso to Section 139(1)

Every person, being :

- ▶▶ an individual or
- ▶▶ a Hindu undivided family or
- ▶▶ an AOP / BOI or
- ▶▶ an artificial juridical person,

if his Total income or the Total income of any other person in respect of which he is assessable under this Act during the previous year, without giving effect to the provisions of Section 10A¹ or Section 10B² or Section 10BA³ or Chapter VI-A⁴ exceeded the maximum amount which is not chargeable to income-tax, shall, on or before the due date, furnish a return of his income or the income of such other person during the previous year, in the prescribed form and verified in the prescribed manner and setting forth such other particulars as may be prescribed.

In other words, in respect of individual, HUF, AOP/BOI or artificial juridical person filing of ROI shall be compulsory if their Gross Total Income (instead of Total Income) before allowing deduction under Sections 10A, 10B or 10BA exceeds the maximum amount which is not chargeable to tax.

1. Section 10A : Special provision in respect of newly established undertaking in free trade zone, etc.
 2. Section 10B : Special provision in respect of newly established hundred percent export oriented undertaking.
 3. Section 10BA : Special provision in respect of export of certain article or thing.
 4. Chapter VI-A : Deductions under Section 80C to 80U

☞ Section 271F

- If a person who is required to furnish a return of his income,
- as required under Section 139(1) or by the provisos to that sub-section,
- fails to furnish such return before the end of the relevant assessment year,
- the Assessing Officer may direct that such person shall pay, by way of penalty, a sum of five thousand rupees.

Note : Section 273B :

Notwithstanding anything contained in the provisions of Section 271F, no penalty shall be imposable on the assessee for any failure referred to in Section 271F if he proves that there was reasonable cause for the said failure.

👤 Section 139(3) : Loss Return

- If any person who has sustained a loss in any previous year under the head “Profits and gains of business or profession” or under the head “Capital gains” and
- claims that the loss or any part thereof should be carried forward under *Section 72*¹, or *Section 73*², or *Section 74*³, or *Section 74A*⁴,
- he may furnish, within the time allowed under Section 139(1),
- a return of loss in the prescribed form and verified in the prescribed manner and containing such other particulars as may be prescribed, and
- all the provisions of this Act shall apply as if it were a return under Section 139(1).

Section 80 :

- Notwithstanding anything contained in *Chapter VI*⁵,
- the loss which has not been determined in pursuance of a return filed in accordance with the provisions of Section 139(3),
- shall not be allowed to be “carried forward and set off” under Section 72/73/74/74A.

1. Section 72 : C/F & S/O of losses of non-speculative business
 2. Section 73 : Losses of Speculation Business
 3. Section 74 : Losses under the head Capital Gains
 4. Section 74A : Losses from activity of owning and maintaining of race horses
 5. Chapter VI : Set-off, or carry forward & set-off of losses

Notes :

1. Losses of current year can be ‘set-off’ :

Section 80 read with Section 139(3) prohibits the “carry forward and set-off” of losses if ROI is filed after the due date specified in Section 139(1). It does not prohibit the “set-off” of losses. Therefore losses can be set-off even if the ROI is furnished after the due date.

Illustration 1 : Due date of filing ROI is 30th September, 2015 in case of Mr. A. ROI is filed on 15th November, 2015 as follows :

IOS	4,00,000
Less : PGBP (Loss)	2,50,000

Total Income	1,50,000

Is set-off of loss under the head “PGBP” correct as per Section 80 read with Section 139(3)?

Answer : Yes.

Illustration 2 : Due date of filing ROI is 30th September, 2015 in case of Mr. B. ROI is filed on 15th November, 2015 as follows :

IOS	1,00,000
Less : PGBP (Loss)	2,00,000

PGBP (Loss) to be C/F	1,00,000

Is set-off of loss under the head “PGBP” correct as per Section 80 read with Section 139(3)?

Answer : Yes. However loss of ₹ 1,00,000 shall not be carried-forward.

2. Loss under the head “IHP” can be carried forward :

Section 80 read with Section 139(3) provides that the loss under the head “PGBP” or “Capital gains” cannot be carried forward if ROI is filed after the due date specified in Section 139(1). However, the loss under the head “IHP” can be carried forward if ROI is furnished after the due date of filing ROI.

Illustration : Due date of filing ROI is 30th September, 2015 in case of Mr. C. ROI is filed on 15th November, 2015 as follows :

IOS	1,00,000
Less : IHP (Loss)	2,00,000

IHP (Loss) to be C/F	1,00,000

Is set-off of loss under the head “IHP” correct as per Section 80 read with Section 139(3)?

Answer : Yes. Loss of ₹ 1,00,000 can also be carried-forward.

3. Depreciation can be carried forward :

East Asiatic Co. (India) Private Limited Vs. CIT (1986) (Madras)

“Set-off and carry forward” of depreciation is governed by Section 32(2) and is not governed by Chapter VI. Section 80 overrides Chapter VI but it does not override Section 32(2). Section 32(2) nowhere provides that ROI should be filed on or before the due date for carry forward of unabsorbed depreciation. Therefore, unabsorbed depreciation can be carried forward even if the ROI is furnished after the due date specified in Section 139(1).

Illustration :

Due date of filing ROI is 30th September, 2015 in case of Mr. D. ROI is filed on 15th November, 2015 as follows :

PGBP	1,00,000
Less : Depreciation	2,50,000

Unabsorbed depreciation to be C/F	1,50,000

Answer :

Unabsorbed depreciation of ₹ 1,50,000 shall be carried-forward.

4. Whether unabsorbed depreciation can be carried forward even if ROI is not filed? :CIT v. Haryana Hotels Ltd. : (2005) 197 CTR 0449 (P&H-HC)

Act nowhere provides that it is mandatory to file ROI in order to carry forward the unabsorbed depreciation. Therefore, unabsorbed depreciation can be carried forward even if ROI is not filed for the relevant A.Y.

Note :

Applying the aforesaid judgement it can also be said that loss under the head IHP can also be carried forward even if ROI is not filed for the relevant A.Y.

5. Losses pertaining to earlier years can be “Carried forward” :

Losses of earlier year(s) can be carried forward if the return of loss of earlier year(s) was submitted within due date specified in Section 139(1).

Illustration :

Due date of filing ROI is 30th September, 2015 in case of Mr. E. ROI is filed on 15th November, 2015 as follows :

Current year's business loss	1,25,000
B/F business losses of A.Y. 2014-15	2,20,000

Whether losses can be carried forward ?

Answer :

Losses of A.Y. 2014-15 amounting to ₹ 2,20,000 are carried forward to A.Y. 2015-16 because the ROI for A.Y. 2014-15 would have been filed on or before due date. Once the ROI is filed in time, then the losses can be carried forward for 8 assessment years. Therefore, the losses of ₹ 2,20,000 can be further carried forward to A.Y. 2016-17. However, current year's business loss of ₹ 1,00,000 shall not be carried forward to A.Y. 2016-17.

6. Whether losses can be carried forward if ROI is filed in pursuance of notice issued under Section 142(1)? :

Section 142(1) provides that if the assessee has not furnished ROI within the time prescribed under Section 139(1) then the A.O. may issue a notice requiring him to furnish the ROI within the time specified in the notice.

Section 80 read with Section 139(3) prohibits the “carry forward and set-off” of losses if ROI is filed after the due date specified in Section 139(1).

Therefore, losses cannot be carried forward if ROI is filed in pursuance of notice issued under Section 142(1).

7. Circular No. 8/2001, Dated 16-5-2001 :

CBDT has clarified that if a loss return is filed late, then the delay in filing of loss return can be condone as follows :

Returned loss	Delay can be condoned by
Upto ₹ 10,000	CIT
Upto ₹ 1,00,000	CCIT
More than ₹ 1,00,000	CBDT

Section 139(4) : Belated Return

- ▶▶ Any person who has not furnished a return within the time allowed to him under Section 139(1), or within the time allowed under a notice issued under Section 142(1),
- ▶▶ may furnish the return for any previous year
- ▶▶ at any time before the expiry of one year from the end of the relevant assessment year or before the completion of the “assessment”, whichever is earlier.

Notes :

1. “assessment” means assessment under Section 144 (i.e. Best Judgment Assessment).
2. completion of the “assessment” means the date of passing (i.e. signing) of the assessment order and not the date of issue or receipt of the assessment order.

Illustration 1 :

Mr. X has not filed his ROI for A.Y. 2015-16 and assessment has also not been made under Section 144. Upto what time can he file ROI ?

Answer :

Mr. X can file his ROI for A.Y. 2015-16 upto the end of the next A.Y. 2016-17 (i.e. 31.03.2017).

Illustration 2 :

Mr. Y has not filed his ROI for A.Y. 2015-16 and therefore, A.O. made assessment under Section 144 on 31.12.2015. Upto what time can he file ROI ?

Answer :

The assessee could have filed ROI under Section 139(4) upto 30.12.2015 (i.e. before the completion of the assessment).

Illustration 3 :

Mr. Z has not filed his ROI for A.Y. 2015-16 and therefore, A.O. made assessment under Section 144 and passed assessment order on 31.12.2015. The said order is issued on 2.1.2016 and is received by the assessee on 5.1.2016. The assessee has filed a ROI for A.Y. 2015-16 on 1.1.2016. Comment.

Answer :

Assessment is completed on the date on which the A.O. ‘passes’ the assessment order. As per Section 139(4) a return can be filed at any time before the expiry of one year from the end of the relevant assessment year or before the completion of the assessment, whichever is earlier. In the present case ROI could have been filed upto 30.12.2015 and therefore return filed on 1.1.2016 is time barred and invalid.

Section 139(4A)

- ▶▶ If the Total Income of a charitable or religious trust or institution, before exemption u/s 11 & 12,
- ▶▶ exceeds the maximum amount not chargeable to tax,
- ▶▶ then the trust or institution is under an obligation to furnish the return of income within the time allowed under Section 139(1)
- ▶▶ and all provisions of the Income-tax Act shall apply as if it were a return furnished u/s 139(1).

Notes :

1. The tax rates applicable to a charitable or religious trust or institution are the same as applicable to an individual.
2. Return furnished under Section 139(4A) is treated as return furnished under Section 139(1). Hence return filed under Section 139(4A) can be revised under Section 139(5).
3. As per Section 12A, exemption under Section 11 and 12 shall be available only if the charitable or religious trust or institution gets its accounts audited in case the Total Income before exemption under Section 11 & 12 exceeds the maximum amount which is not chargeable to tax in any previous year.
4. Penalty under Section 272A : If a religious or charitable trust or institution fails to furnish the ROI within the time allowed under Section 139(1), then it shall pay a penalty of ₹ 100 per day for every day during which the default continues. However penalty under Section 271F shall not be levied.
5. If no ROI has been filed, then penalty under Section 272A shall be levied upto the date of completion of best judgment assessment.

6. Illustration :

	Situation I	Situation II	Situation III
Total income before exemption	2,50,000	4,50,000	4,50,000
Exemption claimed u/s 11&12	2,00,000	Nil	2,50,000
Total Income	50,000	4,50,000	2,00,000
Whether accounts are required to be audited?	No	No	Yes
Whether ROI is required to be filed within due date?	No	Yes	Yes
What shall be the due date of filing ROI?	31.07.2015	31.07.2015	30.09.2015
Return filed on	31.12.2015	31.12.2015	31.12.2015
Delay in filing ROI	153 days	153 days	92 days
Penalty u/s 272A	Nil	₹ 15,300	₹ 9,200

Section 139 (4B)

- If the Total Income of a political party, before exemption under Section 13A,
- exceeds the maximum amount not chargeable to tax,
- then the political party is under an obligation to furnish the return of income within the time allowed under Section 139(1)
- and all provisions of the Income-tax Act shall apply as if it were a return furnished under Section 139(1).

Note :

1. The tax rates applicable to a political party are the same as applicable to an individual.
2. Return furnished under Section 139(4B) is treated as return furnished under Section 139(1). Hence return filed under Section 139(4B) can be revised under Section 139(5).
3. There is no separate penalty for non-compliance of Section 139(4B). Provisions of Section 271F apply.
4. The due date of filing ROI in case of a political party shall be 30th September of the assessment year, if it wants to seek exemption under Section 13A as in that case audit is compulsory. Otherwise the due date is 31st July.

Notes :

1. Section 35(1)(ii) : An amount equal to 175% of any sum paid to certain bodies (e.g. Apollo Hospital), approved by Central Govt. to be used for scientific research is deductible while computing PGBP.
2. Section 35(1)(iii) : An amount equal to 125% of any sum paid to certain bodies (e.g. ICAI), approved by Central Govt. to be used for research in social science or statistical research is deductible while computing PGBP.
3. Return furnished under Section 139(4D) is treated as return furnished under Section 139(1). Hence return filed under Section 139(4D) can be revised under Section 139(5).
4. There is no separate penalty for non-compliance of Section 139(4D). Provisions of Section 271F apply.

Section 139(5) : Revised Return

- ▶ If any person, having furnished a return under Section 139(1), or in pursuance of a notice issued under Section 142(1),
- ▶ discovers any omission or any wrong statement therein,
- ▶ he may furnish a revised return at any time
- ▶ before the expiry of one year from the end of the relevant assessment year or before the completion of the “assessment”, whichever is earlier.

Note : “assessment” means assessment under Section 143(3) [i.e. Scrutiny Assessment] or under Section 144 [i.e. Best Judgment Assessment].

❖ Dhampur Sugar Mills Limited Vs. CIT : (2003) 133 TAXMAN 656 (Allahabad HC)

The revised return substitutes the original return from the date the original return was filed. Once a revised return is filed, the original return is deemed to have been withdrawn and the revised return is deemed to have been filed on the date the original return was filed. The revised return steps into the shoes of the original return.

❖ Niranjan Lal Ram Chandra Vs. CIT : (1982) 134 ITR 352 (Allahabad HC)

If the assessee discovers any omission or any wrong statement in a revised return, it is possible to revise such a revised return provided it is revised within the prescribed time.

❖ Hargovind Damji Vs. CIT : (2002) 177 CTR 20 (Gujarat HC)

Return filed within the period extended by the CBDT beyond the due date mentioned under Section 139(1) is a return filed under Section 139(1). It can therefore be revised under Section 139(5).

❖ Kumar Jagdish Chandra Sinha Vs. CIT : (1996) 133 CTR 0143 (Supreme Court)

Section 139(5) provides that only a return filed u/s 139(1) or in pursuance of a notice issued u/s 142(1) can be revised. Therefore, a return filed u/s 139(4) cannot be revised under Section 139(5).

Illustration 1 :

Whether a return filed under Section 139(3) can be revised under Section 139(5)?

Answer :

As per Section 139(3), a return furnished under Section 139(3) is deemed as it were a return furnished under Section 139(1). Therefore, a return filed under Section 139(3) can be revised u/s 139(5).

For A.Y. 2015-16, the due date of filing ROI was 31.7.2015 and ROI is filed on 31.7.2015 declaring an income of ₹ 40,000. Revised return is filed on 31.12.2015 declaring a loss of ₹ 7,00,000. Can the loss be carried forward ?

Answer :

As per the decision in Dhampur Sugar Mills Limited, the revised return is deemed to have been filed on 31.7.2015. As per provisions of Section 80 read with Section 139(3), the loss of ₹ 7,00,000 shall be C/F.

Illustration 3 :

If in Illustration No. 2 above, the original return was filed on 10.9.2015 instead of 31.7.2015, whether the loss can be carried forward ?

Answer :

The return filed on 10.9.2015 is a return filed under Section 139(4). As per the decision of SC in Kumar Jagdish Chandra Sinha, a return filed under Section 139(4) can't be revised under Section 139(5). Therefore the return filed on 31.12.2015 is not a revised return but is void ab-initio. Therefore loss cannot be carried forward.

Illustration 4 :

For A.Y. 2015-16, the due date of filing ROI was 31.7.2015 and ROI is filed on 15.9.2015 declaring a loss of ₹ 1,00,000. Revised return is filed on 31.12.2015 declaring a loss of ₹ 5,00,000. Comment.

Answer :

The return filed on 31.12.2015 is not a revised return but is void ab-initio. The loss of ₹ 1,00,000 shall not be carried forward as per Section 80 read with Section 139(3).

Illustration 5 :

For A.Y. 2015-16, the due date of filing ROI was 31.7.2015 and ROI was not filed upto 31.7.2015. The A.O. issues a notice under Section 142(1) and the assessee is asked to file the ROI by 15.12.2015. The assessee files ROI on 14.12.2015 declaring a loss of ₹ 3,00,000. The assessee files a revised return on 31.12.2015 declaring a loss of ₹ 5,00,000. Comment.

Answer :

The return filed on 14.12.2015 is a return filed in pursuance of a notice issued under Section 142(1). Return filed in pursuance of notice issued under Section 142(1) can also be revised. Therefore, revised return filed on 31.12.2015 is a valid return. However, the loss of ₹ 5,00,000 cannot be carried forward as per Section 80 read with Section 139(3).

Section 139(9) : Defective Return

A return of income shall be regarded as defective unless it is accompanied by all the documents :

- (a) A return in the prescribed form with all annexures, statements and columns duly filled in.
- (b) A statement showing the computation of the tax payable.
- (c) Proof of the tax, if any, claimed to have been deducted at source and the advance tax and self-assessment tax, if any, claimed to have been paid.

Note : ROI shall be regarded as defective unless the self-assessment tax together with interest, if any has been paid on or before due date of filing ROI (Inserted w.e.f. 01.06.2013).

- (d) Where regular books of account are maintained by the assessee, then copies of :
- Manufacturing Account, Trading Account, Profit & Loss Account (or, as the case may be, Income & Expenditure Account or any other similar account) and Balance Sheet;
 - In the case of a proprietary business or profession ----> the personal account of the proprietor.
 - In the case of a firm ----> the personal accounts of the partners.
 - In the case of AOP/BOI ----> the personal accounts of the members.
 - In the case of a partner of a firm ----> his personal account in the firm.
 - In the case of or member AOP/BOI ----> his personal account in the AOP/BOI.
- (e) Report of audit under Section 44AB, or, where the report has been furnished prior to the furnishing of the return, by a copy of such report together with proof of furnishing the report.
- (f) Where the accounts of the assessee have been audited, copies of the audited profit and loss account, balance sheet and the auditor's report.
- (g) Where cost audit has been conducted, under section 233B of the Companies Act, 1956, then the copy of such cost audit report.
- (h) Where regular books of account are not maintained by the assessee, then a statement showing the amounts of turnover (or gross receipts), gross profit, expenses and net profit of the business or profession and the basis on which such amounts have been computed, and also disclosing the amounts of total sundry debtors, sundry creditors, stock-in-trade and cash balance as at the end of the previous year.

Note :

- Where the Assessing Officer considers that the return of income furnished by the assessee is defective, he may^A intimate^B the defect to the assessee and give him an opportunity to rectify the defect within a period of fifteen days from the date of such intimation^C or within such further period which, on an application made in this behalf by the assessee, the Assessing Officer may, in his discretion, allow. If the defect is not rectified within the said period of fifteen days or, as the case may be, the further period so allowed then, the return shall be treated as void ab-initio and it shall be deemed that assessee has not filed the return of income.
- Where the assessee rectifies the defect after the expiry of the said period of fifteen days or the further period allowed, but before the completion of assessment, the Assessing Officer may condone the delay and treat the return as a valid return.
- Behari Lal Chatterjee :
An unsigned return is not a defective return but is void ab-initio.
- Hotel Diwakar Niwas :
Merely because a return is filed under improper jurisdiction, it cannot be treated as void ab-initio.

A. may :

under Section 139 (9), A.O. is under an obligation to intimate the defect to the assessee and therefore word “may” used in the Section should be read as “shall”.

B. intimate :

The A.O. shall intimate the defect to the assessee on plain piece of paper.

C. the date of such intimation :

the date of intimation means the date on which assessee receives the letter intimating the defect.

Section 139B : New scheme to facilitate submission of returns through Tax Return Preparers

- (1) For the purpose of enabling any specified class or classes of persons in preparing and furnishing returns of income, the Board (i.e. CBDT) may frame a Scheme*, by notification in the Official Gazette, providing that such persons may furnish their returns of income through a Tax Return Preparer (TRP) authorised to act as such under the Scheme.
