In reply to a specific query on changes(addition or omission or replacement of words etc.), if any, between the provisions of the Clause and existing Section, the Department of Revenue furnished the following reply:

“The Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of the IT Act, 1961. “

405.5 Observations/Recommendations of the Committee

The Committee note that Clause 405 of the Bill provides for computation of advance tax, akin to 209 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with no policy change. They, therefore, approve Clause 405 as proposed by the Department of Revenue.

Clause- 406-Payment of advance tax by the assessee on his own accord.

406.1 Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

.(1) Every person, who is liable to pay advance tax under section 404 (whether or not he has been previously assessed by way of regular assessment) shall, on his own accord, pay advance tax on the specified sum, calculated in the manner laid down in section 405, at the appropriate percentage, and on or before the due date of each instalment, as specified in section 408. (2) A person who pays any instalment or instalments of advance tax under sub-section (1), may increase or reduce the amount of advance tax to accord with specified sum and the advance tax payable thereon, and make payment of the said tax in the remaining instalment or instalments, accordingly.(3) In this section, the expression “specified sum” means current income as estimated by the assessee.

210. (1) Every person who is liable to pay advance tax under section 208 (whether or not he has been previously assessed by way of regular assessment) shall, of his own accord, pay, on or before each of the due dates specified in section 211, the appropriate percentage, specified in that section, of the advance tax on his current income, calculated in the manner laid down in section 209. (2) A person who pays any instalment or instalments of advance tax under sub-section (1), may increase or reduce the amount of advance tax payable in the remaining instalment or instalments to accord with his estimate of his current income and the advance tax payable thereon, and make payment of the said amount in the remaining instalment or instalments accordingly.

(3) In the case of a person who has been already assessed by way of regular assessment in respect of the total income of any previous year, the Assessing Officer, if he is of opinion that such person is liable to pay advance tax, may, at any time during the financial year but not later than the last day of February, by order in writing, require such person to pay advance tax calculated in the manner laid down in section 209, and issue to such person a notice of demand under section 156 specifying the instalment or instalments in which such tax is to be paid. (4) If, after the making of an order by the Assessing Officer under sub-section (3) and at any time before the 1st day of March, a return of income is furnished by the assessee under section 139 or in response to a notice under sub-section (1) of section 142, or a regular assessment of the assessee is made in respect of a previous year later than that referred to in sub-section (3), the Assessing Officer may make an amended order and issue to such assessee a notice of demand under section 156 requiring the assessee to pay, on or before the due date or each of the due dates specified in section 211 falling after the date of the amended order, the appropriate percentage, specified in section 211, of the advance tax computed on the basis of the total income declared in such return or in respect of which the regular assessment aforesaid has been made. (5) A person who is served with an order of the Assessing Officer under sub-section (3) or an amended order under sub-section (4) may, if in his estimation the advance tax payable on his current income would be less than the amount of the advance tax specified in such order or amended order, send an intimation in the prescribed form to the Assessing Officer to that effect and pay such advance tax as accords with his estimate, calculated in the manner laid down in section 209, at the appropriate percentage thereof specified in section 211, on or before the due date or each of the due dates specified in section 211 falling after the date of such intimation. (6) A person who is served with an order of the Assessing Officer under sub-section (3) or amended order under sub-section (4) shall, if in his estimation the advance tax payable on his current income would exceed the amount of advance tax specified in such order or amended order or intimated by him under sub-section (5), pay on or before the due date of the last instalment specified in section 211, the appropriate part or, as the case may be, the whole of such higher amount of advance tax as accords with his estimate, calculated in the manner laid down in section 209.

406.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Department of Finance for the proposed provision

Clause 406 of the Bill provides for payment of advance tax by assessee on his own accord. Clause 406 of the Bill corresponds to Section 210 of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section 210 of the Act have been divided into two separate clauses i.e. clause 406 and clause 407 for clear distinction.

406.4 Examination by the Committee

In reply to a specific query on changes(addition or omission or replacement of words etc.), if any, between the provisions of the Clause and existing Section, the Department of Revenue furnished the following reply:

"The Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of the IT Act, 1961. "

406.5 Observations/Recommendations of the Committee

The Committee observe that Clause 406 deals with payment of advance tax by assessee on his own accord which corresponds to Section 210 of the extant Act. They note that, apart from textual simplification, no policy change has been introduced in this Clause. They, therefore, accept Clause 406 as proposed by the Department of Revenue.

Clause- 407- Payment of advance tax by assessee in pursuance of order of Assessing Officer.

407.1 Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

407. (1) Where a person has already been assessed for the total income of any tax year by way of regular assessment and the Assessing Officer is of the opinion that such person is liable to pay advance tax, he may require such person to pay advance tax on the specified sum, calculated in the manner laid down in section 405, by an order in writing, and specifying the instalment or instalments in which such tax is to be paid, on or before the due date of each instalment specified in section 408.(2) The order referred to in sub-section (1) may be passed at any time during the tax year but not later than the last day of February of such tax year and it shall be followed by a notice of demand under section 289.(3) In sub-section (1), "specified sum" means a sum, being higher of,—(a) the total income of the latest tax year in respect of which the assessee has been assessed by way of regular assessment; or (b) total income returned by the assessee in any return of income furnished by him for any subsequent tax year.(4) The Assessing Officer may amend the order referred to in sub-section (1), and may require such person to pay advance tax on the specified sum, calculated in the manner laid down in section 405, ifafter passing an order under sub-section (1),—(a) a return of income is furnished by the assessee, under section 263 or in response to a notice under section 268; or (b) a regular assessment of the income is made in respect of a tax year later than the assessment referred to in sub-section (1), on or before the due date of each instalment specified in section 408.(5) The order referred to in sub-section (4) may be passed at any time before the 1st March of that tax year and it shall be followed by issuance of a demand notice under section 289.(6) In sub-section (4), "specified sum" means the total income declared in the return of income or computed in regular assessment mentioned in sub-section (4)(a) and (b), respectively.(7) If the notice of demand issued under section 289, as referred in sub-sections (2) and (5), is served after any of the due dates specified in section 408, the appropriate part or, the whole of the amount of the advance tax specified in such notice, shall be payable on or before each of the due date falling after the date of service of the notice of demand.(8) Where a person, who is served with an order referred to in sub-sections (1) and (4), estimates the advance tax payable on his current income to be lower than the amount of advance tax specified in the said order, then, he may send an intimation in the prescribed form to the Assessing Officer to that effect, and pay such advance tax on the current income, calculated in the manner laid down in section 401 as accords with his estimate, at an appropriate percentage thereof on or before the due date of each instalment specified in section 408 falling after the date of such intimation.(9) Where a person, who is served with an order referred in sub-sections (1) and (4), estimates that advance tax payable on his current income would exceed the amount of advance tax specified in such order or intimated by him under sub-section (8), he shall pay such advance tax on the current income, calculated in the manner laid down in section 405 at the appropriate part or whole of such higher amount of advance tax as accords with his estimate, on or before the due date of the last instalment specified in section 408.

210. (1) Every person who is liable to pay advance tax under section 208 (whether or not he has been previously assessed by way of regular assessment) shall, of his own accord, pay, on or before each of the due dates specified in section 211, the appropriate percentage, specified in that section, of the advance tax on his current income, calculated in the manner laid down in section 209.(2) A person who pays any instalment or instalments of advance tax under sub-section (1), may increase or reduce the amount of advance tax payable in the remaining instalment or instalments to accord with his estimate of his current income and the advance tax payable thereon, and make payment of the said amount in the remaining instalment or instalments accordingly.(3) In the case of a person who has been already assessed by way of regular assessment in respect of the total income of any previous year, the Assessing Officer, if he is of opinion that such person is liable to pay advance tax, may, at any time during the financial year but not later than the last day of February, by order in writing, require such person to pay advance tax calculated in the manner laid down in section 209, and issue to such person a notice of demand under section 156 specifying the instalment or instalments in which such tax is to be paid.(4) If, after the making of an order by the

Assessing Officer under sub-section (3) and at any time before the 1st day of March, a return of income is furnished by the assessee under section 139 or in response to a notice under sub-section (1) of section 142, or a regular assessment of the assessee is made in respect of a previous year later than that referred to in sub-section (3), the Assessing Officer may make an amended order and issue to such assessee a notice of demand under section 156 requiring the assessee to pay, on or before the due date or each of the due dates specified in section 211 falling after the date of the amended order, the appropriate percentage, specified in section 211, of the advance tax computed on the basis of the total income declared in such return or in respect of which the regular assessment aforesaid has been made.(5) A person who is served with an order of the Assessing Officer under sub-section (3) or an amended order under sub-section (4) may, if in his estimation the advance tax payable on his current income would be less than the amount of the advance tax specified in such order or amended order, send an intimation in the prescribed form to the Assessing Officer to that effect and pay such advance tax as accords with his estimate, calculated in the manner laid down in section 209, at the appropriate percentage thereof specified in section 211, on or before the due date or each of the due dates specified in section 211 falling after the date of such intimation.(6) A person who is served with an order of the Assessing Officer under sub-section (3) or amended order under sub-section (4) shall, if in his estimation the advance tax payable on his current income would exceed the amount of advance tax specified in such order or amended order or intimated by him under sub-section (5), pay on or before the due date of the last instalment specified in section 211, the appropriate part or, as the case may be, the whole of such higher amount of advance tax as accords with his estimate, calculated in the manner laid down in section 209.

407.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Department of Finance for the proposed provision

Clause 407of the Bill provides for payment of advance tax by assessee in pursuance of order of Assessing Officer. Clause 407 of the Bill corresponds to Section 210 of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section 210 of the Act have been divided into two separate clauses i.e. clause 406 and clause 407 for clear distinction.

407.4 Important views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders

407.4.1: In Clause 407, Sub-section (1) may be redrafted to include reference to "current tax year" for the sake of clarity and Sub-section (1) may be redrafted as follows – (1) Where a person has already been assessed for the total income of any assessment year or tax year by way of regular assessment and the Assessing Officer is of the opinion that such person is liable to pay advance estimated tax in the current tax year, he may require such person to pay advance estimated tax on the specified sum, calculated in the manner laid down in section 405, by an order in writing, and specifying the instalment or instalments in which such tax is to be paid, on or before the due date of any instalment specified in section 408 .

407.4.2 In Clause 407, Sub-section (4) may be redrafted to include reference to "in relation to the current tax year" for the sake of clarity. Section 407(4) may be redrafted as follows – (4) The Assessing Officer may amend the order referred to in sub-section (1), and may require such person to pay advance estimated tax on the specified sum, calculated in the manner laid down in section 405, in relation to the current tax year, if after passing an order under sub-section (1),— (a) a return of income is furnished by the assessee, under section 263 or in response to a notice under Section 268.

407.4.3 Advance tax" to be substituted with "Estimated tax". In subsection 1 and subsection 4reference to "current tax year" needs to be added for the sake of clarity. (1) Where a person has already been assessed for the total income of any assessment year or tax year by way of regular assessment and the Assessing Officer is of the opinion that such person is liable to pay advance estimated tax in the current tax year, he may require such person to pay advance estimated tax on the specified sum, calculated in the manner laid down in section (4) The Assessing Officer may amend the order referred to in sub-section (1), and may require such person to pay advance estimated tax on the specified sum, calculated in the manner laid down in section 405, in relation to the current tax year, if after passing an order under sub-section (1),— b) a regular assessment of the income is made in respect of a tax year later than the assessment referred to in sub-section (1), on or before the due date of any instalment specified in section 408.

407.4.4 A stakeholder has suggested that in Clause 407(9) replace “and” with “or”.

407.4.5 Clause 407 provides for issue of notice to an assesse for payment of advance tax. There is no need of this Clause as now all advance tax is paid voluntarily. There are enough safeguards to protect interest of revenue Practically no notices have been issued in last 5 years.

407.5.1 Examination by the Committee

407.5.1 With regard to suggestion on 407(1), the Department has submitted written reply as follows:-

> “The suggestion seeks to add the phrase “in the current tax year” in clause 407(1). It is in the nature of over-drafting. Sub-clause 407(1) has been simplified and it opens with reference to “total income of any tax year”. It is clear that the rest of the sentence is also referring to the same tax year. There is no requirement to overtly specify it again in the same sentence. It will make the reading of the sub-clause cumbersome. Thus, suggestion is not feasible”.

407.5.2 With regard to suggestion on 407(4), the Department has submitted written reply as follows:-

> “The suggestion seeks to add the phrase “in relation to the current tax year” in sub-clause 407(4). It is in the nature of over-drafting. Sub-clause 407(4) has been simplified and it refers to an order passed under sub-clause 407(1). Sub-clause 407(1) itself refers to an order passed for a tax year. It is clear that the rest of the sentence in sub-clause 407(4) is also referring to the same tax year.

There is no requirement to overtly specify it again in the same sentence. It will make the reading of the sub-clause cumbersome. Thus, suggestion is not feasible" .

407.5.3 With regard to Suggestion seeks to replace the word "advance tax" with "estimated tax", the Department has submitted written reply as follows:-

"Suggestion seeks to replace the word "advance tax" with "estimated tax". The request is in nature of drafting improvement. The term "advance tax" is more appropriate because tax is being paid in advance, before the tax year has ended. Replacing the word with term "estimated tax" will not lead to any tangible benefit and will create confusion which is avoidable. Thus, suggestion is not feasible"

407.5.4 With regard to drafting error in clause 407(9), the Department has submitted written reply as follows:-

"Accepted. The suggestion seeks to replace "and" with "or" in sub-clause 407(9). Drafting correction".

407.5.5 With regard to the above suggestion the Department in their written submission has stated as follows :

"The suggestion seeks to delete the clause 407 Payment of advance tax. It is in the nature of Policy Change which is outside the scope of the Bill.There is no change in the provisions of the Bill vis-a-vis Act. There are cases where a taxpayer may deliberately delay payment of advance tax for not so good reasons. In such situations, this saving provision becomes effective to protect interest of exchequer. Thus, the suggestion is not feasible."

407.5.5(a) During the sitting of the Committee on 10.06.2025 the representative of the Ministry furnished as under :

"…….. there is a provision regarding payment of advance tax that assessing officer can also determine that this is the advance tax liability and he can issue notice to the taxpayer that he should pay this advance tax. The suggestion is that this provision itself should be deleted because maybe it is not required as there are advance tax liabilities already in-built into that. But this is a special provision to take care of such situations where the taxpayer is dodging his advance tax liability for whatever reasons. So, this is a rarely used provision only in rarest of rare cases.

407.6 Observations/Recommendations of the Committee

The Committee observe that Clause 407 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 textually simplifies and retains the intent of Section 210 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, with no policy change, regarding payment of advance tax by assessee in pursuance of order of Assessing Officer. Further, the Committee notice that the Department of Revenue has accepted the drafting error concerning replacement of "and" with "or" in the sub-clause (9) in Clause 407. The Committee, therefore, recommend that this drafting correction be made in the Clause.

408.1 Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

(1) All the assessees who are liable to pay advance tax, other than the assessee referred to in sub-section (2), shall pay the same on the current income calculated in the manner laid down in section 405 in four instalments during each tax year and the due date of each instalment and the amount of such instalment shall be as specified in the Table below.Table

Sl. No.	Due date of instalment	Amount payable
A	B	C
1.	On or before the 15th June.	Not less than 15% of such advance tax.
2.	On or before the 15th September.	Not less than 45% of such advance tax, as reduced by the amount, if any, paid in the earlier instalment.
3.	On or before the 15th December.	Not less than 75% of such advance tax, as reduced by the amount or amounts, if any, paid in the earlier instalment or instalments.
4.	On or before the 15th March.	The whole amount of such advance tax, as reduced by the amount or amounts, if any, paid in the earlier instalment or instalments.

(2) An assessee, who declares profits and gains as per the provisions of section 58(2)(Table: Sl. No. 1 or 3), shall pay the whole amount of advance tax on the current income, calculated in the manner laid down in section 405 during each tax year, on or before the 15th March.(3) Any amount paid by way of advance tax on or before the 31st March, shall be treated as advance tax paid during the tax year ending on that day for all the purposes of this Act.

(1) Advance tax on the current income calculated in the manner laid down in section 209 shall be payable by—

(a) all the assessees, other than the assessee referred to in clause (b), who are liable to pay the same, in four instalments during each financial year and the due date of each instalment and the amount of such instalment shall be as specified in the Table below:

TABLE

Due date of instalment	Amount payable
On or before the 15th June	Not less than fifteen per cent of such advance tax.
On or before the 15th September	Not less than forty-five per cent of such advance tax, as reduced by the amount, if any, paid in the earlier instalment.
On or before the 15th December	Not less than seventy-five per cent of such advance tax, as reduced by the amount or amounts, if any, paid in the earlier instalment or instalments.
On or before the 15th March	The whole amount of such advance tax, as reduced by the amount or amounts, if any, paid in the earlier instalment or instalments;

(b) an assessee who declares profits and gains in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 44AD or sub-section (1) of section 44ADA, as the case may be, to the extent of the whole amount of such advance tax during each financial year on or before the 15th March:

Provided that any amount paid by way of advance tax on or before the 31st day of March shall also be treated as advance tax paid during the financial year ending on that day for all the purposes of this Act.(2) If the notice of demand issued under section 156 in pursuance of an order of the Assessing Officer under sub-section (3) or sub-section (4) of section 210 is served after any of the due dates specified in sub-section (1), the appropriate part or, as the case may be, the whole of the amount of the advance tax specified in such notice shall be payable on or before each of such of those dates as fall after the date of service of the notice of demand.

408.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Department of Finance for the proposed provision

Clause 408 of the Bill provides for instalments of advance tax and due dates.Clause 408 of the Bill corresponds to Section 211 of the Act. There is no policychange. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause.

408.4 Examination by the Committee

In reply to a specific query on changes(addition or omission or replacement of words etc.), if any, between the provisions of the Clause and existing Section, the Department of Revenue furnished the following reply:

“The Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of the IT Act, 1961. “

408.5 Observations/Recommendations of the Committee

The Committee note that Clause 408, which outlines the installments of advance tax and due dates, aligns with Section 211 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee concurs with the Department's justification for retaining this clause with the same intent, incorporating only textual simplification. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause in its current form.

Clause 409. When assessee is considered to be in default.

409.1 Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

A person shall be deemed to be an assessee in default, if such person—(a) does not pay on the date specified in section 408, any instalment of the advance tax that he is required to pay by an order of the Assessing Officer under section 407(1) and (4); or(b) does not send to the Assessing Officer an intimation under section 407(8) on or before the date on which any such instalment as is not paid becomes due; or (c) does not pay on the basis of his estimate of his current income, the advance tax payable by him under section 407(9),in respect of such instalments.

218. If any assessee does not pay on the date specified in sub-section (1) of section 211, any instalment of the advance tax that he is required to pay by an order of the Assessing Officer under sub-section (3) or sub-section (4) of section 210 and does not, on or before the date on which any such instalment as is not paid becomes due, send to the Assessing Officer an intimation under sub-section (5) of section 210 or does not pay on the basis of his estimate of his current income the advance tax payable by him under sub-section (6) of section 210, he shall be deemed to be an assessee in default in respect of such instalment or instalments.

409.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Department of Finance for the proposed provision

Clause 409 of the Bill provides for the condition when assessee is deemed to be in default. Clause 409 of the Bill corresponds to Section 218 of the Act. There is nopolicy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause.

409.5 Examination by the Committee

The margin title of clause 409 seems wrongly mentioned as “when assessee is considered to be in default” rather than “When assessee is deemed to be in default” as per arrangement of clauses and clause 409. When asked by the Committee, the Department has accepted the drafting correction.

409.6 Observations/Recommendations of the Committee

Clause 409 prescribes condition when assessee is deemed to be in default, aligns with Section 218 of the existing Act. From the justification submitted by the Department of Revenue, the Committee observe that no policy change has been proposed in this Clause. Only textual simplification has been carried out while retaining the intent. However, the Committee find an error in the margin title of Clause 409, which incorrectly states "when assessee is considered to be in default" instead of "When assessee is deemed to be in default." The Department has acknowledged and accepted this drafting error. Therefore, the Committee recommend that this specific drafting correction be made in Clause 409. Apart from this drafting correction, the Committee approve the Clause 409 as proposed.

410.1 Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

Any sum, other than a penalty or interest, paid by or recovered from an assessee as advance tax in pursuance of this Part shall be treated as a payment of tax in respect of the income of the tax year in which it was payable, and credit therefor shall be given to the assessee in the regular assessment.

Any sum, other than a penalty or interest, paid by or recovered from an assessee as advance tax in pursuance of this Chapter shall be treated as a payment of tax in respect of the income of the period which would be the previous year for an assessment for the assessment year next following the financial year in which it was payable, and credit therefor shall be given to the assessee in the regular assessment.

410.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Department of Finance for the proposed provision

Clause 410 of the Bill provides the provisions relating to credit for advance tax.Clause 410 of the Bill corresponds to Section 219 of the Act. There is no policychange. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified andretained with the same intent in this clause.

410.4 Important views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders

The word “therefor” is to be replaced with “thereof”.

410.5 Examination by the Committee

With regard to the above suggestion the Department in their written submission has stated as follows:

“There is no change in the provision of the Bill vis-à-vis the Act so word ’therefor’ is retained. “

410.6 Observations/Recommendations of the Committee

The Committee observe that Clause 410 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 textually simplifies and retains the intent of Section 219 of the Act regarding credit for advance tax. Noting that there is no policy change in this regard and having after considered the views of the stakeholders as well as the response of the Department, the Committee accept Clause 410 as proposed.

D.—Collection and Recovery

Clause 411 When tax payable and when assessee deemed in default.

411.1 Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

(1) Any amount, otherwise than by way of advance tax, specified as payable in a notice of demand under section 289 at the place and to the person mentioned in the notice shall be paid within—(a) thirty days of the service of the notice; or (b) such lesser period, as specified in the notice with the previous approval of the Joint Commissioner, where the Assessing Officer has any reason to believe that it shall be detrimental to revenue if the full period of thirty days is allowed.(2) Where any notice of demand has been served upon an assessee and any appeal or other proceeding, as the case may be, is filed or initiated in respect of the amount specified in the said notice of demand, then—(a) such demand shall be deemed to be valid till the disposal of the appeal by the last appellate authority or disposal of the proceedings; and (b) any such notice of demand shall have the effect as specified in section 3 of the Taxation Laws (Continuation and Validation of Recovery Proceedings) Act, 1964.(3) If the amount specified in any notice of demand under section 289 is not paid within the period limited under sub-section (1),—(a) theassessee shall be liable to pay simple interest at 1% for every month or part of a month; and(b) such period shall commence from the day immediately following the end of the period mentioned in sub-section (1) and end with the day on which the amount is paid.(4) No interest shall be charged under sub-section (3) on any amount for any period, where interest is charged on the same amount for the same period under section 398(3) on the amount of tax specified in the intimation issued under section 399.(5) Nothing contained in sub-section (3) shall prevent the Assessing Officer,where an application is made by the assessee before the expiry of the due date under sub-section (1), to extend the time for payment or allow payment by instalments, subject to such conditions as he may think fit to impose in the circumstances of the case.(6) Where as a result of an order under section 287 or 288 or 359 or 363 or 365(10) or 368 or 378 or an order of the Settlement Commission under section 245D (4) of the Income-tax Act, 1961,—(a) the amount on which interest was payable under sub-section (3) had been reduced, the interest shall be reduced accordingly and the excess interest paid, if any, shall be refunded; and(b) if subsequent to such reduction, as a result of an order under said sections or section 377, the amount on which interest was payable is increased, the assessee shall be liable to pay interest under sub-section (3),—(i) from the day immediately following the end of the period mentioned in the first notice of demand, referred to in sub-section (1); and(ii) ending with the day on which the amount is paid.(7) In respect of any period commencing on or before the 31st March, 1989 and ending after that date, interest under sub-section (3) shall, in respect of so much of such period as falls after that date, be calculated at the rate of 1.5% for every month or part of a month.(8) Irrespective of the provisions contained in sub-section (3), the Principal Chief Commissioner or Chief Commissioner or Principal Commissioner or Commissioner may, on an application by the assessee, reduce or waive the amount of interest paid or payable by an assessee under sub-section (3) if he is satisfied that—(a) payment of such amount has caused or would cause genuine hardship to the assessee;(b) default in the payment of the amount on which interest has been paid or was payable under the said sub-section was due to circumstances beyond the control of the assessee; and(c) theassessee has co-operated in any inquiry relating to the assessment or any proceeding for the recovery of any amount due from him.(9) The order under sub-section (8) accepting or rejecting the application of the assessee, either in full or in part, shall be passed within twelve months from the end of the month in which the application is received.(10) No order under sub-section (8) rejecting the application, either in full or in part, shall be passed unless the assessee has been given an opportunity of being heard.(11) If the amount is not paid within the specified time under sub-section (1) or extended under sub-section (5), at the place and to the person mentioned in the said notice, the assessee shall be deemed to be in default.(12) If, in a case where payment by instalments is allowed under sub-section (5), the assessee commits defaults in paying any one of the instalments within the time fixed under that sub-section,—(a) the assessee shall be deemed to be in default as to the whole of the amount then outstanding; and (b) the other instalment or instalments shall be deemed to have been due on the same date as the instalment actually in default.(13) Where an assessee has presented an appeal under section 356 or 357 the Assessing Officer may, in his discretion and subject to such conditions as he may think fit to impose in the circumstances of the case, treat the assessee as not being in default in respect of the amount in dispute in the appeal, even though the time for payment has expired, till the time such appeal remains undisposed of.(14) Where an assessee has been assessed in respect of income arising outside India in a country the laws of which prohibit or restrict the remittance of money to India, the Assessing Officer shall— (a) not treat the assessee as in default in respect of that part of the tax which is due in respect of that amount of his income which, by reason of such prohibition or restriction, cannot be brought into India; and (b) continue to treat the assessee as not in default in respect of such part of the tax until the prohibition or restriction is removed.(15) For the purposes of sub-section (14), income shall be deemed to have been brought into India, if—(a) it has been utilised or could have been utilised for the purposes of any expenditure actually incurred by the assessee outside India; or (b) the income, whether capitalised or not, has been brought into India in any form.

(1) Any amount, otherwise than by way of advance tax, specified as payable in a notice of demand under section 156 shall be paid within thirty days of the service of the notice at the place and to the person mentioned in the notice :Provided that, where the Assessing Officer has any reason to believe that it will be detrimental to revenue if the full period of thirty days aforesaid is allowed, he may, with the previous approval of the Joint Commissioner, direct that the sum specified in the notice of demand shall be paid within such period being a period less than the period of thirty days aforesaid, as may be specified by him in the notice of demand.(1A) Where any notice of demand has been served upon an assessee and any appeal or other proceeding, as the case may be, is filed or initiated in respect of the amount specified in the said notice of demand, then, such demand shall be deemed to be valid till the disposal of the appeal by the last appellate authority or disposal of the proceedings, as the case may be, and any such notice of demand shall have the effect as specified in section 3 of the Taxation Laws (Continuation and Validation of Recovery Proceedings) Act, 1964 (11 of 1964).(2) If the amount specified in any notice of demand under section 156 is not paid within the period limited under sub-section (1), the assessee shall be liable to pay simple interest at one per cent for every month or part of a month comprised in the period commencing from the day immediately following the end of the period mentioned in sub-section (1) and ending with the day on which the amount is paid:Provided that, where as a result of an order under section 154, or section 155, or section 250, or section 254, or section 260, or section 262, or section 264 or an order of the Settlement Commission under sub-section (4) of section 245D, the amount on which interest was payable under this section had been reduced, the interest shall be reduced accordingly and the excess interest paid, if any, shall be refunded :Provided further that where as a result of an order under sections specified in the first proviso, the amount on which interest was payable under this section had been reduced and subsequently as a result of an order under said sections or section 263, the amount on which interest was payable under this section is increased, the assessee shall be liable to pay interest under sub-section (2) from the day immediately following the end of the period mentioned in the first notice of demand, referred to in sub-section (1) and ending with the day on which the amount is paid:Provided also that in respect of any period commencing on or before the 31st day of March, 1989 and ending after that date, such interest shall, in respect of so much of such period as falls after that date, be calculated at the rate of one and one-half per cent for every month or part of a month.(2A) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2), the Principal Chief Commissioner or Chief Commissioner or Principal Commissioner or Commissioner may reduce or waive the amount of interest paid or payable by an assessee under the said sub-section if he is satisfied that—

i) payment of such amount has caused or would cause genuine hardship to the assessee ;

ii) default in the payment of the amount on which interest has been paid or was payable under the said sub-section was due to circumstances beyond the control of the assessee ; and

iii) the assessee has co-operated in any inquiry relating to the assessment or any proceeding for the recovery of any amount due from him:

Provided that the order accepting or rejecting the application of the assessee, either in full or in part, shall be passed within a period of twelve months from the end of the month in which the application is received:Provided further that no order rejecting the application, either in full or in part, shall be passed unless the assessee has been given an opportunity of being heard:Provided also that where any application is pending as on the 1st day of June, 2016, the order shall be passed on or before the 31st day of May, 2017.(2B) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2), where interest is charged under sub-section (1A) of section 201 on the amount of tax specified in the intimation issued under sub-section (1) of section 200A for any period, then, no interest shall be charged under sub-section (2) on the same amount for the same period.(2C) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2), where interest is charged under sub-section (7) of section 206C on the amount of tax specified in the intimation issued under sub-section (1) of section 206CB for any period, then, no interest shall be charged under sub-section (2) on the same amount for the same period.(3) Without prejudice to the provisions contained in sub-section (2), on an application made by the assessee before the expiry of the due date under sub-section (1), the Assessing Officer may extend the time for payment or allow payment by instalments, subject to such conditions as he may think fit to impose in the circumstances of the case.(4) If the amount is not paid within the time limited under sub-section (1) or extended under sub-section (3), as the case may be, at the place and to the person mentioned in the said notice the assessee shall be deemed to be in default.(5) If, in a case where payment by instalments is allowed under sub-section (3), the assessee commits defaults in paying any one of the instalments within the time fixed under that sub-section, the assessee shall be deemed to be in default as to the whole of the amount then outstanding, and the other instalment or instalments shall be deemed to have been due on the same date as the instalment actually in default.(6) Where an assessee has presented an appeal under section 246 or section 246A the Assessing Officer may, in his discretion and subject to such conditions as he may think fit to impose in the circumstances of the case, treat the assessee as not being in default in respect of the amount in dispute in the appeal, even though the time for payment has expired, as long as such appeal remains undisposed of.(7) Where an assessee has been assessed in respect of income arising outside India in a country the laws of which prohibit or restrict the remittance of money to India, the Assessing Officer shall not treat the assessee as in default in respect of that part of the tax which is due in respect of that amount of his income which, by reason of such prohibition or restriction, cannot be brought into India, and shall continue to treat the assessee as not in default in respect of such part of the tax until the prohibition or restriction is removed.Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, income shall be deemed to have been brought into India if it has been utilised or could have been utilised for the purposes of any expenditure actually incurred by the assessee outside India or if the income, whether capitalised or not, has been brought into India in any form.

411.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Department of Finance for the proposed provision

Clause 411 of the Bill provides the provisions that when tax payable and when assessee deemed in default. Clause 411 of the Bill corresponds to Section 220 of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section havebeen textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause.

411.4 Important views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders

The opening portion of Section 411(1) may be reworded as follows:-Any amount, otherwise, than by way of advance tax, specified as payable in a notice of demand under section 289 at the place and to the person mentioned in the notice shall be paid within – (11) If the amount is not paid within the specified time under sub-section (1) or extended under sub-section (5), at the place and to the person mentioned in the said notice, the assessee shall be deemed to be in default. The words, “at the place, may be removed because tax is not paid at a place but mostly paid online or in bank. Section 411(11) also to be amended similar to Section 411(1).

411.5 Examination by the Committee

With regard to the above suggestion the Department in their written submission has stated as follows ;

“Demand other than advance tax is required to be paid at place and to person specified in the notice. The suggestion seeks to remove the phrase "at the place".

The suggestion is in nature of drafting correction.

The phrase "at the place" needs to be retained as there are non-residents in shipping business who are required to discharge their tax liabilities before the ship departs from any port in India. There are other cases also where a non-resident leaving India may be asked to discharge tax liabilities at a particular place. Further, there are taxpayers including senior citizens who are not well versed with the digital technology and who still make payments over-the-counter at select Authorised Banks branches. It may be noted that online challan payment is not the only mode of tax payment and offline payments are also accepted at designated bank branches. Suggestion rationale itself uses the phrase "tax is not paid at a place but mostly paid online", so it can not be said for certainty that all tax payments are being made online. Besides, dropping the phrase "at the place" will not lead to any tangible benefit and will create undue hardship. Thus, suggestion is not feasible. “

411.6 Observations/Recommendations of the Committee

The Committee has examined Clause 411 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025, which addresses the credit for advance tax. They observe that this clause textually simplifies Section 219 of the existing Act while maintaining its original intent. No policy change is introduced in this provision. The reference of the repealed Act viz. Income-Tax Act, 1961 may be removed from sub-clause (6) of Clause 411 and incorporated in Clause 536 which provides for Repeals and Savings. After having considered feedback from stakeholders and the Department's response, the Committee concur with the views of the Department and accept Clause 411 subject to the above drafting corrections.

412.1 Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

412.(1) When an assessee is in default or is deemed to be in default in making a payment of tax, he shall, in addition to the amount of the arrears and the amount of interest payable under section 411(3), be liable, by way of penalty, to pay—(a) such amount as the Assessing Officer may direct; and (b) in the case of a continuing default, such further amount or amounts as the Assessing Officer may, from time to time, direct.(2) The total amount of penalty under sub-section (1) shall not exceed the amount of tax in arrears.(3) No penalty under sub-section (1) shall be levied—(a) unless the assessee has been given a reasonable opportunity of being heard; and(b) where the assessee proves to the satisfaction of the Assessing Officer that the default was for good and sufficient reasons.(4) The assessee shall not cease to be liable to any penalty under sub-section (1) merely by reason of the fact that before the levy of such penalty he has paid the tax.(5) Where as a result of any final order the amount of tax, with respect to the default in the payment of which the penalty was levied, has been wholly reduced, the penalty levied shall be cancelled and the amount of penalty paid shall be refunded.

221. (1) When an assessee is in default or is deemed to be in default in making a payment of tax, he shall, in addition to the amount of the arrears and the amount of interest payable under sub-section (2) of section 220, be liable, by way of penalty, to pay such amount as the Assessing Officer may direct, and in the case of a continuing default, such further amount or amounts as the Assessing Officer may, from time to time, direct, so, however, that the total amount of penalty does not exceed the amount of tax in arrears :Provided that before levying any such penalty, the assessee shall be given a reasonable opportunity of being heard :Provided further that where the assessee proves to the satisfaction of the Assessing Officer that the default was for good and sufficient reasons, no penalty shall be levied under this section.Explanation.—For the removal of doubt, it is hereby declared that an assessee shall not cease to be liable to any penalty under this sub-section merely by reason of the fact that before the levy of such penalty he has paid the tax.(2) Where as a result of any final order the amount of tax, with respect to the default in the payment of which the penalty was levied, has been wholly reduced, the penalty levied shall be cancelled and the amount of penalty paid shall be refunded.

412.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Department of Finance for the proposed provision

Clause 412 of the Bill provides for penalty payable when tax in default. Clause 412of the Bill corresponds to Section 221 of the Act. There is no policy change. Theprovisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained withthe same intent in this clause.

412.4 Examination by the Committee

In reply to a specific query on changes(addition or omission or replacement of words etc.), if any, between the provisions of the Clause and existing Section, the Department of Revenue furnished the following reply:

“The Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of the IT Act, 1961. “

412.5 Observations/Recommendations of the Committee

The Committee note that Clause 412, corresponding to Section 221 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, seeks to provide for penalty payable when tax in default. Recognizing textual simplification, no policy change and retaining original intent in this Clause, the Committee accept the Clause as proposed by the Department of Revenue.

413.1 Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

413.(1) When an assessee is in default or is deemed to be in default in making a payment of tax, the Tax Recovery Officer may draw up under his signature a statement in such form as prescribed specifying the amount of arrears due from the assessee (such statement being hereafter referred to as "certificate") and shall proceed to recover from such assessee the amount specified in the certificate by one or more of the modes mentioned below, as per the rules prescribed in this regard,—(a)attachment and sale of movable property of the assessee;(b) attachment and sale of immovable property of the assessee;(c) arrest of the assessee and his detention in prison;(d) appointing a receiver for the management of movable and immovable properties of the assessee. (2) The Tax Recovery Officer may take action under sub-section (1), whether or not proceedings for recovery of the arrears by any other mode have been taken. (3) The assessee shall not be entitled to dispute the correctness of any certificate drawn up by the Tax Recovery Officer on any ground. (4) The Tax Recovery Officer may cancel the certificate if, for any reason, he considers it necessary so to do, or may correct any clerical or arithmetical mistake therein.(5) In this section, the movable or immovable property of the assesseeshall include any property—(a) which has been transferred, directly or indirectly on or after the 1st June, 1973, by the assessee to his spouse or minor child or son's wife or son's minor child, otherwise than for adequate consideration, and which is held by, or stands in the name of, any of the said persons; and(b) so far as the movable or immovable property so transferred to his minor child or his son's minor child is concerned, it shall, even after the date of attainment of majority by such minor child or son's minor child, as the case may be, continue to be included in the movable or immovable property of the assessee for recovering any arrears due from the assessee in respect of any period prior to such date.

Certificate to Tax Recovery Officer.

222. (1) When an assessee is in default or is deemed to be in default in making a payment of tax, the Tax Recovery Officer may draw up under his signature a statement in the prescribed form specifying the amount of arrears due from the assessee (such statement being hereafter in this Chapter and in the Second Schedule referred to as "certificate") and shall proceed to recover from such assessee the amount specified in the certificate by one or more of the modes mentioned below, in accordance with the rules laid down in the Second Schedule—

a) attachment and sale of the assessee's movable property;

b) attachment and sale of the assessee's immovable property;

c) arrest of the assessee and his detention in prison;

d) appointing a receiver for the management of the assessee's movable and immovable properties.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this sub-section, the assessee's movable or immovable property shall include any property which has been transferred, directly or indirectly on or after the 1st day of June, 1973, by the assessee to his spouse or minor child or son's wife or son's minor child, otherwise than for adequate consideration, and which is held by, or stands in the name of, any of the persons aforesaid; and so far as the movable or immovable property so transferred to his minor child or his son's minor child is concerned, it shall, even after the date of attainment of majority by such minor child or son's minor child, as the case may be, continue to be included in the assessee's movable or immovable property for recovering any arrears due from the assessee in respect of any period prior to such date.(2) The Tax Recovery Officer may take action under sub-section (1), notwithstanding that proceedings for recovery of the arrears by any other mode have been taken.

413.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Department of Finance for the proposed provision Clause 413 of the Bill deals with provisions for certificate by Tax Recovery Officer and Validity thereof. Clause 413 of the Bill corresponds to Section 222 of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause.

413.4 Examination by the Committee

In reply to a specific query on changes(addition or omission or replacement of words etc.), if any, between the provisions of the Clause and existing Section, the Department of Revenue furnished the following reply:

“The Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of the IT Act, 1961. “

Observartions/Recommendations of the Committee

The Committee note that Clause 413 of the Income-Tax Bill 2025, mirroring Section 222 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, deals with provisions for certificate by Tax Recovery Officer and Validity thereof. The Committee further note that, beyond textual simplification, no policy change has been introduced in the provisions of this Clause. They, therefore, approve Clause 413 as proposed by the Department.

Clause 414 Tax Recovery Officer by whom recovery is to be effected.

414.1 Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

. (1) For the purposes of section 413, the Tax Recovery Officer shall be—(a) the Tax Recovery Officer within whose jurisdiction the assessee carries on his business or profession or has the principal place of his business or profession; or(b) the Tax Recovery Officer within whose jurisdiction the assessee resides or any of his movable or immovable property is situated, the jurisdiction for this purpose being the jurisdiction assigned to the Tax Recovery Officer under the orders or directions issued by the Board, or by any income-tax authority not below the rank of Commissioner who is authorised in this behalf by the Board in pursuance of section 241.(2) Where an assessee has property within the jurisdiction of more than one Tax Recovery Officer and the Tax Recovery Officer by whom the certificate is drawn up—(a) is not able to recover the entire amount by sale of the property, movable or immovable, within his jurisdiction; or(b) is of the opinion that, for the purpose of expediting or securing the recovery of the whole or any part of the amount under this Part, it is necessary so to do,he may send—(i) the certificate; or(ii) a copy of the certificate certified in the manner as prescribed and specifying the amount to be recovered, where only a part of the amount is to be recovered, to a Tax Recovery Officer referred to in sub-section (1)(b) and, thereupon, such officer shall also proceed to recover the amount under this Part as if the certificate or copy thereof had been drawn up by him.

Tax Recovery Officer by whom recovery is to be effected.

223. (1) The Tax Recovery Officer competent to take action under section 222 shall be—

(a) the Tax Recovery Officer within whose jurisdiction the assessee carries on his business or profession or within whose jurisdiction the principal place of his business or profession is situate, or

(b) the Tax Recovery Officer within whose jurisdiction the assessee resides or any movable or immovable property of the assessee is situate, the jurisdiction for this purpose being the jurisdiction assigned to the Tax Recovery Officer under the orders or directions issued by the Board, or by the Principal Chief Commissioner or Chief Commissioner or Principal Commissioner or Commissioner who is authorised in this behalf by the Board in pursuance of section 120.(2) Where an assessee has property within the jurisdiction of more than one Tax Recovery Officer and the Tax Recovery Officer by whom the certificate is drawn up—

(a) is not able to recover the entire amount by sale of the property, movable or immovable, within his jurisdiction, or

(b) is of the opinion that, for the purpose of expediting or securing the recovery of the whole or any part of the amount under this Chapter, it is necessary so to do, he may send the certificate or, where only a part of the amount is to be recovered, a copy of the certificate certified in the prescribed manner and specifying the amount to be recovered to a Tax Recovery Officer within whose jurisdiction the assessee resides or has property and, thereupon, that Tax Recovery Officer shall also proceed to recover the amount under this Chapter as if the certificate or copy thereof had been drawn up by him.

414.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Department of Finance for the proposed provision

Clause 414 of the Bill deals with provisions for the Tax Recovery Officer by whom recovery is to be effected. Clause 414 of the Bill corresponds to Section 223 of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause. In place of words “by the Principal Chief Commissioner or Chief Commissioner or Principal Commissioner or Commissioner”, the words “by an income-tax authority not below the rank of Commissioner” for simplification.

414.4 Examination by the Committee

In reply to a specific query on changes(addition or omission or replacement of words etc.), if any, between the provisions of the Clause and existing Section, the Department of Revenue furnished the following reply:

“The Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of the IT Act, 1961. “

414,5 Observations/Recommendations of the Committee

The Committee note that Clause 414 of the Bill dealing with provisions for the Tax Recovery Officer by whom recovery is to be effected, aims to simplify the existing provisions of Section 223 of the current Act with no policy change. In place of words "by the Principal Chief Commissioner or Chief Commissioner or Principal Commissioner or Commissioner", the words "by an income-tax authority not below the rank of Commissioner" have been substituted for simplification. The Committee, therefore, accept Clause 414 as proposed as it meets its objectives.

415.1 Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

415.(1) The Tax Recovery Officer may grant time for the payment of any tax and, till the expiry of such time, shall stay the recovery proceedings for such tax.(2) Where a certificate has been drawn up and subsequently, the amount of the outstanding demand is reduced as a result of an appeal or other proceeding under this Act, the Tax Recovery Officer shall—(a) if the order is the subject-matter of further proceeding under this Act, stay the recovery of such part of the amount specified in the certificate as pertains to the said reduction for the period for which the appeal or other proceeding remains pending; or(b) if the order which was the subject-matter of such appeal or other proceeding has become final and conclusive, amend the certificate, or cancel it.

Validity of certificate and cancellation or amendment thereof.

224. It shall not be open to the assessee to dispute the correctness of any certificate drawn up by the Tax Recovery Officer on any ground whatsoever, but it shall be lawful for the Tax Recovery Officer to cancel the certificate if, for any reason, he thinks it necessary so to do, or to correct any clerical or arithmetical mistake therein.Stay of proceedings in pursuance of certificate and amendment or cancellation thereof.225. (1) It shall be lawful for the Tax Recovery Officer to grant time for the payment of any tax and when he does so, he shall stay the proceedings for the recovery of such tax until the expiry of the time so granted.(2) Where the order giving rise to a demand of tax for which a certificate has been drawn up is modified in appeal or other proceeding under this Act, and, as a consequence thereof, the demand is reduced but the order is the subject-matter of further proceeding under this Act, the Tax Recovery Officer shall stay the recovery of such part of the amount specified in the certificate as pertains to the said reduction for the period for which the appeal or other proceeding remains pending.(3) Where a certificate has been drawn up and subsequently the amount of the outstanding demand is reduced as a result of an appeal or other proceeding under this Act, the Tax Recovery Officer shall, when the order which was the subject-matter of such appeal or other proceeding has become final and conclusive, amend the certificate, or cancel it, as the case may be.

415.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Department of Finance for the proposed provision

Clause 415 of the Bill provides for Stay of proceedings in pursuance of certificateand amendment or cancellation thereof Clause 415 of the Bill corresponds toSection 224 and section 225 of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause.

415.4 Examination by the Committee

In reply to a specific query on changes (addition or omission or replacement of words etc.), if any, between the provisions of the Clause and existing Section, the Department of Revenue furnished the following reply:

“The Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of the IT Act, 1961. “

415.5 Observations/Recommendations of the Committee

The Committee note that Clause 415 provides for stay of proceedings in pursuance of certificate and amendment or cancellation thereof, aligns with the existing Section 225 and involves no policy shift. They, therefore, accept Clause 415 as proposed by the Department of Revenue.

416.1 Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

(1) Where no certificate has been drawn up under section 413, the Assessing Officer may recover the tax by any one or more of the modes provided in this section.(2) Where a certificate has been drawn up under section 413, the Tax Recovery Officer may, without prejudice to the modes of recovery specified in that section, recover the tax by any one or more of the modes provided in this section.(3) If any assessee is in receipt of any income chargeable under the head “Salaries”, the Assessing Officer or Tax Recovery Officer may require any person paying the same to deduct from any payment subsequent to the date of such requisition any arrears of tax due from such assessee and such person shall comply with the said requisition and shall pay the sum so deducted to the credit of the Central Government or as the Board directs.(4) Nothing contained in sub-section (3) shall apply to any part of the salary exempted from attachment in execution of a decree of a civil court under section 60 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908.5. (a) The Assessing Officer or Tax Recovery Officer may, at any time or from time to time, by notice in writing require any person—(i) from whom money is due or may become due to the assessee; or (ii) who holds or may subsequently hold money for or on account of the assessee, to pay to the Assessing Officer or Tax Recovery Officer—(I) either forthwith upon the money becoming due or being held; or(II) at or within the time specified in the notice (not being before the money becomes due or is held),so much of the money as is sufficient to pay the amount due by the assessee in respect of arrears or the whole of the money when it is equal to or less than that amount;(b) A notice under this sub-section may be issued to any person who holds or may subsequently hold any money for or on account of the assessee jointly with any other person;(c) For the purposes of this sub-section, the shares of the joint holders in the account, as referred in clause (b), shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, to be equal;(d) A copy of the notice under this sub-section shall be forwarded to— (i) the assessee; and(ii) in the case of a joint account to all the joint holders, at his or their last addresses known to the Assessing Officer or Tax Recovery Officer;(e) Save as otherwise provided in this sub-section, every person to whom a notice is issued under that sub-section shall be bound to comply with such notice, and, in particular, where any such notice is issued to a post office, banking company or an insurer, it shall not be necessary for any pass book, deposit receipt, policy or any other document to be produced for the purpose of any entry, endorsement or the like being made before payment is made, irrespective of any rule, practice or requirement to the contrary;(f) Any claim respecting any property in relation to which a notice under thissub-section has been issued arising after the date of the notice shall be void as against any demand contained in the notice;(g) Where a person, to whom a notice under thissub-section is issued, objects to it by a statement on oath that— (a) the sum demanded or any part thereof is not due to the assessee; or (b) he does not hold any money for or on account of the assessee, then nothing contained in that sub-section shall be deemed to require such person to pay any such sum or part thereof;(h) Where it is discovered that the statement under was false in any material particular, such person shall be personally liable to the Assessing Officer or Tax Recovery Officer to the extent of his own liability to the assessee on the date of the notice, or to the extent of the assessee's liability for any sum due under this Act, whichever is less;(i) The Assessing Officer or Tax Recovery Officer may, at any time or from time to time, amend or revoke any notice issued under this sub-section or extend the time for making any payment in pursuance of a notice issued under the said sub-section;(j) The Assessing Officer or Tax Recovery Officer shall grant a receipt for any amount paid in compliance with a notice issued under this sub-section, and the person so paying shall be fully discharged from his liability to the assessee to the extent of the amount so paid;(k) Any person discharging any liability to the assessee after receipt of a notice under thissub-section shall be personally liable to the Assessing Officer or the Tax Recovery Officer— (i)to the extent of his own liability to the assessee so discharged; or (ii) to the extent of the assessee's liability for any sum due under this Act,whichever is less.(l) If the person to whom a notice under thissub-section is issued fails to make payment in pursuance thereof to the Assessing Officer or Tax Recovery Officer,—(i)he shall be deemed to be an assessee in default in respect of the amount specified in the notice and further proceedings may be taken against him for the realisation of the amount as if it were an arrear of tax due from him, in the manner provided in sections 413 to 415; and (ii) the notice shall have the same effect as an attachmentof a debt by the Tax Recovery Officer in exercise ofhis powers under section 413.(6) The Assessing Officer or Tax Recovery Officer may apply to the court in whose custody there is money belonging to the assessee—(a) for payment to him of the entire amount of such money; or(b) if it is more than the tax due, an amount sufficient to discharge the tax.(7) The Assessing Officer or Tax Recovery Officer may, if so authorised by an income-tax authority not below the rank of commissioner by general or special order, recover any arrears of tax due from an assessee by distraint and sale of his movable property in the manner as prescribed.

Other modes of recovery

226. (1) Where no certificate has been drawn up under section 222, the Assessing Officer may recover the tax by any one or more of the modes provided in this section.(1A) Where a certificate has been drawn up under section 222, the Tax Recovery Officer may, without prejudice to the modes of recovery specified in that section, recover the tax by any one or more of the modes provided in this section.(2) If any assessee is in receipt of any income chargeable under the head "Salaries", the Assessing Officer or Tax Recovery Officer may require any person paying the same to deduct from any payment subsequent to the date of such requisition any arrears of tax due from such assessee, and such person shall comply with any such requisition and shall pay the sum so deducted to the credit of the Central Government or as the Board directs :Provided that any part of the salary exempt from attachment in execution of a decree of a civil court under section 60 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908), shall be exempt from any requisition made under this sub-section.(3) (i) The Assessing Officer or Tax Recovery Officer may, at any time or from time to time, by notice in writing require any person from whom money is due or may become due to the assessee or any person who holds or may subsequently hold money for or on account of the assessee to pay to the Assessing Officer or Tax Recovery Officer either forthwith upon the money becoming due or being held or at or within the time specified in the notice (not being before the money becomes due or is held) so much of the money as is sufficient to pay the amount due by the assessee in respect of arrears or the whole of the money when it is equal to or less than that amount.(ii) A notice under this sub-section may be issued to any person who holds or may subsequently hold any money for or on account of the assessee jointly with any other person and for the purposes of this sub-section, the shares of the joint holders in such account shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, to be equal.(iii) A copy of the notice shall be forwarded to the assessee at his last address known to the Assessing Officer or Tax Recovery Officer, and in the case of a joint account to all the joint holders at their last addresses known to the Assessing Officer or Tax Recovery Officer.(iv) Save as otherwise provided in this sub-section, every person to whom a notice is issued under this sub-section shall be bound to comply with such notice, and, in particular, where any such notice is issued to a post office, banking company or an insurer, it shall not be necessary for any pass book, deposit receipt, policy or any other document to be produced for the purpose of any entry, endorsement or the like being made before payment is made, notwithstanding any rule, practice or requirement to the contrary.(v) Any claim respecting any property in relation to which a notice under this sub-section has been issued arising after the date of the notice shall be void as against any demand contained in the notice.(vi) Where a person to whom a notice under this sub-section is sent objects to it by a statement on oath that the sum demanded or any part thereof is not due to the assessee or that he does not hold any money for or on account of the assessee, then nothing contained in this sub-section shall be deemed to require such person to pay any such sum or part thereof, as the case may be, but if it is discovered that such statement was false in any material particular, such person shall be personally liable to the Assessing Officer or Tax Recovery Officer to the extent of his own liability to the assessee on the date of the notice, or to the extent of the assessee's liability for any sum due under this Act, whichever is less.(vii) The Assessing Officer or Tax Recovery Officer may, at any time or from time to time, amend or revoke any notice issued under this sub-section or extend the time for making any payment in pursuance of such notice.(viii) The Assessing Officer or Tax Recovery Officer shall grant a receipt for any amount paid in compliance with a notice issued under this sub-section, and the person so paying shall be fully discharged from his liability to the assessee to the extent of the amount so paid.(ix) Any person discharging any liability to the assessee after receipt of a notice under this sub-section shall be personally liable to the Assessing Officer or Tax Recovery Officer to the extent of his own liability to the assessee so discharged or to the extent of the assessee's liability for any sum due under this Act, whichever is less.(x) If the person to whom a notice under this sub-section is sent fails to make payment in pursuance thereof to the Assessing Officer or Tax Recovery Officer, he shall be deemed to be an assessee in default in respect of the amount specified in the notice and further proceedings may be taken against him for the realisation of the amount as if it were an arrear of tax due from him, in the manner provided in sections 222 to 225 and the notice shall have the same effect as an attachment of a debt by the Tax Recovery Officer in exercise of his powers under section 222.(4) The Assessing Officer or Tax Recovery Officer may apply to the court in whose custody there is money belonging to the assessee for payment to him of the entire amount of such money, or, if it is more than the tax due, an amount sufficient to discharge the tax.(5) The Assessing Officer or Tax Recovery Officer may, if soauthorised by the Principal Chief Commissioner or Chief Commissioner or Principal Commissioner or Commissioner by general or special order, recover any arrears of tax due from an assessee by distraint and sale of his movable property in the manner laid down in the Third Schedule.

416.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Department of Finance for the proposed provision

Clause 416 of the Bill provides for other modes of recovery. Clause 416 of the Bill corresponds to Section 226 of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause. In place of words “by the Principal Chief Commissioner or Chief Commissioner or Principal Commissioner or Commissioner”, the words “byan income-tax authority not below the rank of Commissioner” for simplification.

416.4 Important views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders

In sub-section (5)(h), reference to statement under “(g) above” is missing and needs to be included.

416.5 Examination by the Committee

With regard to the above suggestion the Department in their written submission has stated as follows

“Accepted. The phrase "clause (g)" needs to be added in the sub-clause 416(5)(h). “

416.6 Observations/Recommendations of the Committee

The Committee observe that Clause 416 provides for other modes of recovery. aligning with Section 226 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Clause has been only textually simplified, retaining its original intent. However, the Committee note that inadvertent omission of "clause (g)" in sub-clause 416(5)(h) has been accepted by the Department of Revenue. The Committee, therefore, recommend the Department to amend Clause 416 accordingly.

417.1 Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

. If the recovery of tax in any area has been entrusted to a State Government under article 258(1) of the Constitution, the State Government may direct, with respect to that area or any part thereof that tax shall be recovered therein with, and as an addition to, any municipal tax or local rate, by the same person and in the same manner as the municipal tax or local rate is recovered.

Recovery through State Government.

227. If the recovery of tax in any area has been entrusted to a State Government under clause (1) of article 258 of the Constitution, the State Government may direct, with respect to that area or any part thereof; that tax shall be recovered therein with, and as an addition to, any municipal tax or local rate, by the same person and in the same manner as the municipal tax or local rate is recovered.

417.2 Reasons/Justification given by the Department of Finance for the proposed provision

Clause 417 of the Bill provides for recovery through State Government. Clause 417of the Bill corresponds to Section 227 of the Act. There is no policy change. Theprovisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained withthe same intent in this clause.

417.4 Examination by the Committee

In reply to a specific query on changes(addition or omission or replacement of words etc.), if any, between the provisions of the Clause and existing Section, the Department of Revenue furnished the following reply:

“The Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of the IT Act, 1961. “

417.5 Observations/Recommendations of the Committee

The Committee observe that Clause 417, which deals with recovery through State Governments, corresponding to Section 227 of the existing Act, and incorporates no policy changes. Given this, the Committee recommend that the Clause be retained as proposed.

Clause 418 Recovery of tax in pursuance of agreements with foreign countries.

418.1 Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

.(1) Where an agreement is entered into by the Central Government with the Government of any country outside India for recovery of income-tax under this Act and the corresponding law in force in that country and the Government of that country or any authority under that Government which is specified in this behalf in such agreement sends to the Board a certificate for the recovery of any tax due under such corresponding law from—(a) a resident; or (b) a person having any property in India, the Board may forward such certificate to any Tax Recovery Officer having jurisdiction over the resident, or within whose jurisdiction such property is situated and thereupon such Tax Recovery Officer shall—(i) proceed to recover the amount specified in the certificate in the manner in which he would proceed to recover the amount specified in a certificate drawn up by him under section 413; and (ii) remit any sum so recovered by him to the Board after deducting his expenses in connection with the recovery proceedings.(2) Where an assessee is in default or is deemed to be in default in making a payment of tax, the Tax Recovery Officer may,—(a) if the assessee is a resident of a country being a country with which the Central Government has entered into an agreement for the recovery of income-tax under this Act and the corresponding law in force in that country; or (b) has any property in that country,forward to the Board a certificate drawn up by him under section 413 and the Board may take such action thereon as it may deem appropriate having regard to the terms of the agreement with such country.

Recovery of tax in pursuance of agreements with foreign countries.

228A. (1) Where an agreement is entered into by the Central Government with the Government of any country outside India for recovery of income-tax under this Act and the corresponding law in force in that country and the Government of that country or any authority under that Government which is specified in this behalf in such agreement sends to the Board a certificate for the recovery of any tax due under such corresponding law from a resident, or a person having any property in India, the Board may forward such certificate to any Tax Recovery Officer having jurisdiction over the resident, or within whose jurisdiction such property is situated and thereupon such Tax Recovery Officer shall—

(a) proceed to recover the amount specified in the certificate in the manner in which he would proceed to recover the amount specified in a certificate drawn up by him under section 222; and

(b) remit any sum so recovered by him to the Board after deducting his expenses in connection with the recovery proceedings.

(2) Where an assessee is in default or is deemed to be in default in making a payment of tax, the Tax Recovery Officer may, if the assessee is a resident of a country (being a country with which the Central Government has entered into an agreement for the recovery of income-tax under this Act and the corresponding law in force in that country), or has any property in that country, forward to the Board a certificate drawn up by him under section 222 and the Board may take such action thereon as it may deem appropriate having regard to the terms of the agreement with such country.

418.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Department of Finance for the proposed provision

Clause 418 of the Bill provides for recovery of tax in pursuance of agreements with foreign countries. Clause 418 of the Bill corresponds to Section 228A of the Act.There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have beentextually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause.

418.4 Examination by the Committee

In reply to a specific query on changes(addition or omission or replacement of words etc.), if any, between the provisions of the Clause and existing Section, the Department of Revenue furnished the following reply:

“The Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of the IT Act, 1961. “

418.5 Observations/Recommendations of the Committee

The Committee note that Clause 418 provides for recovery of tax in pursuance of agreements with foreign countries. They observe that the Department's submission indicates no policy change has been occurred; rather the provisions have been merely simplified textually from the existing Section 228A. The Committee, therefore, recommend that the Clause may be made part of the Bill, as proposed by the Department.

Clause 419 Recovery of penalties, fine, interest and other sums.

419.1 Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

Any sum imposed by way of interest, fine, penalty, or any other sum payable under the provisions of this Act, shall be recoverable in the manner provided in this Part for the recovery of arrears of tax.

419.2 Relevant provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act 1961)

Recovery of penalties, fine, interest and other sums.229. Any sum imposed by way of interest, fine, penalty, or any other sum payable under the provisions of this Act, shall be recoverable in the manner provided in this Chapter for the recovery of arrears of tax.

419.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Department of Finance for the proposed provision

Clause 419 of the Bill provides for recovery of penalties, fine, interest and other sums. Clause 419 of the Bill corresponds to Section 229 of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause.

419.4 Important views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders

The word ‘fee’ may also be specifically included in the clause.

419.5 Examination by the Committee

The Ministry has submitted written reply as follows:-

“Suggestion seeks to add the word fee in the clause dealing with recovery of penalties, fine, interest and other sums.It is submitted that the phrase "Any sum imposed by way of interest, fine, penalty, or any other sum" is consistent throughout the Bill. This is a settled position of law and there is no documented litigation over non-inclusion of the word fee in this section. Due to the dynamic nature of economy, it is practically not possible to envision every nature of sum and mention the same in the said clause. In any case, the words "any other sum" takes care of any nature of sum which has not been mentioned in the clause. However, the same shall still be examined in consideration with the Department of Law"

419.6 Observations/Recommendations of the Committee

The Committee note that Clause 419 of the Bill, which addresses the recovery of penalties, fines, interest, and other sums, corresponds to Section 229 of the existing Act. The Committee also note that there is no policy change proposed, and the existing provisions have been textually simplified while retaining their original intent.

Regarding the suggestion from expert/stakeholder to specifically include the word "fee" in Clause 419, the Committee are given to understand that the phrase "Any sum imposed by way of interest, fine, penalty, or any other sum" is consistent throughout the Bill and represents a settled position of law with no documented litigation concerning the non-inclusion of "fee." The Department has further stated that "any other sum" is broad enough to cover any unmentioned sums, given the dynamic nature of the economy. However, the Department is also committed to examine the suggestion further in consultation with the Ministry of Law and Justice. Given the Department's assurance that "any other sum" adequately covers "fee" and their commitment to further examination with the Department of Law, the Committee, for now, accept Clause 419 as proposed.

420.1 Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

420.(1) Subject to such exceptions as the Central Government may, by notification, specify in this behalf, no person,—

(a) who is not domiciled in India;

(b) who has come to India in connection with business, profession or employment; and

(c) who has income derived from any source in India, shall leave the territory of India by land, sea or air unless he furnishes to such authority as prescribed—

(i) an undertaking in the prescribed form from his employer; or

(ii) through whom such person is in receipt of the income,to the effect that tax payable by such person who is not domiciled in India shall be paid by the employer referred to in clause (i) or the person referred to in clause (ii), and the prescribed authority shall, on receipt of the undertaking, immediately give to such person a no objection certificate, for leaving India.

(2) Nothing contained in sub-section (1) shall apply to a person who is not domiciled in India but visits India as a foreign tourist or for any other purpose not connected with business, profession or employment.

(3) Subject to such exceptions as the Central Government may, by notification, specify in this behalf, every person, who is domiciled in India at the time of his departure from India, shall furnish, in the prescribed form to the income-tax authority or such other authority as prescribed—

(a) the Permanent Account Number allotted to him under section 262;

(b) the purpose of his visit outside India; and

(c) the estimated period of his stay outside India.

(4) Where no such Permanent Account Number has been allotted to him, or his total income is not chargeable to income-tax, or he is not required to obtain a Permanent Account Number under this Act, such person shall furnish a certificate in such form, as prescribed.

(5) No person—

(a) who is domiciled in India at the time of his departure; and

(b) in respect of whom circumstances exist which, in the opinion of an income-tax authority render it necessary for such person to obtain a certificate under this section, shall leave the territory of India by land, sea or air unless he obtains a certificate from the income-tax authority stating that he has no liability under this Act, or the Wealth-tax Act, 1957 or the Gift-tax Act, 1958 or the Expenditure-tax Act, 1987 or the Black Money (Undisclosed Foreign Income and Assets) and Imposition of Tax Act, 2015, or that satisfactory arrangements have been made for the payment of all or any of such taxes which are or may become payable by that person.

(6) No income-tax authority shall make it necessary for any person who is domiciled in India to obtain a certificate under this section unless—

(a) he records the reasons therefor; and

(b) obtains the prior approval of Principal Chief Commissioner or Chief Commissioner.

(7) If the owner or charterer of any ship or aircraft carrying persons from any place in the territory of India to any place outside India allows any person to whom sub-section (1) or (5) applies to travel by such ship or aircraft without first satisfying himself that such person is in possession of a certificate as required by those sub-sections, he shall be personally liable to pay the whole or any part of the amount of tax, if any, payable by such person as the Assessing Officer may, having regard to the circumstances of the case, determine.

(8) In respect of any sum payable by the owner or charterer of any ship or aircraft under sub-section (7),—

(a) the owner or charterer, shall be deemed to be an assessee in default for such sum; and

(b) such sum shall be recoverable from him in the manner provided in this Part as if it were an arrear of tax.

(9) The Board may make rules for regulating any matter necessary for, or incidental to, the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this section.

(10) In this section, "owner" and "charterer" include any representative, agent or employee empowered by the owner or charterer to allow persons to travel by the ship or aircraft.

420.2 Relevant provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act 1961)

Tax clearance certificate.

230. (1) Subject to such exceptions as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify in this behalf, no person,—

(a) who is not domiciled in India;

(b) who has come to India in connection with business, profession or employment; and

(c) who has income derived from any source in India, shall leave the territory of India by land, sea or air unless he furnishes to such authority as may be prescribed—

(i) an undertaking in the prescribed form from his employer; or

(ii) through whom such person is in receipt of the income, to the effect that tax payable by such person who is not domiciled in India shall be paid by the employer referred to in clause (i) or the person referred to in clause (ii), and the prescribed authority shall, on receipt of the undertaking, immediately give to such person a no objection certificate, for leaving India:

Provided that nothing contained in sub-section shall apply to a person who is not domiciled in India but visits India as a foreign tourist or for any other purpose not connected with business, profession or employment.

(1A) Subject to such exceptions as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify in this behalf, every person, who is domiciled in India at the time of his departure from India, shall furnish, in the prescribed form to the income-tax authority or such other authority as may be prescribed—

(a) the permanent account number allotted to him under section 139A:

Provided that in case no such permanent account number has been allotted to him, or his total income is not chargeable to income-tax or he is not required to obtain a permanent account number under this Act, such person shall furnish a certificate in the prescribed form;

(b) the purpose of his visit outside India;

(c) the estimated period of his stay outside India:

Provided that no person—

(ii) in respect of whom circumstances exist which, in the opinion of an income-tax authority render it necessary for such person to obtain a certificate under this section, shall leave the territory of India by land, sea or air unless he obtains a certificate from the income-tax authority stating that he has no liabilities under this Act, or the Wealth-tax Act, 1957 (27 of 1957), or the Gift-tax Act, 1958 (18 of 1958), or the Expenditure-tax Act, 1987 (35 of 1987), [48][or the Black Money (Undisclosed Foreign Income and Assets) and Imposition of Tax Act, 2015 (22 of 2015),] or that satisfactory arrangements have been made for the payment of all or any of such taxes which are or may become payable by that person :

Provided that no income-tax authority shall make it necessary for any person who is domiciled in India to obtain a certificate under this section unless he records the reasons therefor and obtains the prior approval of the Principal Chief Commissioner or Chief Commissioner of Income-tax.

(2) If the owner or charterer of any ship or aircraft carrying persons from any place in the territory of India to any place outside India allows any person to whom sub-section (1) or the first proviso to sub-section (1A) applies to travel by such ship or aircraft without first satisfying himself that such person is in possession of a certificate as required by that sub-section, he shall be personally liable to pay the whole or any part of the amount of tax, if any, payable by such person as the Assessing Officer may, having regard to the circumstances of the case, determine.

(3) In respect of any sum payable by the owner or charterer of any ship or aircraft under sub-section (2), the owner or charterer, as the case may be, shall be deemed to be an assessee in default for such sum, and such sum shall be recoverable from him in the manner provided in this Chapter as if it were an arrear of tax.

(4) The Board may make rules for regulating any matter necessary for, or incidental to, the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this section.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, the expressions "owner" and "charterer" include any representative, agent or employee empowered by the owner or charterer to allow persons to travel by the ship or aircraft.

420.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Department of Finance for the proposed provision Clause 420 of the Bill provides for tax clearance certificate Clause 420 of the Billcorresponds to section 230 of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions ofthe existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intentin this clause.

420.4 Examination by the Committee

In reply to a specific query on changes(addition or omission or replacement of words etc.), if any, between the provisions of the Clause and existing Section, the Department of Revenue furnished the following reply:

“The Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of the IT Act, 1961. “

420.5 Observations/Recommendations of the Committee

The Committee note that Clause 420 of the Bill provides for tax clearance certificate, corresponding to Section 230 of the existing Act. They also note that no policy change has been effected by the Department; and only a textual simplification of the current Act. The Committee, therefore, accept Clause 420 as proposed.

Clause 421 Recovery by suit or under other law not affected.

421.1 Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

421. The several modes of recovery specified in this Part shall not affect in any way;—

(a) any other law for the time being in force relating to the recovery of debts due to Government; or

(b) the right of the Government to institute a suit for the recovery of the arrears due from the assessee; and

(c) it shall be lawful for the Assessing Officer or the Government, as the case may be, to have recourse to any such law or suit, irrespective of the fact that the tax due is being recovered from the assessee by any mode specified in this Part.

421.2 Relevant provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act 1961)

Recovery by suit or under other law not affected.

232. The several modes of recovery specified in this Chapter shall not affect in any way—

a) any other law for the time being in force relating to the recovery of debts due to Government; or

b) the right of the Government to institute a suit for the recovery of the arrears due from the assessee;

and it shall be lawful for the Assessing Officer or the Government, as the case may be, to have recourse to any such law or suit, notwithstanding that the tax due is being recovered from the assessee by any mode specified in this Chapter.

421.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Department of Finance for the proposed provision

Clause 421 of the Bill deals with recovery by suit or under other law not affected. Clause 421 of the Bill corresponds to Section 232 of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause.

421.4 Examination by the Committee

In reply to a specific query on changes(addition or omission or replacement of words etc.), if any, between the provisions of the Clause and existing Section, the Department of Revenue furnished the following reply:

“The Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of the IT Act, 1961. “

421.5 Observations/Recommendations of the Committee

Clause 421 of the Income-Tax Bill 2025, corresponding to Section 232 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, seeks to provide that recovery by suit or under other law will not be affected notwithstanding tax due being recovered under any mode prescribed in the proposed legislation. The Committee further note that, beyond textual simplification, no policy change has been introduced in the provisions of this Clause. They, therefore, approve Clause 421 as proposed by the Department.

Clause 422 Recovery of tax arrears in respect of non-resident from his assets.

422.1 Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

422. Irrespective of the provisions of sections304(1) or(5), where the person entitled to the income referred to in section 9(2) is a non-resident, the tax chargeable thereon, whether in his name or in the name of his agent who is liable as a representative assessee—

(a) may be recovered by deduction under the provisions of Chapter XIX-B; and (b) any arrears of tax may also be recovered as per the provisions of this Act from any assets of the non-resident which are, or may at any time come, within India.

Recovery of tax in respect of non-resident from his assets.

173. Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 161 or of section 167, where the person entitled to the income referred to in clause (i) of sub-section (1) of section 9 is a non-resident, the tax chargeable thereon, whether in his name or in the name of his agent who is liable as a representative assessee, may be recovered by deduction under any of the provisions of Chapter XVII-B and any arrears of tax may be recovered also in accordance with the provisions of this Act from any assets of the non-resident which are, or may at any time come, within India.

422.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Department of Finance for the proposed provision

Clause 422 of the Bill provides for recovery of tax arrear in respect of non-residentfrom his assets. Clause 422 of the Bill corresponds to Section 173 of the Act.There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have beentextually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause.

422.4 Examination by the Committee

In reply to a specific query on changes (addition or omission or replacement of words etc.), if any, between the provisions of the Clause and existing Section, the Department of Revenue furnished the following reply:

“The Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of the IT Act, 1961. “

422.5 Observations/Recommendations of the Committee

Noting that Clause 422 of the Bill, which seeks to provide for recovery of tax arrears from a non-resident from his assets, is a textual simplification of Section 173 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with the same intent, the Committee accept the Clause in its present form.

(i) in a case where the interest is increased, the Assessing Officer shall serve on the assessee a notice of demand in the prescribed form specifying the sum payable, and such notice of demand shall be deemed to be a notice under section 156 and the provisions of this Act shall apply accordingly;

(ii) in a case where the interest is reduced, the excess interest paid, if any, shall be refunded.

(5) The provisions of this section shall apply in respect of assessments for the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1989 and subsequent assessment years.

423.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Department of Finance for the proposed provision

Clause 423 of the Bill provides for interest for defaults in furnishing return of income. Clause 423 of the Bill corresponds to Section 234A of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified by providing a formula to calculate the interest payable. Further, various circumstances, starting date, last date and corresponding amount of tax on which interest is payable has been tabulated for easy understanding and simple calculation of the interest for defaults in furnishing return of income.

423.4 Examination by the Committee

In reply to a specific query on changes(addition or omission or replacement of words etc.), if any, between the provisions of the Clause and existing Section, the Department of Revenue furnished the following reply:

“The Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of the IT Act, 1961. “

423.5 Observations/Recommendations of the Committee

The Committee note that Clause 423 of the Bill, prescribing interest for defaults in furnishing return of income, aligns with existing Section 234A of the Income-Tax Act, 1961; but features simplified linguistic construction. Expressing their concurrence with the justification given by the Department of Revenue in this regard, the Committee accept Clause 423 as it is.

Clause 424 Interest for defaults in payment of advance tax.

424.1 Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

(1) Subject to the other provisions of this section, where, in any tax year, an assessee who is liable to pay advance tax under section 404,—(a) has failed to pay such tax; or (b) the advance tax paid by such assessee under the provisions of section 406 or 407 is less than 90% of the assessed tax, the assessee shall be liable to pay simple interest at the rate of 1% for every month or part of a month, for the period, beginning from the 1st April following such tax year—(i) upto the date of determination of total income under section 270(1); or (ii) upto the date of completion of regular assessment,on an amount equal to the assessed tax in case where clause (a) is applicable or, on the amount by which the advance tax paid as aforesaid falls short of the assessed tax in case where clause (b) is applicable.(2) In sub-section (1),"assessed tax" means the tax on the total income determined under section 270(1) and where a regular assessment is made, the tax on the total income determined under such regular assessment as reduced by the amount of,—(a)any tax deducted or collected at source as per Chapter XIX-B on any income which is subject to such deduction or collection and which is taken into account in computing such total income;(b)any relief of tax allowed under section 157;(c)any relief of tax allowed under section 159(1) on account of tax paid in a country outside India;(d)any relief of tax allowed under section 159(2) on account of tax paid in a specified territory outside India referred to in that section;(e)any deduction, from the Indian income-tax payable, allowed under section 160, on account of tax paid in a country outside India; and(f)any tax credit allowed to be set off as per section 206(13).(3) For the purposes of this section,—(a) where in relation to a tax year, an assessment is made for the first time under section 279, the assessment so made shall be regarded as a regular assessment;(b) tax on total income as determined under section 270(1) shall not include the additional income-tax, if any, payable under section 267;(c) tax on the total income determined under such regular assessment shall not include the additional income-tax payable under section 267.(4) Where, before the date of determination of total income under section 270(1) or completion of a regular assessment, tax is paid by the assessee under section 266 or otherwise,—(a) interest shall be calculated as per the foregoing provisions of this section up to the date on which the tax is so paid, and reduced by the interest, if any, paid under section 266 towards the interest chargeable under this section;(b) thereafter, interest shall be calculated at the rate aforesaid on the amount by which the tax so paid together with the advance tax paid falls short of the assessed tax.(5) Where, the amount on which interest was payable in respect of shortfall in payment of advance tax for any tax year under sub-section (1) is increased, as a result of an order of reassessment or recomputation under section 279, the assessee shall be liable to pay simple interest at the rate of 1% for every month or part of a month comprised in the period commencing on the 1st April immediately following such tax year and ending on the date of the reassessment or recomputation on such amount determined as per formula below:—A= B-Cwhere,—A = the increased amount on which interest was payable in respect of shortfall in payment of advance tax for any tax year as a result of reassessment or recomputation—B = tax on total income determined on the basis of reassessment or recomputation;C = tax on total income determined under section 270(1) or regular assessment as referred to in sub-section (1).(6) Where, as a result of an order under section 287 or 288 or 359 or 363 or 365(10) or 368 or 377 or 378, the amount on which interest was payable under sub-section (1) or (3) has been increased or reduced, the interest shall be increased or reduced accordingly, and—(a) in a case where the interest is increased, the Assessing Officer shall serve on the assessee a notice of demand in the form as prescribed specifying the sum payable and such notice of demand shall be deemed to be a notice under section 289 and the provisions of this Act shall apply accordingly;(b) in a case where the interest is reduced, the excess interest paid, if any, shall be refunded.

any tax credit allowed to be set off in accordance with the

v) provisions of section 115JAA or section 115JD.

Explanation 2.—Where, in relation to an assessment year, an assessment is made for the first time under section 147 or section 153A, the assessment so made shall be regarded as a regular assessment for the purposes of this section.Explanation 3.—In Explanation 1 and in sub-section (3),—

"tax on total income as determined under sub-section (1)

i) of section 143" shall not include the additional income-tax, if any, payable under section 140B or section 143; and tax on the total income determined under such regular ii) assessment shall not include the additional income-tax payable under section 140B.

(2) Where, before the date of determination of total income under sub-section (1) of section 143 or completion of a regular assessment, tax is paid by the assessee under section 140A or otherwise,— interest shall be calculated in accordance with the foregoing

i) provisions of this section up to the date on which the tax is so paid, and reduced by the interest, if any, paid under section 140A towards the interest chargeable under this section; thereafter, interest shall be calculated at the rate aforesaid on the

ii) amount by which the tax so paid together with the advance tax paid falls short of the assessed tax.

(2A) (a) Where an application under sub-section (1) of section 245C for any assessment year has been made, the assessee shall be liable to pay simple interest at the rate of one per cent for every month or part of a month comprised in the period commencing on the 1st day of April of such assessment year and ending on the date of making such application, on the additional amount of income-tax referred to in that sub-section;(b) where as a result of an order of the Settlement Commission under sub-section (4) of section 245D for any assessment year, the amount of total income disclosed in the application under sub-section (1) of section 245C is increased, the assessee shall be liable to pay simple interest at the rate of one per cent for every month or part of a month comprised in the period commencing on the 1st day of April of such assessment year and ending on the date of such order, on the amount by which the tax on the total income determined on the basis of such order exceeds the tax on the total income disclosed in the application filed under sub-section (1) of section 245C;(c) where, as a result of an order under sub-section (6B) of section 245D, the amount on which interest was payable under clause (b) has been increased or reduced, as the case may be, the interest shall be increased or reduced accordingly.(3) Where, as a result of an order of reassessment or recomputation under section 147 or section 153A, the amount on which interest was payable in respect of shortfall in payment of advance tax for any financial year under sub-section (1) is increased, the assessee shall be liable to pay simple interest at the rate of one per cent for every month or part of a month comprised in the period commencing on the 1st day of April next following such financial year and ending on the date of the reassessment or recomputation under section 147 or section 153A, on the amount by which the tax on the total income determined on the basis of the reassessment or recomputation exceeds the tax on the total income determined under sub-section (1) of section 143 or on the basis of the regular assessment as referred to in sub-section (1), as the case may be.(4) Where, as a result of an order under section 154 or section 155 or section 250 or section 254 or section 260 or section 262 or section 263 or section 264, the amount on which interest was payable under sub-section (1) or sub-section (3) has been increased or reduced, as the case may be, the interest shall be increased or reduced accordingly, and—

i) in a case where the interest is increased, the Assessing Officer shall serve on the assessee a notice of demand in the prescribed form specifying the sum payable and such notice of demand shall be deemed to be a notice under section 156 and the provisions of this Act shall apply accordingly;

ii) in a case where the interest is reduced, the excess interest paid, if any, shall be refunded.

(5) The provisions of this section shall apply in respect of assessments for the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1989 and subsequent assessment years.

424.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Department of Finance for the proposed provision

Clause 424 of the Bill provides for interest for defaults in payment of advance tax.Clause 424 of the Bill corresponds to Section 234B of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified by providing a formula to calculate the interest for defaults in payment of advance tax for easy understanding and simple calculation.

424.4 Examination by the Committee

In reply to a specific query on changes(addition or omission or replacement of words etc.), if any, between the provisions of the Clause and existing Section, the Department of Revenue furnished the following reply:

“The Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of the IT Act, 1961. “

424.5 Observations/Recommendations of the Committee

The Committee note that Clause 424 of the Bill, prescribing interest for defaults in payment of advance tax, aims to simplify the existing provisions of Section 234B of the Act by providing formula to calculate the interest for defaults in payment of advance tax for better comprehension. The Committee concur with the Department's justification for this simplification and, therefore, accept Clause 424 as proposed.

Clause 425 Interest for deferment of advance tax.

425.1 Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

(1) If an assessee, liable to pay advance tax under section 404, other than the assessee mentioned in sub-section (3), has failed to pay such tax, or the advance tax paid by the assessee on its current income on or before the date specified in column B of the Table below, is less than advance tax due on returned income, as specified in column C, then the assessee shall be liable to pay interest on the amount of shortfall of advance tax as specified in column D , at the rate of interest specified in column E:Table

Interest for deferment of advance tax.

234C. (1) Where in any financial year,—

(a) an assessee, other than the assessee referred to in clause (b), who is liable to pay advance tax under section 208 has failed to pay such tax or—

(i) the advance tax paid by such assessee on its current income on or before the 15th day of June is less than fifteen per cent of the tax due on the returned income or the amount of such advance tax paid on or before the 15th day of September is less than forty-five per cent of the tax due on the returned income or the amount of such advance tax paid on or before the 15th day of December is less than seventy-five per cent of the tax due on the returned income, then, the assessee shall be liable to pay simple interest at the rate of one per cent per month for a period of three months on the amount of the shortfall from fifteen per cent or forty-five per cent or seventy-five per cent, as the case may be, of the tax due on the returned income;

(ii) the advance tax paid by the assessee on the current income on or before the 15th day of March is less than the tax due on the returned income, then, the assessee shall be liable to pay simple interest at the rate of one per cent on the amount of the shortfall from the tax due on the returned income:

Provided that if the advance tax paid by the assessee on the current income, on or before the 15th day of June or the 15th day of September, is not less than twelve per cent or, as the case may be, thirty-six per cent of the tax due on the returned income, then, the assessee shall not be liable to pay any interest on the amount of the shortfall on those dates;

(b) an assessee who declares profits and gains in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 44AD or sub-section (1) of section 44ADA, as the case may be who is liable to pay advance tax under section 208 has failed to pay such tax or the advance tax paid by the assessee on its current income on or before the 15th day of March is less than the tax due on the returned income, then, the assessee shall be liable to pay simple interest at the rate of one per cent on the amount of the shortfall from the tax due on the returned income:

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall apply to any shortfall in the payment of the tax due on the returned income where such shortfall is on account of under-estimate or failure to estimate—

(a) the amount of capital gains; or

(b) income of the nature referred to in sub-clause (ix) of clause (24) of section 2; or

(c) income under the head "Profits and gains of business or profession" in cases where the income accrues or arises under the said head for the first time; or

and the assessee has paid the whole of the amount of tax payable in respect of income referred to in clause (a) or clause (b) or clause (c) or clause (d), as the case may be, had such income been a part of the total income, as part of the remaining instalments of advance tax which are due or where no such instalments are due, by the 31st day of March of the financial year:Provided further that nothing contained in this sub-section shall apply to any shortfall in the payment of the tax due on the returned income where such shortfall is on account of increase in the rate of surcharge under section 2 of the Finance Act, 2000 (10 of 2000), as amended by the Taxation Laws (Amendment) Act, 2000 (1 of 2001), and the assessee has paid the amount of shortfall, on or before the 15th day of March, 2001 in respect of the instalment of advance tax due on the 15th day of June, 2000, the 15th day of September, 2000 and the 15th day of December, 2000 :Provided also that nothing contained in this sub-section shall apply to any shortfall in the payment of the tax due on the returned income where such shortfall is on account of increase in the rate of surcharge under section 2 of the Finance Act, 2000 (10 of 2000) as amended by the Taxation Laws (Amendment) Act, 2001 (4 of 2001) and the assessee has paid the amount of shortfall on or before the 15th day of March, 2001 in respect of the instalment of advance tax due on the 15th day of June, 2000, the 15th day of September, 2000 and 15th day of December, 2000.Explanation 1.—In this section, "tax due on the returned income" means the tax chargeable on the total income declared in the return of income furnished by the assessee for the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April immediately following the financial year in which the advance tax is paid or payable, as reduced by the amount of,—

(i) any tax deductible or collectible at source in accordance with the provisions of Chapter XVII on any income which is subject to such deduction or collection and which is taken into account in computing such total income;

(ia) any relief of tax allowed under section 89;

(ii) any relief of tax allowed under section 90 on account of tax paid in a country outside India;

(iii) any relief of tax allowed under section 90A on account of tax paid in a specified territory outside India referred to in that section;

(iv) any deduction, from the Indian income-tax payable, allowed under section 91, on account of tax paid in a country outside India; and

(v) any tax credit allowed to be set off in accordance with the provisions of section 115JAA or section 115JD.

Explanation 2.—For the purposes of this sub-section, the term "dividend" shall have the meaning assigned to it in clause (22) of section 2, but shall not include sub-clause (e) thereof.(2) The provisions of this section shall apply in respect of assessments for the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1989 and subsequent assessment years.

425.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Department of Finance for the proposed provision

Clause 425 of the Bill provides for interest for deferment of advance tax. Clause425 of the Bill corresponds to Section 234C of the Act. There is no policy change.The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified by providing atabular format to calculate the interest for deferment of advance tax for easyunderstanding and simple calculation.

425.4 Examination by the Committee

In reply to a specific query on changes(addition or omission or replacement of words etc.), if any, between the provisions of the Clause and existing Section, the Department of Revenue furnished the following reply:

“The Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of the IT Act, 1961. “

425.5 Observations/Recommendations of the Committee

The Committee note that Clause 425 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025, mapped to Section 234C of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, prescribes interest for deferment of advance tax. The Committee approve Clause 425 as proposed, noting its simplified approach to existing provisions.

Clause 426 Interest on excess refund.

426.1 Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

(1) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, where any refund is granted to the assessee under section 270(1), and—(a)no refund is due on regular assessment; or(b)the amount refunded under section 270(1) exceeds the amount refundable on regular assessment,theassessee shall be liable to pay simple interest at the rate of 0.5% on the whole or the excess amount so refunded, for every month or part of a month comprised in the period from the date of grant of refund to the date of such regular assessment. (2) Where, as a result of an order under section 287 or 288 or 359 or 363 or 365(10) or 368 or 377 or 378, the amount of refund granted under section 270(1) is held to be correctly allowed, either in whole or in part, then, the interest chargeable, if any, under sub-section (1) shall be reduced accordingly. (3) Where in relation to a tax year, an assessment is made for the first time under section 279, the assessment so made shall be regarded as a regular assessment for the purposes of this section.

Interest on excess refund.

234D. (1) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, where any refund is granted to the assessee under sub-section (1) of section 143, and—

(a) no refund is due on regular assessment; or

(b) the amount refunded under sub-section (1) of section 143 exceeds the amount refundable on regular assessment, the assessee shall be liable to pay simple interest at the rate of one-half per cent on the whole or the excess amount so refunded, for every month or part of a month comprised in the period from the date of grant of refund to the date of such regular assessment.(2) Where, as a result of an order under section 154 or section 155 or section 250 or section 254 or section 260 or section 262 or section 263 or section 264 or an order of the Settlement Commission under sub-section (4) of section 245D, the amount of refund granted under sub-section (1) of section 143 is held to be correctly allowed, either in whole or in part, as the case may be, then, the interest chargeable, if any, under sub-section (1) shall be reduced accordingly.Explanation 1.—Where, in relation to an assessment year, an assessment is made for the first time under section 147 or section 153A, the assessment so made shall be regarded as a regular assessment for the purposes of this section.Explanation 2.—For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that the provisions of this section shall also apply to an assessment year commencing before the 1st day of June, 2003 if the proceedings in respect of such assessment year is completed after the said date.

426.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Department of Finance for the proposed provision

Clause 426 of the Bill provides for interest on excess refund. Clause 426 of the Bill corresponds to Section 234D of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause.

426.4 Examination by the Committee

In reply to a specific query on changes(addition or omission or replacement of words etc.), if any, between the provisions of the Clause and existing Section, the Department of Revenue furnished the following reply:

“The Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of the IT Act, 1961. “

426.5 Observations/Recommendations of the Committee

The Committee observe that Clause 426 of the Bill prescribes interest on excess refund which corresponds to Section 234D of the extant Act. They note that, apart from textual simplification, no policy change has been introduced in this Clause. They, therefore, accept Clause 426 as proposed by the Department of Revenue.

F.—LEVY OF FEE IN CERTAINCASES

Clause 427 Fee for default in furnishing statements.

427.1 Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

(1) Without prejudice to the provisions of this Act, where a person fails to deliver or cause to be delivered a statement within the time prescribed in section 393(3)(b), he shall be liable to pay, by way of fee, a sum of two hundred rupees for every day during which the failure continues.(2) The amount of fee referred to in sub-section (1) shall,—(a) not exceed the amount of tax deductible or collectible; and(b) be paid before delivering or causing to be delivered the statement, as per sub-section (1)

Fee for default in furnishing statements.

234E. (1) Without prejudice to the provisions of the Act, where a person fails to deliver or cause to be delivered a statement within the time prescribed in sub-section (3) of section 200 or the proviso to sub-section (3) of section 206C, he shall be liable to pay, by way of fee, a sum of two hundred rupees for every day during which the failure continues.(2) The amount of fee referred to in sub-section (1) shall not exceed the amount of tax deductible or collectible, as the case may be.(3) The amount of fee referred to in sub-section (1) shall be paid before delivering or causing to be delivered a statement in accordance with sub-section (3) of section 200 or the proviso to sub-section (3) of section 206C.(4) The provisions of this section shall apply to a statement referred to in sub-section (3) of section 200 or the proviso to sub-section (3) of section 206C which is to be delivered or caused to be delivered for tax deducted at source or tax collected at source, as the case may be, on or after the 1st day of July, 2012.

427.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Department of Finance for the proposed provision

Clause 427 of the Bill provides for fee for default in furnishing statements. Clause427 of the Bill corresponds to Section 234E of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause.

427.4 Important views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders

427(1). In Section 427, the reference to section 394(1)(c) i.e., for collection of Tax has not been made. As Section 427 (2) (a) has referred to the term“ collectible” therefore, it is necessary to include the amount collectible under section 394(1)(c) in Section 427 (1) .

427.5 Examination by the Committee

With regard to the above suggestion the Department in their written submission has stated as follows :

“This is drafting correction. Reference of section 394(1) (c) shall be added in 427(1).”

427.6 Observations/Recommendations of the Committee

The Committee observe that Clause 427 of the Bill, which provides for fees for default in furnishing statements and corresponds to Section 234E of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, requires a drafting correction. A stakeholder highlighted that Clause 427(1) omits a necessary reference to Section 394(1)(c), which deals with tax collection, despite Clause 427(2)(a) using the term "collectible." The Department has accepted this as a valid correction, agreeing to add the reference to Section 394(1)(c) in Clause 427(1), and the Committee therefore recommend to carry out the drafting correction. Apart from this, they accept the Clause 427 as proposed.

428.1 Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

Without prejudice to the provisions of this Act, where, a person required to furnish a return of income under section 263 fails to do so within the time as prescribed in section 263(1) he shall pay, by way of a fee,—(a)a sum of five thousand rupees, if the total income of such person exceeds five lakh rupees;(b)a sum not exceeding one thousand rupees in any other case.

Fee for default in furnishing return of income.

234F. (1) Without prejudice to the provisions of this Act, where a person required to furnish a return of income under section 139, fails to do so within the time prescribed in sub-section (1) of the said section, he shall pay, by way of a fee, a sum of five thousand rupees :Provided that if the total income of the person does not exceed five lakh rupees, the fee payable under this section shall not exceed one thousand rupees.(2) The provisions of this section shall apply in respect of return of income required to be furnished for the assessment year commencing on or after the 1st day of April, 2018.

428.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Department of Finance for the proposed provision

Clause 428 of the Bill deals with fee for default in furnishing return of income. Clause 428 of the Bill corresponds to Section 234F of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause.

428.4 Examination by the Committee

In reply to a specific query on changes(addition or omission or replacement of words etc.), if any, between the provisions of the Clause and existing Section, the Department of Revenue furnished the following reply:

“The Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of the IT Act, 1961. “

428.5 Observations/Recommendations of the Committee

The Committee note that Clause 428 of the Bill pertains to refunds, aligns with the provisions of Section 234F of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee also note that the textual simplification of clause 428 is as per the objectives of the Bill and retaining the same intent. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause as proposed.

CLAUSE 429 Fee for default relating to statement or certificate.

429.1 Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

(1) Without prejudice to the provisions of this Act, where,—

(a)the research association, University, college or other institution referred to in section45(3)(a) or the company referred to in section 45(3)(b) fails to deliver or cause to be delivered the documents as prescribed in section 45(4)(a) within the time as prescribed therein or furnish a certificate as prescribed under section 45(4)(a); or (b)the institution or fund fails to deliver or cause to be delivered a statement within the time as prescribed under section 354(1)(e), or furnish a certificate as prescribed under section 354(1)(f), it shall be liable to pay, by way of fee, a sum of two hundred rupees for every day during which the failure continues.

(2) The amount of fee referred to in sub-section (1) shall,—

(a) not exceed the amount in respect of which the failure referred to therein has occurred;

(b) be paid before delivering or causing to be delivered the statement or before furnishing the certificate referred to in sub-section (1).

429.2 Relevant provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act 1961)

Fee for default relating to statement or certificate.

234G. (1) Without prejudice to the provisions of this Act, where,—

(a) the research association, university, college or other institution referred to in clause (ii) or clause (iii) or the company referred to in clause (iia) of sub-section (1) of section 35 fails to deliver or cause to be delivered a statement within the time prescribed under clause (i), or furnish a certificate prescribed under clause (ii) of sub-section (1A) of that section; or

(b) the institution or fund fails to deliver or cause to be delivered a statement within the time prescribed under clause (viii) of sub-section (5) of section 80G, or furnish a certificate prescribed under clause (ix) of the said sub-section, it shall be liable to pay, by way of fee, a sum of two hundred rupees for every day during which the failure continues.(2) The amount of fee referred to in sub-section (1) shall,—

(a) not exceed the amount in respect of which the failure referred to therein has occurred;

(b) be paid before delivering or causing to be delivered the statement or before furnishing the certificate referred to in sub-section (1)

429.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Department of Finance for the proposed provision

Clause 429 of the Bill deals with fee for default relating to statement or certificate Clause 429 of the Bill corresponds to Section 234G of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause.

429.4 Examination by the Committee

In reply to a specific query on changes(addition or omission or replacement of words etc.), if any, between the provisions of the Clause and existing Section, the Department of Revenue furnished the following reply:

“The Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of the IT Act, 1961. “

429.5 Observations/Recommendations of the Committee

The Committee note that Clause 429 is in consonance with objectives of the Bill, therefore, the Clause may be made part of the Bill, as proposed by the Department.

Clause 430 Fee for default relating to intimation of Aadhaar number.

430.1 Provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

Without prejudice to the provisions of this Act, where a person is required to intimate his Aadhaar number under section 262(6) and such person fails to do so on or before such date as prescribed, he shall be liable to pay such fee, as prescribed, not exceeding one thousand rupees, at the time of making intimation under that sub-section after the said date.

Fee for default relating to intimation of Aadhaar number.

234H. Without prejudice to the provisions of this Act, where a person is required to intimate his Aadhaar number under sub-section (2) of section 139AA and such person fails to do so on or before such date, as may be prescribed, he shall be liable to pay such fee, as may be prescribed, not exceeding one thousand rupees, at the time of making intimation under sub-section (2) of section 139AA after the said date.

430.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Department of Finance for the proposed provision

Clause 430 of the Bill deals with fee for default relating to intimation of Aadhaar number. Clause 430 of the Bill corresponds to Section 234H of the Act. There isno policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause.

430.4 Important views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders

A consolidated section is suggested for levy of fee in certain cases covering sections 427 to 430

430.5 Examination by the Committee

With regard to the above suggestion the Department in their written submission has stated as follows

"The suggestion seeks to consolidate four clauses in a table. It is submitted that clauses 427 to 430 provide for levying of fees in certain cases. Each clause deals with specific cases, provides for specific conditions for imposition of the said fees and the amount of fees to be charged is also different. Consolidation and presentation in a single table will lead to confusion regarding the applicability of the conditions for charging certain fees. Further, it may also be the case where the table will give an impression that the fees are mutually inclusive which not the case is. Afore-mentioned clauses are mutually exclusive. In case there are multiple violations even in a single case, applicable fees shall be charged. It is further submitted that suggestions received from the stakeholders in earlier batches on the newly introduced tables in the Bill, have raised serious concerns regarding the applicability of row items in a single table, their readability and whether the conditions pertaining on row item of table are to be read in conjunction with each other. The afore-said clauses in their present state are fairly clear with definite readability and putting them in a single table may lead to taxpayer confusion and rise in unintended litigation. Thus, the suggestion is not feasible."

430.6 Observations/Recommendations of the Committee

Clause 430 of the Bill deals with fee for default relating to intimation of Aadhaar number. The Committee note that this Clause is simplified textual version of existing Section 234H of the extant Act and retaining the same intent. After considering the viewpoints of both the stakeholders and the Department, the Committee accept Clause 430 as proposed.

CHAPTER XX

REFUNDS

Clause 431 - REFUNDS

431.1 Proposed provision in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025

If any person satisfies the Assessing Officer that the amount of tax paid by him or on his behalf or treated as paid by him or on his behalf for any tax year exceeds the amount with which he is properly chargeable under this Act for that year, he shall be entitled to a refund of the excess.

Existing provision of the Section 237 under Chapter XIXis as under:-

"237. If any person satisfies the Assessing Officer that the amount of tax paid by him or on his behalf or treated as paid by him or on his behalf for any assessment year exceeds the amount with which he is properly chargeable under this Act for that year, he shall be entitled to a refund of the excess."

431.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance (Department of Revenue) for the proposed provision

"Clause 431 of the Bill relates to refunds. Clause 431 of the Bill corresponds to Section 237 of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

431.3.1 In reply to a specific query on changes (addition or omission or replacement of words etc.) if any, between the provisions of the Clause and existing Section, the Department of Revenue furnished following reply:

> "The provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of IT Act 1961."

431.4 Observation/Recommendation by the Committee

The Committee note that Clause 431 pertains to refunds and aligns with the provisions of Section 237 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee also note that the textual simplification of Clause 431 is as per the objectives of the Bill and retains the same intent. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause as proposed.

Clause 432 - Person entitled to claim refund in certain special cases.

432.1 Proposed provision in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025

432 (1) "Where the income of one person is included in total income of any another person under any provision of this Act, the latter shall be eligible for a refund under this Part in respect of such income.

(2) Where a person is unable to claim or receive a refund due to him on account of death, incapacity, insolvency, liquidation or other cause, his legal representative or the trustee or guardian or receiver, shall be entitled to claim or receive such refund for the benefit of such person or his estate."

432.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961)

"238. (1) Where the income of one person is included under any provision of this Act in the total income of any other person, the latter alone shall be entitled to a refund under this Chapter in respect of such income.

(1A) Where the value of fringe benefits provided or deemed to have been provided by one employer is included under any provisions of Chapter XII-H in the value of fringe benefits provided or deemed to have been provided by any other employer, the latter alone shall be entitled to a refund under this Chapter in respect of such fringe benefits.

(2) Where through death, incapacity, insolvency, liquidation or other cause, a person is unable to claim or receive any refund due to him, his legal representative or the trustee or guardian or receiver, as the case may be, shall be entitled to claim or receive such refund for the benefit of such person or his estate."

432.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision

"Clause 432 of the Bill deals with person entitled to claim refund in certain special cases. Clause 432 of the Bill corresponds to Section 238 of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

432.4 Important Views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders

A suggestion has been received that in Clause 432(1), the term 'any another', should be replaced by 'any other' or 'another'.

432.5 Examination by the Committee

432.5.1 The Committee note that the Department of Revenue, while accepting the above suggestion stated in their reply as under:

“Accepted. This is drafting correction. The phrase 'any another' shall be replaced by 'any other'.”

432.5.2 While examining Clause 432, it is noticed that the word “part” has been used, which is not there in the Chapter XX. The Department have accepted the above mentioned identical issue in Clause 436 as under:

“Accepted. The suggestion seeks to replace the words "this part" with "this chapter" in clause 436. The same is in the nature of drafting correction. Thus, same is acceptable.”

432.6 Observation/Recommendation by the Committee

The Committee note that Clause 432 textually simplifies and retains the same intent of Section 238 of the extant Act. However, few typographical errors in Clause 432 (1) which has been accepted by the Department of Revenue, necessitates an amendment. Therefore, the Committee recommend to amend the Clause accordingly. The amended Clause may be read as under:

> 432(1) Where the income of one person is included in total income of any other person under any provision of this Act, the latter shall be eligible for a refund under this Chapter in respect of such income.

Clause 433 - Form of claim for refund and limitation

433.1 Proposed provision in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025

Every claim for refund under this Part shall be made by furnishing return as per section 263.

433.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961)

"239.(1) Every claim for refund under this Chapter shall be made by furnishing return in accordance with the provisions of section 139.

(2) []"

433.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision

"Clause 433 of the Bill deals with form of claim for refund and limitation. Clause 433 of the Bill corresponds to Section 239 of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

433.4 Important Views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders

433.4.1 Refunds may be granted in case of belated return in certain circumstances. Exceptions may be allowed for genuine cases (e.g., medical emergency, natural calamity, death in family) to ensures fairness and protect the rights of taxpayers with valid reasons for delay.

433.5 Examination by the Committee

433.5.1 With regard to the suggestion to allow refunds in case of belated returns in exceptional cases, the Department of Revenue have submitted following reply:

> "The suggestion seeks to provide flexibility by allowing refund claims in cases where the return is not filed in due time, subject to safeguards. This is a drafting correction and Clause 263(1)(xi) should be deleted to enable taxpayers to claim refund even if they file belated or revised return. Therefore suggestion is acceptable".

433.5.2 Further on examination of Clause 433, it is noticed that the word "part" has been used, which is not there in the Chapter XX. The Department have accepted the above mentioned identical issue in Clause 436 as under:

“Accepted. The suggestion seeks to replace the words "this part" with "this chapter" in clause 436. The same is in the nature of drafting correction. Thus, same is acceptable.”

433.6 Observation/Recommendation by the Committee

433.6.1 The Committee note that the suggestion to allow refunds in case of late/revised income tax returns filed due to exceptional/emergency circumstances such as medical emergency, natural calamity, death in the family, etc. has been accepted by the Department. Accordingly, the Committee recommend to carry out suitable modification in Clause 263 to enable refunds in case of filing belated or revised returns.

433.6.2 The Committee further note that Clause 433 of the Bill corresponds to Section 239 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 dealing with form of claim for refund and limitation. They find that in Clause 433 'part' has been mentioned inadvertently while the intended word is 'Chapter'. They also find that this drafting error has been accepted by the Department in case of drafting of Clause 436 as well. The Committee, therefore, recommend that the same drafting correction may also be carried out in Clause 433.

Clause 434 - Refund for denying liability to deduct tax in certain cases

(1) Where,—

(a) under an agreement or other arrangement, in writing, the tax deductible on any income, other than interest in section 393(2) (Table: Sl. No. 17), is to be borne by the person by whom the income is payable; and

(b) such person having paid such tax to the credit of the Central Government claims that no tax was required to be deducted on such income, he may, within thirty days from the date of payment of such tax, file an application before the Assessing Officer for refund of such tax in such form and such manner, as prescribed.

(2) The Assessing Officer shall, by an order in writing, allow or reject the application.

(3) No application under sub-section (1) shall be rejected unless an opportunity of being heard has been given to the applicant.

(4) The Assessing Officer may, before passing an order under sub-section (2), make such inquiry as he considers necessary.

(5) The order under sub-section (2) shall be passed within six months from the end of the month in which application under sub-section (1) is received.

434.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961)

"239A.(1) Where under an agreement or other arrangement, in writing, the tax deductible on any income, other than interest, under section 195 is to be borne by the person by whom the income is payable, and such person having paid such tax to the credit of the Central Government claims that no tax was required to be deducted on such income, may, within a period of thirty days from the date of payment of such tax, file an application before the Assessing Officer for refund of such tax in such form and such manner as may be prescribed.

(2) The Assessing Officer shall, by an order in writing, allow or reject the application:

Provided that no application under sub-section (1) shall be rejected unless an opportunity of being heard has been given to the applicant.

(3) The Assessing Officer may, before passing an order under sub-section (2), make such inquiry as he considers necessary.

(4) The order under sub-section (2) shall be passed within six months from the end of the month in which application under sub-section (1) is received."

434.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision

"Clause 434 of the Bill deals with refund for denying liability to deduct tax in certain cases. Clause 434 of the Bill corresponds to Section 239A of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

434.4 Important Views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders

Following suggestion has been received with regard to Clause 434(1)(b) to cover refunds arising under other circumstances such as deduction of TDS at higher rate though lower rate is applicable. The revised sub clause has been suggestedas under:

1. Clause (b) of sub-section (1) may be substituted as follows:
   (b) such person having paid such tax to the credit of the Central Government claims that no tax was required to be deducted on such income or tax is required to be deducted at lower rate but deducted at higher rate,he may, within thirty days from the date of payment of such tax, file an application before the Assessing Officer for refund of such tax in such form and such manner, as prescribed.
   Refund may also arise under other circumstances such as deduction of TDS at higher rate though lower rate is applicable. To cover these cases, reference is to be made to Circular No. 7/2011 dated 27.9.2011 and Circular No. 7/2007 dated 23.10.2007. Inserting these words would cover some more genuine cases of refund.

434.5 Examination by the Committee

434.5.1 The Committee notice that the Department have not agreed to the above suggestion for the reasons as stated in their written reply as below:

> "The suggestion seeks to include the words "or tax is required to be deducted at lower rate but deducted at higher rate" so as to allow such deductor to claim refund who have deducted the TDS at higher rate on payments made to non-residents, though lower rate of TDS was applicable. It is in nature of policy change. The stakeholder has referred to a circular which is on the same issue but applicable to section 239 instead of section 239 A which has come on statute by FA 2022. There has to be higher discipline in cases of withholding where payment is made to non-residents. Therefore, the facility to claim that tax was not deductible at all is adequate. Where non-resident feels that tax has been deducted at higher rate, he can as well file a refund in such cases. Thus, the suggestion is not feasible."

434.5.2 When asked to explain this issue, during their deliberations held on 16.6.2025, a representative of the Department of Revenue stated as under:

> "there is a provision in case of non-residents where tax has been deducted but then, tax was not required to be deducted. So, there, we have a provision that the person who has deducted that tax, where the tax was not required to be deducted from payment to non-resident, so, he may within 30 days from the date of payment file an application before the Assessing Officer for refund of such tax in form and manner as prescribed. So, instead of this tax or no tax, the suggestion is that where tax is required to be deducted at a lower rate, but then has been deducted at a higher rate, so, there also, the provision may be enabled. So, there also, an application could be made. We are saying that for non-residents, some discipline is required to be made in the withholding payments, and there the deductor is required to check as to what is the corresponding rate on which that TDS has to be made. So, facility to claim where tax was not deductible at all, that is adequate enough. If he was not required to deduct, but then, tax has been deducted, so, there, he can claim."

434.5.3 When it was pointed out that there is no clarity of claiming refund in case tax has been paid at a higher rate than the rate he is required to pay, the representative of the Department further clarified:

> "Sir, as far as I can understand, the refund will still be allowable to him. But we can examine this if the wording is causing any problem there. I do not think the wording should cause any problem."

434.6 Observation/Recommendation by the Committee

The Committee note that Clause 434 of the Income-Tax Bill 2025, which deals with refund for denying liability to deduct tax, corresponds to Section 239A of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. While Clause 434 primarily addresses for refunds where no tax liability exists, there is no clarity regarding refund of deduction made at a rate higher than required. The ambiguity, in this regard, has been not only admitted by the Department of Revenue during their oral evidence before the Committee; but they also agreed to examine Clause 434 if the wording is causing any problem in this regard. The Committee, therefore, recommend the Department to look into the Clause and amend/rephrase the same to bring clarity even at the cost of few more words, if required, to make the proposed legislation clear and reduce potential disputes.

Clause 435 - Refund on appeal, etc.

435.1 Proposed provision in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025

(1) Where, as a result of any order passed in appeal or other proceeding under this Act, refund of any amount becomes due to the assessee, the Assessing Officer shall, except as otherwise provided in this Act, refund the amount to the assessee without his having to make any claim in that behalf.

(2) Where, by the order as referred to in sub-section (1),—

(a) an assessment is set aside or cancelled and an order of fresh assessment is directed to be made, the refund, if any, shall become due only on the making of such fresh assessment;

(b) the assessment is annulled, the refund shall become due only of the amount, if any, of the tax paid in excess of the tax chargeable on the total income returned by the assessee.

435.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961)

"240.Where, as a result of any order passed in appeal or other proceeding under this Act, refund of any amount becomes due to the assessee, the Assessing Officer shall, except as otherwise provided in this Act, refund the amount to the assessee without his having to make any claim in that behalf:

Provided that where, by the order aforesaid,—

(a) an assessment is set aside or cancelled and an order of fresh assessment is directed to be made, the refund, if any, shall become due only on the making of such fresh assessment;

(b) the assessment is annulled, the refund shall become due only of the amount, if any, of the tax paid in excess of the tax chargeable on the total income returned by the assessee."

435.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision

"Clause 435 of the Bill provides for refund on appeal, etc. Clause 435 of the Bill corresponds to Section 240 of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

435.3.1 In reply to a specific query on changes (addition or omission or replacement of words etc.) if any, between the provisions of the Clause and existing Section, the Department of Revenue furnished following reply:

> "The provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of IT Act 1961."

435.4 Observation/Recommendation by the Committee

The Committee note that Clause 435 is in consonance with objectives of the Bill and therefore, recommend that the Clause may be made part of the Bill, as proposed by the Department.

Clause 436 - Correctness of assessment not to be questioned

436.1 Proposed provision in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025

In a claim under this part, it shall not be open to the assessee to question the correctness of any assessment, or other matter decided which has become final and conclusive, or ask for a review of the aforesaid assessment or matter; and the assessee shall not be entitled to any relief on such claim except refund of tax wrongly paid or paid in excess.

436.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961)

"242. In a claim under this Chapter, it shall not be open to the assessee to question the correctness of any assessment or other matter decided which has become final and conclusive or ask for a review of the same, and the assessee shall not be entitled to any relief on such claim except refund of tax wrongly paid or paid in excess."

436.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision

"Clause 436 of the Bill provides for correctness of assessment not to be questioned. Clause 436 of the Bill corresponds to Section 242 of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

436.4 Important Views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders

It has been suggested that in Clause 436, instead of the words "this part" words "this chapter" may be substituted as Chapter XX has no 'Parts'.

436.5 Examination by the Committee

Responding to this suggestion, the Department of Revenue submitted as follows:

"Accepted.

The suggestion seeks to replace the words "this part" with "this chapter" in clause 436. The same is in the nature of drafting correction. Thus, same is acceptable."

436.6 Observation/Recommendation by the Committee

The Committee note that the provisions of Clause 436 corresponding to Clause 242 of the extant Act have been only textually simplified while retaining its intent. The Committee, however, find that there is a drafting error in the provisions of Clause 436 as it mentions 'Part' instead of 'Chapter', which has been accepted by the Department of Revenue. Therefore, the Committee recommend to amend the Clause as under:

> 436. "In a claim under this Chapter, it shall not be open to the assessee to question the correctness of any assessment, or other matter decided which has become final and conclusive, or ask for a review of the aforesaid assessment or matter; and the assessee shall not be entitled to any relief on such claim except refund of tax wrongly paid or paid in excess."

Clause 437 - Interest on refunds

437.1 Proposed provision in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025

Where a refund is due to the assessee under this Act, he shall, subject to the provisions of this section, be entitled to receive, in addition to the refund, simple interest thereon calculated at the rate of 0.5% for each month (or part of a month), in the circumstances specified in column B of the Table below, for the period specified in column C of the said Table.

TABLE

Sl. No.	Circumstances	Period
A	B	C
1.	Such refund is out of— (a) tax collected at source under section 394; or (b) paid by way of advance tax; or © treated as paid under section 390(5), during the year.	(a) From the first day of April following the tax year to the date the refund is granted, where the income-tax return has been furnished on or before the due date as specified in section 263(1); (b) from the date of furnishing the income-tax return to the date on which the refund is granted; in any other case.
2.	Where the refund is out of any tax paid under section 266.	from the date of furnishing of return of income or payment of tax, whichever is later, to the date on which the refund is granted.
3.	Any other case.	from the date or, as the case may be, dates on which the amount of tax or penalty specified in the notice of demand issued under section 289 is paid in excess of such demand to the date on which the refund is granted.

(2) No interest shall be payable under sub-section (1) (Table: Sl. No. 1 or 2), if the amount of refund is less than 10% of the tax as determined under section 270(1) or on regular assessment.

(3) Where refund, mentioned in sub-section (1) (Table: Sl. No. 1), arises as a result of an order passed by the Assessing Officer in consequence of an application made by the assessee under section 288 (Table: Sl. No. 11), such interest shall be calculated at the rate of 0.5% for every month or part of a month comprised in the period from the date of such application to the date on which the refund is granted

(4) In a case where a refund arises as a result of giving effect to an order under section 359 or 363 or 365(10) or 368 or 377 or 378, wholly or partly, otherwise than by making a fresh assessment or reassessment, the assessee shall be entitled to receive an additional interest which shall be—

(a) over and above the interest payable under sub-section (1) or (3); and

(b) computed on such amount of refund calculated at the rate of 3% per annum, for the period beginning from the date following the date of expiry of the time allowed under section 286(1) (Table: Sl. No. 10) to the date on which the refund is granted.

(5) For the purposes of sub-section (4)(b), in a case where proceedings for assessment or reassessment is pending, in computing the period for determining the additional interest payable, the period beginning from the date on which such refund is withheld by the Assessing Officer as per and subject to provisions of section 438(3) and ending with the date on which such assessment or reassessment is made, shall be excluded.

(6) Where refund of any amount becomes due to the deductor in respect of any amount paid to the credit of the Central Government under Chapter XIX-B, such deductor shall be entitled to receive, in addition to the said amount, simple interest thereon calculated at the rate of 0.5% for every month or part of a month comprised in the period, from the date on which—

(a) claim for refund is made in the form as prescribed; or

(b) tax is paid, where refund arises on account of giving effect to an order under section 359 or 363 or 365(10) or 368, to the date on which the refund is granted.

(7) If the proceedings resulting in the refund are delayed for reasons attributable to the assessee or the deductor, whether wholly or in part, the period of the delay so attributable to him shall be excluded from the period for which interest is payable under this section.

(8) Where any question arises as to the period to be excluded under sub-section (7), it shall be decided by the Principal Chief Commissioner or Chief Commissioner or Principal Commissioner or Commissioner whose decision thereon shall be final.

(9) Where, as a result of an order under section 270(10) or 271 or 279 or 287 or 288 or 359 or 363 or 365(10) or 368 or 377 or 378, the amount on which interest was payable under sub-section (1) has been increased or reduced, the interest shall be increased or reduced accordingly.

(10) In a case where the interest is reduced under sub-section (9), the Assessing Officer shall serve on the assessee a notice of demand in the form as prescribed specifying the amount of the excess interest paid and requiring him to pay such amount.

(11) The notice of demand under sub-section (10) shall be deemed to be a notice under section 289 and the provisions of this Act shall apply accordingly.

437.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961)

"244A.(1) Where refund of any amount becomes due to the assessee under this Act, he shall, subject to the provisions of this section, be entitled to receive, in addition to the said amount, simple interest thereon calculated in the following manner, namely :—

(a) where the refund is out of any tax collected at source under section 206C or paid by way of advance tax or treated as paid under section 199, during the financial year immediately preceding the assessment year, such interest shall be calculated at the rate of one-half per cent for every month or part of a month comprised in the period,—

(i) from the 1st day of April of the assessment year to the date on which the refund is granted, if the return of income has been furnished on or before the due date specified under sub-section (1) of section 139; or

(ii) from the date of furnishing of return of income to the date on which the refund is granted, in a case not covered under sub-clause (i):

[Provided that where refund arises as a result of an order passed by the Assessing Officer in consequence of an application made by the assessee under sub-section (20) of section 155, such interest shall be calculated at the rate of one-half per cent for every month or part of a month comprised in the period from the date of such application to the date on which the refund is granted;]

(aa) where the refund is out of any tax paid under section 140A, such interest shall be calculated at the rate of one-half per cent for every month or part of a month comprised in the period, from the date of furnishing of return of income or payment of tax, whichever is later, to the date on which the refund is granted:

Provided that no interest under clause (a) or clause (aa) shall be payable, if the amount of refund is less than ten per cent of the tax as determined under sub-section (1) of section 143 or on regular assessment;

(b) in any other case, such interest shall be calculated at the rate of one-half per cent for every month or part of a month comprised in the period or periods from the date or, as the case may be, dates of payment of the tax or penalty to the date on which the refund is granted.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this clause, "date of payment of tax or penalty" means the date on and from which the amount of tax or penalty specified in the notice of demand issued under section 156 is paid in excess of such demand.

(1A) In a case where a refund arises as a result of giving effect to an order under section 250 or section 254 or section 260 or section 262 or section 263 or section 264, wholly or partly, otherwise than by making a fresh assessment or reassessment, the assessee shall be entitled to receive, in addition to the interest payable under sub-section (1), an additional interest on such amount of refund calculated at the rate of three per cent per annum, for the period beginning from the date following the date of expiry of the time allowed under sub-section (5) of section 153 to the date on which the refund is granted:

[Provided that where proceedings for assessment or reassessment are pending in respect of an assessee, in computing the period for determining the additional interest payable to such assessee under this sub-section, the period beginning from the date on which such refund is withheld by the Assessing Officer in accordance with and subject to provisions of sub-section (2) of section 245 and ending [with the date up to which such refund is withheld], shall be excluded.]

(1B) Where refund of any amount becomes due to the deductor in respect of any amount paid to the credit of the Central Government under Chapter XVII-B, such deductor shall be entitled to receive, in addition to the said amount, simple interest thereon calculated at the rate of one-half per cent for every month or part of a month comprised in the period, from the date on which—

(a) claim for refund is made in the prescribed form; or

(b) tax is paid, where refund arises on account of giving effect to an order under section 250 or section 254 or section 260 or section 262,

to the date on which the refund is granted.

(2) If the proceedings resulting in the refund are delayed for reasons attributable to the assessee or the deductor, as the case may be, whether wholly or in part, the period of the delay so attributable to him shall be excluded from the period for which interest is payable under sub-section (1) or (1A) or (1B), and where any question arises as to the period to be excluded, it shall be decided by the Principal Chief Commissioner or Chief Commissioner or Principal Commissioner or Commissioner whose decision thereon shall be final.

(3) Where, as a result of an order under sub-section (3) of section 115WE or section 115WF or section 115WG or sub-section (3) of section 143 or section 144 or section 147 or section 154 or section 155 or section 250 or section 254 or section 260 or section 262 or section 263 or section 264 or an order of the Settlement Commission under sub-section (4) of section 245D, the amount on which interest was payable under sub-section (1) has been increased or reduced, as the case may be, the interest shall be increased or reduced accordingly, and in a case where the interest is reduced, the Assessing Officer shall serve on the assessee a notice of demand in the prescribed form specifying the amount of the excess interest paid and requiring him to pay such amount; and such notice of demand shall be deemed to be a notice under section 156 and the provisions of this Act shall apply accordingly.

(4) The provisions of this section shall apply in respect of assessments for the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1989, and subsequent assessment years :

Provided that in respect of assessment of fringe benefits, the provisions of this sub-section shall have effect as if for the figures "1989", the figures "2006" had been substituted."

437.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision

"Clause 437 of the Bill provides for interest on refunds. Clause 437 of the Bill corresponds to Section 244A of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and table has been provided to calculate the interest on refund in different circumstances."

437.4 Important Views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders

1. Interest on Refunds to be at par with interest charged. It is proposed that the interest rate on refunds due to an assessee and on the amounts payable by the assessee to the Government should be same.

   Justification for the above suggestion has been furnished as under:
   To bring parity, to have a level playing ground between the interest charged to assessee and the revenue, and to avoid discrimination, the interest on refund payable to the assessee must be raised. The revenue is charging interest at the rate of 18% per annum for delay of tax payment by the assessee under section 398(3). Interest at the rate of 12% per annum is being charged by the revenue for payment of demand if it is not paid within the prescribed time under section 411. Technically, matching rate of interest should be available to an assessee under section 437. The rate of interest under section 437 must therefore be raised to 1% per month or part of month."

2. The phrase "date on which refund is granted" be precisely defined to signify the date when the taxpayer actually receives the refund. This will be consistent with past judicial precedent wherein similar view has been adopted. This will aid in avoiding unnecessary litigation in the future. Clear instructions should be issued to the JAO to grant additional interest at the rate of 3% per annum. This will assist in preventing unwarranted litigation and ensure smoother process for granting interest.
   Elaborating further on this issue, the stakeholder has given following justification for the above suggestion:

   While S.244A(1A) of ITA 1961 (clause 437(4) of ITB 2025) grants additional interest of 3% p.a. for delays under 153(5) of ITA 1961, but refunds arising out of rectification attracts only 0.5% interest rate. There are persistent technical issues in data flow from CPC to the Jurisdictional AO's system, particularly for prepaid taxes, FTC, MAT credit, and TDS/TCS. This leads to prolonged delays in processing rectification applications. Further, the tickets raised by the JAO and taxpayer with CPC to resolve the said technical issue remain open without any solution from the technical team, despite relentless follow ups.

   Additionally, even when orders are passed, there are delays in uploading them to the system. This further holds up the refunds which are actually granted after a long time. Moreover, while Section 244A provides interest up to the refund date, but in practice, no interest is paid for the period between the refund order date and the actual receipt date.The rate of interest on refund payable to an assessee must be raised to 1% per month or part of a month."

3. With regard to sub clause (7) of Clause 437, a suggestion has been received to insert the words "as the case may be" to eliminate interpretational issues. Further, in sub-section (9) it has been suggested that after the words "sub-section (1)" the word "or (3)" may be inserted.

4. Another suggestion regarding sub Clause (9) of Clause 437 is stated as follows:
   "In sub-section (9) after the words "sub-section (1)" the word "or (3)" may be inserted. Sub-section (9) may be redrafted as follows – (9) Where, as a result of an order under section 270(10) or 271 or 279 or 287 or 288 or 359 or 363 or 365(10) or 368 or 377 or 378, the amount on which interest was payable under sub-section (1) or (3)has been increased or reduced, the interest shall be increased or reduced accordingly."

437.5 Examination by the Committee

The Committee examined the issue of parity in interest rates for refunds and dues to the Government. Responding to the suggestion to prescribe same rate of interest, the Ministry stated that the suggestion made by the stakeholder is in the nature of policy change which is beyond the scope of the objectives of the IT Bill, 2025.

437.5.1 Asked about the underlying principles for charging a significantly higher rate of interest on delayed tax payments by assessees (1% - 1.5% per month) compared to the rate at which it compensates assessees for delayed refunds (0.5% per month), and reasons for considering it as a fundamental policy shift rather than a necessary correction for fairness within the tax system, the Department of Revenue, in their written submission, stated as under:

(i) "Presently an interest of 0.5% per month or part of month is granted to the assessee. This is higher than the commercial rate of interest on short-term deposits and comparable with long-term return of fixed deposits.
(ii) The present rate of 1% per month or part of month is to ensure discipline in payment of taxes, otherwise the taxpayers will be incentivised to not pay their due taxes or demands.
(iii) Having an equal rate may encourage the tax payer to postpone the payment of taxes indefinitely and instead use the funds for obtaining better returns from the market. This would cause serious damage to the exchequer.
(iv) The differential rates have been prevalent for a long time for these reasons."

437.5.2 Further, in a post evidence submission, the Department of Revenue stated following with regard to compensation to taxpayers:

"Section 244A of the Income-tax Act, 1961 provides for 'interest on refunds'. Compared to 35 years back, the rate of interest on refunds which was 18% has come down in a period of about 12 years in line with the decrease in rate of interest determined by the markets/banking institutions and has been at 6% since 2003. It is observed that the rate of interest on refunds has been at a reasonable level compared to Fixed Deposits and quite higher compared to Savings Accounts.

The interest rate of 6 % is in consonance with the prevailing Fixed Deposit rate ranging from 3 to 7 %. Presently an interest of 0.5% per month or part of month is granted to the assessee. This is higher than the commercial rate of interest on short-term deposits and comparable with long-tern return of fixed deposits.

In the cases identified as high pitched by the Local Committee, no coercive recovery of demand is made.

With a view to compensating the taxpayers for any delay in issue of refunds, section 244A was amended through Finance Act, 2016 (w.e.f. 01-06-2016) by increasing the rate of interest on refunds by 3% for the period which is in excess of the time limit given for giving appeal effect to orders issued by CIT(Appeals), ITAT, High Court or Supreme Court. This provision also expedites the process of issue of refunds by the Officers else Department will be liable for paying excess interest on refunds."

437.5.3 Regarding the suggestion to prescribe "the date on which refund is granted", the Department of Revenue have submitted as under:

"The suggestion seeks to define the phrase "date on which refund is granted". It is in the nature of Policy Change which is outside the scope of the Bill. There is no change in the provisions of the Bill viz-a-viz Act. With regard to defining the phrase 'date on which refund is granted', as per section 244A (clause 437 of the Bill), the same is not necessary. Defining each of such term, which are well understood in common parlance, will unnecessarily increase the volume of the Bill and may also create fresh litigation."

437.5.4 Further, during the course of oral evidence held on 10.6.2025, when specifically asked about the reasons for not accepting the above suggestion, a representative of the Department of Revenue informed as under:

"Sir, there is a reference to a phrase 'date on which refund is granted'. The stakeholder is asking that this phrase itself should be defined. We are saying that it is commonly understood. We need not go into such minute details."

437.5.5 Regarding the practice followed in major economies of the world with regard to the rate of interest on dues payable as compared to refunds to the assessee, the Department informed following in their written submission:

"In most of the major economies such as the UK, similar practice is followed where higher rate of interest is charged on the dues payable as compared to refunds to the assessee. In UK the interest on tax demands is 7.75% while the interest on tax refunds is 4.25%."

437.5.6 Responding to the suggestion to insert the words "as the case may be", the Department of Revenue have furnished following written submission:

"Accepted.

The suggestion seeks to include the words "as the case may be" in sub-clause 437(7). The suggestion is in the nature of drafting correction. Thus, same is acceptable."

437.5.7 With regard to the suggestion received onsub Clause (9), of Clause 437, the Department of Revenue, stated as under:

> "Accepted.
> The suggestion seeks to include the words "or (3)" in sub-clause 437(9). The suggestion is in the nature of drafting correction and in line with provisions of the Act. Thus, same is acceptable."

437.6 Observation/Recommendation by the Committee

The Committee note that Clause 437, relating to interest on refunds, corresponds to Section 244A of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. They find that besides simplification of the language and prescription of interest on refund in a tabular format, no policy change has been effected. They acknowledge the demand for interest rate parity for both dues and refunds. However, after considering the Department's contention that (i) more interest burden on dues and (ii) interest on refunds being more than commercial rate of interest on short-term deposits and comparable with long-term return of fixed deposits; are required for tax payment discipline, the Committee are of the view that status quo may be maintained. Nevertheless, they recommend the Department to incorporate the accepted drafting corrections for Clause 437, as pointed out in various suggestions.

Clause 438 - Set off and withholding of refunds in certain cases

438.1 Proposed provision in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025

(1) Where a refund becomes due or is found to be due to any person under this Act, the Assessing Officer or Commissioner or Principal Commissioner or Chief Commissioner or Principal Chief Commissioner, may instead of payment of the refund, set off the amount to be refunded or any part of that amount, against the sum, if any, remaining payable under this Act by such person.

(2) Any action under sub-section (1) shall only be taken after giving intimation in writing to such person of the action proposed to be taken.

(3) Where,— (a) a part of the refund is set off under sub-section (1); or (b) no such amount is set off, and refund becomes due to a person, and the Assessing Officer, having regard to the fact that proceedings for assessment or reassessment are pending in the case of the person, may, for reasons to be recorded in writing and with the previous approval of the Principal Commissioner or the Commissioner, withhold the refund up to sixty days from the date on which such assessment or reassessment is made.

"245.(1) Where under any of the provisions of this Act, a refund becomes due or is found to be due to any person, the Assessing Officer or Commissioner or Principal Commissioner or Chief Commissioner or Principal Chief Commissioner, as the case may be, may, in lieu of payment of the refund, set off the amount to be refunded or any part of that amount, against the sum, if any, remaining payable under this Act by the person to whom the refund is due, after giving an intimation in writing to such person of the action proposed to be taken under this sub-section.

(2) Where a part of the refund is set off under the provisions of sub-section (1), or where no such amount is set off, and refund becomes due to a person, and the Assessing Officer, having regard to the fact that proceedings for assessment or reassessment are pending in the case of such person, he may, for reasons to be recorded in writing and with the previous approval of the Principal Commissioner or the Commissioner, as the case may be, withhold the refund up to [sixty days from] the date on which such assessment or reassessment is made.]"

438.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision

“Clause 438 of the Bill provides for set off and withholding of refunds in certain cases. Clause 438 of the Bill corresponds to Section 245 of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause.”

438.3.1 In reply to a specific query on changes (addition or omission or replacement of words etc.) if any, between the provisions of the Clause and existing Section, the Department of Revenue furnished following reply:

438.4 Observation/Recommendation by the Committee

The Committee note that Clause 438 relating to 'Set off and withholding of refunds in certain cases' is a textual simplification of Section 245 of the existing Act. The Ministry of Finance (Department of Revenue) have confirmed no policy change during its drafting. As the proposed Clause is in consonance with the objectives of the Bill, the Committee are of the view that it may be made part of the Bill, as proposed by the Department.

CHAPTER XXI

PENALTIES

Clause 439 - Penalty for under reporting and misreporting of income.

439.1 Proposed provision in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025

(1) The Competent Authority may, during the course of any proceedings under this Act, impose penalty on any person who has under-reported his income and such penalty shall be payable in addition to tax, if any.

(2) A person shall be deemed to have under-reported his income, if—

(a) the income assessed is greater than the income determined in the return processed under section 270(1)(a);

(b) the income assessed is greater than the maximum amount not chargeable to tax, where no return of income has been furnished or where return has been furnished for the first time under section 280;

(c) the income reassessed is greater than the income assessed or reassessed immediately before such reassessment;

(d) the amount of deemed total income assessed or reassessed as per section 206, is greater than the deemed total income determined in the return processed under section 270(1)(a);

(e) the amount of deemed total income assessed as per section 206, is greater than the maximum amount not chargeable to tax, where no return of income has been furnished or where return has been furnished for the first time under section 280;

(f) the amount of deemed total income reassessed as per section 206, is greater than the total income assessed or reassessed under the said sections immediately before such reassessment;

(g) the income assessed or reassessed has the effect of reducing the loss or converting such loss into income.

(3) The amount of under-reported income shall be,—

(a) if income has been assessed for the first time,—

(i) Where return has been furnished, the difference between the amount of income assessed and the amount of income determined under section 270(1)(a);

(ii) Where no return of income has been furnished or if return has been furnished for the first time under section 280,—

(A) the amount of income assessed, in the case of a company, firm or local authority; and

(B) the difference between the amount of income assessed and the maximum amount not chargeable to tax, in a case not covered in item (A);

(b) in any other case, the difference between the amount of income reassessed or recomputed and the amount of income assessed, reassessed or recomputed in a preceding order.

(4) If under-reported income arises out of determination of deemed total income as per section 206, the amount of total under-reported income shall be determined as under—

where,—

A = the total income assessed as per the provisions other than the provisions contained in section 206 (herein referred to as “general provisions”);

B = the total income that would have been chargeable had the total income assessed as per the general provisions been reduced by the amount of under-reported income;

C = the total income assessed as per section 206;

D = the total income that would have been chargeable had the total income assessed as per section 206 been reduced by the amount of under-reported income.

(5) (a) If the amount of under-reported income on any issue is considered both under section 206 and under general provisions, such amount shall not be reduced from total income assessed while determining the amount under D referred to in sub-section (4);

(b) in a case where an assessment or reassessment has the effect of reducing the loss declared in the return or converting that loss into income, the amount of underreported income shall be the difference between the loss claimed and the income or loss, assessed or reassessed.

(6) Subject to sub-section (8), where the source of any receipt, deposit or investment in any tax year is claimed to be an amount added to income or deducted while computing loss, in the assessment of such person in any year prior to the tax year in which such receipt, deposit or investment appears (herein referred to as “the preceding year”) and no penalty was levied for such preceding year, then, the under-reported income shall include such amount as is sufficient to cover such receipt, deposit or investment.

(7) The amount referred to in sub-section (6) shall be deemed to be income under-reported for the preceding year in the following order—

(a) the preceding year immediately before the year in which the receipt, deposit or investment appears, being the first preceding year; and

(b) where the amount added or deducted in the first preceding year is not sufficient to cover the receipt, deposit or investment, the year immediately preceding the first preceding year and so on.

(8) The under-reported income, for the purposes of this section, shall not include the following:—

(a) the amount of income in respect of which the assessee offers an explanation and the Competent Authority, is satisfied that the explanation is bona fide and the assessee has disclosed all the material facts to substantiate the explanation offered;

(b) the amount of under-reported income determined on the basis of an estimate, if the accounts are correct and complete to the satisfaction of the Competent Authority, but the method employed is such that the income cannot properly be deduced therefrom;

(c) the amount of under-reported income determined on the basis of an estimate, if the assessee has, on his own, estimated a lower amount of addition or disallowance on the same issue, has included such amount in the computation of his income and has disclosed all the facts material to the addition or disallowance; and

(d) the amount of under-reported income represented by any addition made in conformity with the arm’s length price determined by the Transfer Pricing Officer, where the assessee had maintained information and documents as prescribed under section 171, declared the international transaction under Chapter X, and, disclosed all the material facts relating to the transaction.

(9) The penalty referred to in sub-section (1) shall be 50% of the tax payable on under-reported income.

(10) Irrespective of anything contained in sub-section (8) or (9), where under reported income is in consequence of any misreporting thereof by any person, the penalty referred to in sub-section (1) shall be 200% of the tax payable on under reported income.

(11) The cases of misreporting of income referred to in sub-section (10) shall be the following:—

(a) misrepresentation or suppression of facts;

(b) failure to record investments in the books of account;

(c) claim of expenditure not substantiated by any evidence;

(d) recording of any false entry in the books of account;

(e) failure to record any receipt in books of account having a bearing on total income; and

(f) failure to report any international transaction or any transaction considered to be an international transaction or any specified domestic transaction, to which the provisions of Chapter X apply.

(12) The tax payable in respect of the under-reported income shall be—

(a) where no return of income has been furnished or where return has been furnished for the first time under section 280 and the income has been assessed for the first time, the amount of tax calculated on the under-reported income as increased by the maximum amount not chargeable to tax as if it were the total income;

(b) if the total income determined under section 270(1)(a) or assessed, reassessed or recomputed in a preceding order is a loss, the amount of tax calculated on the under-reported income as if it were the total income;

(c) in any other case, determined as follows—

where,—

X = the amount of tax calculated on the under-reported income as increased by the total income determined under section 270(1)(a) or total income assessed, reassessed or recomputed in a preceding order as if itwere the total income; and

Y = the amount of tax calculated on the total income determined under section 270(1)(a) or total income assessed, reassessed or recomputed in a preceding order.

(13) No addition or disallowance of an amount shall form the basis for imposition of penalty, if such addition or disallowance has already formed the basis for penalty in the case of the person for the same or any other tax year.

(14) The penalty referred to in sub-section (1) shall be imposed, by an order in writing by the Competent Authority.

(15) In this section,—

(a) "Competent Authority" means the Assessing Officer or the Joint Commissioner (Appeals) or the Commissioner (Appeals) or the Commissioner or the Principal Commissioner; and

(b) "preceding order" means an order immediately preceding the order during the course of which the penalty under sub-section (1) has been initiated.

439.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961)

"270A.(1) The Assessing Officer or [the Joint Commissioner (Appeals) or] the Commissioner (Appeals) or the Principal Commissioner or Commissioner may, during the course of any proceedings under this Act, direct that any person who has under-reported his income shall be liable to pay a penalty in addition to tax, if any, on the under-reported income.

(2) A person shall be considered to have under-reported his income, if—

(a) the income assessed is greater than the income determined in the return processed under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 143;

(b) the income assessed is greater than the maximum amount not chargeable to tax, where no return of income has been furnished or where return has been furnished for the first time under section 148;

(c) the income reassessed is greater than the income assessed or reassessed immediately before such reassessment;

(d) the amount of deemed total income assessed or reassessed as per the provisions of section 115JB or section 115JC, as the case may be, is greater than the deemed total income determined in the return processed under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 143;

(e) the amount of deemed total income assessed as per the provisions of section 115JB or section 115JC is greater than the maximum amount not chargeable to tax, where no return of income has been furnished or where return has been furnished for the first time under section 148;

(f) the amount of deemed total income reassessed as per the provisions of section 115JB or section 115JC, as the case may be, is greater than the deemed total income assessed or reassessed immediately before such reassessment;

(g) the income assessed or reassessed has the effect of reducing the loss or converting such loss into income.

(3) The amount of under-reported income shall be,—

(i) in a case where income has been assessed for the first time,—

(a) if return has been furnished, the difference between the amount of income assessed and the amount of income determined under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 143;

(b) in a case where no return of income has been furnished or where return has been furnished for the first time under section 148,—

(A) the amount of income assessed, in the case of a company, firm or local authority; and

(B) the difference between the amount of income assessed and the maximum amount not chargeable to tax, in a case not covered in item (A);

(ii) in any other case, the difference between the amount of income reassessed or recomputed and the amount of income assessed, reassessed or recomputed in a preceding order:

Provided that where under-reported income arises out of determination of deemed total income in accordance with the provisions of section 115JB or section 115JC, the amount of total under-reported income shall be determined in accordance with the following formula—

where,

A = the total income assessed as per the provisions other than the provisions contained in section 115JB or section 115JC (herein called general provisions);

B = the total income that would have been chargeable had the total income assessed as per the general provisions been reduced by the amount of under-reported income;

C = the total income assessed as per the provisions contained in section 115JB or section 115JC;

D = the total income that would have been chargeable had the total income assessed as per the provisions contained in section 115JB or section 115JC been reduced by the amount of under-reported income:

Provided further that where the amount of under-reported income on any issue is considered both under the provisions contained in section 115JB or section 115JC and under general provisions, such amount shall not be reduced from total income assessed while determining the amount under item D.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section,—

(a) "preceding order" means an order immediately preceding the order during the course of which the penalty under sub-section (1) has been initiated;

(b) in a case where an assessment or reassessment has the effect of reducing the loss declared in the return or converting that loss into income, the amount of under-reported income shall be the difference between the loss claimed and the income or loss, as the case may be, assessed or reassessed.

(4) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (6), where the source of any receipt, deposit or investment in any assessment year is claimed to be an amount added to income or deducted while computing loss, as the case may be, in the assessment of such person in any year prior to the assessment year in which such receipt, deposit or investment appears (hereinafter referred to as "preceding year") and no penalty was levied for such preceding year, then, the under-reported income shall include such amount as is sufficient to cover such receipt, deposit or investment.

(5) The amount referred to in sub-section (4) shall be deemed to be amount of income under-reported for the preceding year in the following order—

(a) the preceding year immediately before the year in which the receipt, deposit or investment appears, being the first preceding year; and

(6) The under-reported income, for the purposes of this section, shall not include the following, namely:—

(a) the amount of income in respect of which the assessee offers an explanation and the Assessing Officer or [95][the Joint Commissioner (Appeals) or] the Commissioner (Appeals) or the Commissioner or the Principal Commissioner, as the case may be, is satisfied that the explanation is bona fide and the assessee has disclosed all the material facts to substantiate the explanation offered;

(b) the amount of under-reported income determined on the basis of an estimate, if the accounts are correct and complete to the satisfaction of the Assessing Officer or [95][the Joint Commissioner (Appeals) or] the Commissioner (Appeals) or the Commissioner or the Principal Commissioner, as the case may be, but the method employed is such that the income cannot properly be deduced therefrom;

(c) the amount of under-reported income determined on the basis of an estimate, if the assessee has, on his own, estimated a lower amount of addition or disallowance on the same issue, has included such amount in the computation of his income and has disclosed all the facts material to the addition or disallowance;

(d) the amount of under-reported income represented by any addition made in conformity with the arm's length price determined by the Transfer Pricing Officer, where the assessee had maintained information and documents as prescribed under section 92D, declared the international transaction under Chapter X, and, disclosed all the material facts relating to the transaction; and

(e) the amount of undisclosed income referred to in section 271AAB.

(7) The penalty referred to in sub-section (1) shall be a sum equal to fifty per cent of the amount of tax payable on under-reported income.

(8) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (6) or sub-section (7), where under-reported income is in consequence of any misreporting thereof by any person, the penalty referred to in sub-section (1) shall be equal to two hundred per cent of the amount of tax payable on under-reported income.

(9) The cases of misreporting of income referred to in sub-section (8) shall be the following, namely:—

(a) misrepresentation or suppression of facts;

(b) failure to record investments in the books of account;

(c) claim of expenditure not substantiated by any evidence;

(d) recording of any false entry in the books of account;

(e) failure to record any receipt in books of account having a bearing on total income; and

(f) failure to report any international transaction or any transaction deemed to be an international transaction or any specified domestic transaction, to which the provisions of Chapter X apply.

(10) The tax payable in respect of the under-reported income shall be—

(a) where no return of income has been furnished or where return has been furnished for the first time under section 148 and the income has been assessed for the first time, the amount of tax calculated on the under-reported income as increased by the maximum amount not chargeable to tax as if it were the total income;

(b) where the total income determined under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 143 or assessed, reassessed or recomputed in a preceding order is a loss, the amount of tax calculated on the under-reported income as if it were the total income;

(c) in any other case, determined in accordance with the formula—

where,

X = the amount of tax calculated on the under-reported income as increased by the total income determined under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 143 or total income assessed, reassessed or recomputed in a preceding order as if it were the total income; and

Y = the amount of tax calculated on the total income determined under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 143 or total income assessed, reassessed or recomputed in a preceding order.

(11) No addition or disallowance of an amount shall form the basis for imposition of penalty, if such addition or disallowance has formed the basis of imposition of penalty in the case of the person for the same or any other assessment year.

(12) The penalty referred to in sub-section (1) shall be imposed, by an order in writing, by the Assessing Officer, [96][the Joint Commissioner (Appeals) or] the Commissioner (Appeals), the Commissioner or the Principal Commissioner, as the case may be."

439.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision

"Clause 439 of the Bill provides for penalty for underreporting and misreporting of income. The clause corresponds to section 270A of the Act. There is no major policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause. Opportunity of being heard is removed from individual sections since clause 471 governing procedure for penalty says that no penalty under this chapter shall be imposed unless the assessee is given reasonable opportunity of being heard."

439.4 Important Views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders

1. Sub Clause 2(b) should be amended as the difference between the amount of income assessed and the maximum amount not chargeable to tax after rebate under section 156, if applicable. Accordingly, the sub Clause should be amended as under:

   (b) the income assessed is greater than the maximum amount not chargeable to tax after providing rebate under section 156, where no return of income has been furnished or where return has been furnished for the first time under section 280.

2. Clause 439 (3) (a) (ii) B of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025, in which amount of under reported income has been defined, should be amended as the difference between the amount of income assessed and the maximum amount not chargeable to tax after rebate under section 156, if applicable. This will improve the accuracy and fairness of the penalty.

3. A suggestion has been received that dual penalty should be removed. Giving example of dual penalties proposed in the Bill, the stakeholder has suggested following:

   "For recording of any false entry in the books of account, penalty @200% of the tax payable on under-reported income is leviable u/s 439 and penalty equal to the aggregate amount of false entry is leviable u/s 444. This is an example of dual penalty. Additionally, for failure to report any international transaction or any specified domestic transaction in addition to penalty u/s 439, penalty @2% of the value of each international transaction is leviable u/s 442. This is another example of dual penalty. It should, therefore, be excluded from one section."

4. Another memorandum suggests that there should be nominal penalties for non-wilful lapses. Further, the penalty should be harsher for digital fraud only as systems can pre-empt most defaults through alerts.
5. A suggestion has been received to insert a new sub clause in Clause 439 (13) as under:

   "New sub-section to be inserted after section 439(13) to provide that: -
   The competent authority shall record a satisfaction in the order with reference to the addition made as to whether penalty proceedings are initiated for –
   (a) underreporting of income for which penalty is leviable under sub-section (9) or
   (b) underreporting consequent to cases of misreporting as per sub-section (11), for which penalty is leviable under sub-section (10). "

   It is stated that the above amendment will reduce litigation as there are number of litigations where the Assessing Officer does not record his satisfaction whether the addition made by him is underreporting of income or misreporting of income. (Batch IV Suggestion, sl. no. 115)

439.5 Examination by the Committee

439.5.1 Above issue was raised before the Department of Revenue. Expressing their views on the above suggestion, the Department of Revenue furnished written reply, stated as under:

"The suggestion seeks to amend clause 439(3)(a)(ii)(B) Penalty for under-reporting and misreporting of income as the difference between the amount of income assessed and the maximum amount not chargeable to tax after rebate under section 156, if applicable. There is no change in the provisions of the Bill viz-a-viz Act. Where income exceeds the amount eligible for rebate, the taxes are calculated on income exceeding the exemption limit. Consequently, any misreporting or underreporting is to be calculated with the exemption limit as reference not from the amount upto which rebate is available. Thus, the suggestion is not feasible."

439.5.2 During the oral evidence of the Ministry of Finance (Department of Revenue) held on 10.6.2025, a representative of the Department explained this further as follows:

"It is related to calculating penalty when we assess some additional income. For example, in case, the taxpayer has not filed the return. There, Rs.4 lakh in new regime is the minimum amount which is not chargeable to tax. Suppose the assessed income is Rs.20 lakh, penalty is leviable on Rs.16 lakh. Here the stakeholder is saying that the maximum amount up to which rebate is allowed should be Rs.12 lakh instead of Rs.4 lakh. The penalty amount is leviable on something which has not been shown to the Department. Rebate is available when return is filed and rebate is claimed. So, Rs.4 lakh is the amount beyond which the income is required to be shown."

439.5.3 With regard to the suggestion for removal of dual penalty, the Department of Revenue, in their written reply stated as under:

"The suggestion seeks to remove certain dual penalties. It is in nature of policy change. All the penalty provisions in the Act serves a separate purpose of deterrence which is essential for the effective implementation of the Act. Thus, suggestion is not feasible."

439.5.4 When asked to explain the reasons for not imposing single penalty for violations, a representative of the Department of Revenue, further explained the rationale that all the penalties are in the context of a particular default.

439.5.5 In this regard, in response to a specific query aboutsimplifying the complex landscape of penalties, specifically for minor and major categories, to make the Income-Tax Act less cumbersome, perhaps through different classifications, systematic categorization, or enhanced guidance, if not clubbing / a single tabular form, the Department of Revenue, in their post evidence written submission, stated as under:

"Penalties have been simplified and rationalised over the last 10 years. Major such over hauling was done vide Finance act, 2017. In the existing Act, there is already classification of penalties in respect of misreporting and underreporting of income. This classification caters to the major and minor categories. Further, provision of immunity is already there for under reporting of income. The time limits of imposing penalties have also been rationalized as per clause 472 of the Bill. However, putting the penalties in a single table is not the solution to making penalties more reader friendly."

439.5.6 Expressing their views on the suggestion to make nominal penalties for non-willful lapses, the Department of Revenue, in their written submission, stated as under:

"The suggestion seeks to reduce the penalty rates for non-wilful lapses. This has been already considered in the Act whereby penalty for under-reporting is @50% of tax payable. Whereas, penalty @ 200% of tax payable for mis-reporting of income. Even, provision of immunity from the penalty and prosecution has been provided in the case of under-reporting of income under clause 440 by paying the due taxes with interest. However, penalty provisions are required to maintain optimum deterrence without which the revenue collections could be seriously affected. Quantum of penalties in ITB 2025 remains the same as they are there in the IT Act. For encouraging voluntary compliance and non-intrusive methods of tax collection, deterrence in various forms is required. Thus, suggestion is already addressed."

439.5.7 When asked to explain the difference between harsh and nominal penalty, a representative of the Department of Revenue, during the deliberations held on 16.6.2025, informed the Committee as under:

"Madam, there is already a distinction in the Act for underreporting and misreporting. Where the penalty is in nature of underreporting, there, the penalty rate has already reduced. It is only 50 per cent and even, on that 50 per cent, the taxpayer can seek an immunity and file an application before the assessing officer and then seek immunity, provided, he pays his taxes on the principal amount. So, where the underreporting is in consequence of misreporting, there, we have provided a higher rate of penalty of 200 per cent. So, that way, Madam, the suggestion that he is making, that is already addressed in Act as well as in the Bill. That is all."

439.5.8 On the definition of under-reported income, the Department of Revenue stated as under:

"The suggestion seeks to amend clause 439(2)(b) to exclude such cases from the penalty of under-reporting where income assessed is greater than the maximum amount not chargeable to tax after providing rebate. Provision of 'rebate' does not reduce the total income of the assessee, it is a relief on the amount of tax that the taxpayer has to pay. Thus, the suggestion is not feasible."

439.5.9 In reply to a specific query on the terminological difference between "deemed" and "considered" as observed in provisions of Clause 439 (11) (f) and Section 270A (9)(f) and its impact on the scope and implications of penalties related to international and specified domestic transactions and also on the overall legal intent and obligations for taxpayers and the tax authorities, the Department of Revenue, in their written submission stated as under:

"Accepted.
Suggestion seeks to replace the word "considered" with word "Deemed" in clause 439(11)(f). The same is in nature of the drafting correction, thus accepted."

439.5.10 Regarding the suggestion to insert a new sub Clausein Clause439 (13), the Department of Revenue has made following written submission:

"The suggestion seeks to insert a new sub-section to mandate that AO shall record a satisfaction in the order with reference to the addition made specifying that whether it is under-reporting of income or misreporting of income. While issuing the notice of penalty, system has created the distinction in the case of penalty of under-reporting and mis-reporting. Further, the assessment order is itself a satisfaction. There is no need for separate satisfaction. Also Clause 439 clearly provides the distinction between the under-reporting and mis-reporting of Income. Therefore, providing a provision of drawing a satisfaction by the AO regarding the under-reporting/misreporting of income does not arise as there is no discretion of AO in such distinction. Thus, suggestion is already addressed."

439.5.11 Explaining the position further, the representative of the Department of Revenue deposed following before the Committee during the course of his oral evidence held on 16.6.2025:

"Sir, what we are saying is that the assessment order is in itself is a satisfaction and there is no need to record a separate satisfaction. Also, the Clause 439, it clearly provides distinction between the underreporting and misreporting."

439.6 Observation/Recommendation by the Committee

The Committee note that proposed definitions of under-reporting and misreporting of income along with other respective penalties under Clause 439 are consistent with the extant Income-Tax Act, 1961. They, however, note that a reasonable opportunity of being heard has been provided separately in Clause 471 governing procedure for penalty, not within each penalty Clause. After taking into consideration the views and suggestions of various stakeholders and the Department's justification of no major policy change, the Committee find that provisions of Clause 439 aligns with the objectives of the Bill. However, in view of the Department's admission of a drafting error in the use of the word 'considered' in sub-clause (11) (f) of Clause 439, the Committee recommend to amend the proposed Clause accordingly.

Clause 440 - Immunity from imposition of penalty, etc.

440.1 Proposed provision in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025

(1) An assessee may make an application to the Assessing Officer for granting immunity from penalty under section 439 and initiation of proceedings under section 478 or section 479, if—

(a) the tax and interest payable as per the order of assessment or reassessment under section 270(10) or section 279, has been paid within the period specified in the notice of demand; and

(b) no appeal against the order referred to in clause (a) has been filed.

(2) An application referred to in sub-section (1) shall be made within one month from the end of the month in which the order referred to in clause (a) of the said sub-section has been received in such form and such manner as prescribed.

(3) The Assessing Officer, on fulfilment of the conditions as specified in sub section (1), and after the expiry of the period of filing appeal as specified in section 358(3)(a), shall grant immunity from penalty under section 439 and initiation of proceedings under section 478 or 479.

(4) No immunity under sub-section (3) shall be granted if penalty has been initiated under circumstances referred to in sub-section 439(11).

(5) The Assessing Officer, shall pass an order accepting or rejecting the application as referred to in sub-section (1) within three months from the end of the month of its receipt.

(6) No order of rejection under sub-section (5) shall be made without giving the assessee an opportunity of being heard.

(7) The order made under sub-section (5) shall be final.

(8) No appeal under section 356 or 357 or an application for revision under section 378 shall be admissible against the order referred to in sub-section (1)(a), if an order under sub-section (5) has been made accepting the application.

440.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961)

"270AA.(1) An assessee may make an application to the Assessing Officer to grant immunity from imposition of penalty under section 270A and initiation of proceedings under section 276C or section 276CC, if he fulfils the following conditions, namely:—

(a) the tax and interest payable as per the order of assessment or reassessment under sub-section (3) of section 143 or section 147, as the case may be, has been paid within the period specified in such notice of demand; and

(b) no appeal against the order referred to in clause (a) has been filed.

(2) An application referred to in sub-section (1) shall be made within one month from the end of the month in which the order referred to in clause (a) of sub-section (1) has been received and shall be made in such form and verified in such manner as may be prescribed.

(3) The Assessing Officer shall, subject to fulfilment of the conditions specified in sub-section (1) and after the expiry of the period of filing the appeal as specified in clause (b) of sub-section (2) of section 249, grant immunity from imposition of penalty under section 270A and initiation of proceedings under section 276C or section 276CC, where the proceedings for penalty under section 270A has not been initiated under the circumstances referred to in sub-section (9) of the said section 270A.

(4) The Assessing Officer shall, within a period of [three months] from the end of the month in which the application under sub-section (1) is received, pass an order accepting or rejecting such application:

Provided that no order rejecting the application shall be passed unless the assessee has been given an opportunity of being heard.

(5) The order made under sub-section (4) shall be final.

(6) No appeal under [section 246 or] section 246A or an application for revision under section 264 shall be admissible against the order of assessment or reassessment, referred to in clause (a) of sub-section (1), in a case where an order under sub-section (4) has been made accepting the application."

440.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision

"Clause 440 of the Bill provides for Immunity from imposition of penalty. The Clause corresponds to Section 270AA of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing Section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

440.4 Important Views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders

1. The classification of disallowances or additions made by the Assessing Officer (AO) during assessments is frequently mis classified as 'misreporting of income' rather than 'under reporting of income'. This mis characterization deprives eligible taxpayers of their right to immunity and compels them to litigate matter further in appeal. To address this issue, it is suggested that CIT be empowered to independently review such classifications, particularly when the assessee believes the AO's classification is incorrect and wishes to avail the benefit of immunity. Moreover, if a taxpayer decides to file appeal against penalty order and the Appellate Authority determines that the case falls within the scope of under reporting of income, the taxpayer should be granted a window to avail benefit of immunity. This will help to prevent unnecessary litigation. Furthermore, immunity may also be granted in case of misreporting of income, up to a particular threshold. In such case, the assessee should be required to pay an additional amount of tax to secure immunity and avoid further litigation.

   Currently, the provisions of section 270AA of grants immunity from levy of penalty only in case of under-reporting of income. There is no mechanism for immunity in case of misreporting of income. Also many times penalty is proposed to be levied incorrectly as if it is a case of mis reporting of income.

2. Provisions of section 440 should be suitably amended to provide as under :
   (A) In a case where the assessee has to prefer an appeal only challenging the incorrect classification of the addition / disallowance from misreporting of income to the correct classification being under reporting of income as confirmed by any of the appellate forums, the immunity shall also be available to the assessee in such a situation once the order of the appellate authority is passed.
   (B) In such a case, the time limit to file an application for immunity from penalty shall be provided with reference to the date of receipt of the order of the appellate authority instead of the date of the assessment order as at present. Alternatively, we also recommend that at least the filing of Revision petition before the CIT u/s. 378 should not result in denial of the immunity. The CIT being a senior person would understand the correct classification of the addition / disallowance. This will provide an opportunity for the assessee to avoid the litigation. The assessee can take recourse to revision proceedings u/s. 378 of the Act and avoid the appeal route. At the same time the assessee will be able to get the addition /disallowance correctly classified by a senior officer of the department namely the CIT. In such a situation, the time limit for filing immunity application shall be reckoned from the revision order passed u/s. 378 of the Act instead of the assessment order. Since no further litigation is provided against the order of the CIT u/s. 378, the revenue should also not have any grievance if the matter is looked into by a senior officer.

3. It is seen on many occasions that the assessment order passed considers a particular addition / disallowance to be on account of misreporting of income though as a matter of fact the same is not getting covered by any of the clauses of sub- section (9) of section 270A. This results in tremendous hardship to the concerned assessee on various counts as explained hereunder:

   Once the concerned addition / disallowance has been classified as misreporting of income, the rate of penalty which the assessee has to pay is 200% of tax amount as against 50% which is to be paid for the cases of underreporting of income. The bigger difficulty is that the assessee is not permitted to take the benefit of the immunity as provided in section 270AA. Difficulties arise merely due to wrong classification of the concerned addition / disallowance by the assessing officer. For getting the classification altered from misreporting of income to under-reporting of income also the assessee has to prefer an appeal before the appellate authorities. However, once the appeal is filed, the assessee loses the chance to get the immunity u/s. 270AA. Effectively therefore, the assessee is left with no choice but to indulge in litigation not only for the assessment but also for the penalty which is levied subsequently. This is against the basic intent of provisions of section270AA and also the broad objective of the government to reduce the litigation to a considerable extent."

4. A suggestion has been received for substituting Sub-Clause (4) of Clause 440 with the following sub-section:
   (4) Immunity under sub-section 3 shall be granted in cases falling under sub-section 439(11), if along with tax and interest, penalty equal to tax payable on under-reported income is paid within the period specified in the notice of demand and no appeal against the order has been filed. Consequential changes be made in sub-section 5.

   Stating reasons for above suggestion, the stakeholder has stated that in case of misreporting of income, penalty @ 200% of tax payable on under-reported income is levied. To reduce litigation, immunity from penalty for misreporting of income on payment of lower penalty may be allowed.

440.5 Examination by the Committee

440.5.1 On the suggestion to vest with CIT the power to review the classification of cases by Assessing Officer, the Department of Revenue, in their written submission, stated as under:

> "It is in the nature of Policy Change which is outside the scope of the Bill. There is no change in the provisions of the Bill viz-a-viz Act. There is clear and distinct classification of both kinds of penalties in respect of mis-reporting and under-reporting of income in Clause 439. CIT has the power of revision under clause 378 in case any classification is incorrect. The window of immunity cannot be provided to assessee as it will lead to multiplicity of proceedings and increase litigation as revenue also has the avenue of appealing before higher appellate authority. Misreporting of income is a serious tax evasion. Providing immunity in such cases will remove the deterrent effect and affect the collections. Thus, the suggestion is not feasible."

440.5.2 When asked about the power of CIT regarding classification of income, a representative of the Department of Revenue informed the Committee during the oral evidence held on 10.6.2025, as under:

> "Presently, CIT (Appeals) has got all the powers. Supreme Court has said it can do everything which assessing officer can do and it can do more also. CIT (Appeals) can always take a call, even if assessing officer is saying it is misreported, that it should be qualified as underreporting. So, there is no bar on CIT(Appeals) power as on date. It is co-terminus with the power of the assessing officer."

440.5.3 Further asked about rationale for leaving the discretion of classifying the cases of misreporting or under-reporting of income with the Assessing Officer, the representative of the Department of Revenue further deposed before the Committee as under:

> "The wording says "under-reporting of any income is a consequence of any mis-reporting." Then I define what mis-reporting is. Under-reporting will in any case occur, but under-reporting will occur as a consequence of these actions on my part like not recording in my books of account, not giving a false statement, not reporting an international transaction. If under-reporting is on these five accounts, then it will consequently result in a 200 per cent penalty. So, the provision is twined in that manner."

440.5.4 When a specific query was raised on prescription of maximum penalty of 75 percent prescribed in case of updated filing of income tax return which can be done within a period of four years whereas 50 percent and 200 percent penalty is applicable in case of under reporting and mis reporting of income respectively, the representative of the CBDT clarified the following:

"सर, इसकेपीछेजोभावनाहै, क्योंऐसाकियाजाताहै, जहांपरऑलरेडीअसेसमेंटहोगया, कोईसर्चहोगई, वैसेलोगोंकोअपडेटेडरिटर्नफाइलनहींकरनेकाअधिकारहै।यदिवहस्क्रूटनीमेंपिक-अपहोगयाऔरपताचलाकिटैक्सइवेडकियाहुआहै, मिसरिपोर्टिंगकियाहुआहै, दोसौपरसेंटकीपैनल्टीहैयहीउसकोडेटरेंसहै।उसकोपताहैकिअगरहमनेअपनारिटर्नअपडेटनहींकियाऔरमेराकेसस्क्रूटनीमेंआगयायारि-असेसमेंटनोटिसआगईतोमुझेदोसौपरसेंटपैनल्टीलगसकतीहै।यहडेटरेंटक्रिएटकररहाहै, जिसकेचलतेवहअपडेटेडरिटर्नफाइलकररहाहैनहींतोअपडेटेडरिटर्नफाइलक्योंकरेगा।"

440.5.5 In response to the suggestion to substitute Clause (4) of Clause 440 to allow immunity from penalty for misreporting of income on payment of lower penalty, the Department of Revenue, in their written submission, stated as under:

"The suggestion seeks to expand the scope of immunity from penalty and prosecution in the cases of penalty of mis-reporting of income as well. It is in nature of policy change. Mis-reporting of income is a serious tax evasion. Cases of mis-reporting have been kept at higher pedestal than under-reporting. There is clear and distinct classification of both kinds of penalties in respect of mis-reporting and under-reporting of income in clause 439. Providing immunity in such cases will remove the deterrent effect. Thus, the suggestion is not feasible."

440.6 Observations/recommendations of the Committee

The Committee observe that Clause 440 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 textually simplifies and retains the intent of Section 270AA of the Act regarding immunity from penalty. Noting that there is no policy change in this regard and having considered the views of the stakeholders as well as the response of the Department, the Committee accept Clause 440 as proposed.

Clause 441 - Failure to keep, maintain or retain books of account, documents, etc.

441.1 Proposed provision in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025

A penalty of twenty-five thousand rupees shall be imposed on a person by the Assessing Officer or the Joint Commissioner (Appeals) or the Commissioner (Appeals), if he fails to—

(a) keep and maintain the books of account and other documents as per section 62 or the relevant rules, in respect of any tax year; or

(b) retain such books of account and other documents for the period specified in the said rules.

441.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961)

"271A.Without prejudice to the provisions of section 270A or section 271, if any person fails to keep and maintain any such books of account and other documents as required by section 44AA or the rules made thereunder, in respect of any previous year or to retain such books of account and other documents for the period specified in the said rules, the Assessing Officer or the [6][Joint Commissioner (Appeals) or the] Commissioner (Appeals) may direct that such person shall pay, by way of penalty, a sum of twenty-five thousand rupees."

441.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision

"Clause 441 of the Bill provides for failure to keep, maintain or retain books of accounts, documents, etc. The clause corresponds to Section 271A of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing Section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

441.4 Important Views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders

It has been stated that as per Section 470, no penalty shall be imposed on a person or assessee, if he proves that there was reasonable cause for the said failure. On proving reasonable cause no penalty would be levied. Therefore, provisions of Clause 441 may be read as follows:

> "A penalty of twenty-five thousand rupees may be imposed on a person by the Assessing Officer or the Joint Commissioner (Appeals) or the Commissioner (Appeals), if he fails to—

(a) keep and maintain the books of account and other documents as per section 62 or the relevant rules, in respect of any tax year; or
(b) retain such books of account and other documents for the period specified in the said rules.“

441.5 Examination by the Committee

On being asked to respond to the above suggestion, the Department of Revenue, in their written submission, stated as under:

“Accepted.
The suggestion seeks to replace the words "shall" with "may" in clause 441 (section 271A- Failure to keep, maintain or retain books of account, document etc.). The suggestion is in the nature of drafting correction and earlier Act also contains the word ‘may’. Thus, suggestion is acceptable.”

441.6 Observations/recommendations of the Committee

The Committee note that Clause 441 prescribes a penalty of Rupees Twenty-five thousand for failure to keep, maintain or retain books of accounts, documents, etc. corresponding to Section 271A of the Act. In this regard, they note that the Department of Revenue have accepted the suggestion to substitute the word 'shall' with 'may' in the Clause on the lines of existing Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee find merit in the suggestion that replacement of the word 'shall' with 'may' will address the cases of non-compliance of the provisions due to genuine reasons/reasonable cause. Therefore, the Committee recommend to amend the Clause as under:

"441. A penalty of twenty-five thousand rupees may be imposed on a person by the Assessing Officer or the Joint Commissioner (Appeals) or the Commissioner (Appeals), if he fails to—

(a) keep and maintain the books of account and other documents as per section 62 or the relevant rules, in respect of any tax year; or

(b) retain such books of account and other documents for the period specified in the said rules".

Clause 442 - Penalty for failure to keep and maintain information and document, etc., in respect of certain transactions.

442.1 Proposed provision in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025

(1) The Assessing Officer or Commissioner (Appeals) may impose a penalty of 2% of the value of each international transaction or specified domestic transaction entered into by a person, if in respect of such transaction he,—

(a) fails to keep and maintain any such information and document as required by section 171(1);

(b) fails to report such transaction as he is required to do so; or

(c) maintains or furnishes an incorrect information or document.

(2) The prescribed income-tax authority referred to in section 171(4) may impose a penalty of five lakh rupees on a person, if he fails to furnish the information and document required under the said section.

442.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961)

"271AA.(1) Without prejudice to the provisions of section 270A or section 271 or section 271BA, if any person in respect of an international transaction or specified domestic transaction,—

(i) fails to keep and maintain any such information and document as required by sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) of section 92D;

(ii) fails to report such transaction which he is required to do so; or

(iii) maintains or furnishes an incorrect information or document, the Assessing Officer or Commissioner (Appeals) may direct that such person shall pay, by way of penalty, a sum equal to two per cent of the value of each international transaction or specified domestic transaction entered into by such person.

(2) If any person fails to furnish the information and the document as required under sub-section (4) of section 92D, the prescribed income-tax authority referred to in the said sub-section may direct that such person shall pay, by way of penalty, a sum of five hundred thousand rupees."

442.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision

"Clause 442 of the Bill provides for the penalty for failure to keep and maintain information and document, etc., in respect of certain transactions. The clause corresponds to section 271AA of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

442.4 Important Views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders

A memorandum submitted before the Committee seeks to put maximum ceiling on the amount of penalty as the penalty in this case is very high which may cause undue hardship. Therefore, following modification has been suggested to Clause 442:

> "1) The Assessing Officer or Commissioner (Appeals) may impose a penalty of 2% of the value of each international transaction or specified domestic transaction entered into by a person, if in respect of such transaction he -
> (a) fails to keep and maintain any such information and document as required by section 171(1);
> (b) fails to report such transaction as he is required to do so; or
> (c) maintains or furnishes an incorrect information or document.
> Further, new sub-section (2) to be inserted after section 442(1) to provide that -
> The amount of penalty in sub-section (1) shall not exceed Rs. 25 lakhs.
> For Example, in respect of sub-clauses of clause 171 and 172, penalty is leviable u/s 442, 447, 457. Sections 442, 447 and 457 can be placed in sequence as given in the consolidated section on penalties at the end of this comparative table. In the said table, the penalties are placed in Sl. No.2, 3 and 4 in a sequence."

442.5 Examination by the Committee

442.5.1 When asked to express their views in this regard, the Department of Revenue, in their written submission stated as under:

1) "The suggestion seeks to impose the maximum ceiling of Rs. 25 lakhs on the amount of penalty for failure to keep and maintain information and document, etc. in respect of certain transactions. It is in nature of policy change. The penalty is levied proportionately to maintain the deterrence effect. Setting a maximum limit will remove this effect. Thus suggestion is not feasible.
2) Further, suggestion seeks to insert a table for all the penalty provisions. The feasibility of tabular format for penalties under the Act was discussed during the drafting stage, but the clauses were kept separate considering the subtle differences between them, the necessity of saving clauses in some sections etc. Tabular format would not be feasible for this. Further, it would result in complete changes in the cross-referencing across the Act. Thus, suggestion is not feasible."

442.5.2 A representative of the Department of Revenue, further explained the position during the course of oral evidence held on 16.6.2025, stated as under:

> "Sir, there is a penalty of two percent which is levied in cases of international transaction. So, where he has failed to report that transaction to the department, the penalty is attached to the value of the international transaction. So, the suggestion is that a maximum ceiling of Rs. 25 lakhs may be provided. So, we have provided a penalty which is proportionate to the amount of international transaction so as to maintain a deterrent effect. So, the international transaction may be running into thousands of crores. For that, if we levy a small amount of penalty of Rs.25 lakhs, then it makes no difference."

442.6 Observations/recommendations of the Committee

The Committee observe that Clause 442, corresponding to Section 271AA of the existing Act, prescribes a penalty of 2% of the value of each international transaction or specified domestic transaction for failure to keep and maintain information and documents in certain cases. Noting no policy change regarding the prescribed penalty or amount,the Committee recommend to retain the Clause as proposed.

Clause 443 - Penalty in respect of certain income.

443.1 Proposed provision in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025

(1) The Assessing Officer or the Joint Commissioner (Appeals) or Commissioner (Appeals) may impose a penalty of 10% of the tax payable under section 195(1)(i), on an assessee if the income determined in his case for any tax year includes any income referred to in section 102, 103, 104, 105 or 106.

(2) The penalty under sub-section (1) shall be payable in addition to the tax payable under section 195.

(3) No penalty shall be levied on income referred to in section 102, 103, 104, 105 or 106 to the extent such income has been included by the assessee in the return of income furnished under section 263 and the tax as per section 195(1)(i) has been paid on or before the end of the relevant tax year.

(4) No penalty under section 439 shall be imposed upon the assessee in respect of income referred to in sub-section (1).

(5) The provisions of sections 471 and 472 shall as far as may be, apply in relation to the penalty referred to in this section.

443.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961)

"271AAC.(1) The Assessing Officer or [8-9][the Joint Commissioner (Appeals) or] the Commissioner (Appeals) may, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act other than the provisions of section 271AAB, direct that, in a case where the income determined includes any income referred to in section 68, section 69, section 69A, section 69B, section 69C or section 69D for any previous year, the assessee shall pay by way of penalty, in addition to tax payable under section 115BBE, a sum computed at the rate of ten per cent of the tax payable under clause (i) of sub-section (1) of section 115BBE:

Provided that no penalty shall be levied in respect of income referred to in section 68, section 69, section 69A, section 69B, section 69C or section 69D to the extent such income has been included by the assessee in the return of income furnished under section 139 and the tax in accordance with the provisions of clause (i) of sub-section (1) of section 115BBE has been paid on or before the end of the relevant previous year.

(2) No penalty under the provisions of section 270A shall be imposed upon the assessee in respect of the income referred to in sub-section (1).

(3) The provisions of sections 274 and 275 shall, as far as may be, apply in relation to the penalty referred to in this section."

443.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision

"Clause 443 of the Bill provides for the penalty in respect of certain income. The clause corresponds to section 271AAC of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

443.4 Important Views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders

It has been suggested by a stakeholder that Sub-section (5) may be omitted as Section 471 [Procedure (including giving reasonable opportunity of being heard)] and 472 [Time limit for imposing penalties] is applicable for all penalties under this chapter. Thus, inclusion of specific sub-section (5) may not be required.

443.5 Examination by the Committee

Responding to the above suggestion, the Department of Revenue stated following in their written submission:

> "Accepted. The suggestion seeks to omit the clause 443(5) of the Bill so as to mandatorily apply the provision of clause 471 [Procedure (including giving reasonable opportunity of being heard)] and 472 [Time limit for imposing penalties]. As clause 471 and 472 are applicable to whole chapter, so suggestion is acceptable."

443.6 Observations/recommendations of the Committee

Clause 443 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 relates to penalty in respect of certain income, which has been prescribed as 10% of the tax payable under section 195(1)(i). The Committee note that Clause 443 corresponds to section 271AAC of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 and no policy change has been made in the said Clause. However, they note that the Department of Revenue have accepted the omission of sub-clause 5 of Clause 443 as it is redundant given the applicability of Clauses 471 and 472 to Chapter XXI. Therefore, the Committee recommend the Department to amend Clause 443 for brevity and simplicity.

Clause 444 - Penalty for false entry, etc., in books of account.

444.1 Proposed provision in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025

The Assessing Officer or the Joint Commissioner (Appeals) or the Commissioner (Appeals), may impose a penalty equal to the aggregate amount of false or omitted entry, where during any proceeding under this Act, it is found that in the books of account maintained by any person there is—

(a) a false entry; or

(b) an omission of any entry which is relevant for computation of total income of such person, to evade tax liability.

(2) Without prejudice to sub-section (1), the Assessing Officer or the Joint Commissioner (Appeals) or the Commissioner (Appeals) may impose a penalty equal to the aggregated amount of false or omitted entry, on any other person, who causes the person referred to in the said sub-section in any manner to make a false entry or omits or causes to omit any entry referred to in that sub-section.

(3) In this section, "false entry" includes use or intention to use—

(a) forged or falsified documents such as a false invoice or, in general, a false piece of documentary evidence; or

(b) invoice in respect of supply or receipt of goods or services or both issued by the person or any other person without actual supply or receipt of such goods or services or both; or

(c) invoice in respect of supply or receipt of goods or services or both to or from a person who does not exist.

444.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961)

"271AAD.(1) Without prejudice to any other provisions of this Act, if during any proceeding under this Act, it is found that in the books of account maintained by any person there is—

(i) a false entry; or

(ii) an omission of any entry which is relevant for computation of total income of such person, to evade tax liability, the Assessing Officer or [the Joint Commissioner (Appeals) or] the Commissioner (Appeals), may direct that such person shall pay by way of penalty a sum equal to the aggregate amount of such false or omitted entry.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (1), the Assessing Officer or [the Joint Commissioner (Appeals) or] the Commissioner (Appeals) may direct that any other person, who causes the person referred to in sub-section (1) in any manner to make a false entry or omits or causes to omit any entry referred to in that sub-section, shall pay by way of penalty a sum equal to the aggregate amount of such false or omitted entry.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, "false entry" includes use or intention to use—

(a) forged or falsified documents such as a false invoice or, in general, a false piece of documentary evidence; or

(c) invoice in respect of supply or receipt of goods or services or both to or from a person who does not exist."

444.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision

"Clause 444 of the Bill deals with penalty for false entry, etc., in books of account. The clause corresponds to section 271AAD of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

444.4 Important Views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders

1. (1) The Assessing Officer or the Joint Commissioner (Appeals) or the Commissioner (Appeals), may impose a penalty equal to the aggregate amount of false or omitted entry, where during any proceeding under this Act, it is found that in the books of account maintained by any person there is—

   (a) a false entry;

   Or

   (b) an omission of any entry which is relevant for computation of total income of such person, ~~to evade tax liability .~~to evade tax liability."

   The reason for the above suggestion given by the stakeholder is as follows:

1. Reference to sub-section number (1) has been missed. The same may be included.
   2. Not all false entries must be subjected to penalty. Only those false entries with the intention of evading tax must be subject to penalty on similar lines as clause (b) dealing with omission of entries."

2. 444. (1) The Assessing Officer or the Joint Commissioner (Appeals) or the Commissioner (Appeals), may impose a penalty equal to the aggregate amount of false or omitted entry, where during any proceeding under this Act, it is found that in the books of account maintained by any person there is—

   (a) a false entry; or
   (b) an omission of any entry which is relevant for computation of total income of such person, to evade tax liability.

   Dual penalty to be removed.

   Sub-section (2A) may be inserted to provide that no penalty would be levied under this section if penalty is levied u/s 439.
   The opening sentence should read "(3) In this section, "false entry" includes meansuse or intention to use –

   New sub-section (4) to be inserted after section 444(3) to provide that:-
   The amount of penalty under sub-section (1) and sub-section (2) should be restricted to the tax impact on the false entry."

   In sub-section (2) reference of sub-section (1) has been made but presently there is no numbering of sub-section (1) to Section 444 due to this inadvertent omission. For false entry, penalty is levied under section 439 for misreporting of income. Accordingly for same failure, penalty is attracted both u/s 439 and section 444. There is a possibility of a false entry emanating later due to recasting of books and/or errors/ omissions. Since the definition of 'false entry' under section 444(3) is an inclusive one, there is a possibility that the penalty may be invoked in respect of cases not specifically listed in clauses (a) to (c) there under. Therefore, the definition must be an exhaustive one and penalty should be attracted only when such entry has been made with an intent to evade tax liability. The portion "which is relevant for computation of total income of such person, to evade tax liability" must be common for both (a) and (b). The penalty in this case is very high. Therefore, it is suggested to put maximum ceiling on the amount of penalty so as to avoid undue hardship."

444.5 Examination by the Committee

444.5.1 A query was raised with the Department of revenue to express their views on the above suggestions to include reference to sub section (1) and only deliberate false entries to evade tax liability. The Department have partly accepted the drafting fault. However, they have stated following in their written submission:

>
> The suggestion seeks to insert reference to sub-section (1) in Clause 444 which has been missed. This is a drafting correction and reference to sub-section (1) will be inserted in Clause 444.
>
> 2. The suggestion seeks to restrict the scope of penalty for false entry so that only those false entries with the intention of evading tax must be subject to penalty on similar lines as clause (b) dealing with omission of entries. It is in the nature of Policy Change which is outside the scope of the Bill.
> There is no change in the provisions of the Bill viz-a-viz Act. The provisions have been introduced to deter accommodation to entry providers from providing false entries. Tax evasion is not the only intent behind the penalty. There may not be any tax evaded on account of such defaults. But a mechanism has to be provided without which any further deterrence would become ineffective. Thus, the suggestion is not feasible."

444.5.2 Elaborating further on the second part of the suggestion regarding penalty for false entries, a representative of the Department of Revenue deposed following during the course of oral evidence held on 10.6.2025:

> "The second suggestion is regarding the scope of penalty for false entry. So, there are different kinds of penalties in the Act. Some are related to evasion of taxes and 271 AAD in the old Act is related to false entry. This penalty is of entirely different nature. These provisions were introduced to deter accommodation to entry providers, to those who enable falsification of books of accounts to provide entries to other persons. So, the intention here is not exactly tax evasion. Intention is also so that books of accounts should not be falsified for providing entries."

444.6 Observations/Recommendations by the Committee

The Committee observe that Clause 444 empowers Assessing Officer or the Joint Commissioner (Appeals) or the Commissioner (Appeals) to impose penalty equal to the aggregate amount of false or omitted entry in books of account, aligning with Section 271AAD of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Clause has been only textually simplified, retaining its original intent. However, the Committee note that inadvertent omission of sub section (1) in Clause 444 has been accepted by the Department of Revenue. The Committee, therefore, recommend the Department to amend Clause 444 accordingly.

Clause 445 - Benefits to related persons

445.1 Proposed provision in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025

(1) If during any proceedings under this Act, it is found that a registered non-profit organisation has any specified income which is chargeable to tax as per section 337 (Table: Sl. No. 2), the Assessing Officer may impose on such person, a penalty of—

(a) a sum equal to the aggregate amount of income applied, directly or indirectly, by such person, for the benefit of any related person referred to in section 355(i), if the violation is noticed for the first time during any tax year; and

(b) a sum equal to 200% of the aggregate amount of income of such person applied, directly or indirectly, by that person for the benefit of any person referred to in section 355(i), if the violation is noticed again in any subsequent tax year.

445.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961)

"271AAE.Without prejudice to any other provision of this Chapter, if during any proceedings under this Act, it is found that a person, being any fund or institution referred to in sub-clause (iv) or any trust or institution referred to in sub-clause (v) or any university or other educational institution referred to in sub-clause (vi) or any hospital or other medical institution referred to in sub-clause (via) of clause (23C) of section 10, or any trust or institution referred to in section 11 has violated the provisions of the twenty-first proviso to clause (23C) of section 10, or clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 13, as the case may be, the Assessing Officer may direct that such person shall pay by way of penalty—

(a) a sum equal to the aggregate amount of income applied, directly or indirectly, by such person, for the benefit of any person referred to in sub-section (3) of section 13, where the violation is noticed for the first time during any previous year; and

(b) a sum equal to two hundred per cent of the aggregate amount of income of such person applied, directly or indirectly, by that person, for the benefit of any person referred to in sub-section (3) of section 13, where violation is noticed again in any subsequent previous year."

445.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision

“Clause 445 of the Bill deals with benefits to related persons. The clause corresponds to section 271AAE of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause.”

Following suggestion has been received with regard to the above Clause:

> “Reference to Clause 355(i) appearing in Clauses (a) and (b) of Clause 445(1) is incorrect and instead the reference may be made to Clause 355(h) where the term related person has been defined. In clause 445(1)(b) the phrase should be “any related person referred to in section 355(h) ”instead of the phrase “any person referred to in section 355(i)”

445.5 Examination by the Committee

Responding to the above suggestion, the Department of Revenue have furnished following written reply, stated as under:

> “Accepted.
> The suggestion seeks to update the reference in clause 445(1). Reference may be updated to section 355(h) instead of 355(i) in clause 445 regarding Benefits to related persons.”

445.6 Observation/Recommendation by the Committee

The Committee observe that penalty for filing of specified income by a registered non-profit organization, which is chargeable to tax as per Section 337, for the benefit of related persons, has been provided under Clause 445. In this regard, they notice that the term 'related person' has been defined under Clause 355 (h), while the term 'relative' has been defined under Clause 355(i). Therefore, apropos suggestion received and agreed by the Department of Revenue, the Clause 445 may be amended. Further, the Committee note that there is a drafting error in this Clause akin to Clause 449 where there is no sub clause besides only one. Therefore, Clause 445 may be amended as under:

> 445. If during any proceedings under this Act, it is found that a registered non-profit organisation has any specified income which is chargeable to tax as per Section 337 (Table: Sl. No. 2), the Assessing Officer may impose on such person, a penalty of—
> (a) a sum equal to the aggregate amount of income applied, directly or indirectly, by such person, for the benefit of any related person referred to in section 355(h), if the violation is noticed for the first time during any tax year; and
> (b) a sum equal to 200% of the aggregate amount of income of such person applied, directly or indirectly, by that person for the benefit of any related person referred to in section 355(h), if the violation is noticed again in any subsequent tax year.

Clause 446 - Failure to get accounts audited

446.1 Proposed provision in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025

If any person fails to get his accounts audited for any tax year or years or furnish the audit report as required under section 63, the Assessing Officer may impose a penalty on such person, which shall be the lesser of—

(a) 0.5% of the total sales, turnover, or gross receipts in business, or the gross receipts in profession for such tax year or years; or

(b) one lakh fifty thousand rupees.

446.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961)

"271B.If any person fails to get his accounts audited in respect of any previous year or years relevant to an assessment year or furnish a report of such audit as required under section 44AB, the Assessing Officer may direct that such person shall pay, by way of penalty, a sum equal to one-half per cent of the total sales, turnover or gross receipts, as the case may be, in business, or of the gross receipts in profession, in such previous year or years or a sum of one hundred fifty thousand rupees, whichever is less."

446.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision

"Clause 446 of the Bill deals with failure to get accounts audited. The clause corresponds to section 271B of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

446.3.1 In reply to a specific query on changes (addition or omission or replacement of words etc.) if any, between the provisions of the Clause and existing Section, the Department of Revenue furnished following reply:

"The provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of IT Act 1961."

446.4 Observation/Recommendation by the Committee

The Committee note that Clause 446 prescribes a penalty for failure to get accounts audited for tax year or years, corresponding to Section 271B of the existing Act. They also note that no policy change has been effected by the Department; and only a textual simplification of the current Section has been made. The Committee, therefore, accept Clause 446 as proposed.

Clause 447 - Penalty for failure to furnish report under section 172.

447.1 Proposed provision in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025

If any person fails to furnish a report from an accountant as required by section 172, the Assessing Officer may impose a penalty of one lakh rupees on such person.

447.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961)

Section 271BA regarding penalty for failure to furnish report, states as under:

"271BA.If any person fails to furnish a report from an accountant as required by section 92E, the Assessing Officer may direct that such person shall pay, by way of penalty, a sum of one hundred thousand rupees."

447.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision

Clause 447 of the Bill provides for penalty for failure to furnish report under section 172. The clause corresponds to section 271BA of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause.

447.4 Important Views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders

Following suggestion was placed before the Committee:

> "Penalty provisions in sections 442, 447 and 457 be placed in a sequence in Sl. No.2, 3 and 4 as shown in the consolidated section for penalties at the end of this comparative table.
>
> For Example, in respect of sub-clauses of clause 171 and 172, penalty is levied u/s 442, 447, 457. Section 447 and 457, can be placed immediately after section 442 and included in sequence.
> The grouping of similar provisions will provide greater clarity and ease of comprehension."

447.5 Examination by the Committee

The Department of Revenue have stated following with regard to the above suggestion, in their written submission:

> "The suggestion seeks to insert a table for penalty provisions and further re-arranging the placing of section 442, 447 and 457 together. The feasibility of tabular format for penalties under the Act was discussed during the drafting stage, but the clauses were kept separate considering the subtle differences between them, the necessity of saving clauses in some sections etc. Tabular format would not be feasible for this. Further, it would result in complete changes in the cross-referencing across the act. Thus, suggestion is not feasible."

447.6 Observation/Recommendation by the Committee

The Committee note that Clause 447 addresses penalty for failing to submit an accountant's report as mandated by Section 172.They observe that the Department's submission indicates that no policy change has been made; rather the provisions have been merely simplified textually from the existing Section 271BA for the same violation. The Committee, therefore, recommend that the Clause may be made part of the Bill, as proposed by the Department.

Clause 448 - Penalty for failure to deduct tax at source.

448.1 Proposed provision in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025

(1) If any person fails to—

(a) deduct the whole or in part, the tax as required under Chapter XIX-B; or

(b) pay or ensure the payment of, the whole or any part of the tax as required by or under—

(i) Note 3 in Table in section 393(3); or

(ii) Note 6 to section 393(1)(Table: Sl. No. 8), then, the Assessing Officer may impose on him, a penalty equal to the tax which such person failed to deduct or pay or ensure payment of, as aforesaid.

448.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961)

"271C.(1) If any person fails to—

(a) deduct the whole or any part of the tax as required by or under the provisions of Chapter XVII-B; or

(b) pay [10][or ensure payment of,] the whole or any part of the tax as required by or under—

(i) sub-section (2) of section 115-O; [11][]

(ii) the proviso to section 194B;

[10][(iii) the first proviso to sub-section (1) of section 194R; or

(iv) the proviso to sub-section (1) of section 194S; or]

[12][(v) sub-section (2) of section 194BA,]

then, such person shall be liable to pay, by way of penalty, a sum equal to the amount of tax which such person failed to deduct or pay [10][or ensure payment of,] as aforesaid.

(2) Any penalty imposable under sub-section (1) shall be imposed by the Joint Commissioner:

[13][Provided *that any penalty under sub-section (1) on or after the 1st day of April, 2025, shall be imposed by the Assessing Officer.].

448.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision

"Clause 448 of the Bill provides for penalty for failure to deduct tax at source. The clause corresponds to section 271C of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

448.4 Important Views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders

448.5.1 Regarding this Clause, a stakeholder has suggested the following:

"there should be no prosecution for cases covered in (1)(b), since there is no unjust enrichment in such cases.

448.5.2 Justification provided for above suggestion may be seen as under:

"Reference to "Note 3 in section 393(3)" is not correct. At present there is no note 3 in Table in section 393(3) though 393(3) provides TDS in respect of winnings from casual incomes and online winnings. In respect of winnings and VDA, penalty and prosecution are both attracted, where payment is made in kind. Penalty is attracted by virtue of clause (b). Prosecution is attracted for non-deposit. For TDS obligations other than in kind, failure to deduct TDS results in a penalty, while non-deposit cases attract prosecution."

448.6 Examination by the Committee

448.6.1 Asked to express their views on the above suggestion, the Department of Revenue furnished following written reply:

(i) "Accepted. The suggestion seeks to correct the cross-referencing error in the clause 448.The same is accepted in view of error in the nature of drafting.

(ii) The suggestion seeks to decriminalize the cases covered in 448(1)(b). Non deposit of tax deducted is a serious offence. In any case, the offence has been decriminalised upto due date of filing of quarterly statements. Such decriminalization will reduce the deterrence of the income-tax proceedings. Further, in consequence of the Jan Vishwas, several provisions have been already decriminalized. Thus, suggestion is not feasible."

448.6.2 During the course of oral evidence held on 16.6.2025, the representative of the Department of Revenue, further explained the reasons for not decriminalizing further:

> "Sir, in the second part, suggestion seeks to decriminalise the cases covered, where the deductor has taken or deducted the tax but has not deposited it. So, that is a serious offence because he is keeping that money which belongs rightfully to the Government but he is not depositing it.
>
> Sir, we have already decriminalised this TDS and TCS up to the due date of filing quarterly statements."

448.7 Observation/Recommendation by the Committee

The Committee note that Clause 448, relates to penalty for failure to deduct tax at source, corresponding to Section 271C of the existing Act. The Department justified this Clause as textual simplification, not a policy change. As the Department of Revenue have acknowledged a drafting error in the cross-referencing for this Clause, the Committee recommend to carry out the minor correction in Clause 448.

Clause 449 - Penalty for failure to collect tax at source.

449.1 Proposed provision in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025

(1) If any person fails to collect the whole or in part, the tax as required under Chapter XIX-B, the Assessing Officer may impose on him, a penalty equal to the tax which such person failed to collect.

449.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961)

"271CA.(1) If any person fails to collect the whole or any part of the tax as required by or under the provisions of Chapter XVII-BB, then, such person shall be liable to pay, by way of penalty, a sum equal to the amount of tax which such person failed to collect as aforesaid.

(2) Any penalty imposable under sub-section (1) shall be imposed by the Joint Commissioner:

[Provided*that any penalty under sub-section (1), on or after the 1st day of April, 2025, shall be imposed by the Assessing Officer.]"

449.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision

"Clause 449 of the Bill provides for penalty for failure to collect tax at source. The clause corresponds to section 271CA of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

449.4 Important Views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders

On this Clause, it has been suggested that the number (1) may be removed since there is no other sub-section in this section.

449.5 Examination by the Committee

When asked, the Department of Revenue, in their written reply, stated as under:

> "Accepted. The suggestion seeks to delete the number "(1)" in clause 449. This is a drafting correction, thus same is accepted."

449.6 Observation/Recommendation by the Committee

Clause 449 relates to penalty for failure to collect tax at source and aligns with Section 271CA of the existing Act. From the justification submitted by the Department of Revenue, the Committee observe that no policy change has been proposed in this Clause. Only textual simplification has been carried out while retaining the intent. Further, the Committee notice that the Department of Revenue have accepted the drafting error concerning sub-clause (1) in Clause 449. The Committee, therefore, recommend that this drafting correction be made in the proposed Clause.

Clause 450 - Penalty for failure to comply with provisions of section 185

450.1 Proposed provision in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025

If a person takes or accepts any loan or deposit or specified sum in contravention of the provisions of section 185, the Assessing Officer may impose on him, a penalty equal to the amount of the loan or deposit or specified sum so taken or accepted.

450.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961)

"271D.(1) If a person takes or accepts any loan or deposit or specified sum in contravention of the provisions of section 269SS, he shall be liable to pay, by way of penalty, a sum equal to the amount of the loan or deposit or specified sum so taken or accepted.

(2) Any penalty imposable under sub-section (1) shall be imposed by the Joint Commissioner:

[Provided*that any penalty under sub-section (1), on or after the 1st day of April, 2025, shall be imposed by the Assessing Officer.]"

450.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision

Justification for the above Clause of the Bill, as submitted by the Department, is as under:

> "Clause 450 of the Bill provides for penalty for failure to comply with the provisions of section 185. The clause corresponds to section 271D of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

450.4 Important Views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders

The Committee have received following suggestion on the quantum of penalty specified in the above Clause:

> "If a person takes or accepts any loan or deposit or specified sum in contravention of the provisions of section 185, the Assessing Officer may impose on him, a penalty equal to 30% ofthe amount of the loan or deposit or specified sum so taken or accepted.
> The quantum of penalty is too high vis-à-vis the nature of default. The same may be restricted to 30% of the sum received in contravention (considering the highest rate of income-tax@30% and also the disallowance of 30% of expenditure in case payment is made without deduction of tax at source."

450.5 Examination by the Committee

450.5.1 Responding to the above suggestion, the Department of Revenue submitted following written reply:

> "The suggestion seeks to dilute the penal provision against acceptance of loan or deposit or sum in cash. The suggestion is in nature of policy change. The said penal provision was introduced with a view to impose restrictions on cash transactions and to curb the flow of domestic black money which is not only adversely affecting the revenues of the Government but is also affecting the investment for productive purposes, because most of the black money is transacted in cash, it remains unaccounted and quite a sizable amount remains unproductive and is stored in the form of cash or remains invested in low priority investments such as gold, jewellery etc. The restrictions are intended to move towards a less cash economy and to reduce generation and circulation of black money. Thus, the suggestion is not feasible."

450.5.2 When asked to explain the rationale for prescribing high penalty, the representative of the Department of Revenue, during the course of oral evidence held on 16.6.2025, informed the Committee as under:

> "the suggestion is to dilute the penal provisions against acceptance of loan or deposit or any other sum in cash. If Rs. 100 is accepted as a loan in cash, then equivalent amount of penalty is leviable, 100 per cent of the amount of loan which is accepted in cash. It is not for increasing the revenues. It is to curb the flow of black money and also for restricting the cash transaction."

450.5.3 Asked to state the limit for imposing penalty, he further stated:

> "There are three types of penalties. One is acceptance of loan by deposit and in this, there is no limit whatever amount is accepted as loan or deposits.In Cash, सर, इसमें 20,000 रुपयेकेऊपरहै।जोलोनऔरडिपॉजिटलियाजाताहै, उसकाजबरी-पेमेंटकियाजाताहै, उसमेंजितनारी-पेमेंटकैशमेंकियाजाताहै, उसकेबराबरकीराशिकीपेनाल्टीहै।एकऔरपेनाल्टीहै, जिसमेंकोईव्यक्तिट्रांजैक्टशनकेरूपमेंप्राप्तकरताहै। This is in respect of transactions, normal business transaction of Rs. 2,00,000 from a person in a day, in a single transaction. If he receives beyond that, then penalty is leviable under 269ST."

450.6 Observation/Recommendation by the Committee

The Committee note that Clause 450, corresponding to Section 271D of the existing Act prescribes penalty for failure to comply with provisions of section 185. This Clause represents textual simplification with no change in policy. The Committee concur with the Department's rationale for discouraging cash transactions. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause in its current format.

Clause 451 - Penalty for failure to comply with provisions of section 186.

451.1 Proposed provision in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025

The Assessing Officer may impose on a person, a penalty equal to the sum received by him in contravention of the provisions of section 186 except where he proves that there were good and sufficient reasons for the said contravention.

451.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961)

"271DA.(1) If a person receives any sum in contravention of the provisions of section 269ST, he shall be liable to pay, by way of penalty, a sum equal to the amount of such receipt:

Provided that no penalty shall be imposable if such person proves that there were good and sufficient reasons for the contravention.

(2) Any penalty imposable under sub-section (1) shall be imposed by the Joint Commissioner:

[Provided that *any penalty under sub-section (1), on or after the 1st day of April, 2025, shall be imposed by the Assessing Officer.]"

451.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision

Clause 451 of the Bill provides for penalty for failure to comply with provisions of section 186. The clause corresponds to section 271DA of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause.

The Suggestion pertaining to Clause 451 is produced as under:-

1. "The Assessing Officer may impose on a person a penalty equal to the sum received by him in contravention of the provisions of section 186 ~~except where he proves that there were good and sufficient reasons for the said contravention."~~

   While providing justification for the same, the stakeholder has stated as under:

   "The exception from penalty in case where assessee proves that there were good and sufficient reasons, may be omitted. This is for the reason that proposed section 470 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 already makes an exception to penalty under section 451 where the assessee proves that there exists reasonable cause for the contravention."

2. Another suggestion received on this Clause, states as under:

"This section may be substituted as follows:

The Assessing Officer may impose on a person, a penalty equal to 30%the sum received by him in contravention of the provisions of section 186 except where he proves that there were good and sufficient reasons for the said contravention."

451.5 Examination by the Committee

451.5.1 Asked to express their views on the above suggestions, the Department of Revenue, in their written submission stated as under:

"The suggestion seeks to omit exception from penalty under clause 451 (penalty for failure to comply mode of undertaking transaction) in case where assessee proves that there were good and sufficient reasons as reasonable cause already exists in clause 470 (penalty not to be imposed in certain cases).

There is no change in the provisions of the Bill viz-a-viz Act. Good and sufficient reason is judicially settled and omitting it on the pretext that reasonable cause is already present in clause 470 will not provide any tangible benefit and increase ambiguity. Thus, the suggestion is not feasible."

451.5.2 During the course of oral evidence held on 10.6.2025, when it was brought to the notice of the Department that actually the suggestion seeks to omit repeated words, the representative of the Department of Revenue informed that they will examine this.

451.5.3 Further, responding to the suggestion to reduce penalty rate to 30% in case of contravention of the provisions of section 186, the Department of Revenue, in their written submission, stated as under:

"The suggestion seeks to dilute the penal provision against receipt of sum in cash over a certain amount by reducing rate of penalty to 30% [from100%]. The suggestion is in nature of policy change. The said penal provision was introduced with a view to impose restrictions on cash transactions and to curb the flow of domestic black money which is not only adversely affecting the revenues of the Government but is also affecting the investment for productive purposes, because most of the black money is transacted in cash, it remains unaccounted and quite a sizable amount remains unproductive and is stored in the form of cash or remains invested in low priority investments such as gold, jewellery etc. The restrictions are intended to move towards a less cash economy and to reduce generation and circulation of black money. Further, there is an inbuilt provision in the section which provides protection against penalty in genuine cases. Thus, the suggestion is not feasible."

451.4 Observation/Recommendation by the Committee

The Committee notethat Clause 451, corresponding to Section 271DA of the existing Act, prescribes penalty for failure to comply with provisions of section 186 with intention of restricting cash transactions and also to curb the flow of black money on the lines of Clause 450. The Committee also note from the submissions of the stakeholder that explicit reference to an exception in Clause 451 is redundant as Clause 470 already provides for an exception from penalty in cases where a reasonable cause for non-compliance exists. The Committee, therefore, recommend to amend the Clause as under:

> 451. "The Assessing Officer may impose on a person, a penalty equal to the sum received by him in contravention of the provisions of section 186."

Clause 452 - Penalty for failure to comply with provisions of section 187.

452.1 Proposed provision in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025

The Assessing Officer may impose on a person, a penalty of five thousand rupees for every day of the duration of failure where he fails to provide a facility for accepting payments through the prescribed electronic modes of payment, as referred to in section 187 except when he proves that there were good and sufficient reason for such failure.

"271DB.(1) If a person who is required to provide facility for accepting payment through the prescribed electronic modes of payment referred to in section 269SU, fails to provide such facility, he shall be liable to pay, by way of penalty, a sum of five thousand rupees, for every day during which such failure continues:

Provided that no such penalty shall be imposable if such person proves that there were good and sufficient reasons for such failure.

(2) Any penalty imposable under sub-section (1) shall be imposed by the Joint Commissioner of Income-tax:

[14-18][Providedthat any penalty under sub-section (1), on or after the 1st day of April, 2025, shall be imposed by the Assessing Officer.]"

452.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision

"Clause 452 of the Bill provides for penalty for failure to comply with provisions of section 187.The clause corresponds to section 271DB of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

"Section 452 may be rephrased as given below-

The Assessing Officer may impose on a person, a penalty of five hundredthousand rupees for every day of the duration of failure where he fails to provide a facility for accepting payments through the prescribed electronic modes of payment, as referred to in section 187 except when he proves that there were good and sufficient reason for such failure."

"The quantum of penalty is very high vis-à-vis the nature of default. It needs to be rationalized. Penalty may be imposed - Rs.500 per day of default instead of Rs.5,000 per day of default.

As per section 470, no penalty shall be imposed on a person or assessee, if he proves that there was reasonable cause for the said failure. Section 452 is not included in the list of sections in section 470. It is suggested that section 452 be included in the said list."

452.5 Examination by the Committee

When asked to explain the reasons for prescribing high penalty, the Department of Revenue furnished following written reply:

"The suggestion seeks to dilute the penal provision for failure to provide a facility for accepting payments through the prescribed electronic modes of payment by reduction of rate from 5000 per day to 500 per day. The suggestion is in nature of policy change. Even vegetable vendors are providing facility for electronic receipts. Therefore, there is no justification for such a demand. The said penal provision was introduced with a view to impose restrictions on cash transactions and to curb the flow of domestic black money which is not only adversely affecting the revenues of the Government but is also affecting the investment for productive purposes, because most of the black money is transacted in cash, it remains unaccounted and quite a sizable amount remains unproductive and is stored in the form of cash or remains invested in low priority investments such as gold, jewellery etc. The restrictions are intended to move towards a less cash economy and to reduce generation and circulation of black money. Further, it may be noted that there is an inbuilt provision in the section which provides protection against penalty in genuine cases. Thus, the suggestion is not feasible."

452.6 Observation/Recommendation by the Committee

The Committee note that Clause 452 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025, which corresponds to Section 271DB of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, prescribes a penalty of Rs. Five Thousand per day for every day of duration of default to provide a facility for accepting payments through prescribed electronic modes. Given that this Clause is similar to the existing Section 271DB with no policy change, the Committee recommend its inclusion as itis in the proposed Act.

Clause 453 - Penalty for failure to comply with provisions of section 188.

453.1 Proposed provision in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025

If a person repays any loan or deposit or specified advance referred to in section 188 otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of that section, the Assessing Officer may impose on him, a penalty equal to the loan or deposit or specified advance so repaid.

453.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961)

"271E.(1) If a person repays any loan or deposit or specified advance referred to in section 269T otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of that section, he shall be liable to pay, by way of penalty, a sum equal to the amount of the loan or deposit or specified advance so repaid.

(2) Any penalty imposable under sub-section (1) shall be imposed by the Joint Commissioner:

[Provided*that any penalty under sub-section (1), on or after the 1st day of April, 2025, shall be imposed by the Assessing Officer.]"

453.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision

"Clause 453 of the Bill provides for penalty for failure to comply with provisions of section 188.The clause corresponds to section 271E of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

453.4 Important Views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders

453.4.1 Following suggestion has been made regarding the quantum of penalty proposed under this Clause:

> "If a person repays any loan or deposit or specified advance referred to in section 188 otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of that section, the Assessing Officer may impose on him, a penalty equal to 30% ofthe loan or deposit or specified advance so repaid."

453.4.2 Giving justification for the above suggestion, the stakeholder has stated that this penalty is very high vis-à-vis the nature of default. The quantum of penalty has to be in line with the nature of default and not to exceed the tax sought to be evaded.

453.5 Examination by the Committee

However, responding to the above suggestion, the Department of Revenue, in their written submission, stated as under:

> "The suggestion seeks to dilute the penal provision against repayment of loan or deposit in cash by reducing rate of penalty to 30% [from100%]. The suggestion is in nature of policy change. The said penal provision was introduced with a view to impose restrictions on cash transactions and to curb the flow of domestic black money which is not only adversely affecting the revenues of the Government but is also affecting the investment for productive purposes, because most of the black money is transacted in cash, it remains unaccounted and quite a sizable amount remains unproductive and is stored in the form of cash or remains invested in low priority investments such as gold, jewellery etc. The restrictions are intended to move towards a less cash economy and to reduce generation and circulation of black money. Thus, the suggestion is not feasible."

453.6 Observation/Recommendation by the Committee

The Committee note that Clause 453, which imposes a 100% penalty for non-compliance with provisions of section 188, aligns with Section 271E of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee concurs with the Department's justification for retaining this clause with the same intent, incorporating only textual simplification. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause in its current form.

Clause 454 - Penalty for failure to furnish statement of financial transaction or reportable account.

454.1 Proposed provision in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025

(1) If a person who is required to furnish a statement of financial transaction or reportable account under section 508(1), fails to furnish such statement within the time prescribed under sub-section (2) thereof, the income-tax authority prescribed under the said sub-section (1) may impose on him, a penalty of five hundred rupees for every day during which such failure continues.

(2) If the person referred to in sub-section (1), fails to furnish the statement within the period specified in the notice issued under section 508(7), he shall pay penalty of one thousand rupees for every day during which the failure continues, beginning from the day immediately after the time specified in the such notice for furnishing the statement expires.

"271FA.If a person who is required to furnish a statement of financial transaction or reportable account under sub-section (1) of section 285BA, fails to furnish such statement within the time prescribed under sub-section (2) thereof, the income-tax authority prescribed under said sub-section (1) may direct that such person shall pay, by way of penalty, a sum of five hundred rupees for every day during which such failure continues:

Provided that where such person fails to furnish the statement within the period specified in the notice issued under sub-section (5) of section 285BA, he shall pay, by way of penalty, a sum of one thousand rupees for every day during which the failure continues, beginning from the day immediately following the day on which the time specified in such notice for furnishing the statement expires."

454.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision

Clause 454 of the Bill provides for penalty for failure to furnish statement of financial transaction or reportable account. The clause corresponds to section 271FA of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause.

454.3.1 In reply to a specific query on changes (addition or omission or replacement of words etc.) if any, between the provisions of the Clause and existing Section, the Department of Revenue furnished following reply:

> "The provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of IT Act 1961."

454.4 Observation/Recommendation by the Committee

The Committee note that Clause 454 of the Income-Tax Bill 2025, mapped to Section 271FA of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, prescribes penalties for non-compliance in furnishing financial transactions or reportable amounts. The Committee approve Clause 454 as proposed, noting its simplified approach to existing provisions.

Clause 455 - Penalty for furnishing inaccurate statement of financial transaction or reportable account.

455.1 Proposed provision in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025

(1) The prescribed income-tax authority referred to in section 508 may direct that a person required to furnish a statement under sub-section (1) of the said section shall pay penalty of fifty thousand rupees, if such person—

(a) provides inaccurate information in the statement or fails to furnish correct information within the period specified under section 508(8); or

(b) fails to comply with the due diligence requirement under section 508(9).

(2) The prescribed income-tax authority referred to in section 508, may direct that a reporting financial institution referred to in sub-section (1)(k) of the said section, shall, in addition to the penalty under sub-section (1) of this section, if any, pay a sum of five thousand rupees for every inaccurate reportable account, if—

(a) the said institution provides inaccurate information in the statement required to be furnished under section 508(1); and

(b) the inaccuracy in the said statement is due to false or inaccurate information furnished by the holder or holders of the relevant reportable account or accounts.

(3) The reporting financial institution shall be entitled to—

(a) recover the amount paid under sub-section (2) on behalf of the reportable account holder; or

(b) retain an amount equal to the sum so paid out of any moneys that may be in its possession, or may come to it from every such account holder.

455.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961)

"271FAA. [(1) If a person referred to in sub-section (1) of section 285BA, who is required to furnish a statement under that section,—

(a) provides inaccurate information in the statement or fails to furnish correct information within the period specified under sub-section (6) of the said section; or

(b) fails to comply with the due diligence requirement prescribed under sub-section (7) of the said section,

then, the prescribed income-tax authority referred to in sub-section (1) thereof may direct that such person shall pay, by way of penalty, a sum of fifty thousand rupees.]

[(2)Where in the case of a person, referred to in clause (k) of sub-section (1) of section 285BA, who is required to furnish a statement under that section (herein referred to as the reporting financial institution) provides inaccurate information in the statement and the inaccuracy in such statement is due to false or inaccurate information furnished by the holder or holders of the relevant reportable account or accounts, the prescribed income-tax authority under sub-section (1) of section 285BA, shall direct that the reporting financial institution shall, in addition to the penalty under sub-section (1), if any, pay a sum of five thousand rupees for every inaccurate reportable account and the reporting financial institution shall be entitled to recover the sum so paid on behalf of such reportable account holder, or to retain out of any moneys that may be in its possession, or may come to it from every such reportable account holder, an amount equal to the sum so paid.]"

455.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision

"Clause 455 of the Bill provides for penalty for furnishing inaccurate statement of financial transaction or reportable account. The clause corresponds to section 271FAA of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

455.3.1 In reply to a specific query on changes (addition or omission or replacement of words etc.) if any, between the provisions of the Clause and existing Section, the Department of Revenue furnished following reply:

> "The provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of IT Act 1961."

455.4 Observation/Recommendation by the Committee

The Committee note that Clause 455, dealing with penalty for furnishing inaccurate statement of financial transaction or reportable account, aims to simplify the existing provisions of Section 271FAA. The Committee concur with the Department's justification for this simplification and therefore, accept Clause 455 as proposed.

Clause 456- Penalty for failure to furnish statement or information or document by an eligible investment fund.

456.1 Proposed provision in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025

If any eligible investment fund required to furnish a statement or any information or document under section 9(12)(e) [section 9A (5)], fails to do so within the time prescribed under that section, the income-tax authority prescribed under the said section may direct that such fund shall pay, by way of penalty, a sum of five lakh rupees.

456.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961)

"271FAB.If any eligible investment fund which is required to furnish a statement or any information or document, as required under sub-section (5) of section 9A fails to furnish such statement or information or document within the time prescribed under that sub-section, the income-tax authority prescribed under the said sub-section may direct that such fund shall pay, by way of penalty, a sum of five hundred thousand rupees."

456.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision

"Clause 456 of the Bill provides for penalty for failure to furnish statement or information or document by eligible investment fund. The clause corresponds to section 271FAB of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

456.4 Important Views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders

With regard to the Clause 456, following suggestion has been received:

> "Reference to be given to sub-paragraph (4) of para 1 of Schedule I and reference to section 9A(5) to be removed.
> If any eligible investment fund required to furnish a statement or any information or document under section 9(12)(e) [section 9A(5)], fails to do so within the time prescribed under that section sub-paragraph (4) of para 1 of Schedule I, the income-tax authority prescribed under the said section may direct that such fund shall pay, by way of penalty, a sum of five lakh rupees."

456.5 Examination by the Committee

Responding to the above, the Department of Revenue have stated following in their written submission:

“Accepted. The suggestion seeks to remove the reference in clause 456 to section 9A(5) of IT Act in Bill. Drafting shall be updated to remove reference to IT Act.”

456.6 Observation/Recommendation by the Committee

The Committee note that Clause 456, a simplified text of the existing Section 271FAB, relates to penalty for failure to furnish statement or information or document by eligible investment fund. As the Department of Revenue have agreed to remove the reference to Section 9A(5) of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 in Clause 456 of the Bill, the Committee recommend to carry out the drafting correction accordingly.

Clause 457 - Penalty for failure to furnish information or document under section 171.

457.1 Proposed provision in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025

If any person who has entered into an international transaction or specified domestic transaction fails to furnish any such information or document as required by section 171(2), a penalty equal to 2 % of the value of such transaction may be imposed upon him for each such failure by the Assessing Officer or the Transfer Pricing Officer as referred to in section 166 or the Commissioner (Appeals).

457.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961)

"Sec 271G. If any person who has entered into an international transaction or specified domestic transaction fails to furnish any such information or document as required by sub-section (3) of section 92D, the Assessing Officer or the Transfer Pricing Officer as referred to in section 92CA or the Commissioner (Appeals) may direct that such person shall pay, by way of penalty, a sum equal to two per cent of the value of the international transaction or specified domestic transaction for each such failure."

457.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision

Clause 457 of the Bill provides for penalty for failure to furnish statement or information or document under section 171.The clause corresponds to section 271G of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause.

457.3.1 In reply to a specific query on changes (addition or omission or replacement of words etc.) if any, between the provisions of the Clause and existing Section, the Department of Revenue furnished following reply:

> "The provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of IT Act 1961."

457.4 Observation/Recommendation by the Committee

The Committee note that Clause 457 prescribing penalty for failure to furnish information or document under section 171, aligns with existing Section 271G but features simplified linguistic construction. Expressing their concurrence with the justification given by the Department of Revenue in this regard, the Committee accept Clause 457 as it is.

Clause 458 - Penalty for failure to furnish information or document under section 506.

458.1 Proposed provision in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025

If any Indian concern which is required to furnish any information or document under section 506, fails to do so, the prescribed income-tax authority under the said section, may direct that such Indian concern shall pay by way of penalty, a sum of—

(a) 2% of the value of the transaction in respect of which such failure has taken place, if such transaction had the effect of directly or indirectly transferring the right of management or control in relation to the Indian concern;

(b) five lakh rupees, in any other case.

458.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961)

"271GA. If any Indian concern, which is required to furnish any information or document under section 285A, fails to do so, the income-tax authority, as may be prescribed under the said section, may direct that such Indian concern shall pay, by way of penalty,—

(i) a sum equal to two per cent of the value of the transaction in respect of which such failure has taken place, if such transaction had the effect of directly or indirectly transferring the right of management or control in relation to the Indian concern;

(ii) a sum of five hundred thousand rupees in any other case."

458.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision

While proposing this Clause, the Department of Revenue have furnished following justification stated as under:

"Clause 458 of the Bill provides for penalty for failure to furnish information or document under section 506.The clause corresponds to section 271GA of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

458.3.1 In reply to a specific query on changes (addition or omission or replacement of words etc.) if any, between the provisions of the Clause and existing Section, the Department of Revenue furnished following reply:

458.4 Observation/Recommendation by the Committee

Noting that Clause 458 of the Bill, dealing with penalty for failure to furnish information or document under section 506 by an Indian concern, is a textual simplification of Section 271GA of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with the same intent, the Committee accept the Clause in its present form.

Clause 459 - Penalty for failure to furnish report or for furnishing inaccurate report under section 511.

459.1 Proposed provision in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025

(1) If any reporting entity referred to in section 511, required to furnish the report referred to in sub-section (2) of the said section, for a reporting accounting year, fails to do so, the prescribed authority under that section may impose on such entity, a penalty of—

(a) five thousand rupees for every day for which the failure continues, if the period of failure does not exceed one month; or

(b) fifteen thousand rupees for every day for which the failure continues beyond the period of one month.

(2) If a reporting entity referred to in section 511 fails to produce the information and documents within the period allowed under sub-section (7) of the said section, the prescribed authority under that section may impose on such entity, a penalty of five thousand rupees for every day during which the failure continues, beginning from the day immediately following the day on which the period for furnishing the information and document expires.

(3) If the failure referred to in sub-section (1) or (2) continues after an order imposing a penalty under the said sub-sections, has been served on the entity, then, irrespective of the provisions of the said sub-sections, the prescribed authority may impose penalty of fifty thousand rupees for every day for which such failure continues starting from the date of service of such order.

(4) If a reporting entity referred to in section 511 provides inaccurate information in the report furnished under sub-section (2) of the said section, the prescribed authority under that section may impose on such entity, a penalty of five lakh rupees, if—

(a) the entity has knowledge of the inaccuracy at the time of furnishing the report but fails to inform the prescribed authority; or

(b) the entity discovers the inaccuracy after the report is furnished and fails to inform the prescribed authority and furnish correct report within fifteen days of such discovery; or

(c) the entity furnishes inaccurate information or document in response to the notice issued under section 511(7).

459.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961)

"271GB.(1) If any reporting entity referred to in section 286, which is required to furnish the report referred to in sub-section (2) of the said section, in respect of a reporting accounting year, fails to do so, the authority prescribed under that section (herein referred to as prescribed authority) may direct that such entity shall pay, by way of penalty, a sum of,—

(a) five thousand rupees for every day for which the failure continues, if the period of failure does not exceed one month; or

(b) fifteen thousand rupees for every day for which the failure continues beyond the period of one month.

(2) Where any reporting entity referred to in section 286 fails to produce the information and documents within the period allowed under sub-section (6) of the said section, the prescribed authority may direct that such entity shall pay, by way of penalty, a sum of five thousand rupees for every day during which the failure continues, beginning from the day immediately following the day on which the period for furnishing the information and document expires.

(3) If the failure referred to in sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) continues after an order has been served on the entity, directing it to pay the penalty under sub-section (1) or, as the case may be, under sub-section (2), then, notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), the prescribed authority may direct that such entity shall pay, by way of penalty, a sum of fifty thousand rupees for every day for which such failure continues beginning from the date of service of such order.

(4) Where a reporting entity referred to in section 286 provides inaccurate information in the report furnished in accordance with sub-section (2) of the said section and where—

(a) the entity has knowledge of the inaccuracy at the time of furnishing the report but fails to inform the prescribed authority; or

(b) the entity discovers the inaccuracy after the report is furnished and fails to inform the prescribed authority and furnish correct report within a period of fifteen days of such discovery; or

then, the prescribed authority may direct that such person shall pay, by way of penalty, a sum of five lakh rupees."

459.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision

“Clause 459 of the Bill provides for penalty for failure to furnish report or for furnishing inaccurate report under section 511.The clause corresponds to section 271GB of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause.”

459.3.1 In reply to a specific query on changes (addition or omission or replacement of words etc.) if any, between the provisions of the Clause and existing Section, the Department of Revenue furnished following reply:

459.4 Observation/Recommendation by the Committee

The Committee note that Clause 459, stipulating penalties for not submitting report or providing inaccurate report under section 511, aligns with the existing Section 271GB and involves no policy shift. They, therefore, accept Clause 459 as proposed by the Department of Revenue.

Clause 460 - Penalty for failure to submit statement under section 505.

460.1 Proposed provision in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025

If a person required to furnish statement under section 505, fails to do so within the period prescribed under that section, the Assessing Officer may impose on him, a penalty of—

(a) one thousand rupees for every day for which the failure continues, if the period of failure does not exceed three months; or

(b) one lakh rupees in any other case.

460.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961)

"271GC.If any person who is required to furnish statement under section 285, fails to do so within the period prescribed under that section, the Assessing Officer may direct that such person shall pay, by way of penalty, a sum of—

(a) one thousand rupees for every day for which the failure continues, if the period of failure does not exceed three months; or

(b) one lakh rupees in any other case.]"

460.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision

"Clause 460 of the Bill provides for penalty for failure to submit statement under section 505.The clause corresponds to section 271GC of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

460.3.1 In reply to a specific query on changes (addition or omission or replacement of words etc.) if any, between the provisions of the Clause and existing Section, the Department of Revenue furnished following reply:

"The provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of IT Act 1961."

460.4 Observation/Recommendation by the Committee

Clause 460 of the Income-Tax Bill 2025, which deals with penalties for failure to submit statement under section 505, corresponds to Section 271GC of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee find that this Clause has been formulated by paraphrasing the existing provisions to enhance clarity and comprehension. Furthermore, having been assured that no policy change has been incorporated in this Clause, the Committee approve Clause 460 as it is.

Clause 461 - Penalty for failure to furnish statements, etc.

461.1 Proposed provision in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025

(1) Where a person, who is required to deliver or causes to be delivered a statement prescribed in section 397(3)(b), fails to do so within the time prescribed in the said section, or furnishes incorrect information in the said statement, the Assessing Officer may impose on such person, a penalty of a sum which shall not be less than ten thousand rupees but which may extend to one lakh rupees.

(2) No penalty shall be levied under sub-section (1) for delay in filing or non-filing of statement referred therein, if the person proves that—

(a) tax deducted or collected along with the fee and interest, if any, was paid to the credit of the Central Government; and

(b) the said statement was also delivered before the expiry of one month from the time prescribed in section397(3)(b).

461.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961)

"271H. (1) Without prejudice to the provisions of the Act, the Assessing Officer may direct that a person shall pay by way of penalty, if, he—

(a) fails to deliver or cause to be delivered a statement within the time prescribed in sub-section (3) of section 200 or the proviso to sub-section (3) of section 206C; or

(b) furnishes incorrect information in the statement which is required to be delivered or caused to be delivered under sub-section (3) of section 200 or the proviso to sub-section (3) of section 206C.

(2) The penalty referred to in sub-section (1) shall be a sum which shall not be less than ten thousand rupees but which may extend to one lakh rupees.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing provisions of this section, no penalty shall be levied for the failure referred to in clause (a) of sub-section (1), if the person proves that after paying tax deducted or collected along with the fee and interest, if any, to the credit of the Central Government, he had delivered or cause to be delivered the statement referred to in sub-section (3) of section 200 or the proviso to sub-section (3) of section 206C before the expiry of a period of one [22][month] from the time prescribed for delivering or causing to be delivered such statement.

(4) The provisions of this section shall apply to a statement referred to in sub-section (3) of section 200 or the proviso to sub-section (3) of section 206C which is to be delivered or caused to be delivered for tax deducted at source or tax collected at source, as the case may be, on or after the 1st day of July, 2012."

461.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision

"Clause 461 of the Bill provides for penalty for failure to submit statements etc. The clause corresponds to section 271H of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

461.4 Important Views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders

Following suggestions have been received with regard to the above Clause:

1. "No penalty shall be levied under subsection (1) ~~for delay in filing or nonfiling of statement referred therein~~, if the person proves that—

   and

   (b) the said statement was also delivered before the expiry of one month from the time prescribed ~~in section 397(3)(b) therein."~~

   Justification for the above suggestion has been stated as under:

   "The object is to exempt the levy of penalty where the tax deducted or collected is paid to the exchequer and the statement is delivered within one month from the prescribed time. However, the preamble of provision incorrectly covers a case of non filing as well whereas clause (b) deals with a case where statement is filed within one month. Hence, there is a conflict between the preamble of the provision and clause (b). In order to resolve such conflict, the words "for delay in filing or non filing of statement referred therein," may be omitted as the same is only a surplusage."

   Suitable clarification be incorporated in the law as to what constitutes incorrect information. It has been stated that mistakes in name, PAN etc. do not constitute incorrect information for levy of penalty as it does not lead to any tax evasion. Also, an incorrect claim which is apparent from any information in the statement, for which adjustment is made while processing the statement under section 399 should not constitute incorrect information for levy of penalty. These clarifications may be incorporated in the new law so that the deductors/ collectors are not put to any hardship.

461.5 Examination by the Committee

461.5.1 When asked to express their views on the above suggestion, the Department, in their written submission, stated as under:

> "There is no change in the provisions of the Bill viz-a-viz Act. The immunity from penalty cannot be given in case incorrect information is filed. Therefore, even though clause 461(1) covers both cases delay in filing / non filing and providing incorrect information, but clause 461(2) needs to qualify that penalty not be levied for delay in filing or non filing of statement referred therein on satisfaction of certain conditions. Thus, there is no ambiguity. The suggestion is not feasible."

461.5.2 Expressing their views on incorrect information, the Department of Revenue, in their written reply stated as under:

> "It is submitted that the same is not subject matter of any litigation. Providing a new definition to the term "incorrect information" may lead to avoidable litigation and multiple interpretation of the same. This may also lead to unfurling of settled income tax matters. Further, keeping in view the circumstances mentioned in the suggestion, there is gradation of the amount of penalty that can be imposed depending upon the gravity of the violation. Thus, suggestion is not feasible."

461.6 Observation/Recommendation by the Committee

Clause 461 prescribes a penalty ranging from Rs. Ten Thousand to Rs. One lakh for failure to furnish a statement as required by section 397(3)(b). The Committee note that this Clause is simplified textual version of existing Section 271H maintaining Government's original policy. After considering the viewpoints of both the stakeholders and the Department, the Committee are of the view that Clause 461 may be included in the new Act as proposed.

Clause 462 - Penalty for failure to furnish information or furnishing inaccurate information under section 397 (3)(d).

462.1 Proposed provision in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025

If a person, who is required to furnish information under section 397(3)(d), fails to furnish such information, or furnishes inaccurate information, the Assessing Officer may impose a penalty of one lakh rupees.

462.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961)

"271-I. If a person, who is required to furnish information under sub-section (6) of section 195, fails to furnish such information, or furnishes inaccurate information, the Assessing Officer may direct that such person shall pay, by way of penalty, a sum of one lakh rupees."

462.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision

"Clause 462 of the Bill provides for penalty for failure to furnish information or furnishing inaccurate information under section 397(3)(d)The clause corresponds to section 271-I of the Act.There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

462.4 Important Views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders

With regard to provisions of Clause 462, a memorandum received states as under:

> "For failure to furnish information, the penalty may be restricted to Rs.10,000. The quantum of penalty has to be in line with the nature of default and not to exceed the tax sought to be evaded. A very high penalty is being imposed for failure to furnish information relating to a sum whether or not the same is chargeable to tax. The penalty is very high vis-à-vis the nature of default."

462.5 Examination by the Committee

On being asked to furnish their views on the above suggestion, the Department of Revenue stated as under:

> "The suggestion seeks to lower the amount of penalty for failure to furnish information, or for furnishing inaccurate information. The suggestion is in nature of policy change. Mistake in filing of incorrect information or no filing of such information has a serious bearing on the deductee or collectee as the right amount of tax does not get reflected in his account and thus he does not get entitled for the due amount of taxes paid. Moreover, for processing of any data, data accuracy is very essential. There are instructions as to how an information is to be filled in the form. If the information is filled otherwise, it would result in incorrect information. Penalty in this case is imposed in a case where a person makes some payment to a non-resident and fails to deduct income-tax thereon. It may be noted that since non-resident is not bound to pay tax in this country, there is a genuine case of unrealised revenue to the exchequer. Hence, the amount of penalty is in line with the nature of offence and class of defaulters involved. Thus, the suggestion is not feasible."

462.6 Observation/Recommendation by the Committee

The Committee observe that Clause 462 seeks to impose penalty of Rs. One lakh for failure to furnish information or furnishing inaccurate information under section 397(3)(d) and aligns with Section 271I of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. They note that the Department haveconfirmed that this is a rephrasing, not a policy change. After considering all viewpoints, the Committee accept Clause 462, as proposed, as it meets its objectives.

Clause 463 - Penalty for furnishing incorrect information in reports or certificates.

463.1 Proposed provision in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025

(1) Any accountant or merchant banker or registered valuer, shall be liable to pay a penalty of ten thousand rupees for any incorrect information in any report or certificate furnished under any provision of this Act or the rules made thereunder.

(2) The penalty under sub-section (1) shall be payable in respect of each incorrect report or certificate.

(3) The penalty under sub-section (1) shall be payable on directions of the Assessing Officer or the Joint Commissioner (Appeals) or the Commissioner (Appeals) where the inaccuracy mentioned in sub-section (1) is found by such authority in the course of any proceedings under this Act.

(4) In this section,—

(a) “merchant banker” means Category I merchant banker registered with the Securities and Exchange Board of India established under section 3 of the Securities and Exchange Board of India Act, 1992; and (b) “registered valuer” means a person registered as a valuer under section 514.

463.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961)

“271J. Without prejudice to the provisions of this Act, where the Assessing Officer or [the Joint Commissioner (Appeals) or] the Commissioner (Appeals), in the course of any proceedings under this Act, finds that an accountant or a merchant banker or a registered valuer has furnished incorrect information in any report or certificate furnished under any provision of this Act or the rules made thereunder, the Assessing Officer or [the Joint Commissioner (Appeals) or] the Commissioner (Appeals) may direct that such accountant or merchant banker or registered valuer, as the case may be, shall pay, by way of penalty, a sum of ten thousand rupees for each such report or certificate.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section,—

(a) "accountant" means an accountant referred to in the Explanation below sub-section (2) of section 288;

(b) "merchant banker" means Category I merchant banker registered with the Securities and Exchange Board of India established under section 3 of the

(c) "registered valuer" means a person defined in clause (oaa) of section 2 of the Wealth-tax Act, 1957 (27 of 1957)."

463.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision

"Clause 463 of the Bill provides for penalty for furnishing incorrect information in reports or certificates. The clause corresponds to section 271J of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

463.3.1 In reply to a specific query on changes (addition or omission or replacement of words etc.) if any, between the provisions of the Clause and existing Section, the Department of Revenue furnished following reply:

> "The provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of IT Act 1961."

463.4 Observation/Recommendation by the Committee

Clause 463 of the Income-Tax Bill 2025, corresponding to Section 271J of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, stipulates penalty of Rs. Ten Thousand for providing incorrect information in any report or certificate under this Act or the rules made thereunder. The Committee further note that, beyond textual simplification, no policy change has been introduced in the provisions of this Clause. They, therefore, approve Clause 463 as proposed by the Department.

Clause 464 - Penalty for failure to furnish statements, etc.

464.1 Proposed provision in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025

The Assessing Officer may impose a penalty which shall not be less than ten thousand rupees but which may extend up to one lakh rupees on—

(a) the research association, University, college or other institution referred to in section 45, if it fails to deliver or furnish the documents as prescribed under section 45(4)(a); or (b) the institution or fund, if it fails to deliver or cause to be delivered a statement within the time prescribed under section 354(1)(e) or (f), or furnish a certificate prescribed under section 354(1)(g).

464.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961)

Penalty for failure to furnish statements, etc. has been dealt with under Section 271K of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, stated as under:

"271K.Without prejudice to the provisions of this Act, the Assessing Officer may direct that a sum not less than ten thousand rupees but which may extend to one lakh rupees shall be paid by way of penalty by—

(i) the research association, university, college or other institution referred to in clause (ii) or clause (iii) or the company referred to in clause (iia) of sub-section (1) of section 35, if it fails to deliver or cause to be delivered a statement within the time prescribed under clause (i), or furnish a certificate prescribed under clause (ii) of sub-section (1A) of that section; or

(ii) the institution or fund, if it fails to deliver or cause to be delivered a statement within the time prescribed under clause (viii) of sub-section (5) of section 80G, or furnish a certificate prescribed under clause (ix) of the said sub-section."

464.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision

"Clause 464 of the Bill provides for penalty for failure to furnish statement, etc. The clause corresponds to section 271 K of the Act.There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

464.3.1 In reply to a specific query on changes (addition or omission or replacement of words etc.) if any, between the provisions of the Clause and existing Section, the Department of Revenue furnished following reply:

> "The provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of IT Act 1961."

464.4 Observation/Recommendation by the Committee

The Committee note that Clause 464, corresponding to Section 271K of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, seeks to provide for imposition of penalty for failure to furnish statement by certain institutions or funds. Recognizing textual simplification, no policy change and retaining original intent in this Clause, the Committee accept the Clause as proposed by the Department of Revenue.

Clause 465 - Penalty for failure to answer questions, sign statements, furnish information, returns or statements, allow inspections, etc.

465.1 Proposed provision in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025

(1) A person shall be liable to pay a penalty of ten thousand rupees for each default or failure as mentioned below, if that person,—

(a) being legally bound to state the truth of any matter touching the subject of his assessment, refuses to answer any question put to him by an income-tax authority in the exercise of its powers under this Act; or

(b) refuses to sign any statement made by him in the course of any proceedings under this Act, which an income-tax authority may legally require him to sign; or

(c) to whom a summons is issued under section 246(1), either to attend to give evidence or to produce books of account or other documents at a certain place and time omits to attend or produce books of account or documents at the place or time; or

(d) fails to comply with a notice under section 268(1) or (2) or 270(8) or fails to comply with a direction issued under section 268(5).

(2) A person shall be liable to pay a penalty of five hundred rupees for every day during which the following failures continue, if that person fails to—

(a)comply with a notice under section 175(7); or

(b) give the notice of discontinuance of his business or profession as required by section 320(3); or

(c) furnish in due time any of the returns, statements or particulars mentioned in section 252 or section 397(3) or 507; or

(d) allow inspection of any register referred to in section 255 or of any entry in such register or to allow copies of such register or of any entry therein to be taken; or

(e) furnish the return of income as required under section263(1)(a)(iii) or (iv) or to furnish it within the time allowed and in themanner required under sections 263(1) and (2); or

(f) deliver or cause to be delivered in due time a copy of the declaration mentioned in section 393(6); or

(g) furnish a certificate under section 395(4);or

(h) deduct and pay tax under section 416(3); or

(i) furnish a statement under section 389(5)(a); or

(j) deliver or cause to be delivered in due time a copy of the declaration referred to in section 394(2); or

(k) deliver or cause to be delivered the statement within the time specified in section 397(3)(g); or

(l) deliver or cause to be delivered a statement within the time as prescribed under section 397(3)(e).

(3) The amount of penalty shall not exceed the amount of tax deductible or collectible for failures in relation to the following:—

(a) a declaration mentioned in section 393(6);

(b) a certificate as required by section 395(4);and (c) statements under section 397(3)(b) or (e).

(4) Any penalty imposable under sub-section (1) or (2) shall be imposed—

(a) if the contravention, failure or default for which such penalty is imposable occurs in the course of any proceeding before an income-tax authority not below the rank of Joint Director or a Joint Commissioner, by such income-tax authority;

(b) in a case falling under sub-section (1)(d), by the income-tax authority who had issued the notice or direction referred to therein;

(c) in a case falling under of sub-section (2)(f), by the Principal Chief ommissioner or Chief Commissioner or Principal Commissioner or Commissioner; and (d) in any other case, by the Joint Director or the Joint Commissioner.

(5) In this section, "income-tax authority" includes a Principal Director General or Director General, Principal Director or Director, Joint Director and an Assistant Director or Deputy Director while exercising the powers vested in a court under the Code of Civil Procedure,1908, when trying a suit in respect of the matters specified in section 246(1).

465.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961)

"272A. If any person,—

(a) being legally bound to state the truth of any matter touching the subject of his assessment, refuses to answer any question put to him by an income-tax authority in the exercise of its powers under this Act; or

or

(c) to whom a summons is issued under sub-section (1) of section 131 either to attend to give evidence or produce books of account or other documents at a certain place and time omits to attend or produce books of account or documents at the place or time; or

(d) fails to comply with a notice under sub-section (1) of section 142 or sub-section (2) of section 143 or fails to comply with a direction issued under sub-section (2A) of section 142, he shall pay, by way of penalty, a sum of ten thousand rupees for each such default or failure.

(2) If any person fails—

(a) to comply with a notice issued under sub-section (6) of section 94; or

(b) to give the notice of discontinuance of his business or profession as required by sub-section (3) of section 176; or

(c) to furnish in due time any of the returns, statements or particulars mentioned in section 133 or section 206 or section 206C or section 285B; or

(d) to allow inspection of any register referred to in section 134 or of any entry in such register or to allow copies of such register or of any entry therein to be taken; or

(e) to furnish the return of income which he is required to furnish under sub-section (4A) or sub-section (4C) of section 139 or to furnish it within the time allowed and in the manner required under those sub-sections; or

(f) to deliver or cause to be delivered in due time a copy of the declaration mentioned in section 197A; or

(g) to furnish a certificate as required by section 203 or section 206C; or

(h) to deduct and pay tax as required by sub-section (2) of section 226;

(i) to furnish a statement as required by sub-section (2C) of section 192;

(j) to deliver or cause to be delivered in due time a copy of the declaration referred to in sub-section (1A) of section 206C;

(k) to deliver or cause to be delivered a copy of the statement within the time specified in sub-section (3) of section 200 or the proviso to sub-section (3) of section 206C;

(l) to deliver or cause to be delivered the statements within the time specified in sub-section (1) of section 206A;

(m) to deliver or cause to be delivered a statement within the time as may be prescribed under sub-section (2A)of section 200 or sub-section (3A)of section 206C, he shall pay, by way of penalty, a sum of five hundred rupees for every day during which the failure continues:

Provided that the amount of penalty for failures in relation to a declaration mentioned in section 197A, a certificate as required by section 203 and returns under sections 206 and 206C and statements under sub-section (2A) or sub-section (3) of section 200 or the proviso to sub-section (3) or under sub-section (3A) of section 206C shall not exceed the amount of tax deductible or collectible, as the case may be:

Provided further that no penalty shall be levied under this section for the failure referred to in clause (k), if such failure relates to a statement referred to in sub-section (3) of section 200 or the proviso to sub-section (3) of section 206C which is to be delivered or caused to be delivered for tax deducted at source or tax collected at source, as the case may be, on or after the 1st day of July, 2012.

(3) Any penalty imposable under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall be imposed—

(a) in a case where the contravention, failure or default in respect of which such penalty is imposable occurs in the course of any proceeding before an income-tax authority not lower in rank than a Joint Director or a Joint Commissioner, by such income-tax authority;

(aa) in a case falling under clause (d) of sub-section (1), by the income-tax authority who had issued the notice or direction referred to therein;

(b) in a case falling under clause (f) of sub-section (2), by the Principal Chief Commissioner or Chief Commissioner or Principal Commissioner or Commissioner; and (c) in any other case, by the Joint Director or the Joint Commissioner.

(4) No order under this section shall be passed by any income-tax authority referred to in sub-section (3) unless the person on whom the penalty is proposed to be imposed is given an opportunity of being heard in the matter by such authority.

Explanation.—In this section, "income-tax authority" includes a Principal Director General or Director General, Principal Director or Director, Joint Director and an Assistant Director or Deputy Director while exercising the powers vested in a court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908), when trying a suit in respect of the matters specified in sub-section (1) of section 131.

(i) the research association, university, college or other institution referred to in clause (ii) or clause (iii) or the company referred to in clause (iia) of sub-section (1) of section 35, if it fails to deliver or cause to be delivered a statement within the time prescribed under clause (i), or furnish a certificate prescribed under clause (ii) of sub-section (1A) of that section; or

(ii) the institution or fund, if it fails to deliver or cause to be delivered a statement within the time prescribed under clause (viii) of sub-section (5) of section 80G, or furnish a certificate prescribed under clause (ix) of the said sub-section."

465.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision

"Clause 465 of the Bill provides for penalty for failure to answer questions, sign statements, furnish information, returns or statement, allow inspections, etc. The clause corresponds to section 272 A of the Act.There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

465.4 Important Views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders

1. Clause 465(1) should be modified as "A person shall be liable to pay a penalty of ten thousand rupees for each default or failure as mentioned below, if that person,—

   (d) fails to comply with a notice under section 268(1) ~~or (2)~~ or 270(8) or fails to comply with a direction issued under section 268(5)."

   Following justification has been provided for above suggestion:

   "Section 268(2) does not deal with issue of notice. Therefore, reference to section 268(2) may be omitted."

2. Another suggestion received with regard to Clause 465 (1) (d) is stated as under:

   "Corresponding provisions for penalty for failure to answer questions, sign statements, furnish information, returns or statements, allow inspections, etc. is section 272A of the Income-tax Act, 1961. The reference to non-compliance under section 268(2) provided under section 465(1)(d) appears to be an inadvertent reference since the assessee cannot be penalized for the actions or compliances required to be carried out by the Assessing officer."

2. Regarding Clause 465 (2), it has been suggested to be modify as under:

"A person shall be liable to pay a penalty of five hundred rupees for every day during which the following failures continue, if that person fails to—

(i) furnish a statement under section ~~389(5)(a)~~ 392(5)(a); or"

Justification for the above suggestion has been stated as under:

"The said provision incorrectly makes reference to section 389(5)(a) when the correct provision is section 392(5)(a). It is suggested before this Honourable Committee that the reference to section 389(5)(a) may be replaced with section 392(5)(a)."

3. With regard to Clause 465 (2) (i) following modification has been suggested:

"Clause 465(2)(i) should be corrected so as to provide for reference to 392(5)(a) instead of 389(5)(a)."

The reasons for above modification has been stated as under:

"There is no such provision as 389(5)(a) which exists in the Income-Tax Bill. The corresponding requirement of furnishing such statement as is required under 192(2C) of the Income-tax Act, 1961 is provided under Clause 392(5)(a) of the Income-Tax Bill."

465.5 Examination by the Committee

The Committee examined the provisions of the above clause in light of the suggestions received. Asked to express their views on the above suggestions, the Department of Revenue, in their written submission, stated as under:

"1.Accepted.
The suggestion seeks to delete the reference in clause 465. This is drafting correction.
The reference to section 268(2) in clause 465 (Penalty for failure to answer questions, sign statement etc) shall be omitted.

2.Accepted.

This is drafting correction. The suggestion seeks to update the reference in clause 465(2).The reference to section 392(5)(a) shall be updated in clause 465(2).”

465.6 Observations/Recommendations by the Committee

The Committee observe that Clause 465, simplifying Section 272A of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, imposes penalties for non-compliance (eg. failure to provide information or allow inspections) with no policy change. However, the drafting errors viz. omission of Section 268(2) and incorrect reference to 389(5)(a) instead of 392(5)(a) in sub-clause (2) of Clause 465, as pointed out by stakeholders, have been accepted by the Department of Revenue. They, therefore, recommend the Department to carry out the aforesaid drafting correction.

Clause 466 - Penalty for failure to comply with the provisions of section 254.

466.1 Proposed provision in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025

If a person fails to comply with the provisions of section 254, the Joint Commissioner, Deputy Director or Assistant Director or the Assessing Officer, may impose a penalty which may extend up to one thousand rupees on him.

466.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961)

"272AA. (1) If a person fails to comply with the provisions of section 133B, he shall, on an order passed by the Joint Commissioner, Assistant Director or Deputy Director or the Assessing Officer, as the case may be, pay, by way of penalty, a sum which may extend to one thousand rupees.

(2) No order under sub-section (1) shall be passed unless the person on whom the penalty is proposed to be imposed is given an opportunity of being heard in the matter."

466.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision

"Clause 466 of the Bill provides for penalty for failure to comply with the provisions of section 254.The clause corresponds to section 272AA of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

466.3.1 In reply to a specific query on changes (addition or omission or replacement of words etc.) if any, between the provisions of the Clause and existing Section, the Department of Revenue furnished following reply:

> "The provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of IT Act 1961."

466.4 Observation/Recommendation by the Committee

The Committee note that Clause 466 prescribing penalty for failure to comply with the provisions of section 254 is similar to the provisions of existing Section 272AA of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with no policy change. They, therefore, approve the Clause 466 as proposed by the Department of Revenue.

Clause 467 - Penalty for failure to comply with the provisions of section 262.

467.1 Proposed provision in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025

(1) If a person fails to comply with the provisions of section 262, the Assessing Officer may impose a penalty of ten thousand rupees on him.
(2) If a person, required to quote or intimate his permanent account number or Aadhaar number in any document as referred to in section 262(9)(a), provides or quotes or intimates a number which is false, knowing or believing it to be false, the Assessing Officer may impose a penalty of ten thousand rupees on him for each such default.
(3) If a person fails to quote or authenticate his permanent account number or Aadhaar number in any document referred to in section 262(9)(a), the Assessing Officer may impose a penalty of ten thousand rupees on him for each such default.
(4) If a person referred to in 262(9)(b) responsible for ensuring the correct quoting or authentication of permanent account number or Aadhaar number, in documents relating to transactions prescribed under section 262(9)(a) fails to do so, the Assessing Officer may impose a penalty of ten thousand rupees on him for each such default.

467.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961)

"272B. (1) If a person fails to comply with the provisions of section 139A, the Assessing Officer may direct that such person shall pay, by way of penalty, a sum of ten thousand rupees.

(2) If a person who is required to quote his permanent account number or Aadhaar number, as the case may be, in any document referred to in clause (c) of sub-section (5) of section 139A, or to intimate such number as required by sub-section (5A) or sub-section (5C) of that section, quotes or intimates a number which is false, and which he either knows or believes to be false or does not believe to be true, the Assessing Officer may direct that such person shall pay, by way of penalty, a sum of ten thousand rupees for each such default.

(2A) If a person, who is required to quote his permanent account number or Aadhaar number, as the case may be, in documents referred to in sub-section (6A) of section 139A or authenticate such number in accordance with the provisions of the said sub-section, fails to do so, the Assessing Officer may direct that such person shall pay, by way of penalty, a sum of ten thousand rupees for each such default.

(2B) If a person, who is required to ensure that the permanent account number or the Aadhaar number, as the case may be, has been,—

(i) duly quoted in the documents relating to transactions referred to in clause (c)of sub-section (5) or in sub-section (6A) of section 139A; or (ii) duly authenticated in respect of transactions referred to under sub-section (6A) of that section, fails to do so, the Assessing Officer may direct that such person shall pay, by way of penalty, a sum of ten thousand rupees for each such default.

(3) No order under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) or sub-section (2A) or sub-section (2B) shall be passed unless the person, on whom the penalty is proposed to be imposed, is given an opportunity of being heard in the matter."

467.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision

"Clause 467 of the Bill provides for penalty for failure to comply with the provisions of section 262.The clause corresponds to section 272B of the Act.There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

467.3.1 In reply to a specific query on changes (addition or omission or replacement of words etc.) if any, between the provisions of the Clause and existing Section, the Department of Revenue furnished following reply:

> "The provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of IT Act 1961."

467.4 Observation/Recommendation by the Committee

The Committee note that Clause 467, a textual simplification of Section 272B of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, seeks to impose penalties for non-compliance with the provisions of section 262. As no policy changes are incorporated, the Committee accept Clause 467 as proposed by the Department of Revenue.

Clause 468 - Penalty for failure to comply with the provisions of section 397(1).

468.1 Proposed provision in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025

(1) If a person fails to comply with the provisions of section 397, the Assessing Officer may impose a penalty of ten thousand rupees on him.
(2) If a person, required to quote his Tax Deduction and Collection Account Number in documents (such as challans, certificates, or statements) referred to in section 397(1)(b), quotes a number which is false, knowing or believing it to be false, the Assessing Officer may impose a penalty of ten thousand rupees on him."

468.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961)

"272BB. (1) If a person fails to comply with the provisions of section 203A, he shall, on an order passed by the Assessing Officer, pay, by way of penalty, a sum of ten thousand rupees.

(1A) If a person who is required to quote his "tax deduction account number" or, as the case may be, "tax collection account number" or "tax deduction and collection account number" in the challans or certificates or statements or other documents referred to in sub-section (2) of section 203A, quotes a number which is false, and which he either knows or believes to be false or does not believe to be true, the Assessing Officer may direct that such person shall pay, by way of penalty, a sum of ten thousand rupees.

(2) No order under sub-section (1) or sub-section (1A) shall be passed unless the person on whom the penalty is proposed to be imposed is given an opportunity of being heard in the matter."

468.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision

"Clause 468 of the Bill provides for penalty for failure to comply with the provisions of section 397(1).The clause corresponds to section 272BB of the Act.There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

468.3.1 In reply to a specific query on changes (addition or omission or replacement of words etc.) if any, between the provisions of the Clause and existing Section, the Department of Revenue furnished following reply:

"The provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of IT Act 1961."

468.4 Observation/Recommendation by the Committee

The Committee observe that Clause 468 deals with penalty for failure to comply with the provisions of section 397(1) which corresponds to Section 272BB of the extant Act. They note that, apart from textual simplification, no policy change has been introduced in this Clause. They, therefore, accept Clause 468 as proposed by the Department of Revenue.

Clause 469 - Power to reduce or waive penalty, etc., in certain cases.

469.1 Proposed provision in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025

(1) Irrespective of anything contained in this Act, the Principal Commissioner or Commissioner may, whether on his own motion or otherwise, at his discretion reduce or waive the penalty imposed or imposable under section 439 if he is satisfied that such person,—

(a) before the Assessing Officer detected any concealment of particulars of income or of the inaccuracy of particulars furnished in respect of such income, has made a full and true disclosure of such particulars voluntarily and in good faith; and

(b) has cooperated in any enquiry relating to the assessment of his income and has paid or made satisfactory arrangements to pay any tax or interest payable in consequence of an order passed under this Act in respect of the relevant tax year.

(2) For the purposes of sub-section (1), a person shall be deemed to have made full and true disclosure of his income or of the particulars relating thereto if the difference between the assessed and returned income does not attract penalties under section 439.

(3) If the penalty under section 439 relates to income or disclosure in respect of income relates to more than one tax year and aggregate amount of such income or disclosure thereof for such years exceeds five lakh rupees, the Principal Commissioner or Commissioner shall obtain prior approval from the Principal Chief Commissioner or Chief Commissioner or Principal Director General or Director General, as the case may be, before waiving or reducing the penalty by order referred to in sub-section (1).

(4) Where an order has been made under sub-section (1) in favour of any person, whether such order relates to one or more tax years, he shall not be entitled to any relief under this section in relation to any other tax year at any time after the making of such order.

(5) The Principal Commissioner or Commissioner may, upon an application from the assessee, and after recording his reasons for doing so, reduce or waive the amount of penalty or penalties (whether they relate to one or more tax years) payable by the assessee or stay or compound any proceeding for the recovery of any such amount, if––

(a) doing otherwise would cause genuine hardship to the assessee, having regard to the circumstances of the case; and

(b) the assessee has cooperated in any inquiry relating to the assessment or any proceeding for the recovery of any amount due from him.

(6) The Principal Commissioner or Commissioner shall take prior approval from the Principal Chief Commissioner or Chief Commissioner or Principal Director General or Director General, as the case may be, if the aggregate amount of penalties reduced or waived or compounded, as the case may be, under sub-section (5), exceeds one lakh rupees.

(7) An order under sub-section (5), accepting or rejecting the application under the said sub-section, shall be passed within twelve months from the end of the month in which such application was received by the Principal Commissioner or Commissioner.

(8) No rejection of application under sub-section (5) shall be made without giving the assessee an opportunity of being heard.

(9) Every order made under this section shall be final and shall not be called into question by any court or any other authority.

469.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961)

"273A. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the Principal Commissioner or Commissioner may, in his discretion, whether on his own motion or otherwise,—

(i) []

(ii) reduce or waive the amount of penalty imposed or imposable on a person under section 270A or clause (iii) of sub-section (1) of section 271; or

(iii) []

if he is satisfied that such person—

(b) in the case referred to in clause (ii), has, prior to the detection by the Assessing Officer, of the concealment of particulars of income or of the inaccuracy of particulars furnished in respect of such income, voluntarily and in good faith, made full and true disclosure of such particulars, and also has, in the case referred to in clause (b), co-operated in any enquiry relating to the assessment of his income and has either paid or made satisfactory arrangements for the payment of any tax or interest payable in consequence of an order passed under this Act in respect of the relevant assessment year.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this sub-section, a person shall be deemed to have made full and true disclosure of his income or of the particulars relating thereto in any case where the excess of income assessed over the income returned is of such a nature as not to attract the provisions of section 270A or clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 271.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1),—

(b) if in a case falling under section 270A or clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 271, the amount of income in respect of which the penalty is imposed or imposable for the relevant assessment year, or, where such disclosure relates to more than one assessment year, the aggregate amount of such income for those years, exceeds a sum of five hundred thousand rupees, no order reducing or waiving the penalty under sub-section (1) shall be made by the Principal Commissioner or Commissioner except with the previous approval of the Principal Chief Commissioner or Chief Commissioner or Principal Director General or Director General, as the case may be.

(3) Where an order has been made under sub-section (1) in favour of any person, whether such order relates to one or more assessment years, he shall not be entitled to any relief under this section in relation to any other assessment year at any time after the making of such order :

Provided that where an order has been made in favour of any person under sub-section (1) on or before the 24th day of July, 1991, such person shall be entitled to further relief only once in relation to other assessment year or years if he makes an application to the income-tax authority referred to in sub-section (4) at any time before the 1st day of April, 1992.

(4) Without prejudice to the powers conferred on him by any other provision of this Act, the Principal Commissioner or Commissioner may, on an application made in this behalf by an assessee, and after recording his reasons for so doing, reduce or waive the amount of any penalty payable by the assessee under this Act or stay or compound any proceeding for the recovery of any such amount, if he is satisfied that—

(i) to do otherwise would cause genuine hardship to the assessee, having regard to the circumstances of the case; and

(ii) the assessee has co-operated in any inquiry relating to the assessment or any proceeding for the recovery of any amount due from him:

Provided that where the amount of any penalty payable under this Act or, where such application relates to more than one penalty, the aggregate amount of such penalties exceeds one hundred thousand rupees, no order reducing or waiving the amount or compounding any proceeding for its recovery under this sub-section shall be made by the Principal Commissioner or Commissioner except with the previous approval of the Principal Chief Commissioner or Chief Commissioner or Principal Director General or Director General, as the case may be.

(4A) The order under sub-section (4), either accepting or rejecting the application in full or in part, shall be passed within a period of twelve months from the end of the month in which the application under the said sub-section is received by the Principal Commissioner or the Commissioner:

Provided that no order rejecting the application, either in full or in part, shall be passed unless the assessee has been given an opportunity of being heard:

Provided further that where any application is pending as on the 1st day of June, 2016, the order shall be passed on or before the 31st day of May, 2017.

(5) Every order made under this section shall be final and shall not be called into question by any court or any other authority.

(6) The provisions of this section as they stood immediately before their amendment by the Direct Tax Laws (Amendment) Act, 1989 shall apply to and in relation to any assessment for the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1988, or any earlier assessment year, and references in this section to the other provisions of this Act shall be construed as references to those provisions as for the time being in force and applicable to the relevant assessment year.

(7) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (6), the provisions of sub-section (1), sub-section (2), or, as the case may be, sub-section (4) [as they stood immediately before their amendment by the Direct Tax Laws (Amendment) Act, 1989 (3 of 1989)], shall apply in the case of reduction or waiver of penalty or interest in relation to any assessment for the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1988 or any earlier assessment year, with the modifications that the power under the said sub-section (1) shall be exercisable only by the Principal Commissioner or Commissioner and instead of the previous approval of the Board, the Principal Commissioner or Commissioner shall obtain the previous approval of the Principal Chief Commissioner or Chief Commissioner or Principal Director General or Director General, as the case may be, while dealing with such case."

469.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision

"Clause 469 of the Bill provides for power to reduce or waive penalty, etc., in certain cases. The clause corresponds to section 273A of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

469.3.1 In reply to a specific query on changes (addition or omission or replacement of words etc.) if any, between the provisions of the Clause and existing Section, the Department of Revenue furnished following reply:

> "The provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of IT Act 1961."

469.4 Observation/Recommendation by the Committee

The Committee note that Clause 469 grants power to reduce or waive penalties, etc., in certain cases, akin to Section 273A of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. They further note that this Clause is only a textual simplification, consistent with the objectives of the Bill. Therefore, the Committee accept the Clause as proposed by the Department.

Clause 470 - Penalty not to be imposed in certain cases.

470.1 Proposed provision in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025

Irrespective of anything contained in the provisions of section 441 or 442 or 446 or 447 or 448 or 449 or 450 or 451 or 454 or 455 or 456 or 457 or 458 or 459 or 460 or 461 or 462 or 463 or 465(1)(c) or 465(1)(d) or 465(2)(c) or 465(2)(d) or 466 or 467 or 468(1) or 468(2), no penalty shall be imposed on a person or assessee for any failure referred to in the said provisions, if he proves that there was reasonable cause for the said failure.

"273B. Notwithstanding anything contained in the provisions of clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 271, section 271A, section 271AA, section 271B, section 271BA, section 271BB, section 271C, section 271CA, section 271D, section 271E, section 271F, section 271FA, [24][section 271FAA,] section 271FAB, section 271FB, section 271G, section 271GA, section 271GB, [25][section 271GC,] section 271H, section 271-I, section 271J, clause (c) or clause (d) of sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) of section 272A, sub-section (1) of section 272AA or section 272B or sub-section (1) or sub-section (1A) of section 272BB or sub-section (1) of section 272BBB or clause (b) of sub-section (1) or clause (b) or clause (c) of sub-section (2) of section 273, no penalty shall be imposable on the person or the assessee, as the case may be, for any failure referred to in the said provisions if he proves that there was reasonable cause for the said failure."

470.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision

"Clause 470 of the Bill provides for penalty not to be imposed in certain cases. The clause corresponds to section 273B of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause.

470.4 Important Views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders

1. Irrespective of anything contained in the provisions of section 441 or 442 or 446 or 447 or 448 or 449 or 450 or 451 or 453 or 454 or 455 or 456 or 457 or 458 or 459 or 460 or 461 or 462 or 463 or 465(1)(c) or 465(1)(d) or 465(2)(c) or 465(2)(d) or 466 or 467 or 468(1) or 468(2), no penalty shall be imposed on a person or assessee for any failure referred to in the said provisions, if he proves that there was reasonable cause for the said failure.

Clause 470 may be amended so as to include reference to Clause 453 of the Income-Tax Bill."

Reasons for suggesting above modification has been provided as under:

Section 273B of IT Act contained reference to section 271E. Section 470 which is pari materia to section 273B of IT Act does not contain reference to section 453 which is pari materia to section 271E of IT Act. Hence, reference to section 453 which has been missed out, may now be included.

At present Section 273B which specifies various penalties on account of reasonable cause includes the penalty u/s. 271E for failure to comply with section 269T of the Act. Since various other clauses are already covered under clause 470 of the Income-tax Bill, 2025, there seems to be no reason for not including penalty u/s. 453 in the said clause."

2. Another suggestion received in respect of this Clause is as under:

"Irrespective of anything contained in the provisions of this Chapter, no penalty shall be imposed on a person or assessee for any failure referred to in the said provisions, if he proves that there was a reasonable cause for the said failure."

Following justification was furnished for the above suggestion:

"If a reasonable cause is proved for any failure for which penalty is leviable under this Chapter, then no penalty shall be imposed."

470.5 Examination by the Committee

470.5.1 Responding to the above suggestion, the Department of Revenue stated as under:

"Accepted.

The suggestion seeks to update the reference in clause 470. This is drafting correction. The reference to section 453 shall be updated in clause 470."

470.5.2 On the issue of no penalty in case of reasonable cause given by the assessee, the Department of Revenue furnished following written reply:

"The suggestion seeks to decriminalise any offence if the person proves that there is a reasonable cause for failure. It is in the nature of Policy Change. Misreporting can never be diluted by reasonable cause. Penalty provisions are required to maintain optimum deterrence without which the revenue collections could be seriously affected. Most important is 270A where such a liberal view cannot be taken. There are certain penalties such as 271AAC of IT Act for which no reasonable cause would justify the violations of provisions of section 68/69 of IT Act. Another example is 271AAD of IT Act. Providing reasonable cause would dilute such provisions and these provisions would be misused. Thus, suggestion is not feasible."

470.5.3 While tendering oral evidence on 16.6.2205, a representative of the Department of Revenue further explained the issue as under:

"…….This is in context of misreporting. They are saying if there is a reasonable cause for failure, then that offence should be decriminalised. We have already decriminalised under reporting by the Act itself, where Assessing Officer can provide immunity. Misreporting is something which cannot be accepted. That argument itself can not be accepted that this is not a criminal offence."

470.6 Observation/Recommendation by the Committee

The Committee observe that Clause 470 of the Bill, mirroring Section 273B of the extant Act, seeks to provide that penalty in certain cases shall not be imposed for reasonable cause. After considering stakeholders suggestions and Department's responses, the Committee find that: (i) there is a drafting error in the reference part of the Clause, which the Department have accepted; (ii) the suggestion to condone misreporting of income on the grounds of reasonable cause is untenable as misrepresentation or suppression of facts cannot be permitted under any circumstances. The Committee concur with the views of the Department of Revenue. Accordingly, the Committee recommend that drafting correction be carried out in Clause 470 to include reference to clause 453.

Clause 471 - Procedure

471.1 Proposed provision in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025

(1) No order imposing a penalty under this Chapter shall be made unless the assessee has been heard, or has been given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.
(2) No order imposing a penalty under this Chapter shall be made without the prior approval of the Joint Commissioner—
(a) where the penalty exceeds ten thousand rupees, by the Income-tax Officer;
(b) where the penalty exceeds twenty thousand rupees, by the Assistant Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner.
(3) An income-tax authority on making an order under this Chapter imposing a penalty, unless he himself is the Assessing Officer, shall send a copy of the order to the Assessing Officer.

471.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961)

"274. (1) No order imposing a penalty under this Chapter shall be made unless the assessee has been heard, or has been given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

(2) No order imposing a penalty under this Chapter shall be made—

(a) by the Income-tax Officer, where the penalty exceeds ten thousand rupees;

(b) by the Assistant Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner, where the penalty exceeds twenty thousand rupees, except with the prior approval of the Joint Commissioner.

(2A) The Central Government may make a scheme, by notification in the Official Gazette, for the purposes of imposing penalty under this Chapter so as to impart greater efficiency, transparency and accountability by—

(a) eliminating the interface between the income-tax authority and the assessee or any other person to the extent technologically feasible;

(b) optimising utilisation of the resources through economies of scale and functional specialisation;

(c) introducing a mechanism for imposing of penalty with dynamic jurisdiction in which penalty shall be imposed by one or more income-tax authorities.

(2B) The Central Government may, for the purposes of giving effect to the scheme made under sub-section (2A), by notification in the Official Gazette, direct that any of the provisions of this Act relating to jurisdiction and procedure for imposing penalty shall not apply or shall apply with such exceptions, modifications and adaptations as may be specified in the notification:

Provided that no direction shall be issued after the 31st day of March, 2022:

[26][Provided further that the Central Government may amend any direction, issued under this sub-section on or before the 31st day of March, 2022, by notification in the Official Gazette.]

(2C) Every notification issued under sub-section (2A) and sub-section (2B) shall, as soon as may be after the notification is issued, be laid before each House of Parliament.

(3) An income-tax authority on making an order under this Chapter imposing a penalty, unless he is himself the Assessing Officer, shall forthwith send a copy of such order to the Assessing Officer."

471.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision

"Clause 471 of the Bill deals with procedure. The clause corresponds to section 274 of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

471.4 Examination by the Committee

When asked about the legislative intent behind positioning Clause 471 as a standalone, general procedural clause rather than integrating or explicitly cross referencing it within each specific penalty-imposing clause, or consolidating it into a broader procedural chapter, particularly when the stated objective of the Bill is to simplify and enhance clarity, the Department of Revenue, in their post evidence replies, stated as under:

> "Clause 471 provides for the procedure to be followed for imposing any penalty whereas other clauses in the Chapter provides for specific conditions and the amount of penalty to be imposed. Reproducing the procedure in every clause related to penalty will make it cumbersome. Hence, a single clause of procedure applicable to all penalties has been provided."

471.5 Observation/Recommendation by the Committee

The Committee note that Clause 471, outlining penalty procedures, corresponding to Section 274 of the Income-Tax Act 1961, is a textual simplification consistent with the objectives of the Bill. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause as proposed by the Department.

Clause 472 - Bar of limitation for imposing penalties.

472.1 Proposed provision in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025

(1) No order imposing a penalty under this Chapter shall be passed after the expiry of six months from the end of the quarter in which—
(a) the proceedings, in the course of which action for the imposition of penalty has been initiated, are completed, if the relevant assessment or other order is not the subject-matter of an appeal under section 356 or 357 or 362;
(b) the order of revision is passed, if the relevant assessment or other order is the subject-matter of revision under section 377 or 378;
(c) the order of appeal is received by the jurisdictional Principal Commissioner or Commissioner, if the relevant assessment or other order is the subject-matter of an appeal under section 356 or 357 or 362;
(d) notice for imposition of penalty is issued, in any other case.
(2) The order imposing or enhancing or reducing or cancelling penalty or dropping the proceedings for the imposition of penalty may be revised on the basis of assessment as revised by giving effect to the order under section 356 or 357 or 362 or 365 or 367 or revision under section 377 or 378, where the relevant assessment or other order is the subject-matter of an appeal or revision under the said sections.
(3) No order imposing or enhancing or reducing or cancelling penalty or dropping the proceedings for the imposition of penalty under sub-section (2) shall be passed—
(a) unless the assessee has been heard, or has been given a reasonable opportunity of being heard;
(b) after the expiry of six months from the end of the quarter in which the order under section 356 or 357 or 362 or 365 or 367 is received by the jurisdictional Principal Commissioner or Commissioner or the order of revision under section 377 or 378 is passed.
(4) The provisions of section 471(2) shall apply to the order imposing or enhancing or reducing penalty under this section.
(5) In computing the period of limitation for the purposes of this section, following period shall be excluded—
(a) the time taken in giving an opportunity to the assessee to be reheard under the section 244 (2);
(b) the period commencing on the date on which stay on proceeding for levy of penalty was granted by an order or injunction of any court and ending on the date on which certified copy of the order vacating the stay was received by jurisdictional Principal Commissioner or Commissioner.

472.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961)

“275. (1) No order imposing a penalty under this Chapter shall be passed after the expiry of six months from the end of the quarter in which,—

(a) the proceedings, in the course of which action for the imposition of penalty has been initiated, are completed, if the relevant assessment or other order is not the subject matter of an appeal under section 246 or section 246A or section 253;

(b) the order of revision under section 263 or section 264 is passed, if the relevant assessment or other order is the subject matter of revision under the said sections;

(c) the order of appeal under section 246 or section 246A is received by the jurisdictional Principal Commissioner or Commissioner, if the relevant assessment or other order is the subject matter of an appeal under the said sections and no further appeal has been filed under section 253;

(d) the order of appeal under section 253 is received by the jurisdictional Principal Commissioner or Commissioner, if the relevant assessment or other order is the subject matter of an appeal under the said section;

(e) notice for imposition of penalty is issued, in any other case.

(2) The order imposing or enhancing or reducing or cancelling penalty or dropping the proceedings for the imposition of penalty may be revised on the basis of assessment as revised by giving effect to the order passed under section 246 or section 246A or section 253 or section 260A or section 261 or revision under section 263 or section 264, where the relevant assessment or other order is the subject matter of an appeal or a revision under the said sections.

(3) No order imposing or enhancing or reducing or cancelling penalty or dropping the proceedings for the imposition of penalty under sub-section (2) shall be passed—

(a) unless the assessee has been heard, or has been given a reasonable opportunity of being heard;

(b) after the expiry of six months from the end of the quarter in which the order passed under section 246 or section 246A or section 253 or section 260A or section 261 is received by the jurisdictional Principal Commissioner or Commissioner, or the order of revision under section 263 or section 264 is passed.

(4) The provisions of sub-section (2) of section 274 shall apply to the order imposing or enhancing or reducing penalty under sub-section (2).

(5) In computing the period of limitation for the purposes of this section, the following period shall be excluded:—

(a) the time taken in giving an opportunity to the assessee to be reheard under the proviso to section 129;

(b) the period commencing on the date on which stay on proceeding for levy of penalty was granted by an order or injunction of any court and ending on the date on which certified copy of the order vacating the stay was received by the jurisdictional Principal Commissioner or Commissioner.]"

472.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision

"Clause 472 of the Bill deals with bar of limitation for imposing penalty. The clause corresponds to section 275 of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

472.3.1 In reply to a specific query on changes (addition or omission or replacement of words etc.) if any, between the provisions of the Clause and existing Section, the Department of Revenue furnished following reply:

> "The provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of IT Act 1961."

472.4 Observation/Recommendation by the Committee

The Committee observe that Clause 472, mapped to Section 275 of the extant Act, seeks to provide for a bar of limitation for imposing penalties. Noting that its provisions retain the same context and intent as the existing provision of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, with simplified language for greater insight, the Committee accept Clause 472 as proposed by the Department.

CHAPTER XXII
OFFENCES AND PROSECUTION

Clause 473: Contravention of order made under section 247

473.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"Whoever contravenes any order referred to in section 247(1)(viii) or (4) shall be punishable with rigorous imprisonment which may extend to two years and shall also be liable to fine."

473.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 275A: Contravention of order made under sub-section (3) of section 132.

"Whoever contravenes any order referred to in the second proviso to sub-section (1) or sub-section (3) of section 132 shall be punishable with rigorous imprisonment which may extend to two years and shall also be liable to fine."

473.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

473.3.1 "Clause 473 of the Bill deals with contravention of order made under section 247. The clause corresponds to section 275A of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been retained with the same intent in this clause."

Tabular representation of various provisions under Chapter XXII

473.3.2. During the examination of the Bill, the Ministry in their background note had stated that the present exercise of simplification of the law, through the Income-Tax Bill, 2025, has been undertaken, with the following broad objectives, including > 'Creating easy to understand formulae and tabular structures where feasible, for computation of tax for income of various natures, eliminating the complexities that have crept in regarding certain areas over the years due to multiple provisos and explanations.'

473.3.3 The Ministry further informed that in existing Income-Tax Act, 1961, 18 tables existed while in order to simplify 57 tables have been added.

473.3.4 While elaborating further on the exercise for simplification, the Ministry stated as under:

> "..a comprehensive consultative process was undertaken for the simplification exercise. The drafting style of the new Bill is straightforward and clear, making the provisions easier to understand. The objective is to create a more friendly and easy to understand tax code, without making any major changes in the tax policy and tax rates. The exercise was focused on making the law simple, clearer, bring about ease of compliance and create a more equitable tax system."

473.3.5 During the introductory sitting of the Committee, the Ministry while highlighting the key features of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 have stated as follows:

> "..important point to highlight in this is that there is no major policy change in that. It is principally the old Act, reworded, redrafted, rephrased into shorter sentences of the new Bill. So, there is no major policy change in the Act."

473.4 Important views/suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders

One of the significant views/suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders, regarding Clause 473 to Clause 498, was that related provisions can be consolidated and presented in a single clause using a table, thereby reducing the overall number of clauses in the bill."

473.5 Examination by the Committee:

473.5.1 The Ministry in response to the suggestion by the stakeholder furnished in written replies as follows:

> "Each clause deals with different provisions. Merging of clauses may result in lack of clarity which is not the mandate of the ITB 2025.The suggestion has no merit."

473.5.2 Regarding further simplification and ease of the assessee, On the suggestion that various clauses under Chapter XXII can be clubbed, consolidated and presented in a tabular form preferably in a single clause, the Ministry in written replies furnished as under:

> "Chapter XXII of the Income-tax Bill, 2025 deals with offences and prosecution. Each clause of the said chapter deals with specific cases, provides for specific conditions for initiation of prosecution and the punishment is also different. Consolidation and presentation in a single table will lead to confusion regarding the applicability of the conditions for invoking the prosecution clauses. Further, it may also be the case where the table will give an impression that the offences are mutually inclusive which is not the case. Clauses falling the afore-mentioned Chapter are mutually exclusive. In case there are multiple violations even in a single case, the assessee shall be liable for applicable punishments. The afore-said clauses in their present state are fairly clear with definite readability and putting them in a single table may lead to confusion and unintended litigation."

473.5.3 During the course of the examination of the Bill, the Committee desired to be apprised about the number of fines imposed as per the Bill and whether there is any case of fine without imprisonment. The Ministry in written replies stated as follows:

"There are total 16 sections of the Act under which prosecution can be made. In all these 16 cases, the punishment is imprisonment with fine."

473.6 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee while examining the Clause 473 of the Bill note that the Clause deals with 'contravention of order made under section 247' and corresponds to section 275A of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee observe that the provisions of the existing section have been retained with the same intent in the proposed clause. Having considered the views of both stakeholders and the Ministry, the Committee accept the Clause 473 as proposed.

Clause 474: Failure to comply with section 247(1)(b)(ii)

474.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"If a person, who is required to afford the authorised officer with the necessary facility to inspect the books of account or other documents under section 247(1)(b)(ii) fails to do so, he shall be punishable with rigorous imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years and shall also be liable to fine."

Section 275B: Failure to comply with the provisions of clause (iib) of sub-section (1) of section 132

"If a person who is required to afford the authorised officer the necessary facility to inspect the books of account or other documents, as required under clause (iib) of sub-section (1) of section 132, fails to afford such facility to the authorised officer, he shall be punishable with rigorous imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years and shall also be liable to fine."

474.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 474 of the Bill deals with failure to comply with clause (ii) of section 247(1)(b). The clause corresponds to section 275B of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been retained with the same intent in this clause."

474.4 Examination by the Committee:

474.4.1 In regard to Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with regards to any addition or omission or replacement of words etc. alongwith the justification for the proposed modification, the Ministry in their written replies stated that there is one Omission i.e. fails to afford such.

474.4.2 On the Committee's further query regarding enlargement of the definition of 'electronic record' in context of clause (iib) of sub-section (1) of section 132 of IT Act, 1961 qualify as policy change, the Ministry in written replies furnished their justification as follows:

> "In the Bill, reference has been made to number of clauses of the Information technology Act as against the Income-tax Act where reference was made only to clause 2(1)(t) which pertained to electronic record….

…All of these different forms are covered by section 2(1)(ha), (i), (j), (k), (l), (r), and (t) of the Information Technology Act, 2000. The clauses which have been added pertain to communication devices, mobile data, computer, computer network etc in which financial data is stored. For purposes of accessing digital data to unearth new emerging tax evasion techniques, this enablement was much needed.

It is only the reiteration of the already existing provision in a more explicit language to cover all the means and devices of storing digital data. No additional power has been given to the tax authorities. This amendment is in the nature of rationalization of the provision."

474.5 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee note that Clause 474 deals with 'failure to comply with clause (ii) of section 247(1)(b)', aligns with the provisions of Section 275B of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee also note that the textual simplification of clause 474 is as per the objectives of the Bill and retaining the same intent. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause as proposed.

Clause 475: Removal, concealment, transfer or delivery of Property to prevent tax recovery

475.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"Whoever, fraudulently removes, conceals, transfers or delivers to any person, any property or any interest therein, with the intent to prevent such property or interest from being taken in execution of a certificate as prescribed, shall be punishable with rigorous imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years and shall also be liable to fine."

475.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section276: Removal, concealment, transfer or delivery of property to thwart tax recovery.

"Whoever fraudulently removes, conceals, transfers or delivers to any person, any property or any interest therein, intending thereby to prevent that property or interest therein from being taken in execution of a certificate under the provisions of the Second Schedule shall be punishable with rigorous imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years and shall also be liable to fine."

475.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 475 of the Bill deals with removal, concealment, transfer or delivery of property to prevent tax recovery. The clause corresponds to section 276 of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been retained with the same intent in this clause."

475.4 Important Views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders:

An important suggestion received from the stakeholder pointing towards a drafting error in the clause is as follows:

> "Whoever, fraudulently removes, conceals, transfers or delivers to any person, any property or any interest therein, with the intent to prevent such property or interest therein from being taken in execution of a certificate as prescribed, shall be punishable with rigorous imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years and shall also be liable to fine.
> The word "therein" after "interest" is missing."

475.5 Examination by the Committee

475.5.1 The Ministry in response to the suggestion by the stakeholder, while admitting to the drafting error, stated in their written replies stated as under:

> "Accepted. The suggestion seeks to add word "therein" which is missing in clause 475.This is drafting correction. The word "therein" after "interest" may be added in clause 475 to align with the existing Act."

475.5.2 In regard to Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with regards to any addition or omission or replacement of words etc. alongwith the justification for the proposed modification, the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

> "Add 1. as prescribed, > Omission 1. provisions of the Second Schedule."

475.6 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee note that clause 475 of the Bill, which mirrors Section 276 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 concerning actions to prevent tax recovery (i.e., removal, concealment, transfer or delivery of Property), requires a minor amendment. Following a stakeholder's suggestion, and with the Department's agreement, the Committee recommend inserting "therein" after the word "interest" in Clause 475 to ensure consistency with the existing Act. Aside from this drafting Correction, the Committee approve the Clause as proposed.

Clause 476: Failure to pay tax to credit of Central Government under Chapter XIX-B

476.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

(1) If a person fails to—

(a) pay to the credit of the Central Government, the tax deducted at source by him as required by or under the provisions of Chapter XIX-B; or

(b) pay tax or ensure payment of tax to the credit of the Central Government, as required under—

(i) Note 3 in Table in section 393(3); or

(ii) Note 6 to section 393(1) (Table: Sl. No. 8),

he shall be punishable with rigorous imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than three months but which may extend to seven years, and shall also be liable to fine.

(2) The provisions of this section shall not apply if the payment referred to in sub-section (1)(a) has been credited to the Central Government on or before the time prescribed for filing the statement for such payment under section 397(3)(b).

476.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

276B: Failure to pay tax to the credit of Central Government under Chapter XII-D or XVII-B.

If a person fails to

(a) pay to the credit of the Central Government, the tax deducted] at source by him as required by or under the provisions of Chapter XVII-B; or

(b) pay tax or ensure payment of tax to the credit of the Central Government, as required by or under—

(i) sub-section (2) of section 115-O;

(ii) the proviso to section 194B;

(iii) the first proviso to sub-section (1) of section 194R;

(iv) the proviso to sub-section (1) of section 194S; or]

(v) sub-section (2) of section 194BA,]

he shall be punishable with rigorous imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than three months but which may extend to seven years and with fine:

Provided that the provisions of this section shall not apply if the payment referred to in clause (a) has been made to the credit of the Central Government at any time on or before the time prescribed for filing the statement for such payment under sub-section (3) of section 200.

476.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 476 of the Bill deals with failure to pay tax to credit of Central Government under Chapter XIX-B. The clause corresponds to section 276B of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been retained with the same intent in this clause."

476.4 Important Views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders:

Some important suggestions received from the stakeholders in the clause under examination are as follows:

476.4.1 Suggestion regarding Clause 476(1)(a), is as under:

> "The section may be redrafted to include "wilfully" and exclude the case where assessee "fails to ensure payment of tax to the credit of Central Government". The section to read as follows: (1) If a person wilfully fails to— ~~(a)~~ pay to the credit of the Central Government, the tax deducted at source by him as required by or under the provisions of Chapter XIX-B ; ~~or (b) pay tax or ensure payment of tax to thecredit of the Central Government, as required under— (i) Note 3 in Table in section 393(3); or (ii) Note 6 to section 393(1) (Table: Sl. No. 8),~~ he shall be punishable with rigorous imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than three months but which may extend to seven years, and shall also be liable to fine. The essential requirement of mens rea is missing in clause 476 which may be included by inserting the word "wilfully" before the words "fails to". It needs to be rationalized for providing relief in genuine cases. At present, TDS compliance is classified in two parts: (a) Tax not deducted at source. (b) Tax deducted but not deposited at source.
> For failure to deduct tax, penalty is attracted u/s 448 and for failure to deposit tax after deducting prosecution is attracted under this section. However, prosecution provisions are being attracted even for failure to ensure payment of tax by the deductee where consideration or benefit or perquisite arising from business or profession is wholly or partly in kind in certain cases. In such cases, both penalty under clause 448 and prosecution under clause 476 are attracted. The prosecution provision in clause 476 may be removed, since this is not a case of unjust enrichment."

476.4.2 Suggestion regarding Clause 476(1)(b)(i), is as under:

"Further the reference of Note no. 3 in Section 476(1)(b)(i) is erroneous. There does not exist "Note 3 in Table in section 393(3)"

476.4.3 Further, suggestion regarding Clause 476(2), is as under:

"Sub-section (2) may be substituted as follows:

(2) The provisions of this section shall not apply if the payment referred to in sub-section (1)(a) has been credited to the Central Government on or before ~~the time prescribed for filing the statement for such payment under section 397(3)(b)~~ the service of notice."

476.4.4 Another suggestion has been received for addition of new sub-section in Clause 476, as under:

"Further, new sub-section (3) may be inserted to provide that the provisions of this section shall not apply, where the tax has been deducted at source from the amount credited to the account of the payee, but actual payment of the said amount has not been made to the deductee. Relief from prosecution provisions be extended to deductors who have paid tax to the credit of the Central Government after the prescribed time limit but voluntarily at any time before service of any notice.

Also, many of the TDS provisions get triggered at the time of payment or credit, whichever is earlier. In cases where a credit entry is passed in the name a party /payee at the end of a financial year but no payment is actually made, then, prosecution provisions should not be attracted for non-deposit. In such cases, a delayed payment may be made by the assessee before the date of filing of tax audit report or before the due date of filing ITR but still assessee may be treated as the one who has deducted tax at source at the end of the year but not deposited the same on time. In such cases, consequent prosecution notices are issued by the department (which may be based on the data extracted from TDS returns filed by the assessee). This causes injustice to the assessee who has already paid such tax suo-moto along with interest, to either face prosecution proceedings or to agree for compounding proceedings.

To provide relief, it may be provided that no prosecution proceedings may be attracted till the due date of filing return of income."

476.4.5 Several stakeholders have made the following suggestions for decriminalization and rationalization:

(i) "In the spirit of decriminalization of financial offences of this government and the need to encourage entrepreneurship, these rigorous punishments should be substituted by appropriate penalties and default in these penalties might invite rigorous punishments."

(ii) "There are a number of penal and prosecution provisions in the Income-tax Act, 1961 which continue in the Income-tax Bill, 2025. These provisions act as a deterrent for taxpayers and are also one of the reasons for the huge pendency of appeals before the appellate fora.

In line with this commitment of the Department, it is suggested that, in the new Bill, prosecution provisions be incorporated only in respect of concealment or misreporting of income or in cases where there is unjust enrichment, like non-depositing of tax deducted upto the date of service of notice, and that too where the escaped income is above a threshold limit which may be specified.
However, in the Bill in the present form, prosecution provisions are being attracted even for failure to ensure payment of tax by the deductee where consideration or benefit or perquisite arising from business or profession is wholly or partly in kind in certain cases. In such cases, both penalty under clause 448 and prosecution under clause 476 are attracted. The prosecution provision in clause 476 may be removed, since this is not a case of unjust enrichment."

(iii) "Element of "Mens Rea" sine qua non for prosecution
The prosecution provisions in Chapter XXII of the Bill begin with "If a person willfully attempts/fails to furnish/fails to produce", thereby implying that "mensrea" is sine qua non for attracting prosecution. However, the essential requirement of mensrea is missing in clauses 476 and 477 of the Bill, which contain the prosecution provisions for failure to pay tax deducted at source and tax collected at source to the credit of the Central Government as required by or under the relevant provisions. These clauses begin with "If a person fails to …" and "Where a person fails to pay to the credit of the Central Government…", respectively."

(iv) Under this chapter provisions for penalty with rigorous imprisonment are prescribed only for the persons. No such penalty and rigorous imprisonment is prescribed for the Accountant for conducting audit under section 63(1) of IT bill It should be there like section 147(2) & (3) of the Companies Act, 2013.

Making a provision for penalty on the Accountant for audit, will impel the Accountant to conduct audit with due diligence, unbiased This will increase the revenue and make the accountant accountable for failure to report any misstatement in the audit report."

476.5 Examination by the Committee:

476.5.1 The Ministry in regard to the suggestion to add the word 'willfully in the Clause 476(1)(a) and on the issue of non-compliance in matters of TDS, in written replies stated as follows:

> "The suggestion seeks to include 'wilfully' and exclude the case where assessee "fails to ensure payment of tax to the credit of Central Government" in clause 476 Failure to pay to credit of Central Government under chapter XIX-B. It is in nature of policy change.
>
> Penalty and prosecution provisions are required to maintain optimum deterrence without which the revenue collections could be seriously affected. Further, prosecution is not launched in all cases as it is governed by administrative guidelines.
> For simplification and rationalization of compounding procedure, CBDT has issued Revised Guidelines for Compounding of offences under the Income-tax Act, 1961(the 'Act') on 17.10.2024.
> Further, the Budget of July 2024 has decriminalized late payment of TDS, if the payment is made before the time prescribed for filing the TDS statement. On similar lines, the Budget 2025 has decriminalized late payment of TCS, if the payment is made before the time prescribed for filing the TCS statement.
> The failure to deposit the amount which was collected purely in a fiduciary capacity on behalf of the government is a serious offence. However, there may be genuine cases where there may be some delay in deposition of TDS/TCS. To provide relief in such cases, the Budget of July 2024 has decriminalized late payment of TDS, if the payment is made before the time prescribed for filing the TDS statement. On similar lines, the Budget 2025 has decriminalized late payment of TCS, if the payment is made before the time prescribed for filing the TCS statement. Where, there is any further delay, it is considered a wilful act and therefore does not require separate mens rea.
> Therefore, the suggestion made is not feasible."

476.5.2 The Ministry in response to the suggestion pertaining to Section 476(1)(b)(i), regarding not existing 'Note 3 in Table in section 393(3)', accepted the omission and stated in written replies stated as follow:

> "Accepted. The suggestion seeks to provide Note 3 in Table in section 393(3). Note 3 will be added in Table in section 393(3)."

476.5.3 The Ministry in response to the suggestion pertaining to substitution in Section 476(2), in written replies stated as follows:

"The suggestion seeks to provide relief from prosecution provisions to deductors who have paid tax to the credit of the Central Government after the prescribed time limit but voluntarily at any time before service of any notice.
It is in nature of policy change.
Vide Finance Act No 2, 2024 , substantial relief from prosecution was provided to the deductors if they make a payment to the Central Government at any time on or before the due date for filing TDS statement. Any further extension of this time limit will result into noncompliance and non-deposition/late deposition of TDS which is loss to exchequer.
Thus, suggestion is not feasible."

476.5.4 The Ministry in response to the suggestion pertaining to addition of new sub-section in Clause 476 to provide relief to the accesse, in their written replies stated as follows:

"The suggestion seeks to provide that no prosecution proceedings may be attracted for deductor in case a credit entry is passed at the end of financial year and a delayed payment is made by the assessee before the date of filing of tax audit report or before the due date of filing ITR. It is in nature of policy change. The books of accounts are maintained on accrual basis and any dilution with the TDS requirement will result into misuse of the provisions. Vide Finance Act No 2, 2024 , substantial relief ….Is loss to exchequer.

Thus, suggestion is not feasible."

476.5.5 The Ministry in response to the suggestions by the stakeholder on decriminalization and rationalization of offences and prosecution furnished in corresponding written replies as under:-

(i) "The suggestion made by the stakeholder is in the nature of policy change which is beyond the scope of the objectives of the IT Bill, 2025."

(ii) "…The guidelines have been simplified inter-alia by eliminating the categorization of offences, removing the limit on number of occasions for filing applications, allowing fresh application upon curing of defects, allowing compounding of offences under section 275A and 276B of the Act, removing the existing time limit for filing application viz 36 months from the date of filing of complaint, etc.
Further, the Budget of July 2024 has decriminalised late payment of TDS, if the payment is made before the time prescribed for filing the TDS statement. On similar lines, the Budget 2025 has decriminalised late payment of TCS, if the payment is made before the time prescribed for filing the TCS statement.
Therefore, the suggestion has no merit."

(iii) "The failure to deposit the amount which was collected purely in a fiduciary capacity on behalf of the government is a serious offence.
However, there may be genuine cases where there may be some delay in deposition of TDS/TCS. To provide relief in such cases, the Budget of July 2024 has decriminalised late payment of TDS, if the payment is made before the time prescribed for filing the TDS statement. On similar lines, the Budget 2025 has decriminalised late payment of TCS, if the payment is made before the time prescribed for filing the TCS statement.
Where, there is any further delay, it is considered a wilful act and therefore does not require separate mensrea.
Therefore, the suggestion has no merit."
(iv) "The suggestion seeks to expand the scope of the Bill by including the penalty and rigorous imprisonment for the Accountant in the case of failure to report any misstatement in audit report.

It is in the nature of policy change, which is outside the scope of the Bill. There is no change in the provisions of the Bill vis-a-vis Act. Penalty and rigorous imprisonment already exists in the Bill for the entity/person in case of wrongful entry in the books of account. Therefore, it is the responsibility of the person to ensure the correct entry in the books of account. Thus, suggestion is not feasible."

476.5.6 Considering the extensive exercise carried out by the Ministry and in view of the global best practices, the Committee particularly desired to know about the specific provisions incorporated in the new Income-Tax Bill, 2025 regarding decriminalisation and rationalization of penal provisions, so as to reduce pendency of appeals before different fora and minimize litigation. The Ministry while elaborating on the issues further stated as under:

"Issue is in the nature of policy change. The prosecution provisions (Sections 276B &276BB) related to TDS and TCS have been significantly rationalised vide Finance (No. 2) Act, 2024 and Finance Act, 2025 in the Income-tax Act, 1961. Further, section 275 of the IT Act, 1961 dealing with the time limit to impose penalties has been amended to provide that any order imposing a penalty shall not be passed after the expiry of six months from the end of the quarter in which the connected proceedings are completed, or the order of appeal is received by the jurisdictional PCIT/CIT, or the notice for imposition of penalty is issued, as the case maybe. The same have been replicated in the new Income-Tax Bill, 2025."

476.5.7 Responding to Committee's specific query regarding overlap and ambiguity between civil penalties and criminal prosecutions and upon the possibility of a taxpayer to be penalised monetarily as well as also be prosecuted for the same offence, the Ministry in written replies justified as under:

> ""There is no overlap and ambiguity between civil penalties and criminal prosecutions. Both work in mutually exclusive fashion. Yes, a taxpayer can be penalised monetarily as well as also be prosecuted for the same offence. Penalty and prosecution provisions are required to maintain optimum deterrence without which the revenue collections could be seriously affected. Further, prosecution is not launched in all cases as it is governed by administrative guidelines. For simplification and rationalization of compounding procedure, CBDT has issued Revised Guidelines for Compounding of offences under the Income-Tax Act, 1961(the 'Act') on 17.10.2024."

476.5.8 Further, on the Committee's query, the Ministry elaborated upon numerous measures undertaken by the Department to reduce litigation and decrease the cost of compliance for the tax-payers and enhance efficiency of direct tax collection. In order to have an overview of the intricacies and nuances involved in issues pertaining to 'offences and persecution', the Committee sought a comparative statement regarding the clauses and related provisions, alongwith the justification, in the Income-Tax Act, 1961 and the proposed Income-Tax Bill, 2025. On Committee's queries regarding increase or decrease in quantum of imprisonment or fine, and the omissions and deletions in the clauses, the Ministry in written replies stated as under:

> "There has been no increase or decrease in the quantum of imprisonment or fine, under any clause/sub-clause of the ITB, 2025 as compared to Income-Tax Act, 1961.
> Changes in the Chapter on Offences and Prosecution (Section 275A to 280D of the IT Act, 1961).
>
> 1. Following provisions have been proposed for omission as they applied for Income-tax Act, 1961.
>
> i. Section 276A and 276AB are redundant as no prosecution can be initiated under these sections now. Therefore, they have been omitted from the Bill.
>
> ii. In section 278A, reference to section 276DD or 276E, are redundant, hence removed. Similarly, in section 278AA, reference to section 276AB is redundant, hence removed.
>
> iii. Section 278AB has been removed as it was related to erstwhile provisions of Settlement Commission.
>
> iv. Reference to section 276CCC (Failure to furnish return of income in search cases) has been provided in sections 278A, 279(1) & 279A.
> 2. It is submitted that no new offence has been added in Chapter XXII of the ITB, 2025."

476.5.9 Providing a comprehensive overview of the issue of decriminalization of financial crimes, the Ministry in written replies furnished as under:

" (i) The Income-tax provisions under which prosecution can be launched are related to major offences such as tax evasion and non-payment of taxes, non-disclosure/incorrect disclosure of particulars of income etc. These provisions are necessary as they act as deterrent to prevent tax evasion and tax-base erosion. Since tax collection is a sovereign function closely associated with revenue mobilization for the Government to carry out various welfare measures, the prosecution provisions under the Act cannot be diluted.

(ii) Further, in order to reduce the hardships, several relaxations with respect to these provisions, are already provided in the Income-tax Act, 1961 which are discussed as under:

Details of Decriminalization of offences under the Income-tax Act, 1961
Sr. No.	Provision or Section which prescribe criminal punishment	Details about criminal punishment	Status of Decriminalizatio n	Details of status/ remarks certain transfers. The said section has been omitted in the Bill considering the sun-set of section 276AB of the Act.

6.	Section 276DD-prosecution for acceptance of loan/deposit in cash exceeding Rs. 20,000. The said section has been omitted in the Bill considering the sun-set of section 276DD of the Act.	Imprisonment for up to 2 years with fine	Decriminalized w.e.f. 01.04.1989
7.	Section 276E-prosecution for repayment of loan in cash The said section has been omitted in the Bill considering the sun-set of section 276E of the Act.	Imprisonment for upto 2 years with fine	Decriminalized w.e.f. 01.04.1989

(iii) Further, as per the provisions of section 279A of the IT Act, 1961/clause 492 of the Bill, several offences (such as willful attempt to pay taxes, non-payment of taxes collected/ deducted, failure to furnish return of income etc.) have been deemed as non-cognizable offences within the meaning of the Code of Criminal Procedures, despite the fact that maximum punishment under the said provisions is more than 3 years.

(iv) Provision for a summary trial in a large number of cases is available under the Act.

(v) Through Finance Act, 2025, provision for furnishing updated income-tax returns has been further relaxed wherein a taxpayer may furnish a return under section 139(8A) of the IT Act, 1961/corresponding clause 263 of the Bill with additional tax within 4 years from the end of the relevant assessment year. Section 276CC of the IT Act, 1961/corresponding clause 479 of the Bill has been amended to provide that no person shall be proceeded against the said section if he has furnished an updated return within the time provided under the Act. Thus, a wide opportunity has been provided to the taxpayers to avoid prosecution under the said section.

(vi) Under section 245MA of the IT Act, 1961/corresponding clause 379 of the Bill, the dispute resolution committee has the power to reduce or waive any penalty or grant immunity from prosecution for any punishable offence if the variation proposed/made in the order does not exceed Rs. 10 lakh and the total income of such appellant does not exceed Rs. 50 lakhs.

(vii) Section 270AA of the IT Act, 1961/corresponding clause 440 deals with immunity from imposition of penalty and initiation of certain prosecution proceedings if assessee does not file any further appeal and pay the tax within the specified time.

(viii) There is also provision for obtaining advance rulings from the Board for Advance Rulings, to ensure certainty in advance for future transactions / business models."

476.5.10 In regard to Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause 476 with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with regards to any addition or omission or replacement of words etc. alongwith the justification for the proposed modification, the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

"Add: sub-section (2) of section 115-O; (ii) the proviso to section 194B; (iii) the first proviso to sub-section (1) of section 194R; (iv) the proviso to sub-section (1) of section 194S; or] 32[(v) sub-section (2) of section 194BA,]

Omission (i) Note 3 in Table in section 393(3); or(ii) Note 6 to section 393(1) (Table: Sl. No. 8),

476.6 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee note that Clause 476 of the Bill addresses failure to pay tax to credit of Central Government under Chapter XIX-B, mirroring Section 276B of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. Deliberating on stakeholder suggestions, the Committee has identified a need for a drafting correction. The Committee, therefore, recommend that "Note 3 in Table in section 393(3)", as referenced in Clause 476(1)(b)(i), be incorporated into the relevant proposed section. Subject to this specific amendment, the Committee accept Clause 476 as proposed.

Clause 477: Failure to pay tax collected at source.

477.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"(1) Where a person fails to pay to the credit of the Central Government the tax collected by him as required under section 394, he shall be punishable with rigorous imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than three months but which may extend to seven years and shall also be liable to fine.

(2) The provisions of this section shall not apply if the payment of the tax collected at source has been made to the credit of the Central Government at any time on or before the time prescribed for filing the statement under section 397(3)(b) in respect of such payment."

477.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 276BB: Failure to pay the tax collected at source.

"If a person fails to pay to the credit of the Central Government, the tax collected by him as required under the provisions of section 206C, he shall be punishable with rigorous imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than three months but which may extend to seven years and with fine:

Provided that the provisions of this section shall not apply if the payment of the tax collected at source has been made to the credit of the Central Government at any time on or before the time prescribed for filing the statement under the proviso to sub-section (3) of section 206C in respect of such payment.]"

477.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 477 of the Bill deals with failure to pay tax collected at source. The clause corresponds to section 276BB of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been retained with the same intent in this clause."

477.4 Important Views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders:

An important suggestion received from the stakeholder regarding adding of the word 'willfully' in the clause under examination is as under:

> "Sub-section (1) may be redrafted to include "Willfully" (1) Where a person willfully fails to pay to the credit of the Central Government the tax collected by him as required under section 394, he shall be punishable with rigorous imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than three months but which may extend to seven years and shall also be liable to fine. Same rationale will apply here as stated in section 476 for inclusion of term 'wilfully'."

477.5 Examination by the Committee:

477.5.1 The Ministry in response to the suggestion by the stakeholder for addition of the word 'willfully' in the clause under examination has furnished the same explanation as furnished regarding Clause No. 476 as mentioned in Para 476.5.3 above, and further stated as follows:

"The suggestion seeks to include 'wilfully' in clause 476 Failure to pay tax to the credit of Central Government. Penalty and prosecution provisions are required to maintain optimum deterrence without which the revenue collections could be seriously affected.
Therefore, the suggestion made is not feasible."

477.5.2 In regard to Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with regards to any addition or omission or replacement of words etc. alongwith the justification for the proposed modification, the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

"Add 1. Where Omission 1. If"

477.6 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee note that Clause 477 deals with failure to pay tax collected at source, mirroring Section 276BB of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee observe that the intent of the existing section is retained in the proposed clause. After deliberating stakeholder suggestion, the Committee agree with the Ministry's rationale for maintaining penalty and prosecution provisions for deterrence, and therefore accept Clause 477 as proposed.

Clause 478: Wilful attempt to evade tax, etc.

478.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"(1) If a person wilfully attempts in any manner to evade payment of any tax, penalty or interest chargeable or imposable, or under-reports his income, under this Act, he shall be punishable,—

(a) in a case, where the amount sought to be evaded or tax on under-reported income exceeds twenty-five lakh rupees, with rigorous imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than six months but which may extend to seven years and shall also be liable to fine;

(b) in any other case, with rigorous imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than three months but which may extend to two years and shall also be liable to fine, and shall also be liable for penalty that may be imposable on him under any other provision of this Act.

(2) If a person wilfully attempts in any manner to evade the payment of any tax, penalty or interest under this Act, he shall be punishable with rigorous imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than three months but which may extend to two years and shall, in the discretion of the court, also be liable to fine.

(3) In addition to the punishment referred to in sub-section (2), the person referred to in the said sub-section shall also be liable for penalty that may be imposable on him under any other provision of this Act.

(4) For the purposes of this section, a wilful attempt to evade any tax, penalty or interest chargeable or imposable under this Act, or the payment thereof, shall include a case where any person—

(a) has in his possession or control any books of account or other documents (being books of account or other documents relevant to any proceeding under this Act) containing a false entry or statement; or

(b) makes or causes to be made any false entry or statement in such books of account or other documents; or

(c) wilfully omits or causes to be omitted any relevant entry or statement in such books of account or other documents; or

(d) causes any other circumstance to exist which may have the effect of enabling such person to evade any tax, penalty or interest chargeable or imposable under this Act or the payment thereof.

478.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 276C: Wilful attempt to evade tax, etc.

"(1) If a person wilfully attempts in any manner whatsoever to evade any tax, penalty or interest chargeable or imposable, or under reports his income, under this Act, he shall, without prejudice to any penalty that may be imposable on him under any other provision of this Act, be punishable,—

(i) in a case where the amount sought to be evaded or tax on under-reported income exceeds twenty-five hundred thousand rupees, with rigorous imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than six months but which may extend to seven years and with fine;

(ii)in any other case, with rigorous imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than three months but which may extend to two years and with fine.

(2) If a person wilfully attempts in any manner whatsoever to evade the payment of any tax, penalty or interest under this Act, he shall, without prejudice to any penalty that may be imposable on him under any other provision of this Act, be punishable with rigorous imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than three months but which may extend to two years and shall, in the discretion of the court, also be liable to fine.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, a wilful attempt to evade any tax, penalty or interest chargeable or imposable under this Act or the payment thereof shall include a case where any person—

(i) has in his possession or control any books of account or other documents (being books of account or other documents relevant to any proceeding under this Act) containing a false entry or statement; or

(ii)makes or causes to be made any false entry or statement in such books of account or other documents; or

(iii) wilfully omits or causes to be omitted any relevant entry or statement in such books of account or other documents; or

(iv) causes any other circumstance to exist which will have the effect of enabling such person to evade any tax, penalty or interest chargeable or imposable under this Act or the payment thereof."

478.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 478 of the Bill deals with wilful attempt to evade tax, etc. The clause corresponds to section 276C of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

478.4 Important Views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders:

Some important suggestions received from the stakeholder in the clause under examination are as follows:

478.4.1 Regarding Clause 478(1):

"Clause 478(1): Refers to wilful attempt to evade "payment of" any tax, penalty, or interest. Section 478(2): Also refers to wilful attempt to evade "payment of" tax, penalty, or interest. S. 478(4): Elaborates circumstances where a taxpayer is said to have evaded any tax, penalty, or interest, or the payment thereof. The reference to "payment of" in Section 478(1) appears to be inadvertent, as it overlaps with Section 478(2). This redundancy could lead to an absurdity where evasion of tax does not attract prosecution, but evasion of payment does. This appears to be unintentional as S. 478(4) of ITB 2025 still refers to evasion of tax, penalty or interest.

Delineate Sections 478(1) and (2) to cover distinct defaults. Section 478(1) should cover wilful attempt to evade taxes, penalty, or interest, or underreporting of income. Section 478(2) should cover evasion of payment, similar to Section 276C(2) of ITA 1961."

478.4.2 Regarding Clause 478(1)(b):

"(b) of sub-section (1) may be substituted as follows: (b) in any other case, with rigorous imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than three months but which may extend to two years and shall also be liable to fine. Also, sub-section (3) providing for liability for penalty to be deleted.In addition to prosecution provision, penalty is also attracted. Since the present chapter is dealing with prosecution provision, hence, levy of penalty under a prosecution related section and Chapter may be removed."

478.4.3 Regarding Clause 478(4)(d):

"In clause (4)(d) word "may" should be replaced with the word "will". d) causes any other circumstance to exist which may will have the effect of enabling such person to evade any tax, penalty or interest chargeable or imposable under this Act or the payment thereof.In the Income-tax Act, 1961, in clause (iv) of the Explanation to section 276C the language is:"cause any other circumstance to exist which will have the effect of ……" hereas in the Income-tax Bill, 2025, the language of clause (d) uses the expression: "causes any other circumstances which may have the effect of enabling such person to ……..." Use of term 'may have the effect of' would further increase the scope of prosecution provision, even based on mere remote possibility, which would be too harsh."

478.5 Examination by the Committee:

The Ministry in response to the suggestions by the stakeholder has correspondingly furnished in the written replies as follows:

478.5.1 Regarding Clause 478(1):

> "Drafting corrections. The reference to "payment of" in Section 478(1) is inadvertent and should be removed. The suggestion is acceptable."

478.5.2 Regarding Clause 478(1)(b):

> "It is in nature of policy change.
> Thus, suggestion is not feasible."

478.5.3 Regarding Clause 478(4)(d):

> "Accepted. The suggestion to restrict the scope of the section by replacing the word "may" with "will".

478.5.4 In regard to Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with regards to any addition or omission or replacement of words etc. alongwith the justification for the proposed modification, the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

> "Add 1. shall also be liable to fine, and shall also be liable for penalty that may be imposable on him under any other provision of this Act."

478.6 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee

The Committee, while reviewing Clause 478 of the Bill, which mirrors Section 276C of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, concerning wilful attempt to evade tax, etc., has identified two crucial drafting corrections. Firstly, the Committee recommend removing the reference to "payment of" in Clause 478(1) to avoid an unintended overlap with Clause 478(2) that could lead to inconsistent prosecution for tax evasion versus payment evasion. Secondly, to align with the existing Section 276C and prevent an overly broad interpretation of prosecution provisions, the Committee advise replacing "may" with "will" in Clause 478(4)(d). Subject to these precise drafting corrections, the Committee approve Clause 478 as proposed.

Clause 479: Failure to furnish returns of income.

479.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"(1) If a person wilfully fails to furnish in due time the return of income, which is required to be furnished under section 263(1), or by notice given under sections 268(1) or 280, he shall be punishable,—

(a) in a case, where the amount of tax, which would have been evaded if the failure had not been discovered, exceeds twenty- five lakh rupees, with rigorous imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than six months but which may extend to seven years and shall also be liable to fine;

(b) in any other case, with imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than three months but which may extend to two years and shall also be liable to fine.

(2) A person shall not be proceeded against under sub-section (1) for failure to furnish in due time the return of income under section 263(1) for any tax year, if—

(a) the return is furnished by him before the expiry of one year from the end of the tax year or a return is furnished by him under section 263(6) within the time provided in that section; or

(b) the tax payable by such person, not being a company, on the total income determined on regular assessment, as reduced by the advance tax or self-assessment tax, if any, paid before the expiry of one year from the end of the tax year, and any tax deducted or collected at source, does not exceed ten thousand rupees."

Section 276CC: Failure to furnish returns of income.

"If a person wilfully fails to furnish in due time the return of fringe benefits which he is required to furnish under sub-section (1) of section 115WD or by notice given under sub-section (2) of the said section or section 115WH or the return of income which he is required to furnish under sub-section (1) of section 139 or by notice given under clause (i) of sub-section (1) of section 142 or section 148 or section 153A, he shall be punishable,—

(i) in a case where the amount of tax, which would have been evaded if the failure had not been discovered, exceeds twenty-five hundred thousand rupees, with rigorous imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than six months but which may extend to seven years and with fine;

(ii) in any other case, with imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than three months but which may extend to two years and with fine:

Provided that a person shall not be proceeded against under this section for failure to furnish in due time the return of fringe benefits under sub-section (1) of section 115WD or return of income under sub-section (1) of section 139—

(i) for any assessment year commencing prior to the 1st day of April, 1975; or

(ii) for any assessment year commencing on or after the 1st day of April, 1975, if—

(a) the return is furnished by him before the expiry of the assessment year or a return is furnished by him under sub-section (8A) of section 139 within the time provided in that sub-section; or

(b) the tax payable by such person, not being a company, on the total income determined on regular assessment, as reduced by the advance tax or self-assessment tax, if any, paid before the expiry of the assessment year, and any tax deducted or collected at source, does not exceed ten thousand rupees."

479.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 479 of the Bill deals with failure to furnish return of Income. The clause corresponds to section 276CC of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

479.4 Important Views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders:

An important suggestion received from the stakeholder regarding clause under examination is as follows:

> "Prosecution proceedings under clause (1) (b) not to be initiated in cases where there is no tax evasion.
> Prosecution proceedings under clause (b) i.e., imprisonment for 3 months to two years and fine not to be attracted for failure to furnish return of income if there is no evasion of tax."

479.5 Examination by the Committee:

479.5.1 The Ministry in response to the suggestion by the stakeholder furnished in their written replies as under:

> "The suggestion seeks to decriminalise the section if there is no evasion of tax [276CC-failure to furnish RoI]. Already a clear exclusion is available in 479(2)(b) where the difference in tax due and the advance tax/self assessment tax paid is less than ten thousand. Therefore the case proposed would be covered in this clause. Compounding provisions may be availed in such cases. It is submitted that the said section provides deterrence against willful failure to furnish in due time the return of income, which is required to be furnished under section 263(1), or by notice given under sections 268(1) or 280.

It is in the nature of Policy Change.

However, no rationale for the decriminalising the section has been provided. It is submitted that wilful failure to furnish in due time the return of income, amounts to wilful scuttling of quasi-judicial proceedings and thus, safeguard is required in the Act against such actions. Thus, suggestion is not feasible."

479.5.2 In regard to Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961 alongwith the justification for the proposed modification, the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

"Omission
1. the return of fringe benefits which he is required to furnish under subsection (1) of section 115WD or by notice given under sub-section (2) of the said section or section 115WH or the return of income which he is required to furnish under sub-section (1) of section 139 or 2. (i) for any assessment year commencing prior to the 1st day of April, 1975; or
(ii) for any assessment year commencing on or after the 1st day of April, 1975, if— (a) the return is furnished by him before the expiry of the assessment year or a return is furnished by him under sub-section (8A) of section 139 within the time provided in that subsection; or."

479.6 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

Clause 479 deals with failure to furnish returns of income. The Committee note that this Clause is simplified textual version of existing Section 276CC maintaining Government original policy. After considering the viewpoints of both the stakeholders and the Department, the Committee accept Clause 479 as proposed.

Clause 480: Failure to furnish return of income in search cases

480.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"If a person willfully fails to furnish in due time there turn of total income which is required to be furnished by notice given under section 294(1)(a), he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than three months but which may extend to three years and shall also be liable to fine."

Section 276CCC:Failure to furnish return of income in search cases.

" If a person wilfully fails to furnish in due time the return of total income which he is required to furnish by notice given under clause (a) of [sub-section (1) of section 158BC, he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than three months but which may extend to three years and with fine :

Provided that no person shall be punishable for any failure under this section in respect of search initiated under section 132 or books of account, other documents or any assets requisitioned under section 132A, after the 30th day of June, 1995 but before the 1st day of January, 1997.

480.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 480 of the Bill deals with failure to furnish return of Income in search cases. The clause corresponds to section 276CCC of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

480.4 Examination by the Committee:

480.4.1 In regard to Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961 and addition or omission or replacement of words etc. alongwith the justification for the proposed modification, the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

> "Omission.
> 1.Provided that no person shall be punishable for any failure under this section in respect of search initiated under section 132 or books of account, other documents or any assets requisitioned under section 132A."

480.4.2 Clause 480 has been included in Clause 485, Clause 491 and Clause 492 of the Bill corresponds to Section 278A, Section 279 and Section 279A of the Income-Tax

Act, 1971. On the Committee's desire to be apprised of the reasons for the inclusion of Clause 480 under the scope of Clause 485, the Ministry clarified under:

> " Clause 480 of the Bill deals with failure to furnish return of income in search cases...
> Clause 485 deals with Punishment for second and subsequent offences. The corresponding section 278A of the Income-Tax Act 1961 covers section 276CC i.e. failure to furnish return of income which a person is required to furnish u/s 139(1) or section 148 or section 153A. S. 153A related to search assessments. Thus, s. 278A provided for defaults in filing returns relating to search cases.
> Vide Finance Act No 2,2024, Chapter XIV-B Special procedure for assessment of search cases was introduced. The section 158BC of the deals with procedure for block assessment and the assessee is required to furnish return u/s 158BC(1)(a) in response to the notice issued by the Assessing officer. The corresponding clause in Bill is 294(1)(a). The section 276CCC of IT Act 1961 deals with failure to furnish return in search cases. Therefore, as section 153A has been omitted and since assessment in search conducted on or after 01.09.2024 will be made u/s 158BC so clause 480(section 276CCC of IT Act 1961) has been added in clause 485.

480.4.3 Furnishing rationale for inclusion of Clause 480 under the ambit of Clause 491, the Ministry in written replies stated as under:

> "Clause 491 deals with Prosecution to be at instance of Principal Chief Commissioner or Chief Commissioner or Principal Commissioner or Commissioner. The corresponding section 279 of IT Act 1961 covers cases of 276CC of IT Act. Therefore, on similar rationale the clause 480(section 276CCC of IT Act 1961) has been added in clause 491."

480.4.4 On the Committee's additional query regarding insertion of Clause 480 under Clause 492 that deals with 'certain offences to be non-cognizable', the Ministry in written replies furnished as under:

> "Clause 492 deals with Certain offences to be non-cognizable. The corresponding section 279A of IT Act covers cases of 276CC of IT Act. Therefore, on similar rationale the clause 480(section 276CCC of IT Act 1961) has been added in clause 492."

480.4.5 The Ministry in reply to the Committee's query regarding the terminology 'fine', clarified as follows:

> "In law, a fine is a monetary penalty imposed by a court or authority as punishment for a crime or other offence. It's a financial sanction intended to punish the offender, deter similar misconduct, and potentially serve as a deterrence to others. It is pertinent to mention that Income-Tax Bill similar to IT Act 1961 provides the provision of fine only in such cases where prosecution is initiated. e.g. As per clause 480 of the Bill -Wilful failure to furnish return of income in search cases will attract imprisonment for a term (3 months to 3 years) and fine."

480.5 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee observe that Clause 480 of the Bill textually simplifies and retain the intent of section 276CCC of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 regarding failure to furnish return of Income in search cases. Noting that there is no policy change in this regard and having after considered the views of the stakeholder as well as the response of the Department, the Committee accept Clause 480 as proposed.

Clause 481: Failure to produce accounts and documents

481.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"If a person wilfully fails to produce, or cause to be produced, the accounts and documents as are referred to in the notice served on him under section 268(1) on or before the date specified in such notice, or wilfully fails to comply with a direction issued to him under section 268(5) of, he shall be punishable with rigorous imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year and shall also be liable to fine."

481.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 276D: Failure to produce accounts and documents.

"If a person wilfully fails to produce, or cause to be produced, on or before the date specified in any notice served on him under sub-section (1) of section 142, such accounts and documents as are referred to in the notice or wilfully fails to comply with a direction issued to him under sub-section (2A) of that section, he shall be punishable with rigorous imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year and with fine."

481.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 481 of the Bill deals with failure to produce accounts and documents. The clause corresponds to section 276D of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

481.4 Important Views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders:

During the examination, the stakeholder made suggestion regarding removing of the Clause 481 and stated as follows:

"This section to be removed.

Failure to produce accounts and documents is not an offence warranting initiation of prosecution proceedings. Best Judgement Assessment can be done even if a person does not produce books of account and there are different provisions in which case penalty can be levied."

481.5 Examination by the Committee:

481.5.1 The Ministry in response to the suggestion by the stakeholder, furnished in their written replies as follows :

> "The suggestion seeks to remove the section which provides for prosecution in case of failure to produce accounts and documents.
> It is in the nature of Policy Change. Compounding provisions may be availed in such cases.
> It is submitted that the said section provides deterrence against wilful failure to produce accounts and documents despite having been explicitly directed to do so by the Assessing Officer. Such actions amount to wilful scuttling of quasi-judicial proceedings and thus, safeguard is required in the Act against such actions. Thus, Suggestion is not feasible.

481.5.2 In regard to Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961 alongwith the justification for the proposed modification, the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

> "Add 1.shall also be liable"

481.6 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee note that Clause 481 of the Bill deals with failure to produce accounts and documents, and corresponds to section 276D of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. Recognizing textual simplification, no policy change and retaining original intent in this Clause, the Committee accept the Clause as proposed by the Department of Revenue.

Clause 482 False statement in verification, etc.

482.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"If a person makes a statement in any verification under this Act or under any rule made thereunder, or delivers an account or statement which is false, and which he either knows or believes to be false, or does not believe to be true, he shall be punishable,—

(a) in a case, where the amount of tax, which would have been evaded if the statement or account had been accepted as true, exceeds twenty-five lakh rupees, with rigorous imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than six months but which may extend to seven years and shall also be liable to fine;

(b) in any other case, with rigorous imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than three months but which may extend to two years and shall also be liable to fine."

482.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 277: False statement in verification, etc.

"If a person makes a statement in any verification under this Act or under any rule made thereunder, or delivers an account or statement which is false, and which he either knows or believes to be false, or does not believe to be true, he shall be punishable,—

(i) in a case where the amount of tax, which would have been evaded if the statement or account had been accepted as true, exceeds twenty-five hundred thousand rupees, with rigorous imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than six months but which may extend to seven years and with fine;

(ii) in any other case, with rigorous imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than three months but which may extend to two years and with fine."

482.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 482 of the Bill deals with false statement in verification, etc.The clause corresponds to section 277 of the Act.There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

482.4 Examination by the Committee: In regard to Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961, the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

"Add 1.shall also be liable"

482.5 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee note that Clause 482 of the Bill deals with false statement in verification, etc., aligns with section 277 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee observe that the provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in the proposed clause. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause 482 as proposed.

Clause 483: Falsification of books of account or document, etc.

483.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"(1) If any person (herein referred to as the first person) wilfully and with intent to enable any other person (herein referred to as the second person) to evade any tax or interest or penalty chargeable and imposable under this Act in the circumstances referred to in sub-section (2), the first person shall be punishable with rigorous imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than three months but which may extend to two years and with fine.

(2) The circumstances referred to in sub-section (1) shall be, where the first person makes or causes to be made any entry or statement which is false and which the first person either knows to be false or does not believe to be true, in any books of account or other document relevant to or useful in any proceedings against the first person or the second person, under this Act.

(3) For the purposes of establishing the charge under this section, it shall not be necessary to prove that the second person has actually evaded any tax, penalty or interest chargeable or imposable under this Act."

483.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 277A: Falsification of books of account or document, etc.

"If any person (hereafter in this section referred to as the first person) wilfully and with intent to enable any other person (hereafter in this section referred to as the second person) to evade any tax or interest or penalty chargeable and imposable under this Act, makes or causes to be made any entry or statement which is false and which the first person either knows to be false or does not believe to be true, in any books of account or other document relevant to or useful in any proceedings against the first person or the second person, under this Act, the first person shall be punishable with rigorous imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than three months but which may extend to two years and with fine.

Explanation.—For the purposes of establishing the charge under this section, it shall not be necessary to prove that the second person has actually evaded any tax, penalty or interest chargeable or imposable under this Act."

483.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 483 of the Bill provides for falsification of books of account or document, etc. The clause corresponds to section 277A of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

483.4 Examination by the Committee:

Responding to the Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with regards to any addition or omission or replacement of words etc. alongwith the justification for the proposed modification, the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

"Add 1. circumstances referred to in subsection (2), Omission 1. makes or causes to be made any entry or statement which is false and which the first person either knows to be false or does not believe to be true, in any books of account or other document relevant to or useful in any proceedings against the first person or the second person, under this Act."

483.5 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

Recognizing Clause 483's alignment with Section 277A of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, deals with the falsification of books or documents, the Committee observe it as a textual simplification that preserves the original intent. The Committee, therefore, accept Clause 483 in its proposed form.

Clause 484: Abetment of false return, etc.

484.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"If a person abets or induces in any manner another person—

(a) to make and deliver an account or a statement or declaration relating to any income chargeable to tax which is false and which he either knows to be false or does not believe to be true; or

(b) to commit an offence under section 478(1), he shall be punishable,—

(i) in a case, where the amount of tax, penalty or interest which would have been evaded, if the declaration, account or statement had been accepted as true, or which is wilfully attempted to be evaded, exceeds twenty-five lakh rupees, with rigorous imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than six months but which may extend to seven years and shall also be liable to fine;

(ii) in any other case, with rigorous imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than three months but which may extend to two years and shall also be liable to fine."

Section 278: Abetment of false return, etc.

"If a person abets or induces in any manner another person to make and deliver an account or a statement or declaration relating to any income or any fringe benefits chargeable to tax which is false and which he either knows to be false or does not believe to be true or to commit an offence under sub-section (1) of section 276C, he shall be punishable,—

(i) in a case where the amount of tax, penalty or interest which would have been evaded, if the declaration, account or statement had been accepted as true, or which is wilfully attempted to be evaded, exceeds twenty-five hundred thousand rupees, with rigorous imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than six months but which may extend to seven years and with fine;

(ii) in any other case, with rigorous imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than three months but which may extend to two years and with fine."

484.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 484 of the Bill provides for abetment of false return, etc. The clause corresponds to section 278 of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

484.4 Examination by the Committee:

In regard to Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with regards to any addition or omission or replacement of words etc. alongwith the justification for the proposed modification, the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

> "Omission
> 1. (ii) in any other case, with rigorous imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than three months but which may extend to two years and with fine."

484.5 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee note that Clause 484, which deals with abetment of false return, etc. and corresponds to Section 278 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, has been textually simplified while retaining its original intent and policy. The Committee, therefore, accept Clause 484 as proposed.

Clause 485: Punishment for second and subsequent offences.

485.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"If any person convicted of an offence under sections 476, 477, 478(1), 479, 480, 482 or 484 is again convicted of an offence under any of the said sections, he shall be punishable for the second and for every subsequent offence with rigorous imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than six months but which may extend to seven years and shall also be liable to fine."

278A. Punishment for second and subsequent offences.

"If any person convicted of an offence under section 276B or section 276BB or sub-section (1) of section 276C or section 276CC or section 276DD or section 276E or section 277 or section 278 is again convicted of an offence under any of the aforesaid provisions, he shall be punishable for the second and for every subsequent offence with rigorous imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than six months but which may extend to seven years and with fine."

485.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 485 of the Bill provides for punishment for second and subsequent offences. The clause corresponds to section 278A of the Act. Clause 480 of the Bill relates to failure to furnish return of income in search cases. To rationalise the provisions, the reference of clause 480 has also been added."

484.4 Examination by the Committee:

The Committee sought clarification whether the relevant clauses mentioned in the Clause 485 corresponds to the various Sections mentioned under Section 278A of the Act. The Ministry in written replies elucidated as under:

> "The clause 485 is mapped with clause 278A in the following manner: -
> If any person convicted of an offence under sections 476(276B of IT Act), 477(276BB of IT Act), 478(1)[276C(1) of IT Act], 479(276CC of IT Act), 480(276CCC of IT Act), 482(277 of IT Act) or 484(278 of IT Act) is again convicted of an offence under any of the said sections, he shall be punishable for the second and for every subsequent offence with rigorous imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than six months but which may extend to seven years and shall also be liable to fine.

Section 276DD and 276E of IT Act 1961 have been omitted vide Direct Tax Laws (Amendment) Act 1987.Thus, both of these sections so not find place in the Bill. The only addition is of the clause 480 for which rationale of addition has been provided in response to question no 2.

Thus, the relevant clauses mentioned in the Clause 485 corresponds to the various Sections mentioned under Section 278A of the Act."

485.5 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee note that Clause 485, which outlines punishment for second and subsequent offenses, aligns with Section 278A of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. For rationalization, it now also references Clause 480 (failure to furnish income returns in search cases). Observing that Clause 485 meets the Bill's objectives, the Committee accept it as proposed.

Clause 486: Punishment not to be imposed in certain cases.

486.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"No person shall be punishable for any failure referred to in section 476 or 477, irrespective of anything contained in that section, if he proves that there was reasonable cause for such failure."

486.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 278AA: Punishment not to be imposed in certain cases.

"Notwithstanding anything contained in the provisions of section 276A, section 276AB, or section 276B, or section 276BB no person shall be punishable for any failure referred to in the said provisions if he proves that there was reasonable cause for such failure."

486.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 486 of the Bill provides for punishment not to be imposed in certain cases. The clause corresponds to section 278AA of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

486.4 Important Views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders:

An important suggestion received from the stakeholder regarding the clause under examination is as follows:

> "No person shall be punishable for any failure referred to in any section in this Chapter, irrespective of anything contained in that section, if he proves that there was reasonable cause for such failure.
> In line with the objective of decriminalisation under the Jan Vishwas Act, a person should be allowed to prove if there is a reasonable cause for failure referred to in any provision in this chapter so that punishment is not imposed. This will enhance trust based governance."

486.5 Examination by the Committee:

486.5.1 The Ministry in response to the suggestion by the stakeholder has furnished in their written replies as under:

> "The suggestion to decriminalise any offence if the person proves that there is a reasonable cause for failure. It is in the nature of Policy Change.

Penalty provisions are required to maintain optimum deterrence without which the revenue collections could be seriously affected. There are certain penalties such as 271AAC of IT Act for which no reasonable cause would justify the violations of provisions of section 68/69 of IT Act. Another example is 271AAD of IT Act. Providing reasonable cause would dilute such provisions and these provisions would be misused.

Thus, suggestion is not feasible."

486.5.2 The Ministry in reply to the Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with regards to any addition or omission or replacement of words etc. alongwith the justification for the proposed modification, in their written replies stated as follows:

"Add 1.irrespective of anything contained Omission 1. Notwithstanding."

486.6 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee

The Committee observe that Clause 486 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 textually simplifies and retains the intent of Section 278AA of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 regarding punishment not to be imposed in certain cases. Noting that there is no policy change in this regard and having after considered the views of the stakeholder as well as the response of the Ministry, the Committee accept Clause 486 as proposed.

Clause 487: Offences by companies.

487.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"(1) If an offence under this Act has been committed by a company, every person who, at the time the offence was committed, was in charge of, and was responsible to, the company for the conduct of the business of the company as well as the company shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(2) The provisions of sub-section (1) shall not apply if the person referred in the said sub-section proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he had exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(3) If it is proved that an offence under this Act has been committed by a company with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company, then irrespective of the provisions of sub-section (1), such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall also be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(4) Where an offence committed by a company under this Act is punishable with imprisonment and fine, then, without prejudice to the provisions contained in sub-section (1) or (3), such company shall be punished with fine and every person referred to in sub-section (1), or the director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company referred to in sub-section (3), shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished as per the provisions of this Act.

(5) In this section,—

(a) "company" means a body corporate and includes—

(i) a firm; and

(ii) an association of persons or a body of individuals, whether incorporated or not; and

(b) "director", in relation to—

(i) a firm, means a partner in the firm;

(ii) any association of persons or a body of individuals, means any member controlling the affairs thereof."

Section 278B: Offences by companies.

(1) Where an offence under this Act has been committed by a company, every person who, at the time the offence was committed, was in charge of, and was responsible to, the company for the conduct of the business of the company as well as the company shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly:

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to any punishment if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he had exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where an offence under this Act has been committed by a company and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company, such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall also be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(3) Where an offence under this Act has been committed by a person, being a company, and the punishment for such offence is imprisonment and fine, then, without prejudice to the provisions contained in sub-section
(1) or sub-section (2), such company shall be punished with fine and every person, referred to in sub-section (1), or the director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company referred to in sub-section (2), shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished in accordance with the provisions of this Act.
Explanation.—For the purposes of this section,—

(a) "company" means a body corporate, and includes—
  (i) a firm; and
  (ii) an association of persons or a body of individuals whether incorporated or not; and
(b) "director", in relation to—
  (i) a firm, means a partner in the firm;
  (ii) any association of persons or a body of individuals, means any member controlling the affairs thereof.

487.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

“Clause 487 of the Bill provides for offences by companies. The clause corresponds to section 278B of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause.”

487.4 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee while examining the Clause 487 of the Bill note that the Clause deals with offences by companies, and corresponds to section 278B of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee observe that the provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause 487 as proposed.

Clause 488: Offences by Hindu undivided family

488.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"(1) Where an offence under this Act has been committed by a Hindu undivided family, the karta thereof shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(2) Nothing contained in sub-section (1) shall render the karta liable to any punishment, if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he had exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(3) Irrespective of anything contained in sub-section (1), where an offence under this Act has been committed by a Hindu undivided family, a member of such Hindu undivided family shall also be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly, if it is proved that—

(a) the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of such member; or

(b) the offence is attributable to any neglect on the part of such member"

Section 278C: Offences by Hindu undivided families.

(1) Where an offence under this Act has been committed by a Hindu undivided family, the karta thereof shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly:

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render the karta liable to any punishment if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he had exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where an offence under this Act, has been committed by a Hindu undivided family and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to any neglect on the part of, any member of the Hindu undivided family, such member shall also be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

488.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 488 of the Bill provides for offences by Hindu undivided family. The clause corresponds to section 278C of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

488.4 Examination by the Committee:

Responding to Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with regards to any addition or omission or replacement of words etc. alongwith the justification for the proposed modification, the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

"Add 1. Nothing contained Omission 1. Notwithstanding anything."

488.5 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee

The Committee note that Clause 488 of the Bill deals with offences by Hindu undivided family aligns with Section 278C of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Clause represents textual simplification, retention of same intent and no policy change. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause 488 as proposed.

Clause 489: Presumption as to assets, books of account, etc., in certain cases.

"(1) Where during the course of any search made under section 247, any money, bullion, jewellery, virtual digit asset or other valuable article or thing (herein referred to as the assets) or any books of account or other documents, has or have been found in the possession or control of any person and such assets or books of account or other documents are tendered by the prosecution in evidence against such person, or against such person and the person referred to in section 484, for an offence under this Act, the provisions of section 247(7) shall, so far as may be, apply in relation to such assets or books of account or other documents.

(2) Where any assets or books of account or other documents taken into custody from the possession or control of any person, by the officer or authority referred to in section 248(1)(a) or (b) or (c) are delivered to the requisitioning officer under sub-section (2) of that section and such assets, books of account or other documents are tendered by the prosecution in evidence against such person, or against such person and the person referred to in section 484, for an offence under this Act, the provisions of section 247(7) shall, so far as may be, apply in relation to such assets or books of account or other documents."

Section Presumption as to assets, books of account, etc., in certain cases.

"(1) Where during the course of any search made under section 132, any money, bullion, jewellery or other valuable article or thing (hereafter in this section referred to as the assets) or any books of account or other documents has or have been found in the possession or control of any person and such assets or books of account or other documents are tendered by the prosecution in evidence against such person or against such person and the person referred to in section 278 for an offence under this Act, the provisions of sub-section (4A) of section 132 shall, so far as may be, apply in relation to such assets or books of account or other documents.

(2) Where any assets or books of account or other documents taken into custody, from the possession or control of any person, by the officer or authority referred to in clause (a) or clause (b) or clause (c), as the case may be, of sub-section (1) of section 132A are delivered to the requisitioning officer under sub-section (2) of that section and such assets, books of account or other documents are tendered by the prosecution in evidence against such person or against such person and the person referred to in section 278 for an offence under this Act, the provisions of sub-section (4A) of section 132 shall, so far as may be, apply in relation to such assets or books of account or other documents."

489.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 489 of the Bill provides for presumption as to assets, books of accounts, etc., in certain cases. The clause corresponds to section 278D of the Act.There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been retained with the same intent in this clause."

489.4 Examination by the Committee:

In regard to Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with regards to any addition or omission or replacement of words etc. alongwith the justification for the proposed modification, the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

"Add 1. virtual digit asset."

489.5 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee note that Clause 489 deals with presumption as to assets, books of account, etc., in certain cases, corresponding to Section 278D of the existing Act. The Committee also note that no policy change has been effected by the Ministry; and only a textual simplification of the current Act. The Committee, therefore, accept Clause 489 as proposed.

Clause 490: Presumption as to culpable mental state

490.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"(1) In any prosecution for any offence under this Act, which requires a culpable mental state on the part of the accused, the court shall presume the existence of such mental state but it shall be a defence for the accused to prove the fact that he had no such mental state with respect to the act charged as an offence in that prosecution.
(2) In this section, "culpable mental state" includes intention, motive or knowledge of a fact or belief in, or reason to believe, a fact.
(3) For the purposes of this section, a fact is said to be proved only when the court believes it to exist beyond reasonable doubt and not merely when its existence is established by a preponderance of probability."

490.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 278E: Presumption as to culpable mental state.

"(1) In any prosecution for any offence under this Act which requires a culpable mental state on the part of the accused, the court shall presume the existence of such mental state but it shall be a defence for the accused to prove the fact that he had no such mental state with respect to the act charged as an offence in that prosecution.

Explanation.—In this sub-section, "culpable mental state" includes intention, motive or knowledge of a fact or belief in, or reason to believe, a fact.

(2) For the purposes of this section, a fact is said to be proved only when the court believes it to exist beyond reasonable doubt and not merely when its existence is established by a preponderance of probability."

490.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 490 of the Bill provides for presumption as to culpable mental state. The clause corresponds to section 278E of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been retained with the same intent in this clause."

490.4 Examination by the Committee:

The Committee note that Clause 490 of the Bill provides for presumption as to culpable mental state, mirrors section 278E of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee observe that the provisions of the existing section have been retained with the same intent in this clause. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause 490 as proposed.

Clause 491: Prosecution to be at instance of Principal Chief Commissioner or Chief Commissioner or Principal Commissioner or Commissioner

"(1) A person shall not be proceeded against for an offence under section 473, 474, 475, 476, 477, 478, 479, 480, 481, 482, 483, or 484 except with the previous sanction of the Principal Commissioner or Commissioner or Joint Commissioner (Appeals) or Commissioner (Appeals).

(2) The Principal Chief Commissioner or Chief Commissioner or Principal Director General or Director General may issue such instructions or directions to the income-tax authorities mentioned in sub-section (1) as he considers fit for institution of proceedings under that sub-section.

(3) A person shall not be proceeded against for an offence under section 478 or 482 in relation to the assessment for a tax year for which the penalty imposed or imposable on him under section 439 has been reduced or waived by an order under section 469.

(4) Any offence under this Chapter may be compounded, either before or after the institution of proceedings, by the Principal Chief Commissioner or Chief Commissioner or a Principal Director General or Director General.

(5) Where any proceeding has been taken against any person under sub-section (1), any statement made or account or other document produced by such person before any income-tax authority specified in section 236(a) to (k) shall not be inadmissible as evidence for the purpose of such proceedings merely on the ground that—

(a) such statement was made or such account or document was produced in the belief that the penalty imposable would be reduced or waived, under section 469; or

(b) the offence for which such proceeding was taken would be compounded.

(6) The power of the Board to issue orders, instructions or directions under this Act shall include the power to issue instructions or directions (including instructions or directions to obtain the previous approval of the Board) to other income-tax authorities for the proper composition of offences under this section."

491.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 279: Prosecution to be at instance of Principal Chief Commissioner or Chief Commissioner or Principal Commissioner or Commissioner.

" A person shall not be proceeded against for an offence under section 275A, section 275B, section 276, section 276A, section 276B, section 276BB, section 276C, section 276CC, section 276D, section 277, section 277A or section 278 except with the previous sanction of the Principal Commissioner or Commissioner [or Joint Commissioner (Appeals)] or Commissioner (Appeals) or the appropriate authority:

Provided that the Principal Chief Commissioner or Chief Commissioner or, as the case may be, Principal Director General or Director General may issue such instructions or directions to the aforesaid income-tax authorities as he may deem fit for institution of proceedings under this sub-section.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, "appropriate authority" shall have the same meaning as in clause (c) of section 269UA.

(1A) A person shall not be proceeded against for an offence under section 276C or section 277 in relation to the assessment for an assessment year in respect of which the penalty imposed or imposable on him under section 270A or clause (iii) of sub-section (1) of section 271 has been reduced or waived by an order under section 273A.

(2) Any offence under this Chapter may, either before or after the institution of proceedings, be compounded by the Principal Chief Commissioner or Chief Commissioner or a Principal Director General or Director General.

(3) Where any proceeding has been taken against any person under sub-section (1), any statement made or account or other document produced by such person before any of the income-tax authorities specified in clauses (a) to (g) of section 116 shall not be inadmissible as evidence for the purpose of such proceedings merely on the ground that such statement was made or such account or other document was produced in the belief that the penalty imposable would be reduced or waived, under section 273A or that the offence in respect of which such proceeding was taken would be compounded.

(4) The Central Government may make a scheme, by notification in the Official Gazette, for the purposes of granting sanction under sub-section (1) or compounding under sub-section (2), so as to impart greater efficiency, transparency and accountability by—

(a) eliminating the interface between the income-tax authority and the assessee or any other person to the extent technologically feasible;

(b) optimising utilisation of the resources through economies of scale and functional specialisation;

(c) introducing a team-based sanction to proceed against, or for compounding of, an offence, with dynamic jurisdiction.

(5) The Central Government may, for the purpose of giving effect to the scheme made under sub-section (4), by notification in the Official Gazette, direct that any of the provisions of this Act shall not apply or shall apply with such exceptions, modifications and adaptations as may be specified in the notification:

Provided that no direction shall be issued after the 31st day of March, 2022.

(6) Every notification issued under sub-section (4) and sub-section (5) shall, as soon as may be after the notification is issued, be laid before each House of Parliament.

Explanation.—For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that the power of the Board to issue orders, instructions or directions under this Act shall include and shall be deemed always to have included the power to issue instructions or directions (including instructions or directions to obtain the previous approval of the Board) to other income-tax authorities for the proper composition of offences under this section.

491.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 491 of the Bill provides for Prosecution to be at instance of Principal Chief Commissioner or Chief Commissioner or Principal Commissioner or Commissioner. The clause corresponds to section 279 of the Act. Clause 480 of the Bill relates to failure to furnish return of income in search cases. To rationalise the provisions, the reference of clause 480 has also been added in the clause."

491.4 Important Views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders:

Some important suggestions received from the stakeholder in the clause under consideration are as follows:

491.4.1 Regarding Clause 491(1)

> "(1) A person shall not be proceeded against for an offence under section 473, 474, 475, 476, 477, 478, 479, 480, 481, 482, 483, or 484 except with the previous sanction of the Principal Commissioner or Commissioner or Commissioner (Appeals) or Joint Commissioner.
> As per the hierarchy, Commissioner (Appeals) to be mentioned before Joint Commissioner (Appeals)."

491.4.2 One of the stakeholder has made suggestion to bring transparency while sanctioning the prosecution as under:

> "Prior to passing the order the Commissioner shall grant the Assessee an opportunity of being heard. When a commissioner grants the permission to launch the prosecution, he /she may have to pass a speaking order. Such an order may be made appealable to the Income tax Appellate Tribunal."

491.5 Examination by the Committee:

491.5.1 The Ministry in response to the suggestion by the stakeholder regarding Clause 491(1), while admitting to the drafting correction in their written replies stated as follows:

"Drafting may be corrected so that Commissioner (Appeals) is mentioned before Joint Commissioner(Appeals)."

491.5.2 The Ministry in context of the suggestion related to transparency stated as follows:

"It is submitted that the proceedings before initiating prosecution per se do not constitute a separate proceeding under the Act, it is part of the prosecution proceedings itself. The sanction of prosecution given by the PCCIT/CCIT/PCIT/CIT is in the nature of approval given to file complaint against the assessee in the court of the judicial magistrate. Further, it may be noted that prosecution resulting in imprisonment is of criminal nature and the ITAT has civil powers. The complaint cannot be made appealable before the ITAT. Once the prosecution is launched and complaint is filed, the assessee has an option to represent his case before the Judicial Magistrate wherein he can challenge all grounds including the sanction given by the PCCIT/CCIT/PCIT/CIT. Therefore ,suggestion is not feasible."

491.5.3 In regard to Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with regards to any addition or omission or replacement of words etc. alongwith the justification for the proposed modification, the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

"Add

1. The Principal Chief Commissioner or Chief Commissioner or Principal Director General or Director General

Omission

1. or the appropriate authority: Provided that the Principal Chief Commissioner or Chief Commissioner or, as the case may be, Principal Director General or Director General

2. The Central Government may make a scheme, by notification in the Official Gazette, for the purposes of granting sanction under sub-section (1) or compounding under subsection (2), so as to impart greater efficiency, transparency and accountability by— (a) eliminating the interface between the income-tax authority and the assessee or any other person to the extent technologically feasible; (b) optimizing utilisation of the resources through economies of scale and functional specialisation; (c) introducing a team-based sanction to proceed against, or for compounding of, an offence, with dynamic jurisdiction.

(5) The Central Government may, for the purpose of giving effect to the scheme made under sub-section (4), by notification in the Official Gazette, direct that any of the provisions of this Act shall not apply or shall apply with such exceptions, modifications and adaptations as may be specified in the notification: Provided that no direction shall be issued after the 31st day of March, 2022. (6) Every notification issued under sub-section (4) and sub-section (5) shall, as soon as may be after the notification is issued, be laid before each House of Parliament.”

491.6 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee, while examining Clause 491 of the Bill, note that it addresses prosecution to be at instance of Principal Chief Commissioner or Chief Commissioner or Principal Commissioner or Commissioner, aligning with Section 279 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. A stakeholder suggested drafting correction to sub-clause (1), which places "Commissioner (Appeals)" before "Joint Commissioner (Appeals)," has been accepted by the Ministry. With this specific amendment, the Committee accept Clause 491 as proposed.

Clause 492: Certain offences to be non-cognizable.

492.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"Irrespective of anything contained in the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023, an offence punishable under section 476, 478, 479, 480, 482 or 484 shall be deemed to be non-cognizable within the meaning of that Sanhita."

Section 279A: Certain offences to be non-cognizable.

"Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973*(2 of 1974), an offence punishable under section 276B or section 276C or section 276CC or section277or section 278 shall be deemed to be non-cognizable within the meaning of that Code.

Vide* NotificationNo.S.O.2790(E),dated16-7-2024,now read as ActNo.46 of 2023".

492.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 492 of the Bill provides for certain offences to be non-cognizable. The clause corresponds to section 279A of the Act. Following rationalisations have been carried out in the clause:

(i) Offence punishable under clause 480 (Failure to furnish return of income in search cases) has also been made non-cognizable offence.

(ii) Reference of code of criminal procedure, 1973 has been replaced with Bhartiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023."

492.4 Examination by the Committee:

In regard to Clause number 492, on Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961 alongwith the justification for the proposed modification, the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

> "1. Irrespective of anything contained in the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023,
> 2. Sanhita.
> Omission 1. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973* (2 of 1974), 2. Code.."

492.5 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee

The Committee note that Clause 492, which aligns with Section 279A of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, categorizes certain offences to be non-cognizable. The Committee also note that two rationalizations have been made in this clause viz. making offenses under Clause 480 (failure to furnish returns in search cases) non-cognizable; and updating the legal reference from the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, to the Bhartiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023. Given the Ministry's justification, the Committee accept Clause 492 as proposed.

Clause 493: Proof of entries in records or documents

493.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"Entries in the records or other documents in the custody of an income-tax authority shall be admitted in evidence in any proceedings for the prosecution of any person for an offence under this Chapter, and all such entries may be proved by—

(a) production of the records or other documents in the custody of the income-tax authority containing such entries; or

(b) production of a copy of the entries certified by the income-tax authority having custody of the records or other documents under its signature and stating that it is a true copy of the original entries and that such original entries are contained in the records or other documents in its custody."

Section 279B: Proof of entries in records or documents.

"Entries in the records or other documents in the custody of an income-tax authority shall be admitted in evidence in any proceedings for the prosecution of any person for an offence under this Chapter, and all such entries may be proved either by the production of the records or other documents in the custody of the income-tax authority containing such entries, or by the production of a copy of the entries certified by the income-tax authority having custody of the records or other documents under its signature and stating that it is a true copy of the original entries and that such original entries are contained in the records or other documents in its custody."

493.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 493 of the Bill provides for proof of entries in records or documents. The clause corresponds to section 279B of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

493.4 Examination by the Committee:

The Committee, while examining the Clause 493 of the Bill, note that the Clause provides for proof of entries in records or documents which mirrors section 279E of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee observe that the provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause 493 as proposed.

Clause 494: Disclosure of particulars by public servants

494.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"(1) A public servant, who furnishes any information or produces any document in contravention of the provisions of section 258(3), shall be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to six months and shall also be liable to fine.
(2) No prosecution shall be instituted under this section except with the previous sanction of the Central Government."

Section 280: Disclosure of particulars by public servants.

"(1) If a public servant furnishes any information or produces any document in contravention of the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 138, he shall be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to six months, and shall also be liable to fine.
(2) No prosecution shall be instituted under this section except with the previous sanction of the Central Government."

494.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 494 of the Bill provides for disclosure of particulars by public servants. The clause corresponds to section 280 of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

494.4 Examination by the Committee:

494.4.1 On expanded definition of "assets" to include "virtual digital asset" as well as bestowing the power to authorized officials under Cause 247(1)(b)(iii) regarding Search and seizure, to: gain access by overriding the access code to any said computer system, or virtual digital space, where the access code thereof is not available and considering the ease of replication and seamless transmission of virtual digital assets, coupled with expanded search and seizure powers, unauthorized disclosure by public servants under Clause 494(1) posing a significantly higher risk of misuse, the Committee desired to be apprised of the Ministry intend to enhance the associated punishment to adequately deter such disclosures and reflect the increased complexities and potential harm. The Ministry in their written replies clarified as follows:

> "The suggestion seeks to fix accountability of officers. It is submitted that clause 258 deals with disclosure of information relating to assessee. Clause 494 of Chapter XXII pertaining to 'Offences and Prosecution' of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 provides for prosecution of a public servant who furnishes information in contravention of clause 258.

Hence, there are already in-built provisions in the Bill to safeguard the interests of the assessee against unauthorised disclosure of data relating to the assessee. When there are already such harsh provision for imprisonment of public servants which may extend to six months and also fine, any harsher provision is not feasible to be brought on the statute. It is further submitted that apart from the legal provision available in the Bill, the issue is handled effectively administratively as well in the department.

494.4.2 In the context of increasing use of technology and participation of concerned third parties in various technical processes and the clause under examination (Clause 494) regarding disclosure of particulars by public servants and consequential provisions, the Committee noted that unauthorized access of financial data and sharing of such data to third parties has the potential to lead to cyber crimes and financial frauds/crime. Given the severe risks of cybercrime and financial fraud stemming from unauthorized access and sharing of financial data, the Committee desired to be apprised of the provision to effectively address these concerns in harmony with the Information Technology Act, 2000, the Ministry clarified in written replies as follows:

"The apprehension that clause 247 of the Bill enables ongoing surveillance or intrusive monitoring is misplaced. The powers conferred under this provision operate strictly for an authorised search. They are confined to the duration and scope of that specific operation. Such powers of overriding the access protected through password start on execution of the warrant of authorization and ends when the search is concluded i.e. Once the search is concluded, the authority to access digital records by overriding encryption automatically ceases. There is no provision that permits post-search use of this authority as general surveillance tool, or tracking of digital activity. This is neither intended nor can be used for this purpose.

It is further submitted that clause 258 deals with disclosure of information relating to assessee. Clause 494 of Chapter XXII pertaining to 'Offences and Prosecution' of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 provides for prosecution of a public servant who furnishes information in contravention of clause 258.Hence, there are already in-built provisions in the Bill to safeguard the interests of the assessee against unauthorised sharing of their financial data."

494.5 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

Noting that Clause 494 of the Bill, dealing with Disclosure of particulars by public servants, is a textual simplification of Section 280 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with the same intent and no policy change, the Committee accept the Clause in its present form.

Clause 495: Special Courts

495.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

(1) The Central Government, in consultation with the Chief Justice of the High Court, may, for trial of offences punishable under this Chapter, by notification, designate one or more courts of Judicial Magistrate of the first class as Special Court for such area or areas, or for such cases or class or group of cases, as specified in the notification.

(2) In this section, "High Court" means the High Court of the State in which a Judicial Magistrate of first class designated as Special Court was functioning immediately before such designation.

(3) While trying an offence under this Act, a Special Court shall also try an offence, other than an offence referred to in sub-section (1), with which the accused may, under the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023, be charged at the same trial."

Section 280A: Special Courts.

"(1)The Central Government, in consultation with the Chief Justice of the High Court, may, for trial of offences punishable under this Chapter, by notification, designate one or more courts of Magistrate of the first class as Special Court for such area or areas or for such cases or class or group of cases as may be specified in the notification.

Explanation.—In this sub-section, "High Court" means the High Court of the State in which a Magistrate of first class designated as Special Court was functioning immediately before such designation.

(2) While trying an offence under this Act, a Special Court shall also try an offence, other than an offence referred to in sub-section (1), with which the accused may, under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973* (2 of 1974), be charged at the same trial.

Vide* Notification No. S.O. 2790(E), dated 16-7-2024, now read as Act No. 46 of 2023."

495.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 495 of the Bill provides for special courts. The clause corresponds to section 280A of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

495.4 Examination by the Committee:

In regard to Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961, the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

"Add 1 Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023, Omission 1. Explanation. 2. Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973*

495.5 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee note that Clause 495, which provides for special courts, is a textual simplification of Section 280A of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, retaining the same intent. Therefore, the Committee accept Clause 495 as proposed.

Clause 496: Offences triable by Special Court.

496.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"((1) Irrespective of anything contained in the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023,—

(a) the offences punishable under this Chapter shall be triable only by the Special Court, if so designated, for the area or areas or for cases or class or group of cases, as the case may be, in which the offence has been committed;

(b) a Special Court may, upon a complaint made by an authority authorised in this behalf under this Act, take cognizance of the offence for which the accused is committed for trial.

(2) For the purposes of sub-section (1)(a), the court competent to try offences under section 520,—

(a) which has been designated as a Special Court under this section, shall continue to try the offences before it or offences arising under this Act after such designation;

(b) which has not been designated as a Special Court, shall continue to try such offence pending before it till its disposal."

496.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 280B: Offences triable by Special Court.

Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973* (2 of 1974),—

(a)the offences punishable under this Chapter shall be triable only by the Special Court, if so designated, for the area or areas or for cases or class or group of cases, as the case may be, in which the offence has been committed:

Provided that a court competent to try offences under section 292,—

(i) which has been designated as a Special Court under this section, shall continue to try the offences before it or offences arising under this Act after such designation;

(ii) which has not been designated as a Special Court may continue to try such offence pending before it till its disposal;

(b) a Special Court may, upon a complaint made by an authority authorised in this behalf under this Act take cognizance of the offence for which the accused is committed for trial.

Vide* Notification No. S.O. 2790(E), dated 16-7-2024, now read as Act No. 46 of 2023".

496.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

“Clause 496 of the Bill provides for offences triable by Special Court. The clause corresponds to section 280B of the Act. The words “Bharatiya Nagarik Surakasha Sanhita” have been incorporated in place “Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973”

496.4 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee note that Clause 496, deals with offences triable by Special Court, aligns with the existing section 280B of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee concur with the Ministry's justification for retaining this clause with the incorporation of the words "Bharatiya Nagarik Surakasha Sanhita" in place "Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause 496 as proposed.

Clause 497: Trial of offences as summons case

497.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"The Special Court, irrespective of anything contained in the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023, shall try an offence under this Chapter punishable with imprisonment not exceeding two years or with fine ,or with both, as a summons case, and the provisions of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 as applicable in the case of trial of summons case, shall apply accordingly."

Section 280C:Trial of offences as summon scase.

"Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973* (2 of 1974), the Special Court, shall try, an offence under this Chapter punishable with imprisonment not exceeding two years or with fine or with both, as a summons case, and the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973* as applicable in the case of trial of summons case, shall apply accordingly.

Vide*NotificationNo.S.O.2790(E),dated16-7-2024,nowreadasActNo.46of 2023".

497.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 497 of the Bill provides for trial of offences as summons case. The clause corresponds to section 280C of the Act. The words "Bharatiya Nagarik Surakasha Sanhita" have been incorporated in place "Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973"

497.4 Examination by the Committee:

Responding to the Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961, alongwith the justification for the proposed modification, the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

"Add 1. Irrespective of Omission 1. Notwithstanding"

497.5 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee

The Committee observe that Clause 497, deals with Trial of offences as summons case, corresponds to the existing section 280C of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee concurs with the Ministry's justification for retaining this clause with the incorporation of the words "Bharatiya Nagarik Surakasha Sanhita" in place "Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause 497 as proposed.

Clause 498: Application of Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 to proceedings before Special Court.

498.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"(1) Save as otherwise provided in this Act, the provisions of Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (including the provisions as to bails or bonds), shall apply to the proceedings before a Special Court and the person conducting the prosecution before the Special Court, shall be deemed to be a Public Prosecutor.

(2) The Central Government may also appoint a Special Public Prosecutor for any case or class or group of cases.

(3) A person shall not be qualified to be appointed as a Public Prosecutor or a Special Public Prosecutor under this section unless he has been in practice as an advocate for not less than seven years, requiring special knowledge of law.

(4) Every person appointed as a Public Prosecutor or a Special Public Prosecutor under this section shall be deemed to be a Public Prosecutor within the meaning of section 2(v) of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023, and the provisions of that Sanhita shall have effect accordingly."

Section 280D: Application of Code of Criminal Procedure,1973*to proceedings before Special Court.

"(1) Save as otherwise provided in this Act, the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973* (2 of 1974) (including the provisions as to bails or bonds), shall apply to the proceedings before a Special Court and the person conducting the prosecution before the Special Court, shall be deemed to be a Public Prosecutor:

Provided that the Central Government may also appoint for any case or class or group of cases a Special Public Prosecutor.

(2) A person shall not be qualified to be appointed as a Public Prosecutor or a Special Public Prosecutor under this section unless he has been in practice as an advocate for not less than seven years, requiring special knowledge of law.

(3) Every person appointed as a Public Prosecutor or a Special Public Prosecutor under this section shall be deemed to be a Public Prosecutor within the meaning of clause (u) of section 2 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974) and the provisions of that Code shall have effect accordingly.

498.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 498 of the Bill provides for application of Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 to proceedings before Special Court. The clause corresponds to section 280D of the Act. The words "Bharatiya Nagarik Surakasha Sanhita" have been incorporated in place "Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973".

498.4 Examination by the Committee:

In regard to the Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961, alongwith justification for the proposed modification, the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

> "Add 1. Add 1 Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 > Omission 1. Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973"

498.5 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee note that Clause 498 of the Bill deals with application of Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 to proceedings before Special Court, aligns with section 280D of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee also note that the words "Bharatiya Nagarik Surakasha Sanhita" have been incorporated in place of "Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973. Given the Ministry's justification in this regard, the Committee accept the Clause 498 as proposed.

CHAPTER XXIII
MISCELLANEOUS

Clause 499: Certain transfers to be void

499.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"(1) Where, during the pendency of any proceeding under this Act or after the completion thereof, but before the service of notice by the Tax Recovery Officer as per the procedure specified under section 413, any assessee creates a charge on, or parts with the possession of, any of his assets in favour of any other person, such charge or transfer shall be void as against any claim in respect of any tax or any other sum payable by the assessee as a result of the completion of the said proceeding or otherwise.

(2) The charge or transfer as referred to in sub-section (1) shall not be void if it is made—

(a) for adequate consideration and without notice of the pendency of such proceeding or, as the case may be, without notice of such tax or other sum payable by the assessee; or

(b) with the previous permission of the Assessing Officer.

(3) This section applies to cases where the amount of tax or other sum payable or likely to be payable exceeds five thousand rupees and the assets charged or transferred exceed ten thousand rupees in value

(4) In this section,—

(a) "assets" means land, building, machinery, plant, shares, securities and fixed deposits in banks, virtual digital asset, to the extent to which any of the said assets does not form part of the stock-in-trade of the business of the assessee; and

(b) the modes of creating a charge on or parting with the possession of such assets shall include sale, mortgage, gift, exchange or any other mode of transfer."

499.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 281:Certain transfers to be void.

" (1) Where, during the pendency of any proceeding under this Act or after the completion thereof, but before the service of notice under rule 2 of the Second Schedule, any assessee creates a charge on, or parts with the possession (by way of sale, mortgage, gift, exchange or any other mode of transfer whatsoever) of, any of his assets in favour of any other person, such charge or transfer shall be void as against any claim in respect of any tax or any other sum payable by the assessee as a result of the completion of the said proceeding or otherwise :

Provided that such charge or transfer shall not be void if it is made—

(i) for adequate consideration and without notice of the pendency of such proceeding or, as the case may be, without notice of such tax or other sum payable by the assessee ; or

(ii) with the previous permission of the Assessing Officer.

(2) This section applies to cases where the amount of tax or other sum payable or likely to be payable exceeds five thousand rupees and the assets charged or transferred exceed ten thousand rupees in value.

Explanation.—In this section, "assets" means land, building, machinery, plant, shares, securities and fixed deposits in banks, to the extent to which any of the assets aforesaid does not form part of the stock-in-trade of the business of the assessee."

499.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 499 of the Bill provides for certain transfers to be void. This clause corresponds to section 281 of the Act. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause. However, 'virtual digital asset' has been added in the definition of asset for the purposes of this clause. The amendment has been made with a view to rationalise the provision so as to align it with other provisions of the Bill."

499.4 Important Views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders:

Some important suggestions received from the stakeholder regarding the clause under consideration are as follows:

499.4.1 In clause 499(4)(a), "definition of the term "asset" may be reworded as follows: "assets" means land, building, machinery, plant, shares, securities, fixed deposits in banks, and virtual digital assets, to the extent to which any of the said assets does not form part of the stock-in-trade of the business of the assessee.

This revision ensures: Consistent use of plurals ("virtual digital assets" instead of singular "virtual digital asset"); "

499.4.2 In Clause 499 (4)(a), Consistent structuring by adding "and" before the last item."

499.4.3 "The scope of S. 499(4)(b) be restricted to "sale, mortgage, gift, exchange or any other mode of transfer whatsoever". The inclusive aspect of the definition be removed. S. 499(4)(b) be rephrased to state that "the modes of creating a charge on or parting with the possession of such assets by way of sale, mortgage, gift, exchange or any other mode of transfer whatsoever".

The phrase ‘any other mode of transfer’, as present in S. 499(4)(b) of the I T Bill, 2025 as well as in S. 281 of the 1961 Act, will take its colour from the word sale, mortgage, gift or exchange. However, the inclusive definition in the S. 499(4)(b) may seek to include certain other kind of transfer such as compulsory acquisition under any law. This may not be the intention of the legislature. The unintended consequence of the phrase ‘include’ in S. 499(4)(b) can be that any and every mode of transfer of assets shall be hit by S. 499.”

499.5 Examination by the Committee:

The Ministry while admitting to the drafting error, have accepted drafting corrections in Clause 499(4)(a) and furnished in their written replies as follows :

499.5.1 “Accepted. The suggestion seeks to use the plural form of word "virtual digital asset" in clause 499. The definition is of 'assets'. Therefore, the suggestion is acceptable.”

499.5.2 “ Accepted. The suggestion is to use word "and' in clause 499. It is in nature of drafting correction. The suggestion to add "and" before the last item is acceptable and is better drafting”

499.5.3 The Ministry in response to the suggestion by the stakeholder to drop the phrase “any other mode of transfer” in Clause 499(4)(b) has furnished in their written replies as follows:

> “The suggestion seeks to drop the phrase “any other mode of transfer” [cl. 499 - s. 281-certain transfers to be void].
> This will promote wilful tax dodging. This is a settled position of law and any amendment in this respect may lead to unintended consequences especially on the settled matters.
> Thus, the suggestion is not feasible.”

499.5.4 Responding to the Committee’s query regarding addition of ‘virtual digital asset’ in the definition of asset for the purposes of this clause, the Ministry in written replies justified as under:

> “While drafting the rationalized and simplified version of the existing provisions of the section 281, definition of Virtual Digital Assets was expanded vide Finance Act, 2025 to include any crypto-asset being representation of value that relies on a cryptographically secured distributed ledger. Further, consideration of undisclosed Virtual Digital Asset as undisclosed income was inserted vide Finance Act, 2025 in Chapter XIV-B (Procedure for Assessment of Search Cases). However, consideration of Virtual Digital Asset as Assets for the purposes of consideration of certain transfers to be void could not be included during the Finance Act, 2025. Thus, to align the various provisions of the Act, Virtual Digital Asset was included in the definitions of the Assets under clause 499 of the Income-tax Bill, 2025."

499.5.5 On the Committee's query that considering the current economic scenario and inflation, whether the thresholds of Rs.5000/- (tax payable) and Rs.10000/- (asset value) specified in the Clause 499 of the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is still appropriate for deeming certain transfers void, the Ministry has furnished the following justification in their written replies as follows:

"Clause 499 is analogous to section 281 of the ITA 1961. The monetary threshold as existing in the Act have not been changed in this provision. The suggestion to increase the threshold is in the nature of policy change. Such demand recovery provisions are required to maintain optimum deterrence without which the revenue collections could be seriously affected. For encouraging voluntary compliance and non-intrusive methods of tax collection, deterrence in various forms is required. For this, a minimum threshold is required to be kept for making recovery, hence, for keeping interest of Revenue intact, it is desirable that the existing monetary limits maybe retained. This is also in line with the principle of 'Balance of convenience'.
Thus, the suggestion is not feasible."

499.6 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee note that Clause 499 of the Bill, addressing void transfers (mirroring Section 281 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961), now incorporates "virtual digital asset" into its definition of "asset." The Ministry has justified this inclusion as a rationalization aimed at aligning the provision with other sections of the Bill. The Committee also note that the Ministry has accepted two key drafting improvements suggested by stakeholders: first, in the clause 499(4)(a), changing "virtual digital asset" to the plural "virtual digital assets" for consistency with the broader definition of "assets"; and second, inserting "and" before the last item in Clause 499(4)(a), which enhances clarity and improves overall drafting. After considering the perspectives of both stakeholders and the Ministry, the Committee accept Clause 499 as proposed, incorporating these drafting corrections.

Clause 500: Provisional attachment to protect revenue in certain cases

500.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"(1) Where, during the pendency of any proceeding for—

(a) the assessment of any income or for the assessment or reassessment of any income, which has escaped assessment; or

(b) imposition of penalty under section 444, where the amount or aggregate of amounts of penalty likely to be imposed under the said section exceeds two crore rupees, the Assessing Officer is of the opinion that for protecting the interests of the revenue it is necessary so to do, he may, with the previous approval of the Competent Authority by order in writing, attach provisionally any property belonging to the assessee in the manner prescribed in section 413.

(2) Every provisional attachment under sub-section (1) shall cease to have effect after the expiry of six months from the date of the order made under the said sub-section.

(3) The Competent Authority may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, extend the period referred to in sub-section (2) and the total period of such extension shall not exceed two years or sixty days after the date of order of assessment or reassessment, whichever is later.

(4) Where the assessee furnishes a guarantee from a scheduled bank for an amount not less than the fair market value of the property provisionally attached under sub-section (1), the Assessing Officer shall, by an order in writing, revoke such attachment.

(5) For the purposes of sub-section (4), where the Assessing Officer is satisfied that a guarantee from a scheduled bank for an amount lower than the fair market value of the property is sufficient to protect the interests of the revenue, he may accept such guarantee and revoke the attachment.

(6) The Assessing Officer may, for determining the value of the property provisionally attached under sub-section (1), make a reference to the Valuation Officer, who shall estimate the fair market value of the property in the mannerprovided under section 269(3) to (8), and submit a report of such estimate to the Assessing Officer within thirty days from the date of receipt of the reference.

(7) An order revoking the provisional attachment under sub-section (4) or (5) shall be made—

(a) within forty-five days from the date of receipt of the guarantee, where a reference to the Valuation Officer has been made under sub-section (6); or

(b) within fifteen days from the date of receipt of guarantee, in any other case.

(8) Where a notice of demand specifying a sum payable is served upon the assessee and the assessee fails to pay that sum within the time specified, the Assessing Officer may invoke the guarantee furnished under sub-section (4) or (5), wholly or in part, to recover the amount.

(9) The Assessing Officer shall, in the interests of revenue, invoke the bank guarantee, if the assessee fails to renew the guarantee referred to in sub-section (4) or (5), or fails to furnish a new guarantee from a scheduled bank for an equal amount, before fifteen days of its expiry.

(10) The amount realised by invoking the guarantee referred to in sub-section (4) or (5) shall be adjusted against—

(a) the existing demand which is payable by the assesse; and

(b) the balance amount, if any, shall be deposited in the Personal Deposit Account of the Principal Commissioner or Commissioner in the branch of the Reserve Bank of India or the State Bank of India or any bank as may be appointed by the Reserve Bank of India as its agent under section 45(1) of the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934 at the place where the office of the Principal Commissioner or Commissioner is situated.

(11) Where the Assessing Officer is satisfied that the guarantee referred to in sub-section (4) or (5) is not required any more to protect the interests of the revenue, he shall release that guarantee forthwith.

(12) In this section, "Competent Authority" means the Principal Chief Commissioner or Chief Commissioner, Principal Commissioner or Commissioner, Principal Director General or Director General or Principal Director or Director."

Section 281B: Provisional attachment to protect revenue in certain cases.

"(1) Where, during the pendency of any proceeding for the assessment of any income or for the assessment or reassessment of any income which has escaped assessment or for imposition of penalty under section 271AAD where the amount or aggregate of amounts of penalty likely to be imposed under the said section exceeds two crore rupees, the Assessing Officer is of the opinion that for the purpose of protecting the interests of the revenue it is necessary so to do, he may, with the previous approval of the Principal Chief Commissioner or Chief Commissioner, Principal Commissioner or Commissioner, Principal Director General or Director General or Principal Director or Director, by order in writing, attach provisionally any property belonging to the assessee in the manner provided in the Second Schedule.

Explanation.—[]

(2) Every such provisional attachment shall cease to have effect after the expiry of a period of six months from the date of the order made under sub-section (1) :

Provided that the Principal Chief Commissioner or Chief Commissioner, Principal Commissioner or Commissioner, Principal Director General or Director General or Principal Director or Director may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, extend the aforesaid period by such further period or periods as he thinks fit, so, however, that the total period of extension shall not in any case exceed two years or sixty days after the date of order of assessment or reassessment, whichever is later.

(3) Where the assessee furnishes a guarantee from a scheduled bank for an amount not less than the fair market value of the property provisionally attached under sub-section (1), the Assessing Officer shall, by an order in writing, revoke such attachment:

Provided that where the Assessing Officer is satisfied that a guarantee from a scheduled bank for an amount lower than the fair market value of the property is sufficient to protect the interests of the revenue, he may accept such guarantee and revoke the attachment.

(4) The Assessing Officer may, for the purposes of determining the value of the property provisionally attached under sub-section (1), make a reference to the Valuation Officer referred to in section 142A, who shall estimate the fair market value of the property in the manner provided under that section and submit a report of the estimate to the Assessing Officer within a period of thirty days from the date of receipt of such reference.

(5) An order revoking the provisional attachment under sub-section(3) shall be made—

(i) within forty-five days from the date of receipt of the guarantee, where a reference to the Valuation Officer has been made under sub-section (4); or

(ii) within fifteen days from the date of receipt of guarantee in any other case.

(6) Where a notice of demand specifying a sum payable is served upon the assessee and the assessee fails to pay that sum within the time specified in the notice of demand, the Assessing Officer may invoke the guarantee furnished under sub-section (3), wholly or in part, to recover the amount.

(7) The Assessing Officer shall, in the interests of the revenue, invoke the bank guarantee, if the assessee fails to renew the guarantee referred to in sub-section (3), or fails to furnish a new guarantee from a scheduled bank for an equal amount, fifteen days before the expiry of the guarantee referred to in sub-section (3).

(8) The amount realised by invoking the guarantee referred to in sub-section(3) shall be adjusted against the existing demand which is payable by the assessee and the balance amount, if any, shall be deposited in the Personal Deposit Account of the Principal Commissioner or Commissioner in the branch of the Reserve Bank of India or the State Bank of India or of its subsidiaries or any bank as may be appointed by the Reserve Bank of India as its agent under the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 45 of the Reserve Bank of India Act,1934(2of1934) at the place where the office of the Principal Commissioner or Commissioner is situate.

(9) Where the Assessing Officer is satisfied that the guarantee referred to in sub-section (3) is not required any more to protect the interests of the revenue, he shall release that guarantee forthwith.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, the expression "scheduled bank" shall mean a bank included in the Second Schedule to the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934 (2 of 1934)."

500.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 500 of the Bill provides for provisional attachment to protect revenue in certain cases. This clause corresponds to section 281B of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

500.4 Important Views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders:

Some important suggestions received from the stakeholders in the clause under examination are as follows:

500.4.1 "Clause (a) of section 500(1) may be redrafted as given below - (a) the assessment of any income or for the assessment or reassessment of any income which has escaped assessment; or "The consequence of the placement of comma in clause (a) of section 500(1) is that the phrase "which has escaped assessment" would become relevant for both the category (i) assessment of any income and (ii) assessment or reassessment of any income. In such a case, the implication may be that only in cases where income has escaped assessment, can provisional attachment be made, which is not correct. Therefore, the comma is to be removed to convey that the phrase "income which has escaped assessment" is in continuation of and relevant to part (ii) assessment or reassessment of any income."

500.4.2 The term "property" may be defined as follows: 'property' connotes everything which is subject of ownership, corporeal or incorporeal, movable or immovable, tangible or intangible, visible or invisible, real or personal; everything that has an exchangeable value or which goes to make up wealth or estate or status. The term "property" may be defined to reduce litigation."

500.5 Examination by the Committee:

500.5.1 The Ministry while admitting to the drafting error furnished in their written replies as follows:

> “Accepted. The suggestion seeks to remove comma in clause 500. It is in nature of drafting correction.
>
> Comma may be removed in order to align the same with the existing provisions in the Act.”

500.5.2 On the issue of defining the term ‘property’, the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

> “The suggestion to define the term "property" in the Act [s. 281B]
> The phrase used is 'any property' to provide widest possible meaning. It is submitted that it is a settled law and there is no legal dispute over its interpretation and scope. Providing a new definition to the same may lead to litigation and multiple interpretation of the same which is avoidable. This may also lead to unfurling of settled income tax matters. Thus, suggestion is not feasible.”

500.6 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee

The Committee note that Clause 500 of the Bill, which corresponds to Section 281B of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, addresses provisional attachment to protect revenue in certain cases. This clause maintains the same intent as the existing section, with no policy changes, only textual simplification. The Committee find that the Ministry has accepted a drafting correction for Clause 500(1)(a). The comma placed between "reassessment of any income" and "which has escaped assessment" will be removed. This change clarifies that "which has escaped assessment" directly modifies the preceding phrase, ensuring the text accurately reflects the intended meaning for assessments or reassessments of income. After considering the views of both stakeholders and the Ministry, the Committee approve Clause 500, incorporating the afore-mentioned drafting correction.

Clause 501 Service of notice, generally

501.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

" (1) The service of a notice, or summon, or requisition, or order, or any other communication, under this Act may be made by delivering or transmitting a copy thereof, to the person therein named—

(a) by post or by such courier services as may be approved by the Board; or

(b) as provided under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 for the purposes of service of summons; or

(c) in the form of any electronic record as provided in Chapter IV of the Information Technology Act, 2000; or

(d) by any other means of transmission of documents, as prescribed.

(2) The Board may make rules providing for the addresses (including the address for electronic mail or electronic mail message) to which the communication referred to in sub-section (1) may be delivered or transmitted to the person therein named.

(3) In this section, "electronic mail" and "electronic mail message" means a message or information created or transmitted or received on a computer, computer system, computer resource or communication device including attachments in text, image, audio, video and any other electronic record, which may be transmitted with the message."

501.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 282: Service of notice generally.

"(1) The service of a notice or summon or requisition or order or any other communication under this Act (hereafter in this section referred to as "communication") may be made by delivering or transmitting a copy thereof, to the person therein named,—

(a) By post or by such courier services as may be approved by the Board; or

(b) in such manner as provided under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908) for the purposes of service of summons; or

(c) in the form of any electronic record as provided in Chapter IVof the Information Technology Act, 2000 (21 of 2000); or

(d) by any other means of transmission of documents as provided by rules made by the Board in this behalf.

(2) The Board may make rules providing for the addresses (including the address for electronic mail or electronic mail message) to which the communication referred to in sub-section (1) may be delivered or transmitted to the person therein named.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, the expressions "electronic mail" and "electronic mail message" shall have the meanings as assigned to them in Explanation to section 66A of the Information Technology Act, 2000 (21 of 2000)."

501.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 501 of the Bill provides for service of notice generally. This clause corresponds to section 282 of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

501.4 Important Views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders:

Some important suggestions received from the stakeholders in the clause under examination are as follows:

501.4.1 The opening para of section 501(1) may be modified as follows - "(1) The service of a notice, or summon, or requisition, or order, or any other communication, under this Act (hereafter in this section referred to as "communication") may be made by delivering or transmitting a copy thereof, to the person therein named – Under section 282 of the Income-Tax Act 1961, "The service of a notice, or summon, or requisition, or order, or any other communication" was referred to as communication under the section. Since the bracketed portion is missing in section 501 of the Income-tax Bill, 2025, the use of the word communication" under 501(2) may not serve the intended purpose. Accordingly, section 501(1) has to be redrafted to include the bracketed portion.

501.4.2 "The terms - computer, computer system, computer resource or communication device may be defined in section 2 itself. Reference to the meaning of these terms in the Information Technology Act, 2000 may be given.

Under the Income-tax Act, 1961, the meaning of the expressions "electronic mail" and "electronic mail message" were to be taken from the Information Technology Act, 2000. In the Income-tax Bill, 2025, the referencing has been removed in section 501 and the definition makes reference to computer, computer system, computer resource, computer device, which have not been defined thereunder. Therefore, there is no specific meaning attributed to the terms – Computer; Computer resource; computer system, e-record in this Chapter. All these terms can be defined in Section 2. They may be defined to have the same meaning as in Information Technology Act, 2000. The definitions which have been given for Computer Resource, Computer system in other chapters may be removed."

501.4.3 The amount involved in serving the notice and other government expenses is more than the amount mentioned in the notice. The department should also have necessary guidelines in this new Income-Tax Bill regarding the minimum amount for which notices should be issued.

501.4.4 Income Tax Department issue notices of huge amount to labourers without any investigation. This is a matter of great disgrace for the department and also brings a bad name to the government. For this, there should be clarity and the responsibility of the departmental officer should be fixed.

501.5 Examination by the Committee:

501.5.1 In respect of suggestion for drafting modification in Clause 501(1), the Ministry while accepting the suggestion stated as follows:

> *"*The suggestion seeks that section 501(1) has to be redrafted to include the bracketed portion. It is in nature of drafting correction and accepted."

501.5.2 On the suggestion regarding definition of term computer, computer system etc, the Ministry in written replies stated as follows:

> "The suggestion seeks to define "computer, computer system, computer resource or communication device" [s.282-service of notice generally]
> The usage here is in general term. Therefore, a specific meaning may not be required and will promote litigation.
> Thus, suggestion is not feasible."

501.5.3 Regarding fixing of minimum amount for which notices should be issued, the Ministry in written replies stated as under:

> "The suggestion seeks that necessary guidelines in new Income-Tax Bill should be issued regarding the minimum amount for which notices should be issued. The suggestion is not clear as to which notice is being referred. It is in nature of policy change. For encouraging voluntary compliance and non-intrusive methods of tax collection, deterrence is required. Setting a minimum ceiling on such violation will dilute the deterrence effect. Income Tax Department is at the forefront of adoption of technology as evident in the form of faceless appeals, e-appeal schemes and random allocation of appeals to the basket of first appellate authority. During the appellate proceedings, electronic communication with the taxpayers, facility of video conferencing and receipt of the appellate order online have been successfully implemented by the Department which has reduced the cost of serving notices considerably. Thus, suggestion is not feasible."

501.5.4 Responding to the suggestion regarding fixing of accountability of officers regarding serving the notices randomly, the Ministry in written replies stated as follows:

"The suggestion seeks to fix accountability of officers. The issue is administrative in nature and is handled effectively in the department. Thus, suggestion is not feasible."

501.5.5 During the course of evidence, the Ministry further clarified on the issuing of Notices to labourers as under:

"दो सिचुएशस है, जिनमे नोटिस जा सकते है। एक तो यह है कि करीब 45 करोड़ एनुअल इन्फॉर्मेशन स्टेटमेंट बनते हैं। वह थर्ड पार्टी इन्फॉर्मेशन या टीडीएस डिडक्ट होने पर बनते हैं। उसमें एबीसी एनालिसिस करके जहां पर हाई ट्रांजेक्शंस रिपोर्टेड हैं, उनमें नोटिसेज जाते हैं। कई बार ऐसा होता है कि पैन उस लेबरर का लिख दिया जाता है और रिपोर्टिंग एंटिटी ने रिपोर्ट किया है, जहां ट्रांजेक्शन हाई दिख रहा है और कई बार अखबारों में भी आता है कि किसी लेबरर को इतने करोड़ का नोटिस मिल गया है। यह एक एरिया है, जहां पर ये नोटिस जा सकते हैं। दूसरा है कि जहां अकोमोडेशन एंट्रीज के तहत हो या सर्च हुई हो और सर्च में उदाहरण के लिए उसका कोई एम्प्लॉई है, उसके नाम पर कुछ ट्रांजेक्शन हो रहा है। अगर सर्च के समय ऐसा आता है तो उस पैन पर नोटिस जाता है। यही दो रीजन्स पर नोटिस जाते हैं।"

501.5.6 Responding to the Committee's query regarding serving of Notice and non-receipt of notice by the assessee, the Ministry categorically provided a detailed explanation during the course of evidence as under:

".. about 55 per cent of the income tax returns are being filed through e-intermediaries and there, the emails that are being mentioned by assesses is not their assessees email but that of the e-intermediatory which is a special e-mail that he has created only for filing a certain number of returns.
Now, in the system, suppose, we have only this email. Return has also been filed with the email. Now, once we actually give a notice on that email, and the assessee does not respond whether it is attributable to assessee delay or it is attributable to the department. Assessee, in the first place, he actually has given email."

501.5.7 The Committee's further desired to be apprised of the remedial measures for ensuring receipt of Notice by the assessee, the Ministry informed the Committee as under:

".. we have now started sending, a physical letter, on the addresses that have been mentioned in the return". "..apart from the email, we also send SMS on the mobile number that has been actually mentioned in the return of income, and not only that return of income, but whatever mobile number we have, that person may have actually mentioned a mobile number which was earlier, that is also being censored."

501.5.8 Responding to the Committee's further query regarding statistical data related to issuance of notice, the Ministry in written replies furnished as follows:

REMARKS	'FY 2023- 24'	'FY 2024- 25'	'FY 2025- 26'
1)Total Notices Issued	5009379	4519032	703775
2)Notices Issued and shared with E-filing	5004970	4511324	672971
3)Notices Issued and E-mail triggered from System	4537991	4234706	658159
4)Notices Issued and Email Delivered	4065954	3871712	502481

501.6 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee

The Committee observe that Clause 501 of the Bill, which addresses service of notice generally, corresponds to Section 282 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. This clause carries forward the existing section's intent without policy changes, merely simplifying the text. However, a critical omission is identified in Clause 501(1). Unlike the existing Section 282(1), the new clause lacked the bracketed definition "(hereafter in this section referred to as "communication")" after listing various forms of communication. The Committee believe that addressing this omission, would provide a better clarity and achieve the intended applicability of the term "communication" in Clause 501(2). The Ministry has duly acknowledged and committed to rectifying this drafting oversight Having considered the views of both stakeholders and the Ministry, the Committee approve Clause 501 as proposed, contingent on the rectification of this drafting error. Aside from the above drafting correction, the Committee recommend to accept the Clause 501 as proposed.

Clause 502: Authentication of notices and other documents.

502.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"(1) Where this Act requires a notice or other document to be issued by any income-tax authority, such notice or other document shall be signed and issued in paper form or communicated in electronic form by that authority as per such procedure, as prescribed.
(2) Every notice or other document to be issued, served or given under this Act by any income-tax authority, shall be deemed to be authenticated, if the name and office of a designated income-tax authority is printed, stamped or otherwise written thereon.
(3) In this section, "designated income-tax authority" means any income-tax authority authorised by the Board to issue, serve or give such notice or other document after authentication in the manner as provided in sub-section (2)."

502.1 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 282A: Authentication of notices and other documents.

'"(1) Where this Act requires a notice or other document to be issued by any income-tax authority, such notice or other document shall be signed and issued in paper form or communicated in electronic form by that authority in accordance with such procedure as may be prescribed.
(2) Every notice or other document to be issued, served or given for the purposes of this Act by any income-tax authority, shall be deemed to be authenticated if the name and office of a designated income-tax authority is printed, stamped or otherwise written thereon.
(3) For the purposes of this section, a designated income-tax authority shall mean any income-tax authority authorised by the Board to issue, serve or give such notice or other document after authentication in the manner as provided in sub-section (2)."

502.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 502 of the Bill provides for authentication of notices and other documents. This clause corresponds to section 282A of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

502.4 Examination by the Committee:

Responding to the Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause in the Bill with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with regard to any addition or omission or replacement of words etc. alongwith the justification for the proposed modification, the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

“The provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of IT Act 1961”.

502.5 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee note that Clause 502 of the Bill provides for authentication of notices and other documents, aligns with existing Section 282A of the Income-Tax Act, 1961; but features simplified linguistic construction with no policy change. Expressing their concurrence with the justification given by the Ministry of Finance (Department of Revenue) in this regard, the Committee accept Clause 502 as it is.

Clause 503: Service of notice when family is disrupted or firm etc., is dissolved.

503.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

" (1) After a finding of total partition has been recorded by the Assessing Officer under section 315 for any Hindu family, notices under this Act in respect of the income of the Hindu family shall be served on the person, who was its last manager, or, if such person is dead, then on all adults who were members of the Hindu family immediately before the partition.
(2) Where a firm or other association of persons is dissolved, notices under this Act for the income of such firm or association may be served on any person, who was a partner (not being a minor) or member of the association, immediately before its dissolution."

503.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 283: Service of notice when family is disrupted or firm, etc., is dissolved.

" (1) After a finding of total partition has been recorded by the Assessing Officer under section 171 in respect of any Hindu family, notices under this Act in respect of the income of the Hindu family shall be served on the person who was the last manager of the Hindu family, or, if such person is dead, then on all adults who were members of the Hindu family immediately before the partition.
(2) Where a firm or other association of persons is dissolved, notices under this Act in respect of the income of the firm or association may be served on any person who was a partner (not being a minor) or member of the association, as the case may be, immediately before its dissolution."

503.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 503 of the Bill provides for service of notice when family is disrupted or firm, etc., is dissolved. This clause corresponds to section 283 of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

503.4 Examination by the Committee

On the Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause in the Bill with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961, the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

> "The provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of IT Act 1961".

503.5 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee while examining the Clause 503 of the Bill note that the Clause deals with service of notice when family is disrupted or firm etc., is dissolved, and corresponds to section 283 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee observe that the provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause 503 as proposed.

Clause 504: Service of notice in case of discontinued business.

504.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"Where an assessment is to be made under section 320, the Assessing Officer may serve on the—

(a) Person whose income is to be assessed ;or

(b) person who was a member of a firm or association of persons at the time of its discontinuance, in the case of a firm or an association of persons; or

(c) principal officer, in case of a company, a notice containing all or any of the requirements which may be included in a notice under section 268(1) and the provisions of this Act shall, so far as may be, apply accordingly as if the notice were a notice issued under that sub-section."

504.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 284: Service of notice in the case of discontinued business.

" Where an assessment is to be made under section 176, the Assessing Officer may serve on the person whose income is to be assessed, or, in the case of a firm or an association of persons, on any person who was a member of such firm or association at the time of its discontinuance or, in the case of a company, on the principal officer thereof, a notice containing all or any of the requirements which may be included in a notice under sub-section (2) of section 139, and the provisions of this Act shall, so far as may be, apply accordingly as if the notice were a notice issued under that section."

504.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 504 of the Bill provides for service of notice in case of discontinued business. This clause corresponds to section 284 of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

504.4 Examination by the Committee:

Responding to the Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause in the Bill with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with regard to any addition or omission or replacement of words etc. alongwith the justification for the proposed modification, the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

> "The provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of IT Act 1961".

504.5 Examination by the Committee:

The Committee note that Clause 504 stipulates service of notice in case of discontinued business, aligns with the provisions of Section 284 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee also note that the textual simplification of Clause 504 is as per the objectives of the Bill and retaining the same intent. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause as proposed.

Clause 505: Submission of statement by a non-resident having liaison office.

505.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"Every person, being a non-resident, having a liaison office in India setup as per the guidelines issued by the Reserve Bank of India under the Foreign Exchange Management Act, 1999, shall, in respect of its activities in a tax year, prepare and deliver to the Assessing Officer having jurisdiction, within sixty days from the end of such tax year, a statement, in such form and containing such particulars, as prescribed."

Section 285: Submission of statement by a non-resident having liaison office.

" Every person, being a non-resident having a liaison office in India set up in accordance with the guidelines issued by the Reserve Bank of India under the Foreign Exchange Management Act, 1999 (42 of 1999), shall, in respect of its activities in a financial year, prepare and deliver or cause to be delivered to the Assessing Officer having jurisdiction, within [38][such period, a statement] in such form and containing such particulars as may be prescribed.]

38. Sub. For "sixty days from the end of such financial year, a statement" by Act No.15 of 2024,w.e.f. 1-4-2025."

505.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 505 of the Bill provides for submission of statement by a non-resident having liaison office. This clause corresponds to section 285 of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

505.4 Examination by the Committee:

505.4.1 Responding to the Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause in the Bill with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with regard to any addition or omission or replacement of words etc. alongwith the justification for the proposed modification, the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

> "The provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of IT Act 1961".

505.4.2 On the Committee's explicit query regarding changes in the Clause as compared to the earlier provisions, the Ministry accepted drafting error and submitted as follows:

“ There is no change in the Bill and the provisions of the Income-tax Act, 1961. However, there is a drafting error which specifies submission of statement in prescribed form and manner within sixty days from the end of such tax year in prescribed form. The relevant rule 114DA has been amended vide Notification bearing G.S.R 125(E) dated 7th July, 2025 and now time period has been prescribed under the said rule as “within eight months from the end of such financial year”.

Hence, necessary correction shall be carried out in clause 505 of the I T Bill, 2025.”

505.5 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee note that Clause 505, a textual simplification of Section 285 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, deals with submission of statement by a non-resident having liaison office. As accepted by the Ministry, correction may be carried out in clause 505 as under:

'within sixty days' may be replaced with 'within eight months'

Subject to the aforesaid correction, the Committee accept Clause 505 as proposed by the Department of Revenue.

Clause 506: Furnishing of information or documents by an Indian concern in certain cases

506.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"Where,—

(a) any share of, or interest in, a company or an entity registered or incorporated outside India, derives, directly or indirectly, its value substantially from the assets located in India, as referred to in section 9(9)(a); and

(b) such company or, entity, holds, directly or indirectly, such assets in India through, or in, an Indian concern, then, such Indian concern shall, for the determination of any income accruing or arising in India under the said clause, furnish within such period, the information or documents in such manner, as prescribed, to the prescribed income-tax authority."

506.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 285A: Furnishing of information or documents by an Indian concern in certain cases.

"Where any share of, or interest in, a company or an entity registered or incorporated outside India derives, directly or indirectly, its value substantially from the assets located in India, as referred to in Explanation 5 to clause (i) of sub-section (1) of section 9, and such company or, as the case may be, entity, holds, directly or indirectly, such assets in India through, or in, an Indian concern, then, such Indian concern shall, for the purposes of determination of any income accruing or arising in India under clause(i)of sub-section (1) of section 9, furnish within the prescribed period to the prescribed income-tax authority the information or documents, in such manner, as may be prescribed."

506.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 506 of the Bill provides for furnishing of information or documents by an Indian concern in certain cases. This clause corresponds to section 285A of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

506.4 Important Views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders:

An important suggestion received from the stakeholder in the clause under examination are as follows:

"This section may be reworded as follows: Where, - (a) any share of, or interest in, a company or an entity registered or incorporated outside India, derives, directly or indirectly, its value substantially from the assets located in India, as referred to in clause (a) of section 9(9)(a); and then, such Indian concern shall, for the determination of any income accruing or arising in India under the said clause, furnish within such period, the information or documents in such manner, as prescribed, to the prescribed income-tax authority.

There is mentioning of "under the said clause" in the latter part of the section, without any clause being referred to earlier in the section. Section 9(9)(a) in clause (a) of Section 506 may be written as clause (a) of section 9(9).

Then, the usage of "under the said clause" in the latter part would be correct."

506.5 Examination by the Committee:

The Ministry while accepting the suggestion regarding redrafting of Clause under consideration stated in their written replies as follows :

"Accepted. The suggestion seeks to redraft the clause 506(section 285A Furnishing of information or documents by an Indian concern in certain cases) to align it with Act.

Drafting may be corrected to align the same with the rest of the section."

506.6 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee observe that Clause 506, which addresses the submission of information or documents by Indian concerns, mirrors Section 285A of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, without introducing any policy changes. A stakeholder pointed out a necessary drafting correction in Clause 506: "section 9(9)(a)" should be changed to "clause (a) of section 9(9)" for consistency with Section 285A. Given the Ministry's acceptance of this change, the Committee recommend redrafting Clause 506 to align with the current Act. Subject to this correction, the Committee approve Clause 506 as presented.

Clause 507: Submission of statements by producers of cinematograph films or persons engaged in specified activity

507.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"(1) Any person carrying on the production of a cinematograph film or engaged in any specified activity, or both, during the whole or any part of any tax year shall, furnish within such period, a statement in such form and in such manner, as prescribed, to the prescribed income-tax authority.

(2) The statement referred in sub-section (1) shall contain particulars of all payments of over fifty thousand rupees in the aggregate made by him or due from him to each such person as is engaged by him in such production or specified activity.

(3) In this section, "specified activity" means any event management, documentary production, production of programmes for telecasting on television or over the top platforms or any other similar platform, sports event management, other performing arts or any other activity as the Central Government may, by notification, specify."

507.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 285B: Submission of statements by producers of cinematograph films or persons engaged in specified activity.

"Any person carrying on the production of a cinematograph film or engaged in any specified activity, or both, during the whole or any part of any financial year shall, in respect of the period during which such production or specified activity is carried on by him in such financial year, furnish within the prescribed period, a statement in the prescribed form to the prescribed income-tax authority in the prescribed manner, containing particulars of all payments of over fifty thousand rupees in the aggregate made by him or due from him to each such person as is engaged by him in such production or specified activity.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, "specified activity" means any event management, documentary production, production of programmes for telecasting on television or over the top platforms or any other similar platform, sports event management, other performing arts or any other activity as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify in this behalf."

507.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

“Clause 507 of the Bill provides for submission of statements by producers of cinematograph films or persons engaged in specified activity. This clause corresponds to section 285B of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause.”

507.4 Examination by the Committee:

The Committee note that Clause 507 of the Bill prescribing provisions for submission of statements by producers of cinematograph films or persons engaged in specified activity, aligns with existing Section 285B of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 but features simplified linguistic construction. Expressing their concurrence with the justification given by the Ministry of Finance (Department of Revenue) in this regard, the Committee accept Clause 507 as it is.

Clause 508: Obligation to furnish statement of financial transaction or reportable account.

508.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"1) Any person, being—

(a) an assessee; or

(b) the prescribed person, in the case of an office of Government; or

(c) a local authority or other public body or association; or

(d) the Registrar or Sub-Registrar appointed under section 6 of the Registration Act, 1908; or

(e) the registering authority empowered to register motor vehicles under Chapter IV of the Motor Vehicles Act, 1988; or

(f) the Director General as referred to in section 2(a) of the Post Office Act, 2023; or

(g) the Collector referred to in section 3(g) of the Right to Fair Compensation and Transparency in Land Acquisition, Rehabilitation and Resettlement Act, 2013; or

(h) the recognised stock exchange referred to in section 2(f) of the Securities Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1956; or

(i) an officer of the Reserve Bank of India, constituted under section 3 of the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934; or

(j) a depository referred to in section 2(1)(e) of the Depositories Act, 1996; or

(k) a prescribed reporting financial institution; or

(l) any other person, as prescribed,

who is responsible for registering, or, maintaining books of account or other document containing a record of any specified financial transaction or any reportable account, as prescribed, under any law in force, shall furnish a statement regarding such specified financial transaction or such reportable account, which is registered or recorded or maintained by him and information relating to which is relevant and required for this Act, to the income-tax authority or such other authority or agency, as prescribed.

(2) The statement referred to in sub-section (1) shall be furnished for such period, within such time and in the form and manner, as prescribed.

(3) In sub-section (1), "specified financial transaction" means any transaction—

(a) of purchase, sale or exchange of goods or property or right or interest in a property; or

(b) for rendering any service; or

(c) under a works contract; or

(d) by way of an investment made or an expenditure incurred; or

(e) for taking or accepting any loan or deposit, as prescribed.

(4) The Board may prescribe different values for different transactions specified in sub-section (3) for different persons having regard to the nature of such transaction.

(5) If the prescribed income-tax authority finds a defect in the statement furnished under sub-section (1), he may intimate the defect to the person furnishing such statement, to rectify the defect within thirty days from the date of such intimation, and at his discretion, extend the said period upon an application made for this purpose.

(6) If the defect mentioned in sub-section (5) remains unrectified within the initial period of thirty days or extended period as applicable, then, the provisions of this Act shall apply as if such person had furnished inaccurate information in the statement, irrespective of anything contained in any other provision of this Act.

(7) If a person required to furnish a statement under sub-section (1) fails to do so within the specified time, the prescribed income-tax authority may serve upon such person a notice requiring him to furnish such statement, within a period not exceeding thirty days from the date of service of notice, and he shall furnish the statement within the time specified therein.

(8) If a person, having furnished a statement under sub-section (1), or in pursuance of a notice issued under sub-section (7), becomes aware of any inaccuracy in the information provided, he shall within ten days, inform the prescribed income-tax authority or other authority or agency referred to in sub-section (1), of the inaccuracy and furnish the correct information in such manner, as prescribed.

(9) The Central Government may, specify by rules,—

(a) the persons referred to in sub-section (1) to be registered with the prescribed income-tax authority;

(b) the nature of information and the manner in which such information shall be maintained by the persons referred to in clause (a); and

(c) the due diligence to be carried out by the persons for the identification of any reportable account referred to in sub-section (1)."

508.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 285BA: Obligation to furnish statement of financial transaction or report able account.

"(1) Any person, being—

(a) an assessee; or

(b) the prescribed person in the case of an office of Government; or

(c) a local authority or other public body or association; or

(d) the Registrar or Sub-Registrar appointed under section 6 of the Registration Act, 1908 (16 of 1908); or

(e) the registering authority empowered to register motor vehicles under Chapter IV of the Motor Vehicles Act, 1988 (59 of 1988) ; or

(f) the Post Master General as referred to in clause (j) of section 2 of the Indian Post Office Act, 1898 (6 of 1898) ; or

(g) the Collector referred to in clause (g) of section 3 of the Right to Fair Compensation and Transparency in Land Acquisition, Rehabilitation and Resettlement Act, 2013 (30 of 2013) ; or

(h) the recognised stock exchange referred to in clause (f) of section 2 of the Securities Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1956 (42 of 1956) ; or

(i) an officer of the Reserve Bank of India, constituted under section 3 of the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934 (2 of 1934) ; or

(j) a depository referred to in clause (e) of sub-section (1) of section 2 of the Depositories Act, 1996 (22 of 1996) ; or

(k) a prescribed reporting financial institution; or

(l) a person, other than those referred to in clauses (a) to (k), as may be prescribed,

who is responsible for registering, or, maintaining books of account or other document containing a record of any specified financial transaction or any reportable account as may be prescribed, under any law for the time being in force, shall furnish a statement in respect of such specified financial transaction or such reportable account which is registered or recorded or maintained by him and information relating to which is relevant and required for the purposes of this Act, to the income-tax authority or such other authority or agency as may be prescribed.

(2) The statement referred to in sub-section (1) shall be furnished for such period, within such time and in the form and manner, as may be prescribed.

(3) For the purposes of sub-section (1), "specified financial transaction" means any—

(a) transaction of purchase, sale or exchange of goods or property or right or interest in a property; or

(b) transaction for rendering any service; or

(c) transaction under a works contract; or

(d) transaction by way of an investment made or an expenditure incurred; or

(e) transaction for taking or accepting any loan or deposit, which may be prescribed :

Provided that the Board may prescribe different values for different transactions in respect of different persons having regard to the nature of such transaction.

(4) Where the prescribed income-tax authority considers that the statement furnished under sub-section (1) is defective, he may intimate the defect to the person who has furnished such statement and give him an opportunity of rectifying the defect within a period of thirty days from the date of such intimation or within such further period which, on an application made in this behalf, the said income-tax authority may, in his discretion, allow; and if the defect is not rectified within the said period of thirty days or, as the case may be, the further period so allowed, then, notwithstanding anything contained in any other provision of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall apply as if such person had furnished inaccurate information in the statement.

(5) Where a person who is required to furnish a statement under sub-section (1) has not furnished the same within the specified time, the prescribed income-tax authority may serve upon such person a notice requiring him to furnish such statement within a period not exceeding thirty days from the date of service of such notice and he shall furnish the statement within the time specified in the notice.

(6) If any person, having furnished a statement under sub-section (1), or in pursuance of a notice issued under sub-section (5), comes to know or discovers any inaccuracy in the information provided in the statement, he shall within a period of ten days inform the income-tax authority or other authority or agency referred to in sub-section (1), the inaccuracy in such statement and furnish the correct information in such manner as may be prescribed.

(7) The Central Government may, by rules made under this section, specify—

(a) the persons referred to in sub-section (1) to be registered with the prescribed income-tax authority;

(b) the nature of information and the manner in which such information shall be maintained by the persons referred to in clause (a); and

(c) the due diligence to be carried out by the persons for the purpose of identification of any reportable account referred to in sub-section (1).

508.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

Clause 508 of the Bill provides for obligation to furnish statement of financial transaction or reportable account. This clause corresponds to section 285BA of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause.

508.4 Examination by the Committee:

To a query of the Committee regarding comparison of the clause in the Bill with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961, the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

"The provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of IT Act 1961".

508.5 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee while examining the Clause 508 of the Bill note that the Clause deals with obligation to furnish statement of financial transaction or reportable account, corresponds to section 285BA of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee observe that the provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause 508 as proposed.

Clause 509: Obligation to furnish information on transaction of crypto-asset.

509.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"(1) Any person, being a reporting entity, as prescribed, in respect of a crypto-asset, shall furnish information in respect of a transaction of such crypto-asset in a statement, for such period, within such time, in such form and manner and to such income-tax authority, as prescribed.

(2) Where the prescribed income-tax authority considers that the statement furnished under sub-section (1) is defective, he may intimate the defect to the person who has furnished such statement and give him an opportunity of rectifying the defect within thirty days from the date of such intimation or such further period as may be allowed, and if the defect is not rectified within such period, the provisions of this Act shall apply as if such person had furnished inaccurate information in the statement.

(3) Where a person who is required to furnish a statement under sub-section (1) has not furnished the same within the specified time, the prescribed income-tax authority may serve upon such person a notice requiring him to furnish such statement within a period not exceeding thirty days from the date of service of such notice and he shall furnish the statement within the time specified in the notice.

(4) If any person, having furnished a statement under sub-section (1), or in pursuance of a notice issued under sub-section (3), comes to know or discovers any inaccuracy in the information provided in the statement, he shall within ten days inform the prescribed income-tax authority, the inaccuracy in such statement and furnish the correct information in such manner as prescribed.

(5) The Central Government may, by rules prescribe—

(a) the persons referred to in sub-section (1) to be registered with the prescribed income-tax authority;

(b) the nature of information and the manner in which such information shall be maintained by the persons referred to in clause (a); and

(c) the due diligence to be carried out by the persons referred to in sub-section (1) for the purpose of identification of any crypto-asset user or owner.

(6) In this section, "crypto-asset" shall have the meaning assigned to it in section 2(111)(d)."

509.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 285BAA:

Following section 285BAA shall be inserted after section 285BA by the Finance Act, 2025, w.e.f.1-4-2026:

Obligation to furnish information on transaction of crypto-asset.

"(1) Any person, being a reporting entity, as prescribed, in respect of acrypto-asset, shall furnish information in respect of a transaction of such crypto-asset in a statement, for such period, within such time, in such form and manner and to such income-tax authority, as prescribed.

(2) Where the prescribed income-tax authority considers that the statement furnished under sub-section (1) is defective, he may intimate the defect to the person who has furnished such statement and give him an opportunity of rectifying the defect within thirty days from the date of such intimation or such further period as may be allowed, and if the defect is not rectified within such period, the provisions of this Act shall apply as if such person had furnished inaccurate information in the statement.

(3) Where a person who is required to furnish a statement under sub-section (1) has not furnished the same within the specified time, the prescribed income-tax authority may serve upon such person a notice requiring him to furnish such statement within a period not exceeding thirty days from the date of service of such notice and he shall furnish the statement within the time specified in the notice.

(4) If any person, having furnished a statement under sub-section (1), or in pursuance of a notice issued under sub-section (3), comes to know or discovers any inaccuracy in the information provided in the statement, he shall within ten days inform the prescribed income-tax authority, the inaccuracy in such statement and furnish the correct information in such manner as prescribed.

(5) The Central Government may, by rules prescribe—

(a) The persons referred to in sub-section(1) to be registered with the prescribed income-tax authority;

(b) The nature of information and the manner in which such information shall be maintained by the persons referred to in clause (a); and

(c) the due diligence to be carried out by the persons referred to in sub-section (1) for the purpose of identification of any crypto-asset user or owner.

(6) In this section, "crypto-asset" shall have the meaning assigned to it in sub-clause (d) of clause (47A) of section 2."

509.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 509 of the Bill provides for obligation to furnish information on transaction of crypto-asset. This clause corresponds to section 285BAA of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

509.4 Examination by the Committee:

509.4.1 On the Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause in the Bill with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with regard to any addition or omission or replacement of words etc. alongwith the justification for the proposed modification, the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

> "The provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of IT Act 1961".

509.4.2 Regarding Section 285AA in the Income-Tax Act, 1961 which mentions that "Following Section 285BAA shall be inserted after section 285BA by the Finance Act, 2025, w.e.f. 1-4-2026", the Committee desired to be apprised of the factual position in regard to Section 285BAA and know whether this may qualify as policy change, the Ministry in a written submission clarified as under:

> " Section 285BAA has been introduced vide Finance Act, 2025 and the section provides for obligation to furnish information on transaction of the crypto-asset. The provisions of the section will be effective from 01.04.2026. Hence the provisions of sec 285BAA are kept in the Bill from 1.4.2026 as they are in the Income-tax Act, 1961. There is absolutely no policy change in Bill vis-à-vis Act in respect of the said provision."

509.4.3 Further, on the suggestion of defining 'reporting entity' under Clause 2 relating to 'Definition' so as to bring clarity, certainty and transparency, the Ministry expressed reservation and submitted in written replies as follows:

> " Clause 2 of the Bill provides for definitions of various terms used in the Bill. Clause 2 contains such terms which are widely used (more than once) in different clauses of the Bill and have the same meaning across the clauses. The term "reporting entity" as being used in the clause 509 is specific to the entity which shall be obliged to furnish information on transaction of crypto-asset. The term "reporting entity" used in other clauses of the Bill is different from that used in cl 509 of the Bill. Hence, definition of the term "reporting entity" cannot be provided in clause 2 of the Bill."

509.4.4 On the query whether provision related to disclosure of particular in regard to Clause 509 should be incorporated in clauses 258(3) or 494 regarding 'Disclosure of particulars by public servants', the Ministry in written replies submitted as under:

> "There Cl 258(3) provides the power to the Central Government to notify matters relating to class of assessee where the public servant is not required to furnish or produce the documents or information. This is a general clause. Since the spectrum of the clause is wide enough, no useful purpose will be served by providing specific items in the ambit of cl. 258(3) including say cl. 509."

509.5 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

Clause 509 of the Income-Tax Bill 2025, which provides for obligation to furnish information on transaction of crypto-asset, corresponding to Section 285BAA of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee find that this Clause has been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause. Furthermore, having been assured that no policy change has been incorporated in this Clause, the Committee approve Clause 509 as it is.

Clause 510: Annual information statement.

510.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"(1) The prescribed income-tax authority or the person authorised by such authority, shall upload in the registered account of the assessee an annual information statement in such form and manner, within such time and along with such information, which is in the possession of an income-tax authority, as prescribed.

(2) In sub-section (1), "registered account" means the electronic filing account registered by the assessee in the web portal, as may be designated by the prescribed income-tax authority or the person authorised by such authority."

510.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 285BB: Annual information statement.

"The prescribed income-tax authority or the person authorised by such authority shall upload in the registered account of the assessee an annual information statement in such form and manner, within such time and alongwith such information, which is in the possession of an income-tax authority, as may be prescribed.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, "registered account" means the electronic filing account registered by the assessee in designated portal, that is, the web portal designated as such by the prescribed income-tax authority or the person authorised by such authority."

510.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 510 of the Bill provides for annual information statement. This clause corresponds to section 285BB of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

510.4 Examination by the Committee:

On the Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause in the Bill with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961, the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

> "The provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of IT Act 1961".

510.5 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee note that Clause 510 of the Bill, which outlines the annual information statement, aligns with Section 285BB of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee observe that the language of the existing section has been textually simplified in this new clause while retaining its original intent. Therefore, the Committee accept Clause 510 as proposed.

Clause 511: Furnishing of report in respect of international group.

511.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

"(1) Every constituent entity resident in India, shall, if it is constituent of an international group, the parent entity of which is not resident in India, notify the prescribed income-tax authority in the form and manner, on or before such date, as prescribed,—

(a) whether it is the alternate reporting entity of the international group; or

(b) the details of the parent entity or the alternate reporting entity, if any, of the international group, and the country or territory of which the said entities are resident.

(2) Every parent entity or the alternate reporting entity, resident in India, shall, for every reporting accounting year, in respect of the international group of which it is a constituent, furnish a report, to the prescribed income-tax authority within twelve months from the end of the said reporting accounting year, in such form and manner, as prescribed.

(3) In sub-sections (2) and (4), the report in respect of an international group shall include—

(a) the aggregate information in respect of the amount of revenue, profit or loss before income-tax, amount of income-tax paid, amount of income-tax accrued, stated capital, accumulated earnings, number of employees and tangible assets not being cash or cash equivalents, with regard to each country or territory in which the group operates;

(b) the details of each constituent entity of the group including the country or territory in which such constituent entity is incorporated or organised or established and the country or territory where it is resident;

(c) the nature and details of the main business activity or activities of each constituent entity; and

(d) any other information, as prescribed.

(4) A constituent entity of an international group, resident in India, other than the entity referred to in sub-section (2), shall furnish the report referred to in the said sub-section, in respect of the international group for a reporting accounting year within the period, as prescribed, if the parent entity is resident of a country or territory,—

(a) where the parent entity is not obligated to file the report of the nature referred to in the said sub-section;

(b) with which India does not have an agreement providing for exchange of the report of the nature referred to in the said sub-section;

(c) where there has been a systemic failure and such failure has been intimated by the prescribed income-tax authority to such constituent entity.

(5) If there are more than one such constituent entities of the group, resident in India, the report as mentioned in sub-section (4) shall be furnished by any one constituent entity, if—

(a) the international group has designated such entity to furnish the report as per sub-section (2) on behalf of all the constituent entities resident in India; and

(b) the information has been conveyed in writing on behalf of the group to the prescribed income-tax authority.

(6) The provisions of sub-sections (4) and (5) shall not apply, if—

(a) an alternate reporting entity of the international group has furnished a report of the nature referred to in sub-section (2), with the tax authority of the country or territory in which such entity is resident, on or before the date specified by that country or territory; and

(b) the following conditions are satisfied:—

(i) the said report is required to be furnished under any law in force in the said country or territory;

(ii) the said country or territory has entered into an agreement with India providing for exchange of the said report;

(iii) the prescribed income-tax authority has not conveyed any systemic failure in respect of the said country or territory to any constituent entity of the group that is resident in India;

(iv) the said country or territory has been informed in writing by the constituent entity that it is the alternate reporting entity on behalf of the international group; and

(v) the prescribed income-tax authority has been informed by the entity referred to in sub-sections (4) and (5) as per sub-section (1).

(7) The prescribed income-tax authority may, for determining the accuracy of the report furnished by any reporting entity, issue notice in writing, requiring the entity to produce such information and document as specified in the notice within thirty days of the date of receipt of the notice and such period may be extended by up to an additional thirty days upon application by the entity.

(8) The provisions of this section shall not apply to an international group for an accounting year, if the total consolidated group revenue, as per the consolidated financial statement for the accounting year preceding such accounting year, does not exceed the prescribed amount.

(9) The provisions of this section shall be applied as per such guidelines and subject to such conditions, as prescribed.

(10) In this section,—

(a) “accounting year” means,—

(i) a tax year, in a case where the parent entity is resident in India; or

(ii) an annual accounting period, with respect to which the parent entity of the international group prepares its financial statements under any law in force or the applicable accounting standards of the country or territory of which such entity is resident, in any other case;

(b) "agreement" means a combination of all of the following agreements:—

(i) an agreement entered into under section 159(1) or (2); and

(ii) an agreement for exchange of the report referred to in sub-section (2) and notified by the Central Government;

(c) "alternate reporting entity" means any constituent entity of the international group that has been designated by such group, in the place of the parent entity, to furnish the report of the nature referred to in sub-section (2) in the country or territory in which the said constituent entity is resident on behalf of such group;

(d) "constituent entity" means—

(i) any separate entity of an international group that is included in the consolidated financial statement of the said group for financial reporting purposes, or may be so included for the said purpose, if the equity share of any entity of the international group were to be listed on a stock exchange;

(ii) any such entity that is excluded from the consolidated financial statement of the international group solely on the basis of size or materiality; or

(iii) any permanent establishment of any separate business entity of the international group included in sub-clause (i) or (ii), if such business unit prepares a separate financial statement for such permanent establishment for financial reporting, regulatory, tax reporting or internal management control purposes;

(e) "group" includes a parent entity and all the entities in respect of which, for the reason of ownership or control, a consolidated financial statement for financial reporting purposes—

(i) is required to be prepared under any law in force or the accounting standards of the country or territory of which the parent entity is resident; or

(ii) would have been required to be prepared, had the equity shares of any of the enterprises were listed on a stock exchange in the country or territory of which the parent entity is resident;

(f) "consolidated financial statement" means the financial statement of an international group in which the assets, liabilities, income, expenses and cash flows of the parent entity and the constituent entities are presented as those of a single economic entity;

(g) "international group" means any group that includes—

(i) two or more enterprises which are resident of different countries or territories; or

(ii))an enterprise, being a resident of one country or territory, which carries on any business through a permanent establishment in other countries or territories;

(h) "parent entity" means a constituent entity, of an international group holding, directly or indirectly, an interest in one or more of the other constituent entities of the international group, such that—

(i) it is required to prepare a consolidated financial statement under any law in force or the accounting standards of the country or territory of which the entity is resident; or

(ii) it would have been required to prepare a consolidated financial statement had the equity shares of any of the enterprises were listed on a stock exchange, and, there is no other constituent entity of such group which, due to ownership of any interest, directly or indirectly, in the first mentioned constituent entity, is required to prepare a consolidated financial statement, under the circumstances referred to in sub-clause (i) or (ii), that includes the separate financial statement of the first mentioned constituent entity;

(i) "permanent establishment" shall have the meaning assigned to it in section 173(c);

(j) "reporting accounting year" means the accounting year in respect of which the financial and operational results are required to be reflected in the report referred to in sub-sections (2), (4) and (5);

(k) "reporting entity" means the constituent entity including the parent entity or the alternate reporting entity, that is required to furnish a report of the nature referred to in sub-section (2);

(l) "systemic failure" with respect to a country or territory means that the country or territory has an agreement with India providing for exchange of report of the nature referred to in sub-section (2), but—

(i) in violation of the said agreement, it has suspended automatic exchange; or

(ii) has persistently failed to automatically provide to India the report in its possession in respect of any international group having a constituent entity resident in India.

511.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act

Section 286: Furnishing of report in respect of international group.

286. "(1) Every constituent entity resident in India, shall, if it is constituent of an international group, the parent entity of which is not resident in India, notify the prescribed income-tax authority (herein referred to as prescribed authority) in the form and manner, on or before such date, as may be prescribed,—

(a) whether it is the alternate reporting entity of the international group; or

(b) the details of the parent entity or the alternate reporting entity, if any, of the international group, and the country or territory of which the said entities are resident.

(2) Every parent entity or the alternate reporting entity, resident in India, shall, for every reporting accounting year, in respect of the international group of which it is a constituent, furnish a report, to the prescribed authority within a period of twelve months from the end of the said reporting accounting year, in the form and manner as may be prescribed.

(3) For the purposes of sub-section (2) and sub-section (4), the report in respect of an international group shall include,—

(a) the aggregate information in respect of the amount of revenue, profit or loss before income-tax, amount of income-tax paid, amount of income-tax accrued, stated capital, accumulated earnings, number of employees and tangible assets not being cash or cash equivalents, with regard to each country or territory in which the group operates;

(b) the details of each constituent entity of the group including the country or territory in which such constituent entity is incorporated or organised or established and the country or territory where it is resident;

(c) the nature and details of the main business activity or activities of each constituent entity; and

(d) any other information as may be prescribed.

(4) A constituent entity of an international group, resident in India, other than the entity referred to in sub-section (2), shall furnish the report referred to in the said sub-section, in respect of the international group for a reporting accounting year within the period as may be prescribed, if the parent entity is resident of a country or territory,—

(a) where the parent entity is not obligated to file the report of the nature referred to in sub-section (2);

(aa) with which India does not have an agreement providing for exchange of the report of the nature referred to in sub-section (2); or

(b) there has been a systemic failure of the country or territory and the said failure has been intimated by the prescribed authority to such constituent entity:

Provided that where there are more than one such constituent entities of the group, resident in India, the report shall be furnished by any one constituent entity, if,—

(a) the international group has designated such entity to furnish the report in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (2) on behalf of all the constituent entities resident in India; and

(b) the information has been conveyed in writing on behalf of the group to the prescribed authority.

(5) Nothing contained in sub-section (4) shall apply, if, an alternate reporting entity of the international group has furnished a report of the nature referred to in sub-section (2), with the tax authority of the country or territory in which such entity is resident, on or before the date specified by that country or territory and the following conditions are satisfied, namely:—

(a) the report is required to be furnished under the law for the time being in force in the said country or territory;

(b) the said country or territory has entered into an agreement with India providing for exchange of the said report;

(c) the prescribed authority has not conveyed any systemic failure in respect of the said country or territory to any constituent entity of the group that is resident in India;

(d) the said country or territory has been informed in writing by the constituent entity that it is the alternate reporting entity on behalf of the international group; and

(e) the prescribed authority has been informed by the entity referred to in sub-section (4) in accordance with sub-section (1).

(6) The prescribed authority may, for the purposes of determining the accuracy of the report furnished by any reporting entity, by issue of a notice in writing, require the entity to produce such information and document as may be specified in the notice within thirty days of the date of receipt of the notice:

Provided that the prescribed authority may, on an application made by such entity, extend the period of thirty days by a further period not exceeding thirty days.

(7) The provisions of this section shall not apply in respect of an international group for an accounting year, if the total consolidated group revenue, as reflected in the consolidated financial statement for the accounting year preceding such accounting year does not exceed the amount, as may be prescribed.

(8) The provisions of this section shall be applied in accordance with such guidelines and subject to such conditions, as may be prescribed.

(9) For the purposes of this section,—

(a) "accounting year" means,—

(i) a previous year, in a case where the parent entity is resident in India; or

(ii) an annual accounting period, with respect to which the parent entity of the international group prepares its financial statements under any law for the time being in force or the applicable accounting standards of the country or territory of which such entity is resident, in any other case;

(b) "agreement" means a combination of all of the following agreements, namely:—

(i) an agreement entered into under sub-section (1) of section 90 or sub-section (1) of section 90A; and

(ii) an agreement for exchange of the report referred to in sub-section (2) and notified by the Central Government;

(c) "alternate reporting entity" means any constituent entity of the international group that has been designated by such group, in the place of the parent entity, to furnish the report of the nature referred to in sub-section (2) in the country or territory in which the said constituent entity is resident on behalf of such group;

(d) "constituent entity" means,—

(ii) any such entity that is excluded from the consolidated financial statement of the international group solely on the basis of size or materiality; or

(iii)any permanent establishment of any separate business entity of the international group included in sub-clause (i) or sub-clause (ii), if such business unit prepares a separate financial statement for such permanent establishment for financial reporting, regulatory, tax reporting or internal management control purposes;

(e) "group" includes a parent entity and all the entities in respect of which, for the reason of ownership or control, a consolidated financial statement for financial reporting purposes,—

(i) is required to be prepared under any law for the time being in force or the accounting standards of the country or territory of which the parent entity is resident; or

(ii) would have been required to be prepared had the equity shares of any of the enterprises were listed on a stock exchange in the country or territory of which the parent entity is resident;

(f) "consolidated financial statement" means the financial statement of an international group in which the assets, liabilities, income, expenses and cash flows of the parent entity and the constituent entities are presented as those of a single economic entity;

(g) "international group" means any group that includes,—

(i) two or more enterprises which are resident of different countries or territories; or

(ii) an enterprise, being a resident of one country or territory, which carries on any business through a permanent establishment in other countries or territories;

(h) "parent entity" means a constituent entity, of an international group holding, directly or indirectly, an interest in one or more of the other constituent entities of the international group, such that,—

(i) it is required to prepare a consolidated financial statement under any law for the time being in force or the accounting standards of the country or territory of which the entity is resident; or exchange, and, there is no other constituent entity of such group which, due to ownership of any interest, directly or indirectly, in the first mentioned constituent entity, is required to prepare a consolidated financial statement, under the circumstances referred to in sub-clause (i) or sub-clause (ii), that includes the separate financial statement of the first mentioned constituent entity;

(i) "permanent establishment" shall have the meaning assigned to it in clause (iiia) of section 92F;

(j) "reporting accounting year" means the accounting year in respect of which the financial and operational results are required to be reflected in the report referred to in sub-sections (2) and (4);

(k) "reporting entity" means the constituent entity including the parent entity or the alternate reporting entity, that is required to furnish a report of the nature referred to in sub-section (2);

(l) "systemic failure" with respect to a country or territory means that the country or territory has an agreement with India providing for exchange of report of the nature referred to in sub-section (2), but—

(i) in violation of the said agreement, it has suspended automatic exchange; or

(ii) has persistently failed to automatically provide to India the report in its possession in respect of any international group having a constituent entity resident in India."

511.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 511 of the Bill provides for furnishing of report in respect of international group.This clause corresponds to section 286 of the Act.There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

511.4 Important Views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders:

511.4.1 An important suggestion received from the stakeholder in the clause under examination are as follows:

"Clause (c) of sub-section (4) may be substituted with the following: (c) where there has been a systemic failure of the country or territory, and such failure has been intimated by the prescribed income-tax authority to such constituent entity

The removal of “of the country or territory” after systemic failure makes the sentence incomplete and may create a disconnect between this paragraph and the definition of “systemic failure” provided under 511(10).”

511.5 Examination by the Committee:

The Ministry in response to the suggestion by the stakeholder has furnished in written replies as under:

> “The suggestion seeks to redraft the clause 511 by adding the word “of the country or territory” after systemic failure.
> The definition provided in sub-clause 511(10)(b) is applicable to whole section. Thus, systemic failure relates to systemic failure of country or territory.
> Thus, the suggestion is already addressed.”

511.6 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee

The Committee observe that Clause 511 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 textually simplifies and retains the intent of Section 286 of the Act regarding immunity from penalty. Noting that there is no policy change in this regard and having after considered the views of the stakeholders as well as the response of the Ministry, the Committee accept Clause 511 as proposed.

Clause 512: Publication of information respecting assessees in certain cases.

512.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"(1) If the Central Government is of the opinion that it is necessary or expedient in the public interest to publish the names of any assessees and any other particulars relating to any proceedings or prosecutions under this Act in respect of such assessees, it may publish such names and particulars in such manner as it thinks fit.

(2) No publication under this section shall be made for any penalty imposed under this Act, until the time for filing an appeal under section 356 or 357 has expired and no appeal has been filed, or if an appeal is filed, it has been disposed of.

(3) The names of the partners of the firm, directors, managing agents, secretaries and treasurers, or managers of the company, or the members of the association, as the case may be, may also be published under sub-section (1), if, in the opinion of the Central Government, the circumstances of the case justify it."

512.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 287: Publication of information respecting assessees in certain cases.

" (1) If the Central Government is of opinion that it is necessary or expedient in the public interest to publish the names of any assessees and any other particulars relating to any proceedings or prosecutions under this Act in respect of such assessees, it may cause to be published such names and particulars in such manner as it thinks fit.

(2) No publication under this section shall be made in relation to any penalty imposed under this Act until the time for presenting an appeal to the [Joint Commissioner (Appeals) or to the] Commissioner (Appeals) has expired without an appeal having been presented or the appeal, if presented, has been disposed of.

Explanation.—In the case of a firm, company or other association of persons, the names of the partners of the firm, directors, managing agents, secretaries and treasurers, or managers of the company, or the members of the association, as the case may be, may also be published if, in the opinion of the Central Government, the circumstances of the case justify it."

512.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 512 of the Bill provides for publication of information respecting assessees in certain cases. This clause corresponds to section 287 of the Act.. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause.

512.4 Examination by the Committee:

Responding to the Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause in the Bill with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with regard to any addition or omission or replacement of words etc. alongwith the justification for the proposed modification, the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

"The provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of IT Act 1961".

512.5 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee, upon reviewing Clause 512 of the Bill, acknowledge that it addresses the publication of information respecting assessees in certain cases, directly paralleling Section 287 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. This Clause represents textual simplification, no change in policy. The Committee, therefore, approve Clause 512 in its current form.

Clause 513: Appearance by registered valuer in certain matters.

513.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

(1) Any assessee, entitled or required to attend before any income-tax authority or the Appellate Tribunal in matters relating to the valuation of any asset, may attend through a registered valuer.

(2) The provisions of sub-section (1) shall not apply, where the assessee is required to attend personally for examination on oath or affirmation under section 246.

(3) In this section, “registered valuer” means a person registered as a valuer under section 514.

513.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 287A: Appearance by registered valuer in certain matters.

Any assessee who is entitled or required to attend before any income-tax authority or the Appellate Tribunal in connection with any matter relating to the valuation of any asset, otherwise than when required under section 131 to attend personally for examination on oath or affirmation, may attend by a registered valuer.

Explanation.—In this section, "registered valuer" has the same meaning as in clause (oaa) of section 2 of the Wealth-tax Act, 1957 (27 of 1957).

513.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

Clause 513 of the Bill provides for appearance by registered valuer in certain matters. This clause corresponds to section 287A of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been divided into clause 513 and 514 where new clause 514 has been introduced to provide the method of registration of the valuers by specified Income-tax authorities.

513.4 Examination by the Committee:

513.4.1 On the Committee’s query regarding comparison of the clause in the Bill with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with regard to any addition or omission or replacement of words etc. alongwith the justification for the proposed modification, the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

> “The provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of IT Act 1961”.

513.4.2 Justifying the introduction of new clause introduced in the bill, the Ministry in written replies furnished as under:

> “This clause 514 has been provided to define the “registered valuer” for the purposes of clause 513. In the Income-tax Act, registered valuer made a reference to section 2 of the Wealth Tax Act 1957 which in turn referred to section 34AB of the said Act. As the reference to Wealth Tax Act has been removed from the Bill therefore to provide the same, the provisions of s. 34AB of the Weath Tax Act have been incorporated in cl. 514 of the Bill. Therefore, there is no addition in substance by way of insertion of cl. 514.”

513.5 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee

The Committee note that Clause 513 of the Bill addresses appearance of registered valuer in certain matters, corresponding to section 287A of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. Notably, the Committee find that the provisions of the existing Section 287A have been divided between Clause 513 and a newly introduced Clause 514. The new Clause 514 now outlines the method for registering valuers by specified Income-tax authorities. Acknowledging the Ministry's assurance that the proposed provisions in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 are a simplified version of their counterparts in the IT Act, 1961, the Committee accept Clause 513 as proposed.

Clause 514: Registration of valuers.

514.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"(1) The Principal Chief Commissioner or Chief Commissioner, or the Principal Director General or Director General, shall maintain a register of valuers in which the names and addresses of persons registered under sub-section (2) shall be entered.

(2) Any person, possessing such qualification for valuing such class of assets, may apply to the Principal Chief Commissioner or Chief Commissioner, or the Principal Director General or Director General, for getting registered as a valuer, in such form, verified in such manner and accompanied by such fee, as prescribed, along with a declaration stating that the applicant will—

(a) conduct an impartial and true valuation of any asset required to be valued;

(b) furnish a valuation report in the prescribed form;

(c) charge fees not exceeding the prescribed rate or rates; and

(d) refrain from undertaking the valuation of any asset in which such person has a direct or indirect interest.

(3) The valuation report prepared by a registered valuer for any asset shall be in such form and verified in such manner, as prescribed."

514.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

This is a new clause introduced in the Bill.

514.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 514 of the Bill provides for Registration of valuers. This is a new clause introduced in the bill to enable registration of valuers by specified Income-tax authorities and also other procedural matters connected with valuation."

514.4 Important Views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders:

Some important suggestions received from the stakeholder regarding the clause under examination are as follows:

514.4.1 "NAFRA Companies (Registered Valuers and Valuation) Rules, 2017 prescribed pursuant to Section 247 of Companies Act 2013 contain comprehensive requirements regarding eligibility, qualifications and registrations of valuers, recognition of registered valuers organisation and valuation standards etc. We suggest inclusion of reference to some important requirements of registered valuers in the IT bill 2025 with corresponding details being set out in the underlying Rules. (It may be considered aligning the qualifications/eligibility of a registered valuer with the prescriptions incorporated in the Rules framed under the Companies Act, 2013 to ensure that the valuer has the expertise to value certain class of assets."

514.4.2 The term "Competent Authority" may be used in place of the different authorities. Accordingly, sub-sections (1) and (2) may be substituted as follows: (1) The Competent Authority shall maintain a register of valuers in which the names and addresses of persons registered under sub-section (2) shall be entered. (2) Any person, possessing such qualification for valuing such class of assets, may apply to the Competent Authority, for getting registered as a valuer,……. Further, the following sub-section (4) may be inserted - (4) In this section "The Competent Authority" means the Principal Chief Commissioner or Chief Commissioner, or the Principal Director General or Director General

Including the authorities within the meaning of "Competent Authority" will help avoid repetition at different places."

514.5 Examination by the Committee

The Ministry in response to the suggestions by the stakeholder has furnished in written replies as under:

514.5.1 "Accepted. The qualifications for a registered valuer may have to be prescribed under the provisions of the new Bill. This would require drafting correction in clause 514. The suggestion is acceptable to that extent."

514.5.2 "The suggestion seeks to use the term "Competent Authority" in place of the different authorities in clause 514(Registration of valuers).
The suggestion is in nature of drafting improvement without any concomitant benefits. Thus, the suggestion is not feasible."

514.5.3 On Ministry's assurance regarding drafting correction in clause 514 to include qualification for a registered valuers, the Committee particularly desired to be apprised of the robust legal mechanism that the Ministry proposes to put in place to ensure absolute clarity and prevent future interpretive ambiguities for valuers, tax authorities, and courts regarding the interplay between the Income-Tax Bill and the Companies Act Rules, thereby safeguarding the legal certainty in valuation practices for tax purposes. The Ministry reassured the Committee as under:

> "The clause 514 of the Bill provides for prescription of any person, possessing such qualification for valuing such class of assets, for getting registered as a valuer, in such form, verified in such manner and accompanied by such fee, as prescribed. In the Bill, the related provisions are brought from the Wealth Tax Act. The suggestion regarding qualifications pertains to rules and delegated legislation. Further, section 247 of Companies Act 2013 and NAFRA Companies (Registered Valuers and Valuation) Rules, 2017 will be perused in detail at the time for drafting relating rules."

514.6 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee

The Committee note the introduction of Clause 514 in the Bill, which establishes a framework for the registration of valuers by specified Income-tax authorities and addresses related procedural matters. The Committee also note that in response to a stakeholder's suggestion for prescribing specific qualifications for registered valuers to ensure expertise in valuing certain asset classes, the Ministry has concurred that this constitutes a necessary drafting correction. The Ministry has further assured the Committee that Section 247 of the Companies Act, 2013, and the NAFRA Companies (Registered Valuers and Valuation) Rules, 2017, will be thoroughly reviewed during the drafting of the relevant rules. Having considered the perspectives of both stakeholders and the Ministry, the Committee accept Clause 514 as proposed, subject to the incorporation of the aforementioned drafting correction.

Clause 515: Appearance by authorised representative

515.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"(1) An assessee, entitled or required to attend before any income-tax authority or the Appellate Tribunal for any proceeding under this Act, may attend through an authorised representative.

(2) The provisions of sub-section (1) shall not apply where an assessee is required to attend personally for examination on oath or affirmation under section 246.

(3) In this section,—

(a) "authorised representative" means a person authorised by the assessee, in writing, to appear on his behalf, being—

(i) a person related to or regularly employed by the assessee in any manner; or

(ii) any officer of a scheduled bank with which the assessee maintains a current account or has other regular dealings; or

(iii) any legal practitioner, who is entitled to practise in any civil court in India; or

(iv) an accountant; or

(v) any person, who has passed any accountancy examination recognised by the Board; or

(vi) any person, who has acquired such educational qualifications, as prescribed; or

(vii) any person who, before the coming into force of the Income-tax Act, 1961 in the Union territory of Dadra and Nagar Haveli, Goa, Daman and Diu, or Pondicherry, attended before an income-tax authority in the said territory on behalf of any assessee otherwise than as an employee or relative of that assessee; or

(viii) any other person who, immediately before the coming into force of the said Act, was an income-tax practitioner as per section 61(2)(iv) of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, and was actually practising as such;

(ix) any other person as prescribed;

(b) "accountant" means a chartered accountant as defined in section 2(1)(b) of the Chartered Accountants Act, 1949, who holds a valid certificate of practice under section 6(1) of that Act, but does not include [except for representing the assessee under sub-section (1)],—

(i) in case of an assessee, being a company, a person who is not eligible for appointment as an auditor of the said company under section 141(3) of the Companies Act, 2013; or

(ii) in any other case,—

(A) the assessee himself, or in the case of being a firm or association of persons or a Hindu undivided family, any partner of such firm or a member of such association or such Hindu undivided family;

(B) for an assessee, being a trust or institution, any person referred to in section 355(h)(i) or (ii) or (iii) or (iv);

(C) for any person other than the persons referred to in sub-clauses (A) and (B), the person who is competent to verify the return under section 263 as per section 265;

(D) any relative of any of the persons referred to in sub-clauses (A), (B) and (C);

(E) an officer or employee of the assessee;

(F) an individual, who, is a partner, or who is in the employment, of an officer or employee of the assessee;

(G) an individual, who or his relative or partner—

(I) is holding any security of, or interest in, the assessee and the face value of such security or interest held by his relative does not exceed one lakh rupees;

(II) is indebted to the assessee, and such debt in case of his relative does not exceed one lakh rupees;

(III) has given a guarantee or provided security in connection with the indebtedness of a third person to the assessee and such relative gives a guarantee or provides security for an amount not exceeding one lakh rupees;

(H) a person who, whether directly or indirectly, has business relationship with the assessee of such nature, as prescribed;

(I) a person convicted by a court of an offence involving fraud and ten years has not elapsed from the date of such conviction.

(4) No person,—

(a) who has been dismissed or removed from Government service; or

(b) who has been convicted of an offence connected with any income-tax proceeding or on whom a penalty has been imposed under this Act, except a penalty imposed under section 275(1)(ii) of the Income-tax Act, 1961 or section 465(1)(d); or

(c) who has become an insolvent; or

(d) who has been convicted by a court for an offence involving fraud, shall be qualified to represent an assessee under sub-section (1), for—

(i) all times, in case of a person referred to in clause (a);

(ii) for such time as the Principal Chief Commissioner or Chief Commissioner or Principal Commissioner or Commissioner may by order determine, in case of a person referred to in clause (b);

(iii) for the period during which the insolvency continues, in case of a person referred to in clause (c); and

(iv) for ten years from the date of conviction, in case of a person referred to in clause (d).

(5) If a person,—

(a) who is a legal practitioner or an accountant, is found guilty of misconduct in his professional capacity by any authority authorised to institute disciplinary proceedings against him, the order passed by that authority shall affect his right to attend before an income-tax authority in the same manner as it affects his right to practise as a legal practitioner or accountant, as the case may be;

(b) who is not a legal practitioner or an accountant, and is found guilty of misconduct in any income-tax proceedings by the prescribed income-tax authority, may be directed by such authority that he shall henceforth be disqualified from representing an assessee under sub-section (1).

(6) Every order or direction under sub-section (4)(b) or (5)(b) shall be subject to the following conditions:—

(a) no such order or direction shall be made against any person unless he has been given a reasonable opportunity of being heard;

(b) any person against whom such an order or direction is made may, within one month of the said order or direction, appeal to the Board to have the order or direction cancelled; and

(c) no such order or direction shall take effect until one month has passed from the making thereof, or, if an appeal has been filed, until the disposal of the appeal.

(7) A person disqualified to represent an assessee by virtue of section 61(3) of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922 or section 288(5) of the Income-tax Act, 1961 shall be disqualified to represent an assessee under sub-section (1).

(8) In this section, "relative", in relation to an individual, means—

(a) spouse of the individual;

(b) brother or sister of the individual;

(c) brother or sister of the spouse of the individual;

(d) any lineal ascendant or descendant of the individual;

(e) any lineal ascendant or descendant of the spouse of the individual;

(f) spouse of a person referred to in clauses (b), (c), (d) or (e);

(g) any lineal descendant of a brother or sister of either the individual or the spouse of the individual."

515.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 288: Appearance by authorized representative.

"288 (1) Any assessee who is entitled or required to attend before any income-tax authority or the Appellate Tribunal in connection with any proceeding under this Act otherwise than when required under section 131 to attend personally for examination on oath or affirmation, may, subject to the other provisions of this section, attend by an authorised representative.

(2) For the purposes of this section, "authorised representative" means a person authorised by the assessee in writing to appear on his behalf, being—

(i) a person related to the assessee in any manner, or a person regularly employed by the assessee; or

(ii) any officer of a Scheduled Bank with which the assessee maintains a current account or has other regular dealings; or

(iii) any legal practitioner who is entitled to practise in any civil court in India; or

(iv) an accountant; or

(v) any person who has passed any accountancy examination recognised in this behalf by the Board; or

(vi) any person who has acquired such educational qualifications as the Board may prescribe for this purpose; or

(via) any person who, before the coming into force of this Act in the Union territory of Dadra and Nagar Haveli, Goa, Daman and Diu, or Pondicherry, attended before an income-tax authority in the said territory on behalf of any assessee otherwise than in the capacity of an employee or relative of that assessee; or

(vii) any other person who, immediately before the commencement of this Act, was an income-tax practitioner within the meaning of clause (iv) of sub-section (2) of section 61 of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922 (11 of 1922), and was actually practising as such;

(viii) any other person as may be prescribed.

Explanation.—In this section, "accountant" means a chartered accountant as defined in clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 2 of the Chartered Accountants Act, 1949 (38 of 1949) who holds a valid certificate of practice under sub-section (1) of section 6 of that Act, but does not include [except for the purposes of representing the assessee under sub-section (1)]—

(a) in case of an assessee, being a company, the person who is not eligible for appointment as an auditor of the said company in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (3) of section 141 of the Companies Act, 2013 (18 of 2013); or

(b) in any other case,—

(i) the assessee himself or in case of the assessee, being a firm or association of persons or Hindu undivided family, any partner of the firm, or member of the association or the family;

(ii) in case of the assessee, being a trust or institution, any person referred to in clauses (a), (b), (c) and (cc) of sub-section (3) of section 13;

(iii) in case of any person other than persons referred to in sub-clauses (i) and (ii), the person who is competent to verify the return under section 139 in accordance with the provisions of section 140;

(iv) any relative of any of the persons referred to in sub-clauses (i), (ii) and (iii);

(v) an officer or employee of the assessee;

(vi) an individual who is a partner, or who is in the employment, of an officer or employee of the assessee;

(vii) an individual who, or his relative or partner—

(I) is holding any security of, or interest in, the assessee:

Provided that the relative may hold security or interest in the assessee of the face value not exceeding one hundred thousand rupees;

(II) is indebted to the assessee:

Provided that the relative may be indebted to the assessee for an amount not exceeding one hundred thousand rupees;

(III) has given a guarantee or provided any security in connection with the indebtedness of any third person to the assessee:

Provided that the relative may give guarantee or provide any security in connection with the indebtedness of any third person to the assessee for an amount not exceeding one hundred thousand rupees;

(viii) a person who, whether directly or indirectly, has business relationship with the assessee of such nature as may be prescribed;

(ix) a person who has been convicted by a court of an offence involving fraud and a period of ten years has not elapsed from the date of such conviction.

(3) []

(4) No person—

(a) who has been dismissed or removed from Government service after the 1st day of April, 1938; or

(b) who has been convicted of an offence connected with any income-tax proceeding or on whom a penalty has been imposed under this Act, other than a penalty imposed on him under clause (ii) of sub- section (1) of section 271 or clause (d) of sub-section (1) of section 272A; or

(c) who has become an insolvent; or

(d) who has been convicted by a court for an offence involving fraud, shall be qualified to represent an assessee under sub-section (1), for all times in the case of a person referred to in clause (a), for such time as the Principal Chief Commissioner or Chief Commissioner or Principal Commissioner or Commissioner may by order determine in the case of a person referred to in clause (b), for the period during which the insolvency continues in the case of a person referred to in clause (c), and for a period of ten years from the date of conviction in the case of a person referred to in clause (d).

(5) If any person—

(a) who is a legal practitioner or an accountant is found guilty of misconduct in his professional capacity by any authority entitled to institute disciplinary proceedings against him, an order passed by that authority shall have effect in relation to his right to attend before an income-tax authority as it has in relation to his right to practise as a legal practitioner or accountant, as the case may be;

(b) who is not a legal practitioner or an accountant, is found guilty of misconduct in connection with any income-tax proceedings by the prescribed authority, the prescribed authority may direct that he shall thenceforth be disqualified to represent an assessee under sub-section (1).

(6) Any order or direction under clause (b) of sub-section (4) or clause (b) of sub-section (5) shall be subject to the following conditions, namely :—

(a) no such order or direction shall be made in respect of any person unless he has been given a reasonable opportunity of being heard;

(b) any person against whom any such order or direction is made may, within one month of the making of the order or direction, appeal to the Board to have the order or direction cancelled; and

(c) no such order or direction shall take effect until the expiration of one month from the making thereof, or, where an appeal has been preferred, until the disposal of the appeal.

(7) A person disqualified to represent an assessee by virtue of the provisions of sub-section (3) of section 61 of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922 (11 of 1922), shall be disqualified to represent an assessee under sub-section (1).

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, "relative" in relation to an individual, means—

(a) spouse of the individual;

(b) brother or sister of the individual;

(c) brother or sister of the spouse of the individual;

(d) any lineal ascendant or descendant of the individual;

(e) any lineal ascendant or descendant of the spouse of the individual;

(f) spouse of a person referred to in clause (b), clause (c), clause (d) or clause(e)

(g) any lineal descendant of a brother or sister of either the individual or the spouse of the individual."

515.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 515 of the Bill provides for appearance by authorized representative. This clause corresponds to section 288 of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

515.4 Important Views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders:

Some important suggestions received from the stakeholders in the clause under examination are as follows:

A. 'Authorised Representative'

515.4.1 “Define the word 'Authorised Representative' under Section 2 itself to clarify the scope of roles in Section 515 (3).”

515.4.2 “(In 515(3)(a)(iii)) The word “any Legal practitioner” may be replaced by the word “an Advocate” as well as the word “any Civil Court” may be replaced by the word “any Civil Court or other Higher Court”.

515.4.3 In context of, 515(3)(vi), “Rename it as ``Income Tax Practitioner`` since a qualified person is called an Income Tax Practitioner only. Restore the representation rights as in the 1922 Income-Tax Act. (However all eligible qualifications specified will lead to the issuance of the ``Income Tax Practitioner enrolment`` only).”

515.4.4 “Insert a new clause (ix) to include Income Tax Practitioners Enrolled with the Income Tax Department as per the existing provisions of Section 288 (2) (vi) of the Income-Tax Act, 1961Clause (xi) be introduced as ``any other person as prescribed” To ensure the legacy Tax Practitioners are smoothly transitioned, included as similar to Section 515 (3) (vii) & (viii).”

515.4.5 “Allow GST Practitioners enrolled under the provisions of CGST/SGST/UTGST laws as Authorised Representatives. GST law has parallel experience and qualifications and GST Law covers supply turnovers of Business/Profession/Commission and related activities and has exhaustive provisions for maintaining the documents, records & Books of Accounts.”

515.4.6 Definition of "accountant" under the bill, and its potential ramifications for MSMEs and the professional landscape Prioritize the reinstatement of CSs in the definition of "accountant" under the Income-Tax Bill 2025.

515.4.7 In context of 515(3)(b), “In order to ensure the quality of audit and certifications under the Income-tax Act, 1961, it needs to be ensured that the role of an “accountant” as defined in clause 515(3)(b) of the Income-tax Bill, 2025 in line with the definition in the Explanation appended to section 288(2) of the Income-tax Act, 1961 continues to be restricted exclusively to chartered accountants in practice, who alone possess the requisite professional competence & expertise to perform the said audit and certifications efficiently and effectively. Reasons: (i) Judicial Recognition of Chartered Accountants as sole expert in the area of accounting and auditing (ii) Different and distinct areas of expertise of Chartered Accountants vis-à-vis Cost Accountants & Company Secretaries (iii) competence of Chartered Accountants to perform tax audit. Therefore, it is Chartered Accountants alone who by virtue of their qualification, training, experience and expertise were accorded the status of “Accountant” under the Income-tax Act, 1961 and the same has been upheld by the judiciary including the Supreme Court in the above referred cases.”

515.4.8 Numerous stakeholders have made suggestion for expanding the definition of ‘Accountant’ to include other professionals. There suggestions are as under:

> *“*The Parliamentary Standing Committee on Finance (2022) had already recognized this issue and proposed the establishment of the Indian Institute of Accounting (IIA) to break the statutory monopoly of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) The objective was to ensure fair competition and improve the quality of financial and taxation services available to the public, similar to how IITs and IIMs broaden opportunities in engineering and management education However, the recent Income-Tax Bill contradicts this intent by reinforcing the monopoly of a single profession over tax-related work.”

515.4.9 “Meaning of “accountant” should be enlarged by adding Cost and Management Accountant as defined in the Cost and Management Accountant Act – 1966, Company Secretary as defined in The Company Secretaries Act 1980, and M.Com (Specialization in Accountancy) with LLB degree holder, because that “accountant” meaning was elaborated in The Income-Tax Act 1961 whenever only Chartered Accountants Act, 1949 was enforced in India.”

515.4.10 “Inclusion of Company Secretary (CS) in the definition of "Accountant". “accountant" means a chartered accountant as defined in section 2(1)(b) of the Chartered Accountants Act, 1949 who holds a valid certificate of practice under section 6(1) of that Act or a Company Secretary as defined in section 2(1)(c) of the Company Secretaries Act, 1980, who holds a valid certificate of practice under Section 6 (1) of that Act, but does not include..”

515.4.11 “Definition should be inserted to sustain in court of law May refer section 2(13) & 66(1) of the CGST ACT, 2017.Include Cost Accountant under section 515(3)(b). Justification: It will be clear to all stake holders and enhance the revenue, mitigate the disputes, availability of more professional tax experts to the assessee and government will get qualitative report within the due date and due to competition quality of tax audit or especial tax audit report will enhance.”

B. Suggestion regarding proviso (4) of the Clause under examination (515(4))

515.4.12 (4) No person,— (a) who has been dismissed or removed from Government service; or (b) who has been convicted of an offence connected with any income-tax proceeding or on whom a penalty has been imposed under this Act, except a penalty imposed under section ~~275(1)(ii)~~ 271(1)(ii) of the Income-tax Act, 1961 or section 465(1)(d); or

There is no Clause (ii) under 275(1) of the Income-tax Act, 1961. In clause (b), the reference to Section 275(1)(ii) to be corrected as 271(1)(ii)."

C. Suggestion regarding Clause 515(5)(b)

515.4.13 Regarding Clause 515(5)(b), the stakeholder stated that there is no corresponding Section in Income-Tax Act, 1961. The provision is covered under Rules. The stakeholder has suggested as under:

" Disqualification of Authorised Representatives, other than a Legal Practitioner or Accountant.
To Regulate and monitor the activities of un-regulated Authorised Representatives (including enrolled Income Tax Practitioners)"

515.5 Examination by the Committee:

A. The Ministry in response to various suggestions by the stakeholder has furnished the corresponding written replies as under:

515.5.1 "The suggestion seeks to include definition of Authorised Representative' under Section 2 itself. The suggestion is in nature of drafting improvement. Cl. 515 is a self-contained section. Therefore the suggestion is not feasible."

515.5.2 "The proposal here is with regard to 515(3)(a)(iii), which states that 'any legal practitioner, who is entitled to practise in any civil court in India'.
1. The first suggestion is to replace the term "any Legal practitioner" with the words "an Advocate". It is in the nature of Policy Change which is outside the scope of the Bill. There is no change in the provisions of the Bill vis-a-vis Act.
Section (1) of Advocates Act 1961, defines "(a) "advocate" means an advocate entered in any roll under the provisions of this Act;
(i) "legal practitioner" means an advocate or vakil of any High Court, a pleader, mukhtar or revenue agent;"
The term 'legal practitioner' is wider and includes 'advocate'. Therefore, the proposal is not acceptable."
The second suggestion of replacing the word "any Civil Court" with the phrase "any Civil Court or other Higher Court" is not acceptable as even Supreme Court is included in civil court."

515.5.3 “The suggestion seeks to rename "any person, who has acquired such educational qualifications, as prescribed" as ``Income Tax Practitioners``. Any delegated legislation which is required to be made through prescription vide rules need not be clarified in the primary legislation. Thus, the suggestion is not feasible.”

515.5.4 “The suggestion seeks to include "Income Tax return practitioners" as authorised representative in 515(3)(ix).ITP is already included in cl. 515(3)(viii). There is no ambiguity. Thus, the suggestion is already addressed.”

515.5.5 “The suggestion seeks to allow GST Practitioners enrolled under the provisions of CGST/SGST/UTGST laws as Authorised Representatives`. It is in the nature of Policy Change .
There are separate qualification for a GST practitioner under CGST/SGST/UTGST and for an authorised representative under clause 515. They may not have enough expertise to represent income-tax cases. This is so because the functions and laws thereof are different. Thus, the suggestion is not feasible.”

515.5.6 On the issue of definition of ‘Accountant’ and its potential ramifications for MSMEs, the Ministry in a written reply stated as under:

> “The stakeholder seeks inclusion of company secretaries in the definition of accountant.
> The suggestion made by the stakeholder is in the nature of policy change which is beyond the scope of the objectives of the IT Bill, 2025. There is no change in the provisions of the Bill vis a vis Act.”

515.5.7 Responding to stakeholder’s suggestions to restrict the definition of "accountant” in Section 515(3)(b) exclusively to chartered accountants in practice for audit and certifications, arguing their unique expertise, the Ministry stated as under:

> *“*The suggestion made by the stakeholder is in the nature of policy change which is beyond the scope of the objectives of the IT Bill, 2025 “

515.5.8 In response to multiple suggestions received from various stakeholders regarding expanding the scope of definition of ‘Accountant’ to include various professionals, the Ministry categorically stated as follows:

> “The suggestion made by the stakeholder is in the nature of policy change which is beyond the scope of the objectives of the IT Bill, 2025.”

515.5.9 Responding to Committee’s further query on the issue, the Ministry clarified on the issue of parity in Cost Accountant and Chartered Accountants under Clause 515, and furnished a detailed note in written replies as under:

"Cost Accountant's parity issue:

The functions of a cost account are regulated and governed by the Cost and Works Accountants Act 1959. The Act clearly lays down that a member of the Institute shall be in practice if he :-

"(i) engages himself in the practice of [cost accountancy]; or

(ii) offers to perform or performs services involving the costing or pricing of goods or services or the preparation, verification or [certification or auditing of cost accounting and related statements or holds himself out to the public as a cost accountant in practice]; or

(iii) renders professional services or assistance in or about matters of principle or detail relating to cost accounting procedure or the recording, presentation or certification of costing facts or data; or

(iv) renders such other services as, in the opinion of the Council, are or may be rendered by a cost accountant in practice,"

By comparison a chartered accountant under the Chartered Accountant Act 1949 lays down that member shall be in practice if :-

"(i) engages himself in the practice of accountancy; or

(ii) offers to perform or performs services involving the auditing or verification of financial transactions, books, accounts, or records or the preparation, verification or certification of financial accounting and related statements or holds himself out to the public as an accountant; or

(iii) renders professional services or assistance in or about matters of principle or detail relating to accounting procedure or the recording, presentation or certification of financial facts or data; or

(iv) renders such other services as, in the opinion of the Council, are or may be rendered by a chartered accountant [in practice];"

515.5.10 In continuation of the response to the issue under examination, the Ministry further clarified that parent legislations of cost accountants and chartered accountants are different and elaborated in written replies as follows:

"It is therefore clear that the parent legislations of cost accountants and chartered accountants are different and lay down specific functions. The functions mandated in the Income-tax Act related to audit and accounting, do not find a place in the domain of work specified for cost accountants in their Act. Whereas audit of books and financial transactions is specifically included in Chartered accountant's Act.

Therefore the basic issue that a cost accountant can be or should be considered equivalent for the purposes of tax audit does not hold merit. It is principally limited by the respective Acts and till such demarcations exist the audit related function under the Income-tax Act have to be handled by Chartered Accountants only."

515.5.11 On the issue of enlarging the pool of professionals to represent the assessee, the Ministry in written replies stated as under:

"At present, there are various class of professionals who can appear on behalf of assessee as authorized representative as has been provided in cl 515(3)(a)(i) to (ix) of the Bill. There is already large pool of professional who are qualified to appear on behalf of the assessee as authorized representative.

Ministry cannot introduce any bridge course and qualifying papers for any class of professionals. Ministry can only recognize any accountancy exam or can prescribe educational qualification to enable a person to appear as authorized representative on behalf of the assessee."

B. Suggestion regarding proviso (4) of the Clause under examination (515(4))

515.5.12 The Ministry in response to the suggestions by the stakeholder regarding drafting correction in clause 515(4) has accepted and furnished in written replies as under:

"Accepted. It is nature of drafting correction."

C. Suggestion regarding Clause 515(5)(b)

515.5.13 The Ministry in response to suggestion by the stakeholder regarding modification in Clause 515(5)(b), in written replies furnished as follows:

"The suggestion seeks that unregulated ARs should be regulated. Cl. 515(5)(b) already covers misconduct of persons other than legal practitioner or accountant. The suggestion is already addressed."

515.5.14 In regard to reference to the repealed Income-Tax Act, 1922, the Revenue Secretary deposed before the Committee as under:

“अब आपने जो सलाह दी है, उसके हिसाब से हम लोग यह कोशिश कर रहे हैं कि सेविंग्स क्लॉज़ में ही इसकी स्पेसिफिकसिटी को किसी एक एनेक्सचर के रूप में ले आएं, ताकि, एक्ट में पुराने एक्ट का रेफरेंस न रहे।“

515.5.15 He further added as follows:

“कनसेप्च्युअली सेविंग्स क्लॉज़ में किस तरह से जोड़े, ताकि आपकी यह जो एक्सपेक्टेशन है कि नए एक्ट में पुराने एक्ट का रेफरेंस सदाकाल के लिए न रहे, उसे हम लोग स्टडी करके आपको अलग से रिवाइज्ड फॉर्म में बताएंगे।“

515.6 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee

The Committee observe that Clause 515 of the Bill, which governs appearances by authorized representatives, aligns with Section 288 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Ministry has asserted that this clause maintains the existing policy, merely simplifying the text. However, a stakeholder identified a drafting error in sub-clause (4)(b) of Clause 515, where it incorrectly refers to Section 275(1)(ii) instead of Section 271(1)(ii). The Ministry has acknowledged this error, and the Committee, therefore, recommend its correction.

The Committee note that in Clause 515 references have been made to Income-Tax Act, 1922 and Income-Tax Act, 1961. Considering the stated aims and objectives of the Bill, the Committee recommend that references to both the Acts may be omitted in Clause 515 and the relevant proviso may be incorporated under Repeals and Savings clause viz. Clause 536 of the Bill.

After having considered the views of stakeholders and the Ministry, the Committee accept Clause 515 as it stands, with the exception of the above recommendations.

Clause 516: Rounding off of amount of total income, or tax payable or refundable.

516.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"The amount of total income computed or any amount payable or refundable under this Act, shall be rounded off to the nearest multiple of ten rupees ignoring any part of a rupee consisting of paise and thereafter if such amount is not a multiple of ten, then—

(a) such amount shall be increased to the next higher amount which is a multiple of ten, if the last figure in that amount is five or more; or

(b) such amount shall be reduced to the next lower amount which is a multiple of ten, if the last figure is less than five, and the amount so rounded off shall be deemed to be the total income of the assessee or the amount payable and refund due, under this Act."

516.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 288A: Rounding off of income.

"The amount of total income computed in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Act shall be rounded off to the nearest multiple of ten rupees and for this purpose any part of a rupee consisting of paise shall be ignored and thereafter if such amount is not a multiple of ten, then, if the last figure in that amount is five or more, the amount shall be increased to the next higher amount which is a multiple of ten and if the last figure is less than five, the amount shall be reduced to the next lower amount which is a multiple of ten; and the amount so rounded off shall be deemed to be the total income of the assessee for the purposes of this Act."

". Any amount payable, and the amount of refund due, under the provisions of this Act shall be rounded off to the nearest multiple of ten rupees and for this purpose any part of a rupee consisting of paise shall be ignored and thereafter if such amount is not a multiple of ten, then, if the last figure in that amount is five or more, the amount shall be increased to the next higher amount which is a multiple of ten and if the last figure is less than five, the amount shall be reduced to the next lower amount which is a multiple of ten."

516.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 516 of the Bill provides for rounding off of amount of total in-come, or tax payable or refundable. This clause corresponds to section 288A and 288B of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing sections have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause. Section 288A and 288B has been merged into single section considering that both the sections were related to rounding off."

516.4 Examination by the Committee:

Responding to the Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause in the Bill with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with regard to any addition or omission or replacement of words etc., the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

> "The provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of IT Act 1961".

516.5 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee while examining the Clause 516 of the Bill note that the Clause deals with rounding off of amount of total income, or tax payable or refundable and corresponds to sections 288A and 288B of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee observe that there is no policy change, however, existing Sections 288A and 288B have been merged into single section considering that both the sections were related to rounding off. The Committee take note of Ministry's justification that the provisions of the existing sections have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause 516 as proposed.

Clause 517: Receipt to be given.

517.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"A receipt shall be given for any money paid or recovered under this Act."

517.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 289: Receipt to be given.

"A receipt shall be given for any money paid or recovered under this Act."

517.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 517 of the Bill provides for receipt to be given. This clause corresponds to section 289 of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

517.4 Examination by the Committee:

On the Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause in the Bill with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961, the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

> "The provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of IT Act 1961".

517.5 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee note that Clause 517, which provides for receipt to be given, is in consonance with objectives of the Bill, therefore, the Clause may be made part of the Bill, as proposed by the Ministry.

Clause 518: Indemnity.

518.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"Every person deducting, retaining, or paying any tax in pursuance of this Act in respect of an income belonging to another person shall be indemnified for the deduction, retention, or payment thereof."

518.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 290: Indemnity.

"Every person deducting, retaining, or paying any tax in pursuance of this Act in respect of income belonging to another person is hereby indemnified for the deduction, retention, or payment thereof."

518.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 518 of the Bill provides for indemnity. This clause corresponds to section 290 of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

518.4 Examination by the Committee:

Regarding the Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause in the Bill with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with regard to any addition or omission or replacement of words etc. alongwith the justification for the proposed modification, the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

> "The provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of IT Act 1961".

518.5 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee note that Clause 518 of the Bill outlines indemnity, akin to Section 290 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee further note that this Clause is only a textual simplification, consistent with the objectives of the Bill. Therefore, the Committee accept the Clause as proposed by the Ministry.

Clause 519: Power to tender immunity from prosecution.

519.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"(1) The Central Government may, if it is of the opinion that with a view to obtaining the evidence of any person appearing to have been directly or indirectly concerned in or privy to the concealment of income or to the evasion of payment of tax on income it is necessary or expedient so to do, for reasons to be recorded in writing, tender to such person,—

(a) immunity from prosecution for any offence under this Act or under the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023, or under any other Central Act in force; and

(b) from imposition of any penalty under this Act on condition of his making a full and true disclosure of the whole circumstances relating to the concealment of income or evasion of payment of tax on income.

(2) A tender of immunity made to, and accepted by, the person concerned, shall, to the extent to which the immunity extends, render him immune from prosecution for any offence in respect of which the tender was made, or from the imposition of any penalty under this Act.

(3) If it appears to the Central Government that any person to whom immunity has been tendered under this section—

(a) has not complied with the conditions on which the tender was made; or

(b) is wilfully concealing anything; or

(c) is giving false evidence,

the Central Government may record a finding to that effect, and thereupon the immunity shall be deemed to have been withdrawn.

(4) The person whose immunity has been withdrawn under sub-section (3) may be tried for the offence in respect of which the tender of immunity was made or for any other offence of which he appears to have been guilty in connection with the same matter and shall also become liable to imposition of any penalty under this Act to which he would otherwise have been liable."

519.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 291: Power to tender immunity from prosecution.

"(1) The Central Government may, if it is of opinion (the reasons for such opinion being recorded in writing) that with a view to obtaining the evidence of any person appearing to have been directly or indirectly concerned in or privy to the concealment of income or to the evasion of payment of tax on income it is necessary or expedient so to do, tender to such person immunity from prosecution for any offence under this Act or under the Indian Penal Code* (45 of 1860), or under any other Central Act for the time being in force and also from the imposition of any penalty under this Act on condition of his making a full and true disclosure of the whole circumstances relating to the concealment of income or evasion of payment of tax on income.

(2) A tender of immunity made to, and accepted by, the person concerned, shall, to the extent to which the immunity extends, render him immune from prosecution for any offence in respect of which the tender was made or from the imposition of any penalty under this Act.

(3) If it appears to the Central Government that any person to whom immunity has been tendered under this section has not complied with the condition on which the tender was made or is wilfully concealing anything or is giving false evidence, the Central Government may record a finding to that effect, and thereupon the immunity shall be deemed to have been withdrawn, and any such person may be tried for the offence in respect of which the tender of immunity was made or for any other offence of which he appears to have been guilty in connection with the same matter and shall also become liable to the imposition of any penalty under this Act to which he would otherwise have been liable.

519.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 519 of the Bill provides for power to tender immunity from prosecution. This clause corresponds to section 291 of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

519.4 Examination by the Committee:

On the Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause in the Bill with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with regard to any addition or omission or replacement of words etc., the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

> "The provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of IT Act 1961".

519.5 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

Clause 519 of the Income-Tax Bill 2025 which grants power to tender immunity from prosecution, corresponding to Section 291 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee find that this Clause has been reformulated by paraphrasing the existing provisions to enhance clarity and comprehension. Furthermore, noting that there is no policy change in this regard, the Committee accept Clause 519 as proposed.

Clause 520: Cognizance of offences

520.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"No court inferior to that of a Judicial Magistrate of the first class shall try any offence under this Act."

520.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 292: Cognizance of offences.

"No court inferior to that of a presidency magistrate or a magistrate of the first class shall try any offence under this Act."

520.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 520 of the Bill provides for cognizance of offences. This clause corresponds to section 292 of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

520.4 Examination by the Committee:

Regarding the Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause in the Bill with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with regard to any addition or omission or replacement of words etc. alongwith the justification for the proposed modification, the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

> "The provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of IT Act 1961".

520.5 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

Noting that Clause 520 of the Bill, dealing with cognizance of offences is a textual simplification of Section 292 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with the same intent, the Committee accept the Clause in its present form.

Clause 521: Probation of Offenders Act, 1958 and section 401 of Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023, not to apply

521.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"The provisions of section 401 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 and the Probation of Offenders Act, 1958 shall not apply to a person convicted of an offence under this Act unless that person is under eighteen years of age."

521.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 292A: Section 360 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973†, and the Probation of Offenders Act, 1958, not to apply.

"Nothing contained in section 360 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974), or in the Probation of Offenders Act, 1958 (20 of 1958), shall apply to a person convicted of an offence under this Act unless that person is under eighteen years of age.

521.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 521 of the Bill deals with 'probation of Offenders Act, 1958 and section 401 of Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023, not to apply'. This clause corresponds to section 292A of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause. However, reference of Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 has been replaced with reference of Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023."

521.4 Examination by the Committee:

521.4.1 Responding to the Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause in the Bill with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

> "The provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of IT Act 1961".

521.4.2 The Committee desired clarification that the age limit mentioned in section 401 of Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023, is 21 years while that in the Bill is 18 years. The Ministry in written replies justified as under:

> "Clause 521 of the Bill prescribes the provision relating to non-applicability of section 401 of Bhartiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 and Probation of Offenders Act, 1958. Clause 521 is the textually simplified version of the corresponding section 292A of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. There is no change in the provisions of clause 521 viz-a-viz section 292A of the Act. The Income-tax Act makes a reference to s. 360 of CrPC and CrPC also provided an age limit of 21 years for release of offender on probation on account of good conduct. Therefore, the matter requires detailed examination of CrPC(Bhartiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023) and also Probation of Offenders Act, 1958 in consultation with Law Ministry."

521.5 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee note that Clause 521 of the Bill, dealing with the non-application of the Probation of Offenders Act, 1958, and Section 401 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita (BNSS), 2023, directly corresponds to Section 292A of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. There are no underlying policy changes. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified in this clause while retaining their original intent, with the specific update of replacing the reference to the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, with the BNSS, 2023. The Committee accept Clause 521 as proposed.

522: Return of income, etc., not to be invalid on certain grounds

522.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"No return of income, assessment, notice, summons or other proceeding, furnished or made or issued or taken, or purported to have been furnished or made or issued or taken, in pursuance of any of the provisions of this Act, shall be invalid or shall be considered to be invalid merely by reason of any mistake, defect or omission in such return of income, assessment, notice, summons or other proceeding, if such return of income, assessment, notice, summons or other proceeding is in substance and effect in conformity with or according to the intent and purposes of this Act."

522.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 292B: Return of income, etc., not to be invalid on certain grounds.

" No return of income, assessment, notice, summons or other proceeding, furnished or made or issued or taken or purported to have been furnished or made or issued or taken in pursuance of any of the provisions of this Act shall be invalid or shall be deemed to be invalid merely by reason of any mistake, defect or omission in such return of income, assessment, notice, summons or other proceeding if such return of income, assessment, notice, summons or other proceeding is in substance and effect in conformity with or according to the intent and purpose of this Act."

522.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 522 of the Bill provides for return of income, etc., not to be invalid on certain grounds. This clause corresponds to section 292B of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

522.4 Examination by the Committee:

On the Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause in the Bill with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with regard to any addition or omission or replacement of words etc. alongwith the justification for the proposed modification, the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

"The provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of IT Act 1961".

522.5 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee while examining the Clause 522 of the Bill note that the Clause deals with return of income, etc., not to be invalid on certain grounds and corresponds to section 292B of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee observe that the provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause 522 as proposed.

Clause 523: Notice deemed to be valid in certain circumstances

523.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"(1) Where an assessee has appeared in any proceeding or co-operated in any inquiry relating to an assessment or reassessment, it shall be deemed that any notice under this Act, which is required to be served upon him, has been duly served upon him in time as per the provisions of this Act and such assessee shall be precluded from taking any objection in any proceeding or inquiry under this Act that the notice was—

(a) not served upon him; or
(b) not served upon him in time; or
(c) served upon him in an improper manner.

(2) The provisions of sub-section (1) shall not apply where the assessee has raised such objection before the completion of such assessment or reassessment.

523.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 292BB: Notice deemed to be valid in certain circumstances.
"Where an assessee has appeared in any proceeding or co-operated in any inquiry relating to an assessment or reassessment, it shall be deemed that any notice under any provision of this Act, which is required to be served upon him, has been duly served upon him in time in accordance with the provisions of this Act and such assessee shall be precluded from taking any objection in any proceeding or inquiry under this Act that the notice was—

(a) not served upon him; or
(b) not served upon him in time; or
(c) served upon him in an improper manner:

Provided that nothing contained in this section shall apply where the assessee has raised such objection before the completion of such assessment or reassessment."

523.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 523 of the Bill provides for notice deemed to be valid in certain circumstances. This clause corresponds to section 292BB of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

523.4 Examination by the Committee:

On the Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause in the Bill with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with regard to any addition or omission or replacement of words etc., the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

> "The provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of IT Act 1961".

523.5 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee note that Clause 523 of the Bill addresses notice deemed to be valid in certain circumstances, aligns with the existing Section 292BB and involves no policy shift. The Committee, therefore, accept Clause 523 as proposed by the Ministry.

Clause 524: Presumption as to assets, books of account, etc.

524.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"1) Where any books of account, other documents money, bullion, jewellery, virtual digital asset or other valuable article or thing, is found in the possession or control of any person in the course of a search under section 247 or survey under section 253, it may, in any proceeding under this Act, be presumed—

(a) that such books of account, other document, money, bullion, jewellery, virtual digital asset or other valuable article or thing belong or belongs to such person;

(b) that the contents of such books of account and other document are true;

(c) that the signature and every other part of such books of account and other document, which purports to be in the handwriting of any particular person, or which may reasonably be assumed to have been signed by, or to be in the handwriting of, any particular person, are in the handwriting of that person; and

(d) in the case of a document stamped, executed or attested, that it was duly stamped and executed or attested by the person by whom it purports to have been so executed or attested article or thing belong or belongs to such person;

(2) Where any books of account, other documents or assets have been delivered to the requisitioning officer as per section 248, then, the provisions of sub-section (1) shall apply as if such books of account, other documents or assets, which had been taken into custody from the person referred to in sub-section (1)(a) or (b) or (c) of the said section, had been found in the possession or control of that person in the course of a search under section 247."

524.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 292C: Presumption as to assets, books of account, etc.

" (1) Where any books of account, other documents, money, bullion, jewellery or other valuable article or thing are or is found in the possession or control of any person in the course of a search under section 132 or survey under section 133A, it may, in any proceeding under this Act, be presumed—

(i) that such books of account, other documents, money, bullion, jewellery or other valuable article or thing belong or belongs to such person;

(ii) that the contents of such books of account and other documents are true; and

(iii) that the signature and every other part of such books of account and other documents which purport to be in the handwriting of any particular person or which may reasonably be assumed to have been signed by, or to be in the handwriting of, any particular person, are in that person's handwriting, and in the case of a document stamped, executed or attested, that it was duly stamped and executed or attested by the person by whom it purports to have been so executed or attested.

(2) Where any books of account, other documents or assets have been delivered to the requisitioning officer in accordance with the provisions of section 132A, then, the provisions of sub-section (1) shall apply as if such books of account, other documents or assets which had been taken into custody from the person referred to in clause (a) or clause (b) or clause (c), as the case may be, of sub-section (1) of section 132A, had been found in the possession or control of that person in the course of a search under section 132."

524.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 524 of the Bill provides for presumption as to assets, books of account, etc. This clause corresponds to section 292C of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

524.4 Examination by the Committee:

Responding to the Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause in the Bill with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with regard to any addition or omission or replacement of words etc. alongwith the justification for the proposed modification, the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

> "The provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of IT Act 1961".

524.5 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee note that Clause 524 of the Bill provides for presumption as to assets, books of account, etc., aligns with existing Section 292C of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 but features simplified linguistic construction. Expressing their concurrence with the justification given by the Ministry of Finance (Department of Revenue) in this regard, the Committee accept Clause 524 as it is.

Clause 525: Authorisation and assessment in case of search or requisition

525.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"(1) Irrespective of anything contained in this Act,—

(a) it shall not be necessary to issue an authorisation under section 247 or make a requisition under section 248 separately in the name of each person;

(b) where an authorisation under section 247 has been issued or requisition under section 248 has been made mentioning therein the name of more than one person, the mention of such names of more than one person on such authorisation or requisition shall not be considered to construe that it was issued in the name of an association of persons or body of individuals consisting of such persons.

(2) Irrespective of an authorisation issued under section 247 or a requisition made under section 248 mentioning therein the name of more than one person, the assessment or reassessment shall be made separately in the name of each of the persons mentioned in such authorisation or requisition."

525.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 292CC: Authorisation and assessment in case of search or requisition.

" (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act,—

(i) it shall not be necessary to issue an authorisation under section 132 or make a requisition under section 132A separately in the name of each person;

(ii) where an authorisation under section 132 has been issued or requisition under section 132A has been made mentioning therein the name of more than one person, the mention of such names of more than one person on such authorisation or requisition shall not be deemed to construe that it was issued in the name of an association of persons or body of individuals consisting of such persons.

(2) Notwithstanding that an authorisation under section 132 has been issued or requisition under section 132A has been made mentioning therein the name of more than one person, the assessment or reassessment shall be made separately in the name of each of the persons mentioned in such authorisation or requisition

525.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 525 of the Bill provides for authorisation and assessment in case of search or requisition. This clause corresponds to section 292CC of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

525.4 Examination by the Committee:

On the Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause in the Bill with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with regard to any addition or omission or replacement of words etc. alongwith the justification for the proposed modification, the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

> "The provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of IT Act 1961".

525.5 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee note that Clause 525 outlines the framework for authorisation and assessment in case of search or requisition, aligns with the existing Section 292CC of the extant Act and involves no policy shift. They, therefore, accept Clause 525 as proposed by the Ministry.

Clause 526: Bar of suits in civil courts.

526.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"No suit shall be brought in any civil court to set aside or modify any proceeding taken or order made under this Act, and no prosecution, suit or other proceeding shall lie against the Government or any officer of the Government for anything in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act."

526.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 293: Bar of suits in civil courts.

" No suit shall be brought in any civil court to set aside or modify any proceeding taken or order made under this Act; and no prosecution, suit or other proceeding shall lie against the Government or any officer of the Government for anything in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act."

526.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 526 of the Bill provides for bar of suits in civil courts. This clause corresponds to section 293 of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

526.4 Examination by the Committee:

On the Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause in the Bill with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961, the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

"The provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of IT Act 1961".

526.5 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee while examining the Clause 526 of the Bill note that the Clause deals with bar of suits in civil courts and corresponds to section 293 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee observe that the provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause 526 as proposed.

Clause 527: Power to make exemption, etc., in relation to participation in business of prospecting for, extraction, etc., of mineral oils.

527.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"(1) If the Central Government is satisfied that it is necessary or expedient in the public interest, it may, by notification, make an exemption, reduction in rate, or other modification of income-tax for any class of persons specified in sub-section (2) or in regard to the whole or any part of the income of such class of persons or the status in which such class of persons or the members thereof are to be assessed on their income from the business referred to in sub-section (2)(a), effective from tax year beginning on or after 1st April, 1992.

(2) The persons referred to in sub-section (1) shall be the following:—

(a) persons with whom the Central Government has entered into agreements for the association or participation of that Government, or any person authorised by that Government in any business of prospecting for or extraction or production of mineral oils;

(b) persons providing any services or facilities or supplying any ship, aircraft, machinery or plant (whether by sale or hire) for any business consisting of the prospecting for or extraction or production of mineral oils carried on by that Government, or any person specified by that Government by notification; and

(c) employees of the persons referred to in clause (a) or (b).

(3) Every notification issued under this section shall be laid before each House of Parliament.

(4) In this section,—

(a) "mineral oil" includes petroleum and natural gas;

(b) "status" means the category of person as defined in section 2(77) under which the assessee is assessed."

527.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 293A: Power to make exemption, etc., in relation to participation in the business of prospecting for, extraction, etc., of mineral oils.

"(1) If the Central Government is satisfied that it is necessary or expedient so to do in the public interest, it may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make an exemption, reduction in rate or other modification in respect of income-tax in favour of any class of persons specified in sub-section (2) or in regard to the whole or any part of the income of such class of persons or in regard to the status in which such class of persons or the members thereof are to be assessed on their income from the business referred to in clause (a) of sub-section (2) :

Provided that the notification for modification in respect of the status may be given effect from an assessment year beginning on or after the 1st day of April, 1993.

(2) The persons referred to in sub-section (1) are the following, namely :—

(a) persons with whom the Central Government has entered into agreements for the association or participation of that Government or any person authorised by that Government in any business consisting of the prospecting for or extraction or production of mineral oils;

(b) persons providing any services or facilities or supplying any ship, aircraft, machinery or plant (whether by way of sale or hire) in connection with any business consisting of the prospecting for or extraction or production of mineral oils carried on by that Government or any person specified by that Government in this behalf by notification in the Official Gazette; and

(c) employees of the persons referred to in clause (a) or clause (b).

(3) Every notification issued under this section shall be laid before each House of Parliament.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section,—

(a) "mineral oil" includes petroleum and natural gas;

(b) "status" means the category under which the assessee is assessed as "individual", "Hindu undivided family" and so on."

527.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 527 of the Bill provides for power to make exemption, etc., in relation to participation in business of prospecting for, extraction, etc., of mineral oils. This clause corresponds to section 293A of the Act. there is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

527.4 Examination by the Committee:

527.4.1 Responding to the Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause in the Bill with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with regard to any addition or omission or replacement of words etc. alongwith the justification for the proposed modification, the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

> "The provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of IT Act 1961".

527.4.2 On the issue of inclusion of Shale Gas/ Oil Exploration and Exploitation to make the Bill comprehensive and future ready, the Ministry in written replies informed as under:

> "The issue may require examination of various aspects including discussion with stakeholders and revenue loss, if any. These are significant aspects of larger policy. Further, at present the stated policy of the Government is to phase out deductions and exemptions."

527.5 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee note that Clause 527 of the Bill lays down power to make exemption, etc. in relation to participation in business of prospecting for, extraction, etc., of mineral oils, corresponding to Section 293A of the Income-Tax Act 1961. Recognizing textual simplification, no policy change and retaining original intent in this Clause, the Committee accept the Clause 527 as proposed.

Clause 528: Power of Central Government or Board to condone delays in obtaining approval.

"Where, the approval of the Central Government or the Board is required to be obtained before a specified date under this Act, it shall be open to the Central Government or the Board to condone, for sufficient cause, any delay in obtaining such approval."

528.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 293B: Power of Central Government or Board to condone delays in obtaining approval.

"Where, under any provision of this Act, the approval of the Central Government or the Board is required to be obtained before a specified date, it shall be open to the Central Government or, as the case may be, the Board to condone, for sufficient cause, any delay in obtaining such approval."

528.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 528 of the Bill provides for power of Central Government or Board to condone delays in obtaining approval. This clause corresponds to section 293B of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

528.4 Examination by the Committee:

On the Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause in the Bill with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961, alongwith the justification for the proposed modification, the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

> "The provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of IT Act 1961".

528.5 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee while examining the Clause 528 of the Bill note that the Clause grants power to Central Government or Board to condone delays in obtaining approval, akin to Section 293B of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee observe that the provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause 528 as proposed.

Clause 529: Power to withdraw approval.

529.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"Where the Central Government or the Board or an income-tax authority, has the power to grant any approval under any provision of this Act to any assessee, the Central Government or the Board or such income-tax authority may, withdraw such approval at any time after recording the reasons therefor, even if such provision does not specifically allow for its withdrawal, after giving such a assessee areasonable opportunity of being heard.

529.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 293C: Power towithdrawapproval.

"Where the Central Government or the Board or an income-tax authority, who has been conferred upon the power under any provision of this Act to grant any approval to any assessee, the Central Government or the Board or such authority may, notwithstanding that a provision to withdraw such approval has not been specifically provided for in such provision, withdraw such approval at any time :

Provided that the Central Government or Board or income-tax authority shall, after giving a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against the proposed withdrawal to the assessee concerned, at any time, withdraw the approval after recording the reasons for doing so."

529.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 529 of the Bill provides for power to withdraw approval.This clause corresponds to section 293C of the Act.There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

529.4 Examination by the Committee:

On the Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause in the Bill with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with regard to any addition or omission or replacement of words etc. alongwith the justification for the proposed modification, the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

> "The provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of IT Act 1961".

529.5 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee note that Clause 529 of the Bill provides for power to withdraw approval. The Committee also note that this Clause is simplified textual version of existing Section 293C of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 maintaining Government original policy. The Committee observe that, beyond textual simplification, no policy change has been introduced in the provisions of this Clause. The Committee, therefore, approve Clause 529 as proposed by the Ministry.

Clause 530: Act to have effect pending legislative provision for charge of tax.

530.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"If on the 1st April in any tax year, provision has not yet been made by a Central Act for the charging of income-tax for that tax year, this Act shall nevertheless have effect until such provision is so made, as if the provision in force in the preceding tax year or the provision proposed in the Bill then before Parliament, whichever is more favourable to the assessee, were actually in force."

530.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 294: Act to have effect pending legislative provision for charge of tax.

"If on the 1st day of April in any assessment year provision has not yet been made by a Central Act for the charging of income-tax for that assessment year, this Act shall nevertheless have effect until such provision is so made as if the provision in force in the preceding assessment year or the provision proposed in the Bill then before Parliament, whichever is more favourable to the assessee, were actually in force.

530.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 530 of the Bill provides for Act to have effect pending legislative provision for charge of tax. This clause corresponds to section 294 of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

530.4 Examination by the Committee:

Regarding the Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause in the Bill with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with regard to any addition or omission or replacement of words etc., the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

> "The provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of IT Act 1961".

530.5 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee note that Clause 530 provides for Act to have effect pending legislative provision for charge of tax representative assessee, aligns with the provisions of Section 294 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee also note that the textual simplification of clause 530 is as per the objectives of the Bill and retaining the same intent. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause as proposed.

Clause 531: Power to rescind exemption in relation to certain Union territories already granted under section 294A of the Income-tax Act, 1961.

531.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"Where the Central Government considers it necessary or expedient so to do may, by general or special order, rescind an exemption, reduction in rate or other modification in respect of income-tax or super-tax in favour of any assessee or class of assessees or in regard to the whole or any part of the income of any assessee or class of assesses, made as per the provisions of section 294A of the Income-tax Act, 1961."

531.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 294A: Power to make exemption, etc., in relation to certain Union territories.

"If the Central Government considers it necessary or expedient so to do for avoiding any hardship or anomaly or removing any difficulty that may arise as a result of the application of this Act to the Union territories of Dadra and Nagar Haveli, Goa, Daman and Diu, and Pondicherry, or in the case of the Union territory of Pondicherry, for implementing any provision of the Treaty of Cession concluded between France and India on the 28th day of May, 1956, that Government may, by general or special order, make an exemption, reduction in rate or other modification in respect of income-tax or super-tax in favour of any assessee or class of assessees or in regard to the whole or any part of the income of any assessee or class of assessees :

Provided that the power conferred by this section shall not be exercisable after the 31st day of March, 1967, except for the purpose of rescinding an exemption, reduction or modification already made."

531.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 531 of the Bill provides for power to rescind exemption in relation to certain Union territories already granted under section 294A of the Income-tax Act, 1961. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause. However redundant provisions of the section 294A which were applicable before 31.03.1967, have been removed."

531.4 Examination by the Committee:

Responding to the Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause in the Bill with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with regard to any addition or omission or replacement of words etc., the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

> "The provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of IT Act 1961".

531.5 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee has examined Clause 531 of the Bill, which pertains to the revocation of tax exemptions previously granted to certain Union Territories under Section 294A of the Income-tax Act, 1961. The Committee note the Ministry's efforts to simplify the language of the original Section 294A while ensuring its core intent remains intact within this new clause. A significant change is the elimination of obsolete provisions from Section 294A, specifically those that became irrelevant after March 31, 1967.

In view of the reference to the Income-Tax Act, 1961 in Clause 531, the Committee recommend that in Clause 531 reference to the Act may be eliminated and the relevant proviso may be incorporated under Clause 536 related to Repeals and Savings.

The Committee conclude that Clause 531 is consistent with the Bill's overarching objectives and, therefore, approve it as proposed, subject to the aforesaid recommendation.

Clause 532: Power to frame schemes.

532.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"(1) The Central Government may, by notification, make a scheme for any of the purposes of this Act, so as to impart greater efficiency, transparency and accountability by—

(a) eliminating the interface with the assessee or any other person to the extent technologically feasible;

(b) optimising utilisation of the resources through economies of scale and functional specialisation.

(2) The Central Government may, for the purposes of giving effect to the scheme made under sub-section (1), by notification, direct that any of the provisions of this Act shall not apply or shall apply with such exceptions, modifications and adaptations as specified in the notification.

(3) Where a scheme has been notified under the provisions of the Income-tax Act, 1961 with a view to eliminating the interface with the assessee or any other person, the Central Government may by notification amend or modify the said scheme as per the provisions of sub-section (1), and the provisions of sub-section (2) shall apply accordingly.

(4) Every notification issued under sub-sections (1), (2) and (3) shall, as soon as may be after the notification is issued, be laid before each House of Parliament."

532.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

This is a new clause incorporated in the Bill.

532.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 532 of the Bill provides for power to frame schemes. This is a new clause incorporated in the Bill. On the same subject, there were multiple sections in the existing Income-tax Act, 1961, in which power to frame different schemes relating to faceless provisions was provided to the Central Government. There was no rationale to provide the same power at multiple places. With a view to rationalise and consolidate the provisions and remove repetition, omnibus clause 532 has been provided for."

532.4 Examination by the Committee:

532.4.1 On Committee's query regarding incorporation of new clause in the Bill, the Ministry in written replies informed as under:

> "Clause 532 is a new addition to the Bill, there is no change in the clause as far as the procedure to make the schemes are considered. The clause provides for making of a scheme by the Central Government, by notification, for any of the purposes of this Act, so as to impart greater efficiency, transparency and accountability by—

(a) eliminating the interface with the assessee or any other person to the extent technologically feasible;

(b) optimising utilisation of the resources through economies of scale and functional specialisation.

The clause further provides that every notification issued under sub-clauses (1), (2) and (3) of clause 532 shall, as soon as may be after the notification is issued, be laid before each House of Parliament. There is no departure on this account from the position present in the existing IT Act, 1961."

532.4.2 During the course of evidence, while deliberating upon the challenges being faced by the asseessee under the new regime in the faceless assessment regarding repeated notices being served on the same issue, the representative of the Ministry accepted the possibility for errors and elaborated on remedial measures undertaken as follows:

"हम टेक्नोलॉजी का ज्यादा से ज्यादा यूज करना चाहते हैं और उसमे फेसलेस प्रोसेस भी एक प्रयत्न है। उसमें हमें कांस्टेंट ओपन रहना चाहिए कि उसमें भी गलतियां हो सकती हैं। सॉफ्टवेयर और मशीन कोई ऐसी चीज नहीं है, उसमें भी कई बार गलतियां हो जाती हैं। उसमें लॉजिक गलत जा सकता है। उसमें कोई नोटिस दिया है और यदि कहीं से कोई गलत डेटा आ गया है तो बहुत बड़ी-बड़ी डिमांड आ जाती हैं।...हमारे ह्यूमन सिस्टम और आईटी सिस्टम में हमें हमेशा यह देखते हना होगा कि दोनों तरफ से सिटीजन की सहूलियत को बढ़ाएं और स्पष्टवादिता तथा सच को नपोर्ट करें। उसमें जहां-जहां पर भी गलतियां आती हैं, उनमें सुधार के लिए हमें सतत प्रयास करने होंगे।"

532.4.3 On Committee's particular query regarding any provision for assessee to sit across and explain his point of view to the Department, the Ministry in written replies submission stated as follows:

"There is no such facility in faceless system where the taxpayer can sit across and explain his point of view. However, for faceless assessment and appeal proceedings, video conferencing facilities have been introduced for appellate hearings. The department is also doing outreach with taxpayers, representatives to resolve technical issues as well as to improve the processes. The Department is also considering strengthening the operationalisation of e-kiosks (ASK centres) within the tax offices. These will provide digital infrastructure to taxpayers who lack the means or familiarity to engage with the faceless system independently."

532.5 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee note that Clause 532 of the Bill introduces a new provision that grants the power to frame various schemes. Previously, the Income-tax Act, 1961, contained multiple sections that separately empowered the Central Government to create schemes related to faceless provisions. The Committee observe that this approach lacked a clear rationale and led to avoidable repetition within the existing legislation. To address this, The Ministry has incorporated the Clause 532 as an omnibus clause, with the purpose of rationalizing and consolidating these provisions into a single, comprehensive power. The Committee find this consolidation to be a logical step that enhances clarity and removes redundancy.

The Committee note that in Clause 532 reference has been made to Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee are of the view that considering the objectives of the Bill, the reference to the Act may be omitted and the relevant proviso may be incorporated under Repeals and Savings clause viz. Clause 536 of the Bill.

Therefore, the Committee accept Clause 532 as proposed in the Bill, subject to the aforesaid recommendation.

533: Power to make rules.

533.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

(za) the issue of certificate verifying the payment of tax by assessees;

(zb) any other matter which by this Act is to be, or may be, prescribed.

(3) In cases, where the income liable to tax cannot be definitely ascertained, or can be ascertained only with an amount of trouble and expense to the assessee, which is unreasonable, the rules made under this section may—

(a) prescribe methods by which an estimate of such income may be made; and

(b) in cases of income derived in part from agriculture and in part from business, specify the proportion of the income which shall be considered to be income liable to tax, and an assessment based on such estimate or proportion shall be considered to be duly made as per this Act.

(4) The power to make rules conferred by this section shall include the power to give retrospective effect, from a date not earlier than the date of commencement of this Act, to the rules or any of them and, unless the contrary is permitted (whether expressly or by necessary implication), no retrospective effect shall be given to any rule so as to prejudicially affect the interests of assesses."

533.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 295: Power to make rules.

"(1) The Board may, subject to the control of the Central Government, by notification in the Gazette of India, make rules for the whole or any part of India for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters :—

(a) the ascertainment and determination of any class of income;

(b) the manner in which and the procedure by which the income shall be arrived at in the case of—

(i) income derived in part from agriculture and in part from business;

(ii) persons residing outside India;

(iia) operations carried out in India by a non-resident;

(iib) transactions or activities of a non-resident;

(iii)an individual who is liable to be assessed under the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 64;

(c) the determination of the value of any perquisite chargeable to tax under this Act in such manner and on such basis as appears to the Board to be proper and reasonable;

(d) the percentage on the written down value which may be allowed as depreciation in respect of buildings, machinery, plant or furniture;

(dd) the extent to which, and the conditions subject to which, any expenditure referred to in sub-section

(3) of section 37 may be allowed;

(dda) the matters specified in sub-sections (2) and (3) of section 44AA;

(e) the conditions or limitations subject to which any payment of rent made by an assessee shall be deducted under section 80GG;

(ee) the matters specified in Chapter X-A;

(eea) the cases, the nature and value of assets, the limits and heads of expenditure and the outgoings, which are required to be prescribed under sub-section (6) of section 139;

(eeb) the time within which any person may apply for the allotment of a permanent account number, the form and the manner in which such application may be made and the particulars which such application shall contain and the transactions with respect to which permanent account numbers shall be quoted on documents relating to such transactions under section 139A;

(i) the form and manner in which any application, claim, return or information may be made or furnished and the fees that may be levied in respect of any application or claim;

(j) the manner in which any document required to be filed under this Act may be verified;

(k) the procedure to be followed on applications for refunds;

(kk) the procedure to be followed in calculating interest payable by assessees or interest payable by Government to assessees under any provision of this Act, including the rounding off of the period for which such interest is to be calculated in cases where such period includes a fraction of a month, and specifying the circumstances in which and the extent to which petty amounts of interest payable by assessees may be ignored;

(l) the regulation of any matter for which provision is made in section 230;

(m) the form and manner in which any appeal or cross-objection may be filed under this Act, the fee payable in respect thereof and the manner in which intimation of any such order as is referred to in clause (c) of sub-section (2) of section 249 may be served;

(mm) the circumstances in which, the conditions subject to which and the manner in which, the [41-42][Joint Commissioner (Appeals) or the] Commissioner (Appeals) may permit an appellant to produce evidence which he did not produce or which he was not allowed to produce before the Assessing Officer;

(mma) the form in which the statement under section 285B shall be delivered to the Assessing Officer;

(n) the maintenance of a register of persons other than legal practitioners or accountants as defined in sub-section (2) of section 288 practising before income-tax authorities and for the constitution of and the procedure to be followed by the authority referred to in sub-section (5) of that section;

(o) the issue of certificate verifying the payment of tax by assessees;

(p) any other matter which by this Act is to be, or may be, prescribed.

(3) In cases coming under clause (b) of sub-section (2), where the income liable to tax cannot be definitely ascertained, or can be ascertained only with an amount of trouble and expense to the assessee which in the opinion of the Board is unreasonable, the rules made under this section may—

(a) prescribe methods by which an estimate of such income may be made; and

(b) in cases coming under sub-clause (i) of clause (b) of sub-section (2) specify the proportion of the income which shall be deemed to be income liable to tax, and an assessment based on such estimate or proportion shall be deemed to be duly made in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(4) The power to make rules conferred by this section shall include the power to give retrospective effect, from a date not earlier than the date of commencement of this Act, to the rules or any of them and, unless the contrary is permitted (whether expressly or by necessary implication), no retrospective effect shall be given to any rule so as to prejudicially affect the interests of assessees."

533.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 533 of the Bill provides for power to make rules. This clause corresponds to section 295 of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

533.4 Important Views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders:

533.4.1 To enable stakeholder participation in changes made to Income Tax Rules, the stakeholder suggested as under:.

"Insert the following after 533(1): For the purpose of making rules, the Board shall publicise the following, seeking comments: (a) a draft of the proposed rules along with a reference on the specific provision of the Income-Tax Act under which the Board proposes rules; (b) a statement of the problem that the proposed rules seeks to address and explaining key changes in simple language; (c) an economic analysis of the proposed rules; (d) a statement on the international best practices relevant to the proposed rules; (e) the manner and timeline of implementation of the proposed rules; and (f) the manner and process for receiving comments from the public The Board shall allow at least thirty days for the public to submit their comments.

To enable stakeholder participation in changes made to Income Tax Rules."

533.4.2 On the legal requirement for public consultation for the Rules making process under the Act, the representative of Ministry of Law, clarified to the Committee as under:

> "..in rules, if Act permits, there is a usual provision that the Central Government may with the previous publication. If the statute empowers, then there is minimum 30 days. The Committee on Subordinate Legislation has recommended that whenever consultation is there, minimum 30 days, it is to be published in the gazette inviting objections and suggestions."

533.4.3 "In 533(2)(z), "Specify e-Register in automation form(from Registration to till removal of enrolment of Income Tax Practitioners*)* To prevent fraud and unqualified representations by keeping public digital platforms in full active mode for public access on the government portal)."

533.4.4 During the course of evidence, the Ministry in further clarified as follows:

> "The suggestion is that we should specify e-register in place of register where rules for maintaining register are to be framed for persons whether they are legal practitioners or accountants. So, the register includes e-register. If he maintains information relating to persons other than legal practitioner or accountant, we can maintain in the form of e-register also because we are saying that it includes e-register."

533.5 Examination by the Committee:

The Ministry in response to the suggestions by the stakeholder has furnished in corresponding written replies as under:

533.5.1. "Consultation with public is a process done at various stages of law making including the instant case of drafting of IT Bill. While a law is being made, wide consultations are held and the rule making being part of the law-making process, consultations about rules are also made therein. In some instances, separate consultations are also held for drafting of specific rules. Citizens' opinions and suggestions are always welcome and such views and opinions have a bearing on law as well as rule making. Since consultation is a wider process for law as well as rule making, making stakeholder participation mandatory as part of the statute itself is not necessary, Therefore, the suggestion is not feasible."

533.5.2 "The suggestion seeks to Specify e-Register in place of register where rules for maintaining register are to be framed for persons other than legal practitioner or accountant.

Suggestion related to secondary legislation. Register in any case includes e-register. The suggestion stands already addressed."

533.5.3 Responding to the Committee's query regarding need for undertaking massive exercise to convert all the live circulars, which are still relevant under the existing Act, into the rules under the new Act, the Ministry during the course of evidence informed the Committee as under:

"At places in the Bill, we have written prescription as it is written in the present Act. Some clauses contain the words 'as may be prescribed'. So, we are not borrowing from the old prescriptions. The new prescriptions will be laid down in the rules. They come in the form of notification of rules. To that extent, a new delegated legislation will appear as a part of this Bill in the next six months whenever the Bill gets passed."

533.5.4 During the course of evidence, regarding Committee's query on anticipation anticipate the possibility of disputes and confusion arising from this issue, the Ministry clarifies as under:

Savings Clause 536(2)(j). "Any agreement undertaken, appointment made, approval given, recognition granted, direction, instruction, notice, order or rule issued under the provision of the Repealed Income-Tax Act, so far as it is not inconsistent with the corresponding provisions of this Act, be deemed to have been entered into, made, granted, given or issued under the corresponding provision of this Act." So, circular will come under this part. We need not reiterate all circulars again. That is our take on it.

533.5.5 On Committee's further query in regard to the position in respect of the Bill under consideration, the representative of Ministry of Finance further clarified as follows:

"In general, if the Act does not permit, we will not do. Since the Income-Tax Bill is a tax matter, that is why in many provisions, it is not there."

533.6 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee, in its examination of Clause 533 of the Bill, concerning 'Power to make rules' (which corresponds to Section 295 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961), has carefully considered suggestions from various stakeholders. After reviewing the response of the Ministry, the Committee accept Clause 533 as proposed.

Clause 534: Laying before Parliament.

534.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"The Central Government shall cause—

(a) every rule made under this Act;

(b) rules of procedure framed by the Appellate Tribunal under section 364; or

(c) every notification issued under sections 263(3) and 264 and Chapter XIII-G, to be laid, as soon as may be after it is made or issued, before each House of Parliament while it is in session for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in such rule, or notification or both Houses agree that the rule, should not be made or the notification should not be issued, the rule or notification shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule or notification."

534.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 296: Rules and certain notifications to be placed before Parliament.

"The Central Government shall cause every rule made under this Act, the rules of procedure framed by the Settlement Commission under sub-section (7) of section 245F, the Authority for Advance Rulings under section 245V and the Appellate Tribunal under sub-section (5) of section 255 and every notification issued before the 1st day of June, 2007 under sub-clause (iv) of clause (23C) of section 10 and every notification issued under sub-section (1C) of section 139 or third proviso to sub-section (1) of section 153A or second proviso to sub-section (1) of section 153C to be laid as soon as may be after the rule is made or the notification is issued before each House of Parliament while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days, which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or notification or both Houses agree that the rule or notification should not be made or issued, that rule or notification shall thereafter have effect, only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule or notification."

534.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 534 of the Bill provides for laying before Parliament. This clause corresponds to section 296 of the Act. There is no policy change. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause."

534.4 Examination by the Committee:

534.4.1 On Committee specific query regarding any departures or additions or deletions with regard to provisions related to subordinate legislation (ex. laying in both Houses of the Parliament etc.), the Ministry categorically stated as under:

> "No such deviations has been made. Procedure to draft sub-ordinate legislation remains same in the Income-tax Bill, 2025 vis-à-vis the IT Act, 1961."

534.4.2 The Committee desired to know whether there have been any departures or additions or deletions regarding laying provisions and provisions related to modification by both Houses of the Parliament and Chapter-wise and Clause-wise comparative details of provisions related to subordinate legislation in Income-Tax Act, 1961 and Income-Tax Bill, 2025. The Ministry in written replies stated as under:

> " It is submitted that there has been no departures or additions or deletions regarding provisions related to subordinate legislation including laying in both Houses of the Parliament. Procedure to draft sub-ordinate legislation remains same in the Income-tax Bill, 2025 vis-à-vis the IT Act, 1961.
>
> Subordinate legislation for Income-tax Bill, 2025 shall be framed after the Bill becomes a law. As of now, there is no subordinate legislation in existence for the Bill. Therefore, it is not feasible to provide any Chapter-wise and Clause-wise comparative details of provisions related to subordinate legislation."

534.5 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee

The Committee while examining the Clause 534 of the Bill note that the Clause deals with 'Laying before Parliament' and corresponds to section 296 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee take note of the Ministry's justification that the provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause 534 as proposed, without any further amendment.

Clause 535: Removal of difficulties.

535.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

" (1) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the Central Government may, by general or special order, do anything not inconsistent with the provisions which appears to it to be necessary or expedient for the purpose of removing the difficulty.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, any order referred to in sub-section (1) may provide for the adaptations or modifications subject to which the Income-tax Act, 1961 shall apply in relation to the assessments for the tax year ending on the 31st March, 2026, or any earlier tax year.

(3) No order under sub-section (1) shall be made after the expiration of three years from the 1st April, 2026.

(4) Every order made under this section shall be laid, as soon as may be, after it is made, before each House of Parliament."

535.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 298: Power to remove difficulties.

"(1) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act the Central Government may, by general or special order, do anything not inconsistent with such provisions which appears to it to be necessary or expedient for the purpose of removing the difficulty.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, any such order may provide for the adaptations or modifications subject to which the repealed Act shall apply in relation to the assessments for the assessment year ending on the 31st day of March, 1962, or any earlier year.

(3) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act as amended by the Direct Tax Laws (Amendment) Act, 1987, the Central Government may, by order, do anything not inconsistent with such provisions for the purpose of removing the difficulty:

Provided that no such order shall be made after the expiration of three years from the 1st day of April, 1988.

(4) Every order made under sub-section (3) shall be laid before each House of Parliament."

535.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 535 of the Bill provides for removal of difficulties. This clause corresponds to section 298 of the Act. A time limit of three years after 1.4.2026 has been provided after which no order could be passed for removal of difficulties. "

535.4 Examination by the Committee:

On the Committee's query regarding comparison of the clause in the Bill with the corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with regard to any addition or omission or replacement of words etc. alongwith the justification for the proposed modification, the Ministry in their written replies stated as follows:

> "The provisions proposed in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 is the simplified version of the corresponding provisions of IT Act 1961".

535.5 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee note that Clause 535 of the Bill addresses the removal of difficulties, serving as the direct counterpart to Section 298 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee further observe that this clause includes a specific sunset provision: no order for the removal of difficulties can be passed after a period of three years from April 1, 2026. This establishes a clear time limit for such actions. Therefore, the Committee accept Clause 535 as proposed.

Clause 536: Repeal and savings

536.1 Provision proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025:

"(1) The Income-tax Act, 1961 is hereby repealed.

(2) Irrespective of the repeal of the Income-tax Act, 1961 (hereinafter referred to as the repealed Income-tax Act), and subject to sub-section (3)—

(a) affect the previous operation of the repealed Act and orders or anything duly done or suffered thereunder; or

(b) affect any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under the repealed Act or orders under such repealed Act;

(c) the provisions of the repealed Income-tax Act shall continue to apply to any proceedings (including notices, assessment, re-assessment, rectification, penalty, reference, revision and appeals) in respect of any tax year beginning before the 1st April, 2026 and such proceedings shall be carried out as per the procedure specified in the repealed Income-tax Act;

(d) any proceeding for the imposition of a penalty in respect of any tax year beginning before the 1st April, 2026, may be initiated and any such penalty may be imposed under the repealed Income-tax Act, as if this Act had not been enacted;

(e) any proceeding pending on the commencement of this Act before any income-tax authority or any other authority constituted under the repealed Income-tax Act, Appellate Tribunal, or any court, by way of application, appeal, reference or revision or by any other means, shall be continued and disposed of as if this Act had not been enacted;

(f) any election or declaration made, or option exercised, by an assessee under any provision of the repealed Income-tax Act and in force immediately before the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to have been an election or declaration made, or option exercised, under the corresponding provision of this Act;

(g) where in respect of any proceeding relating to any tax year beginning before the 1st April, 2026,—

(i) a refund falls due after commencement of this Act; or

(ii) default is made after such commencement in the payment of any sum due under such proceeding, the provisions of this Act, relating to interest payable by the Central Government on refunds and interest payable by the assessee for default, shall apply for the period after the commencement of this Act;

(h) where any deduction has been allowed or any amount has not been included in the total income of any person, subject to fulfilment of certain conditions for any tax year beginning before the 1st April, 2026, and in case of violation of such conditions in any tax year beginning on or after 1st April, 2026, any sum (on account of deduction earlier allowed or amount not included) was required to be included in the total income of such subsequent tax year under the repealed Income-tax Act if it had not been so repealed, then such sum shall be—

(i) deemed to be the income of the tax year in which the violation takes place; and

(ii) included in the total income of the said person under the same head of income as it would have been included under the repealed Income-tax Act;

(i) any sum payable under the repealed Income-tax Act may be recovered under this Act without prejudice to any action already taken for the recovery of such sum under repealed Income-tax Act;

(j) any agreement entered into, appointment made, approval given, recognition granted, direction, instruction, notification, order or rule issued under any provision of the repealed Income-tax Act shall, so far as it is not inconsistent with the corresponding provisions of this Act, be deemed to have been entered into, made, granted, given or issued under the corresponding provision of this Act and shall continue in force accordingly;

(k) where the period provided for any application, appeal, reference or revision under the repealed Income-tax Act had expired on or before the commencement of this Act, nothing in this Act shall be construed as enabling any such application, appeal, reference or revision to be made under this Act by reason only of the fact that a longer period therefor is prescribed or provision is made for extension of time in suitable cases by the appropriate authority;

(l) any amount of credit, in respect of tax paid, allowable to be carried forward in the case of an assessee, under the provisions of section 115 JAA or 115JD of the repealed Income-tax Act for the tax year beginning before the 1st April 2026, had the Income-tax Act, 1961 not been repealed,—

(i) shall be deemed to be the amount eligible for credit under corresponding provision of this Act in the case of said assessee; and

(ii) credit for the tax paid under the repealed Income-tax Act shall be allowed under this Act for the period for which it would have been allowed under the repealed Income–tax Act if the assessee otherwise continues to satisfy the conditions as specified in the corresponding provisions of this Act in such tax years;

(m) any amount of loss under the source or head of income specified in column B of the Table given below and referred to in the section of the repealed Income-tax Act specified in column C of the said Table, brought forward for the tax year beginning before the 1st April, 2026 had the Income-tax Act not been repealed, shall be set off and carried forward against 5 the income computed under this Act , in the manner provided in the respective section of the repealed Income-tax Act specified in column C of the said table, for the tax years beginning on or after the 1st April, 2026:

Table

Sl. No.	Source or head of income under the repealed Income-tax Act	Section of the repealed Income-tax Act
A	B	C
1.	Income from house property.	71B.
2.	Profits and gains of business or profession.	72.
3.	Speculation business.	73.
4.	Specified Business.	73A.
5.	Activity of owning and maintaining race horses.	74A.

(n) any amount of loss under the head capital gains, whether related to a long-term capital asset or a short term capital asset, referred to in section 74 of the repealed Income-tax Act, brought forward from the tax year beginning before the 1st April, 2026 had the Income-tax Act, 1961 not been repealed, shall be set off and carried forward against the income under the head "Capital gains" computed under this Act for any tax year beginning on or after the 1st April, 2026 upto eight financial years immediately succeeding the financial year in which such loss was first computed under the repealed Income-tax Act;

(o) any set off of loss or allowance for depreciation made in any tax year beginning before the 1st April, 2026 in the hands of the amalgamated company, successor company or the successor limited liability partnership, in accordance with the provisions of section 72A of the repealed Income-tax Act, shall be deemed to be the income of the amalgamated company, successor company or the successor limited liability partnership, as the case may be, chargeable to tax under this Act for the year in which any of the conditions specified in that section are not complied with;

(p) any set off of accumulated loss or unabsorbed depreciation allowed in any tax year beginning before the 1st April, 2026 to the successor co-operative bank, in accordance with the provisions of section 72AB of the repealed Income-tax Act, shall be deemed to be the income of the successor co-operative bank chargeable to tax under this Act for the year in which any of the conditions specified in that section are not complied with;

(q) any amount of profits or gains arising out of transfer of capital asset not charged under the head capital gains by virtue of the provisions contained in section 47(iv), (v), (xiii), (xiiib) or (xiv) of the repealed Income-tax Act in any tax year beginning before the 1st April, 2026 shall be deemed to be the income chargeable under the head "Capital gains" under this Act , if any of the conditions laid down in section 47A(1)(i) or (ii) of the repealed Income-tax Act are satisfied or conditions laid down in section 47(xiii), (xiiib) or (xiv), as the case may be, of the repealed Incometax Act are not complied with, for the tax year in which such conditions are satisfied or not complied with, as the case may be;

(r) where any allowance or part thereof, under section 32(2) or 35(4) of the repealed Income-tax Act, is to be carried forward to tax year beginning on the 1st April, 2026, had the Income-tax Act not been repealed, then, the allowance or part thereof shall be added to the amount of capital allowances referred to corresponding provisions of this Act for the tax year beginning on the 1st April, 2026 and deemed to be part of that allowance, or if there is no such allowance for that tax year, be deemed to be allowance for that tax year;

(s) the deduction referred to in section 35ABB, 35D, 35DD, 35DDA, 35E or the first proviso to section 36(1)(ix) of the repealed Income-tax Act, shall, on fulfilment of the conditions mentioned in the said provisions, continue to be allowed under this Act for tax year beginning on or after the 1st April, 2026 had the Income-tax Act not been repealed and such deduction shall be added to the amount of deferred revenue expenditure allowance referred to corresponding provisions of this Act for the tax year beginning on or after the 1st April, 2026 and deemed to be part of that allowance, or if there is no such allowance for a tax year, be deemed to be that allowance for that tax year;

(t) credit balance in the provision for bad and doubtful debts account made under section 36(1)(viia) of the repealed Income-tax Act standing on the last day of the tax year beginning on 1st April, 2025 shall be added to the amount credited to the provision for bad and doubtful debts accounts referred to in the corresponding provisions of this Act for the tax year beginning on the 1st April, 2026 and deemed to be part of amount credited to the provision for bad and doubtful debts accounts, or if there is no such amount credited for that tax year, be deemed to be amount credited for that tax year;

(u) any scheme which has been notified under the provisions of the repealed Income-tax Act with a view to eliminating the interface with the assessee or any other person, the said scheme shall be deemed to have been made—

(i) under the corresponding provisions of this Act; or

(ii) under section 294B where there is no such corresponding provision, and shall continue in force accordingly; and

(v) where a search has been initiated under section 132 or requisition is made under section 132A prior to the 1st April, 2026, the provisions of repealed Income-tax Act, shall continue to apply to any proceedings connected in respect of such search or requisition, as the case may be, as if this Act has not been enacted.

(3) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (2), the provisions of section 6 of the General Clauses Act, 1897 shall apply with regard to the effect of repeal."

536.2 Relevant Provision of the Principal Act (Income-Tax Act, 1961):

Section 297: Repeals and savings.

"297. (1) The Indian Income-tax Act, 1922 (11 of 1922), is hereby repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding the repeal of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922 (11 of 1922) (hereinafter referred to as the repealed Act),—

(a) where a return of income has been filed before the commencement of this Act by any person for any assessment year, proceedings for the assessment of that person for that year may be taken and continued as if this Act had not been passed;

(b) where a return of income is filed after the commencement of this Act otherwise than in pursuance of a notice under section 34 of the repealed Act by any person for the assessment year ending on the 31st day of March, 1962, or any earlier year, the assessment of that person for that year shall be made in accordance with the procedure specified in this Act;

(c) any proceeding pending on the commencement of this Act before any income-tax authority, the Appellate Tribunal or any court, by way of appeal, reference, or revision, shall be continued and disposed of as if this Act had not been passed;

(d) where in respect of any assessment year after the year ending on the 31st day of March, 1940,—

(i) a notice under section 34 of the repealed Act had been issued before the commencement of this Act, the proceedings in pursuance of such notice may be continued and disposed of as if this Act had not been passed;

(ii) any income chargeable to tax had escaped assessment within the meaning of that expression in section 147 and no proceedings under section 34 of the repealed Act in respect of any such income are pending at the commencement of this Act, a notice under section 148 may, subject to the provisions contained in section 149 or section 150, be issued with respect to that assessment year and all the provisions of this Act shall apply accordingly;

(e) subject to the provisions of clause (g) and clause (j) of this sub-section, section 23A of the repealed Act shall continue to have effect in relation to the assessment of any company or its shareholders for the assessment year ending on the 31st day of March, 1962 or any earlier year, and the provisions of the repealed Act shall apply to all matters arising out of such assessment as fully and effectually as if this Act had not been passed;

(f) any proceeding for the imposition of a penalty in respect of any assessment completed before the first day of April, 1962, may be initiated and any such penalty may be imposed as if this Act had not been passed;

(g) any proceeding for the imposition of a penalty in respect of any assessment for the year ending on the 31st day of March, 1962, or any earlier year, which is completed on or after the 1st day of April, 1962, may be initiated and any such penalty may be imposed under this Act;

(h) any election or declaration made or option exercised by an assessee under any provision of the repealed Act and in force immediately before the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to have been an election or declaration made or option exercised under the corresponding provision of this Act;

(i) where, in respect of any assessment completed before the commencement of this Act, a refund falls due after such commencement or default is made after such commencement in the payment of any sum due under such completed assessment, the provisions of this Act relating to interest payable by the Central Government on refunds and interest payable by the assessee for default shall apply;

(j) any sum payable by way of income-tax, super-tax, interest, penalty or otherwise under the repealed Act may be recovered under this Act, but without prejudice to any action already taken for the recovery of such sum under the repealed Act;

(k) any agreement entered into, appointment made, approval given, recognition granted, direction, instruction, notification, order or rule issued under any provision of the repealed Act shall, so far as it is not inconsistent with the corresponding provision of this Act, be deemed to have been entered into, made, granted, given or issued under the corresponding provision aforesaid and shall continue in force accordingly;

(l) any notification issued under sub-section (1) of section 60 or section 60A of the repealed Act and in force immediately before the commencement of this Act shall, to the extent to which provision has not been made under this Act, continue in force:

Provided that the Central Government may rescind any such notification or amend it so as to rescind any exemption, reduction in rate or other modification made thereunder;

(m) where the period prescribed for any application, appeal, reference or revision under the repealed Act had expired on or before the commencement of this Act, nothing in this Act shall be construed as enabling any such application, appeal, reference or revision to be made under this Act by reason only of the fact that a longer period therefor is prescribed or provision is made for extension of time in suitable cases by the appropriate authority."

536.3 Reasons/Justification given by the Ministry of Finance for the proposed provision:

"Clause 536 of the Bill provides for repeal and savings. This clause corresponds to section 297 of the Act. The clause seeks to repeal the Income-tax Act, 1961 from the date the Bill comes into force i.e. 1.4.2026. Further, the clause incorporates savings which have to be carried forward in the new Bill from the Income-tax Act, 1961. As provisions of 1922 Act and 1961 Act are different, the nature of savings also has changed vis-à-vis savings mentioned in section 297 of the Act."

536.4 Important Views/Suggestions given by Experts/Stakeholders:

Some important suggestions received from the stakeholder in the clause under examination are as follows:

A. Replacement of term, 'Notwithstanding':

536.4.1 "Settled Position of Law to continue in the New Regime

The position in law in respect of many of the provisions of the present Income-tax Act in existence for the past six decades, have been critically examined by the judiciary and settled. These provisions for which the law is settled should not be changed in the Income- tax Bill, 2025, else, the same may result in extensive litigation.

For example, in the Income-tax Bill, 2025, "Notwithstanding anything contained in" is proposed to be replaced with "Irrespective of anything contrary contained in". There is significant jurisprudence on the expression "Notwithstanding anything" which is now proposed to be replaced with "Irrespective of anything contrary". Since the meaning of "notwithstanding" is judicially settled, replacing the same with "irrespective of" merely due to the reason that it sounds simpler, may give rise to a fresh spate of litigation as to whether "irrespective" has the same meaning as "notwithstanding".

B. Suggestions received regarding Clause 536(2)(a)/(b):

536.4.2 " (T)he provisions of clause (a) and (b) are adapted from S. 6 of the General Clauses Act, 1897. (GCA) However, as they presently read, they do not form a coherent sentence. This may be due to the fact that the provisions of GCA are negatively worded wherein similar clauses of GCA are preceded by "the repeal shall not" . Such negative wording beingmissed out appears to be a drafting oversight. Recommended to add the words "shall not" at the beginning of both clause (a) and (b) to ensure that the proper intent of the transitional provisions is reflected."

536.4.3 In 536(2)(a)/(b), Error in Drafting Contains a grammatical error by omitting the phrase "nothing shall" in clauses (a) and (b), potentially creating confusion. It is recommended to include the phrase "nothing shall" in the beginning of clause (a) and (b).

C. Suggestion regarding omission of clause corresponding to Section 297(2)(l) of the Income-Tax Act, 1961

536.4.4 Inclusion of Income Tax exemption for war wounded / battle casualty pensioners receiving War Injury Pension under Income-Tax Bill, 2025 highlighting Omission of clause 297(2)(l) of the Income-Tax Act, 1961.

D. Suggestions received regarding Clause 536(2)(c):

536.4.5 Regarding Clause536(2)(c)), one of the stakeholders stated that “(T)he fresh proceedings after the enactment of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 shall be undertaken under the New Act whereas proceedings initiated under the Income-Tax Act, 1961 shall continue to be governed by the Income-Tax Act, 1961 This was also done when Income-Tax Act, 1961 repealed Income-Tax Act, 1922 [refer section 297 of Income-Tax Act, 1961]”

E. Suggestions received regarding Clause 536(2) (a)(c)(g):

536.4.6 “(T) here is some confusion in Clause 536 (2) (a),(c) and (g) because the Income-Tax Act, 1961 is being limited to 2025-26 and the new law is proposed to be implemented from 2026-27. Now, around 72 thousand old cases are lying pending. Now, the question is whether all these cases will be cleared in the remaining period of this year. Then whether the decisions will be made under the old law or under the new law, this will increase the complexity. There will be more court cases. Therefore, along with the new law, the Committee should also discuss in detail the arrangement for continuing the old law for pending cases.”

F. Suggestions regarding incorporating explicit proviso for continuous applicability of Circulars, notifications etc. (Clause 536(2)(j))

536.4.7 “No specific provision to prescribe continuity of applicability of circulars and notifications issued in respect of existing Act. It is suggested to incorporate appropriate provision to prescribe applicability of circulars and notifications issued in respect of existing provisions of the Act until new circulars or notifications supersedes the same.”

536.4.8 “Existing guidance, circulars or notifications that were issued under the Act as well as decisions rendered by Courts, should apply to provisions in the Bill that are worded in identical or similar manner. There should be a mention of this in the Bill.”

536.4.9 In line with the repeals and savings section introduced at the time of Income-tax Act, 1961, repeals and savings clause be modified to provide that the Income-tax Act, 2025 would apply to any new proceedings initiated on or after April 1, 2026 and the pending proceedings as on March 31, 2026 be continued under the Income-tax Act, 1961.

G. Suggestions regarding Clause 536(2)(n):

536.4.10 “The phrase "the manner provided in the respective section of the repealed Income-tax Act" in clause 536(2)(n) may be inserted to clarify that transitional LTCL can be set off only against LTCG under ITB 2025.”

536.4.11 “Clause 536(2)(n) may be amended to provide for set off of losses under the head capital gains in accordance in provisions of Clause 108 of ITB 2025. Under ITA 61, capital loss relating to long term capital asset is allowed to be carried forward and set off only against capital gain in respect of long term capital asset. Similarly under ITB 25, capital loss relating to long term capital asset is allowed to be carried forward and set off only against capital gain in respect of long term capital asset. However, Clause 536(2)(n) of ITB provides that capital losses carried forward from tax year beginning before 1 April 2026 as per ITA 61 can be set off against capital gain in respect of both long term capital asset and short term capital asset. If there is no change in the policy intent of allowing set off of long term capital loss only against long term capital gain, suggested amendment in clause 536(2)(n) may be made. Rationale:

1 Remove anomaly in drafting
2 Reduce tax litigation thereby providing certainty.”

536.4.12 “Section 536(2)(n) of the new Bill worded broadly to permit loss under the head ‘Capital gains’ to be set off against income from ‘Capital gains’ However, it is suggested to retain the provision. This appears to imply that long term capital loss may be set off even under short term capital gains Since typically, repeal provisions are not expected to run counter to the existing law, the provision permitting carry forward and set off of long-term capital loss under all income under the head ‘ Capital gains’ appear to be inadvertent.”

536.4.13 *“*Clause 111 permits carry forward of loss from Capital gains and set-off of LTCL and STCL against Capital Gains income of subsequent years. However, LTCL can be set-off only against LTCG income. The drafting to permit setoff of transitioned LTCL against post-transition STCG appears to be inadvertent. Insert the phrase "the manner provided in the respective section of the repealed Income-tax Act" in S. 536(2)(n) to clarify that transitional LTCL can be set off only against LTCG under ITB 2025.”

536.4.14 *“*Sections 108(2)(a) and 111(2)(a) may be aligned with the provisions of clause 536(2)(n) permitting set-off of brought forward long-term capital loss from the Income-tax Act, 1961 against any capital gain of a tax year beginning on or after 1.4.2026. Further, as suggested in Chapter VII, inter-head set-off may be permitted without restriction, with the exception in cases of certain losses, like losses from speculation business or losses from the activity of owning and maintaining race horses or online gaming, which may be spelt out as exceptions. This would be in line with the principle of taxation of real income after set-off of losses and would relieve the burden of the taxpayers.”

H. Suggestions to align Clause 536(2)(q) with the provisions of Clause 71(1)

536.4.15 “The drafting to result in claw back in year of violation of conditions of S. 47A of ITA 1961/ 71 of ITB 2025 appears to be inadvertent. Amend S. 536(2)(q) to provide that claw-back in respect of violation of conditions of Section 47(iv)/(v) of ITA 1961 will happen in the tax year in which the original transfer takes place, as provided in Section 47A of ITA 1961.”

536.4.16 “The Capital gains taxation in case of breach of conditions under Clause 71(1) to taxed in the year of transfer.
For breach of conditions before 01.04.2026, repeals Clause 536(2)(q) to align with the provisions of Clause 71(1) and tax such breach in the year of transfer.”

536.4.17 “The drafting to result in claw back in year of violation of conditions of S. 47A of ITA 1961/ 71 of ITB 2025 appears to be inadvertent. Amend S. 536(2)(q) to provide that claw-back in respect of violation of conditions of Section 47(iv)/(v) of ITA 1961 will happen in the tax year in which the original transfer takes place, as provided in Section 47A of ITA 1961.”

I. Suggestions regarding Clause 536(2)(s):

536.4.18 “Clause 536(2)(s) of the Bill contains the repeal and savings provisions Deductions referred to in section 35ABB, 35D, 35DD, 35DDA, 35E or the first proviso to section 36(1)(ix) of the repealed Act can be continued under the Bill for tax year beginning on or after 1.4.2026 subject to the fulfilment of the conditions mentioned in the said provisions However, there is no savings clause for a deduction under section 35ABA(1) for the relevant previous years the spectrum for which the fee is paid is in force and is required to be included.”

536.4.19 “Section 52(2) and 536(2)(s) of the New Income-Tax Bill 2025 contain omissions relating to the deduction of capital expenditure for the right to use spectrum for telecommunication services.”

536.4.20 “The provision inadvertently does not refer to: • Explanation to S.24(b) of ITA 1961 which provides for allowing propionate deduction of interest on borrowed funds incurred for a period prior to the date of acquisition • Unamortised deduction u/s. 94B of ITA 1961 which limits deduction on interest paid to AE to 30% of EBIDTA with balance permitted to be carried forward to next year upto 8 years • S. 35ABA pertaining to deduction for fee for obtaining right to use spectrum for telecommunication services over the life of the spectrum. Amend S. 536(2)(s) to provide continuity for the unexpired period in respect of deductions u/s 24(b), 35ABA and 94B of ITA 1961 to ensure complete neutrality between ITA 1961 and ITA 2025”

J. Suggestions regarding Clause 536(2)(u):

536.4.21 (Clause 536(2)(u)) "Faceless assessment of income escaping assessment.

1. To make following procedure faceless: Issuance of· notice under section 280; Conducting· of enquiries or issuance of show cause notice or passing of order under section 281 or Sanction for· issue of such notice under section 284.
2. Section 536(2)(u) does not save Notification vide S.O 1466(E) [NO 18/2022/F NO 370142/16/20 22 TPL(PART1], dated 29.03.2022 – "e Assessment of Income Escaping Assessment Scheme, 2022" for the following reasons: There is no· corresponding provision in the IT Bill 2025; There is no· Section 294B in the IT Bill 2025 or in ITA 1961, unless reference is changed from 294B to 532(1)."

536.5 Examination by the Committee:

A. Use of terminology, 'Notwithstanding'

536.5.1 The Ministry while justifying the proposed changes in terminology furnished in their written replies as follows:

> "Non-obstante clause 'Notwithstanding' has been replaced in the Bill with the phrase 'irrespective of' so as to make language more lucid and easy for the common man. This is also an international best practice."

536.5.2 The Ministry further in response to the suggestion by the stakeholder has furnished in written replies as under:

> "The amendment has been made with a view to rationalise the provision so as to provide tax certainty and reduce litigation and to make the language clear and direct. Therefore, no change in the provision may be necessary."

536.5.3 The Committee desired to ascertain whether replacing "Notwithstanding anything contained in…" with "Irrespective of anything contrary contained in…" is meant to simplify language and reduce litigation. Though, "notwithstanding" has a well-settled legal meaning, consistently upheld by courts (e.g., ICICI Bank v. SIDCO Leathers Ltd., (2006) 10 SCC 452), particularly in resolving conflicts between statutory provisions. The Ministry, while justifying the use of new terminologies, in written replies stated as follows:

> (i) 'Irrespective of' has been used for ease of understanding by a 'common graduate'.
> (ii) "Notwithstanding" signifies a statutory override. It's interpretive function is fully preserved with the simpler expression "irrespective of". The statutory primacy of the clause is clear and there is no erosion of its overriding effect.

(iii) In all likelihood, Courts will continue to give effect to the intended hierarchy of provisions, irrespective of the lexical form employed and without dilution of legislative intent. Both terms serve the same operative purpose of ensuring that specified provisions apply without being affected by any contrary provision.

(iv) The judgment rendered by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in ICICI Bank Ltd. v. Sidco Leathers Ltd. is in the context of statutory conflict and priority (insolvency and inter-creditor rights). However, its relevance may be limited when evaluating changes made in the drafting of income-tax provisions which are with the objective of making the law more readable without compromising legal substance.

(v) Accordingly, while ICICI Bank v. Sidco Leathers remains authoritative within its domain, its applicability here may not be directly determinative. Even in advanced tax jurisdictions such as the United Kingdom, the use of the phrase notwithstanding is now sparing and generally avoided in modern legislative drafting"

536.5.4 The Ministry further clarified as follows:

"Before change of law, the word notwithstanding was used 204 times in UK law (193 in Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988 and 11 times in Taxes Management Act, 1970). In contrast, the Income-tax Act, 1961, still contains this expression in over 400 instances. Retaining all such legacy expressions may amount to retaining the original Act itself, defeating the very purpose of simplification".

536.5.5 Regarding introduction of a specific provision to provide that the judicial interpretations developed over several years under the Income-tax Act, 1961 should apply to corresponding provisions in the Income-tax Act, 2025 and the department should be prevented from disregarding judicial interpretations merely due to change in language, for instance use of the word "irrespective of" in place of "notwithstanding". The Ministry in written replies stated as follows:

"It is to be submitted that such kind of provisions cannot be dealt by any provision in the IT Bill 2025.It is to be dealt by the Courts. Statutes dealing with the same or similar subject matter should be interpreted together as a whole and judicial interpretations developed over several years under the Income-tax Act, 1961 will also apply to corresponding provisions in the Income-tax Bill, 2025. The suggestion is already taken care of."

B. Suggestions received regarding Clause 536(2)(a)/(b):

536.5.6 The Ministry in response to the suggestions given by the stakeholders regarding Clause 536(2)(a)/(b), the Ministry accepted the drafting correction and furnished in written replies as under:

> "Suggestion is acceptable as drafting correction. The term 'Nothing shall' may be added before subclause (a) and subclause (b) of clause 536(2) of the Bill."

C. Suggestion regarding omission of clause corresponding to Section 297(2)(l) of the Income-Tax Act, 1961

536.5.7 The Ministry while addressing the suggestion regarding inclusion of Income Tax exemption for war wounded / battle casualty pensioners receiving War Injury Pension under Income-Tax Bill, 2025 and omission of clause 297(2)(l) of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, clarified as follows:

> "Suggestion seeks inclusion of clause 297(2)(l) of the I T Act relating to 'repeal and savings' in clause 536 of the Bill relating to similar provisions.
> Clause 536(2)(a)and (b) takes care of any such situation."

D. Suggestions received regarding Clause 536(2)(c):

536.5.8 While addressing the stakeholder's concern, the Ministry in response to the suggestions regarding continuation of already initiated proceedings under Income Tax, 1961 stated in written replies as follows:

> " The manner in which savings ought to be done in a new statute might vary. As per clause 536(c), repealed IT Act shall continue to apply to any proceedings in respect of tax year beginning before 01.04.2026, and as per clause 536(e) the pending proceedings shall be continued and disposed as per the repealed IT Act. The manner of savings suggested by the proposer is another model. Since a particular model has already been adopted, changing the same into another type of savings clause is not necessary. Thus, suggestion is not required to be acted upon."

E. Suggestions received regarding Clause 536(2) (a)(c)(g):

536.5.9 Addressing the apprehensions of the stakeholders regarding fate of pending cases, the Ministry clarified as follows:

> "As per clause 536(c), repealed IT Act shall continue to apply to any proceedings in respect of tax year beginning before 01.04.2026, and as per clause 536(e) the pending proceedings shall be continued and disposed as per the repealed IT Act. An exception has been carved out in clause 536(g), where new law will be applicable for interest on refund or outstanding demand, as the case may be, arising out of proceedings in respect of tax year beginning before 01.04.2026. for the period after the new law comes into effect. There is no confusion with regard to whether old law or the new law is applicable. The savings clauses take care of all situations. However, the suggestion to have in-depth discussion on the matter is acceptable."

F. Suggestions regarding incorporating explicit proviso for continuous applicability of Circulars, notifications etc. (Clause 536(2)(j))

536.5.10 The Ministry while clarify apprehensions of the stakeholders regarding continuous applicability of Circulars, notifications etc. and partially accepting the suggestions, stated as follows:

"Accepted. The suggestion seeks to redraft the clause 536 to include applicability of circular and notifications. Section 536(2)(j) (Repeal and Savings) already takes care of notifications. Circulars shall be considered for inclusion." However, to remove ambiguity, the word "circulars" may also be provided for in the said provision.

536.5.11 During the course of evidence, the Ministry informed the Committee that 536(2)(j) specifically covers those notifications.

536.5.12 While assuring, the Ministry further stated in the written replies as under:

"Reference may be made to clause 536(2)(c) which clearly provides that provisions of repealed Act shall continue to apply for proceedings in respect of tax year beginning before 1.4.2026. Therefore, the suggestion made is already provided for."

536.5.13 On the query regarding linking of the interest provision to the tax year in line with 536(2)(c) of the Income-tax Act, 2025, the Ministry in written replies stated as under :

"There is no change of any rates of interest mandated under the ITB 2025 and IT Act 1961.Any change at a later stage will apply in the same manner as it applied in the IT Act 1961.

The suggestion has no merits."

536.5.14 Furthermore, on the suggestion that the taxpayer should be given an option to opt-out of any option or election made of declaration exercised under the Income-tax Act, 1961 if the corresponding provisions under the Income-tax Act, 2025 are inconsistent with the Income-tax Act, 1961, the Ministry in written replies stated as follows:

"There is no inconsistency provided in the provisions of IT Bill 2025 viz-a-viz corresponding provision of IT Act 1961. Therefore such a situation does not arise wherein such option is to be given to any taxpayer. The suggestion has no merits."

536.5.15 On application of Rules, Circulars etc. issued under Income-Tax Act, 1961, after coming into force of the new Act, the Ministry during the course of evidence informed the Ministry as follows:

"as far as a circular or notification is issued under the old Act, correspondingly the same will apply to corresponding clauses in the new Act…
But wherever delegated legislation, prescription or notification is there, there we have to come with a prescription of rules under this new Bill. So, the entire rules will come, new forms will come."

G. Suggestions regarding Clause 536(2)(n):

536.5.16 The Ministry while accepting the drafting error regarding setting-off LTCL only against LTCG income stated that it is an inadvertent drafting error and in written replies stated as under:

"Accepted. The stakeholder has pointed that as per clause 536(2)(n) of the Bill LTCL can be set off against STCG also. It is an inadvertent drafting error."

536.5.17 The Ministry while clarifying on the suggestions regarding aligning the provisions of clause 536(2)(n) with Sections 108(2)(a) and 111(2)(a), submitted as under:

"The stakeholder through the suggestion seeks sections 108(2)(a) and 111(2)(a) be aligned with provisions of clause 536(2)(n) of the IT permitting of brought forward long-term capital loss from the Income-tax Act, 1961 against any capital gain of a tax year beginning on or after 1.4.2026. The stakeholder further seeks inter-head set-off may be permitted without restriction, with the exception in cases of certain losses.

Both the suggestions are in the nature of policy change which is beyond the scope of the IT Bill, 2025. There is no change in the provisions of the Bill vis-a-vis Act.

Clause 108 of the Bill provides for set off of losses under the same head of income and corresponds to section 70 of the Act. Clause 111 of the Bill provides for carry forward and set off of loss from capital gains and corresponds to section 74 of the present Act. The provisions of the existing section have only been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in the corresponding clauses in the Bill.

Under the present provisions of the Income-tax Act, 1961, short term capital losses are allowed to be set off against both long term capital gains and short term capital gains. However, long-term capital losses are allowed to be set off only against the long term capital gains.

However, the current drafting of clause 536(2)(n) permits setoff of transitioned long term capital loss against post-transition short term capital gains. This is a drafting error which shall be appropriately corrected to reflect the current position of law. So, the suggestion to align sections 108(2)(a) and 111(2)(a) with provisions of clause 536(2)(n) of the IT Bill is not feasible.

Further, income under different heads of income is taxed at different rate. Restrictions have been placed on set off of losses under one head with income from other head to prevent the abuse of the provisions of the Act. Hence, allowing inter-head set-off without restrictions is not feasible."

H. Suggestions to align Clause 536(2)(q) with the provisions of Clause 71(1)

536.5.18 Addressing the stakeholder's concern regarding claw back in year of violation of conditions of S. 47A of ITA 1961/ 71 of ITB 2025, the Ministry admitted to drafting correction as stated as follows:

"Drafting Correction. In the case of transfers defined as exempt from Capital Gains in Sections 47(iv) and (v), as per the provisions of Section 47A, the Capital Gain will be calculated for the year in which the transfer took place, and not in the year in which the conditions prescribed are satisfied. Suitable changes may be made in Clause 536(2)(q) (Repeal and Savings)"

536.5.19 The Ministry while responding to the concern of the stakeholder regarding alignment of Clause 536(2)(q) with the provisions of Clause 71(1) stated as follows:

"Capital gains taxation in case of breach of conditions under Clause 71(1) to taxed in the year of transfer. For breach of conditions before 01.04.2026, repeals Clause 536(2)(q) to align with the provisions of Clause 71(1) and tax such breach in the year of transfer."

I. Suggestions regarding Clause 536(2)(s):

536.5.20 While addressing stakeholders query regarding repeal and savings provisions in respect of various Deductions referred to in section 35ABB, 35D, 35DD, 35DDA, 35E, the Ministry in written replies clarified as follows:

"Clause 536(2)(a)and (b) takes care of any such situation. The suggestion made by the stakeholder is acceptable as reference of sec 35ABA of the Act has not been provided in sec 536(2)(s) of the Bill.

The deduction as referred is already allowed for later years by the IT Act, 1961. The repeal and savings clause protects the deduction as it protects all rights and privileges accrued or incurred under the repealed Act. Therefore, the suggestion is already taken care of."

J. Suggestions regarding Clause 536(2)(u):

536.5.21 The Ministry while responding to the concern of the stakeholders regarding provisions under Clause 536(2)(u) in written replies stated as follows:

"The suggestion seeks to insert new clause 284A on the lines of section 151A of the Act prescribing faceless assessment of income escaping assessment. Similar prescription of formulating faceless schemes was prescribed at different places in the Act. Therefore, all such prescriptions have been clubbed under one omnibus clause i.e. clause 532. Further, in saving clause, specific sub-clause 536(2)(u) has been drafted to save the faceless schemes already notified by the CBDT. Further, with respect to the faceless assessment of income escaping assessment, scheme was notified vide S.O. 1466(E), which is already saved as per the provision of 536(2)(u). Thus, separate clause on the lines of section 151A is not required. Therefore, suggestion is already addressed.

536.5.22 The Ministry accepted the suggestion regarding drafting correction and stated that cross referencing error in section 536(2)(u) saving clause shall be corrected by replacing word "294B" with "532(1)"."

K. Omitting References to Income-Tax Act 1922 and Income Tax, 1961

536.5.23 The Committee during the course of examination of the Bill have reiterated that the reference to Income-Tax Act, 1922 and Income-Tax Act, 1961 should be done away with. The Committee desired to know whether the provisions having reference to older and Existing Act can be redrafted in order to have a clean slate with no cross referencing to old act and whether the same can be put up in an annexure, the Ministry in written replies stated as follows:

"Reference to Income-tax Act, 1922 was made 31 times in the Income-tax Act, 1961. At some places the reference may be unavoidable. It shall be examined as to where the reference may be discontinued."

536.5.24 In this connection, the Revenue Secretary deposed before the Committee as under:

"कनसेप्च्युअली सेविंग्स क्लॉज़ में किस तरह से जोड़े, ताकि आपकी यह जो एक्सपेक्टेशन है कि नए एक्ट में पुराने एक्ट का रेफरेंस सदाकाल के लिए न रहे, उसे हम लोग स्टडी करके आपको अलग से रिवाइज्ड फॉर्म में बताएंगे।"

L. Change in nature of savings

536.5.25 During the course of evidence, while responding to the Committee's query regarding the clause 'Repeal and savings', the Ministry informed as under:

"..repeal and saving, is saying that whatever action you take after 01.04.2026, you take in the new Act. Whatever was done before that, that will be in the repealed Act. This was the policy followed in the 1961 Act when they repealed the 1922 Act. This time we have said that the provisions of the old Act will continue to be applicable to the proceedings up to the assessment year 2026-27. After that, whatever new tax year is coming, to that new Bill will apply."

536.5.26 Further clarifying the factual position in regarding to the Bill under condition, the Ministry stated as follows*:*

"Till the midnight before this Act is implemented, all things, all disputes, everything will be governed by the old Act. All things relating to the previous period, or proceedings begun later but relating to the previous period will be governed by the old Act."

536.5.27 The Committee desired to be apprised on the rationale for difference in nature of 'savings' in the IT Act, 1961 and ITB 2025. The Ministry in written replies stated as under:

" Clause 536 corresponds to section 297 of the Act. The clause seeks to repeal the Income-tax Act, 1961 from the date the Bill comes into force i.e. 1.4.2026. Further, the clause incorporates savings which have to be carried forward in the new Bill from the Income-tax Act, 1961.

Provisions of Income-tax Act, 1961 would apply to any proceedings (notices, assessment, re-assessment, rectification, penalty, reference, revision and appeals) in respect of any tax year up to 2025-26 (the proceedings for tax 2026-27 onwards would be covered under the Income-tax Act, 2025).

Further, any declaration or election made or option exercised under the repealed Income- tax Act, 1961 shall be deemed to be election or declaration made or option exercised under the corresponding provisions of the Income-tax Act, 1961.

The difference in nature of savings has arisen due to the difference in the computerized business applications that are already in place for running the processes of the IT Act, 1961. The processes of the Income-tax Department have been made all electronic and done through the computerized business applications. The system already in place for the Income-tax Act, 1961 shall cater to the proceedings in respect of years pertaining to period when the 1961 Act remained in force. New System shall be put in place for the processes and proceedings for the years when the Income-tax Bill 2025 becomes law. It is not possible to run a hybrid system. Therefore, the savings clause has been provided in a manner which is somewhat different from the savings under the Income-tax Act, 1961."

536.5.28 On the issue of implications of 'difference in nature of 'Saving'' in the Act and Bill on existing Notifications, Circulars and Schemes etc. and on cases under litigation, the Ministry while furnishing comparative chart on the difference in 'nature of Savings' in written replies also clarified as under:

"The difference in nature of saving in the 1961 Act and 2025 Bill have arisen due to difference in the provisions of Income-tax Act 1922 which were required to be saved and the provisions of 1961 Act which are now required to be saved. Law is dynamic and ever evolving and thus the savings clause has to be tuned to the existing dynamics to save on the essential provisions for smooth roll out, transition and implementation. Cl. 536(2)(j) clearly saves all notifications, directions, instructions, approvals, appointments made, agreements etc. Further, it has been accepted by the Ministry to include circulars within the ambit of the said clause. Regarding litigation, reference may kindly be made to cl. 536(2)(e) which provides that savings on litigations which shall continue as if the Bill has not been enacted.

536.5.29 On Committee suggestion to insert proviso in Clause 536 to omit the references to Income Tax At, 1922 and 1961 and any other Acts/erstwhile Acts like 'The Sick Industrial Companies (Special Provisions) Act, 1985 (SICA)' etc in the Act, the Ministry in written replies stated as under:

"..apart from clause 536, wherever reference to Income-tax Act, 1961 or any other Act has been made in the Bill, it is required that the said references may be retained to avoid confusion, mis-interpretation of provisions and litigation. Hence, there seems no requirement for proviso to be inserted in clause 536".

536.6 Observation/ Recommendations of the Committee:

The Committee note that Clause 536 aims to repeal the Income-tax Act, 1961, effective from April 1, 2026, the date the new Bill comes into force. Crucially, it also incorporates savings provisions that are intended to be carried forward from the 1961 Act into the new Bill. The Committee acknowledges the Ministry's justification that due to the differences between the 1922 and 1961 Acts, the nature of these savings has evolved compared to those in Section 297 of the earlier Act. The Committee has undertaken an exhaustive deliberation on Clause 536 of the proposed Income-Tax Bill, 2025, which addresses 'Repeals and savings' and corresponds to Section 297 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961.

Regarding the application of Rules, Circulars, etc., issued under the Income-Tax Act, 1961, after the new Act comes into force, the Ministry clarified during evidence that: (i) Circulars and notifications issued under the old Act will correspondingly apply to the equivalent clauses in the new Act; (ii) however, for areas involving delegated legislation, prescriptions, or notifications, new rules and forms will need to be prescribed under the new Bill.

Further, the Committee has identified several drafting corrections based on stakeholder suggestions, which they believe are essential for clarity and unambiguous interpretation. The Committee, therefore, approve clause 536, subject to incorporation of the following amendments:

- (i) Adding the term 'Nothing shall' before proviso (a) and proviso (b) of sub-clause 536(2) of the Bill.
- (ii) Including the word 'Circular' in sub-clause (j) of Clause 536(2).
- (iii) Redrafting Clause 536(2)(n) to explicitly state that Long Term Capital Gain can be set off against Long Term Capital Gain only.
- (iv) Redrafting Clause 536(2)(q) to ensure alignment with Clause 71(1).
- (v) Redrafting Clause 536(2)(s) to include a reference to Section 35ABA of the existing Act.
- (vi) Correcting Clause 536(2)(u) by replacing "294B" with "532(1)."

Furthermore, during examination of the Bill, the Committee observed multiple lingering references to the Income-Tax Act, 1922, and the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee are of the opinion that there should be a clean break from the reference to the old Act, on the lines of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023, wherein reference to the Indian Penal Code were not carried forward, and all references may be brought under clause 536(2) of the Bill on repeals and savings.

Moreover, the Committee also noted references to other repealed Acts, such as "The Sick Industrial Companies (Special Provisions) Act, 1985," which was repealed in 2003 with effect from 1.12.2016. Given the extensive exercise undertaken for a comprehensive review of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, the Committee suggest that all references to repealed Acts be consolidated and incorporated under Clause 536 of the Bill. This action aims to achieve the stated objective of making the new Act concise, lucid, easy to read, and understand.

The Committee, therefore, accept Clause 536 as proposed, subject to the aforementioned suggestions.

CHAPTER – III

CONSOLIDATED OBSERVATIONS/RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE SELECT COMMITTEE

Sl. No	Para No	Clause No.	Observation/Recommendation
1.	2.6.1	Sub-Clause 2(1) – "accountant"	The thorough examination of the proposed Sub-Clause 2(1), pertaining to the definition of 'accountant', reveals that while various suggestions for its expansion were received, the provision retains the long-standing legal position from the Income-tax Act, 1961. The proposed Clause 2(1) aligns with the stated objective of the Bill to ensure continuity and avoid major policy changes. The Committee note the Ministry's detailed justification that the scope of practice for different professionals is governed by their respective parent legislations, and the functions mandated under the Income-tax Act, such as the audit of financial transactions, fall within the domain specified under the Chartered Accountants Act, 1949. Thus, the Committee, having considered the extensive deliberations and the justification provided by the Ministry of Finance, accept the proposed Clause 2(1) in its entirety.
2.	2.6.2	Sub-Clause 2(5) "Agricultural Income"	During the review of the proposed Sub-Clause 2(5), which defines 'agricultural income', the Committee considered submissions arguing for an expansion of the definition to cover a wider range of activities . However, Committee note that the sub-clause, as drafted, is a textual simplification that preserves the existing legal framework from the 1961 Act. The provision aligns with the Bill's core principle of ensuring continuity by avoiding major policy changes. The Committee took note of the Ministry's detailed justification, which cautioned that broadening the definition could inadvertently bring commercial trading activities under the ambit of agricultural income, creating avenues for tax avoidance. Given these considerations, and after reviewing the Ministry's stance, the Committee accept the proposed Clause 2(5) in its entirety and recommend no change.
3.	2.6.3	Sub-Clause 2(6) –	The Committee, upon deliberation of the provisions of the Clause 2(6), note a minor textual ambiguity that

Sl. No	Para No	Clause No.	Observation/Recommendation
		"amalgamation"	could lead to misinterpretation. In Clause 2(6), the phrase "amalgamating company, and the companies" needs to be replaced with "amalgamating company, or companies". The Ministry, when this was pointed out, was amenable to this correction. Thus, the Committee recommend the Ministry to rephrase it to ensure precise legislative intent and also reduce potential misinterpretations and future litigation.
4.	2.6.4	Sub-Clause 2(7) "Annual Value"	The Committee note that Sub-Clause 2(7) of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 provides for the definition of 'Annual Value' and corresponds to Section 2(2) of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. This definition is of fundamental importance as 'annual value' serves as the primary basis for the computation of income under the head "Income from house property". The Committee further observe that the substantive meaning has been carried forward without alteration from the erstwhile Section 2(2) into the proposed Clause 2(7). The revision is primarily one of textual simplification, undertaken for enhanced clarity in alignment with the Bill's overarching goals. Concurring with the Ministry's satisfactory justification for the related provisions, and acknowledging that the essence of the original provision is preserved, the Committee find the clause acceptable as drafted and recommend its adoption without any modification.
5.	2.6.5	Sub-Clause 2(17) "block of assets"	The Committee note that Sub-Clause 2(17) of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 provides for the definition of 'block of assets' and corresponds to Section 2(11) of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. This definition is fundamental to the scheme of depreciation, providing a basis for grouping various tangible and intangible assets for the purpose of calculating depreciation allowances. It is also noteworthy to mention here that there is migration of the contents from the erstwhile Section 2(11) to the Clause 2(17) of the IT Bill, 2025 in terms of scope and intent. The major difference lies only in the textual simplification of the language for better clarity, which is in line with the Bill's objectives. The justification given by the Ministry is also found to be satisfactory. Therefore, the Committee accept the Clause 2(17) as proposed by the Ministry.

6.	2.6.6	Sub-Clause 2(19) "Books or Books of account"	In the review of the proposed Clause 2(19), which lays out the definition for 'books or books of account' and is the corresponding provision to Section 2(12A) of the 1961 Act, the Committee took note of its importance. The scope of this definition is crucial as it determines the nature of records required to be maintained for tax purposes. The Committee noted that the provision has been suitably modernized to encompass contemporary methods of data storage while retaining the essence of the original section. Specifically, the inclusion of records maintained in 'any digital form', through 'cloud based storage', and on various 'portable data storage devices' represents a timely and essential update to the law. The Committee find the Ministry's rationale for this update to remove ambiguity surrounding modern technology to be sound. Consequently, recognizing that this modernized definition brings essential clarity, the Committee recommend the adoption of Clause 2(19) without modification.
7.	2.6.7	Sub-Clause 2(21) "Business trust"	The Committee reviewed provisions defining a 'Business Trust' as given in the subclause. This subclause, which is the corresponding provision to Section 2(13A) of the Income-tax Act, 1961, defines the term by referencing the relevant regulations of the Securities and Exchange Board of India. The Committee observe that the essence and scope of the definition from the erstwhile Act have been preserved in the Bill. The revision primarily focuses on textual simplification, ensuring the definition is clear and directly aligned with the current regulatory framework. The Ministry's justification that the provision has been simplified while retaining the same intent is found to be satisfactory. Therefore, the Committee recommend the acceptance of Clause 2(21) as proposed, without any modifications.

8.	2.6.8	Sub-Clause 2(22) “Capital Asset”	During the review of subclause 2(22), the Committee identified a need to align its definition of 'capital asset' with recent amendments introduced by the Finance Act, 2025. This alignment is necessary to reflect the contemporary legal landscape regarding the treatment of certain securities held by Foreign Institutional Investors and investment funds. The Ministry acknowledged this as a valid drafting correction and conveyed its acceptance . The Committee, therefore, recommend that subclause 2(22)(b) be modified to incorporate these statutory changes to avoid discrepancies and ensure a clear, consistent, and relevant tax framework and rest of the subclause be accepted as proposed.
9.	2.6.9	Sub-Clause 2(23)– "charitable purpose"	The Committee, upon extensive deliberations on the sub clause 2(23) and the justifications provided by the Ministry, note that the sub clause aligns with Section 2(15) of the Income-tax Act, 1961 and therefore, accept the sub clause in its original form.
10.	2.6.10	Sub-Clause 2(28) – "company"	Following a review of Clause 2(28)(c), the Committee found a terminological inconsistency with the Bill's new lexicon. This clause, corresponds to Section 2(17) of the Income-tax Act, 1961. To enhance consistency throughout the new Bill, the phrase "assessment year" in Clause 2(28)(c) should be substituted with "tax year". The Ministry acknowledged this as a necessary drafting correction and agreed to the modification. The Committee, therefore, recommend the Ministry rephrase the clause to ensure a coherent and easily comprehensible legislative framework.
11.	2.6.11	Sub-Clause 2(29) – "company in which the public are substantially interested"	Upon careful consideration of Clause 2(29)(f), the Committee identified a drafting ambiguity that could cause unintended interpretations. The provision should be amended to make it clear that the conditions for classification—namely, stock exchange listing and specific public/government shareholding—are alternative, not cumulative. The Ministry accepted this as a necessary drafting correction to align with the original legislative intent. In light of this, the Committee recommend that the Ministry amend the provision to ensure these criteria are distinctly articulated, which is vital for simplifying

			compliance and reducing the scope for future litigation.
12.	2.6.12 2.6.12.2	Sub-Clause 2(35) – "demerger"	The Committee, having thoroughly examined sub clause 2(35) along with justification given by the Ministry, note that the said sub clause is mere textual simplification of the Section 2(19AA) of the Income-tax Act, 1961. The Committee note that the intent of the corresponding section of the old Act has been retained in the current provision with enhanced clarity. The Committee, therefore, accept the sub lause 2(35) as proposed.
13.	2.6.13	Sub-Clause 2(40) – "dividend"	The Committee observe that the proposed Clause 2(40) of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025, provides an inclusive definition of the term 'dividend' and corresponds to Section 2(22) of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. This definition is crucial as it outlines various types of corporate distributions that are treated as dividend income for tax purposes, including essential anti-abuse provisions related to deemed dividends. The Committee note that intent of the corresponding section from the 1961 Act have been retained without any substantive deviation. The primary revision in the proposed clause is the textual simplification and logical re-ordering of its components, which aligns with the Bill's objective of enhancing clarity. The justification provided by the Ministry for retaining the existing principles within this simplified structure is found to be satisfactory. Therefore, the Committee accept Clause 2(40) as proposed by the Ministry and recommend no change.
14.	2.6.14	Sub-Clause 2(48) – "hearing"	The Committee note that this subclause, corresponding to Section 2(23C) of the Income-tax Act, 1961, formally incorporates modern communication methods into the legal framework. The Committee note that explicitly including the 'communication of data and documents through electronic mode' within the definition is a crucial step towards providing statutory backing for virtual and faceless proceedings. The Ministry's justification is that this inclusive definition provides clarity and is sufficient to cover virtual interactions, which the Committee find satisfactory. Therefore, recognizing that this definition codifies current administrative practices and supports the digital transformation of tax administration, the Committee accept Clause

15.	2.6.15	Sub-Clause 2(49) – "income"	Sub-Clause 2(49) – "income" Upon careful consideration of Clause 2(49), the Committee note a drafting error in sub-clause (x) that undermines the Bill's objective of being a self-contained legislative code, making reference to the Income-tax Act, 1961. The Ministry accepted this as an inadvertent drafting error and agreed to the omission. In light of this, the Committee recommend the Ministry to remove reference to the old Act 1961 from the body of the Bill and by clubbing it in the Savings clause 536 of the Bill. The rest of the provision of the subclause may be accepted as proposed.
16.	2.6.16	Sub-Clause 2(50) – "Income Computation and Disclosure Standards"	Committee note that this clause provides a direct reference point for the standards notified under Section 276(2) of the Bill, which are essential for computing income under certain heads. The Committee are of the opinion that placing this definition in Clause 2 improves the the structural coherence and accessibility of the Bill while maintaining an established legal principle, the Committee accept Clause 2(50) as proposed and recommend no change.
17.	2.6.17	Sub-Clause 2(55) – "infrastructure capital company"	The Committee upon consideration of Clause 2(55), note that the definition of 'infrastructure capital company' relies on cross-references to provisions in the repealed Income-tax Act, 1961, leading to unnecessary complexity. The Committee, therefore, recommend the Ministry to incorporate the full definition of 'infrastructure facility' in the new Bill itself, remove reference to the old Act and make the current Bill self-contained by clubbing it in the savings clause 536 of the Bill appropriately.
18.	2.6.18	Sub-Clause 2(72) – "Non-Resident"	The Committee note that this clause, corresponds to Section 2(30) of the Income-tax Act, 1961, and defines a 'non-resident' by reference to the primary residency tests contained in Clause 6 of the Bill. The Committee find that this cross-referential approach is structurally sound, placing the basic definition in the main definitional clause while the detailed criteria for determination remain in the operative section. The Ministry's justification for retaining this definitional structure is that the term is used extensively throughout the Bill, and this approach provides necessary consistency while avoiding repetition. Therefore, recognizing that the proposed clause preserves the established legal meaning within a logical legislative structure, the Committee accept Clause 2(72) as proposed and recommend no change.

19.	2.6.19	Sub-Clause 2(86) – "Profession"	Committee note that this clause, corresponds to Section 2(36) of the Income-tax Act, 1961, states that 'profession' includes 'vocation'. The Committee note that this is a settled legal concept, having been part of India's tax statutes and upheld by judicial pronouncements, including by the Supreme Court. The Ministry's detailed justification, highlighting that this approach is also consistent with global best practices, is found to be satisfactory. Therefore, the Committee accept Clause 2(86) as proposed and recommend no change.
20.	2.6.20	Sub-Clause 2(101) – "short-term capital asset"	After the consideration of Clause 2(101), the Committee identified a crucial drafting error in sub-clause (c)(A) that could have lead to an incorrect application of holding period rules for a company in liquidation. The provision in sub-clause (c)(A) should be amended to explicitly state that the exclusion of the post-liquidation period from the holding period computation applies specifically to shares. The Ministry acknowledged this as an inadvertent drafting error and confirmed its acceptance of the necessary textual addition to clarify this point. In light of this, the Committee recommend that the Ministry amend the provision as stated, as rectifying such drafting oversights is paramount for creating a robust legislative text and providing clarity on the tax treatment of shares in companies undergoing liquidation.
21.	2.6.21	Sub-Clause 2(103) – "slump sale"	The Committee note that this clause, corresponds to Section 2(42C) of the Income-tax Act, 1961, and it has been textually simplified as part of the Bill's redrafting, while retaining the core principle of a transfer of an undertaking for a lump sum consideration. The Committee accept the Ministry's justification that a specific explanation cross-referencing the definition of 'transfer' was removed as a simplification measure. This is because the comprehensive definition of 'transfer' provided in Clause 2(109) of the Bill applies to all provisions, making the separate explanation redundant. Therefore, the Committee accept the Clause 2(103) as proposed and recommend no change.

22.	2.6.22	Sub-Clause 2(108) – "Total Income"	The Committee have reviewed Clause 2(108), which defines 'Total Income' and corresponds to Section 2(45) of the 1961 Act. The Committee note that the definition is foundational, establishing that total income is computed based on the comprehensive provisions laid out across the Act. The Committee concurs with the Ministry's justification that a broad reference to the Act's overall computation method is essential for its correct application to all classes of taxpayers and income. Accordingly, the Committee recommend no changes in the Clause 2(108).
23.	2.6.23	Recommendation for the rest of Sub-clauses of Clause 2	The Committee have examined in detail Clause 2 of the Income-tax Bill, 2025, which lays down the definitional background of the proposed legislation through 112 distinct sub-clauses. Committee note that there are 23 newly added definations in the bill 2(1) "accountant", 2(30) "convertible foreign exchange", 2(31) "co-operative bank", 2(33) "currency", 2(47) "foreign currency", 2(50) "Income Computation and Disclosure Standards", 2(54) "Indian currency", 2(61) "International Financial Services Centre", 2(71) "non-banking financial company", 2(73) "notification", 2(74) "partner", 2(75) "partnership", 2(76) "Permanent Account Number (PAN)", 2(78) "person of Indian origin", 2(87) "public sector bank", 2(92) "recognised stock exchange", 2(95) "Reserve Bank of India", 2(98) "scheduled bank", 2(99) "Securities and Exchange Board of India", 2(100) "senior citizen", 2(104) "Special Economic Zone", 2(105) "stamp duty value", and 2(110) "Valuation Officer". The definitions in this clause serve as reference points for the provisions across the Bill. The Committee note that this Clause draws substantially from Section 2 of the existing Income-tax Act, 1961, with modifications made largely for purposes of textual simplification, harmonisation with contemporary laws, and introduction of modern terms.Upon scrutiny of the stakeholder engagement process, the Committee observe that substantive views or suggestions from experts, professional bodies, or industry associations were received only on a select number of key definitions on around 22 sub-clauses, mostly involving policy shifts, or sectoral ramifications. These include terms such as "accountant", "charitable purpose", "books of account", etc. among others. In contrast, for the vast majority of sub-clauses under Clause 2, no stakeholder comments were received. The Committee understand this absence not as a sign of neglect, but rather as an indication of broad-based acceptance of the provisions concerned. Many of these definitions pertain to statutory designations (such as "Additional Commissioner", "Joint Director", "Principal Commissioner"), procedural terms (like "assessment", "advance tax", "firm"), or references to institutions and roles already well-established in the statutory ecosystem. In several such cases, the Bill either replicates the 1961 Act with updated language or aligns with contemporary definitions in the major legislations including the Companies Act (sub-clause 2(29), 2(35), 2(38)) , Banking Regulation Act (sub-clause 2(31)), Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023 (sub-clause 2(89)); Foreign Exchnage Management Act,1999 ((sub-clause 2(30), 2(33)) the Information Technology Act(sub-clause 2(41)) etc. After extensive deliberations on all of the subclauses in Clause 2, the Committee find that the sub-clauses not commented on above are legally sound and well-aligned with the proposed legislation. Therefore, the Committee recommend that the remaining sub-clauses under Clause 2 be accepted as proposed in the Income-tax Bill, 2025.

24.	3.6	Clause 3 Definition of "tax year".	Committee find that Clause 3 of the Bill proposes a significant change by replacing the dual concepts of "previous year" and "assessment year" with a single, unified term: "tax year". The Committee note that this change represents a major simplification, addressing a long-standing point of confusion for countless taxpayers. The adoption of a single, consistent "tax year" streamlines tax period references throughout the legislation, making the law more accessible and easier to understand. Despite many countries using a calendar year, the Bill retains India's traditional April to March cycle.The Committee believe that this definitional clarity is a commendable step towards enhancing the ease of comprehension and compliance, thereby aligning the Bill with its core objective of simplifying the tax framework. Accordingly, the Committee accept Clause 3 as it stands.

25.	4.6.1	Clause No. 4:Charge of income-tax Sub clause 4(1)	The Committee, after a careful review of Clause 4(1), identified a need to enhance its clarity to avoid legal ambiguity regarding the application of tax rates. The Committee, therefore, propose that in Clause 4(1), the phrase "subject to the provisions of this Act" be incorporated. The Ministry conveyed its acceptance of this change as a necessary drafting correction. Accordingly, the Committee recommend that the Ministry amend the clause accordingly.
26.	4.6.2	Clause No. 4:Charge of income-tax Sub clause 4(5)	The Committee, during deliberation on Clause 4(5), identified a drafting omission that could affect the comprehensive application of tax collection mechanisms . Accordingly, the Committee recommend that Clause 4(5) be amended to explicitly clarify that its provisions for tax collection through deduction at source, collection at source, and advance payment apply to all income chargeable under Clause 4, including income mentioned in sub-section (4).The Committee further accept the remaining provisions of Clause 4 as proposed.
27.	5.4	Clause No. 5 : Scope of total income	The Committee, after a detailed examination of Clause 5 of the Income-tax Bill, 2025, which defines the scope of total income, note that the provision corresponds to Section 5 of the Income-tax Act, 1961. The Committee observe that the structure and language of the clause have been simplified, while the substantive legal position regarding the taxation of income based on residential status—whether resident, not ordinarily resident, or non-resident—has been retained without alteration.The Committee also take note of the Ministry of Finance's justification that the intent and coverage of the existing provision remain unchanged, and that the revisions are only intended to enhance clarity and readability. The Committee further observe that no material concerns or substantive objections have been raised by stakeholders with respect to this clause.Accordingly, the Committee find the proposed Clause 5 to be in line with the existing legal framework and accept the clause as it stands.

28.	6.6.1	Clause No. 6: Residence in India. Subclause 6(1)	The Committee, during the review of Clause 6(1), identified a textual ambiguity that could inadvertently limit the scope of the provision for determining residential status. The Committee, therefore, recommended that the Clause 6(1), the wording be amended to clarify that the clause applies to determining the residence in India of any person, not just persons who are already physically present in the country. This modification is essential for minimizing potential disputes over jurisdiction.
29.	6.6.2	Clause No. 6: Residence in India. Subclause 6(3)(b)	The Committee, after a review of Clause 6(3), identified that a change in wording from the previous Act could unintentionally narrow the scope of an important exemption for Indian citizens leaving the country for work. The Committee, therefore, recommend that in Clause 6(3)(b), the phrase "for employment outside India" be substituted with "for the purposes of employment outside India" to avoid ambiguity and align with settled judicial interpretation .
30.	6.6.3	Clause No. 6: Residence in India. Subclause 6(13)	The Committee, during the delibertaions on Clause 6(13), identified an omission in sub-clause (b)(ii) that could create ambiguity in its application when determining residential status . The Committee, accordingly, recommend that Clause 6(13)(b)(ii) be amended to explicitly state that the presence requirement of "one hundred and twenty days or more" pertains to the current tax year. The Committee further accept the remaining provisions of Clause 6 as proposed.
31.	7	Clause No.7: Income deemed to be received	The Committee, after a careful review of Clause 7, identified a structural issue arising from the merger of two distinct provisions from the previous Act, which were historically in separate sections . The Committee, therefore, recommend that the clause be amended to better distinguish between its two components: general 'income deemed to be received' and the specific 'deeming of dividend income for a year'. This will lead to better readability and will minimize potential misinterpretations regarding the scope of the provision, ensuring absolute clarity in categorization.

32.	8.4	Clause No. 8: Income on receipt of capital asset or stock-in-trade by specified person from specified entity.	The Committee note that Clause 8 of the Income-tax Bill, 2025 corresponds to Section 9B of the Income-tax Act, 1961 and deals with the tax implications arising from the receipt of capital assets or stock-in-trade by a specified person from a specified entity in the event of its dissolution or reconstitution.The Committee also note that necessary definitions have been retained, and the existing provisions have been textually simplified while retaining their original intent. Since no major concerns were raised by stakeholders and the Ministry has clarified that there is no change in intent or substance, the Committee are of the view that the proposed clause faithfully carries forward the original provision and improves its readability. Accordingly, the Committee recommend acceptance of Clause 8 as proposed in the Bill.
33.	9.6.1	Clause No 9: Income Deemed to Accrue or Arise in India Subclause 9(5)	The Committee, after a careful review of Clause 9(5), identified drafting issues related to incorrect referencing and structural incoherence that could affect its interpretation. The Committee, therefore, recommend that in Clause 9(5)(b), the reference be corrected to point to the broader Clause 9(5)(a), and that sub-clauses 9(5)(b)(i) and (ii) be combined to improve logical flow and textual coherence.
34.	9.6.2	Clause No 9 Subclause 9(6)	The Committee, upon deliberations on Clause 9(6), identified a critical typographical error in sub-clause (a)(iii)(B) that could significantly alter the scope of taxable royalty income for non-residents . The Committee, therefore, recommend that in the said sub-clause, the phrase "making or earning any income from any source outside India" be corrected to read "making or earning any income from any source in India".
35.	9.6.3	Clause No 9 Subclause 9(8)	The Committee, after a review of Clause 9(8)(c), identified that a key qualifying phrase appeared to have been inadvertently omitted from sub-clauses

			(ii)(A) and (B), which could lead to ambiguity in applying these crucial exclusions 1111. The Committee, therefore, recommend that in Clauses 9(8)(c)(ii)(A) and (B), the phrase "in case of Non-resident" be added to align the provision with the corresponding sections of the prevailing Income-tax Act, 1961.
36.	9.6.4	Clause No 9 Subclause 9(10)	The Committee, after reviewing sub-clause 9(10), identified a misspelt word. The Committee, therefore, recommend that in Clause 9(10)(b), the word "accure" be corrected to read "accrue". The Committee further accept the remaining provisions of Clause 9 as proposed.
37.	10.6	Clause No 10: Apportionmenet of income between spouses governed by Portuguese Civil Code.	The Committee, after considering Clause 10 of the Income-tax Bill, 2025, which relates to the apportionment of income between spouses governed by the Portuguese Civil Code, note that the provision corresponds to Section 5A of the Income-tax Act, 1961. The Clause retains the existing position regarding taxation of income of spouses who are governed by the community of property system in the State of Goa and the Union territories of Dadra and Nagar Haveli and Daman and Diu. The Committee deliberated on a suggestion regarding deletion of the provision on the grounds that there is no longer a need for a separate tax treatment based on the Portuguese Civil Code, and that a uniform tax regime should now be applicable more than sixty years after Goa's liberation. However, the Committee note the Ministry's response that the provision reflects a long-standing and settled legal treatment, and its deletion would amount to a broader policy change beyond the scope of the present Bill. Accordingly, the Committee are of the view that Clause 10, which simplifies the language of the existing provision without altering its intent, may be accepted as proposed.
38.	11.6.1	Clause No.11: Incomes not to be included in total income Subclause 11(4)	The Committee, after a careful review of Schedule II, identified a significant drafting error concerning the tax exemption for Unit Linked Insurance Plans (ULIPs) as outlined in Sl. No. 2, specifically in items 4 and 5, Column C. The Committee, therefore, recommend that in the relevant parts of Schedule II, the word "all" be replaced with the word "any" to ensure parity between the existing Act and the Bill. The Committee, having examined the clause in its entirety, endorse the remaining provisions of Clause without any modifications.

39.	11.6.2	Clause No.11: Schedule II	The Committee, after a careful review of Schedule II, identified a significant drafting error concerning the tax exemption for Unit Linked Insurance Plans (ULIPs) as outlined in Sl. No. 2, specifically in items 4 and 5, Column C. The Committee, therefore, recommend that in the relevant parts of Schedule II, the word "all" be replaced with the word "any" to ensure parity between the existing Act and the Bill. The Committee, having examined the clause in its entirety, endorse the remaining provisions of Clause without any modifications.
40.	12.4	Clause No.12: Incomes not to be included in total income of political parties and electoral trusts	The Committee, after examining Clause 12 of the Income-tax Bill, 2025, note that it relates to the exemption of certain incomes of political parties and electoral trusts from inclusion in total income. The Committee observe that the clause corresponds to Sections 13A and 13B of the Income-tax Act, 1961 and retains the substance of those provisions and present them in a simplified and consolidated manner through a newly introduced Schedule VIII. The Committee also note that the structure of Schedule VIII consolidates information in a tabular format, enhancing clarity and ease of compliance. The Committee find that there is no change in the intent or scope of the provision compared to the existing law, and the proposed drafting seeks to improve accessibility and administrative efficiency. No comments have been raised by stakeholders in this regard.Accordingly, the Committee are of the view that Clause 12 may be accepted as proposed.
41.	13.6	Clause No. 13: Heads of income	The Committee, after examining Clause 13 of the Income-tax Bill, 2025, note that it relates to the classification of income under specified heads for the purpose of computation, corresponding to Section 14 of the Income-tax Act, 1961. The provision maintains the existing five heads of income viz. salaries, income from house property, profits and gains of business or profession, capital gains, and income from other sources and presents them in a simplified and coherent manner.The Committee observe that the clause retains the scope and intent of the existing provision without any substantive alteration, and no concerns have been raised by stakeholders in this regard.

42.	14.6	Clause No. 14: Income not forming part of total Income and expenditure in relation to such Income	The Committee, upon review of Clause 14 of the Income-tax Bill, 2025, note that it relates to the disallowance of expenditure incurred in relation to income which does not form part of the total income. The clause corresponds to the existing Section 14A of the Income-tax Act, 1961 and seeks to maintain the underlying principle that no deduction shall be allowed for expenses incurred to earn exempt income. The Committee observe that the provision has been retained in substance and merely restated with minor editorial simplifications. No concerns or suggestions were raised by stakeholders regarding the clause.In light of the above, the Committee endorse Clause 14 as proposed, without suggesting any modification.
43.	15.6	Clause No.15: Salaries	The Committee, after examining Clause 15 of the Income-tax Bill, 2025, note that it pertains to the chargeability of income under the head "Salaries" and corresponds to Section 15 of the Income-tax Act, 1961. The provision continues to follow the principle that salary income is taxable either on due basis or on receipt, whichever is earlier, and covers various categories of payments including advances, arrears, and dues from past employment.Accordingly, the Committee are of the view that Clause 15 may be accepted in its current form without any amendment.
44.	16.4	Clause No.16:Income from Salary	The Committee, after examining Clause 16 of the Income-tax Bill, 2025, note that it defines the scope of income to be taxed under the head "Income from Salary." The Committee further note that this clause corresponds to Section 17(1) of the Income-tax Act, 1961. It retains the essential components of 'salary'—such as wages, pension, gratuity, and leave encashment—while simplifying the text without making any substantive changes. Accordingly, the Committee recommend that Clause 16 may be accepted as proposed.
45.	17.6	Clause No. 17:	The Committee note that while Clause 17(1)(a)

		Perquisite Subclause 17(1)(b)	includes the phrase "computed in such manner, as prescribed," the corresponding provision in Clause 17(1)(b) lacks this reference, potentially leading to ambiguity in interpreting the valuation method for concessional accommodation.The Committee, therefore, recommend that in Clause 17(1)(b), the phrase "computed in such manner, as prescribed" be explicitly inserted, mirroring the language used in Clause 17(1)(a). Accordingly, the Committee recommend that the Ministry amend the clause as proposed. The Committee further accept the remaining provisions of the Clause 17 as proposed.
46.	18.4	Clause No. 18: Profits in lieu of Salary	The Committee, after examining Clause 18 of the Income-tax Bill, 2025, note that it relates to the definition and scope of "profits in lieu of salary," and corresponds to section 17(3) of the Income-tax Act, 1961. The Committee observe that the clause seeks to enumerate various payments such as compensation on termination or modification of employment terms, amounts received before joining or after cessation of employment, payments from funds not comprising employee contributions, etc. that are to be treated as profits in lieu of salary for taxation purposes.The Committee note that the provision retains the substance of the existing law but improves readability. Accordingly, the Committee are of the view that Clause 18 may be accepted as proposed.
47.	19.6	Clause No 19: Deductions from salaries (Schedule VII)	The Committee, after a careful review of Clause 19, identified a gap in the equitable tax treatment of commuted pension for different types of recipients. The Committee, therefore, recommend that a deduction for commuted pension, similar to that available to employees under Clause 19, be explicitly allowed under the head "Income from other sources" for non-employees who receive such pension from a fund. Accordingly, the Committee finds no further modifications are necessary for Clause 19 and recommend the acceptance of its remaining provisions as drafted.
48.	20.6	Clause No. 20:	The Committee, upon reviewing of Clause 20,

Sl. No	Para No	Clause No.	Observation/Recommendation
		Income from house property Subclause 20(2)	identified a change in wording in 20(2) from the previous Act that could lead to an incorrect tax treatment for certain business properties . The Committee, therefore, recommend that in Clause 20(2), the word "occupied" be replaced with the phrase "as he may occupy" to ensure that temporarily unutilized or ready-to-use business properties are clearly excluded from taxation under the house property head. Accordingly, the Committee, recommend that the Ministry amend the clause as proposed to accurately delineate the scope of "Income from house property". The Committee further accept the remaining provision of the Clause 20 as proposed.
49.	21.6	Clause No.21: Determination of annual value. Subclause 21(2)	The Committee, after a careful review of Clause 21, identified drafting issues in 21(2) that could lead to ambiguity in determining the annual value for properties experiencing vacancy. The Committee, therefore, recommend two key changes: first, that the phrase "in normal course" be deleted, and second, that the clause be amended to explicitly provide for a comparison of the actual rent received with the "deeming rent," as was available in the existing Act. Committee believe these adjustments are vital for enhancing fairness, reducing ambiguity in the valuation of vacant properties, and leading to a more equitable tax treatment for property owners. The Committee, further, recommend that rest of the Clasues may be accepted in their current form.
50.	22.6	Clause No.22: Deductions from income from house property. Subclause 22(1) and 22(2)	The Committee, after deliberations on Clause 22, identified the need to clarify the computation of deductions to enhance fairness and transparency for property owners. The Committee, recommend two key amendments: firstly, in Clause 22(1)(a), to explicitly state that the standard 30% deduction is computed on the annual value after deducting municipal taxes; and secondly, in Clause 22(2), to ensure the deduction for pre-construction interest is available for let-out properties in addition to self-occupied ones, aligning it with the existing Act. Further, the Committee accept the remaining provisions of Clause 22 as proposed in the Bill.

		Arrears of rent and unrealised rent received subsequently	Committee observe that its provisions for taxing subsequently received arrears of rent and unrealised rent correspond to Section 25A of the 1961 Act. Finding that the clause is a textual simplification which retains the original substance, the Committee recommend its acceptance as it stands.
52.	24.6	Clause No.24:Property owned by co-owners	The Committee observe that Clause 24, corresponding to Section 26 of the Income-tax Act, 1961, sets out the provisions for taxing income from properties that are co-owned with definite and ascertainable shares.The Committee observe that the proposed clause is a textual simplification of the existing law, preserving its core intent and application without any substantive deviation. Therefore, the Committee accept Clause 24 as proposed by the Ministry and recommend no modification.
53.	25.6	Clause No.25 :Interpretation.	The Committee deliberated upon Clause 25, which provides the interpretative definition of 'owner' for the purposes of computing income from house property. This clause, corresponding to Section 27 of the Income-tax Act, 1961, consolidates the various scenarios of deemed ownership into a single, cohesive provision. The Committee observe that the clause retains the established legal principles and preserves necessary anti-abuse provisions while simplifying the language. Therefore, the Committee accept Clause 25 as proposed and recommend no change.
54.	26.6	26	The Committee, upon examination, note some drafting errors i.e. the usage of words 'named' and 'input' in Clause 26(2)(b) and in Clause 26(2)(e) respectively. The Committee thus, recommend that in Clause 26(2)(b), the word 'named' be replaced with 'name', and in Clause 26(2)(e), the word 'input' be substituted with 'import'. Furthermore, the Committee recommend that necessary amendments be carried out in the Bill to ensure consistent application and smooth transition of Section 35AD into the new Income-Tax Bill (ITB), 2025. Specifically, Clause 26(2)(k) should incorporate a provision stating that any amount received from the sale of a capital asset acquired and used for the purpose of a specified business for which 100% deduction was claimed under Section 35AD of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 shall be taxed as business income if such asset is sold on or after the date on which the new Income-Tax Bill comes into effect. Apart from the above recommendation(s), the Committee find the Clause to be adequate and in line with regard to corresponding Section(s) of the 1961 Act and hence accept the Clause subject to the above proposed modifications.

55.	27.4	27	The Committee find the Clause to be adequate and in line with regard to corresponding Section(s) of the 1961 Act and hence accept the Clause as it stands.
56.	28.6	28	The Committee, upon examination, note that in Clause 28(1), the words "wholly and exclusively" are not necessary as if the premises, etc., are used only partly for business purposes, then provision for making disallowance has already been made under Clause 28(2). The Committee, thus recommend that in Clause 28(1), the words "wholly and exclusively" be omitted. The Committee further recommend that in Clause 28(1)(e), the phrase "by the premises occupied" be omitted to convey the correct meaning. Clause 28(1)(e) may accordingly be revised to read as follows: "(e) cost of repairs, not being capital expenditure, when the premises are occupied by the assessee as a tenant." The Committee also recommend that a new clause (f) be inserted after Clause 28(1)(e), since the current clause does not cover deductions for current repairs to machinery, plant or furniture. The proposed clause may read as follows: "(f) the amount paid on account of current repairs to machinery, plant or furniture." Apart from the above recommendation(s), the Committee find the Clause to be adequate and in line with regard to corresponding Section(s) of the 1961 Act and hence accept the Clause as it stands subject to the above proposed modifications.
57.	29.6	29	The Committee after thorough examination and deliberation and the justification given by the Ministry of Finance find the provisions of the proposed Clause

58.	30.4	30	The Committee find the Clause to be adequate and in line with regard to corresponding Section(s) of the 1961 Act and hence accept the Clause in entirety.
59.	31.6	31	The Committee, upon examination, note that the word "irrevocable" has been usedin the third and eighth lines of Clause 31(3)(b). The Committee feel that the word "irrecoverable" is more appropriate in the context of bad debts. The Committee, thus, recommend that in the third and eighth lines of Clause 31(3)(b), the word "irrevocable" may be substituted with "irrecoverable". Apart from the above recommendation(s), the Committee find the Clause to be adequate and in line with regard to corresponding Section(s) of the 1961 Act and hence accept the Clause as it stands subject to the above proposed modifications.
60.	32.6	32	The Committee, upon examination, note that the term "financial corporation" has been used in Clause 32(1)(e)(ii)(A)(I) which is not defined under Section 2(72) of the Companies Act, 2013 (CA-13). The Committee, thus recommend that in Clause 32(1)(e)(ii)(A)(I), the term "financial corporation" be replaced with "public financial institution", as the latter is the term defined under Section 2(72) of the Companies Act, 2013 (CA-13), whereas the term "financial corporation" is not defined therein. Further, with respect to Clause 32(1)(e)(ii)(C)(III), the Committee recommend that the expression "an undertaking referred to in sub-section (10) of Section 80-IB of the Income-tax Act, 1961" be used instead of "an undertaking referred to in section 141(5)", as no such Section 141(5) exists in the draft Income-Tax Bill, 2025. The Committee on similar lines of reproducing definition of 'infrastructure facility' in the Bill from the Income-Tax Act, 1961, also urge for reproducing the definition of 'undertaking' instead of the expression "an undertaking referred to in sub-section (10) of Section 80-IB of the Income-tax Act, 1961". The same may be appropriately done by clubbing in the savings clause 536. With regard to provision 32(1)(h) for disallowance of Marked to Market (MTM) losses not computed as per Income Computation and Disclosure Standards (ICDS), the Committee recommend that the same be provided for in Clause 32(1)(h) of the Bill. Apart from the above recommendation(s), the Committee find the Clause to be adequate and in line with regard to corresponding Section(s) of the 1961 Act and hence accept the Clause as it stands subject to the above proposed modifications.

61.	33.6	33	The Committee, upon examination of Clause 33 of the Income-tax Bill, 2025, observe that the phrase "intangible assets acquired" under Clause 33(1)(b) does not specify a cut-off date. Under the provisions of the Income-tax Act, 1961, depreciation on intangible assets is allowed only for those acquired on or after 1st April, 1998. The Committee thus, recommend that in Clause 33(1)(b), the words "acquired on or after the 1st day of April, 1998" be inserted after the phrase "intangible assets acquired", to ensure that depreciation is allowed only on those intangible assets acquired after the specified date, in line with the provisions of the 1961 Act, and not on all such assets. Further, with regard to the Clause, the Committee recommend that the term "tangible assets" be used in place of "block of assets". This is because the term "block of assets" implies the inclusion of intangible assets as well for the purpose of computing the proportionate part used for business. However, under the 1961 Act, depreciation in such cases is restricted to a fair proportion as determined by the Assessing Officer and is applicable only to tangible assets that are either partly or not wholly and exclusively used for business purposes. In addition, the Committee recommend that the reference to sub-section (8) be deleted from sub-section (4), since sub-section (9) already contains a specific provision that restricts additional depreciation to 50% where the asset is acquired and put to use for less than 180 days. The Committee also recommend that a reference to Clause 33(3) be added in Clause 33(4), as Section (3) deals with the rate of depreciation applicable in the case of a block of assets.

Sl. No	Para No	Clause No.	Observation/Recommendation
			To enhance clarity in Clause 33(9), the Committee recommend that the condition precede the rate in sub-clauses (a) and (b), and that the sub-section be redrafted as follows: (9) The additional deduction referred to in sub-section (8) shall be— (a) If the new plant and machinery is acquired and put to use for 180 days or more in the relevant tax year, 20% of the actual cost of the new machinery or plant in the tax year when it is acquired and put to use; or (b) In other cases, 10% of the actual cost, and the remaining 10% shall be allowed in the immediately succeeding tax year. Apart from the above recommendation(s), the Committee find the Clause to be adequate and in line with regard to corresponding Section(s) of the 1961 Act and hence accept the Clause as it stands subject to the above proposed modifications.
62.	34.6	34	The Committee after thorough deliberation upon the provisions of the Clause and the justification given by the Ministry of Finance find the provisions of the proposed Clause 34 to be acceptable as it is without any modifications.
63.	35.6	35	The Committee, upon examination, note that the reference to Section 200 of the Companies Act, 1956, in Schedule III, Table, at S. No. 10(c), as cited in Clause 35(a)(ii), is erroneous. The corresponding provisions under Section 200 of the 1956 Act do not exist in the Companies Act, 2013. Additionally, Schedule III, Table at S. No. 10(c) already provides that the exemption on perquisites is available even if such perquisite is paid, regardless of Section 200 of the Companies Act, 1956, thereby rendering the reference redundant, the Committee thus recommend that the provisions in Schedule III, Table, at S. No. 10(c), as referred to in Clause 35(a)(ii), be omitted. Further, with respect to situations where tax is deducted in one year but paid after the due date for filing the return in the subsequent year which is not currently addressed in Clause 35(b)(i)and (ii), the Committee recommend that explicit provisions be incorporated in the respective clauses to address such cases.

Sl. No	Para No	Clause No.	Observation/Recommendation
			The Committee further recommend that Clause 35(d) be omitted, as the Government's amendments to the Finance Act, 2025, have removed the Equalization Levy on specified services, rendering this clause redundant. Regarding Clause 35(e), the Committee recommend that it be redrafted to ensure that the phrase "a State Government undertaking or by the State Government" clearly applies to both sub-clauses of Clause 35(e) of the Bill. The Committee would also like to recommend redrafting of Clause 35(f)(iv) and (v) for providing better clarity as below: (iv) on interest to any partner as authorised by the partnership deed, exceeding 12% simple interest per annum, (v) In this clause— (A)"book profit" means the net profit, as shown in the profit and loss account for the relevant tax year, computed as per Chapter IVD as increased by the aggregate amount of the remuneration to all the partners of the firm, if such amount has been deducted while computing the net profit; (B)"working partner" means an individual who is actively engaged in conducting the affairs of the business or profession of the firm of which he is a partner; (C) where an individual is a partner in a firm, on behalf of or for the benefit of any other person, such partner and any other person shall be referred as a "representative partner" and the "person so represented", respectively, then the provisions of sub-clause (ii) and (iv)— shall not be applicable in respect of interest paid to such individual not as a representative partner; shall be applicable in respect of interest paid to an individual as a representative partner and the person so represented; shall not be applicable in respect of interest paid to a partner, otherwise than as a representative partner, on behalf of or for the benefit of any other person. Apart from the above recommendation(s), the Committee find the Clause to be adequate and in line with regard to corresponding Section(s) of the 1961 Act and hence accept the Clause as it stands subject to the above proposed modifications.

64.	36.6	36	The Committee recommend that the page margin accompanying Clause 36 be corrected to read "Expenses or payments not deductible in certain circumstances" instead of "Expenses or payments not deductible in certain circmstances", in order to ensure grammatical accuracy and correct spelling. Apart from the above recommendation, the Committee find the Clause to be adequate and in line with regard to corresponding Section(s) of the 1961 Act and hence accept the Clause as it stands subject to above proposed modification.
65.	37.6	37	The Committee observe that Clause 37(1) does not clearly specify whether expenses that are specifically disallowed under other provisions of the Income-tax Bill, 2025, can still be claimed under this clause on the basis of actual payment. The Committee recommend that to provide clarity and ensure that no ambiguity arises regarding whether expenses specifically disallowed under other provisions of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025, can be claimed under Section 37 on the basis of actual payment; the phrase "otherwise allowable" be inserted in Clause 37(1). The Committee also recommend that provisions similar to Explanation 2 to Section 43B of the Income-tax Act, 1961 defining the expression "any sum payable" which have presently been omitted, be incorporated into the Bill to enhance clarity and eliminate interpretational uncertainty. Further, the Committee recommend that the word "advances" at the end of Clause 37(2)(e) be replaced with the word "borrowing", in order to align the new provision with the existing one and to avoid potential issues in interpretation. Apart from the above recommendation(s), the Committee find the Clause to be adequate and in line with regard to corresponding Section(s) of the 1961 Act and hence accept the Clause as it stands subject to the above proposed modifications.

			condition in Clause 38(2)(a) is for clause 38(1) to apply viz. that "only when an allowance or deduction has been made in assessment for any earlier tax year towards the trading liability, loss or expenditure incurred". The Committee feel that this wording is repetitive and should be omitted to avoid confusion. Moreover, retaining "earlier" could lead to misinterpretation that if the deduction or allowance is granted in the current tax year, its remission would not be taxable, as Clause 38(2)(a) restricts the condition to allowance in an "earlier" tax year only. The Committee thus, recommend that in Clause 38(2)(a) the word "earlier" be removed. The Committee further recommend that Clause 38(2)(b) should refer to section 33(2) and not section 33, being depreciation for power undertaking in line with the provisions in section 41(2) of the IT Act, 1961 and these provisions are not applicable for depreciation on WDV basis for block of assets. Apart from the above recommendation(s), the Committee find the Clause to be adequate and in line with regard to corresponding Section(s) of the 1961 Act and hence accept the Clause as it stands subject to the above proposed modifications.
67.	39.6	39	The Committee note that the phrase "directly or indirectly" has been used in Section 43 of the 1961 Act which provides definitions of certain terms relevant to income from profits and gains of business or profession, but has been omitted in the Bill. The Committee thus recommend that the phrase "directly or indirectly" be added in clause 39(1)(d) and 39(5)(b) of the Bill for better clarity. Including it would help preserve the original intent while simplifying the text. The Committee also recommend that reference made to Income-Tax Act 1961, made in Column C, Sr No. 9 of the Table in Clause 39 be removed and incorporated in Clause 536 which pertains to Repeals and Savings. Apart from the above recommendation(s), the Committee find the Clause to be adequate and in line with regard to corresponding Section(s) of the 1961 Act and hence accept the Clause as it stands subject to the above proposed modifications.

			the 1961 Act and hence accept the Clause as it is.
69.	41.6	41	The Committee note that in Sr. No. 4 of Column B of Clause 41(1), the current drafting structure where the provision is split into sub-parts (a)(i) and (ii) results in the conditions specified under section 70(1)(c) appearing to apply only to sub-clause (ii). This creates an unintended implication that all transfers from a holding company to its subsidiary fall within the scope of the provision, even if the specific conditions under section 70(1)(c) are not fulfilled. The Committee thus, recommend that Sr. No. 4 in Column B of clause 41(1) be redrafted to avoid misinterpretation and overextension of the intended relief. The Committee further recommend that sr. no. 4 in column C of 41(1) also be redrafted to align the Bill with current 1961 Act wherein the expression "written down value of block of asset in the immediately preceding previous year as reduced by the depreciation actually allowed in respect of that block of asset in relation to the said previous tax year" has been used, while the Bill uses the expression "at the beginning of the tax year in which such transfer took place". The Committee also recommend the removal of bracketed portion "(for the immediately preceding tax year)" in column C of sr. no. 5 of table below clause 41(1) while determining WDV of block of assets for the demerged company for the tax yearto remove any ambiguity. The Committee also recommend that reference made to Income-Tax Act 1961, made in Column C, Sr No. 2 of the Table in Clause 41 and in 41(4) be removed and incorporated in Clause 536 which pertains to Repeals and Savings. Apart from the above recommendation(s), the Committee find the clause to be adequate and aligned with the corresponding provisions of the 1961 Act, and therefore accept the clause as it stands, subject to the proposed modifications.
70.	42.6	42	The Committee note that the phrase 'amount paid in Indian currency' has been used against 'B' and feel that the same is not appropriate and should be replaced with the phrase 'as expressed in Indian currency' in clause 42(2) since the asset is acquired in foreign currency, the payment is also in foreign currency. The Committee believe that this will ensure that the Bill is in line with the 1961 Act. Apart from the above recommendation, the Committee find the Clause to be adequate and in line with regard to corresponding Section(s) of the 1961 Act and hence accept the Clause as it stands subject to the above proposed modification.

71.	43.4	43	The Committee find the Clause to be adequate and in line with regard to corresponding Section(s) of the 1961 Act and hence accept the Clause as it is.
72.	44.6	44	The Committee, upon examination, note the need for the word "also" to be incorporated in Clause 44(2)(c) to affirm that deductions include other expenses listed in the remaining sub-clauses, as previously permitted in the Income-Tax Act, 1961, thereby avoiding any potential misinterpretations and thus recommend that the same be added in Clause 44(2)(c). The Committee further recommend that the phrase "or ICICI Ltd." be omitted from Clause 44(5)(c)(i), as ICICI Ltd no longer exists, having merged with ICICI Bank Ltd in 2002. Furthermore, the Committee also recommend that use of abbreviations should be avoided in the Bill. Apart from the above recommendation(s), the Committee find the Clause to be adequate and in line with regard to corresponding Section(s) of the 1961 Act and hence accept the Clause as it stands subject to the above proposed modifications.
73.	45.6	45	The Committee note that Clause 45(2)(c) of the Bill, which provides for an additional deduction for in-house R&D expenditure over and above the deduction allowed under Clause 45(1), currently creates doubt regarding this specific intention and thus recommend that Clause 45(2)(c) of the Bill, be redrafted to align it with the desired intent. Further, with respect to Clause 45(3), the Committee recommend that the same be redrafted so as to clearly specify that "approval of scientific research" is required from the specified authority only in the case of Clause 45(3)(c), and not for Clauses 45(3)(a) or (b), consistent with the intent of the draft Bill and in line with the Income-Tax Act, 1961. Regarding Clause 45(11), the Committee recommend that appropriate drafting corrections be made so that the term "land" is defined solely for the purpose of Clause 45(1), rather than for the entire section. This will remove the necessity to separately define "building", which is currently required because both "land" and "building" have been used interchangeably in this section, while the definition of "building" has not been provided. Apart from the above recommendation(s), the Committee find the Clause to be adequate and in line with regard to corresponding Section(s) of the 1961 Act and hence accept the Clause as it stands subject to the above proposed modifications.

74.	46.6	46	The Committee, upon examination, note that there is a typographical error in cross-referencing in Clause 46(8) and thus recommend that the same be rectified i.e. "138(18) and (23)" may be replaced with "140(8) and (13)." Further, with regard to 46(9)(b), the Committee recommend that the Clause be redrafted to align it with the provisions of the 1961 Act as the current wordings in the Bill of Sub-section (9) suggest that if the specified asset is used for the period exceeding 8 years then there is a non compliance, which is not the intention and hence 9(b) should be redrafted as follows: "is used for a purpose other than the specified business during the period specified in clause (a)" and is not chargeable to tax under section 26(2)(k), then the total amount of deduction so claimed and allowed in one or more tax years, as reduced by the amount of depreciation allowable under section 33, as if no deduction under this section was allowed, shall be the income chargeable under the head "Profits and gains of business or profession" of the tax year in which the asset is so used. The Committee would also like to suggest that the word "Th" may be replaced with the word "The" to remove typographical error in Clause 46(6), Column 'C', Sr No. 13. The Committee also recommend that reference made to Income-Tax Act 1961, made in 46(11)(c) be removed and incorporated in Clause 536 which pertains to Repeals and Savings. Apart from the above recommendation(s), the Committee find the clause to be adequate and aligned with the corresponding provisions of the 1961 Act, and therefore accept the clause as it stands, subject to the proposed modifications.

75.	47.6	47	To align Clause 47(1) of the Bill with the existing provisions of the Act, the Committee recommend that the phrase "notified as per the guidelines issued by the Board" be replaced with the phrase "notified by the Board in this behalf in accordance with the guidelines as may be prescribed" in Clause 47(1)(b) as the former is prone to different interpretations. Apart from the above recommendation, the Committee find the Clause to be adequate and in line with regard to corresponding Section(s) of the 1961 Act and hence accept the Clause as it stands subject to the above proposed modification.
76.	48.6	48	The Committee note that Sub-section (2) is not in line with Para 3(2) of Schedule IX, which provides for taxability only in the case of closure of business and dissolution of firm and not in case of amount withdrawn in case of death of an assessee, partition of HUF and liquidation of company and thus recommend redrafting of the same. The Committee understand that Clause 48(3) taxes cost of certain assets for which deduction was claimed earlier, if asset is sold before a specified period and Rule 5(1) of Schedule IX also provides the same condition as in 48(3). Further, Rule 5(2) provides exception to rule 5(1). The Rule 5(2) of Schedule IX is to be moved to clause 48(3) as the Rule 5(2) provides for exception to provisions of clause 48(3) to bring the Bill in line with the provisions of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. Apart from the above recommendation(s), the Committee find the Clause to be adequate and in line with regard to corresponding Section(s) of the 1961 Act and hence accept the Clause as it stands subject to the above proposed modifications.
77.	49.6	49	Upon examination, the Committee note that there is a need for redrafting of Sub-section (2) as Clause 49(3) taxes cost of certain assets for which deduction was claimed earlier, if asset is sold before a specified period and Rule 5(1) of Schedule X also provides the same condition as in cl. 49(3) and Rule 5(2) provides exception to Rule 5(1). The Committee thus recommend that the sub-rule 5(2) of Schedule X is to be moved to clause 49(3) as the sub-rule 5(2) provides for exception to provisions of clause 49(3). The Committee further recommend that the words "to be installed in an industrial undertaking for the purpose of business of construction, manufacture or production of any article or thing specified in the list" be used in Rule 3(2) of Schedule X in place of " for constructing, or manufacturing or producing any items listed" to bring the Bill in line with the 1961 Act. The Bill provides that no deduction shall be allowed in respect of any amount utilized for the purchase of any new machinery or plant for constructing, manufacturing or producing any items i.e. the words 'to be installed in an industrial undertaking for the purposes of business of construction, manufacture or production of any article or thing specified in the list' is missing and the same needs to be rectified to align the Bill with the Income-Tax Act, 1961. Apart from the above recommendation(s), the Committee find the Clause to be adequate and in line with regard to corresponding Section(s) of the 1961 Act and hence accept the Clause as it stands subject to the above proposed modifications.

Sl. No	Para No	Clause No.	Observation/Recommendation

81.	53.6	53	Upon examination, the Committee note that after the phrase "stamp duty" the word "value" is missing and feel that the same is required to be added to ensure that the Bill is in alignment with the Income-Tax Act, 1961 whose objective was consideration for transfer to be less than the value adopted for stamp duty purposes, while the current wording of the Bill points towards the received consideration for transfer to be less than the stamp duty itself which is a small fraction of the stamp duty value adopted. Hence, the Committee recommend that the word "value" be added after the phrase "stamp duty" to rectify the same. Apart from the above recommendation, the Committee find the Clause to be adequate and in line with regard to the corresponding Section(s) of the 1961 Act and hence accept the Clause as it stands subject to the above proposed modification.
82.	54.6	54	Upon examination, the Committee note that the term 'mineral oil' is already defined in section 66(13) and is an unnecessary repetition in Clause 54 and hence recommend that Clause 54(8) may be deleted. Apart from the above recommendation, the Committee find the Clause to be adequate and in line with regard to corresponding Section(s) of the 1961 Act and hence accept the Clause as it stands subject to the above proposed modification.

85.	57.6	57	With the objective of enhancing clarity and avoiding potential litigation, the Committee recommend that the language of the Clause be suitably modified. Sub-clause (2) of Clause 57 provides certain exceptions to Sub-clause (1) of the same Clause; however, both sub-clauses currently appear as independent provisions, which may give rise to ambiguity. Apart from the above recommendation(s), the Committee find the Clause to be adequate and in line with regard to corresponding Section(s) of the 1961 Act and hence accept the Clause as it stands subject to the above proposed modifications.
86.	58.6	58	The Committee, upon examination, note that there is a need for Clause 58(2) to be aligned with existing provisions of the Act to remove any ambiguity with respect to clearly defining the turnover (for Business, Profession, Commission Agent) in the Clause and hence, recommend the same. Subsequently, a similar alignment needs to be accordingly done in Clause 62(2) as well. The Committee further recommend that to avoid any misinterpretation the word "realised" should not be used in column E of Sr. No. 1 of table below clause 58(2) of the Bill as the word 'realised' has not been used in the IT Act, 1961. Further, the Committee believe that using the word 'realised' would give the impression that percentage should be computed only on amount realised and outstanding amount should not be considered. The Committee also recommend that the phrase "for every month or part of a month during which the vehicle is owned by the assessee during the tax year" be added in column E of Sr. No. 2 of table below clause 58(2) of the Bill as the current provision in IT Bill, 2025 does not specify Rs. 1,000 is for what period. Hence, the Committee recommend the below wording to convey the correct meaning: (a) The aggregate of income from goods carriage: — (i) being a heavy goods vehicle, calculated at the rate of ₹1,000 per ton of gross vehicle weight or unladen weight for each vehicle, for every month or part of a month during which the heavy goods vehicle is owned by the assessee; or And with regard to introduction of extension for payments in specified modes after the tax year but before the due date for filing of return, the Committee recommend that the phrase "during the tax year or before the due date specified in sub-section (1) of section 263 in respect of that tax year" be added in column E of sr. no. 1 of table below clause 58 to align the Bill with the provisions of 1961 Act to avoid any litigation. The Committee also recommend changing wordings of Clause 58(1) to reflect that the clause provides for computing profits and is not a charging provision as the Committee feel that current provision of the Clause has become a charging section due to use of the word 'charged' and not 'computed' as the current section determines the computation of the income. Apart from the above recommendation(s), the Committee find the Clause to be adequate and in line with regard to corresponding Section(s) of the 1961 Act and hence accept the Clause as it stands subject to the above proposed modifications.

87.	59.6	59	The Committee, after thorough deliberation upon the proposals and the justification given by the Ministry of Finance find the provisions of the proposed Clause 59 to be acceptable as it is without any modifications.
88.	60.5	60	The Committee note that in Clause 60(3)(a), the reference to 32(i)(i) is erroneous and hence, recommend that the reference to 32(i)(i) be replaced with the appropriate reference and the Clause be accordingly redrafted. Apart from the above recommendation, the Committee find the Clause to be adequate and in line with regard to corresponding Section(s) of the 1961 Act and hence accept the Clause as it stands subject to the above proposed modification.

89.	61.6	61	The Committee, after thorough deliberation upon the proposals and the justification given by the Ministry of Finance find the provisions of the proposed Clause 61 to be acceptable as it is without any modifications.
90.	62.6	62	The Committee, upon examination, note that Clause 62(1)(c) just repeats the provision already mentioned in 62(4)(b) and thus, recommend that Clause 62(1)(c) be omitted. The Committee further recommend that in Clause 62(2)(d), the threshold stated as "two lakh and fifty thousand rupees" be replaced with "twenty-five lakh rupees", since the threshold limit for total sales, turnover, or gross receipts under Section 44AA(2) of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, is twenty-five lakh rupees. Making this correction will align the Bill with the 1961 Act. Apart from the above recommendation(s), the Committee find the Clause to be adequate and in line with regard to corresponding Section(s) of the 1961 Act and hence accept the Clause as it stands subject to the above proposed modifications.
91.	63.6	63	The Committee, upon examination, note that there is a need for redrafting of Clause 63(1) Table Sl. No. 1 as Section 44AB of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, exempts a person whose turnover is less than Rs. 10 crores and whose cash receipts are less than 5% from the requirement of tax audit. However, the provisions proposed in the Bill do not exclude such persons from the ambit of tax audit. Therefore, the Committee feel that redrafting is necessary to align the Bill with the 1961 Act and to remove any ambiguity. The Committee further recommend modification in Clause 63(2)(b) as non-residents under presumptive scheme are excluded from maintaining books and tax audit compliance as such non-residents are not allowed to claim lower profits than provided in Cl. 61(2) (Table:Sl. No. 6) corresponding to s. 44BBD in IT Act, 1961 and thus there is no requirement of maintaining books of account or getting them audited. The Committee thus recommend that the provision in Cl. 63(2)(b) which mandates audit for such non-residents be accordingly corrected and

92.	64.6	64	The Committee, upon examination, recommend that Clause 64 be omitted, as it duplicates the provisions of Clause 187, which provides for acceptance of payment through prescribed electronic modes. The Committee believe that omitting Clause 64 and retaining Clause 187 will ensure a more appropriate and coherent flow of content in the Bill.
93.	65.4	65	The Committee find the Clause to be adequate and in line with regard to corresponding Section(s) of the 1961 Act and hence accept the Clause as it is.
94.	66.6	66	The Committee upon examination recommend the following with regard to various sub-clauses of Clause 66: i) 66(4): may be omitted as there is no mention of word "commodity derivative" in the Bill except for in the clause 66 which is related to interpretation, thus making the term redundant. Hence, the definition as provided in clause 66 be omitted. ii) 66(15): may be omitted as the reference of National Housing Bank which was in existing section 43D clause (b) of 1961 Act was omitted by the Finance (No. 2), Act, 2024. iii) 66(28): may be omitted as the term "rent" is not relevant since now the term "any sum payable" is used in section 35(b)(i) of Income-tax Bill, 2025. iv) 66(35): may be modified to incorporate for the fact that the definition of speculative transaction in the Bill misses the condition wherein eligible transaction is not a speculative transaction where STT and CTT is paid i.e. Section 43(5) of the Income-tax Act, 1961 provided that an eligible transaction in respect of trading in derivatives and commodity derivatives carried out in a recognized stock exchange are not speculative transactions, if STT and CTT have been paid and these exclusions have to be incorporated in the definition of speculative transaction in section 66(35) of the Income-tax Bill, 2025 to align it with the 1961 Act and retain the intent of the same. v) 66(45): may be omitted as the term "work" is no longer relevant, with the phrase "any sum payable" used in Section 35(b)(i) of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025, rendering this definition redundant. vi) 66(12) and 66(34): may be redrafted to align the definitions of "micro" and "small" enterprises respectively with the definitions notified in the Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises Development Act, 2006, rather than referring to "as assigned to it in section 2(m)" of that Act. This will bring uniformity in defining "Micro" and "Small" enterprises across both the MSMED Act and the Income-Tax Act, aiding MSMEs in matters related to delayed payments. Apart from the above recommendation(s), the Committee find the Clause to be adequate and in line with regard to corresponding Section(s) of the 1961 Act and hence accept the Clause as it stands subject to the above proposed modifications.

95.	67.6	67	The Committee note that Clause 67 of the Income-tax Bill, 2025 pertains to capital gains and seeks to provide for the chargeability of Income tax under the head "Capital gains" for various kinds of transfer of capital assets. The Committee also note that Clause 67 of the Bill corresponds to Section 45 of the Income-tax Act, 1961. Further, on examination of the views/suggestions given by various stakeholders and also the justification provided by the Ministry of Finance, the Committee feel that with respect to provisions mentioned in sub-clause (9), the income arising to a partner on transfer of capital asset to a firm etc. may be specifically mentioned to be charged under the head 'capital gains'. The Committee, therefore, recommend that the said sub-clause may be suitably drafted to address any ambiguity in the provisions thereof. Further, with respect to the remaining provisions under Clause 67, the Committee observe that they have been textually simplified while retaining the original intent of the corresponding Section of the Act. However, in sub-clause (18), the Committee find a cross reference to old Act of 1961 with respect to the mention of "any amount invested by the assessee in the units referred to in section 80CCB(2) of the Income-tax Act, 1961". The Committee feel that such cross referencing is a deviation from the clean break intended through this Bill. Therefore, the Committee recommend the Ministry to remove the reference to the old Act of 1961 by clubbing it in the Savings clause coherently and accept the remaining portion of the proposed Clause 67, without any further change.

96.	68.4	68	The Committee note that Clause 68 of the Income-tax Bill 2025 provides for taxation of capital gains arising from the distribution of assets by companies in liquidation and corresponds to Section 46 of the Income-tax Act, 1961. While recognizing the objective of addressing the taxation and value of consideration of money or assets received by an individual in the event of liquidation of a company, the Committee concur with the retention of the original intent and the textual simplification of the provisions under this clause. Therefore, after careful consideration of the proposal and the justifications provided by the Ministry of Finance, the Committee accept the clause as proposed.
97.	69.6	69	The Committee note that Clause 69 of the Income-tax Bill, 2025 provides for taxation on Capital gains on purchase by company of its own shares or other specified securities and corresponds to Section 46A of the Income-tax Act, 1961. After careful consideration of the provisions under this Clause, the Committee are of the opinion that provisions mentioned in sub-clause (1) are not in line with those of the corresponding Section of the Act such that the phrase 'of other specified securities' has not been expressly mentioned in respect of the holder acquiring the capital gains. Therefore, in order to ensure alignment of this Clause with the relevant provisions of the corresponding Section in the existing Act, the Committee recommend the insertion of the said phrase in sub-clause (1) and the same may be redrafted to read as : "69(1) - ….deemed to be "Capital gains" arising to such shareholder or the holder 'of other specified securities' in the year…" The Committee accept the remaining content of Clause 69 as proposed.

98.	70.6	70	The Committee note that Clause 70 of the Income-tax Bill, 2025 corresponds to Section 47 of the Income-tax Act, 1961 and seeks to delineate transactions that shall not be regarded as transfers for the purposes of capital gains taxation under Clause 67. The Committee also note that the intent and substance of the existing law have been retained in the proposed clause, with textual simplification and inclusion of a tabular format for definitions in sub-clause (2) for improved comprehension. After careful examination of the provisions in Clause 70 of the Bill – including the justification provided by the Ministry of Finance and the suggestions received from stakeholders, the Committee find the proposed provisions to be broadly acceptable. However, on observing that certain drafting refinements are desirable for improved clarity, consistency, and alignment with legislative intent, the Committee, therefore, recommend the following modifications: 1. In Clause 70(1)(a), the phrase "by way of" be inserted before the expression "of distribution of capital assets" to enhance clarity in expression. 2. In Clause 70(1)(l) and Clause 70(1)(m), appropriate redrafting be carried out to clarify that certain provisions of the Companies Act shall not apply in the context of demergers referred to in the said clauses. 3. In Clause 70(1)(zd), (ze), and (zf), the phrase "remain the same" be replaced with "remain as such" to ensure consistency with the terminology used elsewhere in the Act.

Sl. No	Para No	Clause No.	Observation/Recommendation
			4. In the tabular portion under Clause 70(2), the Committee recommend removal of the redundant phrase from the opening portion in Column C corresponding to Sl. No. 1 in Column A, as accepted by the Ministry. 5. The Committee also note that the definition of "relocation" needs to be modified to reflect the amended cut-off date of 31st March, 2030, as per the Finance Act, 2025, in place of 31st March, 2025. Subject to the above modifications, the Committee find the provisions under Clause 70 to be acceptable.
99.	71.6	71	The Committee note that Clause 71 of the Income-tax Bill 2025, corresponding to Section 47A of the Income-tax Act of 1961, provides for withdrawal of exemption in certain cases involving capital gains from transfer of capital assets and defines tax implications concerning situations wherein specified conditions are not met after such transfers. Thorough deliberation of the proposals made with regard to the clause, including the views/suggestions of the stakeholders and the justification provided by the Ministry of Finance point to certain relevant facts. The Committee find that the proposal regarding changing the phrase containing the year of claw back in respect of violations of conditions as mentioned in clause 536(2)(q) from 'the year in which such conditions are satisfied or not complied with' to 'the year in which such transfer took place' holds good considering that transfers deemed as income chargeable under the head 'Capital Gains' must be taxed in the year in which such transfers took place. Therefore, the Committee recommend that clause 536(2)(q) (Repeal and Savings) may be suitably amended in respect of provisions pertaining to Clause 71 and accordingly, changes, if any, may be made in Clause 71 wherever necessary in order to avoid any inconsistency. Further, for the sake of clarity and to eliminate any scope of misinterpretation, the Committee also desire that the phrase 'parent company' featuring in clause 71(1)(b) may be examined and clearly defined by the Ministry of Finance. The Committee approve the rest of the provisions under clause 71 as proposed.

100.	72.5	72	The Committee note that Clause 72 of the Income-tax Bill, 2025 provides for the mode of computation of capital gains and corresponds to Section 48 of the Income-tax Act, 1961. After thoughtful deliberation of the provisions proposed under sub-clause (4)(b), the Committee recommend that for the sake of congruity with the corresponding provision in the parent Act, the phrase "the amount" be changed to "such amount" and the modified provision be read as : "72(4)(b) – if the transaction of transfer of a unit is not considered as transfer under section 70 and cost of acquisition of such unit is determined under section 73, 'such amount' received with respect to such unit before as well as after such transaction, shall be reduced from the cost of acquisition." Further, with respect to sub-clause (8), the Committee feel that in order to obtain clarity on the rate of conversion of currencies, the provision as contained in Explanation (ii) of Section 48 of the parent Act, needs to be included within the said sub-clause. Therefore, the Committee recommend that the said provision be included in sub-clause (8) as part (d) and the modified provision be read as : "72(8)(d) - the conversion of Indian currency into foreign currency and the reconversion of foreign currency into Indian currency shall be at the rate of exchange prescribed in this behalf;". Subject to the above modifications, the Committee find the provisions under Clause 72 to be acceptable.
101.	73.6	73	The Committee note that Clause 73 of the Income-tax Bill, 2025 provides for the cost of acquisition of the asset with reference to certain modes of acquisition and is synonymous with Section 49 of the Income-tax Act, 1961. On careful examination, the Committee find that within the provision regarding description of the capital asset as contained in Table serial number 4 of sub-clause (1), an erroneous reference has been made to Section 17(2) instead of Section 17(1)(d) which is of relevance in this case as it provides for the value of any specified security or sweat equity shares as mentioned in Table serial number 4. Therefore, the Committee recommend that the reference be changed from Section 17(2) to Section 17(1)(d) and the modified provision be read as : "73(1) Table serial number 4 – Capital asset, being specified security or sweat equity shares, referred to in 'Section 17(1)(d)'". Further, regarding provisions relating to the cost of acquisition as contained in column C of Table serial number 15 under sub-clause (1), the Committee find that the absence of a specific mention from which the amount arrived in serial number 14 would be deducted makes the provision incomplete. The Committee feel that insertion of the phrase "the cost of acquisition of such original shares" at the beginning of the provision would accord better clarity and therefore, the Committee recommend that the phrase be suitably inserted and the modified provision be read as : "73(1) Table serial number 15 column C – 'the cost of acquisition of such original shares' as reduced by the amount so arrived at serial number 14". Furthermore, the Committee take cognizance of the fact that a cross references has been made to the Income-tax Act of 1961 with regard to specified capital asset mentioned in this clause. The Committee are of the view that such cross referencing to the IT Act, 1961 in the current Bill will necessitate the reference to a repealed Act in future and will make the exercise cumbersome and unsuitable. Thus, the Committee recommend the Ministry to remove any reference to the IT Act, 1961 from the text of specific clauses and instead create relevant provisions in the Savings Clause 536 of the Bill in order to cover all such clauses requiring reference to the IT Act, 1961. Subject to the specified modifications, the Committee find the provisions proposed under Clause 73 to be acceptable.

102.	74.6	74	The Committee note that Clause 74 of the Income-tax Bill, 2025 defines a specific provision for computation of capital gains in case of depreciable assets and corresponds to Section 50 of the Income-tax Act, 1961. Upon careful deliberation of the provisions under sub-clause (1), the Committee note a typographical error in the form of "sub-section (4)" within this sub-clause. Considering the response of the Ministry of Finance in this regard, the Committee recommend that this phrase may be deleted from sub-clause (1) in order to reflect the factually correct position and the said sub-clause may, therefore, be redrafted to read as : "74(1) - … the provisions of sections 72 and 73 shall be subject to the provisions of sub-sections (2), (3)". Further, the Committee observe that while "capital gains" in sub-clause (2) of Clause 74 have been specified to be "arising from the transfer of short-term capital assets", no such specification has been provided for "capital gains" mentioned under sub-clause (3)(b). Taking into consideration the response of the Ministry in this regard, the Committee feel that consistency in drafting must be ensured within the Clause. Therefore, for the sake of uniformity, the Committee recommend the addition of the phrase "arising from the transfer of short-term capital assets" in sub-clause (3)(b) and the same may be redrafted to read as : "74(3)(b) - the income received or accruing as a result of such transfer or transfers shall be deemed to be short-term capital gains 'arising from the transfer of short-term capital assets'." Furthermore, the Committee note that with respect to depreciation allowed on capital asset forming part of a block of assets, the provision mentioned under sub-clause (1) has a cross reference to the Income-tax Act, 1961 and also to the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922. The Committee are of the view that such cross referencing to the IT Act of 1961 or 1922 in the current Bill could result in a cumbersome exercise of repeatedly referring to repealed Acts for referencing in future. Thus, to avoid any scope for complications in future, the Committee recommend that any reference to the IT Act, 1961 or 1922 be removed from the text of specific clauses and instead relevant provisions be created within the Savings Clause 536 of the Bill in order to cover all such clauses requiring reference to the IT Act, 1961 or 1922. The Committee accept the remaining provisions under Clause 74 as proposed.

103.	75.6	75	The Committee, after reviewing the provisions proposed under Clause 75, note that this clause relates to a special provision for calculating the capital gains to be taxed in respect of depreciable assets by adjusting the cost of acquisition to account for the depreciated value of the asset. The Committee also observe that while this clause corresponds with Section 50A of the Income-tax Act, 1961, the provisions proposed therein stay true to the content and intent as envisaged under the parent Act. Further, after careful deliberation of the replies and justifications furnished by the Ministry of Finance, the Committee, while expressing satisfaction with the submissions of the Ministry, accept the proposed the clause in entirety.

Sl. No	Para No	Clause No.	Observation/Recommendation
104.	76.6	76	The Committee note that Clause 76 of the Income-tax Bill, 2025 corresponds to Section 50AA of the Income-tax Act, 1961 and seeks to provide for a special provision for computation of capital gains in case of Market Linked Debenture by way of a defined formula/equation. After careful examination of the provisions contained in this clause, along with the justification provided by the Ministry of Finance and the suggestions received from stakeholders, the Committee find the proposed provisions to be broadly acceptable. Further, while taking note of the textual simplification, the Committee also observe that the intent and substance of the existing law have been retained in the proposed clause. The Committee, however, observe that certain drafting refinements are desirable for improved clarity, consistency, and alignment with legislative intent. The Committee, therefore, recommend the following modifications : 1. For the purpose of enhanced clarity, within the formula for computation of short term capital gains contained in Clause 76(3), the phrase "in connection with" be inserted within the provision contained under variable 'C' and the modified provision be read as : "C= the expenditure incurred wholly and exclusively 'in connection with' such transfer for redemption or maturity". 2. For making the provision contained in sub-clause (4) clearly discernible, the phrase "In computing the income chargeable under the head "Capital gains"," be inserted and the modified provision be read as : "76(4) – 'In computing the income chargeable under the head "Capital gains"', no deduction shall be allowed for any sum paid as securities transaction tax as per Chapter VII of the Finance (No. 2) Act, 2004." Subject to the above modifications, the Committee find the proposed provisions under Clause 76 to be acceptable.

105.	77.6	77	The Committee, after a detailed examination of the provisions proposed under Clause 77 of the Bill, including the representations received from stakeholders and the rationale provided by the Ministry of Finance, observe that the proposed Clause seeks to govern the computation of capital gains in the event of a slump sale. The Committee note that the provisions under Clause 77 largely corresponding to those contained in Section 50B of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, and that the terminology and language have been simplified in the Bill for ease of reference without altering the legislative intent. The Committee observe that the concept of net worth, its computation methodology, and exclusions (such as ignoring revaluation of assets) have also been retained with appropriate clarification. Accordingly, the Committee find that the provisions proposed under Clause 77 are aligned with the objective of providing clarity, consistency, and continuity with the existing legal framework. The Committee, therefore, accept the provisions under Clause 77 as proposed.
106.	78.6	78	The Committee, after thorough deliberation upon the proposal made in Clause 78 under examination, including the views/suggestions of stakeholders and the justification given by the Ministry of Finance, find that the proposed provisions align with the policy objective of simplifying and clarifying the legal framework. The Committee observe that Clause 78 retains the essential features of the corresponding provisions under Section 50C of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee further note that while the structure and drafting of the provision have been simplified, the substantive content and intent remain unchanged from the existing law. Accordingly, the Committee find that the Clause promotes legal clarity without altering the underlying principles. The Committee, therefore, accept the provisions under Clause 78 as proposed.

107.	79.6	79	The Committee observe that Clause 79 of the Income-tax Bill, 2025 relates to a special provision for full value of consideration for transfer of share other than quoted share and is synonymous with Section 50CA of the Income-tax Act, 1961. After careful examination of the provisions contained in this clause, along with the justification provided by the Ministry of Finance and the suggestions received from stakeholders, the Committee note that though the provision under sub-clause (1) has been textually simplified, no reference to Clause 72 is found in the said provision, thereby relinquishing the original legislative intent and giving way to ambiguity and possible litigation. Therefore, the Committee recommend that the language of sub-clause (1) be modified to retain the reference to Clause 72 and the provision under Clause 79(1) be suitably amended to stay true to its original intent. Subject to the above modification, the Committee find the provisions under Clause 79 to be acceptable.
108.	80.6	80	The Committee note that Clause 80 of the Income-tax Bill, 2025 corresponds with Section 50D of the Income-tax Act, 1961 and prescribes that fair market value of the transferred capital asset be deemed to be the full value of consideration for taxation in cases where the same is not ascertainable. After careful consideration of the views/suggestions made by the stakeholders and the justification provided by the Ministry of Finance, the Committee, however, observe that the phrase "cannot be determined" is better suited compared to the revised phrase "unable to be determined" when referring to the gains accruing from the transfer of a capital asset. Therefore, with a view to avoid any scope for ambiguity or future litigations, the Committee recommend that the said phrase be replaced and accordingly, the modified clause be read as : "80 - If the consideration received or accruing from the transfer of a capital asset is not ascertainable or 'cannot be determined', its fair market value on the date of transfer shall be deemed as the full value of consideration received or accruing as a result of the transfer for the purposes of computing income under the head "Capital gains"."

109.	81.6	81	The Committee note that Clause 81 of the Income-tax Bill, 2025 provides for advance money received regarding the transfer of a capital asset and corresponds to Section 51 of the Income-tax Act, 1961. After a detailed examination of the provisions proposed under Clause 81 of the Bill, including the representations received from stakeholders and the rationale provided by the Ministry of Finance, the Committee observe that the proposed Clause seeks to define the structure for dealing with advance payments received during negotiations for transfer of a capital asset. The Committee also note that in the provisions contained under this Clause, the terminology and language have been simplified for ease of reference without altering the legislative intent. Further, the Committee observe that the provisions proposed under this Clause seek to prevent tax avoidance by providing an unambiguous framework for the treatment of advance money received as capital gains during transfer of capital asset and have also been retained with appropriate clarification. Accordingly, the Committee find that the provisions proposed under Clause 81 are aligned with the objective of providing clarity, consistency, and continuity with the existing legal framework. The Committee, therefore, accept the provisions under Clause 81 as proposed.
110.	82.6	82	The Committee, after careful consideration of the proposal contained in Clause 82 under examination, including the views and suggestions of stakeholders and the justification provided by the Ministry of Finance, find the proposed provisions to be appropriate. The Committee, noting the Ministry's justification, observe that Clause 82 corresponds to Section 54 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, and that the drafting has been simplified without altering the substantive scope or legislative intent of the existing provision. Accordingly, the Committee accept the Clause as proposed.

111.	83.6	83	The Committee note that Clause 83 of the Income-tax Bill, 2025 corresponds to Section 54B of the Income-tax Act, 1961 and provides for exemption of capital gains from being taxed in certain cases regarding transfer of land used for agricultural purposes. The Committee also understand that this clause introduces a structure where capital gains accrued from the transfer of agricultural land are not immediately taxed if these are reinvested in new agricultural land within a specified period of time. Further, after careful deliberation of the views/suggestions give by stakeholders and the justification provided by the Ministry of Finance, the Committee concur with the retention of the original intent and the textual simplification of the provisions and therefore, accept the clause as proposed.
112.	84.6	84	The Committee, after careful consideration of the provisions contained in Clause 84 of the Income-tax Bill, 2025 under examination, including the views and suggestions of stakeholders and the justification provided by the Ministry of Finance, find the proposed provisions to be appropriate. While noting the justifications provided by the Ministry of Finance, the Committee also observe that Clause 84 corresponds to Section 54D of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, and that the drafting of the provisions under this Clause has been simplified without altering the substantive scope or legislative intent of the existing provision. Accordingly, the Committee accept the provisions under Clause 84 as proposed.
113.	85.6	85	While noting that Clause 85 of the Income-tax Bill, 2025 pertains to non-chargeable capital gains accrued from investment in certain specific bonds, the Committee also recognize that exemptions offered under this clause are aimed at encouraging investments in specified financial instruments and intended for providing financial stability. Further, the Committee observe that the provisions proposed under this clause are synonymous with Section 54EC of the Income-tax Act, 1961. Furthermore, after thoughtful deliberation of the views / suggestions made by the stakeholders, the Committee express satisfaction with the response and justifications provided by the Ministry of Finance and therefore, accept the clause as proposed in its entirety.

114.	86.6	86	The Committee note that Clause 86 of the Income-tax Bill, 2025 relates to non-chargeability of capital gains in specific scenarios of investment in residential house and is synonymous with Section 54F of the Income-tax Act, 1961. After carefully examining the suggestions made by stakeholders and the justification and the response of the Ministry of Finance, the Committee note that the content and intent of the proposed clause do not deviate from the core as envisioned under Section 54F of the parent Act and therefore accept the said clause as proposed.
115.	87.5	87	While noting that Clause 87 of the Income-tax Bill, 2025 provides for exemption of capital gains on transfer of assets in cases of shifting of industrial undertaking from urban area, the Committee also recognize that this clause is aimed at encouraging decongestion of urban areas through tax exemptions and corresponds to Section 54G of the Income-tax Act, 1961. After thoughtful deliberation of the proposal and justifications provided by the Ministry of Finance, the Committee concur with the retention of the original intent in this clause along with the textual simplification of its provisions in this Bill and therefore, accept the clause as proposed.
116.	88.5	88	The Committee, after thorough scrutiny of proposed Clause 88 pertaining to exemption of capital gains on transfer of assets in cases of shifting of industrial undertaking from urban area to any Special Economic Zone, find that it is aimed at encouraging relocations of industrial undertakings for fostering economic growth in Special Economic Zones and is synonymous with Section 54GA of the Income-tax Act, 1961. The Committee also note that the content of the clause does not deviate from its core and retains the spirit envisaged under Section 54GA of the IT Act. After careful consideration of the proposal and justifications provided by the Ministry of Finance, the Committee express satisfaction with the response of the Ministry in this regard and therefore, accept the clause as proposed.

117.	89.4	89	The Committee, after reviewing the provisions proposed under Clause 89 understand that this clause seeks to extend the time available to taxpayers for reinvesting capital gains in cases where the original asset is compulsorily acquired and compensation to the assessee is delayed. The Committee also find that the proposed clause does not alter the content and intent introduced vide Section 54H of the Income-tax Act, 1961. Further, after careful deliberations of the replies and justifications furnished by the Ministry of Finance, the Committee, while expressing satisfaction with the submissions of the Ministry, accept the proposed clause in entirety.
118.	90.6	90	The Committee note that Clause 90 of the Income-tax Bill, 2025 provides for meaning of the terms "adjusted", "cost of improvement" and "cost of acquisition" with respect to calculation of capital gains and corresponds to Section 55 of the Income-tax Act, 1961. The Committee also note that while Section 55(2)(ab) of the parent Act specifically provides for transfers to be considered as cost of acquisition or full value of consideration for the purpose of taxation, the clause lacks in such specifications, thereby intensifying the possibilities of ambiguity or litigation. Therefore, after careful deliberation of relevant views/suggestions given by the stakeholders and the response of the Ministry of Finance, the Committee recommend that for the purpose of providing clarity in the computation of capital gains, provisions similar to Section 55(2)(ab) of the parent Act may be inserted in Clause 90 and the clause may be suitably amended to include the provision for cost of acquisition. The Committee further note that in sub-clause (4)(b), with respect to deduction on account of depreciation of a capital asset, a reference has been made to the Income-tax Act, 1961. The Committee are of the view that such cross referencing to the IT Act of 1961 in the current Bill could result in a cumbersome exercise of repeatedly referring to repealed Act for referencing in future. Thus, to avoid any scope for complications in future, the Committee recommend that any reference to the IT Act, 1961 be removed from the text of specific clauses and instead relevant provisions be created within the Savings Clause 536 of the Bill in order to cover all such clauses requiring reference to the IT Act, 1961. Expressing satisfaction with the response and justifications of the Ministry of Finance, the Committee accept the remaining provisions under this clause as proposed.

119.	91.4	91	The Committee, after thorough scrutiny of the proposed Clause 91 pertaining to the reference of capital asset to Valuation Officer for assessment of fair market value of the said asset, find that it is synonymous with Section 55A of the Income-tax Act that was invented with the objective of conferring powers on the Assessing Officer to revaluate the capital asset and bring it to fair valuation. Noting that the content and intent of the proposed clause do not deviate from the core as envisioned under Section 55A of the Income-tax Act, the Committee express satisfaction with the justification and response of the Ministry of Finance and therefore accept the clause as proposed.
120.	92.6	92	The Committee note that Clause 92 of the Income-tax Bill, 2025 pertains to taxation of income accrued from other sources and corresponds to Section 56 of the Income-tax Act, 1961. Upon thoughtful deliberation of the provisions under this clause, the Committee observe that in sub-clause (3)(f) an incorrect reference to Clause 355(i) - "relative", in relation to an individual, has been made instead of a reference to Clause 355(h) – "related persons" in relation to non-profit organizations. The Committee, therefore recommend that in sub-clause (3)(f) the reference to Clause 355(i) be changed to Clause 355(h) and accordingly, the modified provision be read as : "92(3)(f) - from or by any registered non-profit organisation as defined in section 355(g), except when received by any person referred to in section

Therefore, for the sake of clarity, the Committee recommend that suitable changes be made in sub-clause(5)(g) and the modified provision be read as : "92(5)(g)(E) - any lineal ascendant "(maternal as well as paternal)" or descendant (maternal as well as paternal);". Further, after careful consideration of the views/suggestions of the stakeholders, the Committee express satisfaction with the justification and response of the Ministry of Finance thereto, and therefore, accept the remaining provisions under Clause 92 as proposed.
121.	93.6	93	The Committee note that Clause 93 of the Income-tax Bill, 2025 provides for deductions for eligible expenses for computing the taxable income under the head "Income from other sources" and corresponds to Section 57 of the Income-tax Act, 1961. After careful deliberation of the provisions under the clause, the Committee find an erratum in the provision contained in sub-clause (1)(a) wherein the square bracket enclosing the phrase "excluding those referred to in section 2(40)(f)" has not been closed. Therefore, the Committee recommend that the typographical error be corrected and the provision be modified to read as : "93(1)(a) – for dividends '[excluding those referred to in section 2(40)(f)]'…". Further, after careful examination of the justification provided by the Ministry of Finance, the Committee express satisfaction with the response of the Ministry and accept the remaining provisions as proposed.

			92. The Committee also understand that this clause is synonymous with Section 58 of the Income-tax Act, 1961 and aims at correct computation and charging of taxable income, thereby improving tax compliance by the assessee. After careful deliberation of the proposal and justifications provided by the Ministry of Finance, the Committee express satisfaction with the response of the Ministry and accept the clause as proposed.
123.	95.4	95	After reviewing the provisions proposed under Clause 95, the Committee understand that this clause, while being synonymous with Section 59 of the Income-tax Act, 1961, seeks to propose that any benefit in cash or otherwise obtained on account of remission or cessation of any liability, for which a deduction has been allowed in an earlier year, shall be taxable in the year in which the benefit has been obtained. While recognizing the objective of making any profitable income of an assessee chargeable to tax, the Committee concur with the retention of the original intent and the textual simplification of the provisions under this clause. Therefore, after careful consideration of the proposal and justifications provided by the Ministry of Finance, the Committee accept the clause as proposed.
124.	96.6	96	The Committee find that the proposed clause corresponds to section 60 of the Act. 127.	99.6	99	The Committee note that Clause 99 corresponds to Section 64 of the existing Act. A formula has been introduced in sub-clause (2), aligning with Explanation 3 of Section 64, to enhance clarity and ensure certainty in computation. The substance of the existing provisions has been retained, while the language has been simplified to preserve the original intent and facilitate ease of understanding. The Committee, however, observe that in doing so, certain drafting errors have crept in, which require rectification to avoid ambiguity. Therefore, the Committee recommend the following drafting corrections in provisions of clause: (i) 99(1)(a)(i): the word 'not exclude' shall be replaced by 'not include' as it has converse meaning. (ii) 99(2): in place of 'as on the day for which A is being computed' it shall be changed to 'as on the first day of the tax year' to make it same as given in part 'C'. (iii) 99(5)(a): shall begin with the following reference: "(a) for sub-section (1)(a)(i),— " instead of "(a) for sub-section (1)(a)" to make it specific and to avoid any ambiguity. (iv) 99(5)(b): the reference to sub-section (1)(d) shall be changed to sub-section (1)(c) as there is no (1)d in the proposed clause. The Committee, with the above-mentioned drafting corrections, accept the clause as proposed.

In Clause 102 of the Bill, the substance of the provision remains unchanged, except that the heading has been revised from Cash Credits to Unexplained Credits. The language of the existing section has been simplified for clarity, while retaining its original intent. The Committee, therefore, accept the clause as proposed.
131.	103.6	103	The Committee note the clause 103 corresponds to section 69 and 69B of the Act. Section 69B has been split into two parts and the relevant part has been merged with sec 69 of the Act. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause. The Committee, therefore, accept the clause as proposed.
132.	104.6	104	The Committee, after examining the provisions of the clause, recommend that in Clause 104(1), the phrase 'where the asset is found recorded' be deleted, as its removal would eliminate redundancy and improve clarity. The Committee, therefore, accept the clause as proposed, subject to their suggested drafting correction.
135.	107.6	107	The Committee note that Clause 107 of the Bill seeks to provide that income referred to in clauses 102, 103, 104, 105 and 106 shall be charged to tax as per the provisions of clause 195. They further note that Clause 107 of the Bill has no corresponding section in the Act. The Committee have been apprised that in order to reduce disputes on rate of taxation and to provide certainty, the reference of the section specifying the rates of taxation has been provided in this Chapter itself. 142.	114.6	114	The Committee, after examining the clause and considering the views/suggestions of the experts/stakeholders, recommend that the phrase "computed from" in clause 114(1) be replaced with "computed in respect of". This change will ensure consistency with clause 114(3)(b), which already uses the phrase "computed in respect of" while defining "unabsorbed loss from the specified business." Apart from this drafting correction, the Committee accept the clause as proposed, as it is a textual simplification of the existing provisions with the same intent.
143.	115.6	115	The Committee note that Clause 115 of the Bill seeks to provide for set off and carry forward of losses from specified activity. Also, the clause defines 'Specified activity' as the activity of owning and maintaining race horses. The clause corresponds to section 74A of the Act. However, for better clarity, definition of 'race horse' has been provided in the clause. The provisions of the existing section have been simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause. The Committee, therefore, accept the clause as proposed.
144.	116.6	116	The Committee find that the clause corresponds to section 72A of the Act. The clause also clarifies that accumulated loss of the predecessor entity which is deemed to be the loss of the successor entity can be carried forward for not more than eight tax years immediately succeeding the tax year for which such loss was first computed for the original predecessor entity. The Committee have been apprised that this is a provision which was part of the Finance Act, 2025. Further, the provisions of the existing section have been simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause. The Committee, therefore, accept the proposed clause.

146.	118.6	118	The Committee, after examining the clause and considering the views/suggestions of the experts/stakeholders, recommend that in Clause 118(4)(ii), the word 'to' following 'before' be deleted. The Committee also observe that the clause corresponds to section 72AB of the Act. The clause also clarifies that accumulated loss can be carried forward only up to eight tax years immediately succeeding the tax year in which such loss was first computed in the hands of the predecessor-in-business. This is a provision which was part of the Finance Act, 2025. The provisions of the existing section have been simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause. 148.	120.4	120	The Committee, after examining the clause, find that clause 120 of the Bill seeks to provide that no set off of loss or unabsorbed depreciation shall be allowed against undisclosed income, consequent to search, requisition and survey. The clause corresponds to section 79A of the Act. The Committee have been given to understand that to remove ambiguity and ensure clarity with respect to the definition of undisclosed income, reference is now made to the meaning assigned to it in clause 301 of the Bill. The provisions of the existing section have been simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause. The Committee, therefore, accept the clause as proposed.
149.	121.4	121	The Committee find that Clause 121 corresponds to Section 80 of the existing Act. The provisions have been simplified for clarity while retaining their original intent. The Committee, therefore, accepts the clause as proposed.

151.	123.6	123	The Committee note that Clause 123 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 provides for deduction for life insurance premia, deferred annuity, contributions to provident fund, etc and corresponds to Section 80C of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. It is the major repository of benefits to the taxpayers in terms of investment avenues. The provision not only encourages savings but also promotes financial security. It is also noteworthy to mention here that there is a seamless migration of the contents from the erstwhile Section 80C to the Clause 123 of IT Bill, 2025 in terms of scope and deduction limits. The major difference lies only in the aspect that the conditions for claiming deductions have been outlined in Schedule XV instead of the body of the Section, as earlier. The justification given by the Ministry is also found to be satisfactory. Therefore, keeping in view the preservation of the soul of the Section 80C in the proposed Clause 123, the Committee accept Clause 123 as proposed by the Ministry and recommend no change.
152.	124.6	124	The Committee scrutinized the proposed Clause 124, pertaining to deduction in respect of employer contribution to pension scheme of Central Government and find that there is a transportation of the contents from Section 80 CCD of the IT Act, 1961 to the present Bill without any obvious attempt to deviate from the intent of the Section, as also cited by the justification provided by the Ministry. However, the absence of the phrase "by such individual" in sub section (3) creates an ambiguity which could lead to interpretational issues at later stages. The Committee further accept the remaining provisions of the Clause 124 as proposed.
153.	125.5	125	The Committee, after going through the provision regarding Agnipath Scheme, note that the proposed Clause 125 does not alter the content and intent introduced vide Section 80 CCH of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 while carrying forward to the Income-Tax Bill, 2025. Further, the Committee also went through the replies of the Ministry and the justification provided by them for the proposed Clause. Having found the submissions of the Ministry satisfactory in nature, the Committee accept the proposed Clause 125 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 in entirety.
154.	126.4	126	The Committee examined the provisions proposed through Clause 126 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 regarding the deductions allowed for health insurance premia and found that the Ministry have not tinkered with the erstwhile Section 80D of the IT Act, 1961, but have brought forward the provisions with textual simplification. 157.	129.6	129	The Committee, while examining the provision proposed under Clause 129 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 pertaining to the deduction in respect of interest on loan taken for higher education find that the contents of the said Clause are similar to Section 80E of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee also take cognizance of the apprehension raised by the Stakeholder, regarding the eligibility for deduction u/s 129 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 only for the balance tax years out of the seven assessment/tax years and note that the same has already been taken care of in view of the Savings Clause 536 of the IT Bill, 2025. However, the Committee find the mention of the "provisions of section 10(23C) of the Income-tax Act, 1961, or an institution referred to in section 80G(2)(a) of the said Act" in Clause 129(3) a deviation from the clean break aimed at, by making a cross reference of old Act, 1961 in the body of the new Bill. 159.	131.5	131	The Committee observe that the proposed Clause 131 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 provides for deduction in respect of interest on loan taken for certain house property in case of an individual to whom clause 130 is not applicable. The text of the Clause is similar to the Section 80 EEA of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 in terms of the content and there is no deviation from the soul of the Section. Thus, the Committee, in view of the justification provided by the Ministry, accept Clause 131 as proposed and recommend no amendment.
160.	132.6	132	The Committee note that the proposed Clause 132 corresponds to the Section 80 EEB of the Act, wherein deduction on interest payable on loan taken from any financial institution for the purpose of purchase of an electric vehicle has been provisioned. However, the loan needs to be sanctioned by the financial institution during the period beginning on the 1st day of April, 2019 and ending on the 31st day of March, 2023. The Committee find that the provision under Section 80 EEB has been migrated to the proposed Bill without any alteration. Thus, the Committee, satisfied with the justification provide by the Ministry, accept the proposed Clause in entirety without amendment.
161.	133.6	133	During the examination of the proposed Clause 133 pertaining to the deduction in respect of donations to certain funds, charitable institutions, etc. the Committee observe that the text of the proposed clause was differently worded as compared to the parallel Section 80G of the IT Act, 1961. While the first reference in the Clause to adjusted gross total income is comprehendible, the subsequent contextual reference is to gross total income. The absence of the word can lead to higher deductions, belying the intent of the Clause. The Ministry, when queried upon, realized the inadvertent omission and were amenable to the correction. Thus, the Committee recommend the Ministry to rephrase the mention of gross total income to adjusted gross total income in 133(2) so as to rectify an omission causing an unintended higher tax liability. The Committee, further accept the remaining contents of the proposed Clause.

162.	134.5	134	On studying the details of the proposed clause 134 provisioning for deductions in respect of rent paid vis-à-vis the corresponding Section 80 GG of the IT Act, 1961, the Committee notice that there is only a transportation of the content from the present IT Act, 1961 to the proposed Bill, 2025 without any material change altering the sentiments of the Section. The Committee also went through the justification provided by the Ministry for the proposed Clause and found it satisfactory. Therefore, the Committee accept the proposed Clause 134 in entirety without any amendment.
163.	135.5	135	The Committee, after thorough scrutiny of the proposed Clause 135 pertaining to the deduction in respect of certain donations for scientific research or rural development find that it is synonymous to the Section 80 GGA of the IT Act, 1961. The content of the clause does not deviate from its core and retains its spirit as under Section 80 GGA of the IT Act, 1961. The Committee is also satisfied with the justification and response elicited from the Minstry in this regard. Therefore, the Committee accept the clause as proposed.
164.	136.5	136	The Committee note that the poposed Clause 136 that provides for deduction in respect of contributions given by companies to political parties is similar to Section 80 GGB of the IT Act, 1961 in terms of the content and intent elicited. No substantial change has been brought about, instead it is a carrying forward of the parallel provision to the IT Bill, 2025. In view of this situation and considering the satisfactory justification provided by the Ministry for the proposed Clause, the Committee accept the proposed Clause in its entirety.
165.	137.5	137	The Proposed Clause 137 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 that pertains to deduction in respect of contributions given by any person to political parties resonate with the Section 80 GGC of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee find a mere shifting of the content without any changes in terms of policy matters from the scrutiny of the parent Act and the IT Bill, 2025 under consideration. Thus, the Committee, keeping in view the objectives of the Bill to provide simplification in the language and the satisfactory justification provided by the Ministry, accept the proposed Clause in entirety.

166.	138.6	138	The Committee note that Clause 138 of the Bill pertains to the provisions of deductions in respect of profits and gains from industrial undertakings or enterprises engaged in infrastructure development, etc.. While the Clause corresponds to Section 80-IA of the Act, it is noticeable that the provisions of this section have a sunset clause and a reference to the IT Act, 1961 is also made here. The Committee take cognizance of the fact that the benefit period of these provisions are nearing their end and no new assesses are being added as justification for the cross-reference to the IT Act, 1961. Still, the Committee are of the view that the cross referencing to the IT Act, 1961 in the current Bill will necessitate the reference to a repealed Act in future and will make the exercise cumbersome and not in the fitness of things. The Committee, further, are in consonance with the other aspects of the proposed Clause which does in no way alter the content of the Section 80-IA of the IT Act, 1961. Thus, the Committee, recommend the Ministry to remove the reference to the IT Act, 1961 from the text of specific Clauses and instead create some provision in the Savings Clause 536 of the Bill which can cover all such clauses requiring reference to the IT Act, 1961. Besides, the Committee agree with the remaining content of the proposed Clause.
167.	139.6	139	The Committee note that Clause 139 of the Bill provisions for deductions in respect of profits and gains by an undertaking or enterprise engaged in development of Special Economic Zone. The clause corresponds to Section 80-IAB of the Act. It is noticeable that the provisions of this section have a sunset clause and many changes have been made over the years. There is a limited period left for the claim of deductions under these sections. These are used by a few numbers of assessees. Further, no new assessee can claim these deductions. The Ministry have considered these factors for making a reference to the IT Act, 1961 in the Bill. The Committee take into account the fact that the benefit period of these provisions are nearing their end and no new assesses are being added as justification for the cross-reference to the IT Act, 1961. However, the Committee are still of the view that the cross referencing to the IT Act, 1961 in the current Bill will create a cumbersome exercise of looking back into a repealed Act for referencing in future also. The Committee, further, are in agreement with the other aspects of the proposed Clause which does in no way alter the content of the Section 80-IAB of the IT Act, 1961. Thus, the Committee, recommend the Ministry to remove the reference to the IT Act, 1961 from the text of specific Clauses and instead create some provision in the Savings Clause 536 of the Bill which can cover all such clauses requiring reference to the IT Act, 1961. Besides, the Committee agrees with the remaining content of the proposed Clause.

168.	140.6	140	The Committee find that Clause 140 of the Bill provisions for deduction to eligible start up in respect of profits and gains of eligible businesses akin to the Section 80-IAC of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. Examination of the said Clause vis-à-vis Section 80-IAC reveals that the Section has been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause without carrying out any substantive nature of modification in terms of policy change. Thus, the Committee, finding the justification provided by the Ministry satisfactory, accept the proposed Clause 140 in entirety.
169.	141.6	141	The Committee note that Clause 141 of the Bill stipulates for deduction in respect of profits and gains from certain industrial undertakings and provides for deduction for industrial undertakings in North-eastern region and also in respect of undertakings promoting housing projects. The clause is similar to Section 80-IB of the Act. From the replies of the Ministry, the Committee find that the provisions of this section have a sunset clause and many changes have been made over the years. The concluding date is nearing and as such there is a limited period left for the claim of deductions under these sections. Further, no new assessee can claim these deductions. Considering these factors, a reference to the ITAct, 1961 is made for these provisions in the Bill. The Committee take into consideration the justifications provided by the Ministry for keeping the cross-reference to the IT Act, 1961. Still, the Committee observe that the cross referencing to the IT Act, 1961 in the current Bill does not suit to a neat reading, making it unappealing to refer back to a repealed Act for having a full grasp of the section in future. The Committee, however, find the other aspects of the proposed Clause not altering the content of the Section 80-IB of the IT Act, 1961. Thus, the Committee, recommend the Ministry to remove the reference to the IT Act, 1961 from the text of specific Clauses and instead create some provision in the Savings Clause 536 of the Bill which can cover all such clauses requiring reference to the IT Act, 1961. The Committee agrees with the remaining content of the proposed Clause and make no recommendation for any modification.

170.	142.6	142	The Committee take into note the deductions in respect of profits and gains from housing projects provided to the assessee through the proposed Clause 142, erstwhile Section 80-IBA of the IT Act, 1961. Further, it has been observed that other than simplification of language to make the bill concise and easy to comprehend, no substantial alteration has been proposed in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025. As in few earlier cases too, here also, the Committee observe that the benefit period of these provisions are nearing their end and no new assesses are being added as justification given by the Ministry for the cross-reference to the IT Act, 1961. However, the Committee maintain their view that the cross referencing to the IT Act, 1961 in the current Bill is not called for and provision may be further simplified by doing away with the referencing to IT Act, 1961. Hence, the Committee, recommend the Ministry to remove the reference to the IT Act, 1961 from the text of the proposed Clause 142 also and instead create some provision in the Savings Clause 536 of the Bill which can cover all such clauses requiring reference to the IT Act, 1961. The Committee also take into consideration the suggestion of the stakeholder for providing the computation mechanism itself in the Clause, but find the justification provided by the Ministry being satisfactory in nature for not doing so. Thus, the Committee, does not recommend any further change and accept the remaining content of the proposed Clause.

171.	143.5	143	The Committee examined the proposed Clause 143 in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 and the corresponding Section 80-IE of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 and find that although there is no substantive change in the content of the proposed Clause 143 which provides for special provisions in respect of profits and gains of certain undertakings with respect to production of eligible article or things in North-Eastern States, there is usage of "ending with the 1st April, 2017" in 143 (2), which creates ambiguity over the end date, whether it includes 1st April, 2017 also. Being pointed out, the Ministry have admitted it as drafting correction and should be read as "ending before the 1st April, 2017" instead. The Committee also take note of the reference to IT Act, 1961 and, as earlier, recommend the Ministry to remove the reference to the IT Act, 1961 from the body of the Clause to Savings Clause of the Bill alongwith the correction of end date to "ending before the 1st April, 2017" in 143 (2). Further, in view of the foregoing that only simplification of remaining text is elicited in the Clause 143, and the satisfactory justification of the Ministry, the Committee accept the other content of the proposed Clause 143 in entirety.
172.	144.6	144	The Committee note that Clause144 of the Bill provides for deduction in respect of profits and gains of newly established units in Special Economic Zones and that the Clause corresponds to Section 10AA of the IT Act, 1961. The provisions of this section have a sunset clause. The Committee find that the Ministry contend that there is a limited period left for the claim of deductions under these sections. These are used by a few numbers of assesses and further, no new assesse can claim these deductions. Considering these factors, a reference to the IT Act, 1961 is made for these provisions in the Bill. The Committee take into consideration, the justification for the cross-reference to the IT Act, 1961. Still, the Committee believe that the cross referencing to the IT Act, 1961 in the current Bill may be done away with, so that the reader of the new Act is not burdened to look back into a repealed Act for referencing. Thus, the Committee, recommend the Ministry to remove the reference to the IT Act, 1961 from the text of specific Clauses and keep it in the Savings Clause 536 of the Bill. The Committee, further, agree with the remaining content of the proposed Clause and does not recommend any change.

173.	145.5	145	On the examination of the proposed Clause 145 of the Bill, the Committee note that the Clause seeks to provide for deduction for businesses engaged in collecting and processing of bio-degradable waste, which was provisioned in Section 80JJA of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. However, clause 145 mentions "biological agents", with the omission of the term "other" as had been used in the Section 80 JJA of IT Act, 1961. In this context, the Committee on seekng clarification from te Ministry on the need for narrowing the definition now, and if the word "other" encouraged innovation through the scientific creativity and its omission would have a discouraging effect on the R&D sector of Life Sciences, the Ministry accepted it as a drafting correction. Barring this, there has been no substantive change in the content of the Clause as compared to the earlier Section other than textual simplification and there is retention of the same intent in this clause, as evinced from the justification provided by the Ministry also. Thus, the Committee, while recommending the addition of the term "other" in 145 (1)(b) as previously used in the IT Act, 1961 accept the remaining proposed Clause.
174.	146.6	146	The examination of the proposed Clause 146 of the Bill reveals that it provides for deduction in respect of additional employee cost in certain cases for specified period and that the clause corresponds to Section 80JJAA of the Act. The Committee find that only the provision of the existing section has been textually simplified and has been retained with the same intent in this clause. However, the Committee note the response of the Ministry to the suggestion for enhancing the value of emoluments per employee to avail 80JJAA being satisfactory as it has been contended by the Ministry that the deduction itself has been made available to increase employment of low-wage persons and it is also a budget-related matter. In view of the foregoing, the Committee appreciate the rationale behind the approach of the Ministry as sound enough and hence accept the proposed Clause in its entirety without any alteration.

175.	147.6	147	The Committee, while scrutinizing the proposed clause 147 of the IT Bill, 2025 pertaining to the deductions for income of Offshore Banking Units and Units of International Financial Services Centre, find it to be a parallel provision of Section 80 LA of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. There is no marked difference in the contents and is primarily an exercise of simplification of texts. However, an incorrect referencing to 147 (3) itself, instead of 147 (1) to ascertain the nature of income referred to in 147 (1) is revealed. On seeking the views of the Ministry, the inadvertent drafting error was accepted. Hence, the Committee recommend the Ministry to rectify the drafting error in 147(3) to 147(1). The Committee accept the remaining provisions of the proposed Clause147 without any amendment.
176.	148.6	148	The Committee observe that the proposed Clause 148 pertaining to the deduction in respect of certain inter-corporate dividends is similar to the Section 80M of the IT Act, 1961. The contents of the Section have been textually carried forward to the IT Bill, 2025. It was further noted that an integral omission of the reference to Clause 148 (Section 80M in the Act) is to be included in Clause 200(1)(a)(ii) to maintain the uniformity of the carrying forward of the contents and to synchronise with the stance of no policy change proposed in the Bill. The Ministry on being enquired upon ceded to the omission by attributing to drafting error. Therefore, the Committee while accepting the other contents of the Clause 148, recommend the Ministry to incorporate the reference to Clause 148 in Clause 200 (1)(a)(ii) so that the benefit of deduction for inter-corporate dividend under section 148 of the ITB (corresponding to section 80M of the Act) in respect of companies opting for CTR of 22% is reinstated.

177.	149.4	149	The examination of the proposed Clause 149 of the Bill with regard to the deduction in respect of income of co-operative societies revealed the fact before the Committee that there was only textual simplification as compared to the corresponding Section 80 P of the IT Act, 1961. No changes are proposed in the content or the intent of the provision. Considering these aspects alongwith the satisfactory justification provided by the Ministry, the Committee accept the proposed Clause 149 of the Bill in its entirety. However, the Committee, find that there is a reference to IT Act, 1961 in 149(4) and as earlier, for a clean break, the Committee recommend the Ministry to remove the reference to the IT Act, 1961 from the text of specific Clause and instead create some provision in the Savings Clause 536 of the Bill.
178.	150.6	150	The Committee examined the proposed Clause 150 pertaining to the deduction in respect of certain income of Producer Companies and find that barring a typographical error in the last line of Clause 150 (3) wherein 3013 is written instead of 2013, no material changes can be observed while comparing the proposed clause to its repository, Section 80 PA of the IT Act, 1961. The Ministry have accepted this as a typographical error which is to be corrected. Keeping this in view, alongwith the satisfactory justification of the Ministry, the Committee accept the proposed Clause.
179.	151.5	151	The Committee find from the examination of Clause 151 of the Bill that it provides for deduction in respect of royalty income, etc., of authors of certain books other than text-books. The proposed clause corresponds to Section 80QQB of the IT Act, 1961. Having gone through the justification provided by the Ministry and the satisfactory response of the Ministry to the query associated with the change in the capping for claiming deduction against the royalty, the Committee are of the opinion that the provision of the existing section has been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause. Hence, the Committee accept the proposed clause in its entirety.

180.	152.6	152	The Committee note that Clause 152 of the Bill is parallel to the Section 80RRB of the IT Act, 1961 and provides for deduction in respect of royalty on patents. While the provision of the existing section has been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause, the Committee, further note the absence of a limiting provision of deduction in respect of royalty on patents in terms of not to be claimed again once deduction already claimed for same income, under any provision in any tax year, as had been earlier provided for with the provisions of 80RRB (4) in the IT Act, 1961. The Ministry addressed this omission and are amenable to carry out the Drafting correction. Thus, the Committee recommend the Ministry to carry out suitable correction in the Clause 152 and incorporate the limiting provision of availing the deduction only once for the same income in a tax year. Besides, the Committee are satisfied with the other contents of the proposed Clause.
181.	153.5	153	The Committee after going through the contents of the Clause 153 and the parallel Section 80TTA and section 80TTB of the Act find that Clause 153 of the Bill provides for certain deduction for interest on savings account deposits (excluding time deposits) for individuals and Hindu undivided families. There is literal transportation without any substantial change and the provision of the existing section has only been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause. Thus, the Committee, finding the justification of the Ministry for the proposed Clause satisfactory, accept the proposed Clause 153 in its entirety.
182.	154.6	154	The Committee note that the proposed Clause 154 of IT Bill, 2025 is similar to Section 80U of the 1961 Act provisioning for deduction in case of a person with disability and to provide for deduction for an individual resident who is certified by a medical authority as a person with disability or severe disability. The Committee find uniformity between the proposed clause and Section 80U of the 1961 Act and is satisfied with the textual simplification. Therefore, the Committee, keeping in view, the justification provide by the Ministry accept the proposed Clause 154 in entirety.

183.	155.4	155	The Committee find that the proposed Clause 155 associated with the Rebate to be allowed in computing income-tax is similar in intent to the Section 87 of the IT Act, 1961. There is no substantial change barring the simplification of the text. Moreover, the Committee are also satisfied with the justification and reply of the Ministry regarding this Clause and, thus, accept the proposed Clause 155 in its entirety.
184.	156.6	156	The Committee, on thorough examination of the Clause 156 of the Bill find that it seeks to provide for rebate of income-tax in case of certain individuals as provided under Section 87A of the Act. Other than textual simplification of the existing section, there is retention of the same intent in this clause. However, a closer look has brought to fore, presumably a drafting error in 156 (2)(b) which is read as "(b) the income exceeds twelve lakh rupees, the income tax payable on the total income reduced by total income which is in excess of twelve lakh rupees". The Committee understand that it is a deviation from the intent which can give rise to various interpretations causing unintended anomalies. Therefore, the Committee, while agreeing with the other provisions of the Clause 156, recommend the Ministry to amend 156 (2) (b) of the Clause to be read as under:- "the total income exceeds twelve lakh rupees and the income-tax payable on such total income exceeds the amount by which the total income is in excess of twelve lakh rupees, an amount equal to the amount by which the income-tax payable on such total income is in excess of the amount by which the total income exceeds twelve lakh rupees".
185.	157.6	157	The Committee find that Clause 157 of the Bill pertains to the provisions for claiming relief when salary, etc. is paid in arrears or in advance. This is parallel to the content and intent of the Section 89 of the Act. Textual simplification is visible here. Thus, the Committee, keeping under consideration the justification provided by the Ministry accept the proposed Clause 157 without any further changes.

186.	158.6	158	The Committee note that the proposed Clause 158 of the Bill seeks to provide for relief from taxation in income from retirement benefit account maintained in a notified country. While, the clause corresponds to Section 89A of the Act and the provision of the existing section has been textually simplified and possibly retained with the same intent in this clause as justified by the Ministry, the Committee find a few key omissions which can lead to uncalled anomalies at interpretational stages. The omission of in the manner and in a tax year from the long line proposed in Clause 158 (1) brings in room for ambiguity. Being highlighted, the Ministry agreed to this drafting correction. So, the Committee recommend the long line of Clause 158 (1) to be read as under:- "The income accrued to a specified person in a specified account shall be taxed in the manner and in a tax year, as prescribed," Further, the phrase "the income from which" instead of"which" may be added in Clause 158 (2), 3rd line to provide clarity and consistency with the Act. Barring these changes, the Committee find other provisions of the Clause 158 acceptable.
187.	159.6	159	The Committee scrutinized the proposed Clause 159 thoroughly and find that it provides for agreement with foreign countries or specified territories and adoption by the Central Government of agreement between specified associations for double taxation relief. It also seeks to provide for double taxation relief where the Central Government has entered into an agreement with other countries. The clause corresponds to section 90 and 90A of the Act. The two sections 90 and 90A of the Act have been merged. Although, the provisions of the existing sections have been textually simplified and retained

			with the same intent in this clause, the Committee find an addition in the new proposed Clause which states that If any term is used in the agreement and is not defined in the agreement or in the Bill or in any notification, it will have the meaning given in any Act of the Central Government relating to taxes, or in its absence, in any other law of the Central Government, and such meaning will be applicable from the date of the agreement. The Committee take note of this addition and have also examined the replies of the Ministry in this regard. Subsequently, the Committee find that it is clarificatory in nature which further augments India's position in such agreements. It will also reduce litigation and provide certainty to how any term is interpreted in a tax treaty situation. Thus, the Committee, agree with the justification provided by the Ministry for such addition to the erstwhile Section of the IT Act, 1961 and appreciate the intent of this Clause in its simplification, while accepting the proposed Clause 159 in its entirety.
188.	160.6	160	The Committee note that the proposed clause 160 is similar to the Section 91 of the IT Act, 1961 which provides for deduction from the Indian income-tax payable by a person who has paid tax outside India in a country with which no agreement exists in respect of his income which accrued or arose during that tax year outside India. The Committee further find that other than textual simplification, no material changes have been carried out in the proposed Clause vis-à-vis Section 91 of the IT Act, 1961. Therefore, the Committee, finding the justification provided by the Ministry for this Clause satisfactory in nature, accept the proposed Clause in entirety.
189.	161.6	161	The Committee observe that Clause 161 of the Bill provides for computation of income from international transaction and specified domestic transaction having regard to arm's length price. The clause corresponds to section 92 of the IT Act, 1961 and has an important role in the avoidance of tax. The Committee further find the justification and reply of the Ministry in assuaging the concern of the stakeholder pertaining to the computation for block period pricing being satisfactory in nature. Further,

Sl. No	Para No	Clause No.	Observation/Recommendation
			the provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause, so the Committee accept the proposed Clause 161 in its entirety.
190.	162.6	162	On scrutinizing the proposed Clause 162 of the Bill which seeks to define the expression "associated enterprise" and corresponds to section 92A of the Act, the Committee find that the words "for the purposes of sub-section (1)" are replaced with the words "Without affecting the generality of the provisions of sub-section (1)"in sub-clause (2) of the proposed Clause 162 of the Bill. This alteration has attracted a number of suggestions raising concerns for future litigation. The Committee went through the merit of each argument closely and took into consideration the different point of views. The Committee examined the detailed reply of the Ministry in this regard wherein it has been contended that there is an ambiguity in interplay of sub-section (1) and (2) of section 92A in view of words "for the purposes of sub-section (1)" appearing in the beginning of sub- section (1) in the IT Act, 1961. In order to remove the ambiguity and give intended interpretation, the change is made to reflect the intent that clause 162(1) is general definition of associated enterprise and clause 162(2) provides for specific circumstances where two entities will be considered as associated enterprise. It can be seen that with the altered language proposed in the Clause 162, there is a possible interpretation that the condition for being an associated enterprise is fulfilled by meeting the conditions under 162 (2) or 162 (1) independently and that the two sub-sections have become mutually exclusive. The discussion with the Ministry on this aspect enlightened the Committee that the intent behind the change was to reduce litigation and bring in more clarity. However, the Committee are of the opinion that reinstating the earlier phrase "for the purposes of sub-section (1)" in sub-clause (2) of the proposed Clause 162 of the Bill in the place of "Without affecting the generality of the provisions of sub-section (1)", would serve the intent of defining Associated Enterprises in a better way, as earlier in the IT Act, 1961. Thus, the Committee, recommend the Ministry to reinstate the position of the proposed Clause 162 in consonance with the Section 92A of the IT Act, 1961 vis-à-vis the reinstatement of the earlier phrase "for the purposes of sub-section (1)" in the opening line of sub-clause (2) of the proposed Clause 162 of the Bill in the place of proposed phrase "Without affecting the generality of the provisions of sub-section (1)".

191.	163.6	163	The Committee, having examined the contents of proposed Clause 163 of the Bill pertaining to the meaning of international transaction, alongwith the corresponding Section 92B of the IT Act, 1961, find that there is content migration from the earlier section to the current Bill. Other than textual simplification, nothing more has been disturbed. The Committee also find the justification of the Ministry against the suggestions of the stakeholders cogent and sound enough, adding clarity to the text in defining the expression "international transaction". Therefore, the Committee, accept the proposed clause 163 without any changes.
192.	164.6	164	The Committee find that Clause 164 of the Bill seeks to define the expression "specified domestic transaction". The clause corresponds to section 92BA of the Act. However, the scrutiny of the text reveal that there is a incorrect reference in Clause 164 (e) to 205 (4). The actual reference should be to 205 (5) since section 205(5) refers to the transaction between the related enterprises that requires the amount of profits to be determined having regard to arm's length. On pointing to the Ministry, it has been identified to be a drafting error. Therefore, the Committee, other than recommending the Ministry to carry out the change of reference in clause 164 (e) from 205(4) to 205(5), find the provisions of the existing section to be a textual simplification and accept the proposed Clause.
193.	165.6	165	The Committee observe that Clause 165 of the Bill provides for determination of arm's length price and the methods for determining the arm's length price. The provisions and text of the clause corresponds to section 92C of the IT Act, 1961. During the examination, the Committee note that in Clause 165 (4) there is a reference to any information and document relating to an international transaction or specified domestic transaction that has not been kept and maintained by the assessee as per Clause 168(1). However, the Committee find that Clause 171(1) refers to the maintenance, and keeping of information and documents in respect of the transaction entered into. This appears to be an inadvertent error in referencing and needs correction. This anomaly was pointed to the Ministry and subsequently it has been identified as a drafting error which may be corrected by reference to 171(1) in clause 165(4). Thus, the Committee recommend the Ministry to rectify this drafting error and reflect the correct reference to Clause 171(1) in 165 (4) in place of 168 (1) and further accept the remaining portion of the proposed clause in the wake of textual simplification and retention of the same intent.

194.	166.6	166	The Committee after going through the details of the proposed Clause 166 of the Bill find that it provides for reference of cases by the Assessing Officer to the Transfer Pricing Officer for determining the arm's length price. The clause corresponds to section 92CA of the IT Act, 1961. No substantial change has been noticed and the proposed clause elicits streamlining and simplification. The Committee, therefore, keeping the justification provided by the Ministry, being satisfactory in nature, accept the proposed clause in its entirety without further recommendation.
195.	167.6	167	The Committee while examining Clause 167 of the Bill note that it provides for power of Board to make safe harbour rules to simplify compliance and reduce litigation. The clause corresponds to section 92CB of the Act. The Committee note from the replies that the Ministry, taking into account the importance of safe harbour rules have suggested for consultation with the industries before the notification of the same. The Committee acknowledge the stance of the Ministry and opine that the justification of the Ministry is satisfactory regarding the proposed Clause and considering that no substantial changes have been brought about, concur with the simplification and

196.	168.6	168	The Committee note that Clause 168 of the Bill provides for advance pricing agreement (APA) between the taxpayer and the tax authorities to pre-determine the arm's length price for specified transactions. While the Clause corresponds to section 92CC of the Act, the Committee find that the provision for closure of proceedings as per prescribed rules have clearly been specified in the Bill to provide for certainty for the APA procedure. The Committee agree with the minor alteration brought about to simplify the comprehension of the text and provision. Hence, the Committee accept the proposed clause without any further changes.
197.	169.5	169	The Committee find Clause 169 of the Bill providing for giving effect to advance pricing agreement entered into by an assessee and consequential procedures. Other than the textual simplification in the body of text and migration of existing modalities in Section 92CD of the IT Act, 1961 to the proposed clause, there is no finding of any substantial changes to the existing Act. Thus, considering the satisfactory justification provided by the Ministry, the Committee accept the proposed Clause in its entirety.
198.	170.6	170	The Committee note the importance of Clause 170 of the Bill which provides for secondary adjustment in certain cases to ensure that the actual allocation of profits between the associated enterprises aligns with the arm's length price. The Committee find that the clause corresponds to section 92CE of the Act and the contents of the proposed Clause is a textually simplified version of the corresponding Section 92CE of IT Act, 1961 without any policy change. Considering the sound justification provided by the Ministry to be satisfactory in nature, the Committee, accept the proposed Clause in its entirety without any further changes.

			transactions. The Committee on examining this clause find that it corresponds to section 92D of the IT Act, 1961 and that no changes have been caused to the intent of the Section. The Committee find the justification and reply of the Ministry pertaining to this Clause satisfactory and accept the proposed Clause in its entirety without any change.
200.	172.6	172	The Committee note that the proposed Clause 172 of the Bill provides for report from an accountant to be furnished by persons entering into international transaction or specified domestic transaction and that the clause corresponds to section 92E of the IT Act, 1961. The Committee find the underlying objective of the Section being untouched and the rationale provided by the Ministry regarding the suggestions, also satisfactory in nature, in terms of no policy change being effected here. Keeping this in view the Committee accept the proposed Clause with the textual simplification.
201.	173.6	173	Proposed Clause 173 of the Bill provides for definitions of certain terms relevant to determination of arm's length price. The committee, while examining this important Clause did not find any material changes/alteration in the text of this Clause corresponding to section 92F of the IT Act, 1961. Finding the reply and justification provided by the Ministry cogent for carrying no policy changes and only simplification of text had been carried out, the Committee accept the proposed Clause in its entirety.
202.	174.5	174	The Committee find during examination that the proposed Clause 174 of the Bill provides for avoidance of income-tax by transactions resulting in transfer of income to non-residents. This clause corresponds to section 93 of the IT Act, 1961 both in terms of content and intent. Moreover, the justification provided by the Ministry is also found to be satisfactory in nature. Keeping this in mind and appreciating the textual simplification carried out, the Committee accept the proposed Clause in its entirety.

			transactions in securities find that it corresponds to section 94 of the IT Act, 1961 and that the term 'mutual fund or Administrator of the specified undertaking or the specified company' has been stated to be as referred to in Explanation to section 10(35) of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee opine that the definition could have been produced in the text itself without any reference to the IT Act, 1961. The Ministry, in this regard have treated this as a drafting error which shall be referenced as "note 6(a) and (g) below Schedule XV". In view of the indicated change, the Committee recommend the Ministry to rectify the drafting error and make a correct referencing as indicated. The content of rest of the proposed Clause 175 is accepted.
204.	176.5	176	The Committee scrutinised the proposed Clause 176 of the Bill which provisions for special measures in respect of transactions with persons located in notified jurisdictional area. Noting the importance of this clause in terms of establishing accountability, the Committee went through the justification provided by the Ministry and found that the clause corresponds to section 94A of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. Observing that the provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this proposed Clause, the Committee accept the Clause as proposed.
205.	177.6	177	The Committee note that Clause 177 of the Bill seeks to provide for limitation on interest deduction in certain cases and is synonymous to Section 94B of the IT Act, 1961. The Committee find the justification for proposing the text in this Clause satisfactory and are also convinced with the response of the Ministry vis-à-vis the suggestions from the stakeholders. Other than textual simplification in the body of text, the intent of the original source, Section 94B of IT Act, 1961 has not been tinkered with. Thus, the Committee accept the proposed Clause in its entirety without any changes.

207.	179.5	179	The Committee, after thorough deliberation upon the proposal made in Clause 179 under examination, including the views/suggestions of stakeholders and the justification given by the Ministry of Finance, find that the proposed provisions effectively simplify and retain the principle of "impermissible avoidance arrangement" in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025. The Clause specifies that an arrangement may be treated as impermissible if its main purpose is to obtain a tax benefit and it (a) creates rights or obligations not ordinarily created in transactions at arm's length; (b) results in the misuse or abuse of the provisions of the Act; (c) lacks commercial substance; or (d) is entered into by means not ordinarily employed for bona fide purposes. Furthermore, a presumption is provided that the main purpose of an arrangement or a part of it is to obtain a tax benefit, unless proved otherwise by the assessee. The Committee find these provisions appropriate for addressing aggressive tax avoidance while preserving fairness and equity in the application of the income tax law. Therefore, the Committee acceptthe provisions as proposed.
208.	180.5	180	The Committee, after careful consideration of the proposal contained in Clause 180, along with the justification provided by the Ministry of Finance, find the proposed provision to be appropriate. The Committee observe that Clause 180 corresponds to the provisions relating to impermissible avoidance arrangements under the General Anti-Avoidance Rule in the Income-Tax Act, 1961, and that the language has been refined to provide greater clarity without altering the substantive intent. Accordingly, the Committee

209.	181.6	181	The Committee examined Clause 181 of the Bill, which seeks to provide for the consequences of an impermissible avoidance arrangement under the General Anti-Avoidance Rules. The Committee note that this largely corresponds to Section 98 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, and that the provisions have been simplified in the Bill while retaining their original intent. The Committee also considered submissions from several stakeholders who expressed reservations about removing the phrase "in the circumstances of the case," which had served as a safeguard to ensure that the application of GAAR remained reasonable and sensitive to the specific context. Recognizing the merit of this concern, the Committee are of the view that while deterrence against tax avoidance must remain robust, it must also be tempered with procedural fairness and contextual sensitivity. The Committee, therefore, accept the provisions under Clause 181 with the modification that the words "in the circumstances of the case" shall be expressly reinstated to clarify that the consequences of impermissible avoidance arrangements will be determined having regard to the specific facts and context of each case. This addition will ensure that the determination of consequences under GAAR will continue to be guided by the specific facts and context of each case, thereby preserving the balance between effective enforcement and taxpayer protection.
210.	182.4	182	The Committee, after careful consideration of the provisions contained in Clause 182, along with the justification provided by the Ministry of Finance, find the proposed provision to be appropriate. 211.	183.6	183	The Committee, after thorough deliberation upon the provisions made in the Clause under examination, including the views/suggestions of the stakeholders and the justification given by the Ministry and note that Clause 183 seeks to provide for the applicability of General Anti-Avoidance Rule. The clause corresponds to Section 100 and Section 101 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Ministry explained in its justification that these two sections have been merged and the provisions of the existing sections have been textually simplified while retaining the same intent in this clause. The Committee are of the view that the proposed modifications to be acceptable; however, the Committee observe that the phrase "shall apply" is missing in the first line of the clause 183, which may clarity of its application. To provide ease of reading and to convey its intended meaning more accurately, the Committee recommend that the first line of the sentence be amended to "The provisions of this Chapter shall apply — (a) in addition to, or in lieu of, any other basis for determination of tax liability; (b) as per such guidelines and subject to such conditions, as prescribed." Therefore, the Committee accept the proposed provisions under Clause 183 subject to the above modification.
212.	184.5	184	The Committee, after thorough deliberation upon the proposal made in Clause 184 under examination, including the views/suggestions of stakeholders and the justification given by the Ministry of Finance, find that the proposed provisions align with the policy objective of simplifying and clarifying the legal framework.The Committee note that the provisions proposed under Clause 184 of the Bill provide for definitions of various terms used in this Chapter. The Committee note that the Clause defines terms such as "accommodating party", "arrangement", "asset", "benefit", "connected person", "fund", "party", "relative", "step", "tax benefit" and "tax treaty". The Committee further observe that these definitions largely correspond to Section 102 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, and that the provisions have been simplified in the Bill while retaining their original intent.The Committee therefore accept the provisions under Clause 184 as it is.

214.	186.5	186	The Committee, after thorough deliberation upon the proposal made in Clause 186 under examination, including justification given by the Ministry of Finance, find that the proposed provisions are acceptable. The Committee note that Clause 186 corresponds to Section 269ST of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, and the provisions have been textually simplified while retaining their original intent.Accordingly, the Committee accept the clause as it stands.

216.	188.6	188	The Committee, after thorough deliberation upon the proposal made in Clause 188 under examination, including the views/suggestions of stakeholders and the justification given by the Ministry of Finance, find the proposed provisions to be broadly acceptable; however, the Committee observe that certain modifications are desirable for greater clarity and precision in its application. The Committee recommend to replace the word "paid" with "repaid" in clause (4) (a) in view of the context that the clause pertains to the repayment of a deposit or a loan. Furthermore, the Committee is of the view that adding the words "specified advances" in the section heading will help clarify its coverage. Therefore, the Committee accept the proposed provisions under Clause 188 subject to the following modifications: The section be amended to replace 'paid' with 'repaid' in clause (4) (a) . The section heading of the Section be amended to read: "Mode of repayment of certain loans, deposits and

217.	189.6	189	The Committee, after thorough deliberation upon the proposal made in Clause 189 under examination, including the views/suggestions of stakeholders and the justification given by the Ministry of Finance, find the proposed provisions to be broadly acceptable; however, the Committee observes that the term "co-operative bank" is used in clauses 185(2) , 186(2) , and 188(1) /(2) of the Bill, but it has not been defined in Clause 189. To bring greater clarity and consistency to the provisions of this Chapter and to align them with related provisions, the Committee consider it appropriate to insert a definition of "co-operative bank" in Clause 189. This will help avoid ambiguity, facilitate uniform and effective application of the provisions, and provide greater legal certainty and guidance to all stakeholders concerned. Therefore, the Committee accept the proposal under Clause 189 subject to the following modification: The following sub-clause shall be added in Clause 189: "(e) '"Cooperative bank", "primary agricultural credit society", and "primary cooperative agricultural and rural development bank" shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in section 149(6) .
218.	190.4	190	The Committee, having examined the provisions under clause 190, agree with the Ministry's view and find the simplified text to be clear, appropriate, and consistent with the policy objective of granting a deduction from income tax where total income includes income on which no tax is payable.Accordingly, the Committee accept the clause as proposed.
219.	191.4	191	The Committee considered the view of the Ministry of Finance that Clause 191 textually simplifies Section 111 while retaining its original intent and application. 220.	192.4	192	The Committee, after thorough examination, accept Clause 192 as effectively retaining the policy intent of Section 113 while simplifying its language. Accordingly, the Committee accept the clause as proposed.
221.	193.6	193	The Committee, after careful examination of the proposed Clause 193 — along with stakeholder inputs and submissions from the Ministry of Finance — recognize that the clause aims to retain and simplify the existing tax provisions concerning income from Global Depository Receipts (GDRs) purchased in foreign currency or capital gains arising from their transfer. The Committee welcome the improved clarity brought by the tabular presentation of tax rates.Accordingly, the Committee accept the clause as proposed.
222.	194.6	194	The Committee, after thorough deliberation on the provisions contained in Clause 194, including the views and suggestions of stakeholders and the justification provided by the Ministry of Finance, noted that Clause 194 primarily consolidates and rationalises existing provisions previously scattered across Sections 115B, 115BB, 115BBF, 115BBG, 115BBH, and 115BBJ of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, into a single, simplified clause. The Ministry explained that while the provisions have been textually simplified, their underlying policy intent has been preserved. Additionally, definitions that were earlier dispersed across multiple sections have now been incorporated into sub-clause (2) of Clause 194 to improve clarity and facilitate easier application. Further, the Committee identified an inadvertent drafting error in Clause 194(2)(d), which presently defines "horse race" by reference to Section 115. To avoid ambiguity, the Committee recommend amending Clause 194(2)(d) to instead refer to the definition provided in Section 94(6) of the Bill. This modification will clarify the intended meaning of "horse race" within the context of this Clause and help prevent any confusion during its application. Accordingly the Committee accept the clause as proposed, subject to the above-mentioned modifications.

223.	195.4	195	The Committee, after thorough deliberation upon the proposal made in Clause 195, including the views and suggestions of stakeholders and the submission made by the Ministry of Finance, took note that this clause largely consolidates and rationalises existing provisions — previously contained in Section 115BBE of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 — into a single, simplified framework.The Committee note that the main objective of this consolidation is to provide greater clarity and ease of application while retaining the policy intent of deterring transactions routed through undisclosed sources of income. Accordingly, the Committee accept the provisions under Clause 195 as proposed.
224.	196.4	196	After careful consideration of the proposed provision under Clause 196 and the justifications provided by the Ministry of Finance, the Committee concur with the retention and textual simplification of Section 111A of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, as proposed under Clause 196 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025. The Committee acknowledge that the proposed amendment preserves the taxation of short-term capital gains in case of a transfer of short-term capital asset, being an equity share in a company or a unit of an equity-oriented fund or a unit of a business trust subject to certain conditions.Accordingly, the Committee accept the provisions under clause 196 as proposed.
225.	197.6	197	The Committee, after thorough deliberation on the proposal set out in Clause 197 — including the views and suggestions of stakeholders and submissions from the Ministry of Finance — observes that this clause largely consolidates and rationalises the existing provisions previously contained in Section 112 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, into a single, simplified framework. However, the Committee note a specific concern regarding the availability of the foreign exchange fluctuation benefit to non-residents (other than FIIs and specified funds) when computing long-term capital gains (LTCG) on the transfer of unlisted securities and shares of closely held companies (CHCs). The Committee believe this practice contradicts the policy intent of rationalisation introduced by the Finance (No. 2) Act, 2024. To ensure consistency with the earlier provision under Section 112(1)(c)(iii) of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, and to maintain equity among different classes of taxpayers, the Committee recommend amending Clause 197 to explicitly deny the foreign exchange fluctuation benefit to such non-residents in relation to these transfers. Additionally, some stakeholders expressed concern that Clause 197 does not explicitly distinguish between LTCG arising from transfers made before and after 23 July 2024, potentially causing interpretational uncertainty. However, the Committee note— as clarified by the Ministry of Finance — that this issue is already addressed within the legislative framework. Since the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 is proposed to come into effect from April 1, 2026 (i.e., Assessment Year 2026–27), a separate reference to transfers occurring prior to 23 July 2024 is unnecessary. The Repeal and Savings clause, specifically Clause 536(2)(b), adequately governs the treatment of transactions undertaken under the existing law. Accordingly, the Committee consider this concern as already addressed through transitional provisions in the Bill. Accordingly, the Committee recommend retaining Clause 197 in its present form, subject to the above modification, as it effectively streamlines and consolidates the provisions governing the taxation of long-term capital gains.

226.	198.6	198	The Committee, after a thorough examination of the proposal under Clause 198—including consideration of stakeholder inputs and the rationale provided by the Ministry of Finance—find the proposed provisions to be broadly acceptable. However, the Committee

To enhance clarity and ensure precision without altering the policy intent, the Committee recommend the following modification: Modification to Clause 198: In sub-section (2)(a), the expression "on long-term capital gains" shall be deleted to streamline the language and avoid potential confusion.
228.	200.6	200	The Committee, after thorough deliberation upon the proposal made in Clause 200 under examination, including the views/suggestions of stakeholders and the justification given by the Ministry of Finance, find the proposed provisions to be broadly acceptable. The clause provides for a beneficial rate of 22% for certain domestic companies subject to conditions, and prescribes the manner of computing total income and the implications for companies having Units in the International Financial Services Centre. The Committee, however, note that while the existing provisions under Section 115BAA allowed a deduction in respect of inter-corporate dividends, the corresponding clause in the Bill inadvertently omits this benefit. The Committee consider this change appropriate, as it will align the new provisions with the policy intent of the existing Section 115BAA. Therefore, the Committee accept the provisions under Clause 200 subject to the following modification: To insert a reference to Clause 148 (section 80M) under Clause 200(1) (a) (ii) . This modification will enable domestic companies opting for the 22% concessional rate to deduct income by way of certain inter-corporate dividends, thereby removing an unintended inconsistency and aligning the new provisions with the policy of the existing Act.
229.	201.4	201	The Committee, after thorough deliberation upon the proposal made in Clause 201 under examination — including the views and suggestions of stakeholders and the justification provided by the Ministry of Finance — find the proposed provisions to be broadly acceptable. The Committee note that the policy objective of providing a temporary stimulus to the manufacturing sector is adequately addressed through the current formulation of the clause.Accordingly, the Committee accept the clause as proposed.
230.	202.6	202	Upon careful consideration of the proposal under Clause 202, along with the views and suggestions of stakeholders and the rationale provided by the Ministry of Finance, the Committee is of the view that the proposed provisions are, in principle, acceptable. The Committee, however, note that while the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 broadly corresponds to Section 115BAC of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, there is a drafting oversight in the Bill. Specifically, Clause 202(1) omits a reference to Part A, B, C, D, and E of Chapter XIII, which prescribes special regimes for certain income. The Ministry of Finance has explained that this is a drafting correction and has accepted the suggestion to insert a reference to "Part A, B, C, D, and E of Chapter XIII" under Clause 202(1) .

231.	203.4	203	The Committee, after thorough deliberation upon the proposal made in Clause 203 under examination and the justification given by the Ministry of Finance, find the proposed provisions to be broadly acceptable.The Committee recommend retaining Clause 203 as it stands, noting that it corresponds to Section 115BAD of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, and simplifies the text without changing its policy intent or benefits for co-operative societies.
232.	204.4	204	The Committee, after thorough deliberation upon the proposal made in Clause 204, including the views/suggestions of stakeholders and the justification provided by the Ministry of Finance, find the proposed provisions to be broadly acceptable. Therefore, the Committee recommend retaining Clause 204 in its present form, noting that it corresponds to Section 115BAE of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, and simply simplifies the text while retaining its policy intent to provide an incentivised 15% tax rate for new manufacturing co-operative societies.
233.	205.4	205	The Committee, after thorough deliberation upon the proposal made in Clause 205 under examination, including the justification given by the Ministry of Finance, find the proposed provisions appropriate and reasonable.The Committee recommend to accept Clause 205 as proposed. The Clause consolidates and streamlines conditions previously contained in sections 115BA, 115BAA, 115BAB, 115BAD, and 115BAE of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, thereby providing greater clarity and ease of application. Further, the Committee note that there are references to the IT Act, 1961 in the proposed clause, which deviates from the intention of the Committee for a clean break of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 from the IT Act, 1961. The committee are of the view that the clause referencing to 1961 will make the reading unwieldy and therefore the Committee recommend that the Ministry remove this reference from the proposed provisions under clause 205 of the Income-tax Bill, 2025, and instead incorporate it under the Repeal and Saving provisions under Clause 536.

234.	206.6	206	In view of the deliberations with various stakeholders and experts, and taking into account the detailed submissions and justification given by the Ministry of Finance, the Committee concur with the broad intent and direction of Clause 206 of the Income-tax Bill, 2025 (ITB 2025), particularly in relation to the consolidation and simplification of provisions concerning Minimum Alternate Tax (MAT) and Alternate Minimum Tax (AMT). However, the Committee also note the substantive concerns raised by multiple stakeholders regarding the potential unintended consequences arising from the omission of safeguards and exemptions earlier available under Section 115JEE of the ITA, 1961, as well as the absence of express provision for adjustment of notional gains in the computation of MAT under Clause 206(4), and the drafting anomalies concerning surcharge treatment, pre-1997 reserves, and the liability of successor LLPs under AMT. While many of these issues are categorised by the Ministry as drafting corrections, the Committee are of the view that incorporation of these clarifications within the Bill text would strengthen legal certainty and reduce avoidable litigation. Accordingly, to remove any ambiguity and ensure legal continuity with the legislative intent of the Income-tax Act, 1961 (ITA), the Committee recommend the redrafting of Clause 206 of the Income-tax Bill, 2025 (ITB) as follows: Clause 206(1): Clarification on Scope of AMT for Non-Corporates A new sub-clause may be inserted to clarify that AMT shall not apply to individuals, HUFs, AOPs, BOIs, or AJPs if:

The revised provisions strike a balanced approach between simplification, legal clarity, and fairness, while reducing scope for disputes.
235.	207.4	207	The Committee, after thorough deliberation upon the proposal made in Clause 207 under examination, including the views/suggestions of stakeholders and the justification given by the Ministry of Finance, find the proposed provisions appropriate and reasonable. The Committee accept Clause 207 as proposed. The Clause corresponds to Section 115A of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, and has been simplified and presented in a tabular format for ease of understanding. Accordingly, the Committee accept the proposed provision.
236.	208.4	208	The Committee has examined the provisions of Clause 208 and recommend to accept the clause as proposed. The clause is a simplification and retention of the existing Section 115AB of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, with some provisions presented in a tabular format for ease of comprehension. The intent and policy of the original Section 115AB have been maintained in this clause.
237.	209.6	209	The Committee, having carefully considered the proposed provisions under Clause 209, including stakeholder inputs and the rationale provided by the Ministry of Finance, is of the opinion that the provisions are broadly acceptable. The clause prescribed concessional tax rates for non-residents on income from bonds and Global Depository Receipts (GDRs) purchased in foreign currency and on capital gains arising from their transfer. The Committee, however, note that while the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 broadly corresponds to Section 115AC of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, there are certain drafting oversights in the Bill. The word "From" in column B of Serial 1 and 2 of the table under Clause 209(1) is redundant and may affect clarity. Furthermore, in Clause 209(2) (a) (i) , the expression "sub-section (1) ; or" is unnecessary and should be removed. Therefore, the Committee accept the provisions under Clause 209 subject to the following modifications: Remove the word "From" in column B of Serial 1 and 2 of the table under Clause 209(1) . Remove the expression "sub-section (1) ; or" in Clause 209(2) (a) (i) . Therefore, the Committee accept the provisions under Clause 209 as proposed subject to the above modifications.

238.	210.4	210	The Committee, after thorough deliberation upon the proposal made in Clause 210 under examination, including the views/suggestions of stakeholders and the justification given by the Ministry of Finance, find the proposed provisions to be broadly acceptable. The clause provides for special rates of income tax on income of Foreign Institutional Investors and specified funds from transfer of securities and capital gains arising therefrom. It prescribes concessional tax rates for different categories of income — ranging from 10% to 30% — depending on whether the income is from securities, short-term capital gains, or long-term capital gains. The Committee note that the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 broadly corresponds to Section 115AD of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, and the provisions have been simplified and presented in a tabular format for ease of comprehension. The Ministry of Finance has explained that this is a consolidation and reorganization of existing provisions without affecting their policy intent.Therefore, the Committee accept the provision under Clause 210 as proposed.

			stakeholders and the rationale provided by the Ministry of Finance, is of the view that the provisions under Clause 211are broadly acceptable. The Committee note that the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 broadly corresponds to Section 115BBA of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, and the provisions have been simplified and presented in a tabular format for ease of understanding. Therefore, the Committee accept the proposal under Clause 211 as it stands.
241.	213.4	213	The Committee, after careful consideration of the proposal under Clause 213, including the justification provided by the Ministry of Finance, find the proposed provisions appropriate and consistent with the existing legal framework. The Committee note that Clause aims to rationalize the computation of total income for non-resident Indians by consolidating and clarifying provisions previously contained in Section 115D of the Income-Tax Act, 1961.Accordingly, the Committee accept Clause 213 as proposed, recognizing that it provides greater clarity and ease of application in line with the policy intent.

			proposal made in Clause 214 under examination, including the views and suggestions of stakeholders and the justification provided by the Ministry of Finance, find the proposed provisions to be broadly acceptable. The clause prescribes the special rate of income tax payable by non-resident Indians on their investment income and long-term capital gains. The Committee note that the said clause of Income-Tax Bill, 2025 broadly corresponds to Section 115E of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The provisions have been simplified and presented more clearly while retaining their original intent. The Committee observe that the reference to "income from long-term capital gains of an asset other than a specified asset" under Serial No. 1 of the table is a drafting oversight and should be removed. Therefore, the Committee accept the proposed Clause 214 with the following modifications: To delete the words "income from long-term capital gains of an asset other than a specified asset" under Serial No. 1 of the table.
243.	215.6	215	The Committee, after thorough deliberation upon the proposal made in Clause 215 under examination, including the justification provided by the Ministry of Finance, find the proposed provisions broadly acceptable. The Committee note that this clause corresponds to Section 115F of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, and the Ministry has simplified the text while retaining its original intent. The formula for computing exemption when the cost of the new asset is less than the net consideration of the original asset has been explicitly incorporated in the Bill for ease of application and clarity. However, the Committee identified a drafting error in sub-section (2), where the phrase 'For the' are unnecessary and should be omitted to avoid redundancy. Therefore, the Committee accept the proposed Clause 215 with the following modifications: To omit the words "For the" in sub-section (2) for greater clarity.

244.	216.4	216	The Committee, after consideration of Clause 216 of the Bill, find the proposal reasonable and in keeping with the intent of the existing Section 115G of the Income-Tax Act, 1961.The clause provides that a non-resident Indian is not required to furnish a return of income if their total income consists only of investment income or long-term capital gains or both, and the applicable tax has already been deducted at source under Chapter XIX-B.The Ministry's justification—that this simply textually streamlines the existing exemption without making any substantial change—is appropriate and desirable.Therefore, the Committee recommend retaining Clause 216 as it stands in the Bill.
245.	217.6	217	The Committee, after thorough deliberation upon the proposal made in Clause 217 under examination — including the views and suggestions of stakeholders and the justification provided by the Ministry of Finance — find that this clause aims to provide a benefit to a non-resident Indian who subsequently becomes a resident in India. It allows such a person to continue to be governed by the provisions of this Chapter in relation to income from certain specified assets, provided a declaration is furnished to the Assessing Officer along with their return of income. The Ministry has explained that this change simply streamlines the text of the existing Section 115H of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, while retaining its main intent. The Committee feel that the option of furnishing a separate declaration to the Assessing Officer could be incorporated directly into the return of income form instead. However, the Committee find this to be a procedural matter, which can be addressed at the time of framing Rules and designing the income tax return form. Therefore, the Committee consider it appropriate to retain the clause in its present form, subject to this consideration.
246.	218.5	218	The Committee, after careful consideration of the proposal made in Clause 218 under examination — including the justification provided by the Ministry of Finance — find that this clause simply streamlines and retains the intent of Section 115-I of the Income-

			Tax Act, 1961. It provides a non-resident Indian with the option to opt out of the special provisions of this Chapter by making a declaration in their return of income under Section 263.Once such a declaration is made, the provisions of this Chapter will not apply for that tax year, and the total income of the non-resident Indian will be computed and taxed in the normal manner under the other provisions of the Act. The Committee consider this a reasonable and flexible approach, allowing non-resident Indians to choose the regimen most beneficial to them in a given year.The Committee, therefore, accept the provisions under clause 218 as proposed.
247.	219.5	219	The Committee, after careful consideration of the proposal made in Clause 219 under examination — including the justification provided by the Ministry of Finance — find that this clause largely retains the intent and benefits previously available under Section 115JG of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The main objective of this clause is to facilitate the conversion of a branch of a foreign bank in India into a subsidiary company, without causing a capital gains event and while preserving certain benefits, such as carry forward of losses and depreciation and tax credit on previously deemed income.The conditions for this exemption and the procedure to withdraw these benefits if conditions are subsequently contravened have been adequately specified. The Ministry has simplified the wording while retaining the substance of the existing provisions.The Committee, therefore, consider it appropriate to retain Clause 219 of the Bill as it stands.
248.	220.4	220	The Committee, after consideration of Clause 220 of the Bill, find the proposal reasonable and in keeping with the intent of Section 115JH of the Income-Tax Act, 1961.The Committee notethe justification furnished by the Ministry that this simply streamlines the text and retains the main intent of the existing provision. Therefore, the Committee accept the proposed clause.

249.	221.4	221	The Committee, after careful consideration of Clause 221 of the Bill, find the proposal reasonable and in consonance with the intent and policy objective of Section 115TCA of the Income-Tax Act, 1961.The Committee notethe Ministry's submission that the proposed clause does not introduce any substantial change in policy but rather streamlines and clarifies the existing provisions to align them more closely with their original legislative intent. The Committee find this approach appropriate and desirable. Therefore, the Committee accept the proposal as contained in Clause 221 of the Bill.
250.	222.4	222	The Committee, having carefully considered Clause 222 of the Bill, find the proposal to be reasonable, well-crafted, and in consonance with the legislative intent of Section 115U of the Income-Tax Act, 1961.The Committee note that the Ministry has explained these modifications as a textual streamlining of the existing provisions, while retaining their essential policy objective and procedural safeguards. Importantly, the mechanisms for attribution of income, filing of statements by the venture capital company or fund, and disclosure to the income-tax authorities remain adequately robust to facilitate proper oversight and compliance.In view of the above, the Committee find the proposal appropriate, desirable, and in keeping with the principle of pass-through taxation. Therefore, the Committee accept Clause 222 of the Bill in its present form.
251.	223.6	223	The Committee, after thorough deliberation upon the proposal made in Clause 223 — including the views and suggestions of stakeholders and the justification provided by the Ministry of Finance — find the proposed provision broadly acceptable and in consonance with the policy intent of Section 115UA of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. However, the Committee observe a minor drafting inconsistency in sub-section (2) of Clause 223. The proposal, as currently worded, omits a specific reference to Section 112A and Section 198, which was incorporated into Section 115UA(2) by the Finance Act, 2025. This oversight may affect the application of the 12.5% tax rate to income covered under Section 112A and the proper treatment of capital gains on transfer of long-term capital assets. The Committee, therefore, consider it appropriate to recommend that Clause 223(2) be amended to expressly refer to Section 112A and Section 198. Such a modification would align the provision with its legislative intent and policy framework, thereby ensuring fairness, consistency, and clarity in application. The Committee, therefore, accept the provisions of Clause 223 of the Bill subject to the above modification.

252.	224.6	224	The Committee, after thorough deliberation upon the proposal made in Clause 224 under examination — including the views and suggestions of stakeholders and the justification provided by the Ministry of Finance — find the proposed provision broadly acceptable and in consonance with the policy objective of pass-through taxation for investment funds and their unit holders. However, the Committee observes a discrepancy arising from the current definition of "investment fund" in Clause 224(10). As presently drafted, the definition could inadvertently encompass Categories of funds (such as Category III AIF) that were not intended to benefit from pass-through treatment. Specifically, the use of the broad expression "regulated under the International Financial Services Centres Authority (Fund Management) Regulations, 2022" may lead to the unintended inclusion of funds that do not fall under Categories I or II AIF. The Committee feel that this inconsistency should be addressed to reflect the true policy intent and to avoid confusion in application. It, therefore, consider it appropriate to recommend that Clause 224(10) be amended to expressly provide that only "Category I or II Alternative Investment Funds, as defined under the International Financial Services Centres Authority (Fund Management) Regulations, 2022" shall be eligible for pass-through treatment.

253.	225.4	225	The Committee, having carefully considered Clause 225 of the Bill, find the proposal to be reasonable, well-crafted, and in consonance with the legislative intent of Section 115VA of the Income-Tax Act, 1961.The Committee note that the Ministry has explained these modifications as a textual streamlining of the existing provisions, while retaining their essential policy objective — namely, to simplify and bring predictability to the tax treatment of income from the operations of qualifying ships. Importantly, this approach aligns with international practices and policy incentives designed to foster growth in the country's merchant navy and Shipping industry.In view of the above, the Committee find the proposal appropriate, desirable, and in keeping with the policy intent of tonnage-based taxation. Therefore, the Committee accept the provisions under Clause 225 of the Bill in its present form.
254.	226.4	226	The Committee, having carefully examined Clause 226 of the Bill, find the proposal to be reasonable, well-structured, and in harmony with the legislative intent of Sections 115VB, 115VE, and 115VF of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee note that the Ministry has explained these modifications as a textual streamlining of the existing provisions, while retaining their essential policy objective — namely, to facilitate ease of computation, provide stability in tax treatment, and foster growth in the merchant navy sector. Importantly, the conditions for applicability of the scheme, the procedure for exercising the option, and the treatment of related income remain adequately clear and robust under the new framework. In view of the above, the Committee find the proposal appropriate, desirable, and in keeping with the policy of tonnage-based taxation. Therefore, the Committee acceptClause 226 of the Bill in its present form.
255.	227.4	227	The Committee, having carefully considered Clause 227 of the Bill, find the proposal to be reasonable, well-crafted, and in consonance with the legislative

Importantly, this approach aligns with international practices and policy incentives designed to foster growth in the country's merchant navy and Shipping industry. In view of the above, the Committee find the proposal appropriate, desirable, and in keeping with the policy intent of tonnage-based taxation. Therefore, the Committee accept Clause 227 of the Bill in its present form.
256.	228.4	228	The Committee, after careful consideration of Clause 228 of the Bill, find the proposal reasonable and in keeping with the intent of Section 115V-I, 115VJ, and 115V-O of the Income-Tax Act, 1961.The Committee note the justification furnished by the Ministry that this change simply merges existing provisions into a unified framework while retaining their main intent. The Committee find this approach appropriate and desirable for simplifying the legislation and improving clarity in its application. Therefore, the Committee accept the Clause 228 as it stands in the Bill.
257.	229.4	229	The Committee, after considering Clause 229 of the Bill, find the proposal reasonable and in keeping with the main intent of Section 115VK and Section 115VN of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Ministry's explanation that this simply clarifies and reorganises the text, without making substantial policy changes, is appropriate and desirable.Therefore, the Committee accept the provisions under Clause 229 as proposed in the Bill.

259.	231.4	231	The Committee, after consideration of Clause 231 of the Bill, find the proposal reasonable and in keeping with the intent of Section 115VP, 115VQ, 115VR, and 115VS of the Income-Tax Act, 1961.The clause sets out the procedure for a qualifying company to opt for the tonnage tax scheme, the period of its validity, renewal conditions, and the circumstances under which the option may cease or be withdrawn. The justification furnished by the Ministry — that the provisions have been simplified and redundancy removed while retaining their main intent — is appropriate and desirable.Therefore, the Committee recommend retaining Clause 231 as it stands in the Bill.

261.	233.6	233	The Committee, after thorough deliberation upon the proposal made in Clause 233 under examination — including the views and suggestions of stakeholders and the justification provided by the Ministry of Finance — find the proposed provision broadly acceptable. However, the Committee observe a discrepancy arising from the use of the term "new inland vessel" in this context. The use of "new" may inadvertently create confusion and inconsistency in application, particularly when the policy intent applies uniformly to all inland vessels, regardless of whether they are new or second-hand. The Committee feel that this inconsistency should be addressed to reflect the true policy intent and to avoid confusion in application. It, therefore, consider it appropriate to recommend that the terminology be amended to refer simply to "inland vessel" — thereby applying the provisions uniformly to all such vessels — in order to maintain fairness and policy consistency. The Committee, therefore, suggest that the Ministry consider this modification while finalizing the provisions of Clause 233 of the Bill.
262.	234.5	234	The Committee, after thorough deliberation upon the proposal made in Clause 234 under examination — including the views and suggestions of stakeholders and the justification provided by the Ministry of Finance — find the proposed provision broadly acceptable. The Committee note that this clause aims to curb abuse of the tonnage tax scheme and to empower the Assessing Officer to exclude companies from the scheme where transactions or arrangements are entered into with the main purpose of avoiding tax. The provisions largely retain the intent of the existing sections 115VZB and 115VZC of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, while simplifying their language. The Committee believe that this measure is reasonable and necessary to safeguard revenue and to maintain fairness in the application of the tonnage tax scheme. However, the Committee underscores the importance of proper safeguards — including a show-cause notice and the approval of the Principal Chief Commissioner or Chief Commissioner — to avoid arbitrary decisions and to provide companies with an opportunity to explain their transactions. Therefore, the Committee find the proposal appropriate and broadly endorse its retention in the Bill.However, the Committee suggest that the Ministry and the Assessing Officer should apply these provisions judiciously, to deal with cases of abuse while not affecting bona fide transactions.The Committee, therefore, recommend that the Ministry consider this observation while finalizing the provisions of Clause 234 of the Bill.

263.	235.6	235	The Committee has carefully examined Clause 235 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025, which sets out definitions for key terms used in the tonnage tax scheme. The Committee find these definitions broadly align with the existing provisions under Section 115V of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, and help streamline and consolidate all related definitions into a single clause for better readability and clarity. The Committee has taken note of a drafting inconsistency in Clause 235(a) , where the word "new" has inadvertently been placed before "inland vessel"—a terminology not present in the principal Act and not required in this context. The use of "new" may confuse stakeholders and lead to interpretational issues. Therefore, in view of this oversight, the Committee recommend the deletion of the word "new" from Clause 235(a) to align it with the terminology used for "bareboat charter" under the principal Act. The rest of the definitions in this clause may be retained as originally drafted, given their clarity and utility in simplifying the tonnage tax framework. The Committee, therefore, endorses Clause 235 with this minor modification.

265.	237.4	237	The Committee, upon examination and the justification provided by the Ministry, note that the provisions proposed in the clause are mere textual simplification of the existing provision of the 1961 Act. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause as it stands.
266.	238.4	238	The Committee note the justification provided by the Ministry and find the provisions of the Clause 238 in line with the existing provisions of the 1961 Act. Being a textual simplification, the Committee accept the Clause as proposed.
267.	239.6.1	239	The Committee, upon detailed deliberations on various provisions of the Clause, find a missing reference to Clauses 288 and 408 in Clause 239(3)(a) and therefore recommend for insertion thereof for better clarity and to align it with the provisions of the Act.
268.	240.4	240	The Committee note the justification provided by the Ministry and find the provisions of the Clause 240 in line with the existing provisions and a textual simplification and therefore accept the Clause as proposed.
269.	241.4	241	The Committee, upon examination and the justification provided by the Ministry, find the provisions of the Clause 241, as a textual simplification of the existing provisions of the 1961 Act and therefore accept the Clause as it stands.
270.	242.6.1 242.6.2	242	(i)The Committee, upon deliberations on the Clause, note that there is a drafting error in sub-clause (6) which needed to be re-drafted for better clarity and the same is acceptable to the Ministry. The Committee, therefore, recommend that the phrase 'if any,' at Line No. 28 may be removed and be placed at Line no. 27 after 'income' so as to clearly explain the intent of the sub-clause. (ii) The Committee further note a cross reference in sub-clause 4(c) to the 1961 Act, which is proposed to be repealed. Therefore, the Committee recommend the Ministry to remove the reference to the old Act, 1961 from the body of the Bill itself by clubbing it in the Savings clause coherently and accept the remaining portion of the proposed Clause 242 without

271.	243.4	243	The Committee note the justification provided by the Ministry and find the provisions of the Clause 243 in line with the existing provisions and a textual simplification and therefore accept the Clause as proposed.
272.	244.4	244	The Committee, upon examination and the justification provided by the Ministry, find the provisions of the Clause 244 in line with the corresponding provisions of the 1961 Act. Therefore, the Committee accept the Clause as proposed.
273.	245.4	245	The Committee, upon examination and the justification given by the Ministry, find the provisions of the Clause 245 to be in line with the existing provisions of 1961 Act and being a textual simplification, the Committee accept the Clause as proposed.
274.	246.6.1	246	The Committee, upon examination of the Clause, note that sub-clause (2)(b) requires an amendment to incorporate the concept of jurisdiction for the exercise of powers related to discovery and production of evidence. Accordingly, the Committee recommend that sub-clause (2)(b) be amended to retain the original language and intent of Section 131(1A) of the existing Income-Tax Act, while specifically including the jurisdictional concept, ensuring such powers are exercised by an officer within whose jurisdiction the assessee is situated.
275.	247.6.1	247	The Committee note certain drafting corrections needed to be carried out in some sub-clauses as under: (i) In sub-clause(5)(b), the word "with" (Line No.46) needs to be removed from phrase “or the Director General, as per with such procedure, as prescribed. “ (ii) In sub-clause 247(9) the word "value" needs to be replaced by "valuer" (Line No.42). (iii) Further, in sub-clause(9), the word "enforce” (Line No.43) needs to be replaced by "in force" and the phrase “as may be approved by the Principal Chief

276.	248.6	248	The Committee note the justification provided by the Ministry and find the provisions of the Clause 248 in line with the existing provisions and mere textual simplification and therefore accept the Clause as proposed.
277.	249.6	249	The Committee, upon deliberation on the Clause and the justification provided by the Ministry, find the provisions of the Clause 249 in line with the existing provisions of the 1961 Act and therefore accept the Clause as proposed.
278.	250.6	250	(i) The Committee, upon examination and the justification provided by the Ministry, find the provisions of the Clause 250 to be a textual simplification with no change in intent and in line with the existing provisions of the 1961 Act. The Ministry, under the Clause, has provided a formula to calculate the amount on which the central government shall pay the simple interest at the rate of 0.5% for every month, so as to eliminate the scope of any ambiguity. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause as proposed. (ii)The Committee further note in the Clause a cross reference to the 1961 Act, which is proposed to be repealed. Therefore, the Committee recommend the Ministry to remove the reference to the old Act, 1961 from the body of the Bill itself by clubbing it in the Savings clause coherently.
279.	251.3	251	The Committee note the justification provided by the Ministry and find the provisions of the Clause 251 to be mere textual simplification and in line with the corresponding provisions of 1961 Act and therefore accept the Clause as it stands.
280.	252.6	252	The Committee note that there is a need to amend Clause 252(1)(e) to clarify the application of the financial threshold for calling for information. The Committee observe that currently Clause 252(1)(e) empowers the income tax authority to require an assessee to furnish details of payments made for "rent, interest, commission, royalty or brokerage, or any annuity, not being any annuity taxable under the head 'Salaries' amounting to more than ten thousand rupees''. The phrase "amounting to more than ten thousand rupees" appears to qualify only "any annuity, not being any annuity taxable under the head 'Salaries'". The Committee observe that this may create an ambiguity, suggesting that for other payments like rent, interest, commission, royalty, or brokerage, there might not be a specified minimum limit for which information can be sought. Therefore, the Committee recommend that the sub-clause (1)(e) may be amended to ensure that the limit of 'ten thousand rupees', clearly applies to all the preceding categories of payments '"rent, interest, commission, royalty or brokerage, or any annuity, not being any annuity taxable under the head 'Salaries'".

288.	260.4	260	The Committee, upon examination of the justification provided by the Ministry, find the provisions of the Clause 260 to be mere textual simplification of the existing provisions and therefore accept the Clause as proposed.
289.	261.4.1 261.4.2	261	(i)The Committee note in the Clause a cross reference to the 1961 Act, which is proposed to be repealed. Therefore, the Committee recommend the Ministry to remove the reference to the old Act, 1961 from the body of the Bill itself by clubbing it in the Savings clause coherently. (ii) The Committee, upon examination of the provisions of the Clause and the justification provided by the Ministry find that this is a new clause which consolidates various definitions in the corresponding sections of the 1961 Act. For simplification, certain interpretations like approving authority, competent authority have also been provided. Apart from the above recommendation, the Committee find the clause to be adequate and in line with the corresponding section of the 1961 Act and accept the same as it stands.
290.	262.6	262	The Committee, upon examination of the provisions along with justification provided by the Ministry, find the provisions of the Clause 262 to be corresponding and in line with the provisions of the existing Act. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause in entirety.
291.	263.6.1	263	(i) The Committee observe that Clause 263(1) of the Bill states that for persons other than companies or firms, the ITR filing obligation is there if their total income exceeds the basic exemption limit without giving effect to deductions allowable under "Chapter IV-E (Capital Gains)." However, the Committee note that referring to the entire "Chapter IV-E" is too broad as this Chapter covers not only specific exemptions but also fundamental elements of capital gains computation such as the cost of acquisition, indexed cost, and exempt transfers. Also, the broad phrasing might be misinterpreted to mean that all these computational elements (cost, exempt transfers, etc.) are to be ignored when calculating total income for the ITR filing threshold. Therefore, the Committee recommend that in order to prevent potential litigation, avoid ambiguity and ensure clarity, the provisions of the Bill may be amended to align with the existing Act by explicitly specifying only those particular deductions within Chapter IV-E that are to be disregarded when determining the ITR filing threshold, rather than the entire chapter. (ii) The Committee observe that the current mandatory requirement to file a return solely for the purpose of claiming a refund could inadvertently lead to prosecution, particularly for small taxpayers whose income falls below the taxable threshold but from whom tax has been deducted at source. In such scenarios, the law should not compel a return merely to avoid penal provisions for non-filing. The Committee, therefore, recommend to remove sub-clause (1)(ix) to Clause 263 to provide flexibility for allowing refund claims in cases where the return is not filed in due time. (iii) The Committee further note that there is an error in cross-referencing in sub-clause 8(a). Therefore, the Committee recommend to remove '(4)' from referred Section '239(4)(3)(b)' in sub-clause (8)(a) to Clause 263. (iv)The Committee recommend that to provide better clarity regarding due date of filing returns, in the Table in Clause 263 for company with Transfer Pricing transactions, the due date 30th November may be added.

308.	280.6	280	The Committee note the justification provided by the Ministry and find the provisions of the Clause 280 to be corresponding to the existing provisions with textual simplification and therefore accept the Clause as proposed.
309.	281.6.1	281	The Committee observe that in sub-clause (1) to Clause 281, the purpose for issuing show-cause notice is not provided. That was there in the earlier wording in the Act of 1961 which said 'Serving upon him a notice to show cause as to why a notice under Section 148 should not be issued'. The suggestion to add "for less than adequate consideration" in sub-clause (5) is deemed untenable as it is an anti-abuse provision. The Committee also note the Department's agreement to reinstate the word "whatsoever" in the clause, replacing "in any manner." This change aligns with the Committee's suggestion and the existing Income-Tax Act, 1961. After considering the viewpoints of both the stakeholders and the Department, the Committee recommend that sub-clause (6) (a) of Clause 313 be amended to incorporate the word "whatsoever," as agreed by the Department. 			business reorganization, streamlines the existing Section 170A of the Act while preserving its core intent. Following receipt and deliberation on suggestions from stakeholders and experts, the Committee observe that the Department of Revenue has agreed to specific textual revisions within sub-clauses (2)(a) and (2)(b). These involve replacing "in accordance with such order" with "in accordance with such order in respect of business reorganisation" in Clause 314(2)(a), and substituting "order of the business reorganisation" with "order in respect of business reorganisation" in Clause 314(2)(b). The Department deems these as drafting corrections that do not alter the Bill's provisions relative to the Act. Therefore, sub-clauses (2)(a) and (2)(b) of Clause 314 may be redrafted as follows: 2) Where the assessment or reassessment proceedings for a tax year to which the order in respect of the business reorganisation applies,— (a) have been completed on the date of furnishing of the modified return as per the provisions of sub-section (1), the Assessing Officer shall pass an order modifying the total income of the relevant tax year determined in such assessment or reassessment, in accordance with such order in respect of business reorganisation and taking into account the modified return so furnished; (b) are pending on the date of furnishing of the modified return as per sub-section (1), the Assessing Officer shall pass an order assessing or reassessing the total income of the relevant tax year as per the order in respect of the business reorganisation and taking into account the modified return so furnished." After a thorough review of the perspectives shared by stakeholders and the Department, the Committee approve Clause 314, contingent upon the aforementioned drafting corrections.

The Committee also note that the provisions of the current section have been textually simplified and carried forward into this new clause with no intended policy changes. After carefully considering the views presented by various stakeholders and the responses from the Department, the Committee approve Clause 315, as proposed.
344.	316.5	316	The Committee note that Clause 316 of the Bill provides for shipping business of non-residents, aligns with Section 172 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee concurs with the Department's justification for retaining this clause with the same intent, incorporating only textual simplification. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause in its current form.
345.	317.5	317	The Committee note that Clause 317 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025, mapped to Section 174 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, provides for assessment of persons leaving India. The Committee approve Clause 317 as proposed, noting its simplified approach to existing provisions.
346.	318.5	318	The Committee note that Clause 318 of the Bill, dealing assessment of association of persons or body of individuals or artificial judicial person formed for a particular event or purpose, aims to simplify the existing provisions of Section 174A. The Committee concur with the Department's justification for this simplification and, therefore, accept Clause 318 as proposed.
347.	319.6	319	The Committee observe that Clause 319 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 textually simplifies and retains the intent of Section 175 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 regarding assessment of persons likely to transfer property to avoid tax. Noting that there is no policy change in this regard and having after considered the views of the stakeholders as well as the response of the Department, the Committee accept Clause 319 as proposed.
348.	320.6	320	The Committee note that Clause 320 of the Bill

Sl. No	Para No	Clause No.	Observation/Recommendation
			addresses the provisions for discontinued businesses, directly corresponding to Section 176 of the existing Income-Tax Act. The Committee observe that while there is no intended policy change, the provisions of the original section have been textually simplified and carried forward with the same core intent into this new clause. After extensive deliberation on the views of the stakeholders as well as the response of the Department, the Committee accept Clause 319 as proposed.
349.	321.5	321	The Committee note that Clause 321, a simplified text of the existing Section 177, relating to association dissolved or business discontinued and involves no policy shift. The Committee, therefore, accept Clause 321 as proposed by the Department of Revenue.
350.	322.6	322	Clause 322 of the Bill specifies provisions concerning a company in liquidation. The Committee note that this Clause is simplified textual version of existing Section 178 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 maintaining Government original policy. After considering the viewpoints of both the stakeholders and the Department, the Committee accept Clause 322 as proposed.
351.	323.6	323	The Committee note that Clause 323 deals with liability of directors of private company, aligns with the provisions of Section 179 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee also note that the textual simplification of clause 323 is as per the objectives of the Bill and retaining the same intent. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause as proposed.
352.	324.5	324	The Committee note that Clause 324 of the Bill pertains to charge of tax in case of a firm, aligns with existing Section 167A of the Income-Tax Act, 1961; but features simplified linguistic construction. Expressing their concurrence with the justification given by the Department of Revenue in this regard, the Committee accept Clause 324 as it is.
353.	325.6	325	The Committee observe Clause 325 of the Bill (mirroring Section 184 of the 1961 Income-Tax Act) on partnership firm assessments. They note a discrepancy in Clause 325(6)(b), which incorrectly references "section 26(2)(f)" instead of the correct "section 26(2)(g)," as per the corresponding Section 184(5) of the 1961 Act. The Ministry of Finance has accepted this correction. The Committee, thus, advise amending Clause 325(6)(b) to rectify this, while accepting the rest of the clause.

Sl. No	Para No	Clause No.	Observation/Recommendation
354.	326.5	326	Noting that Clause 326 of the Bill, dealing with consequences in the assessment of a partnership firm in case of non-compliance to the conditions made by rules, is a textual simplification of Section 185 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with the same intent, the Committee accept the Clause in its present form.
355.	327.5	327	The Committee note that Clause 327 of the Bill addresses assessment of a partnership firm in cases where there is a change in constitution of the firm, aligns with the existing Section 187 and involves no policy shift. The Committee, therefore, accept Clause 327 as proposed by the Department of Revenue.
356.	328.5	328	The Committee note that Clause 328 of the Bill prescribing provisions for taxation in the hands of the predecessor and successor in the case of succession of one firm by another firm, aligns with existing Section 188 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 but features simplified linguistic construction. Expressing their concurrence with the justification given by the Department of Revenue in this regard, the Committee accept Clause 328 as it is.
357.	329.5	329	Noting that Clause 329 of the Bill, dealing joint and several liability of partners for tax payable by firm, is a textual simplification of Section 188A of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with the same intent, the Committee accept the Clause in its present form.
358.	330.5	330	The Committee note that Clause 330 outlines the framework for assessment and liability in the hands of the firm even after its dissolution or discontinuance of the business, aligns with the existing Section 189 of the extant Act and involves no policy shift. The Committee, therefore, accept Clause 330 as proposed by the Department of Revenue.

359.	331.6	331	Clause 331 of the Bill governs the conditions of liability of partners of limited partnership in liquidation. The Committee note that this Clause is simplified textual version of existing Section 167C of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 maintaining Government original policy. After considering the viewpoints of both the stakeholders and the Department, the Committee accept Clause 331 as proposed.
360.	332.6.1 332.6.2	332	The Committee notes that Clause 332 of the Bill, intended to simplify the registration of non-profit organizations by using consistent terminology, aligns with Sections 12A and 12AB of the existing Act. However, a significant concern has emerged among Non-Profit Organizations (NPOs), particularly those with mixed charitable and religious objectives, regarding the interpretation of "wholly for charitable or religious purposes" in Clause 332. Despite Ministry assurances that mixed-object trusts are intended to be included, the current wording creates confusion. This ambiguity could lead to uncertainty for existing trusts seeking renewal, issues for those established after 1961, and a heightened risk of litigation. Concerns also exist about the inadvertent exclusion of legitimate trusts with minor related activities, and a lack of clarity on how "wholly" will be defined and applied, especially for trusts with evolving activities. The Committee acknowledge the Ministry of Finance's recognition of this confusion and its commitment to redraft Clause 332 to remove ambiguity, viewing this as a positive and necessary step. In view of this, the Committee recommend to redraft the Clause 332 suitably.
361.	333.5	333	Clause 333 of the Income-Tax Bill 2025, which provides for switching over of regimes by a registered non-profit organization, corresponding to Section 11(7) of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee find that this Clause has been reformulated by paraphrasing the existing provisions to enhance clarity and comprehension. Furthermore, having been assured that no policy change has been incorporated in this Clause, the Committee approve Clause 333 as it is.

362.	334.5	334	The Committee note that Clause 334 of the Bill consolidates provisions of the Income-Tax Act 1961 which provides for taxability of income of a registered non-profit organization. Recognizing textual simplification, no policy change and retaining original intent in this Clause, the Committee accept the Clause as proposed by the Department of Revenue.
363.	335.6.1

			Income-Tax Bill, 2025 textually simplifies and retains the intent of Section 11(1) of the Act regarding the taxable regular income of a registered non-profit organization. After considered the views of the stakeholders as well as the response of the Department, the Committee accept Clause 336 as proposed.
365.	337.6.1 337.6.2 337.6.3	337	The Committee's examination of Clause 337 of the Bill, which pertains to the "specified income" of registered non-profit organizations (NPOs) and mirrors Section 115BBI of the existing Income-Tax Act, 1961, reveals a significant divergence in the treatment of anonymous donations. While the Bill's stated aim is textual simplification, the Committee observe a critical omission concerning religious-cum-charitable trusts, which could have substantial adverse impacts on a large segment of India's NPO sector. Under the proposed Clause 337 (read with its "Table of Specified Income"), a flat 30% tax is imposed on anonymous donations received by all registered non-profit organizations, with a narrow exemption extended only to those established wholly for religious purposes. This marks a stark departure from the current Section 115BBC of the Income-tax Act, 1961. The existing law provided a more comprehensive exemption: anonymous donations were not taxed if received by any trust or institution created or established wholly for religious and charitable purposes, unless such a donation was specifically directed towards a university, educational institution, hospital, or medical institution run by that same trust or institution. The Committee emphasize that the classification within the erstwhile Section 115BBC was highly pertinent to the Indian context, acknowledging the prevalent hybrid nature of numerous trusts that seamlessly blend religious and charitable activities. This previous provision legitimately recognized these "religious-cum-charitable" entities as a distinct and valid class eligible for concessions on anonymous donations, understanding that such organizations

Sl. No	Para No	Clause No.	Observation/Recommendation
	337.6.4		often receive contributions through traditional means (like donation boxes) where donor identification is practically impossible. Therefore, to maintain consistency with the historical understanding of NPO operations in India, prevent unintended taxation burdens on genuine organizations, and uphold the intent of supporting both religious and charitable endeavors, the Committee strongly urge the reintroduction of a provision analogous to the explanation found in Section 115BBC of the 1961 Act. This reintroduction would explicitly recognize religious-cum-charitable trusts as a legitimate category eligible for concessions on anonymous donations. Subject to this recommendation, the Committee approve Clause 337 as proposed.
366.	338.6	338	The Committee note that Clause 338 of the Bill addresses the income categories that are specifically excluded from the "regular income" of a registered non-profit organization. This clause corresponds directly to Section 11(1)(c) of the existing Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee also note that the Bill has textually simplified the provisions of the corresponding existing section while retaining its original intent. After thoroughly considering the viewpoints presented by both stakeholders and the Department, the Committee accept Clause 338 as proposed.
367.	339.6	339	The Committee note that Clause 339 of the Bill defines "corpus donation" for registered non-profit organizations, directly aligning with Section 11(1)(d) of the existing Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee also note that the Bill simplifies the language of the corresponding section while preserving its original intent. Having thoroughly reviewed the perspectives of both stakeholders and the Department, the Committee accept Clause 339 as proposed.
368.	340.5	340	The Committee note that Clause 340 of the Bill provides for deemed corpus donation of a registered non profit organisation, corresponding to directly aligning with section 11(1) Explanation 3A of the existing Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee also note that the Bill simplifies the language of the corresponding section while preserving its original intent. After examining the perspectives of both stakeholders and the Department, the Committee accept Clause 340 as proposed.

369.	341.6.1 341.6.2 341.6.3	341	The Committee note that Clause 341 of the Bill, which deals with the application of income for a registered non-profit organization, corresponds to Explanations 4 and 5 of Section 11(1) of the existing Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee acknowledge that the Bill has textually simplified these provisions while intending to retain their original meaning. During deliberations, the Committee considered various suggestions from stakeholders and experts, as well as the Department's responses. A significant concern raised by a stakeholder was that the new clause on the application of income does not provide for "deemed application" as was present under Explanation 2 of Section 11 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The stakeholder emphasized the critical need to include this deemed application provision, as it addressed situations where NPOs could not receive amounts (e.g., due to disputes) or received them very late in the financial year, making it impossible to "apply" such income within the prescribed timeframe. The absence of this clause, it was argued, would create significant practical difficulties for NPOs. In response, the Department stated that the stakeholder's suggestion implies allowing registered NPOs to treat donations made to other registered NPOs out of accumulated income as applied, at least for the first year of accumulation. The Department highlighted that consolidating the income-accumulation regime into a single mode aims to reduce administrative burdens and simplify compliance. They further explained that the previous framework's distinct one-year and five-year accumulation procedures often led to denials due to erroneous entries. However, the Department has noted the stakeholder's suggestion for further consideration. The Committee, therefore, recommend to retain the existing provision of Explanation 2 of Section 11 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 related to deemed application in Clause 341.

370.	342.6	342	The Committee note that Clause 342 of the Bill, which pertains to the accumulated income of a registered non-profit organization, aligns with Section 11(2) and Section 11(3A) of the existing Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Bill aims to simplify these provisions while retaining their original intent. Given the views of stakeholders and response of the the Ministry of Finance (Department of Revenue), the Committee accept the clause as proposed.
371.	343.6	343	The Committee note that Clause 343 of the Bill addresses "deemed accumulated income" for registered non-profit organizations. While not directly corresponding to a single section of the existing Income-Tax Act, 1961, this clause consolidates provisions previously found in Section 11(1)(a), 11(1)(b), and Section 13(1)(d), which allowed the setting aside or accumulation of up to 15% of income from property held under trust. The Bill aims to simplify this by retaining the original intent through textual simplification. After reviewing stakeholder and Department viewpoints, the Committee accept Clause 343 as proposed.
372.	344.6	344	The Committee note that Clause 344 of the Bill provides for business undertaking held as property of a registered non-profit organisation. The clause corresponds to section 11(4) of the Act. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause. After considering the viewpoints of both the stakeholders and the Department, the Committee accept Clause 344 as proposed.
373.	345.6.1	345	The Committee observe that Clause 345 of the Bill addresses restrictions on commercial activities for registered non-profit organizations, directly aligning with Section 11(4A) of the existing Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Bill aims to simplify the text of the existing section while maintaining its original intent.

Sl. No	Para No	Clause No.	Observation/Recommendation
	345.6.2 345.6.3		In the course of examination of the Bill, the Committee considered stakeholders suggestions and the Department's response. One stakeholder proposed rewording the clause to state: "No registered non-profit organisation, other than a registered non-profit Organization carrying out advancement of any other object of general public utility, shall carryout any commercial activity unless—(a) such commercial activity is incidental to the attainment of the objectives of the registered non-profit organisation; and (b) separate books of account are maintained for such activities." The Department has acknowledged this drafting error in the original Bill, agreeing to remove the comma after "other than a registered non-profit organisation" to rectify it. The Committee, therefore, recommend implementing this specific drafting correction. Aside from this amendment, the Committee approve Clause 345 as proposed.
374.	346.5	346	The Committee note that Clause 346 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025, mapped to Section 13(8) of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, provides for restriction on commercial activities of a registered non-profit organisation which has advancement of any other object of general public utility as any of its objects. The Committee approve Clause 346 as proposed, noting its simplified approach to existing provisions.
375.	347.6	347	The Committee note that Clause 347 of the Bill simplifies and maintains the intent of Section 12A(1)(b) of the Act, which governs the books of account for registered non-profit organizations. Stakeholders have raised concerns about the stringent requirement to record the name and address for every credit or payment, even for petty expenses below a suggested threshold of Rs. 10,000 (e.g., auto fares, water, small pooja items, vegetables from street vendors, milk for Annadhan). They argue that this is practically unfeasible. The Department clarifies that this suggestion pertains to Rule 17AA, a matter of delegated legislation and thus outside the Bill's purview. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause 347 as proposed.

376.	348.6	348	The Committee note that Clause 348 of the Bill provides for audit of a registered non-profit organisation. The clause corresponds to Section 12A(1)(b) of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause. After considering the viewpoints of both the stakeholders and the Department, the Committee accept Clause 348 as proposed.
377.	349.6	349	The Committee note that Clause 349 of the Bill, which pertains to the return of income for registered non-profit organizations, aims to simplify the text of the existing Section 12A(1)(ba) of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 while maintaining its original intent. However, a stakeholder pointed out an omission: when a non-profit's income (prior to applying certain provisions) exceeds the tax-exempt threshold, its return should be furnished not only as per Section 263(1)(a)(iii) and within the timeline of Section 263(1)(b), but also in the manner prescribed by Section 263(2) to enable online filing. The the Ministry of Fiannce (Department of Revenue) has acknowledged this as a drafting error, confirming that Clause 263(2) specifies the form and manner of return submission, a detail missing in the current corresponding section for NPOs (formerly Section 139(4A) of the IT Act). Consequently, the Committee approve Clause 349 as proposed, with a specific recommendation to incorporate this necessary drafting correction.
378.	350.6	350	The Committee note that Clause 350 of the Bill provides for permitted modes of investment. The clause corresponds to section 11(5) of the Act. The modes of investing or depositing the money has been specified in Schedule XVI of the Bill. This Schedule consolidates modes of investing or depositing appearing in section 11(5), rule 17C, section 13(1)(d) and section 10(23C) of the Act. Further, the provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause. After considering the viewpoints of both the stakeholders and the Department, the Committee accept Clause 350 as proposed.

379.	351.6	351	The Committee note that Clause 351 of the Bill addresses specific violations by registered non-profit organizations. It simplifies and retains the original intent of sections 12AB(4), the Explanation to section 12AB(4), and section 12AB(5) of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. After reviewing stakeholders inputs and the Department's response, the Committee approve Clause 351 as proposed.
380.	352.6	352	The Committee note that Clause 352 of the Bill addresses the tax on "accreted income" of registered non-profit organizations, consolidating and simplifying the provisions of Sections 115TD, 115TE, and 115TF of the existing Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Bill retains the original intent while rationalizing provisions to clearly specify chargeability, due dates for payment, and applicability of collection/recovery proceedings for such income. After considering stakeholders' and Department's viewpoints, the Committee accept Clause 352 as proposed.
381.	353.6	353	The Committee note that Clause 353 of the Bill provides for other violations of a registered non-profit organizations, aligns with Section 13(10) and Section 13(11) of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. Stakeholders have suggested incorrect referencing in Clause (28) and a limited scope in Clause (30, leading to recommendations for modifications to refer to Clauses (26) and (27) and Clauses (1) to (29) respectively. The Ministry has accepted this, clarifying the correct clause in the Bill is 350 and not 353. Furthermore, the stakeholder suggested either deleting the 14-day period reference or adding "whichever is later" to remove the ambiguity created by multiple due dates. The Ministry has also accepted this for clarity, noting the correct clause in question is Section 352(5). The Committee, therefore, recommend implementing these amendments and approve Clause 353 subject to these changes.

382.	354.6	354	The Committee observe that Clause 354, which pertains to exemption for donations and largely retains the intent of Section 80G(5) of the existing Act with textual simplification, has a drafting error in sub-clause (1) where Schedule III is incorrectly referenced instead of Schedule VII, an error the Department has acknowledged. Therefore, the Committee approve the Clause 354 subject to the aforesaid drafting correction.
383.	355.6	355	The Committee acknowledge that Clause 355, which defines various terms within Chapter XVII-B, does not have corresponding section in the Income-Tax Act, 1961. This new clause serves to centralize and streamline definitions pertinent to registered non-profit organizations. After careful deliberation of both stakeholder and Departmental perspectives
384.	356.6	356	The Committee note that Clause 356 of the Bill seeks to provide for appeals to Joint Commissioner (Appeals) against certain orders, aligns with the provisions of Section 246 of the Act, 1961. The Committee also note that the textual simplification of Clause 356 is as per the objectives of the Bill and retaining the same intent of existing Section. The Committee, after consideration of views of stakeholders and the Department's responses, accept the Clause as proposed.
385.	357.6	357	The Committee note that Clause 357 of the Bill seeks to provide for appeals to Commissioner (Appeals) against certain orders, corresponding to Section 246A of the Act, 1961. The Clause has been textually simplified while retaining the intent. Some important suggestions on the Clause 357 have been received viz. option for physical CIT appeal rather than faceless appeal for faster disposal of appeal; facility for video hearings and a study for evaluating the faceless system of CIT (Appeal). The Ministry has noted these suggestions. The Committee also note that the Department of Revenue has accepted the suggestion to define the term "status" in Clause 357 as well in the line of Clause 356. The Committee find merit in the suggestion that term "status" should be defined in Clause 357 for appeal before CIT(A). Therefore, the Committee recommend to amend the Clause as accepted by the Department. Apart from the above drafting correction, the Committee accept the Clause as proposed.

386.	358.6	358	The Committee note that Clause 358 of the Bill prescribes form of appeal and limitation, aligns with Section 249 of the existing Act. The Department justifies this as textual simplification, not a policy change. However, the drafting error i.e. omission of the word "rupees" after the words "five hundred" in Clause 358(2)(b), as pointed out by the Committee, has been accepted by the Department of Revenue. They, therefore, recommend the Department to carry out the aforesaid drafting correction. Apart from the above drafting correction, the Committee accept the Clause as proposed.
387.	359.6	359	The Committee observe that Clause 468 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025, which outlines the procedure for appeals, largely mirrors Section 250 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, with no substantive policy changes introduced beyond textual simplification. After extensive and in-depth deliberations, the Committee have considered various perspectives and proposals from stakeholders and experts, alongside justifications and clarifications provided by the Department of Revenue regarding Clause 359 of the Bill. Accordingly, the Committee accept Clause 359 as originally proposed.
388.	360.6	360	The Committee note that Clause 360 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025, a textual simplification of Section 251 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, deal with the powers of Joint Commissioner (Appeals) or Commissioner (Appeals). They also note that, apart from textual simplification, no policy change has been introduced in this Clause. They, therefore, accept Clause 360 as proposed by the Department of Revenue.
389.	361.6	361	The Committee note that Clause 361, a textual simplification of Section 252 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, seeks to provide for constitution of Income-Tax Appellate Tribunal. After thorough deliberations, and having considered various suggestions from stakeholders and experts, as well as the rationales and clarifications submitted by the Department of Revenue, the Committee recommend accepting the Clause in its entirety without any changes.

390.	362.6	362	The Committee note that Clause 362 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 seeks to provide for appeals to the Income-Tax Appellate Tribunal, akin to Section 253 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. They further note that this Clause is only a textual simplification, consistent with the objectives of the Bill. Therefore, the Committee accept the Clause as proposed by the Department.
391.	363.6	363	The Committee note that Clause 363 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 seeks to provide for the orders passed by the Income-Tax Appellate Tribunal which corresponds to Section 254 of the extant Act. The Committee also note that, apart from textual simplification, no policy change has been introduced in this Clause. Having held comprehensive deliberations on this Clause, and taking into account all suggestions and comments received from stakeholders and experts, along with the Department of Revenue's justifications, the Committee accept Clause 363 as proposed by the Department.
392.	364.6	364	The Committee note that Clause 364 of the Income-Tax Bill 2025, mirroring Section 255 of the extant Income-Tax Act, 1961, defines the powers and functions of the Income-Tax Appellate Tribunal (ITAT). Currently, it allows the ITAT to dispose of cases where the Assessing Officer's computed total income does not exceed fifty lakh rupees. The Committee, note that there is no policy change in this regard and after considering the views of the stakeholders as well as the response of the Department, accept Clause 364 as originally proposed.
393.	365.6	365	The Committee observe that Clause 365 of the Bill, 2025 textually simplifies and retains the intent of Section 260A of the Act, 1961 regarding provision for appeals to the High Court. Noting that there is no policy change in this regard and having after considered the views of the stakeholders as well as the response of the Department, the Committee accept Clause 365 as proposed.

394.	366.6	366	The Committee note that Clause 366 of the Bill, a textual simplification of Section 260B of the existing Act, stipulates that appeals to the High Court to be heard by not less than two judges, with no change in underlying policy. The Committee have considered stakeholder suggestions for this clause but ultimately found them unfeasible, aligning with the Department's rationale. As a result, the Committee accept the Clause in its current format.
395.	367.6	367	The Committee observe that Clause 367 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 textually simplifies and retains the intent of Section 261 of the Act regarding appeals to Supreme Court. Noting that there is no policy change in this regard and having after considered the views of the stakeholders as well as the response of the Department, the Committee accept Clause 367 as proposed.
396.	368.5	368	The Committee observe that Clause 368 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 textually simplifies and retains the intent of Section 262 of the Act regarding hearing before the Supreme Court. They also note that no policy change has been effected by the Department; and only a textual simplification of the current Act. The Committee, therefore, accept Clause 368 as proposed.
397.	369.5	369	The Committee note that Clause 369 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 seeks to provide that tax to be paid irrespective of filing of appeal before High Court or Supreme Court, aligns with Section 265 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Department confirms this is a rephrasing, not a policy change. The Committee, therefore, accept Clause 369 as proposed.
398.	370.5	370	The Committee note that Clause 370 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025, which seeks to provide for execution for costs awarded by Supreme Court, is in consonance with objectives of the Bill, therefore, the Clause may be made part of the Bill, as proposed by the Department.

399.	371.5	371	The Committee note that Clause 371 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 provides for amendment of assessment on account of appeal in certain cases, akin to Section 267 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. They further note that this Clause is only a textual simplification, consistent with the objectives of the Bill. Therefore, the Committee accept the Clause as proposed by the Department.
400.	372.5	372	The Committee observe that Clause 372 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 seeks to provide for exclusion of time taken to obtain copy of the order by the assessee which corresponds to Section 268 of the current Act. The Committee further note that, apart from textual simplification, no policy change has been introduced in this Clause. The Committee, therefore, accept Clause 372 as proposed.
401.	373.6	373	The Committee note that Clause 373 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 seeks to provide for filing of appeals by Income-Tax authority and empowers the Central Board of Direct Taxes to issue instructions from time to time. This Clause is similar to the provisions of existing Section 268A of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with no policy change. After considering all viewpoints, the Committee accept Clause 373 as proposed by the Department.
402.	374.5	374	The Committee note that Clause 374 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 provides for the definition of "High Court" for the purpose of filing of appeal under Chapter XVIII of the Bill, akin to Section 269 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. They further note that this Clause is only a textual simplification, consistent with the objectives of the Bill. Therefore, the Committee accept the Clause as proposed by the Department.
403.	375.5	375	The Committee observe that Clause 375 of the Income-Tax Bill 2025, mirroring Section 158A of the current Act, provides for procedure when assessee claims identical question of law is pending before High Court or Supreme Court. The Committee further note that, apart from textual simplification, no policy change has been introduced in this Clause. The Committee, therefore, accept Clause 375 as proposed by the Department of Revenue.

404.	376.5	376	The Committee note that Clause 376 of the Income-Tax Bill 2025, akin to Section 158AB of the current Act, seeks to prescribe procedure when an identical question of law is pending before High Court or Supreme Court. The Committee concurs with the Department's justification for retaining this clause with the same intent, incorporating only textual simplification. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause in its current form.
405.	377.6	377	The Committee note that Clause 377 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025, which corresponds to Section 263 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, provides for revision of orders prejudicial to Revenue by Principal Commissioner or Commissioner. After considering all viewpoints; and given that this Clause is similar to the existing Section 263 with no policy change, the Committee recommend to accept the Clause as proposed by the Department in the proposed Act.
406.	378.6	378	The Committee observe that Clause 378 of the Bill, 2025 textually simplifies and maintains the intent of Section 264 of the current Act which allows for revision of orders not prejudicial to revenue. Currently the time limit for filing revision application is one year. While the current time limit for filing a revision application is one year, a stakeholder suggested extending this to two years for uniformity with Clause 377. The Department have, however, stated this constitutes a policy change beyond the Bill's scope. The Committee further note the inclusion of sub-clause (9) of Clause 378 in this Bill, which is absent in the current Act. The Department have clarified that this sub-section ensures a minimum of 60 days for passing an order after receiving a court order. After considered the views of the stakeholder as well as the response of the Department, the Committee accept Clause 378 as proposed.
407.	379.6	379	The Committee notes that Clause 379 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025, textually simplifies Section 245MA of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, provides for constitution of Dispute Resolution Committee (DRC) to resolve disputes in certain cases, with no policy change. The Committee, after considering the views of the stakeholder as well as the response of the Department, accept Clause 379 as originally proposed.

408.	380.5	380	Clause 380 of the Income-Tax Bill 2025, which seeks to define certain expressions used in the context of Advance Rulings, corresponding to Section 245N of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee find that this Clause has been reformulated by paraphrasing the existing provisions to enhance clarity and comprehension. Furthermore, having been assured that no policy change has been incorporated in this Clause, the Committee approve Clause 380 as it is.
409.	381.6	381	Clause 381 provides for constitution of Board for Advance Rulings. The Committee note that this Clause is simplified textual version of existing Section 245-OB maintaining Government original policy. After considering the viewpoints of both the stakeholders and the Department, the Committee accept Clause 381 as proposed.
410.	382.5	382	The Committee note that Clause 382 of the Bill dealing with proceeding in case of vacancies in the Board for Advance Rulings, aligns with existing Section 245P but features simplified textual construction. Expressing their concurrence with the justification given by the Department of Revenue in this regard, the Committee accept Clause 382 as it is.
411.	383.6	383	The Committee observe that Clause 383, textually simplifies Section 245Q of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, outlining procedures for filing of application before the Board for Advance Rulings. The Committee also note that while Rule 44E(4) currently prescribes fees, a suggestion to remove the archaic term 'quadruplicate' from sub-clause 2 of Clause 383 (already removed from Rule 44E with effect from 5 May, 2022) has been accepted by the Department. Furthermore, the Committee have identified an ambiguity between sub-clause (2) of Clause 383,

Sl. No	Para No	Clause No.	Observation/Recommendation
			which stated 'a fee of ten thousand rupees or such fee, as prescribed,' and the corresponding Section 245Q(2) of the Act, which specified 'ten thousand rupees or such fee as may be prescribed... whichever is higher.' Upon the Committee's insistence to clarify this ambiguity, which posed risks of revenue loss and misinterpretation, the Department has agreed to remove the phrase 'ten thousand' from Clause 383(2), ensuring fees are prescribed by Rule only. Accordingly, the Committee recommend to carry out the drafting correction and amend the sub-clause (2) of Clause 383 as under:- "(2) The application shall be made accompanied by such fee, as prescribed". Apart from the above drafting correction, the Committee accept Clause 383 as proposed by the Department.
412.	384.6	384	The Committee note that Clause 384 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025, mapped to Section 245R of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, seeks to provide for procedure to process the application made for advance rulings. The Committee approve Clause 384 as proposed, noting its simplified approach to existing provisions.
413.	385.6	385	The Committee note that Clause 385 of the Bill, which seeks to provide that certain authorities not to proceed to decide in certain cases where application for advance ruling has been made, aims to simplify the existing provisions of Section 245RR. The Committee concur with the Department's justification for this simplification and, therefore, accept Clause 385 as proposed.
414.	386.5	386	Noting that Clause 386 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025, which governs when an advance ruling becomes void, is a textual simplification of Section 245T of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, retaining its original intent. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause in its present form.
415.	387.5	387	The Committee note that Clause 387, which defines the powers of the Board for Advance Rulings, aligns with the existing Section 245U and involves no policy shift. The Committee, therefore, accept Clause 387 as proposed by the Department of Revenue.

416.	388.5	388	The Committee note that Clause 388 of the Income-Tax Bill 2025 empowers the Board for Advance Rulings to regulate its own procedure, corresponds to Section 245V of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, and introduces no policy change beyond textual simplification. The Committee, therefore, approve Clause 388 as it is.
417.	389.6	389	The Committee note that Clause 389 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025, a simplified textual version of existing Section 245W, provides for appeals to the High Court against rulings by the Board for Advance Rulings, maintaining the Government's original policy. After considering the viewpoints of both stakeholder and the Department, the Committee accept Clause 389 as proposed.
418.	390.6.1	390(2)	The Committee note that Clause 390 of the Bill pertains to the deduction or collection of tax at source and advance payment. A stakeholder has suggested rephrasing sub-clause (2) of Clause 390, as its current wording in sub-sections (1) and (2) could create ambiguity when income paid spans multiple years. The concern is that the provision might be interpreted as limiting tax deductions or payments to a single tax year, despite income often covering several tax periods. The Department has agreed to redraft the clause and align with the existing provisions of the Act. Therefore, the Committee desire that the Clause 390(2) be rephrased to make the language lucid and unambiguous, clarifying that tax provisions apply to multi-year income and can be assessed in the corresponding tax years.
419.	390.6.2	390(4)	390.6.2 The Committee note a stakeholder's suggestion to replace "collection" with "recovery" in Clause 390(4) of the Bill. The rationale is that "recovery" more accurately conveys the mandatory nature of tax payments, encompassing both voluntary and involuntary payments due post-assessment. The Department of Revenue has acknowledged this as a drafting issue. Given that "recovery" is already used in Section 226 of the

			Income-tax Act, 1961, and Clause 416 of the Income-tax Bill, 2025, the Committee recommend the Department to implement this change to ensure uniformity in language and to emphasize the mandatory aspect of tax payments. Apart from the above mentioned drafting corrections, the Committee accept Clause 390 as proposed by the Department.
420.	391.6	391	The Committee note that Clause 391 of the Bill provides for direct tax payment by assessees when no deduction provision exists or tax hasn't been deducted under Chapter XIX, mirroring Section 191 of the current Act with simplified, yet retained, intent. A stakeholder suggested incorporating a provision in this Clause to offer relief to persons responsible for tax deduction when the assessee has already directly paid the un-deducted tax. However, the Department clarified that Clause 398(2) of the Bill already addresses this situation. Satisfied with the Department's contention, the Committee proposeno change to Clause 391(3). The Committee, therefore, approve Clause 391 as proposed.
421.	392.6.1	392	The Committee, having examined Clause 392 of the Bill (corresponding to Sections 192 and 192A of the Act concerning TDS on salary and accumulated provident fund balances), and considering stakeholder input on sub-clause 7(a), has identified a critical omission. While simplifying the text, the Department has inadvertently excluded a crucial 'Non obstante' clause. The Committee believe this oversight could lead to unnecessary speculation and ambiguity regarding the applicable TDS rate on accumulated balances from a recognized Provident Fund. Noting the Department's acceptance of this suggestion, the Committee recommend the Department to insert appropriate wording into the Clause 392(7)(a) to eliminate any such ambiguity.
422.	392.6.2	392	The Committee note numerous stakeholder suggestions highlighting the Department's omission of the crucial Section 192(6) of the existing Act from the current Clause of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025, which creates ambiguity regarding the valuation of salary paid in foreign currency. Section 192(6) of the Act clarifies that for residents receiving salary in foreign currency, the taxable amount for TDS is determined by converting the currency at prescribed rates. The Committee believe this lack of clarity on conversion rates will cause unnecessary confusion and ambiguity, potentially leading to litigation. Therefore, the Committee recommend incorporating this vital provision into the Clause of the Bill to explicitly define applicable forex conversion rates for salary income. Apart from the above mentioned amendment, the Committee accept Clause392 as proposed by the Department.

423.	393.6	393	The Committee note that numerous suggestions have been received from various stakeholders concerning Clause 393 of the Bill, which provides for tax deduction at source on various payments. All sections in the Income-Tax Act, 1961 specifying various sums liable to TDS have been merged into a single section in the Bill providing 3 tables based on three broad categories of Payees: (i) Residents, (ii) Non-residents, and (iii) any person. The Committee observe that the clause primarily exhibits certain inconsistencies attributable to drafting oversights. After detailed, in-depth deliberation, and having considered both the views of stakeholders and the response of the Department, the Committee recommends the following revisions:- (i) Duplication Rectification (Clause 393(1)(4)(ii)): The Committee note that "Serial Number 4 of Schedule V in the Table under the Head 'Income from Capital Market' has been referred to twice. As agreed to by the Department, this duplication may be rectified. (ii) Threshold Limit Clarification (Clause 393(1)(6)(iii)): The Committee note that stakeholders suggested providing an independent threshold of ₹50,000 for five different sums referred to in Clause 393(1) Table Sl. No. 6(iii). While the threshold limits have been changed by Finance Act, 2025, there is a drafting error as limits have not been provided for 3 out of 5 sums. Since the threshold limits,as accepted by the Department,are to be aligned with the existing provisions of the Act, the Committee recommend to amend the clause suitably. (ii) Tax Deduction Basis Correction (Clause 393(1) & 393(1)(8)(ii)): The Committee note that a stakeholder pointed out a contradiction: Clause 393(1) requires deduction of tax at source on the entire amount of such income or sum where it exceeds the specified threshold, while Clause 393(1)(8)(ii) specifies the rate of tax to be applied only on such sum exceeding ₹50 lakhs. The Department has acknowledged this as an inadvertent drafting error which requires redrafting to provide that TDS shall be deducted only on the sum exceeding ₹50 lakhs. Accordingly, the Committee recommend that the same may be redrafted. (iii) "Benefit or Perquisite" Definition (Clause 393(1)(8)(iv)): The Committee note that stakeholders pointed out the ambiguity in Note 2 appended to Serial No. 8(iv) in the Table, with respect to the nature of the "benefit or perquisite" mentioned therein, as it does not explicitly clarify whether such benefits include monetary payments effected through non-cash modes like cheque, demand draft, or bank transfer. The Department has concurred with the view of the stakeholder and agreed to make drafting corrections appropriately. The Committee approve the same. (iv) Missing Notes Incorporation: The Committee observe that all sections in the Act specifying various sums liable to TDS have been merged into a single section providing 3 tables based on three broad categories of Payees. There are Notes supplied in the table itself which provide explanations specific to a clause. However, the Committee note that the following notes, as pointed out by the stakeholders, are missing, which creates ambiguity: (a) Non-Resident Deduction Rate (Clause 393(2)): Note 2 as mentioned in Serial No. 10 and 15 in Column E of the Table under Clause 393(2), which specifies the rate of deduction of income tax when such income is credited to a non-resident. (b) Winnings in Kind (Clause 393): Note 3 in Column D of the Table in Clause 393 related to tax deduction when the winnings are in kind. In this regard, the Department has admitted that "Three Notes below the table in Clause 393(2) and Clause 393(3) respectively have inadvertently

Sl. No	Para No	Clause No.	Observation/Recommendation
			been missed." The Committee, therefore, recommend rectifying this anomaly by incorporating Notes suitably in Clause 393(2) and Clause 393(3) respectively as proposed. (v) Inclusion of "Circular" (Clause 536(2)(j)): Responding to the suggestion that circulars/notifications providing exemption from TDS need to be incorporated in the table in Clause 393(4) of the Bill, the Department has clarified that notifications/instructions etc. have already been covered in Clause 536(2)(j) of the Bill, and the word "circular" will be considered for inclusion. As agreed to by the Department, the Committee recommend including the word "circular" in Clause 536(2)(j). (vi) Zero Tax Liability for Senior Citizens (Income-Tax Bill, 2025): It has been brought to the notice of the Committee that provisions similar to Section 197A(1C) of the current Act for zero tax liability benefit to senior citizens are missing in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025. The Department has admitted to the inadvertent drafting error (Clause 393(6)). The Committee, therefore, recommend the Department to rectify this drafting error. (vii) Redundant Senior Citizen Reference (Clause 393(6)): Clause 393(6) deals with entitlement for no deduction at source for such persons. A stakeholder has suggested removing the reference to senior citizens in Sl. No. 2(a) of the table below Clause 393 as senior citizens are already covered in Sl. No. 2(b) of the table. The Department has admitted to the inadvertent drafting error. Accordingly, the Committee recommend carrying out this drafting correction. (viii) Typographical error: For Clause 393(3) in Column D at Serial No. 3 the word 'lilmit' may be replaced with 'limit'. (ix) The reference of the repealed Act viz. Income-Tax Act, 1961 may be removed from the Table at sl.no.7(c)(i) in sub-clause (3) of Clause 393 and incorporated in Clause 536 which provides for Repeals and Savings. Apart from the above drafting corrections, the Committee accept Clause 393 as proposed by the Department.

Sl. No	Para No	Clause No.	Observation/Recommendation
424.	394.6	394	The Committee note that Clause 394(1) of the Bill corresponds to Section 206C(1G) of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, which mandates Tax Collection at Source (TCS) on remittances for educational purposes where the funds are sourced from loans obtained from specified financial institutions. However, a stakeholder has identified a significant oversight: the Bill fails to incorporate the exemption from TCS on educational remittances that was introduced by the Finance Act, 2025. The Committee is cognizant that, under the Liberalized Remittance Scheme, educational loans procured from specified financial institutions (as defined in Clause 129(3)(b) of the Income-Tax Bill) are exempt from TCS. Furthermore, as per the substitution made by the Finance Act, 2025, Section 206C(1G) of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, effective from April 1, 2025, explicitly states that an authorized dealer is not required to collect tax if the remitted amount is a loan obtained from a financial institution for educational pursuits.The Department has acknowledged this omission, confirming the necessity of this amendment in the Income-Tax Bill, 2025. Consequently, the Committee strongly recommend that the Departmentincorporate this crucial provision into the Bill. Apart from this essential addition, there is a typographical error in Clause 394(1)(c) where in the phrase “cheque of a draft” the word ‘of’ may be replaced with ‘or’ . Besides the above changes, the Committee accept the Clause 394 as proposed.
425.	395.6	395	The Committee note that Clause 395 of the Bill, which simplifies and merges several Sections (195(2), 197, 197A, 203, 206C (9), 206C (10)) of the current Income Act, 1961 concerning certificates for lower tax deduction or collection. The intent remains the same.A key change in this simplification is the removal of the term "Nil deduction," previously found in Section 197 of the Act. The Department's rationale is that "Nil" is already encompassed within "lower deduction." The Committee however feel that the Department's clarification that "lower certificate" includes "Nil" creates ambiguity and could lead to administrative difficulties for taxpayers. While the

			Department has agreed to issue administrative instructions to clarify this, the Committee believe that simply adding the word "NIL" back into Clause 395 would more effectively resolve this confusion. After considering stakeholder input, departmental views, and extensive deliberation the Committee therefore recommendreinstatement of term "NIL" in the Clause. Apart from this, the Committee accept Clause 395 as proposed
426.	396.6	396	The Committee note that Clause 396 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025, mapped to Section 198A of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, seeks to provide the certain sums which shall be deemed as income received for the purposes of computing the income of the assessee. The Committee approve Clause 396 as proposed, noting its simplified approach to existing provisions.
427.	397.6.1	397	The Committee note that Clause 397 of the Bill, which consolidates and simplifies the compliance and reporting requirements for Tax Deducted at Source (TDS) and Tax Collected at Source (TCS), is a merger of provisions from existing Sections 200, 203A, 206AA, and 206CC of the current Act, streamlining them into a single, independent clause. Notably, the separate Tax Deduction Account Number (TAN) and Tax Collection Account Number (TCSAN) have been merged into a single "tax deduction and collection account number." The Committee also notethat the intent of the original provisions has been retained despite the textual simplification.Stakeholders, however, have raised concerns about certain discrepancies within this Clause. After considering these views and the Department's responses, the Committee recommend the following: i. Clarity on TAN Quoting: The current drafting of Clause 397(1) (b)requires quoting the Tax Deduction and Collection Account Number (TAN) on all challans, statements, and certificates without explicitly linking it to relevant TDS and TCS provisions. The Department has acknowledged this as an inadvertent drafting error and has agreed to re- draft these provisions to align them with the current Act. The Committee concur with the Department's commitment to rectify this. ii. Correction of Table Reference: In Clause 397(1)(c)(i), there's an incorrect reference to Sl. No. 5(ii) in the Table, which should be 6(ii). This corresponds to Section 194M of the Income-tax Act, 1961. The Department has admitted this drafting error, and the Committee expect the necessary correction to be made. iii. Inclusion of "for such period" in Statements: Clause 397(3)(b) currently omits the phrase "for such period" when referring to the filing of TDS/TCS statements, a phrase present in Section 200(3) of the current Act. The Department has acknowledged this inadvertent drafting error and agreed to add "for such period" into Clause 397(3(b). The Committeerecommend this proposed correction. Besides these drafting corrections, the Committee approve Clause 397 as proposed.

Sl. No	Para No	Clause No.	Observation/Recommendation
428.	398.6	398	The Committee note that Clause 398 provides relaxation from being considered an assessee in default if the recipient of income or the buyer has taken into account that transaction in their income return; this provision, previously in Sections 201 and 206C(6A) of the existing Act, has been merged into 398(2)(b)(ii). The Committee further note two drafting errors in Clause 398. Firstly, while Clause 398(2)(b)(ii) aims to prevent an assessee from being in default, the Committee agree with stakeholders that the subsection needs to clearly specify the "amount" to be taken into account for this exemption. The Department of Revenue has acknowledged this as an inadvertent drafting error, and the Committee, therefore, recommend redrafting this clause to remove any ambiguity. Secondly, the Committee note that Clause 398(5)(b) incorrectly refers to "Section 393(3)(f)" for filing correction statements; this should be corrected to "397(3)(f)." The Committee, therefore, recommend that the reference in Clause 398(5)(b) be replaced accordingly.

Sl. No	Para No	Clause No.	Observation/Recommendation
			Apart from these drafting corrections, the Committee approve Clause 398 as proposed.
429.	399.5	399	The Committee note that Clause 399 seeks to provide for processing of statements of tax deduction at source and tax collection at source filed, akin to Section 200A and 206CB of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. They further note that this Clause is only a textual simplification, consistent with the objectives of the Bill. Therefore, the Committee accept the Clause as proposed by the Department.
430.	400.5	400	The Committee observe that Clause 400 of the Bill grants the Central Government the authority to ease Tax Deduction at Source (TDS) and Tax Collection at Source (TCS)regulations. This clause aligns with several current provisions in the existing Act. Specifically, the provisions allowing for the exemption of certain persons or classes of persons from TDS/TCS, previously detailed in sections 195(7), 197(2A), 197A(1F), 206C(11), and 206C(12) of the Act, have been unified into this new Clause 400. As a result of this merger of TDS and TCS provisions within this single clause, the Committee approve Clause 400 as proposed by the Department of Revenue.
431.	401.6	401	The Committee note that Clause 401 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 aims to simplify the text while preserving the original intent of Section 205 of the Income Act, 1961, which bars the demand on an assessee to the extent tax has been deducted. After considered the views of the stakeholders as well as the response of the Department, the Committee accept Clause 401 as proposed.
432.	402.6	402	The Committee note that Clause 402 of the Bill aims to consolidate and simplify definitions for expressions used in the chapter on collection and recovery of tax, improving readability while retaining the original intent of existing provisions. However, based on feedback from stakeholders and experts, the Committee recommend following to improve clarity:-

Sl. No	Para No	Clause No.	Observation/Recommendation
			(i) The Committee note that the definition of "an incorrect claim apparent from any information in the statement" in Clause 402(3) is incomplete due to the omission of TCS statements, an acknowledged drafting error by the Department. The Committee, therefore, recommend that this definition be suitably amended to include TCS-related provisions, aligning with Section 206CB of the Income-tax Act, 1961. (ii) The Committee also note a stakeholder's concern regarding the clarity of the "unladen weight" definition in Clause 58(10)(d) and the suggestion to restrict its application to road rollers and tractors. The Department has accepted this concern; and agreed to add the words "as the case may be" to provide better clarity and to align it with the existing provisions of the Act. The Committee concur with the Department's submission. (iii) The Committee further note the inadvertent insertion of the definition of "authorized person" in Clause 402(27)(g)(iii), which appears to be a typographical error. As agreed by the Department, the Committee recommend omitting this definition from Clause 402(27)(g)(iii). (iv) The phrasing of Clause 402(27)(b), which defines "person responsible for paying" for "Interest on securities" (excluding government payments), is incorrect and unclear, likely causing confusion. A stakeholder provided a re-drafted versionas: "in the case of payments of income chargeable under the head "Interest on securities", other than payments made by or on behalf of the Central Government or State Government- (i) local authority (ii) corporation or (iii) company, including the principal officer thereof", which the Department has agreed to adopt. Accordingly, the Committee recommend that Clause 402(27)(b) be rephrased. (v)Typographical error: For Clause 402(2)(a) the word 'situate' may be replaced with 'situated.' Besides these recommended drafting

433.	403.6	403	The Committee observe that Clause 403 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 textually simplifies and retains the intent of Section 207 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 regarding liability for payment of advance tax. Noting that there is no policy change in this regard and having after considered the views of the stakeholders as well as the response of the Department, the Committee accept Clause 403 as proposed
434.	404.5	404	The Committee observe that Clause 404 of the Bill provides for conditions of liability to pay advance tax which corresponds to Section 208 of the extant Act. They note that, apart from textual simplification, no policy change has been introduced in this Clause. They, therefore, accept Clause 404 as proposed by the Department of Revenue.
435.	405.5	405	The Committee note that Clause 405 of the Bill provides for computation of advance tax, akin to 209 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with no policy change. They, therefore, approve Clause 405 as proposed by the Department of Revenue.
436.	406.5	406	The Committee observe that Clause 406 deals with payment of advance tax by assessee on his own accord which corresponds to Section 210 of the extant Act. They note that, apart from textual simplification, no policy change has been introduced in this Clause. They, therefore, accept Clause 406 as proposed by the Department of Revenue.
437.	407.6	407	The Committee observe that Clause 407 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 textually simplifies and retains the intent of Section 210 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, with no policy change, regarding payment of advance tax by assessee in pursuance of order of Assessing Officer. Further, the Committee notice that the Department of Revenue has accepted the drafting error concerning replacement of "and" with "or" in the sub-clause (9) in Clause 407. The Committee, therefore, recommend that this drafting correction be made in the Clause.

438.	408.5	408	The Committee note that Clause 408, which outlines the installments of advance tax and due dates, aligns with Section 211 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee concurs with the Department's justification for retaining this clause with the same intent, incorporating only textual simplification. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause in its current form.
439.	409.6	409	Clause 409 prescribes condition when assessee is deemed to be in default, aligns with Section 218 of the existing Act. From the justification submitted by the Department of Revenue, the Committee observe that no policy change has been proposed in this Clause. Only textual simplification has been carried out while retaining the intent. However, the Committee find an error in the margin title of Clause 409, which incorrectly states "when assessee is considered to be in default" instead of "When assessee is deemed to be in default." The Department has acknowledged and accepted this drafting error. Therefore, the Committee recommend that this specific drafting correction be made in Clause 409. Apart from this drafting correction, the Committee approve the Clause 409 as proposed.
440.	410.6	410	The Committee observe that Clause 410 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 textually simplifies and retains the intent of Section 219 of the Act regarding credit for advance tax. Noting that there is no policy change in this regard and having after considered the views of the stakeholders as well as the response of the Department, the Committee accept Clause 410 as proposed.
441.	411.6	411	The Committee has examined Clause 411 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025, which addresses the credit for advance tax. They observe that this clause textually simplifies Section 219 of the existing Act while maintaining its original intent. No policy change is introduced in this provision. The reference of the repealed Act viz. Income-Tax Act, 1961 may be removed from sub-clause (6) of Clause 411 and incorporated in Clause 536 which provides for Repeals and Savings. After having considered feedback from stakeholders and the Department's response, the Committee concur with the views of the Department and accept Clause 411 subject to the above drafting corrections.

442.	412.5	412	The Committee note that clause 412 corresponding to tion 221 of the Income-Tax Act,1961,seeks to provide penalty payable when tax in default. Recognizing ual simplification, no policy change and retaining inal intent in the Clause, the Committee accept the ıse as proposed by the Department of Revenue.
443.	413.5	413	The Committee note that Clause 413 of the Income-Tax Bill 2025, mirroring Section 222 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, deals with provisions for certificate by Tax Recovery Officer and Validity thereof. The Committee further note that, beyond textual simplification, no policy change has been introduced in the provisions of this Clause. They, therefore, approve Clause 413 as proposed by the Department.
444.	414.5	414	The Committee note that Clause 414 of the Bill dealing with provisions for the Tax Recovery Officer by whom recovery is to be effected, aims to simplify the existing provisions of Section 223 of the current Act with no policy change. In place of words "by the Principal Chief Commissioner or Chief Commissioner or Principal Commissioner or Commissioner", the words "by an income-tax authority not below the rank of Commissioner" have been substitutedfor simplification. The Committee, therefore, accept Clause 414 as proposed as it meets its objectives.
445.	415.5	415	The Committee note that Clause 415 provides for stay of proceedings in pursuance of certificate and amendment or cancellation thereof, aligns with the existing Section 225 and involves no policy shift. They, therefore, accept Clause 415 as proposed by the Department of Revenue.

Sl. No	Para No	Clause No.	Observation/Recommendation
446.	416.6	416	The Committee observe that Clause 416 provides for other modes of recovery. aligning with Section 226 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Clause has been only textually simplified, retaining its original intent. However, the Committee note that inadvertent omission of "clause (g)" in sub-clause 416(5)(h) has been accepted by the Department of Revenue. The Committee, therefore, recommend the Department to amend Clause 416 accordingly.
447.	417.5	417	The Committee observe that Clause 417, which deals with recovery through State Governments, corresponding to Section 227 of the existing Act, and incorporates no policy changes. Given this, the Committee recommend that the Clause be retained as proposed.
448.	418.5	418	The Committee note that Clause 418 provides for recovery of tax in pursuance of agreements with foreign countries.They observe that the Department's submission indicates no policy change has been occurred; rather the provisions have been merely simplified textually from the existing Section 228A. The Committee, therefore, recommend that the Clause may be made part of the Bill, as proposed by the Department.
449.	419.6	419	The Committee note that Clause 419 of the Bill, which addresses the recovery of penalties, fines, interest, and other sums, corresponds to Section 229 of the existing Act. The Committee also note that there is no policy change proposed, and the existing provisions have been textually simplified while retaining their original intent. Regarding the suggestion from expert/stakeholder to specifically include the word "fee" in Clause 419, the Committee are given to understand that the phrase "Any sum imposed by way of interest, fine, penalty, or any other sum" is consistent throughout the Bill and represents a settled position of law with no documented litigation concerning the non-inclusion of "fee." The Department has further stated that "any other sum" is broad enough to cover any unmentioned sums, given the dynamic nature of the economy. However, the Department is also committed to examine the suggestion further in consultation with the Ministry of Law and Justice. Given the Department's assurance that "any other sum" adequately covers "fee" and their commitment to further examination with the Department of Law, the Committee, for now, accept Clause 419 as proposed.

450.	420.5	420	The Committee note that Clause 420 of the Bill vides for tax clearance certificate, corresponding to tion 230 of the existing Act. They also note that no cy change has been effected by the Department; and a textual simplification of the current Act. The mittee, therefore, accept Clause 420 as proposed.
451.	421.5	421	Clause 421 of the Income-Tax Bill 2025, corresponding to Section 232 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, seeks to provide that recovery by suit or under other law will not be affected notwithstanding tax due being recovered under any mode prescribed in the proposed legislation. The Committee further note that, beyond textual simplification, no policy change has been introduced in the provisions of this Clause. They, therefore, approve Clause 421 as proposed by the Department
452.	422.5	422	Noting that Clause 422 of the Bill, which seeks to provide for recovery of tax arrears from a non-resident from his assets, is a textual simplification of Section 173 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with the same intent, the Committee accept the Clause in its present form.
453.	423.5	423	The Committee note that Clause 423 of the Bill, prescribing interest for defaults in furnishing return of income, aligns with existing Section 234A of the Income-Tax Act, 1961; but features simplified linguistic construction. Expressing their concurrence with the justification given by the Department of Revenue in this regard, the Committee accept Clause 423 as it is.

454.	424.5	424	The Committee note that Clause 424 of the Bill, scribing interest for defaults in payment of advance aims to simplify the existing provisions of Section 3 of the Act by providing formula to calculate the rest for defaults in payment of advance tax for better prehension. The Committee concur with the artment's justification for this simplification and, efore, accept Clause 424 as proposed.
455.	425.5	425	The Committee note that Clause 425 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025, mapped to Section 234C of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, prescribes interest for deferment of advance tax. The Committee approve Clause 425 as proposed, noting its simplified approach to existing provisions.
456.	426.5	426	The Committee observe that Clause 426 of the Bill prescribes interest on excess refund which corresponds to Section 234D of the extant Act. They note that, apart from textual simplification, no policy change has been introduced in this Clause. They, therefore, accept Clause 426 as proposed by the Department of Revenue.
457.	427.6	427	The Committee observe that Clause 427 of the Bill, which provides for fees for default in furnishing statements and corresponds to Section 234E of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, requires a drafting correction. A stakeholder highlighted that Clause 427(1) omits a necessary reference to Section 394(1)(c), which deals with tax collection, despite Clause 427(2)(a) using the term "collectible." The Department has accepted this as a valid correction, agreeing to add the reference to Section 394(1)(c) in Clause 427(1), and the Committee therefore recommend to carry out the drafting correction. Apart from this, they accept the Clause

			427 as proposed.
458.	428.5	428	The Committee note that Clause 428 of the Bill pertains to refunds, aligns with the provisions of Section 234F of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee also note that the textual simplification of clause 428 is as per the objectives of the Bill and retaining the same intent. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause as proposed.
459.	429.5	429	The Committee note that Clause 429 is in consonance objectives of the Bill, therefore, the Clause may be le part of the Bill, as proposed by the Department.
460.	430.6	430	Clause 430 of the Bill deals with fee for default relating to intimation of Aadhaar number. The Committee note that this Clause is simplified textual version of existing Section 234H of the extant Act and retaining the same intent. After considering the viewpoints of both the stakeholders and the Department, the Committee accept Clause 430 as proposed.
461.	431.4	431	The Committee note that Clause 431 pertains to refunds and aligns with the provisions of Section 237 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee also note that the textual simplification of Clause 431 is as per the objectives of the Bill and retains the same intent. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause as proposed.
462.	432.6	432	The Committee note that Clause 432 textually simplifies and retains the same intent of Section 238 of the extant Act. However, few typographical errors in Clause 432 (1) which has been accepted by the Department of Revenue, necessitates an amendment. Therefore, the Committee recommend to amend the Clause accordingly. The amended Clause may be read as under: 432(1) Where the income of one person is included in total income of any other person under any provision of this Act, the latter shall be eligible for a refund under this Chapter in respect of such income.

463.	433.6	433	The Committee note that the suggestion to allow refunds in case of late/revised income tax returns filed due to exceptional/emergency circumstances such as medical emergency, natural calamity, death in the family, etc. has been accepted by the Department. Accordingly, the Committee recommend to carry out suitable modification in Clause 263 to enable refunds in case of filing belated or revised returns. The Committee further note that Clause 433 of the Bill corresponds to Section 239 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 dealing with form of claim for refund and limitation. They find that in Clause 433 'part' has been mentioned inadvertently while the intended word is 'Chapter'. They also find that this drafting error has been accepted by the Department in case of drafting of Clause 436 as well. The Committee, therefore, recommend that the same drafting correction may also be carried out in Clause 433.
464.	434.6	434	The Committee note that Clause 434 of the Income-Tax Bill 2025, which deals with refund for denying liability to deduct tax, corresponds to Section 239A of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. While Clause 434 primarily addresses for refunds where no tax liability exists, there is no clarity regarding refund of deduction made at a rate higher than required. The ambiguity, in this regard, has been not only admitted by the Department of Revenue during their oral evidence before the Committee; but they also agreed to examine Clause 434 if the wording is causing any problem in this regard. The Committee, therefore, recommend the Department to look into the Clause and amend/rephrase the same to bring clarity even at the cost of few more words, if required, to make the proposed legislation clear and reduce potential disputes.
465.	435.4	435	The Committee note that Clause 435 is in consonance with objectives of the Bill and therefore, recommend that the Clause may be made part of the Bill, as proposed by the Department.

Sl. No	Para No	Clause No.	Observation/Recommendation
466.	436.6	436	The Committee note that the provisions of Clause 436 corresponding to Clause 242 of the extant Act have been only textually simplified while retaining its intent. The Committee, however, find that there is a drafting error in the provisions of Clause 436 as it mentions 'Part' instead of 'Chapter', which has been accepted by the Department of Revenue. Therefore, the Committee recommend to amend the Clause as under: 436. "In a claim under this Chapter, it shall not be open to the assessee to question the correctness of any assessment, or other matter decided which has become final and conclusive, or ask for a review of the aforesaid assessment or matter; and the assessee shall not be entitled to any relief on such claim except refund of tax wrongly paid or paid in excess."
467.	437.6	437	The Committee note that Clause 437, relating to interest on refunds, corresponds to Section 244A of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. They find that besides simplification of the language and prescription of interest on refund in a tabular format, no policy change has been effected. They acknowledge the demand for interest rate parity for both dues and refunds. However, after considering the Department's contention that (i) more interest burden on dues and (ii) interest on refunds being more than commercial rate of interest on short-term deposits and comparable with long-term return of fixed deposits; are required for tax payment discipline, the Committee are of the view that status quo may be maintained. Nevertheless, they recommend the Department to incorporate the accepted drafting corrections for Clause 437, as pointed out in various suggestions.
468.	438.4	438	The Committee note that Clause 438 relating to 'Set off and withholding of refunds in certain cases' is a textual simplification of Section 245 of the existing Act. The Ministry of Finance (Department of Revenue) have confirmed no policy change during its drafting.

Sl. No	Para No	Clause No.	Observation/Recommendation
			As the proposed Clause is in consonance with the objectives of the Bill, the Committee are of the view that it may be made part of the Bill, as proposed by the Department.
469.	439.6	439	The Committee note that proposed definitions of under-reporting and misreporting of income along with other respective penalties under Clause 439 are consistent with the extant Income-Tax Act, 1961. They, however, note that a reasonable opportunity of being heard has been provided separately in Clause 471 governing procedure for penalty, not within each penalty Clause. After taking into consideration the views and suggestions of various stakeholders and the Department's justification of no major policy change, the Committee find that provisions of Clause 439 aligns with the objectives of the Bill. However, in view of the Department's admission of a drafting error in the use of the word 'considered' in sub-clause (11) (f) of Clause 439, the Committee recommend to amend the proposed Clause accordingly.
470.	440.6	440	The Committee observe that Clause 440 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 textually simplifies and retains the intent of Section 270AA of the Act regarding immunity from penalty. Noting that there is no policy change in this regard and having considered the views of the stakeholders as well as the response of the Department, the Committee accept Clause 440 as proposed.
471.	441.6	441	The Committee note that Clause 441 prescribes a penalty of Rupees Twenty-five thousandfor failure to keep, maintain or retain books of accounts, documents, etc. corresponding to Section 271A of the Act. In this regard, they note that the Department of Revenue have accepted the suggestion to substitute the word 'shall' with 'may' in the Clause on the lines of existing Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee find merit in the suggestion that replacement of the word 'shall' with 'may' will address the cases of non-compliance of the provisions due to genuine reasons/reasonable cause. Therefore, the Committee recommend to amend the Clause as under:

Sl. No	Para No	Clause No.	Observation/Recommendation
			441. A penalty of twenty-five thousand rupees may be imposed on a person by the Assessing Officer or the Joint Commissioner (Appeals) or the Commissioner (Appeals), if he fails to— (a) keep and maintain the books of account and other documents as per section 62 or the relevant rules, in respect of any tax year; or (b) retain such books of account and other documents for the period specified in the said rules.
472.	442.6	442	The Committee observe that Clause 442, corresponding to Section 271AA of the existing Act, prescribes a penalty of 2% of the value of each international transaction or specified domestic transaction for failure to keep and maintain information and documents in certain cases. Noting no policy change regarding the prescribed penalty or amount,the Committee recommend to retain the Clause as proposed.
473.	443.6	443	Clause 443 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 relates to penalty in respect of certain income, which has been prescribed as 10% of the tax payable under section 195(1)(i). The Committee note that Clause 443 corresponds to section 271AAC of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 and no policy change has been made in the said Clause. However, they note that the Department of Revenue have accepted the omission of sub-clause 5 of Clause 443 as it is redundant given the applicability of Clauses 471 and 472 to Chapter XXI. Therefore, the Committee recommend the Department to amend Clause 443 for brevity and simplicity.
474.	444.6	444	The Committee observe that Clause 444 empowers Assessing Officer or the Joint Commissioner (Appeals) or the Commissioner (Appeals) to impose penalty equal to the aggregate amount of false or omitted entry in books of account, aligning with Section 271AAD of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Clause has been only textually simplified, retaining its original intent. However, the Committee note that inadvertent omission of sub section (1) in

Sl. No	Para No	Clause No.	Observation/Recommendation
			Clause 444 has been accepted by the Department of Revenue. The Committee, therefore, recommend the Department to amend Clause 444 accordingly.
475.	445.6	445	The Committee observe that penalty for filing of specified income by a registered non-profit organization, which is chargeable to tax as per Section 337, for the benefit of related persons, has been provided under Clause 445. In this regard, they notice that the term 'related person' has been defined under Clause 355 (h), while the term 'relative' has been defined under Clause 355(i). Therefore, apropos suggestion received and agreed by the Department of Revenue, the Clause 445 may be amended. Further, the Committee note that there is a drafting error in this Clause akin to Clause 449 where there is no sub clause besides only one. Therefore, Clause 445 may be amended as under: 445. If during any proceedings under this Act, it is found that a registered non-profit organisation has any specified income which is chargeable to tax as per Section 337 (Table: Sl. No. 2), the Assessing Officer may impose on such person, a penalty of— (a) a sum equal to the aggregate amount of income applied, directly or indirectly, by such person, for the benefit of any related person referred to in section 355(h), if the violation is noticed for the first time during any tax year; and (b) a sum equal to 200% of the aggregate amount of income of such person applied, directly or indirectly, by that person for the benefit of any related person referred to in section 355(h), if the violation is noticed again in any subsequent tax year.
476.	446.4	446	The Committee note that Clause 446 prescribes a penalty for failure to get accounts audited for tax year or years, corresponding to Section 271B of the existing Act. They also note that no policy change has been effected by the Department; and only a textual simplification of the current Section has been made. The Committee, therefore, accept Clause 446

			as proposed.
477.	447.6	447	The Committee note that Clause 447 addresses penalty for failing to submit an accountant's report as mandated by Section 172.They observe that the Department's submission indicates that no policy change has been made; rather the provisions have been merely simplified textually from the existing Section 271BA for the same violation. The Committee, therefore, recommend that the Clause may be made part of the Bill, as proposed by the Department.
478.	448.7	448	The Committee note that Clause 448, relates to penalty for failure to deduct tax at source, corresponding to Section 271C of the existing Act. The Department justified this Clause as textual simplification, not a policy change. As the Department of Revenue have acknowledged a drafting error in the cross-referencing for this Clause, the Committee recommend to carry out the minor correction in Clause 448.
479.	449.6	449	Clause 449 relates to penalty for failure to collect tax at source and aligns with Section 271CA of the existing Act. From the justification submitted by the Department of Revenue, the Committee observe that no policy change has been proposed in this Clause. Only textual simplification has been carried out while retaining the intent. Further, the Committee notice that the Department of Revenue have accepted the drafting error concerning sub-clause (1) in Clause 449. The Committee, therefore, recommend that this drafting correction be made in the proposed Clause.
480.	450.6	450	The Committee note that Clause 450, corresponding to Section 271D of the existing Act prescribes penalty for failure to comply with provisions of section 185. This Clause represents textual simplification with no change in policy. The Committee concur with the Department's rationale for discouraging cash transactions. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause in its current format.
481.	451.4	451	The Committee note that Clause 451,

Sl. No	Para No	Clause No.	Observation/Recommendation
			corresponding to Section 271DA of the existing Act, prescribes penalty for failure to comply with provisions of section 186 with intention of restricting cash transactions and also to curb the flow of black money on the lines of Clause 450. The Committee also note from the submissions of the stakeholder that explicit reference to an exception in Clause 451 is redundant as Clause 470 already provides for an exception from penalty in cases where a reasonable cause for non-compliance exists. The Committee, therefore, recommend to amend the Clause as under: 451. "The Assessing Officer may impose on a person, a penalty equal to the sum received by him in contravention of the provisions of section 186."
482.	452.6	452	The Committee note that Clause 452 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025, which corresponds to Section 271DB of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, prescribes a penalty of Rs. Five Thousand per day for every day of duration of default to provide a facility for accepting payments through prescribed electronic modes. Given that this Clause is similar to the existing Section 271DB with no policy change, the Committee recommendits inclusion as it is in the proposed Act.
483.	453.6	453	The Committee note that Clause 453, which imposes a 100% penalty for non-compliance with provisions of section 188, aligns with Section 271E of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee concurs with the Department's justification for retaining this clause with the same intent, incorporating only textual simplification. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause in its current form.
484.	454.4	454	The Committee note that Clause 454 of the Income-Tax Bill 2025, mapped to Section 271FA of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, prescribes penalties for non-compliance in furnishing financial transactions or reportable amounts. The Committee approve Clause 454 as proposed, noting its simplified approach to existing provisions.
485.	455.4	455	The Committee note that Clause 455, dealing with penalty for furnishing inaccurate statement of financial transaction or reportable account, aims to simplify the existing provisions of Section 271FAA.

Sl. No	Para No	Clause No.	Observation/Recommendation
			The Committee concur with the Department's justification for this simplification and therefore, accept Clause 455 as proposed.
486.	456.6	456	The Committee note that Clause 456, a simplified text of the existing Section 271FAB, relates to penalty for failure to furnish statement or information or document by eligible investment fund. As the Department of Revenue have agreed to remove the reference to Section 9A(5) of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 in Clause 456 of the Bill, the Committee recommend to carry out the drafting correction accordingly.
487.	457.4	457	The Committee note that Clause 457 prescribing penalty for failure to furnish information or document under section 171, aligns with existing Section 271G but features simplified linguistic construction. Expressing their concurrence with the justification given by the Department of Revenue in this regard, the Committee accept Clause 457 as it is.
488.	458.4	458	Noting that Clause 458 of the Bill, dealing with penalty for failure to furnish information or document under section 506 by an Indian concern, is a textual simplification of Section 271GA of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with the same intent, the Committee accept the Clause in its present form.
489.	459.4	459	The Committee note that Clause 459, stipulating penalties for not submitting report or providing inaccurate report under section 511, aligns with the existing Section 271GB and involves no policy shift. They, therefore, accept Clause 459 as proposed by the Department of Revenue.
490.	460.4	460	Clause 460 of the Income-Tax Bill 2025, which deals with penalties for failure to submit statement under section 505, corresponds to Section 271GC of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee find that this Clause has been reformulated by paraphrasing the existing provisions to enhance clarity and comprehension. Furthermore, having been assured that no policy change has been incorporated in this Clause, the Committee approve Clause 460 as it is.

Sl. No	Para No	Clause No.	Observation/Recommendation
491.	461.6	461	Clause 461 prescribes a penalty ranging from Rs. Ten Thousand to Rs. One lakh for failure to furnish a statement as required by section 397(3)(b). The Committee note that this Clause is simplified textual version of existing Section 271H maintaining Government's original policy. After considering the viewpoints of both the stakeholders and the Department, the Committee are of the view that Clause 461 may be included in the new Act as proposed.
492.	462.6	462	The Committee observe that Clause 462 seeks to impose penalty of Rs. One lakh for failure to furnish information or furnishing inaccurate information under section 397(3)(d) and aligns with Section 271I of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. They note that the Department have confirmed that this is a rephrasing, not a policy change. After considering all viewpoints, the Committee accept Clause 462, as proposed, as it meets its objectives.
493.	463.4	463	Clause 463 of the Income-Tax Bill 2025, corresponding to Section 271J of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, stipulates penalty of Rs. Ten Thousand for providing incorrect information in any report or certificate under this Act or the rules made thereunder. The Committee further note that, beyond textual simplification, no policy change has been introduced in the provisions of this Clause. They, therefore, approve Clause 463 as proposed by the Department.
494.	464.4	464	The Committee note that Clause 464, corresponding to Section 271K of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, seeks to provide for imposition of penalty for failure to furnish statement by certain institutions or funds. Recognizing textual simplification, no policy change and retaining original intent in this Clause, the Committee accept the Clause as proposed by the Department of Revenue.
495.	465.6	465	The Committee observe that Clause 465, simplifying Section 272A of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, imposes penalties for non-compliance (eg. failure to provide information or allow inspections) with no policy change. However, the drafting errors viz. omission of Section 268(2) and incorrect reference to 389(5)(a) instead of 392(5)(a) in sub-clause (2) of Clause 465, as pointed out by stakeholders, have been accepted by the Department of Revenue. They, therefore, recommend the Department to carry out the aforesaid drafting correction.

Sl. No	Para No	Clause No.	Observation/Recommendation
496.	466.4	466	The Committee note that Clause 466 prescribing penalty for failure to comply with the provisions of section 254 is similar to the provisions of existing Section 272AA of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with no policy change. They, therefore, approve the Clause 466 as proposed by the Department of Revenue.
497.	467.4	467	The Committee note that Clause 467, a textual simplification of Section 272B of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, seeks to impose penalties for non-compliance with the provisions of section 262. As no policy changes are incorporated, the Committee accept Clause 467 as proposed by the Department of Revenue.
498.	468.4	468	The Committee observe that Clause 468 deals with penalty for failure to comply with the provisions of section 397(1) which corresponds to Section 272BB of the extant Act. They note that, apart from textual simplification, no policy change has been introduced in this Clause. They, therefore, accept Clause 468 as proposed by the Department of Revenue.
499.	469.4	469	The Committee note that Clause 469 grants power to reduce or waive penalties, etc., in certain cases, akin to Section 273A of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. They further note that this Clause is only a textual simplification, consistent with the objectives of the Bill. Therefore, the Committee accept the Clause as proposed by the Department.

			imposed for reasonable cause. After considering stakeholders suggestions and Department's responses, the Committee find that: (i) there is a drafting error in the reference part of the Clause, which the Department have accepted; (ii) the suggestion to condone misreporting of income on the grounds of reasonable cause is untenable as misrepresentation or suppression of facts cannot be permitted under any circumstances. The Committee concur with the views of the Department of Revenue. Accordingly, the Committee recommend that drafting correction be carried out in Clause 470 to include reference to clause 453.
501.	471.5	471	The Committee note that Clause 471, outlining penalty procedures, corresponding to Section 274 of the Income-Tax Act 1961, is a textual simplification consistent with the objectives of the Bill. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause as proposed by the Department.
502.	472.4	472	The Committee observe that Clause 472, mapped to Section 275 of the extant Act, seeks to provide for a bar of limitation for imposing penalties. Noting that its provisions retain the same context and intent as the existing provision of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, with simplified language for greater insight, the Committee accept Clause 472 as proposed by the Department.
503.	473	473.6	The Committee while examining the Clause 473 of the Bill note that the Clause deals with 'contravention of order made under section 247' and corresponds to section 275A of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee observe that the provisions of the existing section have been retained with the same intent in the proposed clause. Having considered the views of both stakeholders and the Ministry, the Committee accept the Clause 473 as proposed.
504.	474	474.5	The Committee note that Clause 474 deals with 'failure to comply with clause (ii) of section 247(1)(b)', aligns with the provisions of Section 275B of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee also note that the textual simplification of clause 474 is as per the objectives of the Bill and retaining the same intent.

			The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause as proposed.
505.	475	475.6	The Committee note that clause 475 of the Bill, which mirrors Section 276 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 concerning actions to prevent tax recovery (i.e., removal, concealment, transfer or delivery of Property), requires a minor amendment. Following a stakeholder's suggestion, and with the Department's agreement, the Committee recommend inserting "therein" after the word "interest" in Clause 475 to ensure consistency with the existing Act. Aside from this drafting Correction, the Committee approve the Clause as proposed.
506.	476	476.6	The Committee note that Clause 476 of the Bill addresses failure to pay tax to credit of Central Government under Chapter XIX-B, mirroring Section 276B of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. Deliberating on stakeholder suggestions, the Committee has identified a need for a drafting correction. The Committee, therefore, recommend that "Note 3 in Table in section 393(3)", as referenced in Clause 476(1)(b)(i), be incorporated into the relevant proposed section. Subject to this specific amendment, the Committee accept Clause 476 as proposed.
507.	477	477.6	The Committee note that Clause 477 deals with failure to pay tax collected at source, mirroring Section 276BB of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee observe that the intent of the existing section is retained in the proposed clause. After deliberating stakeholder suggestion, the Committee agree with the Ministry's rationale for maintaining penalty and prosecution provisions for deterrence, and therefore accept Clause 477 as proposed.
508.	478	478.6	The Committee, while reviewing Clause 478 of the Bill, which mirrors Section 276C of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, concerning wilful attempt to evade tax, etc., has identified two crucial drafting corrections. Firstly, the Committee recommend removing the reference to "payment of" in Clause 478(1) to avoid an unintended overlap with Clause 478(2) that could lead to inconsistent prosecution for tax evasion versus payment evasion. Secondly, to align with the existing Section 276C and prevent an overly broad interpretation of prosecution provisions, the Committee advise replacing "may" with "will" in Clause 478(4)(d). Subject to these precise drafting corrections, the Committee approve Clause 478 as proposed.

509.	479	479.6	Clause 479 deals with failure to furnish returns of income. The Committee note that this Clause is simplified textual version of existing Section 276CC maintaining Government original policy. After considering the viewpoints of both the stakeholders and the Department, the Committee accept Clause 479 as proposed.
510.	480	480.5	The Committee observe that Clause 480 of the Bill textually simplifies and retain the intent of section 276CCC of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 regarding failure to furnish return of Income in search cases. Noting that there is no policy change in this regard and having after considered the views of the stakeholder as well as the response of the Department, the Committee accept Clause 480 as proposed.
511.	481	481.6	The Committee note that Clause 481 of the Bill deals with failure to produce accounts and documents, and corresponds to section 276D of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. Recognizing textual simplification, no policy change and retaining original intent in this Clause, the Committee accept the Clause as proposed by the Department of Revenue.
512.	482	482.6	The Committee note that Clause 482 of the Bill deals with false statement in verification, etc., aligns with section 277 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee observe that the provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in the proposed clause. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause 482 as proposed.
513.	483	483.5	Recognizing Clause 483's alignment with Section 277A of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, deals with the falsification of books or documents, the Committee observe it as a textual simplification that preserves the original intent. The Committee, therefore, accept Clause 483 in its proposed form.
514.	484	484.5	The Committee note that Clause 484, which deals with abetment of false return, etc. and corresponds to Section 278 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, has been textually simplified while retaining its original intent

515.	485	485.5	The Committee note that Clause 485, which outlines punishment for second and subsequent offenses, aligns with Section 278A of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. For rationalization, it now also references Clause 480 (failure to furnish income returns in search cases). Observing that Clause 485 meets the Bill's objectives, the Committee accept it as proposed.
516.	486	486.6	The Committee observe that Clause 486 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 textually simplifies and retains the intent of Section 278AA of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 regarding punishment not to be imposed in certain cases. Noting that there is no policy change in this regard and having after considered the views of the stakeholder as well as the response of the Ministry, the Committee accept Clause 486 as proposed.
517.	487	487.4	The Committee while examining the Clause 487 of the Bill note that the Clause deals with offences by companies, and corresponds to section 278B of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee observe that the provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause 487 as proposed.
518.	488	488.5	The Committee note that Clause 488 of the Bill deals with offences by Hindu undivided family aligns with Section 278C of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Clause represents textual simplification, retention of same intent and no policy change. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause 488 as proposed.
519.	489	489.5	The Committee note that Clause 489 deals with presumption as to assets, books of account, etc., in certain cases, corresponding to Section 278D of the existing Act. The Committee also note that no policy change has been effected by the Ministry; and only a textual simplification of the current Act. The Committee, therefore, accept Clause 489 as proposed.

521.	491	491.6	The Committee, while examining Clause 491 of the Bill, note that it addresses prosecution to be at instance of Principal Chief Commissioner or Chief Commissioner or Principal Commissioner or Commissioner, aligning with Section 279 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. A stakeholder suggested drafting correction to sub-clause (1), which places "Commissioner (Appeals)" before "Joint Commissioner (Appeals)," has been accepted by the Ministry. With this specific amendment, the Committee accept Clause 491 as proposed.
522.	492	492.5	The Committee note that Clause 492, which aligns with Section 279A of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, categorizes certain offences to be non-cognizable. The Committee also note that two rationalizations have been made in this clause viz. making offenses under Clause 480 (failure to furnish returns in search cases) non-cognizable; and updating the legal reference from the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, to the Bhartiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023. Given the Ministry's justification, the Committee accept Clause 492 as proposed.
523.	493	493.4	The Committee, while examining the Clause 493 of the Bill, note that the Clause provides for proof of entries in records or documents which mirrors section 279E of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee observe that the provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause 493 as proposed.
524.	494	494.5	Noting that Clause 494 of the Bill, dealing with Disclosure of particulars by public servants, is a textual simplification of Section 280 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with the same intent and no policy change, the Committee accept the Clause in its present form.
525.	495	495.5	The Committee note that Clause 495, which provides for special courts, is a textual simplification of Section 280A of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, retaining the same intent. Therefore, the Committee accept Clause 495 as proposed.

			existing section 280B of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee concur with the Ministry's justification for retaining this clause with the incorporation of the words "Bharatiya Nagarik Surakasha Sanhita" in place "Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause 496 as proposed.
527.	497	497.6	The Committee observe that Clause 497, deals with Trial of offences as summons case, corresponds to the existing section 280C of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee concurs with the Ministry's justification for retaining this clause with the incorporation of the words "Bharatiya Nagarik Surakasha Sanhita" in place "Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause 497 as proposed.
528.	498	498.5	The Committee note that Clause 498 of the Bill deals with application of Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 to proceedings before Special Court, aligns with section 280D of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee also note that the words "Bharatiya Nagarik Surakasha Sanhita" have been incorporated in place of "Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973. Given the Ministry's justification in this regard, the Committee accept the Clause 498 as proposed.
529.	499	499.6	The Committee note that Clause 499 of the Bill, addressing void transfers (mirroring Section 281 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961), now incorporates "virtual digital asset" into its definition of "asset." The Ministry has justified this inclusion as a rationalization aimed at aligning the provision with other sections of the Bill. The Committee also note that the Ministry has accepted two key drafting improvements suggested by stakeholders: first, in the clause 499(4)(a), changing "virtual digital asset" to the plural "virtual digital assets" for consistency with the broader definition of "assets"; and second, inserting "and" before the last item in Clause 499(4)(a), which enhances clarity and improves overall drafting. After considering the perspectives of both stakeholders and the Ministry, the Committee accept Clause 499 as proposed, incorporating these drafting corrections.
530.	500	500.6	The Committee note that Clause 500 of the Bill, which corresponds to Section 281B of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, addresses provisional attachment to protect revenue in certain cases. This clause maintains the same intent as the existing section, with no policy changes, only textual simplification. The Committee find that the Ministry has accepted a drafting correction for Clause 500(1)(a). The comma placed between "reassessment of any income" and "which has escaped assessment" will be removed. This change clarifies that "which has escaped assessment" directly modifies the preceding phrase, ensuring the text accurately reflects the intended meaning for assessments or reassessments of income. After considering the views of both stakeholders and the Ministry, the Committee approve Clause 500, incorporating the afore-mentioned drafting correction.

531.	501	501.6	The Committee observe that Clause 501 of the Bill, which addresses service of notice generally, corresponds to Section 282 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. This clause carries forward the existing section's intent without policy changes, merely simplifying the text. However, a critical omission is identified in Clause 501(1). Unlike the existing Section 282(1), the new clause lacked the bracketed definition "(hereafter in this section referred to as "communication")" after listing various forms of communication. The Committee believe that addressing this omission, would provide a better clarity and achieve the intended applicability of the term "communication" in Clause 501(2). The Ministry has duly acknowledged and committed to rectifying this drafting oversight Having considered the views of both stakeholders and the Ministry, the Committee approve Clause 501 as proposed, contingent on the rectification of this drafting error. Aside from the above drafting correction, the Committee recommend to accept the Clause 501 as proposed.
532.	502	502.5	The Committee note that Clause 502 of the Bill provides for authentication of notices and other documents, aligns with existing Section 282A of the Income-Tax Act, 1961; but features simplified linguistic construction with no policy change. Expressing their concurrence with the justification given by the Ministry of Finance (Department of

533.	503	503.5	The Committee while examining the Clause 503 of the Bill note that the Clause deals with service of notice when family is disrupted or firm etc., is dissolved, and corresponds to section 283 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee observe that the provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause 503 as proposed.
534.	504	504.5	The Committee note that Clause 504 stipulates service of notice in case of discontinued business, aligns with the provisions of Section 284 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee also note that the textual simplification of Clause 504 is as per the objectives of the Bill and retaining the same intent. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause as proposed.
535.	505	505.5	The Committee note that Clause 505, a textual simplification of Section 285 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, deals with submission of statement by a non-resident having liaison office. As accepted by the Ministry, correction may be carried out in clause 505 as under: 'within sixty days' may be replaced with 'within eight months' Subject to the aforesaid correction, the Committee accept Clause 505 as proposed by the Department of Revenue.
536.	506	506.6	The Committee observe that Clause 506, which addresses the submission of information or documents by Indian concerns, mirrors Section 285A of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, without introducing any policy changes. A stakeholder pointed out a necessary drafting correction in Clause 506: "section 9(9)(a)" should be changed to "clause (a) of section 9(9)" for consistency with Section 285A. Given the Ministry's acceptance of this change, the Committee recommend redrafting Clause 506 to align with the current Act. Subject to this correction, the Committee approve Clause 506 as presented.
537.	507	507.4	The Committee note that Clause 507 of the Bill prescribing provisions for submission of statements by producers of cinematograph films or persons engaged in specified activity, aligns with existing Section 285B of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 but features simplified linguistic construction. Expressing their concurrence with the justification given by the Ministry of Finance (Department of Revenue) in this regard, the Committee accept Clause 507 as it is.

538.	508	508.5	The Committee while examining the Clause 508 of the Bill note that the Clause deals with obligation to furnish statement of financial transaction or reportable account, corresponds to section 285BA of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee observe that the provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause 508 as proposed.
539.	509	509.5	Clause 509 of the Income-Tax Bill 2025, which provides for obligation to furnish information on transaction of crypto-asset, corresponding to Section 285BAA of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee find that this Clause has been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause. Furthermore, having been assured that no policy change has been incorporated in this Clause, the Committee approve Clause 509 as it is.
540.	510	510.5	The Committee note that Clause 510 of the Bill, which outlines the annual information statement, aligns with Section 285BB of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee observe that the language of the existing section has been textually simplified in this new clause while retaining its original intent. Therefore, the Committee accept Clause 510 as proposed.
541.	511	511.6	The Committee observe that Clause 511 of the Income-Tax Bill, 2025 textually simplifies and retains the intent of Section 286 of the Act regarding immunity from penalty. 542.	512	512.5	The Committee, upon reviewing Clause 512 of the Bill, acknowledge that it addresses the publication of information respecting assessees in certain cases, directly paralleling Section 287 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. This Clause represents textual simplification, no change in policy. The Committee, therefore, approve Clause 512 in its current form.
543.	513	513.5	The Committee note that Clause 513 of the Bill addresses appearance of registered valuer in certain matters, corresponding to section 287A of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. Notably, the Committee find that the provisions of the existing Section 287A have been divided between Clause 513 and a newly introduced Clause 514. The new Clause 514 now outlines the method for registering valuers by specified Income-tax authorities. Acknowledging the Ministry's assurance that the proposed provisions in the Income-Tax Bill 2025 are a simplified version of their counterparts in the IT Act, 1961, the Committee accept Clause 513 as proposed.
544.	514	514.6	The Committee note the introduction of Clause 514 in the Bill, which establishes a framework for the registration of valuers by specified Income-tax authorities and addresses related procedural matters. The Committee also note that in response to a stakeholder's suggestion for prescribing specific qualifications for registered valuers to ensure expertise in valuing certain asset classes, the Ministry has concurred that this constitutes a necessary drafting correction. The Ministry has further assured the Committee that Section 247 of the Companies Act, 2013, and the NAFRA Companies (Registered Valuers and Valuation) Rules, 2017, will be thoroughly reviewed during the drafting of the relevant rules. Having considered the perspectives of both stakeholders and the Ministry, the Committee accept Clause 514 as proposed, subject to the incorporation of the aforementioned drafting correction.
545.	515	515.6	The Committee observe that Clause 515 of the Bill, which governs appearances by authorized representatives, aligns with Section 288 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Ministry has asserted that this clause maintains the existing policy, merely simplifying the text. However, a stakeholder identified a drafting error in sub-clause (4)(b) of Clause 515, where it incorrectly refers to Section 275(1)(ii) instead of Section 271(1)(ii). The Ministry has acknowledged this error, and the Committee, therefore, recommend its correction. The Committee note that in Clause 515 references have been made to Income-Tax Act, 1922 and Income-Tax Act, 1961. Considering the stated aims and objectives of the Bill, the Committee recommend that references to both the Acts may be omitted in Clause 515 and the relevant proviso may be incorporated under Repeals and Savings clause viz. Clause 536 of the Bill. After having considered the views of stakeholders and the Ministry, the Committee accept Clause 515 as it stands, with the exception of the above recommendations.

546.	516	516.5	The Committee while examining the Clause 516 of the Bill note that the Clause deals with rounding off of amount of total income, or tax payable or refundable and corresponds to sections 288A and 288B of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee observe that there is no policy change, however, existing Sections 288A and 288B have been merged into single section considering that both the sections were related to rounding off. The Committee take note of Ministry's justification that the provisions of the existing sections have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause 516 as proposed.
547.	517	517.5	The Committee note that Clause 517, which provides for receipt to be given, is in consonance with objectives of the Bill, therefore, the Clause may be made part of the Bill, as proposed by the Ministry.
548.	518	518.5	The Committee note that Clause 518 of the Bill outlines indemnity, akin to Section 290 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee further note that this Clause is only a textual simplification, consistent with the objectives of the Bill. Therefore, the Committee accept the Clause as proposed by the Ministry.
549.	519	519.5	Clause 519 of the Income-Tax Bill 2025 which grants power to tender immunity from prosecution, corresponding to Section 291 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee find that this Clause has been reformulated by paraphrasing the existing provisions to enhance clarity and comprehension. Furthermore, noting that there is no policy change in this regard, the Committee accept Clause 519 as proposed.

550.	520	520.5	Noting that Clause 520 of the Bill, dealing with cognizance of offences is a textual simplification of Section 292 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 with the same intent, the Committee accept the Clause in its present form.
551.	521	521.5	The Committee note that Clause 521 of the Bill, dealing with the non-application of the Probation of Offenders Act, 1958, and Section 401 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita (BNSS), 2023, directly corresponds to Section 292A of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. There are no underlying policy changes. The provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified in this clause while retaining their original intent, with the specific update of replacing the reference to the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, with the BNSS, 2023. The Committee accept Clause 521 as proposed.
552.	522	522.5	The Committee while examining the Clause 522 of the Bill note that the Clause deals with return of income, etc., not to be invalid on certain grounds and corresponds to section 292B of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee observe that the provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause 522 as proposed.
553.	523	523.5	The Committee note that Clause 523 of the Bill addresses notice deemed to be valid in certain circumstances, aligns with the existing Section 292BB and involves no policy shift. The Committee, therefore, accept Clause 523 as proposed by the Ministry.
554.	524	524.5	The Committee note that Clause 524 of the Bill provides for presumption as to assets, books of account, etc., aligns with existing Section 292C of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 but features simplified linguistic construction. Expressing their concurrence with the justification given by the Ministry of Finance

555.	525	525.5	The Committee note that Clause 525 outlines the framework for authorisation and assessment in case of search or requisition, aligns with the existing Section 292CC of the extant Act and involves no policy shift. They, therefore, accept Clause 525 as proposed by the Ministry.
556.	526	526.5	The Committee while examining the Clause 526 of the Bill note that the Clause deals with bar of suits in civil courts and corresponds to section 293 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee observe that the provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause 526 as proposed.
557.	527	527.5	The Committee note that Clause 527 of the Bill lays down power to make exemption, etc. in relation to participation in business of prospecting for, extraction, etc., of mineral oils, corresponding to Section 293A of the Income-Tax Act 1961. Recognizing textual simplification, no policy change and retaining original intent in this Clause, the Committee accept the Clause 527 as proposed.
558.	528	528.5	The Committee while examining the Clause 528 of the Bill note that the Clause grants power to Central Government or Board to condone delays in obtaining approval, akin to Section 293B of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee observe that the provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause 528 as proposed.
559.	529	529.5	The Committee note that Clause 529 of the Bill provides for power to withdraw approval. The Committee also note that this Clause is simplified textual version of existing Section 293C of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 maintaining Government original policy. The Committee observe that, beyond textual simplification, no policy change has been introduced in the provisions of this Clause. The Committee, therefore, approve Clause 529 as proposed by the Ministry.

			of tax representative assessee, aligns with the provisions of Section 294 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee also note that the textual simplification of clause 530 is as per the objectives of the Bill and retaining the same intent. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause as proposed.
561.	531	531.5	The Committee has examined Clause 531 of the Bill, which pertains to the revocation of tax exemptions previously granted to certain Union Territories under Section 294A of the Income-tax Act, 1961. The Committee note the Ministry's efforts to simplify the language of the original Section 294A while ensuring its core intent remains intact within this new clause. A significant change is the elimination of obsolete provisions from Section 294A, specifically those that became irrelevant after March 31, 1967. In view of the reference to the Income-Tax Act, 1961 in Clause 531, the Committee recommend that in Clause 531 reference to the Act may be eliminated and the relevant proviso may be incorporated under Clause 536 related to Repeals and Savings. The Committee conclude that Clause 531 is consistent with the Bill's overarching objectives and, therefore, approve it as proposed, subject to the aforesaid recommendation.
562.	532	532.5	The Committee note that Clause 532 of the Bill introduces a new provision that grants the power to frame various schemes. Previously, the Income-tax Act, 1961, contained multiple sections that separately empowered the Central Government to create schemes related to faceless provisions. The Committee observe that this approach lacked a clear rationale and led to avoidable repetition within the existing legislation. To address this, The Ministry has incorporated the Clause 532 has as an omnibus clause, with the purpose of rationalizing and consolidating these provisions into a single, comprehensive power. The Committee find this consolidation to be a logical step that enhances clarity and removes redundancy. The Committee note that in Clause 532 reference has been made to Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee are of the view that considering the objectives of the Bill, the reference to the Act may be omitted and the relevant proviso may be incorporated under Repeals and Savings clause viz. Clause 536 of the Bill. Therefore, the Committee accept Clause 532 as proposed in the Bill, subject to the aforesaid recommendation.

563.	533	533.6	The Committee, in its examination of Clause 533 of the Bill, concerning 'Power to make rules' (which corresponds to Section 295 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961), has carefully considered suggestions from various stakeholders. After reviewing the response of the Ministry, the Committee accept Clause 533 as proposed.
564.	534	534.5	The Committee while examining the Clause 534 of the Bill note that the Clause deals with 'Laying before Parliament' and corresponds to section 296 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee take note of the Ministry's justification that the provisions of the existing section have been textually simplified and retained with the same intent in this clause. The Committee, therefore, accept the Clause 534 as proposed, without any further amendment.
565.	535	535.6	The Committee note that Clause 535 of the Bill addresses the removal of difficulties, serving as the direct counterpart to Section 298 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee further observe that this clause includes a specific sunset provision: no order for the removal of difficulties can be passed after a period of three years from April 1, 2026. This establishes a clear time limit for such actions. Therefore, the Committee accept Clause 535 as proposed.
566.	536	536.6	The Committee note that Clause 536 aims to repeal the Income-tax Act, 1961, effective from April 1, 2026, the date the new Bill comes into force. Crucially, it also incorporates savings provisions that are intended to be carried forward from the 1961 Act into the new Bill. The Committee acknowledges the Ministry's justification that due to the differences between the 1922 and 1961 Acts, the nature of these savings has evolved compared to those in Section 297 of the earlier Act. The Committee has undertaken an exhaustive deliberation on Clause 536 of the proposed Income-Tax Bill, 2025, which addresses 'Repeals and savings' and corresponds to Section 297 of the Income-Tax Act, 1961. Regarding the application of Rules, Circulars, etc., issued under the Income-Tax Act, 1961, after the new Act comes into force, the Ministry clarified during evidence that: (i) Circulars and notifications issued under the old Act will correspondingly apply to the equivalent clauses in the new Act; (ii) however, for areas involving delegated legislation, prescriptions, or notifications, new rules and forms will need to be prescribed under the new Bill. Further, the Committee has identified several drafting corrections based on stakeholder suggestions, which they believe are essential for clarity and unambiguous interpretation. The Committee, therefore, approve clause 536, subject to incorporation of the following amendments: (i) Adding the term 'Nothing shall' before proviso (a) and proviso (b) of sub-clause 536(2) of the Bill. (ii) Including the word 'Circular' in sub-clause (j) of Clause 536(2). (iii) Redrafting Clause 536(2)(n) to explicitly state that Long Term Capital Gain can be set off against Long Term Capital Gain only. (iv) Redrafting Clause 536(2)(q) to ensure alignment with Clause 71(1). (v) Redrafting Clause 536(2)(s) to include a reference to Section 35ABA of the existing Act. (vi) Correcting Clause 536(2)(u) by replacing "294B" with "532(1)." Furthermore, during examination of the Bill, the Committee observed multiple lingering references to the Income-Tax Act, 1922, and the Income-Tax Act, 1961. The Committee are of the opinion that there should be a clean break from the reference to the old Act, on the lines of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023, wherein reference to the Indian Penal Code were not carried forward, and all references may be brought under clause 536(2) of the Bill on repeals and savings. Moreover, the Committee also noted references to other repealed Acts, such as "The Sick Industrial Companies (Special Provisions) Act, 1985," which was repealed in 2003 with effect from 1.12.2016. Given the extensive exercise undertaken for a comprehensive review of the Income-Tax Act, 1961, the Committee suggest that all references to repealed Acts be consolidated and incorporated under Clause 536 of the Bill. This action aims to achieve the stated objective of making the new Act concise, lucid, easy to read, and understand. The Committee, therefore, accept Clause 536 as proposed, subject to the aforementioned suggestions.

2. At the outset, the Chairperson welcomed the Members to the First Sitting of the Committee and also congratulated them for having been nominated for the 'Select Committee of Lok Sabha to Examine the Income-Tax Bill, 2025.'. Then, he drew attention to the motion adopted in the Lok Sabha on 13 February, 2025, to refer the Income-Tax Bill, 2025, to the Select Committee for examination and preparation of a report by the first day of the next session, that is, the Monsoon Session of 2025. He also briefly apprised the Members of the procedure followed by a Select Committee on a Bill and invited their kind attention to Direction 81(1) of the 'Directions by the Speaker Lok Sabha' regarding submission of memoranda on Bills by Members. Thereafter, he apprised the Members about the agenda of the Sitting i.e. preliminary briefing on the Bill by the Ministry of Finance (Department of Revenue).

3. Thereafter, the Chairperson welcomed the representatives of the Ministry of Finance (Department of Revenue) and apprised them of Direction 55(1) of 'Directions by the Speaker, Lok Sabha' regarding confidentiality of the Committee proceedings.

4. Then, representatives from the Ministry of Finance (Department of Revenue) briefly outlined the features of the Bill, highlighting its key provisions. They also presented a PowerPoint to the Committee, which covered the history and complexities of the Income Tax Act of 1961, the need for a new Bill, recent reforms since 2014, research and international experiences in drafting the new Bill, as well as its salient features.

5. During the Sitting, the Members sought various clarifications on various clauses/provisions related to the bill, and the representatives of the Ministry responded to them. The Chairperson also directed the representatives of the Ministry to furnish replies to the queries that could not be responded to during the Sitting in writing to the Secretariat within 14 days.

The witnesses then withdrew.

6. The Committee, thereafter, briefly deliberated on the future course of action to examine the Bill and the schedule of Sittings. The Committee, considering the wider implications of the Bill, decided to invite memoranda containing views/suggestions from experts/ industries/ associations/ organizations/ stakeholders by issuing a Press Communique, which will scroll on Sansad TV.

The Committee then adjourned.

2. At the outset, the Chairperson welcomed the Members and the Witnesses to the Sitting of the Committee convened to take Oral Evidence of the representatives of the Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce & Industry (FICCI) on the Income Tax Bill, 2025. The Chairperson in his opening remarks drew the attention of the Witnesses to the scope and ambit of the Bill and to the 'Confidentiality' of the Proceedings of the Select Committee as stipulated in Direction 55(1) of the Directions by Speaker, Lok Sabha. Thereafter, a power-point presentation was made by the representatives of FICCI on the Bill. Their views were structured in two parts. The first part focused on the changes required in the Bill due to omissions in drafting and inadvertent errors that have crept in. The other part highlighted inter-alia amendments proposed for easing compliance burdens, simplification of tax provisions, reduction in litigation etc.

3. Subsequently, the Committee deliberated upon the following major points as summarized under:-

(i) Digital access in search and seizure provisions made under Clause 247 of the Bill vis-à-vis Right to Privacy;

(ii) Expansion of the Dispute Resolution Committee Mechanism;

(iii) Measures to reduce tax litigation including streamlining the appellate process and disposal of pending cases;

(iv) Need for a time-bound resolution mechanism in appellate proceedings;

(v) Provision in the Bill in comparison to the Company's Act, Banking Regulation Act; and Income Tax Act regarding percentage threshold value for being an associated enterprise;

(vi) Accountability of tax authorities in cases of frivolous orders;

2. Shri, Lakshmnarayana Kollengode Ramanathan – Chief Endowment Officer and Director, Azim Premji Foundation; and
3. Shri. Ravi Kiran Vadapally – Chief Financial Officer, Premji Invest and Director, Azim Premji Trustee Company Private Limited.

2. In the absence of the Chairperson, as indicated by the Chairperson and agreed to by the Committee, Shri Bhartruhari Mahtab, MP chaired the Sitting.

In this regard, Rule 258 (3) of the Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in Lok Sabha reads as under:-

"If the Chairperson is absent from any sitting, the Committee shall choose another member to act as Chairperson for that sitting"

3. At the outset, the Chairperson welcomed the Members and the Witnesses to the Sitting of the Committee convened to take Oral Evidence of the representatives of Azim Premji Trustee Company Private Limited on the Income Tax Bill, 2025. The Chairperson highlighted the landmark nature of the Bill in streamlining India's tax framework through the elimination of redundant provisions and consolidation of the Income Tax Act, 1961, aimed at enhancing the ease of doing business and fostering inclusive economic growth. Appreciating Azim Premji Foundation's rich experience and commitment to the social development sector, the Chairperson emphasized the value of their perspective in assessing the Bill's implications on non-profit institutions. Further, the Chairperson in his opening remarks also drew the attention of the Witnesses to the scope and ambit of the Bill and to the 'Confidentiality' of the Proceedings of the Select Committee as stipulated in Direction 55(1) of the Directions by Speaker, Lok Sabha.

4. Subsequently, a presentation was made by the representative of Azim Premji Foundation. While clarifying that the Foundation is among the largest tax-paying charitable organizations in India and does not seek any tax exemptions, the views presented revolved around enabling scalability and long-term sustainability of non-profits through broadening of permissible investment modes under Section 350 read with Schedule 16 of the IT Bill, 2025 to include listed equity shares, allowing irrevocable earmarking of dividends from designated shares for charitable purposes, incorporating such provisions directly within the Schedule for legislative clarity, restrictive treatment of General Public Utility (GPU) institutions, particularly the 20 per cent cap on incidental business income, etc.

5. Following the presentation, the Committee deliberated among other things upon the major points as summarized under:-

a. Removal of the 20% cap on commercial activities for GPU organizations and alignment with other charitable categories such as education, medical relief, etc.;
b. Proposal for tax-neutral mergers of trusts as provided under the current Income Tax Act but omitted in the Bill;
c. Removal of the "residue income" category as redundant with existing income classifications;
d. Allowance for investments in listed equity shares and earmarking dividends for charity at source.;
e. Clarification on how anonymous donations should be treated, especially regarding the 85% expenditure rule;
f. Reducing the 85% spending rule for NPOs to 50% or 20%;
g. Concerns over mandatory prescribed investment modes for NPOs and suggestions for alternatives;
h. Clarification on issues arising from the cancellation of NPO registration;
i. Tax exemptions for charitable trusts and safeguards against misuse of funds;
j. Concerns regarding NPOs investing in equity markets and preventing speculative losses; and

6. Members also sought clarifications on various issues relating to the Bill. The Witnesses responded to the queries raised by the Members. The Chairperson then directed the representatives to furnish written replies to the queries of the Members that remained unanswered, to the Secretariat within 7-10 days.

In this regard, Rule 258 (3) of the Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in Lok Sabha reads as under:-

"If the Chairperson is absent from any sitting, the Committee shall choose another member to act as Chairperson for that sitting"

3. At the outset, the Chairperson welcomed the Members and the representative of the National Small Industries Corporation (NSIC) to the Sitting of the Committee convened to take Oral Evidence on the Income Tax Bill, 2025. In his opening remarks, the Chairperson emphasized the importance of NSIC's role in facilitating the growth and competitiveness of MSMEs in India, particularly in relation to their access to finance, technology, and market linkages. Further, the Chairperson in his opening remarks also drew the attention of the Witnesses to the scope and ambit of the Bill and to the 'Confidentiality' of the Proceedings of the Select Committee as stipulated in Direction 55(1) of the Directions by Speaker, Lok Sabha.

4. Subsequently, the representative of NSIC shared insights on the recent budgetary changes, including the enhanced investment and turnover limits for MSMEs, and their potential benefits for the sector and enhancing the presumptive taxation limit to 5 crore from 2 crore to Rs. 2 crore, in line with the revised MSME thresholds.

5. Following the power-point presentation, the Committee inter alia deliberated upon the major points as summarized under:-

a. Challenges related to trade receivables and the impact of delayed payments on MSMEs;
b. The role of NSIC in facilitating market access and credit for MSMEs;
c. The alignment of government efforts to support MSMEs with the broader "Make in India" initiative.

6. Members also sought clarifications on various issues relating to the Bill. The witnesses responded to the queries raised by the Members. The Chairperson then directed the representatives to furnish written replies to the queries of the Members that remained unanswered, to the Secretariat within 7-10 days. The Witnesses then withdrew. The sitting was then adjourned for lunch at 1245 PM and reconvened at 1:30 PM to hear oral evidence of FISME.

7. At the outset, the Chairperson welcomed the Members and the Witnesses to the Sitting of the Select Committee of the Lok Sabha convened to examine the Income Tax Bill, 2025. The Chairperson then outlined the role being played by the representatives of FISME in promoting the growth and development of MSMEs, with a focus on simplifying tax compliance and enhancing the ease of doing business for small enterprises. The Chairperson also emphasized the importance of the Income Tax Bill, 2025 in fostering economic growth and creating a conducive environment for MSMEs to thrive. The Chairperson further drew the attention of the representative to the scope and objectives of the Bill, and reminded them of the 'Confidentiality' of the proceedings as stipulated in Direction 55(1) of the Directions by the Speaker, Lok Sabha.

8. Subsequently, the representatives of FISME presented their views on the Income Tax Bill, 2025. The views of FISME primarily revolved around key issues affecting the MSME sector, including the need to ease the compliance burden; address the challenges of economic double taxation; provide clarity on long-term capital gains tax; and simplify provisions regarding the conversion of MSME companies to Limited Liability Partnerships (LLPs) without the incidence of capital gains tax. Furthermore, FISME emphasized the importance of decriminalizing financial offenses and introducing penalties as a first step; and reserving criminal charges for cases of continued non-compliance. Additionally the representatives discussed concerns related to the dissolution of firms and the liability of partners in limited liability partnerships; and highlighting the need for a more balanced approach to tax liability in such situations.

9. Following the presentation, the Committee deliberated upon among other things the major points as summarized under:-

a. The comparison between different countries' taxation policies and the equity distribution among directors;;
b. Suggestions made regarding the tax liability during the dissolution of a firm and long-term capital gains (LTCG) tax;
c. The need for a clear policy to prevent misuse of the provision on the sale of old property by MSMEs;
d. The impact of government measures like faceless taxation on transparency, with mixed views on whether it helped the system;
e. Concerns about the complexities in tax law and penalties for first-time offenders, along with suggestions for a better balance between punishment and penalty;
f. The challenge faced by MSMEs in meeting tax compliance requirements, especially regarding the higher threshold for tax audits;
g. More affordable and accessible tax advisory services to MSMEs; and
h. Concerns regarding double taxation.

10. Members also sought clarifications on various issues relating to the Bill. The witnesses responded to the queries raised by the Members, as per their concern respectively. The Chairperson then directed the representatives to furnish written replies to the queries of the Members that remained unanswered, to the Secretariat within 7-10 days.

2. Dr. Ishita Ganguli Tripathy, Addl. Development Commissioner
3. Shri Pankaj Jindal, Joint Secretary
4. Ms. Rukmai Attri, Joint Development Commissioner

National Institute for Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises (ni-msme)

1. Dr. Shrikanth Sharma, Director, School of Entrepreneurship and Extension

2. In the absence of the Chairperson, as indicated by the Chairperson and agreed to by the Committee, Shri Bhartruhari Mahtab, MP chaired the Sitting.

In this regard, Rule 258 (3) of the Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in Lok Sabha reads as under:-

"If the Chairperson is absent from any sitting, the Committee shall choose another member to act as Chairperson for that sitting"

3. At the outset, the Chairperson welcomed the Members and the Witnesses to the Sitting of the Committee convened to take Oral Evidence of the representatives of the Ministry of Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises (MSME) and the National Institute for Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises (ni-msme) on the Income Tax Bill, 2025. The Chairperson outlined the role of the Ministry and the ni-msme in promoting the growth and development of MSMEs, emphasizing the importance of simplifying tax compliance and enhancing the ease of doing business for small enterprises. Further, the Chairperson in his opening remarks also drew the attention of the Witnesses to the scope and ambit of the Bill and to the 'Confidentiality' of the Proceedings of the Select Committee as stipulated in Direction 55(1) of the Directions by Speaker, Lok Sabha.

4. Subsequently, a Power Point presentation was made by the representatives of the Ministry of Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises (MSME) on the Income Tax Bill, 2025. While appreciating the alignment of definitions within the Bill, which recognizes micro, small, and medium enterprises for the first time, the MSME representatives primarily focused on the need for further simplification of tax compliance. They emphasized suggestions such as enhancing the audit ceiling under Section 63 of the IT Bill, 2025 from Rs. 1 crore to Rs. 5 crore, aligning the presumptive taxation scheme with the MSMED Act by increasing the threshold under Section 58 of the IT Bill, 2025, and including mental health and stress management under deductible ailments in the tax framework.

5. Later, the representatives of the Ministry also discussed the formalization drive undertaken by the government, highlighting the significant number of MSMEs registered under the Udyam platform, and their contribution to India's economy. They recommended further enhancements to improve the tax ecosystem for these enterprises, aligning the Bill with existing provisions of the MSMED Act to ensure greater consistency and ease of doing business for MSMEs across the country.

6. Following the power-point presentation, the Committee inter alia deliberated upon the major points as summarized under:-

a. Industry reaction to the faceless tax system;
b. Differentiation of problems faced by MSMEs, particularly micro-enterprises, and how challenges vary between micro and larger MSMEs;
c. Taxation and benefits for MSMEs, particularly concerns on increasing investment and turnover limits and the tax burden on MSMEs in comparison to international competitors;
d. Tax concessions for SC/ST/OBC communities, especially in terms of MSME support and special benefits;
e. Challenges faced by MSMEs in business income computation and transfer pricing;
f. Issue of double taxation on dividends
g. Impact of tax policies on rural MSMEs, particularly in terms of Long term Capital Gains (LTCG) on subsidies and exemptions from certain taxes;
h. Data discrepancies in MSME tax compliance and the adequacy of the CBDT data for accurate tax compliance assessment;

i. Effectiveness of MSME registration benefits, such as access to government procurement markets, priority sector lending, and credit guarantees, especially for smaller, informal micro-enterprises;

j. Complex compliance and procedural burdens on MSMEs, such as audits by Chartered Accountants and other compliance tasks that create additional burdens for small enterprises;

7. Members also sought clarifications on various issues relating to the Bill. The Witnesses responded to the queries raised by the Members, as per their concern respectively. The Chairperson then directed the representatives to furnish written replies to the queries of the Members that remained unanswered, to the Secretariat within 7-10 days.

(The Witnesses then withdrew)

A verbatim record of the proceedings has been kept.

1. Shri Siddhartha Mohanty, CEO & MD
2. Shri Dinesh Pant, Appointed Actuary & Executive Director (Actuarial)
3. Shri Sunil Agrawal, Chief Financial Officer
4. Shri Rajesh Mohan Marwaha, Protocol Officer

General Insurance Corporation of India (GICRe)

1. Shri Ramaswamy Narayanan, CMD
2. Shri V. Balkrishna, General Manager
3. Shri Rajesh Laheri, Deputy General Manager

2. At the outset, the Chairperson welcomed the Members and Witnesses to the Sitting of the Committee convened to take Oral Evidence of the representatives of Life Insurance Corporation of India (LIC) and General Insurance Corporation of India (GICRe) on the Income Tax Bill, 2025. The Chairperson highlighted the significance of these organizations in the examination of the proposed legislation, noting their experience in the field of insurance sector. Further, the Chairperson in his opening remarks drew the attention of the Witnesses to the scope and ambit of the Bill and to the 'Confidentiality' of the Proceedings of the Select Committee as stipulated in Direction 55(1) of the Directions by Speaker, Lok Sabha.

3. Subsequently, a Power Point presentation was made by the representatives of both the organisations. While appreciating the historic shift in India's tax legislation, the LIC and GIC presentations focussed on corporate tax including taxation rates in the insurance sector and suggested concessional rates. Both the organizations put forth suggestions and highlighted inter-alia issues pertaining to Deduction of Tax at Source and Tax Collection at Source; Tax exemption limits related to Insurance Agents; Powers of Assessing Officers, Tax on income of certain domestic companies etc.

4. During the power-point presentation, the following major points were covered:-

a) Enhancement in tax concessions on insurance premiums paid under the cover of Sec 80C as per Section 123 of the new bill;

b) Exemption on incomes from annuity policies;

c) Aligning the exemption on income commuted with the rates of IRDAI i.e. 60 per cent) and consequently getting at least two-third of the amount exempted with one-third left for commutation;

d) Issues with regard to exemption on ULIP and LIC policies wherein ULIP maturity amount beyond Rs.2.5 lakh is taxable and in case of LIC, this amount is beyond Rs.5 lakh. So, resolving the gap regarding government exemption on premium paid by policyholder and the one specified by IRDAI by bringing the government exemption at par with IRDAI limits (seven times of the risk) was suggested;

e) Raising the tax exemption limit for Insurance Agents from Rs. 20,000 limit up to Rs.2.5 lakhs and Rs.4 lakhs as per the new regime under Section 194D;

f) Insurance companies may not be subject to Government Audits;

g) Discretionary element to Assessing Officer under Sec 37 should be done away with as any interpretation scope on part of AO will unnecessarily lead to lot of litigation;

h) The concept of IBNR "Incurred But Not Reported" may be provided as a deduction so that it would ease the way we do business, simply because otherwise it is left to the assessing officer to decide whether it is allowable or not;

i) The GIC as per its own unique concept has created a "Catastrophic Reserve" from its own profits so as to deal with catastrophic losses. This too may be allowed for deductions in Income Tax;

j) The provision for set-off to be given on Dividends paid by companies has been removed from the new Bill, due to some typographical error which will affect all the companies and may lead to litigation may be included in the new Tax Bill;

5. Thereafter, Members sought clarifications on various issues relating to the Bill. The Witnesses responded to the queries raised by the Members. The Chairperson then directed the representatives to furnish written replies to the queries of the Members that remained unanswered, to the Secretariat within 7-10 days.

(The Witnesses then withdrew)

> "If the Chairperson is absent from any sitting, the Committee shall choose another member to act as Chairperson for that sitting."

3. At the outset, the Chairperson welcomed the Members and Witnesses to the Sitting of the Committee convened to take Oral Evidence of the Ministry of Finance (Department of Revenue) on the Income Tax Bill, 2025. The Chairperson apprised the Committee that over a period of last two months, the Committee has held twenty five sittings (25) wherein detailed consultations took place with various stakeholders on the provisions contained in the Income Tax Bill, 2025. The Committee also undertook a Study Visit to Bengaluru and Mumbai from 13th to 17th May 2025 in this regard.

4. Further, the Chairperson drew the attention of the Witnesses to the scope and ambit of the Bill and to the 'Confidentiality' of the Proceedings of the Select Committee as stipulated in Direction 55(1) of the Directions by Speaker, Lok Sabha.The Chairperson then informed that the suggestions received from the stakeholders were forwarded to the Ministry in Batches . The replies of the Ministry on the suggestions contained in Batch-I and Batch-II have since been received and would be taken up for further consideration by the Committee.

5. Thereafter, the representatives of the Ministry of Finance (Department of Revenue) made a Power Point Presentation wherein a detailed summary of substantive issues raised in the suggestions and replies furnished therein was presented before the Committee. The Chairperson and the Members sought clarifications on the suggestions not accepted by the Ministry and the Witnesses responded to certain queries. Various issues like Power of Survey, Search and Seizure, War Injury Pension, taxation on income from Crypto currency, definition of demerger, faceless assessment, facility of updated returns, training and capacity building of Income Tax Commissioners and performance accountability, deletion of the word 'reasonably' from Section 9 of the Act etc. also came up for detailed discussions. On some of the issues, Secretary, Department of Revenue informed that a detailed Note will be submitted for the information of the Committee. Chairperson directed that these issues will be taken up for further discussion by the Committee during the ensuing Sittings. During the deliberations, the Committee observed that the representatives of the Department of Revenue accepted a number of drafting mistakes and inadvertent errors which had crept into the Bill. The Chairperson and Members emphasized on the crucial role of Legislative Department in vetting of Bills and advised the representatives of the Ministry of Law and Justice present in the Sitting to be more careful in future legislative drafting.

6. The Chairperson then directed that discussion on the replies given by the Ministry on the suggestions would be taken up Clause wise so that no suggestion is missed. The Committee then deliberated in detail on each suggestion of Batch 1 one by one from Serial No 1-120.

7. It was decided that certain issues/suggestions viz Tax treatment of fast – track demerger under Section 233 of Companies Act, Recognition of Skill Development Institutions as separate Charitable purpose, Recognition of Goodwill as a deductible item, Transfer Pricing Provisions etc. would be taken up for discussions during the next Sittings.

8. The Chairperson thereafter concluded the sitting and announced that the discussion will resume the next day from Serial No. 121. The representatives of the Ministry were also asked to furnish written replies to the queries of the Members that remained unanswered, to the Secretariat by 30.05.2025.

(The Witnesses then withdrew)

Ministry of Law and Justice (Department of Legal Affairs)

1. Dr. R.J.R. Kasibhatla, Joint Secretary & Legal Adviser

2. At the outset, the Chairperson welcomed the Members to the Thirtieth Sitting of the Select Committee convened to take Oral Evidence of the Ministry of Finance (Department of Revenue). Thereafter, the representatives of the Ministry of Finance (Department of Revenue), Central Board of Direct Taxes (CBDT) and the Ministry of Law and Justice were called in and their attention was drawn to the confidentiality of the proceedings, as specified in Direction 55(1) of the Directions by the Speaker, Lok Sabha.

3. The Chairperson then stated that the Committee had deliberated till Sl.No.402 (Clause 121) of the replies furnished by the Ministry of Finance (Department of Revenue) in Batch-III of the suggestions received from various stakeholders pertaining to the Income-tax Bill, 2025 and the Committee would resume deliberations from Sl.No.403 onwards. The Chairperson requested the Members to intervene and seek clarification on issues that are important and compelling. The Committee continued deliberations on Clauses 123 to 274 of the Income Tax Bill, 2025.

4. During the course of deliberations, the Chairperson and Members sought clarifications on various points which inter-alia include the following*:*

i. deductions in respect of maintenance including medical treatment of a dependant who is a person with disability,
ii. deductions for life insurance premium;
iii. deductions in respect of inter-corporate dividends;
iv. necessity of Unique Disability ID or the medical certificate for claiming deductions under Clause 154;
v. agreement with foreign countries or specified territories and GAAR provisions;
vi. computation of income from international transaction having regard to arm's length price;
vii. meaning of 'associated enterprise';
viii. tax on long term capital gains;
ix. Minimum Alternate Tax and Alternate Minimum Tax;
x. time limit for retention of impounded books of account or documents under Clause 246;
xi. ensuring right to privacy during search and seizure proceedings;
xii. time limit to issue directions under Clause 272 on certain cases by the Joint Commissioner(Income Tax);
xiii. Power of Survey;
xiv. faceless assessment.

5. The witnesses addressed the queries put forth by the Committee. During the deliberations, the representative from Ministry of Law and Justice clarified that it is the well-settled principle of drafting that after every clause there should be 'or'. If conjunctive is used, it may create problem. But 'or' is disjunctive and this matter is well-settled by courts also. They have also apprised the Committee that the Supreme Court judgment's is binding on the parties involved when it constitutes ratio decidendi. But the lawmaking authority, which is Parliament, can carve out and make a different law.

6. Additionally, the Chairperson emphasized that there should be a clean break from the existing Income Tax Act, 1961 and the new Bill should be self-contained even if it entails addition of a few more words. The Chairperson and Members also highlighted several critical points necessitating reconsideration by the Ministry and thorough examination by the Committee. These points inter-alia include:

i. separate and exclusive deduction for life insurance premium irrespective of the tax regime;
ii. deductions in respect of maintenance including medical treatment of a dependant who is a person with disability;
iii. usage of Unique Disability ID (UDID) issued under Rights of Persons with Disabilities (RPwD) Act, 2016;
iv. working of General Anti-Avoidance Rule (GAAR), Double Taxation Avoidance Agreement (DTAA) and Principal Purpose Test (PPT);
v. meaning of 'associated enterprise';
vi. benefits of Section 80M after its introduction in the Income Tax Act.
vii. arranging the Clauses in Chapter XII (Mode of payment in certain cases) in tabular form for better clarity and simplification;
viii. clarification whether surcharge would be included for computation of Minimum Alternate Tax(MAT);
ix. inclusive definition of 'qualifying ship';
x. providing for the computation mechanism in the Bill itself so that the Income-Tax Bill is self-contained.
xi. time limit to provide copies of books of accounts and other documents impounded;
xii. time limit for retention of items impounded;
xiii. issue pertaining to usage of the term 'any person' in certain Clauses;
xiv. statistics of success rate of raids;
xv. timeline for giving the copy of statement recorded;
xvi. search and seizure proceedings vis-à-vis privacy of individual;
xvii. providing copies of impounded books of accounts or other documents during survey.

7. The Committee considered and deliberated on the replies of the Ministry up to Serial No. 572 of Batch-III. The Chairperson stated that the discussion will resume from Serial No. 573 of Batch-III in the next Sitting. The Chairperson also acknowledged and placed on record the sustained hard work and diligence of the Members of the Committee and the Secretariat due to which the Committee has reached this stage of examination of the proposed Bill. The Chairperson also expressed his gratitude to the representatives of the Ministry of Finance who have put in enormous efforts and come prepared for the Sittings of the Committee. The Sitting thereafter concluded.

2. At the outset, the Chairperson welcomed the Members to the Thirty Third Sitting of the Select Committee convened to continue the ongoing sequence of Oral Evidences of the Ministry of Finance (Department of Revenue). Thereafter, the representatives of the Ministry of Finance (Department of Revenue), Central Board of Direct Taxes (CBDT) and the Ministry of Law and Justice were called in and their attention was drawn to the confidentiality of the proceedings, as specified in Direction 55(1) of the Directions by the Speaker, Lok Sabha.

3. The Chairperson then stated that the Committee had completed the deliberations with the Ministry of Finance (Department of Revenue) on all the four (04) Batches of the replies furnished by the Ministry of Finance (Department of Revenue) in response to the compilation of the suggestions received from various stakeholders pertaining to the Income-Tax Bill, 2025. The Chairperson further informed that the Committee would take up discussion with the Ministry on their replies to the first batch of List of Points (LoPs), comprising of 40 general queries. It was also stated that though replies from the Ministry on subsequent LoPs were awaited, the Ministry would be called again only if there was a compelling need to do so since most of these issues have already been discussed threadbare and the Committee can internally discuss the responses. The Committee then started with their deliberations on the Replies to the List of Points sequentially.

4. During the course of deliberations, the Chairperson and Members sought clarifications on various points which inter-alia include the following*:*

i. Definition of company in which the public is substantially interested with the definition given in the Companies Act;
ii. Definition of demerger with specific reference to Section 230, 231 and 232 of Companies Act and issues associated with fast track demerger;
iii. Double taxation relief and meaning of the word used in double taxation agreement as provisioned in Clause 159
iv. Definition of transfer pricing vis-à-vis arms length pricing associated with the definition of Associated Enterprises as mentioned in Clause 162 alongwith details of 162(1) and 162(2);
v. Issues related to royalty income from patents registered in India;
vi. Expansion of the definition of GDR to include units of business trusts as underlying securities;

viii. Issues related to faceless jurisdiction of the income tax authorities;
ix. Tribunal Reforms’ Act and the need for increasing the number of professionals;
x. Dispute Resolution Committee, issues associated with it alongwith increasing the amount ceiling from Rs. 50 Lakh to 1 Crore under its jurisdiction for resolution; Comparison of Dispute Resolution Committee (DRC) and Dispute Resolution Panel (DRP) and their functioning;
xi. Alternate Dispute Resolution Forum; Arbitration; Global best practices on these; Settlement Commission, etc.

5. The Witnesses responded to the queries put forth by the Committee. During the deliberations, on being asked to intervene, the representative from Ministry of Law and Justice clarified that though the word 'notwithstanding' have been used without prejudice save as otherwise provided, a decision was taken at the highest level that colonial wordings or jargons which irritated common man had to be replaced and was replaced with 'irrespective of'. The representative further clarified on 'Search and Seizure provisions' that suggestions for taking oath under a Magistrate was not required as it was a quasi-judicial process as stated by the Ministry of Finance. He also clarified on the Tribunal Reforms Act, 2021 under which Rules were framed for qualification, terms and conditions of Service of the Members of the Income Tax Appellate Tribunal (ITAT) and any amendment in the law has to be done by Parliament and as such, is a policy decision, beyond the scope of the Bill.

6. Thereafter, the Chairperson acknowledged and placed on record the sustained hard work and diligence of the Members of the Committee and the Secretariat due to which the Committee has progressed so far in the examination of the proposed Bill. The Chairperson also expressed his gratitude to the representatives of the Ministry of Finance for their sustained efforts and patient cooperation and appreciated that the Ministry had accepted a large number of the suggestions, which indicated open mindedness on their part.

At the outset, the Chairperson extended a warm welcome to all the Members and representatives from the Ministry of Law and Justice (Legislative Department and Legal Affairs) to the Thirty-Fifth Sitting of the Committee convened to hold internal deliberations of the Select Committee on the Income-Tax Bill, 2025.

3. Thereafter, the Chairperson briefed the Members on the work done by the Committee during the course of 34 Sittings where the Committee have undertaken thorough and methodical examination of the Bill including an intensive Clause-by-Clause review in the presence of representatives from the Ministry of Finance and CBDT and internal deliberations of the Members on the Bill during the previous Sittings. The Chairperson stated that the total number of hours of Sitting of the Committee amounted to more than 123 hours; total number of stakeholders who appeared before the Committee stood at 68; the total number of memoranda received was 286; total number of suggestions that have been accepted so far by the Ministry of Finance was 281 which included a mix of technical correction as well as several substantive recommendation that have significantly improved the draft legislation.

4. The Chairperson also informed the Members that the drafting of the Report was in progress and the draft Report alongwith the final draft of the Bill based on the general sense of the Committee will be taken up for adoption at the final Sitting. The Chairperson also drew the attention to the provision of Direction 81(1) of the Directions by the Speaker, Lok Sabha regarding submission of Memoranda on the Bill by the Members of the Committee.

5. During the course of Sitting, the Chairperson clarified certain core issues and grey areas in the Bill raised by the Members such as taxing the digital value loop and data-driven profits; the provisions relating to 'irrespective of,' 'according to,' and 'notwithstanding; taxability of reinvested funds in a charitable trust; definition of Cost Accountants; source of unexplained income; taxation provisions for NRIs; issues related to tax benefits to the Scheduled Tribe Areas, etc.

6. Thereafter, Chairperson acceded to the requests made by the Members to submit written suggestions, preferably within three days.

The Committee then adjourned.

A verbatim record of the proceedings has been kept.

Dissent Note/Suggestions on Income Tax Bill 2025

Respected Chairman Sir,

The Select Committee examining the Income Tax Bill 2025 has been working for past three months. Regular meetings have been held and very wide-ranging feedback has been gathered from stakeholders from across the country. Chartered Accountants, Firms with expertise in Tax Law, Industry bodies like FICCI, CII, trusts etc. all placed their views in front of the committee.

Rules 72 through 76 of Lok Sabha Rules of Procedure deal with Select Committees. Confidentiality and autonomy of operation are important precedents that have been set by previous Select Committees. The power to call expert opinions and suggest changes to the bill being examined are part and parcel of the responsibility of the Select Committee. In the present case, all the suggestions received by the esteemed Committee were sent to the Ministry of Finance for consideration, out of which 281 suggestions were accepted, most of them being minor changes.

I wish to put on record that an exercise of this magnitude could have achieved far more than the present proposed amendments. The power of Parliament to review laws passed by itself in due time is a powerful tool bestowed to ensure that over time with experience laws become more efficient and citizen friendly. Hence, the Income Tax Bill 2025 should have ideally reduced litigation, appeal decision periods and undue harassment of tax payees. Unfortunately, in its current form this is unlikely to happen. Despite so much feedback the Government has decided largely to simplify the language and make minor tweaks rather than dramatically change the Income Tax law to remove pain points for both the income tax payees and the assessing Government agencies.

The general feedback from stakeholders was that the proposed changes would increase likely scenarios for unnecessary harassment and litigation rather than reduce its scope. Just a small example is the proposed change that during a raid any person present may be detained for questioning as part of the investigation. House staff, relatives or visiting acquaintances are just some of the categories of people who may be detained even when they have nothing to do with any violation the house owner maybe committing. Power to investigate tax violations must always be balanced by sanctity of individual fundamental rights and liberty in a democracy.

Among the suggestions the most common were problems faced by tax payees and what changes could be made to fix the same. The 281 suggestions accepted however will do nothing to fix the common issues that most tax payees face. Few examples of sought changes by stake holders which could have been included are-

1. Demand for changes to law to ensure that majority appeals are decided in one year. For context there are lakhs of appeals pending at Commissioner Appeals level for years. A set timeline on appeals would ensure higher tax payee confidence in the procedure.

2. Demand for reducing powers proposed under Section 247- the wording of the section gives very wide-ranging power to the Government to force tax payees to hand over all types of personal digital data including passwords, chats etc. Most stakeholders demanded holding onto the wording of the 1961 Act in the interest of individual privacy and to respect the Hon'ble Supreme Court ruling on Right to Privacy as a Fundamental Right of individuals.
3. Demand for continuing with interpretations of clauses and words as per rulings of Hon'ble Supreme Court of India. The proposed changes to already settled questions of law and interpretation is likely to lead to an increase in litigation.
4. Demand for reducing overreaching power of assessment officers including Section 249 which allows the officer to deny providing the reasons for re-assessing to even the concerned tribunals. A clause specifying the circumstances under which re-assessment can take place would create a more transparent and equitable environment.
5. A revisit to relevant provisions of the Bill is required to reduce the challenges faced by large income tax payees with respect to income tax refunds and 20% advance for filing appeals.
6. The definition of "agricultural income" and its interpretation may not be changed from the 1961 Act to ensure that no undue pressure is put on farmers.

Sir, the above are a few examples from among the vast number of productive and useful suggestions we received. The actual number was quite large. Even at this stage I would request that we consider changing the language and incorporating the most useful of these suggestions to make the Income Tax Bill 2025 relevant to the needs of our nation's taxpayers in the year 2025.

16 July 2025

To: Chairman Income Tax Committee 2024

Shri Bayjant Panda

Lok Sabha Secretariat

Subject: Three suggestions for inclusion in the Income Tax Bill 2024 Annexure Suggestion 1: Assessment of Balance Sheet of Government

Today the government is only using P&L accounting, which does not include an Assessment of the Balance sheet of what the government owns. This is different from private enterprises and public sector units. By not doing accrual accounting the assets that are possessed by the government are not properly estimated and therefore their use, accurate accounting, upkeep and maintenance is not looked into with any degree of interest or accuracy. In addition, there are hidden assets that may not be visible to the Government, which once properly accounted can support a one of thrust for Viksit Bharat.

I propose that the government should also start accounting for its balance sheet, which will indicate to the government and to the general public the list of assets owned by the government. This will allow both the government and the public (who are ultimate owners of that asset) to better utilize them and maintain them.

Possible Next Steps:

This can be done by a one-off accounting that understands and documents the balance sheet value of the government followed by accounting every year that includes any new asset that the government creates or purchases.

Suggestion 2: Risk based Tax Accounting using Technology

Risk based tax accounting has been trailed in some countries. This implies that instead of treating each and every tax payer in a similar manner, a risk register is created and used to focus the efforts of the Tax department towards would be defaulter. Over a period of time, and using AI techniques this can be evolved to a point that many tax payers (those showing more compliant behaviour) are asked to file taxes, but are dropped from Tax Department scrutiny.

Such an approach would lessen the burden of assessment of the Tax department, alongside lowering the load of Tax assessment to the citizen who have shown behaviour that is not risky. This approach has been taken in some countries (as testified by many accounting firms in our Mumbai session).

Possible Next Steps:

After consulting with those countries that have trialled this out, we can learn from them to trial this in a few segments of the taxpaying population. After the success of such pilots, it can be scaled up across the country.

Suggestion 3: Training of IT Officials and Communication to Citizens

Income Tax training of officials and communication to citizens should be part of the process of introducing the Income Tax Bill 2024. This is required as with this process, while the letter of the Act has been simplified and shortened, the spirit of how officials and citizens behave should also be addressed.

In relation to Income Tax officials, we should institute extra training modules that inform them of the apprehension that came up in almost every sitting of the committee that many Income Tax officials still have an extractive mindset. While revenue loss must be protected, the Income Tax official has to follow rules that give the benefit of doubt to citizens, makes their Income Tax experience more agreeable, and dispose of their claims in a timely manner.

Similarly, the Income Tax Bill introduction and acceptance should be done with significant public communication. This public communication would outline how this bill is a result of bi-partisan support in the committee and the Parliament. It should also highlight the necessity of paying taxes in a clean and timely manner will help strengthen the nation. This has been done in a public participation or Janbhagidari mode for many programs like Ujjwala and Swachh Bharat, and a smaller form or public engagement will go a long way in participation of tax payers.

Both Officials and Tax payers at this point in spirit stand against each other. The suggested training and communication will go a long way in strengthening the gap between these two. This will ensure that the spirit behind the simplification of Income Tax Act is seen by both parties, leading to ease of implementation.

Possible Next Steps:

Such an effort would require creating additional training modules for Income Tax officials that focus on behavioural shifts. It would require coming out with a mass campaign similar to Ujjwala or other Janbhagidari schemes to outline the simplification and encourage citizens to take part more fully in the Tax Process.

Thanking you for your consideration to include this in the Annexure of the revised draft bill.

Yours sincerely,

No.1398/MP/KLM/2025 17/07/2025

Dear Shri. Baijayant Panda ji,

As per the directions of the Select Committee meeting dated 16th July 2025 of Income Tax Bill 2025, I am submitting my observations and suggestions regarding the Bill.

I. Introductory Remarks

Income Tax Bill 2025 is only proposing simplification of language and thematic consolidation of the Tax provisions. A new Income Tax law was tabled, the taxpayer community of this nation (which is a minority) were hoping for something pristine. This urge (in taxpayers) for the new law was due to (i) presence of several provisions in the statute which had lost their relevance / or were phased out; (ii) digital and technological disruptions in business necessitated newer tax norms; (iii) transformations in the international tax space; (iv) scattered provisions (largely due to piecemeal and patchy amendments); (v) complex language to accommodate the conditionalities and exceptions and scattered provisions which made reading of the provisions in a coordinated manner difficult. Concomitantly, there is pressure on the regulatory environment to absorb, assimilate and respond appropriately to such changes. The stage is therefore set for a 'change'. The schematics and manner of executing the change is a choice that the Government must make. The change must give India a new vision and reinforced mission.

A paradigm shift was felt the need of the hour. Overhaul at the policy level was required. The Government eulogizes that the new law would go by the mantra of "trust first and scrutinize later". The public trust can be won only if the promised change is transformational. The exercise of the new Income Tax Bill could woefully fail if it merely remains as a reformatting or semantic glorification of the law.

Therefore the amendment exercise must be carried out in 'substance' otherwise all the efforts would only be superficial. The new law should :

(a) Enhance the ease of doing business in India;

(b) It should attract talent and deter the brain drain;

(c) Induce modern and strong principles;

(d) The certainty, simplicity and justice dispensation should be the ethos of the new law;

(e) Secure tax that is fair and equitable.

There are a few 'feel good' factors in the Bill. To name a few:

(a) The size of the present income -tax statute has been substantially reduced. This weeds out the redundancy in the statute.

(b) The language is simpler and seems to be on the direction of 'ease of reading and understanding' the law, in the manner it ought to be. This is the hallmark of proficiency displayed in this creation.

(c) The simplified structure is a highlight of this Bill achieved by being bereft of multiple sub sections, explanation, provisos, clauses, sub-clauses and limbs. Cases of 'exceptions to exceptions' or 'double negatives' appear to be a matter of past. The uses of tables make the reading easier.

(d) The ‘no incentive’ policy which has been advocated for close to a decade now has been gradually implemented. The statute is moving away from the ‘induced behaviour’ regime.

(e) The effective, consistent, wide and deep use of technology in the compliance and administration of the tax system would increase the efficiency. It is expected that the AI would only tighten the technological snags.

In short, these are steps in the right direction. However, there are many and more concerns voiced by several doyens of tax at multiple forums. To name a few:

i. In an urge to trim the language, one cannot skim the ethos of the present matured statute. The ease of reading and conveying a legal concept clearly does not every time lie in cutting down by words.

ii. The statute is sought to be lightened by moving the operative sections to annexure in a tabular format. The accomplishment of ‘statute shrinking’ is at the cost of complex structure of tables into columns, rows, clauses, items therein.

iii. The choice or replacement of terms to render the Act ‘reader friendly’ has resulted in several avoidable irreconcilable inconsistencies.

iv. The transformation in the status of several provision (from proviso to sub-section or explanation to sub-section or operative portion to an annexure) merely to achieve a ‘proviso or explanations free law’ is likely to be at the cost of several interpretational issues.

v. Largely, no substantive changes have been made through the Bill. However, the few ones made appear to be lopsided and in favour of Revenue authorities without providing a rationale for such change.

The overhauling of the legislation is the need of the hour. The Government rightly took heed of the pulse of the nation. Simplicity and certainty in the legislation will boost the foreign investment and re-energize the economy. The Bill should steer away from multitude of tax regime such as AMT and MAT. The recharacterization of incomes (buy-back tax being recharacterised as dividend income) could defy the fundamental provisions of the statute. The empowering of legislative forums (ITAT, DRP CIT(A)) should be of utmost priority. Harmonisation of capital gains across various transactions will usher in uniformity. The Bill on proper execution could accelerate the country's run towards Saksham Bharat; Samrath Bharat; Naya Bharat.

Income - tax statute does not only address the needs of the exchequer. The construct of the Act is equally critical for the tax paying public; for administration of the industry; and for the judiciary. The present Act does not reflect the aspirations of all the segments. An exercise by one of them, professing to address concerns of all is bound to be short of the goals to be achieved.

Drafting an income-tax law for a country like India having a rich history of tax as a subject is herculean. The urge to draft such a law in short period reflects a prevalence of the time factor over quality. It seems to lack the intensity of effort to improve the law. The Bill does not reflect on whether a new draft was necessary when we have earlier drafts of 1998 and 2010. Could these have been used or improved upon?

Tax collection is important but building and winning the trust of the taxpayer is also of equal importance. However, the income - tax Bill, as it stands, is a drill that does not reflect the stated intent of the Parliament.

Some of the articles in the public domain echo this sentiment. The Bill should not cause aspersions on the intent of the Government. It could potentially be a heap of 'lost opportunities' which failed to plug the present anomalies, ambiguities and contradictions in the Act which indirectly would have ended several long standing litigative issues. Under the present dispensation, shorn of the redundant section(s) the statute would have become a manageable Act. The language may have remained complex, but familiarity would have eased the life.

II - Structural and Operational suggestions.

1. The savings clause which says that all the old provisions will continue consequent to the legislation of the new Act that will come into force on 01-04-2026. It is expected that all the old judgments and rulings interpretations by the judicial for a should be followed. Tax payers should not be subjected to fresh litigation all over again. This savings clause has been introduced with a view to reducing words. If the count of words could be compromised, it is desirable to capture the provisions in saving clauses as a separate section so that tax payers need not have to refer to two Acts.

2. In some sections, the existing word " where" have been replaced with "when" and "if". The impact, meaning and appropriateness of these inconsistent replacements in lieu of "where" may lead to unnecessary / divergent views on interpretation that may lead to uncalled for litigation.

3. There is a case to retain 'Notwithstanding' as against the proposed replacement viz. "Irrespective of" in view of the time -tested jurisprudence on the concept. The proposed change may lead to interpretational issues.

4. Replacing the words “According to’ by ‘As per’ in various sections may also lead to interpretational issues.

5. With regard to Funds that are eligible for deductions [S 80G of the it Act, 1961 clause 133 of the Bill, the list of funds may be taken to schedule so that it becomes easier for the legislature to add / delete funds.

II. Specific substantive suggestions.

1. Streamline tax regime - Remove the old regime

Current position: The coexistence of the of and new tax regimes causes significant complexity.

Suggestion:

To truly simplify the tax system, one of the primary objectives of the new Bill, it is recommended to completely phase out the old tax regime.

Many deductions (e.g., HRA [Section 10(13A)], LTA [Section 10(5)], political donations [Sections 80GGC] are sources of compliance issues and fake claims. Removing the old regime:

- Simplifies slabs and rates.
- Reduces manipulative tax planning.
- Decreases scrutiny and administrative burden.
- Enhances tax revenue by closing frequent loopholes.

Reference:

Old deductions allowed under Chapter VI-A and Section 10 exemptions; new Bill clauses referring to “eligible deductions and exemptions” can be pruned accordingly.

2. Simplify capital gains reinvestment exemptions.

Current position: Sections 54, 54EC, 54F etc contain multiple conditions (holding period, property type, timelines), creating significant litigation.

Suggestion: Retain reinvestment benefits but reduce the conditions and restrictions.

Possible steps:

- Standardize reinvestment period across sections.
- Allow broader reinvestment options (eg. Any residential property, not necessarily one).
- Simplify or merge multiple capital gain exemption sections under one clause in the Bill (Clauses 83-95) in the new Bill.

3. Revise Safe Harbour Margins

Current position: Safe Harbour Rules (SHR) under section 92CB and related CHBT notifications require high profit margins (e.g., 17% or more).

Suggestions:

Reduce safe harbour margins to around 12-14%, better aligned with typical transfer pricing margins derived from benchmarking studies.

- Encouraging more taxpayers to opt for SHR.
- Reduces transfer pricing litigation significantly.

Reference: Section 92CB of ITA 1961; Clause 15B (Transfer Pricing chapter) in the new Bill.

4. Rationalise TDS rates.

Current position:Multiple TDS rates across various sections (194C, 194J, 194H etc) create confusion and compliance errors.

Suggestion: Consolidate TDS rates to one or two standard service related rates. (eg. 2% and 5% or 10%), covering most payments.

- Simplifies the TDS schedules (now consolidated under Clauses 145-153 in the new Bill).
- Reduces errors and administrative overhead.

5. Extend deadline for revised and belated returns.

Current position: Revised returns deadline (currently December 31 of AY) applies equally to corporates and non- corporates, despite different original due dates (Section 139 (5))

Suggestion:

Extend deadline for filing revised and belated returns to March 41 of the assessment year, providing sufficient time to correct errors.

- Reduces pressure on tax payers and professionals.
- Improves voluntary compliance.

Reference: Section 139 (5) in ITA 1961; clause 260 (Return Filing Procedures) in the new Bill.

6.. Simplify carry forward and set-off rules.

Current position: Complex set-off rules across heads and for different types of losses (Sections 70 to 80).

Suggestion:

- Allow broader set-off across heads of income.
- Streamline loss carry forward provisions into a unified clause.

Reference : Sections 70-80 in ITA 1961; Clauses 105-115 in the new Bill.

7. Address double taxation on dividends.

Current position: Dividends are paid from post - tax profits and taxed again in shareholders hands (Section 115BBDA, post - abolition of DDT).

Suggestion:

- Permit dividend as a deductible expenditure for private limited companies.

- Tax dividends only in the hands of shareholders.

This change:

- Eliminates economic double taxation.

- Supports private business in distributing genuine profits without high tax cost.

Reference - Sections 115-0 and 115BBDA in ITA 1961, Clauses 96-102 in the new Bill.

8. Extend indexation benefit to NRIs.

Current position : NRIs cannot claim indexation on sale of immovable property (as per Section 48, proviso);

Suggestion: Reintroduce indexation benefit for NRIs, ensuring fair treatment and preventing forced work around strategies (e.g. gifting to residents)

- Aligns with equity principle.

- Reduces misuse and structuring.

Reference: Section 48 in ITA 1961; clauses 87-95 in the new Bill (Capital Gains).

9. Strengthen Advance Ruling mechanism.

Current position: Advance Ruling mechanism is slow and limited in scope.

Suggestion:

- Strenthen AAR with more manpower and resources.

-Allow any taxpayer (resident or non-resident, small or big) to seek ruling for future transactions.

- Charge only a nominal fee, making it more accessible.

Benefits:

- Significantly reduces future litigation.

- Provides certainty and confidence in tax positions.

Reference: Sections 245N to 245V in ITA 1961; clauses 290m- 295 in the new Bill.

10. Search and Seizure

Clause 247 (1) of the Income Tax Bill 2025 empowers the authorities to have access on the virtual digital platform of Assesse as part of investigation. This provision is arbitrary and excess powers to the authorities and there is every chance of misuse of this provisions and ultimately infringing the Right of Privacy of an individual guaranteed in the Constitution and reiterated by the Supreme Court in Puttuswamy's case. The existing provision of the IT Bill is sufficient to achieve the purpose. Hence it is suggested that the said provisions may be retained as such in the existing Bill.

Conclusion:

Select Committee was constituted for scrutinizing the bill clause by clause. The Committee can study the Bill in depth and make recommendations to the Government, often after extensive research and expert consultation. The purpose of the Select Committee will not be served if the Committee is not submit a recommendation to the Government on the basis of their study, expert opinion, discussion and decisions. The Bill was referred to the Committee for full fledged debate, discussions and recommendations for effective and fruitful legislation

It is an undisputed fact that the select committee of Parliament is empowered to make structural and procedural amendment to the Government Bills as the Parliament is supreme authority in Legislative process. Therefore the aforesaid suggestion may be considered positively in due course.

Sincerely yours,

CHAPTER II

BASIS OF CHARGE

Charge of income-tax.

4. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the income-tax for any tax year shall be charged () at the rate or rates which are enacted by a Central Act for such tax year.

(2) The charge of income-tax under sub-section (1) shall be on the total income of the tax year of every person as per the provisions of this Act.

(3) Income-tax shall also include any additional income-tax, by whatever name called, levied under this Act.

(4) If this Act provides that income-tax is to be charged in respect of income of a period other than the tax year, it shall be charged accordingly.

(5) For the income chargeable under () this section, income-tax shall be deducted or collected at source or paid in advance as provided under this Act.

Scope of total income.

5. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the total income of any tax year of a person, who is a resident, includes all income from whatever source derived, which—

(a) is received or deemed to be received in India in that year by or on behalf of the person; or

(b) accrues or arises, or is deemed to accrue or arise, to the person in India in that year; or

(c) accrues or arises to the person outside India in that year, but when such person is "not ordinarily resident" in India under section 6(13), it shall be included only when it is derived from a business controlled in or a profession set up in India.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the total income of a tax year of a person, who is a non-resident, includes all income from whatever source derived, which—

(a) is received or deemed to be received in India in that year by or on behalf of the person; or

(b) accrues or arises, or is deemed to accrue or arise, to the person in India in that year.

(3) Income accruing or arising outside India shall not be deemed to be received in India under this section by reason only of the fact that it is taken into account in a balance sheet prepared in India.

(4) If an income has been included in a person's total income on the basis that it—

(a) has accrued or arisen; or

(b) is deemed to have accrued or arisen, to the person, it shall not again be included on the basis that it is received or deemed to be received by the person in India.

Residence in India.

6. (1) For the purposes of this Act, residence in India of a person () shall be determined as per this section.

(2) An individual shall be resident in India in a tax year, if he—

(a) is in India for a total period of one hundred and eighty-two days or more in that tax year; or

(b) is in India cumulatively for sixty days or more during that year and has been in India cumulatively for three hundred and sixty-five days or more in the four years preceding such tax year.

(3) The provisions of sub-section (2)(b) shall not apply in the case of an individual who is a citizen of India and leaves India in any tax year—

(a) as a member of the crew of an Indian ship, as defined in section 3(18) of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1958; or

(3) The Central Government may make rules or issue notifications for the purposes of this section as specified in the Schedule VIII.

CHAPTER IV

COMPUTATION OF TOTAL INCOME

A.—Heads of income

Heads of income.

13. Save as otherwise provided in this Act, all incomes shall, for the purposes of charge of income-tax and computation of total income, be classified under the following heads of income:—

(a) Salaries;

(b) Income from house property;

(c) Profits and gains of business or profession;

(d) Capital gains; and

(e) Income from other sources.

Income not forming part of total income and expenditure in relation to such income.

14. (1) Irrespective of anything to the contrary contained in this Act, for the purposes of computing the total income under this Chapter, no deduction shall be allowed in respect of expenditure incurred by the assessee in relation to income which does not form part of the total income.

(2) Where the Assessing Officer, having regard to the accounts of the assessee, is not satisfied with—

(a) the correctness of the claim of expenditure incurred by the assessee; or

(b) the claim made by the assessee that no expenditure has been incurred, in relation to income which does not form part of the total income under this Act, he shall determine such amount of expenditure in accordance with any method, as prescribed.

(3) Irrespective of anything to the contrary contained in this Act, the provisions of this section shall apply in a case where any expenditure has been incurred during any tax year in relation to income which does not form part of the total income under this Act, but such income has not accrued or arisen or has not been received during that tax year.

B.—Salaries

Salaries.

15. (1) The following income shall be chargeable to income-tax under the head "Salaries":—

(a) 30% of the annual value of the property before computing municipal tax;

(b) where the property has been acquired, constructed, repaired, renewed or reconstructed with borrowed capital, the amount of any interest payable on such capital;

(c) where the capital referred in clause (b) is borrowed during any period prior to the tax year in which the property has been acquired or constructed, the amount of any interest payable for the said prior period in five equal installments for the said tax year and for each of the four immediately succeeding tax years.

(2) In case of property or properties referred to in section 21(6), the aggregate amount of deduction under sub-section (1)(b) shall not exceed—

(a) two lakh rupees, subject to the following conditions:—

(i) the property has been acquired or constructed with borrowed capital and such acquisition or construction is completed within five years from the end of tax year in which capital was borrowed;

()

(ii) the assessee furnishes a certificate from the person to whom interest is payable on such capital; and

(b) thirty thousand rupees in any other case.

(3) The deduction under () section 22(1)(c) shall be computed after reducing the interest referred to in the said section by any amount already allowed as a deduction under any other provisions of this Act.

(4) The certificate referred to in sub-section (2) shall specify—

(a) the amount of interest payable on capital borrowed; and

(b) the interest payable on any new loan, where subsequent to the capital borrowed, the assessee has taken any such loan for repayment of whole or any part of such capital.

(5) The aggregate of the amounts of deduction under sub-section (2) in respect of properties of the nature referred to in section 21(6) shall not exceed two lakh rupees.

(6) Any interest chargeable under this Act which is payable outside India shall not be allowed as a deduction under this section, if—

(a) tax has not been paid or deducted on such interest under Chapter XIX-B; and

(b) in respect of such interest, there is no agent in India as per section 306.

Arrears of rent and unrealised rent received subsequently.

23. (1) The amount of arrears of rent received by an assessee from a tenant or the unrealised rent realised subsequently from a tenant shall be deemed to be the income from house property in respect of the tax year in which such rent is received or realised.

(2) The amount deemed to be income from house property under sub-section (1) shall be included in the total income of the assessee under the head "Income from house property", whether the assessee is the owner of the property or not in that tax year.

(3) A sum equal to 30% of the arrears of rent or the unrealised rent referred to in sub-section (1) shall be allowed as deduction.

Property owned by co-owners.

24. (1) For property co-owned with definite and ascertainable share, the co-owners shall not be assessed as an association of persons and their income computed separately under this Part of Chapter IV as per their respective share shall be included in their total income.

(2) The relief available under section 21(6) shall be provided as if each co-owner is individually entitled to the said relief.

Interpretation.

25. For the purposes of sections 20 to 24, the "owner" in relation to a property shall include—

(a) it has been taken into account in computing the income of the assessee of the tax year in which it is written off, or any earlier tax year, or represents the money lent in the ordinary course of the business of banking or money lending which is carried on by the assessee;

(b) if the amount ultimately recovered on any such debt or part of debt is less than the difference between the debt or part and the amount so deducted, the deficiency shall be deductible in the tax year in which the ultimate recovery is made;

(c) where it relates to an assessee to which sub-section (1) applies,—

(i) only that amount which exceeds the credit balance in the provision for bad and doubtful debts account made under that sub-section shall be allowed as deduction;

(ii) it shall be allowed only when the assessee has debited such amount in that tax year to the provision for bad and doubtful debts account made under that sub-section; and

(d) the account referred to in clause (c) shall be only one such account under sub-section (1) and such account shall be related to all types of advances, including advances made by rural branches.

(3) For the purposes of () sub-section (2),—

(a) any bad debt or part of it written off as irrecoverable shall not include any provision for bad and doubtful debt;

(b) any amount of bad debt or part of it, which has been taken into account in computing the income of the assessee of the tax year in which the amount of bad debt or part of it becomes () irrecoverable or of an earlier tax year, as per income computation and disclosure standards notified under section 276(2) without recording it in the accounts, shall be allowed as a deduction in computing the income of the assessee of the tax year in which it becomes irrecoverable and such bad debt or part of it shall be deemed to be written off as () irrecoverable in the accounts for the purposes of sub-section (2).

Other deductions.

32. () The following amounts shall be allowed as deduction in computing income chargeable under section 26:—

(a) bonus or commission paid to an employee for services rendered, but only when such sum would not have been payable to the employee as profits or dividend if it had not been paid as bonus or commission;

(b) interest paid in respect of capital borrowed for the purposes of business or profession, where—

(iii) is not installed in any office premises or any residential accommodation, including accommodation in the nature of a guest house;

(iv) is not in the nature of any office appliances or road transport vehicle; and

(v) is not an asset on which the whole of the actual cost is allowed as a deduction (whether by way of depreciation or otherwise) in computing the income under the head "Profits and gains of business or profession" of any tax year.

(9) The additional deduction referred to in sub-section (8) shall be,—

(a) if the new plant and machinery is acquired and put to use for one hundred and eighty days or more in the relevant tax year, 20% of the actual cost of the new machinery or plant in the tax year when it is acquired and put to use; () and

(b) in other cases, 10% of the actual cost, and the remaining 10% () shall be allowed in the immediately succeeding tax year.

(10) The difference between the written down value and the moneys payable including the scrap value, if any, shall be allowed as deduction when any tangible asset in respect of which depreciation is claimed and allowed under sub-section (2)—

(a) is sold, discarded, demolished or destroyed in the tax year not being the tax year in which it is first put into use;

(b) the moneys payable including the scrap value, if any, is less than its written down value; and

(c) such deficiency is actually written off in the books of account of the assessee.

(11) (a) Where the profits and gains chargeable for the tax year before allowing the deduction under sub-section (1) is less than the allowable deduction under that sub-section, then—

(i) if such profits and gains is not a loss, the deduction under sub-section (1) shall be allowed to the extent of the available profits and gains;

(ii) if such profits and gains is a loss, no deduction under sub-section (1) shall be allowed;

(b) the amount of deduction which has not been allowed under clause (a) shall be added to the allowable deduction under this section, whether available or not, for the succeeding tax year and the total amount shall be deemed to be eligible for deduction in that year, and so on for the succeeding tax years;

(c) the provisions of this sub-section shall be subject to the provisions of sections 112(3) and 113(4); and

(d) any deduction in respect of any depreciation carried forward to the succeeding tax year under this sub-section shall be deemed to be depreciation "actually allowed".

(12) In this section,—

(a) "assets" mean—

(i) tangible assets, being buildings, machinery, plant or furniture;

(ii) intangible assets being—

(A) know-how;

(B) patents;

(C) copyrights;

(D) trademarks;

(E) licences;

(F) franchises; or

(a) any amount on account of—

(i) tax paid on income; or

(ii) tax paid by employer referred to in Schedule III (Table: Sl. No. 10); or

(iii) tax paid in any other country for which relief is eligible under section 159 or 160, and shall include any surcharge or cess on such tax, by whatever name called;

(b)(i) 30% of any sum payable to a resident on which tax is deductible at source under Chapter XIX-B and during the tax year, such tax has not been deducted or after deduction, has not been paid up to the due date specified in section 263(1), where—

(A) in respect of any such sum, tax is deducted () in any subsequent year, or is deducted during the tax year but paid after the due date specified in section 263(1), 30% of such sum shall be allowed as a deduction in computing the income () of the tax year, in which such tax has been paid;

(B) the assessee is required to and fails to deduct whole or any part of the tax under Chapter XIX-B but he is not deemed to be an assessee in default under section 398(2), then for the purposes of this sub-clause, the assessee shall be deemed to have deducted and paid the tax on such sum on the date on which the return has been filed by the payee referred to in section 398(2);

(ii) any interest, royalty, fees for technical services or other sum chargeable under this Act which is payable—

(A) outside India; or

(B) in India to a non-resident (which is not a company) or to a foreign company, on which tax is deductible at source under Chapter XIX-B and during the tax year, such tax, has not been deducted or after deduction, has not been paid up to the due date specified in section 263(1), where—

(I) tax is deducted and paid during any subsequent tax year, deduction of such sum shall be allowed as a deduction in computing the income in any subsequent tax year, in which such tax has been paid;

(II) the assessee is required to and fails to deduct whole or any part of the tax under Chapter XIX-B but he is not deemed to be an assessee in default under section 398(2), then for the purposes of this sub-clause the assessee shall be deemed to have deducted and paid the tax on such sum on the date on which the return has been filed by the payee as referred to in section 398(2);

(iii) any payment to a provident or other fund established for the benefit of employees of the assessee, unless the assessee has made effective arrangements to secure that tax shall be deducted at source under Chapter XIX-B from any payments made from the fund which are chargeable to tax under the head "Salaries";

(c) any payment chargeable under the head "Salaries", payable outside India or to a non-resident on which tax is deductible at source under Chapter XIX-B and such tax has not been deducted or, after deduction, has not been paid;

(d) any amount—

(i) paid by way of royalty, licence fee, service fee, privilege fee, service charge or any other fee or charge, by whatever name called, which is levied exclusively on; or

(ii) which is appropriated, directly or indirectly from a State Government undertaking by the State Government;

(e) the expenditure incurred by a firm, assessable as such—

(i) in the nature of salary, bonus, commission or remuneration, by whatever name called (herein referred as remuneration) to a partner, who is not a working partner; or

(ii) on the remuneration to a working partner and interest to any partner, if it is—

(A) not authorised by the partnership deed applicable for the period for which such remuneration or interest is paid; or

(B) authorised by and is as per the terms of partnership deed but relates to the period prior to the date of such partnership deed, or which was not authorised by the earlier partnership deed; or

(iii) on the aggregate remuneration to all working partners as authorised by the partnership deed, exceeding the amount computed as under:—

(A) on the first six lakh rupees of the book profit or in case of a loss, three lakh rupees or 90% of the book profit, whichever is higher;

(B) on the balance of the book profit at the rate of 60%; or

(iv) on interest to any partner as authorised by the partnership deed, exceeding 12% simple interest per annum, so, however, that--

(A) () where an individual is a partner in a firm, on behalf, () or for the benefit, of any other person (such partner and the () other person shall be referred to as () "partner in a representative () capacity" and the "person so represented", respectively,

(I) interest paid by the firm to such individual otherwise than as partner in a representative capacity shall not be taken into account for the purposes of this clause;()

(II) interest paid by the firm to such individual as partner in a representative capacity and interest paid by the firm to the person so represented shall be taken into account for the purposes of this clause;

(B) () where an individual is a partner in a firm otherwise than as partner in a representative capacity, interest paid by the firm to such individual shall not be taken into account for the purposes of this clause, if such interest is received by him on behalf, or for the benefit, of any other person

(C) ***()

(D) ()

(v) In this clause—

(A) "book profit" means the net profit, as shown in the profit and loss account for the relevant tax year, computed as per Chapter IV-D as increased by the aggregate amount of the remuneration to all the partners of the firm, if such amount has been deducted while computing the net profit;

(B) "working partner" means an individual who is actively engaged in conducting the affairs of the business or profession of the firm of which he is a partner;

(f) the expenditure incurred by an association of persons or a body of individuals (other than a company, or a co-operative society or society registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860, or under any law corresponding to that Act in force in any part of India)—

21 of 1860.

(i) in the nature of interest, salary, bonus, commission or remuneration, by whatever name called, made to a member of such association or body;

(ii) where the interest has been paid by the association or the body to its member and such member has also paid interest to the association or the body, then only such excess interest, if any, paid by the association or body shall not be allowed under sub-clause (i);

(iii) where an individual is a member of an association or a body on behalf, or for benefit of any other person, such member and any other person shall be referred as "representative member" and "person so represented", respectively, then, the provisions of this clause—

(A) shall not be applicable in respect of interest paid to or received from such individual not being a representative member;

(B) shall be applicable in respect of interest paid to or received from an individual as a representative member and the person so represented;

(C) shall not be applicable in respect of interest paid to a member, otherwise than as representative member, on behalf or for the benefit of any other person.

Expenses or payments not deductible in certain ()circumstances.

36. (1) The provisions of this section shall have effect irrespective of anything to the contrary contained in any other provision of this Act relating to computation of income under the head "Profits and gains of business or profession".

(2) If the assessee incurs any expenditure for which payment has been or is to be made to any "specified person", which in the opinion of the Assessing Officer is excessive or unreasonable having regard to the—

(a) fair market value of the goods, services or facilities; or

(b) legitimate needs of the business or profession of the assessee; or

(c) benefit derived by or accruing to the assessee therefrom, so much of the expenditure as considered excessive or unreasonable by him shall not be allowed as a deduction.

(2) For the purposes of sub-section (2),—

(a) "specified person",—

(i) in relation to an assessee mentioned in column B of the Table below, shall be the person referred to in column C thereof:—

Table

Sl. No.	Assessee	Specified person
A	B	C
1.	Individual.	Any relative of the assessee.
2.	Company.	Any director of the company or his relative.
3.	Firm.	Partner of the firm or his relative.
4.	Association of persons.	Member of the association or his relative.
5.	Hindu undivided family.	Member of the family or his relative.

(ii) shall mean any person being an individual or company or firm or association of persons or Hindu undivided family having substantial interest in the business or profession of the assessee, or any director, partner, member thereof or any relatives of such individual, director, partner, member or any other company in which the first mentioned company has substantial interest;

(iii) shall mean a company, firm, association of persons, or Hindu undivided family whose director, partner or member has substantial interest in the business or profession of the assessee, or any director, partner or member thereof and their relatives, as the case may be;

(iv) shall mean any person carrying on a business or profession, in which assessee, being—

(A) an individual or his relative; or

(B) a company, its directors or their relatives; or

(C) a firm, its partners or their relatives; or

(D) an association of persons, its members or their relatives; or

(E) a Hindu undivided family, its members or their relatives, has substantial interest in the business or profession of such person;

(b) a person is deemed to have "substantial interest in the business or profession" if, at any time during the tax year, such person is—

(i) the beneficial owner of shares (not being shares entitled to fixed rate of dividend with or without a right to participate in profits) carrying at least 20% of the voting power, in case of assessee being a company; and

(ii) entitled to at least 20% of the profits of the business or profession in any other case, at any time during the tax year.

(4) Where any expenditure incurred by the assessee and payment or aggregate of payments made in a day to a person is exceeding ten thousand rupees and is not made through specified banking or online mode, then the expenditure by way of such payments shall not be allowed as a deduction.

(5) Where any deduction was made in any preceding tax year for a liability incurred for any expenditure and payment in respect of such liability is made during a subsequent tax year and if such payment or aggregate of payments made in a day to a person exceeds ten thousand rupees and is not made through specified banking or online mode, such payment shall be deemed to be the income under the head "Profits and gains of business or profession" in such subsequent tax year.

(6) For the purposes of sub-sections (4) and (5), the figure "ten thousand rupees" shall be read as "thirty-five thousand rupees" in case the payment is made for plying, hiring or leasing of goods carriages.

(7) The provisions of sub-sections (4) and (5) shall not be applicable in cases and circumstances, as prescribed, having regard to the nature and extent of banking facilities available, considerations of business expediency and other relevant factors.

(8) Nothing (with reference to mode of payment) contained in any other law in force or in any contract, shall apply in respect of any payment which has been made through specified banking or online mode, in compliance of sub-sections (4) to (7), and no plea shall be allowed to be raised, in any suit or other proceeding on the ground that the payment was not made or tendered in cash or in mode other than through specified banking or online mode.

(9) No deduction or allowance shall be allowed in respect of marked to market laws or other expected loss, except as allowable under section 32(1)(h).

Certain deductions allowed on actual payment basis only.

37. (1) The () sums payable, as specified in sub-section (2), which are otherwise allowable as a deduction under this Act, shall be allowed as a deduction while computing the income chargeable under section 26 only in the tax year in which such sums are actually paid irrespective of—

(a) any provision to the contrary in this Act; or

(b) method of accounting regularly followed; or

(c) the tax year in which the liability was incurred.

(2) The sums payable by an assessee referred to in sub-section (1), shall be—

(a) tax, duty, cess, surcharge or fee, by whatever named called, levied under any law in force;

(b) contribution of the employer to a provident fund or superannuation fund or gratuity fund or any fund for the welfare of employees;

(c) amount payable by employer in lieu of any leave at the credit of the employee;

(d) any sum referred to in section 32(a);

(e) interest on loans or advances or borrowings from specified financial entities as per the terms and conditions of the agreement governing such loans or advances or borrowings;

(f) amount payable to the Indian Railways for use of railway assets; or

(g) amount payable by the assessee to a micro or small enterprise beyond the time limit specified in section 15 of the Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises Development Act, 2006. 27 of 2006.

(3) In case the amounts specified in sub-section (2), except the sum referred to in clause (g) thereof, are paid after the end of the tax year in which the liability was incurred, but on or before the due date of filing of return of income under section 263(1) for such tax year, the deduction towards such sum shall be allowed in such tax year.

(4) If interest on loans or advances or borrowings specified in sub-section (2)(e) is converted into a loan or advance or debenture or any other instrument by which the liability to pay is deferred to a future date, then it shall not be deemed to have been actually paid.

(5) If a deduction in respect of any sum payable under sub-section (2) has already been allowed in any tax year when such liability was incurred, it shall not be allowed again in any subsequent tax year when paid.

(6) The provisions of this section shall not apply to a sum received by the assessee from any employee as contribution towards any of the funds referred to in section 2(49)(o).

(7) For the purposes of this section, "specified financial entities" means a public financial institution or State Finance Corporation or State Industrial Investment Corporation or such class of non-banking financial companies as may be notified by the Central Government or scheduled banks or co-operative banks (other than a primary agricultural credit society or a primary co-operative agricultural and rural development bank);

Certain sums deemed as profits and gains of business or profession.

(8) For the purposes of sub-section (2)(a), as in force at all material times, "the sum payable" means a sum for which the assessee incurred liability in the tax year even though such sum might not have been payable within that year under the relevant law.

38. (1) The following sums shall be deemed to be profit and gains of business or profession and shall be chargeable to income-tax, in the manner specified below, subject to the provisions of sub-section (2):—

(a) where an allowance or deduction has been allowed in respect of any loss, expenditure or trading liability incurred by the assessee during any tax year, then,—

(i) the value of any benefit accruing to the assessee by way of cessation or remission of such trading liability, including a unilateral act of write-off of such liability in his accounts, in the tax year in which such benefit accrues; or

(ii) any amount obtained by the assessee, whether in cash or otherwise, in respect of such loss or expenditure incurred, in the tax year in which the amount is obtained, whether the business or profession in respect of which the allowance or deduction was made is in existence in that year or not;

(b) in a case where any tangible asset, which is owned by assessee, is sold, discarded, demolished or destroyed, and the money payable for the asset, together with the scrap value [A] exceeds the written down value of the assets [C], the sum as computed below, in the tax year in which the money payable for the tangible asset becomes due—

(i) where the money payable for the asset together with the scrap value [A] is less than the actual cost of the asset [B], then—

[A] – [C]; or

(ii) in any other case,

[B] – [C];

(c) in a case where an asset representing expenditure of a capital nature on scientific research, referred to in section 45(1)(a) or (c) is sold, without having been used for other purposes, and the sale proceeds together with the total deductions allowed under that section exceed the amount of capital expenditure, the excess or the amount of deduction so made, whichever is less, in the tax year in which the asset was sold;

(d) in a case where a deduction has been allowed for a bad debt (or part of it) under the provisions of section 31(2), and any amount subsequently recovered exceeds the difference between such debt and the amount allowed, then the amount in excess, in the tax year in which recovery is made;

(e) in a case where a deduction has been allowed for any special reserve created and maintained under the provisions of section 32(e), any amount subsequently withdrawn from such reserve, in the tax year in which the amount is withdrawn.

(2) The provisions of sub-section (1) shall apply subject to fulfilment of the following conditions:—

(a) in respect of sub-section (1)(a), only when an allowance or deduction has been made in assessment for any () tax year towards the trading liability, loss or expenditure incurred;

(b) in respect of sub-section (1)(b), only when the asset owned by the assessee, has been used for the purpose of business, and depreciation has been claimed and allowed thereon under section 33(2);

(c) in respect of sub-section (1)(c) of the said sub-section, only when the assets has not been used for other purposes.

(3) Where the business or profession referred to in this section is no longer in existence and there is income chargeable to tax under sub-section (1)(a), (c), (d) and (e), in respect of that business or profession, any loss, not being a loss sustained in speculation business, which arose in that business or profession during the tax year in which it ceased to exist and which could not be set off against any other income of that tax year shall, so far as may be, be set off against the income chargeable to tax under the said clauses of that sub-section.

(4) In respect of sums referred to in sub-section (1)(a), if the benefit accrues to, or amount is obtained, by the successor in business, the value of benefit or the amount shall be chargeable to income-tax as income in the hands of successor in business.

(5) The provisions of sub-section (1)(b), (c), (d) and (e) shall apply in a tax year even if the business is no longer in existence.

(6) In this section,—

(a) "sold" includes a transfer by way of exchange or a compulsory acquisition under any law for the time being in force but does not include a transfer, in a scheme of amalgamation, of any asset by the amalgamating company to the amalgamated company where the amalgamated company is an Indian company;

(b) "successor in business"means and includes—

(i) the amalgamated company, where there has been an amalgamation;

(ii) the resulting company, where there has been a demerger;

(iii) where the assessee is succeeded by any other person in that business or profession, that other person;

(iv) where a firm carrying on a business or profession is succeeded by another firm, that other firm.

Computation of actual cost.

39. (1) The actual cost of an asset used for the purposes of the business or profession shall be the actual cost to the assessee as, reduced by the following amounts:—

(a) part of cost of asset, if any, met by any other person or authority, directly or indirectly;

(b) goods and services tax paid in respect of which input tax credit has been claimed and allowed under the relevant law;

(c) additional duty leviable under section 3 of the Customs Tariff Act, 1975 in respect of which a claim of credit has been made and allowed under the Central Excise Rules, 1944; 51 of 1975.

(d) subsidy, grant or reimbursement, by whatever name called, if any, relatable to the acquisition of the asset, received, directly or indirectly, by the assessee from—

(i) the Central Government;

(ii) a State Government;

(iii) any authority established under any law; or

(iv) any other person.

(2) The payment or aggregate of payments exceeding ten thousand rupees in a day for acquisition of an asset, made to a person in a mode otherwise than by specified banking or online mode, shall be excluded from the actual cost of the asset.

(3) In a case where the subsidy, grant or reimbursement referred to in sub-section (1)(d) is not directly relatable to the asset acquired, the amount of reduction under sub-section (1)(d) shall be determined as under:

$$A \times \left(\frac{B}{C}\right)$$

Where,—

A = total amount of subsidy, grant or reimbursement not directly relatable to the asset;

B = cost of the asset acquired for which actual cost is to be determined;

C = cost of all the assets in respect of or in reference to which the subsidy or grant or reimbursement is so received.

(4) In circumstances specified under column B of the Table below, the actual cost of the capital asset shall be as specified in column C thereof.

Table

Sl. No.	Specified circumstances	Determination of actual cost
A	B	C
1.	Where capital asset is transferred by an amalgamating company to an amalgamated company being an Indian company in a scheme of amalgamation.	Actual cost to amalgamated company shall be the same as it would have been if the amalgamating company had continued to hold such capital asset for the purpose of its own business.
2.	Where capital asset is transferred by a demerged company to a resulting company being an Indian company in a demerger.	Actual cost to resulting company shall be the same as it would have been, if the demerged company had continued to hold such asset for the purpose of its own business, which shall not exceed the written down value of such capital asset in the hands of demerged company.

A	B	C
3.	Where inventory is converted into capital asset.	Fair Market Value as on date of conversion, as determined in the manner as prescribed.
4.	Where capital asset is acquired by the assessee by way of gift or inheritance.	Actual cost to previous owner as reduced by the depreciation allowable up to the immediately preceding tax year, as if such asset was the only asset in the relevant block of asset.
5.	Where a building, being the property of the assessee, is put to use for the purpose of business or profession during the tax year.	Actual cost of the building as reduced by the depreciation— (a) that would have been allowable had the building been used for the purpose of business from the date of acquisition; and (b) calculated at the rate in force on the date on which such asset was put to use for business.
6.	Where capital asset is transferred by— (a) a holding company to its subsidiary company; or (b) a subsidiary company to its holding company, and the conditions of section 70(1)(c) and (d) are satisfied.	Actual cost to the transferee-company shall be the same as it would have been, if the transferor company had continued to hold such asset for the purpose of its own business.
7.	Where a capital asset, which previously belonged to the assessee, is reacquired by the assessee.	(a) Actual cost of the asset in the hands of assessee, when it was first acquired, as reduced by the depreciation allowable up to the immediately preceding tax year, as if such asset was the only asset in the relevant block of asset; or (b) actual price for which such asset is reacquired by the assesse, whichever is lower.
8.	Where the capital asset is acquired by the assessee from previous owner and subsequently asset is given back to the previous owner by way of lease, hire or otherwise, and— (a) the asset was being used for the purpose of business by the previous owner; and (b) depreciation has been claimed by the previous owner.	Actual cost of asset to the assessee shall be the written down value of the asset in the hands of the previous owner at the time of transfer by the previous owner.

A	B	C
9.	Where the capital asset is used in business after it ceases to be used for scientific research related to that business and a deduction is allowable under section 33(3).	Actual cost of asset as reduced by deduction allowed for the capital asset under section 45(1)(a) or (c) or under any corresponding provision of the Income-tax Act, 1961(43 of 1961).
10.	Where the assessee had acquired an asset outside India, as a non-resident, and the asset is brought by him to India and put to use in business or profession in India.	Actual cost of the asset as reduced by the depreciation— (a) that would have been allowable had the asset been used for the purpose of business or profession in India since the date of its acquisition; and (b) calculated at the rate in force.
11.	Where capital asset is acquired under the scheme of corporatisation of a recognised stock exchange approved by the Securities and Exchange Board of India.	Actual cost of the asset, as if there was no corporatisation.
12.	(a) Where deduction under section 46 was allowed or allowable in respect of the capital asset— (i) to the assessee; or (ii) to any person and the assessee acquires or receives such asset through special modes of acquisition from such person.	Actual cost shall be deemed to be nil.
	(b) Where deduction allowed under section 46 in respect of a capital asset becomes deemed income as per section 46(9)(b).	Actual cost of the asset as reduced by the depreciation,— (a) that would have been allowable had the asset been used for the purpose of business since date of acquisition; and (b) calculated at the rate in force.
13.	Where any amount is paid or payable as interest in connection with the acquisition of an asset.	Actual cost shall not include so much of such amount as is relatable to any period after such asset is first put to use.

(5) Irrespective of anything contained in sub-section (4), in a case where the asset is acquired by the assessee, its actual cost shall be determined by the Assessing Officer having regard to all the circumstances of the case, subject to the following conditions:—

(a) the asset was used by any other person for the purposes of his business, before such acquisition; and

(b) the Assessing Officer is satisfied that the main purpose of the transfer of the asset was to reduce tax liability (by claiming depreciation on enhanced actual cost) directly or indirectly.

(6) The determination of actual cost under sub-section (5) shall be made with the prior approval of the Joint Commissioner.

(7) In this section, "special modes of acquisition" means acquisition—

(a) by way of a gift or will or an irrevocable trust; or

(b) upon distribution on the liquidation of a company; or

(c) by such mode of transfer as is referred to in section 70(1)(a), (c), (d), (e), (j), (zd), (ze) and (zf).

Special provision for computation of cost of acquisition of certain assets.

40. (1) For the purposes of computation of income under the head "Profits and gains of business or profession", cost of acquisition of an asset acquired by—

(a) an amalgamated company under a scheme of amalgamation; or

(b) an assessee, under a gift, or will, or an irrevocable trust, or on total or partial partition of a Hindu undivided family, when sold as stock-in-trade shall be the sum of—

(i) cost of acquisition of the said asset in the hands of the amalgamating company in case of clause (a), or the transferor or donor in case of clause (b);

(ii) any cost of improvement made;

(iii) any expenditure incurred by the amalgamating company or transferor or donor wholly and exclusively in connection with such transfer.

(2) This section shall not apply to an asset referred to in section 67(6).

Written down value of depreciable asset.

41. (1) For the purposes of different provisions for computation of income under the head "Profits and gains of business or profession", written down value for the tax year shall be as mentioned in column C of the Table below:—

Table

Sl. No.	Circumstances	Written down value
A	B	C
1.	In case the asset is acquired in the tax year.	Actual cost to the assessee.
2.	In case the asset is acquired before the tax year.	Actual cost to the assessee less depreciation actually allowed under this Act or the Income-tax Act, 1961.
3.	In case of block of assets.	[(A-D)+ B-C]-E.

43 of 1961.

Note:— For serial No.3, column C,—

A = the written down value of the block of assets in the immediately preceding tax year;

B = actual cost of any asset falling within that block, acquired during the tax year;

C = moneys payable together with scrap value, if any, in respect of any asset falling within the block, which is sold, transferred, demolished, destroyed or discarded during the tax year, where "C" shall not exceed (A-D)+B;

D = depreciation actually allowed in respect of block of assets in relation to the said immediately preceding tax year;

E = in the case of a slump sale, the actual cost of the asset falling within that block as reduced by depreciation allowable from the tax year 1988-1989 onwards, as if the asset was the only asset in the relevant block of assets, which shall not exceed [(A-D)+B-C].

4.	Where any asset, forming part of a block of assets is transferred by a demerged company to a resulting company.	Written down value of block of assets— (a) for demerged company (), shall be the written down value in the immediately preceding tax year as reduced by the written down value of the assets transferred to the resulting company pursuant to such demerger; (b) for resulting company, shall be the written down value of the assets transferred from the demerged company immediately before such demerger.
5.	Where any block of assets is transferred by a private company or unlisted public company to a limited liability partnership and the conditions in section 70(1)(ze) are satisfied.	Written down value in the hands of limited liability partnership shall be written down value in the hands of said company as on the date of conversion of the company into limited liability partnership.
6.	Where any asset forming part of the block of assets is transferred to a company under the scheme of corporatisation of a recognised stock exchange in India approved by the Securities and Exchange Board of India.	Written down value of the block of assets in the hands of resulting company, shall be the written down value of the assets transferred immediately before such transfer.

A	B	C
8.	In a case of succession in business or profession under section 313, where an assessment is made in the hands of successor under section 313 (2).	Written down value of any asset or block of assets shall be the amount which would have been taken as its written down value, if the assessment had been made directly on the person succeeded to.

(1A)Where any block of assets is transferred by—

(a) a holding company to its subsidiary company and the conditions of section 70(1)(c) are satisfied;

(b) a subsidiary company to its holding company and the conditions of section 70(1)(a) are satisfied; or

(c) amalgamating company to the amalgamated company, in a scheme of amalgamation, being an Indian company then the actual cost of the block of assets, irrespective of anything contained in section 39, in the hands of transferee company or amalgamated company, as the case may be, shall be the same as written down value of the block of asset as in the case of the transferor company or the amalgamating company in the immediately preceding tax year as reduced by depreciation actually allowed in respect of that block of assets in relating to that tax year.

(2) Any allowance in respect of any depreciation carried forward under section 33(11) shall be deemed to be the depreciation actually allowed.

(3) Where an assessee was not required to compute his total income for the purposes of this Act for any tax year or tax years preceding the tax year under consideration,—

(a) the actual cost of an asset shall be adjusted by the amount attributable to the revaluation of such asset, if any, in the books of account;

(b) the total amount of depreciation on such asset provided in the books of account of the assessee in respect of such tax year or tax years preceding the tax year under consideration shall be deemed to be the depreciation actually allowed under this Act for the purposes of this clause; and

(c) the depreciation actually allowed under clause (b) shall be adjusted by the amount of depreciation attributable to such revaluation of the asset.

(4) For the purposes of this section, where the income of an assessee is derived, in part from agriculture and in part from business chargeable to income-tax under the head "Profits and gains of business or profession", for computing the written down value of assets acquired before the tax year, the total amount of depreciation shall be computed as if the entire income is derived from the business of the assessee under the head "Profits and gains of business or profession" and the depreciation so computed shall be deemed to be the depreciation actually allowed under this Act or under the Income-tax Act, 1961.

43 of 1961.

(5) In this section, "sold" shall have the meaning assigned to it in section 38(6)(a).

Capitalising the impact of foreign exchange fluctuation.

42. (1) Irrespective of anything contained in any other provision of this Act, where at the time of making payment during the tax year, there is a variation in liability of an assessee as expressed in Indian currency, due to change in rate of exchange, in relation to an asset acquired for the purpose of business or profession in foreign currency from a country outside India, it shall be dealt with in the manner specified in sub-sections (2) and (3).

(2) For this section, the liability shall exclude any part met directly or indirectly by any other person or authority and the "variation in liability" shall be computed as— A = B-C

where,—

A = variation in () liability;

B = () payment expressed in Indian currency at the time when it is made ()—

(a) towards the whole or part of the cost of asset; or

(b) towards repayment of the whole or part of the moneys borrowed, directly or indirectly, along with interest in foreign currency, specifically for acquiring such asset;

C = liability, corresponding to the amount referred in B, in Indian currency at the time of acquisition of such asset.

(3) The variation in liability shall be added or reduced from the—

(a) actual cost of the asset as referred in section 39; or

(b) expenditure of capital nature referred to in section 45(1)(a) or (c) or 32(i); or

(c) cost of acquisition of a capital asset (not being capital asset referred to in section 74) for the purpose of section 72, and the amount arrived at after such addition or deduction shall be taken to be the actual cost of the asset or the amount of expenditure of a capital nature or, as the case may be, the cost of acquisition of the capital asset.

(4) Where the assessee has entered into a contract with an authorised dealer as defined in section 2 of the Foreign Exchange Management Act, 1999, for providing him with a specified sum in a foreign currency on or after a stipulated future date at the rate of exchange specified in the contract to enable him to meet the whole or any part of the said liability, the amount, if any, to be added to, or deducted from, the actual cost of the asset or the amount of expenditure of a capital nature or, as the case may be, the cost of acquisition of the capital asset under this section shall, in respect of so much of the sum specified in the contract as is available for discharging the said liability, be computed with reference to the rate of exchange specified therein. 42 of 1999.

Taxation of foreign exchange fluctuation.

43. (1) Subject to the provisions of section 42 any gain or loss arising on account of change in foreign exchange rates on foreign currency transactions shall be treated as income or loss, and shall be computed as per the income computation and disclosure standards notified under section 276(2).

(2) The provisions of sub-section (1) shall be applicable to all foreign currency transactions including—

(a) monetary items and non-monetary items;

(b) translation of financial statements of foreign operations;

(c) forward exchange contracts; and

(d) foreign currency translation reserves.

Amortisation of certain preliminary expenses.

44. (1) If an assessee, being an Indian company or a person (other than a company), who is resident in India, incurs any expenditure specified in sub-section (2)—

(a) before the commencement of its business; or

(b) after the commencement of its business, in connection with the extension of its undertaking or in connection with its setting up a new unit, the assessee shall be allowed a deduction of an amount equal to one-fifth of such expenditure for each of the five successive tax years beginning with—

(i) the tax year in which the business commences, for clause (a); or

(ii) the tax year in which the extension of the undertaking is completed or the new unit commences production or operation, for clause (b).

(2) The expenditure referred to in sub-section (1) shall be—

(a) the expenditure in connection with—

(i) preparation of feasibility report;

(ii) preparation of project report;

(iii) conducting market survey or any other survey necessary for the business;

(iv) engineering services relating to the business;

(b) legal charges for drafting any agreement between the assessee and any other person for any purpose relating to the setting up or conduct of the business;

(c) in addition to expenditure in (a) and (b), if the assessee is a company,—

(i) legal charges for drafting and printing of the Memorandum and Articles of Association of the company;

18 of 2013. (ii) fees for registering the company under the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013;

(iii) expenditure in connection with the issue, for public subscription, of shares in or debentures of the company, being underwriting commission, brokerage and charges for drafting, typing, printing and advertisement of the prospectus; and

(d) such other items of expenditure (not being expenditure eligible for any allowance or deduction under any other provision of this Act), as prescribed.

(3) In relation to expenditure specified in sub-section (2)(a), the assessee shall furnish a statement containing the particulars of the expenditure in such form and manner, as prescribed.

(4) The total expenditure referred to in sub-section (2) shall be restricted to 5%—

(a) of the cost of the project; or

(b) of the capital employed in the business of the company, where the assessee is an Indian company, at its option.

(5) In this section,—

(a) "cost of the project" means the actual cost of the fixed assets, being land, buildings, leaseholds, plant, machinery, furniture, fittings and railway sidings (including expenditure on development of land and buildings) and—

(i) for cases under sub-section (1)(a), the cost is calculated as of the last day of the tax year when the business commences;

(ii) for cases under sub-section (1)(b), the cost is calculated as of the last day of the tax year when either the extension of the undertaking is completed, or the new unit commences production or operations, which only includes fixed assets acquired or developed in connection with the extension of the undertaking or setting up of new unit;

(b) "capital employed in the business of the company" means—

(i) in cases under sub-section (1)(a), the aggregate of the issued share capital, debentures and long-term borrowings as on the last day of the tax year in which the business of the company commences;

(ii) in a case under sub-section (1)(b), the aggregate of the issued share capital, debentures and long-term borrowings as on the last day of the tax year in which the extension of the undertaking is completed or, as the case may be, the new unit commences production or operation, in so far as such capital, debentures and long-term borrowings have been issued or obtained in connection with the extension of the undertaking or the setting up of the new unit of the company;

(c) "long-term borrowings" means—

(i) any moneys borrowed by the company from Government or Industrial Finance Corporation of India Ltd., (), or any other financial institution which is eligible for deduction under section 32(e) or any banking institution (not being a financial institution referred to above); or

(ii) any loan or debt incurred by it in a foreign country in respect of the purchase outside India of capital plant and machinery, where the tenure of loan or debt is not less than seven years.

(6) If the assessee is a person, other than a company or a co-operative society, no deduction shall be admissible under sub-section (1) unless,—

(a) the accounts of the assessee for the year or years in which the expenditure specified in sub-section (2) is incurred have been audited by an accountant before the specified date referred to in section 63; and

(b) the assessee furnishes for the first year in which the deduction under this section is claimed, the report of such audit by such date in such form duly signed and verified by such accountant and setting forth such particulars, as prescribed.

(7) If an undertaking of Indian company entitled for deduction under sub-section (1) is transferred before expiry of five years specified in the said sub-section, in a scheme of amalgamation, to another Indian company, then—

(a) no deduction under sub-section (1) shall be allowed to the amalgamating company for the tax year in which amalgamation takes place; and

(b) all provisions of this section shall continue to apply to the amalgamated company as they would have applied to the amalgamating company, as if the amalgamation has not taken place.

(8) If an undertaking of Indian company entitled for deduction under sub-section (1) is transferred before five years specified in the said sub-section, in a scheme of demerger to another company, then—

(a) no deduction under sub-section (1) shall be allowed to the demerged company for the tax year in which demerger takes place; and

(b) all provisions of this section shall continue to apply to the resulting company as they would have applied to the demerged company, as if the demerger has not taken place.

(9) If a deduction under this section is claimed and allowed for any tax year in respect of any expenditure referred to in sub-section (2), deduction shall not be allowed for such expenditure under any other provision of this Act for the same or any other tax year.

Expenditure on scientific research.

45. (1) A deduction shall be allowed for any expenditure, being in the nature of—

(a) capital expenditure, but not on acquisition of land, as such or as part of any property; or

(b) revenue expenditure; or

(c) both,

incurred on scientific research related to the business of the assessee subject to provisions of this section.

(2)(a) A deduction shall be allowed under sub-section (1) in respect of the aggregate of expenditure (not being in the nature of capital expenditure), related to business, incurred on—

(i) salary to an employee engaged in such scientific research; or

(ii) purchase of materials used in such scientific research, where such expenditure is incurred within three years immediately preceding the commencement of business, to the extent certified by the prescribed authority as incurred on such research, expenditure shall be deemed to have been incurred in the tax year in which the business is commenced.

(b) For the purposes of sub-section (1), the aggregate of capital expenditure incurred within three years immediately preceding the commencement of business shall be deemed to have been incurred in the tax year in which the business is commenced.

(c)(i) A deduction shall be allowed (), in respect of any expenditure on scientific research incurred (not being expenditure in the nature of cost of any land or building) by a company engaged in the business of—

(A) bio-technology; or

(B) manufacture or production of any article or thing, which is not specified in Schedule XIII, on in-house research and development facility as approved by the prescribed authority, subject to the conditions and manner, as prescribed;

(ii) No deduction shall be allowed under this clause to a company approved under sub-section (3)(b)(ii);

(iii) No deduction shall be allowed in respect of the expenditure mentioned in sub-clause (i) under any other provision of this Act;

(iv) The expenditure under sub-clause (i) shall be allowed subject to such conditions and on furnishing of documents in such form and manner, as prescribed;

(d) For the purposes of clause (c), "*expenditure on scientific research", in relation to drugs and pharmaceuticals, shall include expenditure incurred on clinical drug trial, obtaining approval from any regulatory authority under any Central Act or State Act or Provincial Act and filing an application for a patent under the Patents Act, 1970.

39 of 1970.

(3) A deduction shall be allowed for any sum, paid to—

(a)(i) a research association having the object of undertaking scientific research or to a University, college or institution to be used for scientific research; or

(ii) a research association having the object of undertaking research in social science or statistical research or to a University, college or institution to be used for research in social science or statistical research;

(b) a company which is—

(i) registered in India having the main object of scientific research and development; and

(ii) approved by such authority, in such manner and subject to such conditions, as prescribed;

(c)(i) a national laboratory; or

(ii) a University; or

(iii) an Indian Institute of Technology; or

(iv) a specified person, with a specific direction that the said sum shall be used for scientific research undertaken under a programme approved in this behalf by the prescribed authority.

(4) For the purposes of sub-section (3),—

(a) the expenditure shall be allowed subject to such conditions and on furnishing of documents in such form and manner, as prescribed; and

(b) in respect of clause (a) of the said sub-section, only such association, University, college or other institution shall be eligible for deduction, which for the time being is approved in the manner and subject to such conditions, as prescribed, and is specified by the Central Government, by notification.

(5) The deduction for any sum under sub-section (3) shall not be denied merely on the ground that subsequent to the payment of such sum by the assessee, the approval granted to such entities or the programme undertaken by entities as mentioned in sub-section(3)(c), has been withdrawn.

(6) Where a deduction is allowed for any tax year under this section in respect of expenditure, represented wholly or partly by an asset, no deduction shall be allowed under section 33(3) for the same or any other tax year in respect of that asset.

(7) The provisions of section 33(11) in respect of depreciation shall apply in relation to deductions allowable for capital expenditure under sub-section (1).

(8) No deduction in respect of the sum mentioned in sub-section (3)(c) shall be allowed under any other provision of this Act.

(9) If any question arises under this section as to whether, and if so, to what extent any activity constitutes or constituted scientific research, or any asset is or was being used, for scientific research, the Board shall refer the question to—

(a) the Central Government, when such question relates to any activity under sub-section (3)(a), and its decision shall be final;

(b) the prescribed authority, when such question relates to any other activity, whose decision shall be final.

(10) When an amalgamating company, in a scheme of amalgamation, sells or otherwise transfers to the amalgamated company (being an Indian company) any asset representing capital expenditure on scientific research, the provisions of this section shall apply to the amalgamated company as they would have applied to the amalgamating company if the latter had not so sold or otherwise transferred the asset.

(11) In this section,—

(a) "National Laboratory" means a scientific laboratory functioning at the national level under the aegis of the Indian Council of Agricultural Research, the Indian Council of Medical Research, the Council of Scientific and Industrial Research, the Defence Research and Development Organisation, the Department of Electronics, the Department of Bio-Technology or the Department of Atomic Energy and which is approved as a National Laboratory by such authority and in such manner, as prescribed;

(b) "specified person" means such person approved by the prescribed authority;

(c) "land" includes any interest in land.

Capital expenditure of specified business.

46. (1) An assessee, at his option, shall be allowed a deduction of the whole of the capital expenditure incurred, wholly and exclusively, for the purposes of any specified business carried on by him during the tax year in which such expenditure is incurred.

(2) Where the expenditure referred to in sub-section (1) is incurred prior to the commencement of its operations and such expenditure is capitalised in the books of account as on the date of commencement of its operations, it shall be allowed during the tax year in which such business is commenced.

(3) This section shall apply to the specified business fulfilling the following conditions:—

(a) it is not set up by splitting up, or the reconstruction, of an already existing business;

(b) it is not set up by the transfer of machinery or plant previously used for any purpose to the specified business;

(c) if the business is of the nature referred to in sub-section (11)(d)(iii) and such business—

(i) is owned by a company formed and registered in India under the Companies Act, 2013 or by a consortium of such companies or by an authority or a board or a corporation established or constituted under any Central Act or State Act; 18 of 2013.

(ii) has been approved by the Petroleum and Natural Gas Regulatory Board established under section 3(1) of the Petroleum and Natural Gas Regulatory Board Act, 2006 and notified by the Central Government in this behalf; 19 of 2006.

(ii) any capital expenditure.

(3) The effect of other provisions of this Act relating to carry forward and set off of brought forward losses or allowances shall be given before allowing deduction under sub-section (1).

(4) The maximum allowable deduction under this section shall not exceed 50% of the total income as computed before allowing deduction under this section.

Amortisation of expenditure for prospecting certain minerals.

51. (1) An assessee, being an Indian company or a person (other than a company) who is resident in India, who is engaged in any operations relating to prospecting for, or extraction or production of, any mineral, shall be allowed a deduction of an amount equal to one-tenth of the amount of expenditure referred to in sub-section (2), in each of the relevant tax years.

(2) The expenditure referred to in sub-section (1) is the expenditure incurred by the assessee at any time during the year of commercial production and any one or more of the four tax years immediately preceding that year, wholly and exclusively on any operations relating to prospecting for any mineral or group of associated minerals specified in Part A or Part B, respectively, of the Schedule XII or on the development of a mine or other natural deposit of any such mineral or group of associated minerals.

(3) The expenditure under sub-section (2) shall be reduced by such expenditure which is met directly or indirectly by any other person or authority and any sale, salvage, compensation or insurance moneys realised by the assessee in respect of any property or rights brought into existence as a result of the expenditure.

(4) For the purposes of sub-sections (2) and (3), the following expenditure shall be excluded:—

(a) any expenditure on the acquisition of the site of the source of any mineral or group of associated minerals referred to in the said sub-sections or of any rights in or over such site; or

(b) any expenditure on the acquisition of the deposits of such mineral or group of associated minerals or of any rights in or over such deposits; or

(c) any expenditure of a capital nature in respect of any building, machinery, plant or furniture for which allowance by way of depreciation is admissible under section 33.

(5) The deduction to be allowed under sub-section (1) for any relevant tax year shall be—

(a) an amount equal to one-tenth of the expenditure specified in sub-sections (2) and (3) (such one-tenth being herein referred to as the instalment); or

(b) such amount as is sufficient to reduce to nil the income (as computed before making the deduction under this section) of that tax year arising from the commercial exploitation [whether or not such commercial exploitation is as a result of the operations or development referred to in sub-sections (2) and (3)] of any mine or other natural deposit of the mineral or any one or more of the minerals in a group of associated minerals under this section in respect of which the expenditure was incurred, whichever is less.

(6) If any part of the instalment for a relevant tax year is not fully allowed, it shall be carried forward to the next year, becoming part of the instalment of that tax year and such carrying forward may continue for each following year, but no instalment shall be carried forward beyond the tenth year from the year in which commercial production began.

(7) Where the assessee is a person other than a company or a co-operative society, no deduction shall be admissible under sub-section (1) unless,—

(a) the accounts of the assessee for the year or years in which the expenditure specified in sub-sections (2) and (3) are incurred have been audited by an accountant, before the specified date referred to in section 63; and

(b) the assessee furnishes for the first year in which the deduction under this section is claimed, the report of such audit, by such date, in such form and duly signed and verified by such accountant, as prescribed.

(8) If an undertaking of an Indian company, entitled for deduction under sub-section (1), is transferred before ten years specified in the said sub-section in a scheme of amalgamation or demerger, to another Indian company, then,—

(a) no deduction shall be allowed to the amalgamating or demerged company for the year in which such amalgamation or demerger takes place; and

(b) all the provisions of this section shall continue to apply to the amalgamated or resulting company as it would have applied to the amalgamating or demerged company, as if the amalgamation or demerger has not taken place.

(9) If a deduction under this section is claimed and allowed for any tax year in respect of any expenditure referred to in sub-sections (2) and (3), deduction shall not be allowed for such expenditure under any other provision of this Act for the same or any other tax year.

(10) In this section,—

(a) "operation relating to prospecting" means any operation undertaken for the purposes of exploring, locating or proving deposits of any mineral and includes any such operation which proves to be infructuous or abortive;

(b) "year of commercial production" means the tax year in which as a result of any operation relating to prospecting, commercial production of any mineral or any one or more of the minerals in a group of associated minerals specified in Part A or Part B, respectively, of Schedule XII, commences;

(c) "relevant tax years" means the ten tax years beginning with the year of commercial production.

Amortisation of expenditure for telecommunications services, amalgamation, demerger, scheme ofvoluntary retirement, etc.

52. (1) Where an expenditure of the nature specified in column B of the Table given below is incurred during the tax year, a deduction or part thereof shall be allowed in equal instalments in each of the tax years as mentioned in column D of the said Table, beginning from the initial tax year specified in column C thereof.

Table

Sl. No.	Nature of expenditure	Initial tax year	Number of tax years over which deduction of expenditure is allowable in equal instalments
A	B	C	D
1.	Expenditure incurred by an Indian company, wholly and exclusively for the purposes of amalgamation or demerger of an undertaking.	Tax year in which such amalgamation or demerger takes place.	Five tax years.

A	B	C	D
2.	Amount paid to an employee in connection with his voluntary retirement as per any scheme of voluntary retirement.	Tax year in which such payment is made.	Five tax years.
3.	Capital expenditure incurred and actually paid for acquiring any right to use spectrum for telecommunication services (spectrum fee).	Tax year in which,— (a) the business to operate telecom services is commenced; or (b) spectrum fee is actually paid, whichever is later.	Number of years commencing from the initial tax year and ending in the tax year up to which the spectrum for which the fee is paid remains in force.
4.	Capital expenditure incurred and actually paid for acquiring any right to operate telecommunication services (herein referred to as licence fee).	Tax year in which,— (a) the business to operate telecom services is commenced; or (b) licence fee is actually paid, whichever is later.	Number of years commencing from the initial tax year and ending in the tax year up to which the licence for which the fee is paid remains in force.

(2) Where the rights referred to in sub-section (1) (Table: Sl. No. 3 or 4) are transferred and—

(a) where the proceeds of the transfer (so far as they consist of capital sums) are less than the expenditure though incurred, but remaining unallowed, a deduction equal to such expenditure remaining unallowed, as reduced by the proceeds of the transfer, shall be allowed in respect of the tax year in which the licence is transferred;

(b) where the whole or part of the right is transferred, the proceeds of the transfer (so far as they consist of capital sums) exceed the amount of the expenditure though incurred, but remaining unallowed, so much of the excess as does not exceed the difference between the expenditure incurred to obtain the licence or spectrum and the amount of such expenditure remaining unallowed, shall be chargeable to income-tax as profits and gains of the business in the tax year in which the licence or spectrum has been transferred;

(c) where the rights under clause (b) is transferred in a tax year in which the business is no longer in existence, the provisions of this sub-section shall apply as if the business is in existence in that tax year;

(d) where the whole or part of the right is transferred, the proceeds of the transfer (so far as they consist of capital sums) are equal or greater than the amount of expenditure incurred remaining unallowed, no deduction for such expenditure shall be allowed under sub-section (1) in respect of the tax year in which the licence is transferred or in respect of any subsequent tax year or years;

(e) such transfer is in a scheme of amalgamation or demerger to the amalgamated company or resulting company, being an Indian company,—

(i) the provisions of clauses (a), (b), (c) and (d) shall not apply to the amalgamating or demerged company; and

(ii) all the provisions of this section shall continue to apply to the amalgamated or resulting company as it would have applied to the amalgamating or demerged company, as if the transfer has not taken place.

(3) Where a part of the rights is transferred in a tax year and sub-section (2)(b) and (c) does not apply, the deduction to be allowed under sub-section (1) for the expenditure incurred remaining unallowed shall be arrived at by—

(a) subtracting the proceeds of transfer (so far as they consist of capital sums) from the expenditure remaining unallowed; and

(b) dividing the remainder by the number of relevant tax years which have not expired at the beginning of the tax year during which the licence is transferred.

(4) No deduction shall be allowed—

(a) for depreciation under section 33(1) to (10) in respect of expenditure mentioned in sub-section (1) (Table: Sl. No. 3 or 4), where deduction under this section is claimed and allowed for any tax year;

(b) under any other provision of this Act in respect of the expenditure mentioned in sub-section (1) (Table: Sl. No. 1 or 2).

(5) In case any deduction has been claimed and granted in respect of an expenditure referred in sub-section (1) (Table: Sl. No. 3) and there is subsequent failure on part of the assessee to comply with any of the provisions of this section, then,—

(a) the deduction shall be deemed to have been wrongly allowed;

(b) the Assessing Officer may, irrespective of any other provisions of this Act, recompute the total income of the assessee for the said tax year by making necessary rectification;

(c) the provisions of section 287 shall, so far as may be, apply; and

(d) the period of four years specified in section 287(8) shall be counted from the end of the tax year in which such failure takes place.

(6) Where a specified business reorganisation takes place before the expiry of the period specified in sub-section (1) (Table: Sl. No. 2 Col.D), in case of an expenditure referred against serial number 2 thereof, then,—

(a) the provisions of this section shall continue to apply to the successor entity for the tax year in which the business reorganisation took place and subsequent tax years; and

(b) no deduction shall be allowed to the predecessor entity under this section for the tax year in which such reorganisation takes place.

(7) In this section,—

(a) "actually paid" means the actual payment of expenditure irrespective of the tax year in which the liability for the expenditure was incurred according to the method of accounting regularly employed by the assessee or payable in such manner, as prescribed;

(b) "equal installments" shall be calculated by taking numerator as 1 and denominator as the tax years mentioned in column D of the Table in sub-section (1);

Full value of consideration for transfer of assets other than capital assets in certain cases.

53. (1) In case of transfer of an asset (other than a capital asset), being land or building or both, if the consideration received or accrued from such transfer is less than the stamp duty value, then such stamp duty value for computing profits and gains from transfer of such asset shall be deemed to be the full value of consideration.

(2) The provisions of sub-section (1) shall not apply if the stamp duty value does not exceed 110% of the consideration received or accrued and in such a case, the consideration received or accrued shall be deemed to be the full value of consideration.

(3) If the date of agreement fixing the value of consideration for transfer of asset and date of registration for transfer of such asset are different, then the stamp duty value as on date of agreement may be taken to be the full value of consideration under sub-section (1).

(4) The provisions of sub-section (3) shall apply only in a case where the amount of consideration or a part thereof has been received by specified banking or online mode on or before the date of agreement for transfer of such asset.

(5) For the determination of the value adopted or assessed or assessable under sub-section (1), the provisions of section 78(2) and (4) shall apply.

Business of prospecting for mineral oils.

54. (1) Where the assessee undertakes specified oil exploration business, then deduction specified in sub-sections (3) and (4) shall be allowed while computing the income under the head "Profits and gains of business or profession".

(2) In this section, "specified oil exploration business" means business consisting of prospecting for or extraction or production of mineral oils where the following conditions are fulfilled:—

(a) the assessee has entered into an agreement with the Central Government;

(b) such agreement is entered for association or participation of the Central Government or any person authorised by it; and

(c) such agreement is laid before each House of Parliament.

(3) The deduction referred to in sub-section (1) shall be—

(a) for the period before the beginning of commercial production, expenditure towards infructuous or abortive exploration incurred in respect of any surrendered area;

(b) for the period after the commencement of commercial production, expenditure (whether before or after such production) in respect of drilling or exploration activities or services or in respect of physical assets used in that connection;

(c) for the tax year of commencement of commercial production and such succeeding tax years as specified in the agreement, towards depletion of mineral oil in the mining area.

(4) The deductions referred to in sub-section (1) shall be—

(a) either in lieu of, or in addition to, any allowance admissible under this Act as specified in the agreement; and

(b) computed and made in the manner specified in the agreement and the other provisions of this Act shall be deemed to have been modified to such extent.

(5) Where the business or any interest therein as referred to in sub-section (1) is wholly or partly transferred as per the provisions of the agreement, the profit shall be charged to tax or deduction shall be allowed in the following manner:—

(a) where A is less than C, then (C-A) shall be allowed as deduction in the tax year in which such business or interest is transferred;

(b) where A is greater than C,—

(i) but less than B, then (A-C) shall be the profit chargeable under the head "Profits and gains of business or profession" for the tax year in which such transfer takes place;

(ii) in any other case, only (B-C) shall be the profit chargeable under the said head for the tax year in which such transfer takes place; and

(iii) no deduction shall be allowed for the expenditure incurred remaining unallowed in the tax year in which such transfer takes place or any subsequent tax year,

where,—

A = proceeds of the transfer (so far as they consist of capital sums);

B = total amount of expenditure incurred in connection with the business or to obtain interest therein;

C = amount of expenditure incurred remaining unallowed.

(6) If the business or interest therein is no longer in existence in the year of transfer, the provisions of sub-section (5) shall apply as if such business is in existence during the said year.

(7) Where the business or interest therein is transferred in a scheme of amalgamation or demerger and the resulting entity is an Indian company, then the provisions of sub-section (5) shall—

(a) not apply to the amalgamating or demerged company; and

(b) continue to apply to the amalgamated or resulting company as it would have applied to the amalgamating or demerged company as if the transfer has not taken place.

(8) ()

(b) for the purposes of section 72 the amount recorded in the books of account of the firm, association or body as the value of the capital asset shall be deemed to be the full value of the consideration received or accruing as a result of the transfer of such capital asset.

(10) Irrespective of anything contained in sub-section (1), if a specified person receives during the tax year, any money or capital asset, or both, from a specified entity in connection with the reconstitution of such specified entity, then,—

(a) any profits or gains arising from such receipt shall be deemed as income of the specified entity of the tax year of such receipt by the specified person and chargeable to income-tax under the head "Capital gains"; and

(b) such profits or gains shall be determined irrespective of anything to the contrary contained in this Act as follows:—

A = B + C – D,

where,

A = income chargeable to income-tax under this sub-section as income of the specified entity under the head "Capital gains";

B = value of any money received by the specified person from the specified entity on the date of such receipt;

C = amount of fair market value of the capital asset received by the specified person from the specified entity on the date of such receipt; and

D = amount of balance in the capital account (represented in any manner) of the specified person in the books of account of the specified entity at the time of its reconstitution;

(c) for the purposes of the formula in clause (b),—

(i) if the value of "A" in the said formula is negative, its value shall be deemed to be zero;

(ii) the balance in the capital account of the specified person in the books of account of the specified entity shall be calculated without considering any increase in the capital account of the specified person due to revaluation of any asset or due to self-generated goodwill or any other self-generated asset; and

(d) the provisions of this sub-section shall operate in addition to the provisions of section 8 and the taxation under the said section shall be worked out independently, when a capital asset is received by a specified person from a specified entity in connection with the reconstitution of such specified entity.

(11) In sub-section (10),—

(a) "reconstitution of the specified entity", "specified entity" and "specified person" shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in section 8;

(b) "self-generated goodwill" and "self-generated asset" mean goodwill or asset, as the case may be, which has been acquired without incurring any cost for purchase or which has been generated during the course of the business or profession.

(12) Irrespective of anything contained in sub-section (1), if the capital gain arises from the transfer of a capital asset by way of compulsory acquisition under any law, or a transfer the consideration for which was determined or approved by the Central Government or the Reserve Bank of India, and the compensation or the consideration for such transfer is enhanced or further enhanced by any court, tribunal or other authority, the capital gain shall be dealt with in the following manner:—

(a) the capital gains computed with reference to the compensation awarded in the first instance or as the case may be, consideration determined or approved by the Central Government or the Reserve Bank of India in the first instance, shall be chargeable as income under the head "Capital gains" of the tax year in which such compensation or part thereof, or such consideration or part thereof, was first received;

(b) the amount by which the compensation or consideration is enhanced or further enhanced by the court, tribunal or other authority shall be deemed to be income chargeable under the head "Capital gains" of the tax year in which such amount is received;

(c) any compensation as referred to in clause (b) received in pursuance of an interim order of a court, tribunal or other authority shall be deemed as income chargeable under the head "Capital gains" of the tax year in which the final order of such court, tribunal or other authority is made; and

(d) the capital gain assessed for any tax year under clause (a) or (b) shall be recomputed where the compensation or consideration referred to in clauses (a) to (c) is reduced by any court, tribunal or other authority and such reduced value shall be taken to be the full value of the consideration.

(13) In relation to the amount referred to in sub-section (12)(b) and (c),—

(a) the cost of acquisition and the cost of improvement shall be taken as nil; and

(b) in a case, where the enhanced compensation or consideration is received by any other person due to the death of the person who made the transfer, or for any other reason, such amount shall be deemed as the income chargeable to tax under the head "Capital gains" in the hands of such other person.

(14) Irrespective of anything contained in sub-section (1), if the capital gains arises to a person (being an individual or a Hindu undivided family), from the transfer of a capital asset, being land or building or both, under a specified agreement, then,— Withdrawal of exemption in certain cases.

71. (1) The profits or gains arising from the transfer of capital asset not charged under section 67 by virtue of section 70(1)(c) and (d) shall, irrespective of anything contained in the said clauses, be deemed to be income chargeable under the head "Capital gains" of the tax year in which such transfer took place, if at any time before the expiry of eight years from the date of such transfer,—

(a) the transferee company converts the capital asset into, or treats it as, stock-in-trade of its business; or

(b) the parent company or its nominees or the holding company, ceases or cease to hold the whole of the share capital of the subsidiary company.

(2) If any of the conditions laid down in section 70(zd) or (zf) are not complied with, the profits or gains arising from the transfer of such capital asset or intangible asset not charged under section 67 by virtue of such conditions shall be deemed to be the profits and gains chargeable to tax under the head "Capital gains" of the successor company for the tax year in which such transfer took place ().

(3) If any of the conditions laid down in section 70(ze) are not complied with, the profits or gains arising from the transfer of such capital asset or intangible assets or share or shares not charged under section 67 by virtue of such conditions shall be deemed to be the profits and gains chargeable to tax under the head "Capital gains" of the successor limited liability partnership or the shareholder of the predecessor company, for the tax year in which such transfer took place ().

Mode of computation of capital gains.

72. (1) Income chargeable under the head "Capital gains" shall be computed, by deducting from the full value of the consideration received or accruing as a result of the transfer of the capital asset, the following amounts:—

(a) expenditure incurred wholly and exclusively in connection with such transfer; and

(b) the cost of acquisition of the asset and the cost of any improvement thereto.

(2) In cases, as prescribed, the provisions of sub-section (1) shall have effect as if for the words "cost of acquisition" and "cost of any improvement", the words "indexed cost of acquisition" and "indexed cost of any improvement" had respectively been substituted.

(3) In computing the income chargeable under the head "Capital gains", the following amounts shall not be allowed as a deduction:—

(a) the interest claimed as deduction under section 22(1)(b) or under Chapter VIII;

(b) any sum paid as securities transaction tax under Chapter VII of the Finance (No.2) Act, 2004.

23 of 2004.

(4) If a unit holder receives any amount from a business trust with respect to a unit that is not in the nature of income under Schedule V (Table: Sl. No. 3. or 4) and is not chargeable to tax under section 92(2)(k) or 223(2), then,—

(a) such amount shall be reduced from the cost of acquisition of such unit; and

(b) if the transaction of transfer of a unit is not considered as transfer under section 70 and cost of acquisition of such unit is determined under section 73, () such amount received with respect to such unit before as well as after such transaction, shall be reduced from the cost of acquisition.

(5) In case of value of any money or capital asset received by a specified person from a specified entity, as referred to in section 67(10), the specified entity is entitled to a deduction calculated in such manner, as prescribed for computing the amount chargeable to income-tax in its hands under that sub-section which is attributable to the transfer of such capital asset.

(6) In the case of an assessee, who is a non-resident, capital gains arising from the transfer of a capital asset being shares in, or debentures of, an Indian company (other than equity shares referred to in section 198) shall be computed—

(a) by converting the cost of acquisition, expenditure incurred, wholly and exclusively, in connection with such transfer and the full value of the consideration received or accruing as a result of the transfer of the capital asset into the same foreign currency as was initially utilised in the purchase of the shares or debentures; and

(b) the capital gains so computed in such foreign currency shall be reconverted into Indian currency, so, however, that the said manner of computation of capital gains shall be applicable in respect of capital gains accruing or arising from every reinvestment thereafter in, and sale of, shares in, or debentures of, an Indian company.

(7) In the case of an assessee who is a non-resident, any gains arising on account of appreciation of rupee against a foreign currency at the time of redemption of rupee denominated bond of an Indian company held by the assessee, shall be ignored for the purpose of computing the full value of consideration.

Special provision for computation of capital gains in case of depreciable assets.

74. (1) Irrespective of anything contained in section 2(101), for a capital asset forming part of a block of assets on which depreciation has been allowed under this Act or under the Income-tax Act, 1961 or under the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, the provisions of sections 72 and 73 shall be subject to the provisions of sub-sections (2) and (3) **().

43 of 1961.
11 of 1922.

(2) If, during the tax year, the full value of consideration received or accruing for the transfer of one or more assets in a block of assets exceeds the total of the following:—

(a) expenditure incurred wholly and exclusively for such transfer;

(b) the written-down value of the block of assets at the start of the tax year; and

(c) the actual cost of any asset falling within the block of assets acquired during the tax year, such excess shall be deemed to be capital gains arising from the transfer of short-term capital assets.

(3) If any block of assets ceases to exist for the reason that all the assets in that block are transferred during the tax year, then,—

(a) the cost of acquisition of the block of assets shall be the written down value of the block of assets at the beginning of the tax year, as increased by the actual cost of any asset falling within that block of assets, acquired by the assessee during the tax year; and

(b) the income received or accruing as a result of such transfer or transfers shall be deemed to be () capital gains arising from the transfer of short term capital assets.

Special provision for cost of acquisition in case of depreciable asset.

75. If depreciation has been obtained under section 33(2) for a capital asset in any tax year, the provisions of sections 72 and 73 shall apply subject to the modification that the written down value, as defined in section 41, of the asset, as adjusted, shall be taken as the cost of acquisition of the asset.

Special provision for computation of capital gains in case of Market Linked Debenture.

76. (1) Irrespective of anything contained in section 2(101) or section 72, the gains on the transfer or redemption or maturity, of a capital asset as mentioned in sub-section (2) shall be treated as short-term capital gains and shall be computed as per sub-section (3).

(2) For the purposes of sub-section (1), the capital asset shall be—

(a) a unit of a Specified Mutual Fund acquired on or after 1st April, 2023 or a Market Linked Debenture; or

(b) an unlisted bond or an unlisted debenture which is transferred or redeemed or matures on or after the 23rd July, 2024.

(3) For the purposes of sub-section (1), the short-term capital gains shall be computed as per the following formula:—

$$X = A - B - C,$$

where,—

X = short-term capital gains;

A = full value of consideration received or accruing as a result of the transfer or redemption or maturity of the debenture or unit or bond;

B = the cost of acquisition of the debenture or unit or bond; and

C = the expenditure incurred wholly and exclusively () in connection with such transfer or redemption or maturity.

(4) In computing the income chargeable under sub-section (3), no deduction shall be allowed for any sum paid as securities transaction tax as per Chapter VII of the Finance (No. 2) Act, 2004. 23 of 2004.

(5) In this section,—

(a) "Market Linked Debenture" means a security, by whatever name called, which has an underlying principal component in the form of a debt security and where the returns are linked to market returns on other underlying securities or indices, and include any security classified or regulated as a market linked debenture by the Securities and Exchange Board of India; and

(b) "Specified Mutual Fund" means a Mutual Fund, by whatever name called, which invests more than 65% of its total proceeds in debt and money market instruments or a fund which invests 65% or more of its total proceeds in units of such Mutual Fund, subject to the following:—

(i) the percentage of investment in debt and money market instruments or in units of a fund shall be computed with reference to the annual average of the daily closing figures;

(ii) "debt and money market instruments" shall include any securities, by whatever name called, classified or regulated as debt and money market instruments by the Securities and Exchange Board of India.

Special provision for computation of capital gains in case of slump sale.

77. (1) Any profits or gains arising from the slump sale effected in the tax year shall be chargeable to income-tax as long-term capital gains and shall be deemed to be the income of the tax year in which the transfer took place, subject to the provisions of sub-section (2).

(2) The profits and gains arising from a slump sale involving the transfer of a capital asset, being one or more undertakings or divisions owned and held by an assessee for 36 months or less, immediately before the date of its transfer, shall be treated as short-term capital gains.

(3) In relation to capital assets, being an undertaking or division transferred by way of slump sale,—

(a) the "net worth" of the undertaking or division shall be deemed as the cost of acquisition and the cost of improvement for sections 72 and 73; and

(b) the fair market value of the capital assets on the date of transfer, calculated in such manner, as prescribed, shall be deemed to be the full value of the consideration received or accruing as a result of such transfer.

(4) Every assessee, in the case of slump sale, shall furnish in the prescribed form a report of an accountant, before the specified date referred to in section 63, and the report shall—

(a) include the computation of the net worth of the undertaking or division; and

(b) certify that the net worth has been correctly arrived at as per the provisions of this section.

(5) For the purposes of this section,—

(a) the "net worth" shall be the "aggregate value of total assets" of the undertaking or division, as reduced by the value of its liabilities as appearing in the books of account, and for computing net worth, any change in the value of assets due to revaluation shall be ignored;

(b) the "aggregate value of total assets" shall,—

(i) for depreciable assets, be the written down value of the block of assets determined under section 41(1) (Table: Sl. No.3);

(ii) for capital asset being goodwill of a business or profession, which was not acquired by the assessee by purchase from a previous owner, be nil;

(iii) for capital assets for which the entire expenditure has been allowed or is allowable as a deduction under section 46, be nil; and

(iv) for other assets, be the book value.

Special provision for full value of consideration in certain cases.

78. (1) If the consideration received or accruing from the transfer of a capital asset, being land or building or both, is less than the stamp duty value, then, for the purposes of section 72, the stamp duty value shall be deemed to be the full value of the consideration received or accruing as a result of such transfer, subject to the following:—

(a) the stamp duty value on the date of agreement may be taken as the full value of consideration, if—

(i) the date of the agreement fixing the consideration and the date of registration for the transfer of the capital asset are not the same; and

(ii) part or full consideration is received on or before the date of the agreement by an account payee cheque or account payee bank draft or electronic clearing system through a bank account or any other electronic mode, as prescribed;

(b) if the stamp duty value does not exceed 110% of the consideration received or accruing, such consideration shall be deemed to be the full value of the consideration for section 72.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (1), the Assessing Officer may refer the valuation of the capital asset to a Valuation Officer, and the provisions of sections 269(3) to (8), shall, with necessary modifications, apply in relation to such reference, where—

(a) the assessee claims that the stamp duty value exceeds the fair market value of the property as on the date of transfer; and

(b) the stamp duty value has not been disputed in any appeal or revision or no reference has been made before any other authority, court or the High Court.

(3) In this section, "assessable" means the value which any authority of the Government would have adopted or assessed as if it were referred to such authority for the purposes of payment of stamp duty, regardless of anything to the contrary contained in any other law in force.

(4) If the value determined by the Valuation Officer on a reference made under sub-section (2) exceeds the stamp duty value, such stamp duty value shall be taken as the full value of consideration.

Special provision for full value of consideration for transfer of share other than quoted share.

79. (1) If the consideration received or accruing from the transfer of a capital asset, being share of a company other than a quoted share, is less than the fair market value of such share determined in the manner as prescribed, the value so determined shall be deemed as the full value of consideration received or accruing as a result of the transfer for the purposes of section 72 ***().

(2) The provisions of sub-section (1) shall not apply to any consideration received or accruing as a result of transfer by such class of persons and subject to such conditions, as prescribed.

(3) In this section, "quoted share" means the share quoted on any recognised stock exchange with regularity from time to time, where the quotation of such share is based on current transaction made in the ordinary course of business.

Fair market value deemed to be full value of consideration in certain cases.

80. If the consideration received or accruing from the transfer of a capital asset is not ascertainable or () cannot be determined, its fair market value on the date of transfer shall be deemed as the full value of consideration received or accruing as a result of the transfer for the purposes of computing income under the head "Capital gains".

Advance money received.

81. Where any capital asset was, on any previous occasion, the subject of negotiations for its transfer, any advance or other money received and retained by the assessee in respect of such negotiations—

(a) shall be deducted from the cost for which the asset was acquired or the written down value or the fair market value, as the case may be, in computing the cost of acquisition;

(b) shall not be deducted from the said cost, where such advance or other money has been included in the total income of the assessee for any tax year as per the provisions of section 92(2)(h).

Profit on sale of property used for residence.

82. (1) Where an individual or Hindu undivided family—

(a) has long-term capital gains arising from the transfer of a capital asset, being buildings or lands appurtenant thereto, and being a residential house, the income of which is chargeable under the head "Income from house property" (original asset); and

(b) has within one year before or two years after the date of such transfer purchased, or has within three years after that date constructed, one residential house in India (new asset),

then, instead of the capital gain being charged to income-tax as income of the tax year in which the transfer took place, it shall be dealt with as follows:—

(i) if the capital gains exceeds the cost of the new asset, such excess shall be charged under section 67, and for computing capital gains arising from the transfer of the new asset within three years of its purchase or construction, the cost shall be nil; or

(ii) if the capital gains is equal to or less than the cost of the new asset, no capital gains shall be charged under section 67 and for computing capital gains from the transfer of the new asset within three years of its purchase or construction, the cost shall be reduced by the amount of the capital gains.

(2) If the capital gains is not used by the assessee to purchase the new asset within one year before the transfer of the original asset, or is not utilised for the purchase or construction of a new asset before filing the return of income under section 263, then—

(a) the unutilised amount shall be deposited in a specified bank or institution and utilised as per the scheme notified by the Central Government;

(b) such deposit shall be made not later than the due date applicable in the case of the assessee for filing the return of income under section 263(1); and

(c) the proof of deposit shall be submitted along with the return on or before the due date of filing of the return.

(3) For the purposes of sub-section (1), the amount, already utilised for purchasing or constructing the new asset, together with the deposited amount under sub-section (2) shall, subject to sub-section (7), be deemed to be the cost of the new asset.

(4) If the amount deposited under sub-section (2) is not fully utilised for purchasing or constructing the new asset within the period specified in sub-section (1), then,—

(a) the unutilised amount shall be charged to tax under section 67 as the income of the tax year in which the period of three years from the date of the transfer of the original asset expires; and

(b) the assessee shall be entitled to withdraw the unused amount according to the said scheme.

(5) If the capital gains under sub-section (1) does not exceed two crore rupees, the assessee may, at his option, purchase or construct two residential houses in India, and where such option has been exercised,—

(a) for the purposes of sub-section (1)(b), "one residential house in India" shall be read as "two residential houses in India"; and

(b) for the purposes of sub-sections (1)(b) and (2), "new asset" shall mean two residential houses in India.

(6) If during any tax year, the assessee has exercised the option mentioned in sub-section (5), he shall not be entitled to exercise such option for the same tax year or any other tax year.

(7) If the cost of new asset exceeds ten crore rupees, the amount exceeding ten crore rupees shall not be taken into account for the purposes of sub-section (1).

(8) If the capital gains on the transfer of original asset exceeds ten crore rupees, the amount exceeding ten crore rupees shall not be taken into account for the purposes of sub-section (2).

Capital gains on transfer of land used for agricultural purposes not to be charged in certain cases.

83. (1) Where an assessee, being an individual or a Hindu undivided family,—

(a) has capital gains arising from the transfer of a capital asset, being land, which was used by the assessee or his parent, or the Hindu undivided family for agricultural purposes (original asset), in two years immediately preceding the date of transfer; and

(b) has, within two years after that date, purchased any other land for being used for agricultural purposes (new asset),

then, instead of the capital gains being charged to income-tax as income of the tax year in which the transfer took place, it shall be dealt with as follows:—

(i) if the capital gains exceed the cost of the new asset, such excess shall be charged under section 67, and for computing any capital gains arising from the transfer of the new asset within three years of its purchase, the cost shall be nil; or

(ii) if the capital gains is equal to or less than the cost of the new asset, no capital gains shall be charged under section 67, and for computing any capital gains arising from the transfer of the new asset within three years of its purchase, the cost shall be reduced by the amount of the capital gains.

(2) If the capital gains is not utilised by the assessee to purchase the new asset before filing the return of income under section 263, then—

(a) the unutilised amount shall be deposited in a specified bank or institution and utilised as per the scheme notified by the Central Government;

(b) such deposit shall be made not later than the due date applicable in the case of the assessee for filing the return of income under section 263(1); and

(c) the proof of deposit shall be submitted along with the return on or before the due date of filing of the return.

(3) For the purposes of sub-section (1), the amount already utilised for purchasing the new asset together with the deposited amount under sub-section (2), shall be deemed to be the cost of the new asset.

(4) If the amount deposited under sub-section (2) is not fully utilised for purchase of the new asset within the period specified in sub-section (1), then,—

(a) the unutilised amount shall be charged under section 67 as the income of the tax year in which two years from the date of the transfer of the original asset expires; and

(b) the assessee shall be entitled to withdraw the unused amount according to the scheme referred to in sub-section (2).

Capital gains on compulsory acquisition of lands and buildings not to be charged in certain cases.

84. (1) Where an assessee has—

(a) capital gains arising from the transfer by way of compulsory acquisition under any law, of a capital asset being land or building or any right in land or building, forming part of an industrial undertaking belonging to him, which was being used by the assessee for the business of the said undertaking in the two years immediately preceding the date of transfer (original asset); and

(b) within three years after that date, purchased any other land or building or any right in any other land or building or constructed any other building for shifting or re-establishing the said undertaking or setting up another industrial undertaking (new asset),

then, instead of the capital gain being charged to income-tax as income of the tax year in which the transfer took place, it shall be dealt with as follows:—

(i) if the capital gains exceeds the cost of new asset, such excess shall be charged under section 67, and for computing any capital gains arising from the transfer of the new asset within three years of its purchase or construction, the cost shall be nil; or

(ii) if the capital gains is equal to or less than the cost of new asset, no capital gains shall be charged under section 67 and for computing capital gains from the transfer of the new asset within three years of its purchase or construction, the cost shall be reduced by the amount of the capital gains.

(2) If the capital gains is not utilised by the assessee to purchase the new asset before filing the return of income under section 263, then—

(a) the unutilised amount shall be deposited not later than the due date for filing the return of income under sub-section (1) of the said section in a specified bank or institution and utilised as per the scheme notified by the Central Government;

(b) such deposit shall be made not later than the due date applicable in the case of the assessee for filing the return of income under the said sub-section; and

(c) the proof of deposit shall be submitted along with the return on or before the due date for filing the return.

(3) For the purposes of sub-section (1), the amount already utilised for purchasing or constructing the new asset together with the deposited amount under sub-section (2), shall be deemed to be the cost of the new asset.

(4) If the amount deposited under sub-section (2) is not fully utilised for the purchase or construction of the new asset within the period specified in sub-section (1), then,—

(a) the unutilised amount shall be charged under section 67 as the income of the tax year in which three years from the date of the transfer of the original asset expires; and

(b) the assessee shall be entitled to withdraw the unused amount according to the said scheme.

Capital gains not to be charged on investment in certain bonds.

85. (1) Where an assessee has—

(a) long-term capital gains arising from the transfer of land or building, or both, (original asset); and

(b) within six months after the date of such transfer, invested whole or part of the capital gains in a long-term specified asset (new asset),

then, the capital gains shall be dealt with as follows:—

(i) if the capital gains exceed the investment in the new asset, the amount of capital gains as exceeds such investment shall be charged under section 67; or

(ii) if the capital gains is equal to or less than the investment in the new asset, the whole of such capital gains shall not be charged under section 67.

(2) For the purposes of sub-section (1), investment made in the long-term specified asset from capital gain arising from transfer of one or more original asset shall not exceed fifty lakh rupees,—

(a) during any tax year; or

(b) in the year of transfer of the original asset or assets and in the subsequent tax year.

(3) If the new asset is transferred or converted (otherwise than by transfer) into money within five years of its acquisition, the capital gains not charged under section 67 as per sub-section (1), shall be deemed to be income chargeable as long-term capital gains in the tax year of its transfer or conversion.

(4) Any loan or advance taken on the security of the new asset shall be regarded as transfer of the new asset on the date of such loan or advance.

(5) Where the investment in the new asset has been taken into account for sub-section (1), no deduction under section 123 for any tax year shall be allowed for such investment.

(6) In this section, "new asset" means any bond, redeemable after five years and as notified by the Central Government for the purposes of this section with such conditions (including a condition for providing a limit on the amount of investment by an assessee in such bond).

Capital gains on transfer of certain capital assets not to be charged in case of investment in residential house.

86. (1) If an individual or a Hindu undivided family has—

(a) capital gains arising from the transfer of any long-term capital asset, not being a residential house (original asset); and

(b) within one year before, or two years after, the date of such transfer, purchased, or has within three years after that date constructed, one residential house in India (new asset),

then, the capital gains shall be dealt with as follows:—

(i) if the net consideration is more than the cost of the new asset, so much of the capital gains as bears to the whole of the capital gains, the same proportion as the cost of the new asset bears to the net consideration, shall not be charged under section 67; or

(ii) if the net consideration is equal to or less than the cost of the new asset, no capital gains shall be charged under section 67.

(2) If the capital gains is not utilised by the assessee to purchase the new asset within one year before the transfer of the original asset, or is not utilised for the purchase or construction of a new asset before filing the return of income under section 263, then,—

(a) the unutilised amount shall be deposited in a specified bank or institution and utilised as per the scheme notified by the Central Government;

(b) such deposit shall be made not later than the due date applicable in the case of the assessee for filing the return of income under sub-section (1) of the said section; and

(c) the proof of deposit shall be submitted along with the return on or before the due date for filing the return.

(3) For the purposes of sub-section (1), the amount already utilised for purchasing or constructing the new asset together with the deposited amount under sub-section (2) shall, subject to () sub-section (8), be deemed to be the cost of the new asset.

(4) If the amount deposited under sub-section (2) is not wholly or partly utilised for purchasing or constructing the new asset within the period specified in sub-section (1), then,—

(a) the amount determined as per () the following formula shall be charged under section 67 as income of the tax year in which three years from the date of the transfer of the original asset expires:—

X - Y,

where,—

X = the capital gains not charged under section 67 as per sub-section (1).

Y = the capital gains that would not have been charged under section 67, if the cost of the new asset had been taken to be the amount actually utilised for purchase or construction of the new asset;

(b) the assessee shall be entitled to withdraw the unused amount according to the said scheme.

(5) The provisions of sub-section (1) shall not apply, if—

(a) the assessee—

(i) owns more than one residential house, other than the new asset, on the date of transfer of the original asset; or

(ii) purchases any residential house, other than the new asset, within two years of transfer of the original asset; or

(iii) constructs any residential house, other than the new asset, within three years of transfer of the original asset; and

(b) the income from such residential house, other than the one residential house owned on the date of transfer of the original asset, is chargeable under the head "Income from house property".

(6) If the assessee purchases within two years of the transfer of the original asset, or constructs within three years after such date, any residential house, the income from which is chargeable under the head "Income from house property", other than the new asset, the capital gains not charged under section 67 on the basis of cost of such new asset as per sub-section (1), shall be charged as long-term capital gains of the tax year in which such residential house is purchased or constructed.

(7) If the new asset is transferred within three years of its purchase or its construction, the capital gains not charged under section 67 on the basis of cost of such new asset as per sub-section (1) shall be charged as long-term capital gains of the tax year in which such new asset is transferred.

(8) If the cost of the new asset exceeds ten crore rupees, the amount exceeding ten crore rupees, shall not be taken into account for the purposes of sub-section (1).

(9) If the net consideration on the transfer of original asset exceeds ten crore rupees, the amount exceeding ten crore rupees, shall not be taken into account for the purposes of sub-section (2).

(10) In this section, "net consideration" means the full value of the consideration received or accruing as a result of the transfer of the original asset as reduced by any expenditure incurred wholly and exclusively in connection with such transfer.

Exemption of capital gains on transfer of assets in cases of shifting of industrial undertaking from urban area.

87. (1) If the assessee has—

(a) capital gains arising from the transfer of capital asset, being machinery or plant or building or land or any rights in building or land used for the business of an industrial undertaking situated in an urban area, effected in the case of shifting of an industrial undertaking situated in an urban area (original asset) to any non-urban area (new area); and

(b) within one year before or three years after the date of such transfer,—

(i) purchased new machinery or plant for business of the industrial undertaking in the new area;

(ii) acquired building or land or constructed building for his business in the said area;

(iii) shifted the original asset and transferred its establishment to such area; and

(iv) incurred expenses on such other purpose as specified in a scheme notified by the Central Government for this section, then, instead of the capital gains being charged to income tax as income of the tax year in which the transfer took place, it shall be dealt with as follows:—

(A) if the cost and expenses incurred in on all or any of the purposes mentioned in clauses (i) to (iv) (new asset),—

(I) is less than the capital gains, the difference shall be charged under section 67 as the income of the tax year; or

(II) is equal to or more than the capital gain, no capital gain shall be charged under section 67;

(B) for computing any capital gain arising from transfer of the new asset within three years of its being purchased, acquired, constructed or transferred, the cost shall be nil in case of clause (a) or shall be reduced by the amount of the capital gain in case of clause (b).

(2) If the capital gain is not used by the assessee for the new asset within one year before the transfer of the original asset, or before filing the return of income under section 263, then—

(a) the unutilised amount shall be deposited in a specified bank or institution and utilised as per the scheme notified by the Central Government;

(b) such deposit shall be made not later than the due date applicable in the case of the assessee for filing the return of income under sub-section (1) of the said section; and

(c) the proof of deposit shall be submitted along with the return on or before the due date for filing the return.

(3) For the purposes of sub-section (1), the amount already utilised for purchasing or constructing the new asset together with the deposited amount under sub-section (2) shall be deemed to be the cost of the new asset.

(4) If the amount deposited under sub-section (2) is not wholly or partly utilised for the new asset within the period specified in sub-section (1), then,—

(a) the unutilised amount shall be charged under section 67 as the income of the tax year in which the period of three years from the date of the transfer of the original asset expires; and

(b) the assessee shall be entitled to withdraw the unused amount according to the said scheme.

(5) In this section, the expression "urban area" means any area within the limits of a municipal corporation or municipality, declared to be an urban area by the Central Government for the purposes of this section, having regard to—

(a) the population;

(b) concentration of industries; and

(c) need for proper planning of the area and other relevant factors.

Exemption of capital gains on transfer of assets in cases of shifting of industrial undertaking from urban area to any Special Economic Zone.

88. (1) Irrespective of anything contained in section 87 if the assessee has—

(a) capital gains arising from the transfer of a capital asset, being machinery or plant or building or land or any rights in building or land used for the business of an industrial undertaking situated in an urban area, effected in the course of or in consequence of shifting of such industrial undertaking (original asset) to any Special Economic Zone in any area; and

(b) has within one year before or three years after the date of such transfer,—

(i) purchased machinery or plant for the business of the industrial undertaking in such Special Economic Zone;

(ii) acquired building or land or constructed building for his business in such Special Economic Zone;

(iii) shifted the original asset and transferred the establishment to such Special Economic Zone; and

(iv) incurred expenses on such other purposes specified by a scheme notified by the Central Government in this behalf, then, instead of capital gain being charged to income-tax as income of the tax year in which the transfer took place, it shall be dealt with as follows:—

(A) if the cost and expenses incurred in on all or any of the purposes mentioned in clauses (i) to (iv) (new asset)—

(I) is less than the capital gains, the difference shall be charged under section 67 as the income of the tax year; or

(II) is equal to or more than the capital gains, no capital gain shall be charged under section 67;

(B) for computing any capital gain arising from transfer of the new asset within three years of its being purchased, acquired, constructed or transferred, the cost shall be nil in case of clause (a), or shall be reduced by the amount of the capital gain in case of clause (b).

(2) If the capital gain is not utilised by the assessee for the new asset within one year before the transfer of the original asset, or before filing the return of income under section 263, then,—

(a) the unutilised amount shall be deposited not later than the due date for filing the return of income under sub-section (1) of the said section in a specified bank or institution and utilised as per the scheme notified by the Central Government;

(b) such deposit shall be made not later than the due date applicable in the case of the assessee for filing the return of income under the said sub-section; and

(c) the proof of deposit shall be submitted along with the return on or before the due date for filing the return.

(3) For the purposes of sub-section (1), the amount already utilised for purchasing or constructing the new asset together with the deposited amount under sub-section (2) shall be deemed to be the cost of the new asset.

(4) If the amount deposited under sub-section (2) is not wholly or partly utilised for the new asset within the period specified in sub-section (1), then,—

(a) the unutilised amount shall be charged under section 67 as the income of the tax year in which the period of three years from the date of the transfer of the original asset expires; and

(b) the assessee shall be entitled to withdraw the unused amount according to the said scheme.

(5) In this section "urban area" shall have the meaning assigned to it in section 87.

Extension of time for acquiring new asset or depositing or investing amount of capital gains.

89. Irrespective of anything contained in sections 82, 83, 84, 85, and 86,—

(a) if the transfer of the original asset mentioned in those sections is by way of compulsory acquisition under any law; and

(b) if the compensation awarded for such acquisition is not received by the assessee on the date of transfer, then, the period available to him under those sections for acquisition of the new asset or investment or deposit of capital gain in specified bank or institution shall be reckoned from the date of receipt of compensation.

Meaning of "adjusted", "cost of improvement" and "cost of acquisition".

90. (1) For the purposes of sections 72 and 73, "cost of improvement",—

(a) in relation to a capital asset being goodwill or any intangible asset of a business, or a right to manufacture, produce or process any article or thing, or right to carry on any business or profession, or any other right, shall be taken to be nil; and

(b) in relation to any other capital asset,—

(i) if the capital asset became the property of the previous owner or the assessee before the 1st April, 2001, means all expenditure of a capital nature incurred on or after the said date in making any additions or alterations to the capital asset by the previous owner or the assessee; and

(ii) in any other case, all expenditure of a capital nature incurred in making any additions or alterations to the capital asset by the assessee after it became his property, and, where the capital asset became the property of the assessee by any of the modes specified in section 73 (Table: Sl. No. 1), by the previous owner.

(2) For the purposes of sub-section (1)(b), the cost of improvement does not include any expenditure which is deductible in computing the income chargeable under the head "Income from house property", "Profits and gains of business or profession" or "Income from other sources".

(3) For the purposes of sections 72 and 73, "cost of acquisition", of a capital asset (being goodwill of a business or profession, or a trade mark or brand name associated with a business or profession, or any other intangible asset, or a right to manufacture, produce or process any article or thing, or a right to carry on any business or profession, or tenancy rights, or stage carriage permits, or loom hours, or any other right) means—

(a) purchase price, if acquisition of such asset by the assessee is by purchase from the previous owner; and

(b) purchase price for the previous owner, in the case covered in section 73 (Table: Sl. No. 1), where such asset was acquired by purchase by the previous owner as defined in sub-section (2) of the said section; and

(c) nil, in any other case.

(4) For the purposes of sub-section (3)(a) or (b), if—

(a) the capital asset is goodwill of a business or profession; and

(b) the assessee has obtained a deduction on account of depreciation under section 32(1) of the Income-tax Act, 1961 in a tax year preceding the tax year commencing on the 1st April, 2020, then the total amount of depreciation obtained before the tax year commencing on the 1st April, 2020 shall be reduced from the amount of purchase price.

43 of 1961.

(5) For the purposes of sections 72 and 73 (), and subject to the provisions of sub-sections (9)(a) and (b), "cost of acquisition" shall be as per sub-section (6), in a case where, by virtue of holding a capital asset, being a share or any other security, within the meaning of section 2(h) of the Securities Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1956 (herein referred to as the financial asset), the assessee—

(a) becomes entitled to subscribe to any additional financial asset; or

(b) is allotted any additional financial asset without any payment.

(6) In a case referred to in sub-section (5), "cost of acquisition", in relation to—

42 of 1956.

(a) the original financial asset, on the basis of which the assessee becomes entitled to any additional financial asset, means the amount actually paid for acquiring the original financial asset;

(b) any right to renounce the said entitlement to subscribe to the financial asset, when such right is renounced by the assessee in favour of any person, shall be taken to be nil in the case of such assessee;

(c) the financial asset, to which the assessee has subscribed on the basis of the said entitlement, means the amount actually paid for acquiring such asset;

(d) the financial asset allotted to the assessee without any payment and on the basis of holding of any other financial asset, shall be taken to be nil; and

(e) any financial asset purchased by any person in whose favour the right to subscribe to such asset has been renounced, means the total amount of the purchase price paid to the person renouncing such right and the amount paid to the company or institution, for acquiring such financial asset.

(6A) For the purposes of section 72 and 73, cost of acquisition in relation to a capital asset-

(a) being equity share or shares allotted to a shareholder of a recognised stock exchange in India under a scheme for demutualisation or corporatisation approved by the Securities and Exchange Board of India established under section 3 of the Securities and Exchange Board of India Act, 1992 shall be the cost of acquisition of his original membership of the exchange;

(b) being trading or clearing rights of the recognised stock exchange acquired by shareholder who has been allotted equity share or shares under such scheme of demutualisaiton or corporatisation, shall be deemed to be nil.

(7) For the purposes of sections 72 and 73, "cost of acquisition", subject to sub-sections (9)(a) and (b), in relation to a long-term capital asset, being an equity share in a company or a unit of an equity oriented fund or a unit of a business trust referred to in section 198, acquired before the 1st February, 2018, shall be higher of—

(a) the cost of acquisition of such asset; and

(b) lower of—

(i) the fair market value of such asset; and

(ii) the full value of consideration received or accruing as a result of the transfer of the capital asset.

15 of 1992.

(8) For the purposes of sub-section (7),—

(a) "Cost Inflation Index", shall have the meaning assigned to it in section 72(8)(a);

(b) "fair market value" means,—

(i) in a case where the capital asset is listed on any recognised stock exchange as on the 31st January, 2018, the highest price of the capital asset quoted on such exchange on that date;

(ii) irrespective of sub-clause (i), if there is no trading in such asset on such exchange on the 31st January, 2018, the highest price of such asset on such exchange on a date immediately preceding the 31st January, 2018 when such asset was traded shall be the fair market value;

(iii) if the capital asset is a unit which is not listed on a recognised stock exchange as on the 31st January, 2018, the net asset value of such unit as on that date;

(iv) if the capital asset is an equity share in a company which is—

(A) not listed on a recognised stock exchange as on the 31st January, 2018 but listed on the date of transfer;

(B) not listed on a recognised stock exchange as on the 31st January, 2018, or which became the property of the assessee in consideration of share which is not listed on such exchange as on the 31st January, 2018 by way of transaction mentioned in section 70, but listed on such exchange subsequent to the date of transfer (where such transfer is in respect of sale of unlisted equity shares under an offer for sale to the public included in an initial public offer);

(C) listed on a recognised stock exchange on the date of transfer and which became the property of the assessee in consideration of share which is not listed on such exchange as on the 31st January, 2018 by way of transaction mentioned in section 70, an amount which bears to the cost of acquisition the same proportion as Cost Inflation Index for the tax year 2017-18 bears to the Cost Inflation Index for the first year in which the asset was held by the assessee or for the year beginning on the 1st April, 2001, whichever is later.

(9) For the purposes of sections 72 and 73, cost of acquisition in relation to any other capital asset,—

(a) if the capital asset became the property of the assessee before the 1st April, 2001, subject to sub-section (10), shall be the cost of acquisition of the asset to the assessee or its fair market value on the 1st April, 2001, at the option of the assessee;

(b) if the capital asset became the property of the assessee by any of the modes specified in section 73 (Table: Sl. No. 1), and the capital asset became the property of the previous owner before the 1st April, 2001, subject to sub-section (10), shall be the cost of the capital asset to the previous owner or its fair market value on the 1st April, 2001, at the option of the assessee;

(c) if the capital asset became the property of the assessee on the distribution of the capital assets of a company on its liquidation and the assessee has been assessed to income-tax under the head "Capital gains" in respect of that asset under section 68, means the fair market value of the asset on the date of distribution;

(d) if the capital asset, being a share or a stock of a company, became the property of the assessee on—

(i) the consolidation and division of all or any of the share capital of the company into shares of larger amount than its existing shares; or

(ii) the conversion of any shares of the company into stock; or

(iii) the re-conversion of any stock of the company into shares; or

(iv) the sub-division of any of the shares of the company into shares of smaller amount; or

(v) the conversion of one kind of shares of the company into another kind, means the cost of acquisition of the asset calculated with reference to the cost of acquisition of the shares or stock from which such asset is derived.

(10) In case of a capital asset referred to in sub-sections (9)(a) and (9)(b), being land or building, or both, the fair market value of such asset on the 1st April, 2001 for the said clauses shall not exceed the stamp duty value, wherever available, of such asset as on the 1st April, 2001.

(11) If the cost for which the previous owner acquired the property is unable to be ascertained, the cost of acquisition to the previous owner shall be the fair market value on the date on which the capital asset became the property of the previous owner.

Reference to Valuation Officer.

91. (1) For ascertaining the fair market value of a capital asset for this Chapter, the Assessing Officer may refer the valuation of capital asset to a Valuation Officer,—

(a) if the value of the asset claimed by the assessee is as per the estimate by a registered valuer, but the Assessing Officer is of the opinion that the value so claimed is at variance with its fair market value;

(b) in any other case, if the Assessing Officer is of the opinion that—

(i) the fair market value of the asset exceeds the value claimed by the assessee by more than the percentage or amount, as prescribed; or

(ii) having regard to the nature of the asset and other relevant circumstances, it is necessary so to do.

(2) The provisions of section 269(3) to (8) shall , with necessary modifications, apply in relation to such reference made under sub-section (1).

F.— Income from other sources

Income from other sources.

92. (1) Income of every kind which is not to be excluded from the total income, shall be chargeable to income-tax under the head "Income from other sources", if it is not chargeable to income-tax under any of the heads specified in section 13(a) to (d).

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of sub-section (1), the following incomes shall be chargeable to income-tax under the head "Income from other sources":—

(a) any dividend;

(b) any winning from lotteries, crossword puzzles, races including horse races, card games and other games of any sort or from gambling or betting of any form or nature;

(c) any sum received by the assessee from employees as contributions to any provident fund, superannuation fund, any fund set up under the Employees' State Insurance Act, 1948, or any other fund for the welfare of such employees, if the income in not chargeable to income-tax under the head "Profits and gains of business or profession"; 34 of 1948.

(d) any sum received under a Keyman insurance policy, as defined Schedule II (Note 1) including the bonus allocated on such policy, if such income is not chargeable to income-tax under the head "Profits and gains of business or profession" or under the head "Salaries";

(e) any income by way of interest on securities, if the income is not chargeable to income-tax under the head "Profits and gains of business or profession";

(f) any income from machinery, plant or furniture belonging to the assessee and let on hire, if the income is not chargeable to income-tax under the head "Profits and gains of business or profession";

(g) any income from letting on hire of machinery, plant or furniture, belonging to the assessee and also buildings, where the letting of the building is inseparable from the letting of such machinery, plant or furniture, if the income is not chargeable to income-tax under the head "Profits and gains of business or profession";

(h) any sum of money received as an advance or otherwise during negotiations for the transfer of a capital asset, if—

(i) such sum is forfeited; and

(ii) the negotiations do not result in transfer of such capital asset;

(i) any income by way of interest received on compensation or on enhanced compensation referred to in section 278(1);

(j) any compensation or other payment, due to or received by any person, by whatever name called, in connection with the termination of his employment, or the modification of its terms and conditions;

(k) any specified sum received by a unit holder from a business trust during the tax year with respect to a unit held by him at any time during such tax year, the computation of which shall be—specified sum = A-B-C (which shall be deemed to be zero, if the sum of B and C is greater than A), where—

A = aggregate of the sum distributed by the business trust with respect to such unit, during the tax year or during any earlier tax year or years, to such unit holder, who holds such unit on the date of distribution of sum or to any other unit holder who held such unit at any time prior to the date of such distribution, which is—

(a) not in the nature of income referred to in Schedule V (Table: Sl. No. 3 or 4); and

(b) not chargeable to tax under section 223(2);

B = amount at which such unit was issued by the business trust; and

C = amount charged to tax under this clause in any earlier tax year;

(l) where any sum, including bonus allocated, is received, during a tax year, under a life insurance policy, other than—

(a) sums received under a unit linked insurance policy; or

(b) income referred to in clause (d), and such sum is not to be excluded from the total income of that tax year under Schedule II (Table: Sl. No. 2), the sum exceeding the aggregate of the premium paid, during the term of such policy, and not claimed as a deduction under this Act, computed in such manner, as prescribed;

(m) where any person receives in any tax year, from any person or persons—

(i) any sum of money without consideration, the total of which exceeds fifty thousand rupees, the whole of such sum;

(ii) any immovable property—

(A) without consideration, the stamp duty value of which exceeds fifty thousand rupees, the stamp duty value of such property;

(B) for a consideration, the stamp duty value of such property that exceeds such consideration, if this excess amount is more than the higher of the following amounts:—

(I) fifty thousand rupees; or

(II) 10% of the consideration;

(iii) any property, other than immovable property,—

(A) without consideration, the aggregate fair market value of which exceeds fifty thousand rupees, the whole of the aggregate fair market value of such property;

(B) for a consideration which is less than the aggregate fair market value of the property by an amount exceeding fifty thousand rupees, the aggregate fair market value of such property as exceeds such consideration.

(3) The provisions of sub-section (2)(m) shall not apply to any sum of money or any property received—

(a) from any relative; or

(b) on the occasion of marriage of the individual; or

(c) under a will or by way of inheritance; or

(d) in contemplation of death of the payer or donor; or

(e) from any local authority as defined in Schedule III (Note 6); or

(f) from or by any registered non-profit organisation as defined in section 355(g), except when received by any person referred to in section 355() (h); or

(g) by way of a transaction not regarded as transfer under section 70(1)(a), (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), (i), (j), (k), (l), (n), (o), (), (t), (u), (v) or (w); or

(h) from an individual by a trust created or established solely for the benefit of relative of the individual; or

(i) from such class of persons and subject to such conditions, as prescribed.

(4) For the purposes of sub-section (2)(m)(ii),—

(a) if the date of agreement fixing the amount of consideration for the transfer of immovable property and the date of registration are not the same, the stamp duty value on the date of agreement shall apply, provided the consideration, in whole or in part, has been paid by account payee cheque or account payee bank draft or by electronic clearing system through a bank account or through any prescribed electronic mode, on or before the date of agreement for transfer of such immovable property;

(b) if the stamp duty value of immovable property is disputed by the assessee on the grounds mentioned in section 78(2) the Assessing Officer may refer the valuation of such property to a Valuation Officer, and the provisions of sections 78(2) and 288 (Table: Sl. No. 8) shall, as far as may be, apply to the stamp duty value of such property as they apply for valuation of capital asset under those sections.

(5) In this section,—

(a) "assessable" shall have the meaning assigned to it in section 78(3);

(b) "card game and other game of any sort" includes any game show, an entertainment programme on television or electronic mode, where people compete to win prizes or any similar game;

(i) in case of an individual—

(A) spouse;

(B) brother or sister;

(C) brother or sister of the spouse;

(D) brother or sister of either of the parents;

(E) any lineal ascendant () (maternal as well as paternal) or descendant (maternal as well as paternal);

(F) any lineal ascendant (maternal as well as paternal) or descendant () of the spouse;

(G) spouse of the person referred to in items (B) to (F); and

(ii) for a Hindu undivided family, any member thereof;

(h) "unit linked insurance policy" shall have the meaning assigned to it in Schedule II (Note 1).

Deductions.

93. (1) The income chargeable under the head "Income from other sources" shall be computed after making the following deductions:—

(a) for dividends [excluding those referred to in section 2(40)(f)] or interest on securities, any reasonable sum paid as commission or remuneration to a banker or any other person for the purpose of realising such dividend or interest on behalf of the assessee;

(b) for income of the nature referred to in section 92(2)(c), so far as may be, an amount as per section 29(1)(e);

(c) for income of the nature referred to in section 92(2)(f) and (g), so far as may be, an amount as per section 28(1)(a), (b), (d), section 33, and subject to the provisions of section 28(2);

(d) for income in the nature of family pension (a regular monthly amount payable by the employer to a family member of an employee upon the death of such employee),—

(i) an amount equal to one-third of such income or twenty-five thousand rupees, whichever is less, where income-tax is computed under section 202(1); and

(ii) an amount equal to one-third of such income or fifteen thousand rupees, whichever is less, in any other case;

(e) any other expenditure (not being in the nature of capital expenditure) laid out or expended wholly and exclusively for making or earning such income;

(f) for income of the nature referred to in section 92(2)(i), an amount equal to 50% of such income and no other deduction shall be allowed under this section.

(g) for income in the nature of commutation of pension received from a fund as specified in Schedule VII (Table: Sl. No. 3), the entire amount.

(2) In respect of—

(a) dividend income of the nature referred to in section 2(40)(f), no deduction shall be allowed;

(b) any other dividend income [other than in clause (a)], or income from units of a Mutual Fund specified under Schedule VII (Table: Sl. No. 20 or 21) or income from units of a specified company as referred to in section 2(h) of the Unit Trust of India (Transfer of Undertaking and Repeal) Act, 2002, only deduction allowed shall be interest expense which, for any tax year, shall be limited to 20% of such income (included in the total income for that year, without deduction under this section). 58 of 2002.

Amounts not deductible.

94. (1) Irrespective of anything contained in section 93, the following amounts shall not be deductible in computing the income of any assessee chargeable under the head "Income from other sources":—

(a) any personal expenses of the assessee; or

(b) any interest chargeable under this Act, payable outside India, on which tax has not been paid or deducted under Chapter XIX-B; or

(c) any payment chargeable under the head "Salaries", if it is payable outside India, unless tax has been paid or deducted under Chapter XIX-B.

(2) The provisions of sections 29, 35(b)(i), and 36 shall apply in computing the income chargeable under the head "Income from other sources" as they apply in computing the income chargeable under the head "Profits and gains of business or profession".

(3) For an assessee, being a foreign company, the provisions of section 59 shall apply in computing the income chargeable under the head "Income from other sources", as they apply in computing the income chargeable under the head "Profits and gains of business or profession".

(4) In computing the income from winnings from lotteries, crossword puzzles, races including horse races, card games and other games of any sort, or from gambling or betting of any form or nature, no deduction for any expenditure or allowance related to such income shall be allowed under this Act.

(5) Sub-section (4) shall not apply in computing the income of an assessee, being the owner of horses maintained for running in horse races, from the activity of owning and maintaining such horses.

(6) In this section, "horse race" means a horse race upon which wagering or betting may be lawfully made.

Profits chargeable to tax.

95. The provision of section 38(1)(a) shall apply in computing the income of an assessee under section 92, as they apply in computing the income of an assessee under the head "Profits and gains of business or profession".

CHAPTER V

INCOME OF OTHER PERSONS, INCLUDED IN TOTAL INCOME OF ASSESSEE

Transfer of income without transfer of assets.

96. All income arising to any person by virtue of transfer,—

(a) whether revocable or not, and whether effected before or after the commencement of this Act; and

(b) where there is no transfer of assets from which such income arises, shall be chargeable to income-tax as the income of the transferor and shall be included in his total income.

Chargeability of income in transfer of assets.

97. (1) All income arising to any person by virtue of a revocable transfer of assets shall be chargeable to income-tax as income of the transferor and shall be included in his total income.

(2) The provisions of sub-section (1) shall not apply, if such transfer—

(a) is by way of trust which is not revocable during the lifetime of the beneficiary; or

(b) () in case of any other transfer, is not revocable during the lifetime of the transferee, and the transferor does not derive any direct or indirect benefit from such income in cases referred to in clauses (a) and (b).

(3) Irrespective of the provisions of sub-section (2), all income arising to any person by virtue of such transfer shall be chargeable to income-tax as income of the transferor as and when the power to revoke such transfer arises, and shall than be included in his total income.

"Transfer" and "revocable transfer" defined.

98. For the purposes of sections 96 and 97, and this section,—

(a) "transfer" includes any settlement, trust, covenant, agreement or arrangement;

(b) a transfer shall be considered to be revocable, if—

(i) it contains any provision for the direct or indirect re-transfer of the whole or any part of the income or assets to the transferor; or

(ii) it, in any way, gives the transferor a right to re-assume power directly or indirectly over the whole or any part of the income or assets.

Income of individual to include income of spouse, minor child, etc.

99. (1) The total income of any individual, for a tax year, shall include the income arising directly or indirectly,—

(a) to the spouse,—

(i) by way of salary, commission, fees or any other form of remuneration, whether in cash or kind, from a concern in which such individual has a substantial interest but shall not () include income solely attributable to the application of technical or professional knowledge, experience and professional qualification of the spouse;

(ii) from assets transferred directly or indirectly to him or her by such individual otherwise than for adequate consideration or in connection with an agreement to live apart, subject to the provisions of section 25(a);

(iii) from assets transferred directly or indirectly to any person or association of persons otherwise than for adequate consideration to the extent to which the income from such assets is for the immediate or deferred benefit of the spouse;

(b) to the son's wife,—

(i) from assets transferred directly or indirectly on or after the 1st June, 1973, to her by such individual, otherwise than for adequate consideration; or

(ii) from assets transferred directly or indirectly on or after the 1st June, 1973, to any person or association of persons otherwise than for adequate consideration to the extent to which the income from such assets is for the immediate or deferred benefit of the son's wife;

(c) to the minor child of the individual but shall not include in the total income of the individual where the income arising or accruing to the minor child is from manual work done by such child, or from activities where his skill, talent, specialised knowledge or experience is applied, or where such minor child is suffering from disability of the nature specified in section 154.

(2) If the asset transferred under sub-section (1)(a) or (b) is invested by the spouse or son's wife, in any business or capital contributed as a partner in a firm, or, as the case may be, for being admitted to the benefits of partnership in a firm, then, the income to be included in the hands of the individual for the tax year shall be as follows:—

where,—

A = Income to be included in the hands of individual for the tax year;

B = Income and interest or both, arising to the spouse or son's wife from the business or the firm, as applicable during the tax year;

C = value of such assets invested, or contributed as capital by the spouse or son's wife as on the first day of the tax year;

D = Total investment or total capital contribution, as the case may be, by the spouse or son's wife () as on the first day of the tax year.

(3) Where a property owned by an individual is converted into property belonging to the Hindu undivided family of which he is a member, through—

(a) the act of impressing such separate property with the character of property belonging to the family; or

(b) throwing it into the common stock of the family; or

(c) transfer, directly or indirectly to the family, without adequate consideration, then, irrespective of any other provision of this Act or any other law in force for computing the total income of such individual,—

(i) the individual shall be deemed to have transferred such property, through the family, to the members of such family for being held jointly, and the income derived from such property or part thereof, shall be deemed to be income of the individual;

(ii) upon partition (whether partial or total) of the family, the income derived from such property as is received by the spouse of the individual on partition, shall be deemed to arise to the spouse from assets transferred indirectly to the spouse and the provisions of sub-section (1)(a) shall apply;

(iii) the income referred to in clauses (i) and (ii) shall, on being included in the total income of the individual, be excluded from the total income of the family or, the spouse.

(4) The provisions of sub-section (3) shall not apply where the property of the individual has been converted into property belonging to the family on or before the 31st December, 1969.

(5) In this section,—

(a) for sub-section (1)(a)(i)-,—

(i) the income referred to in that clause shall be included in the hands of either of the spouse whose total income before such inclusion is greater; and

(ii) such income, once included in the total income of either spouse, for a tax year, shall not be included in the income of the other spouse for any succeeding tax year, unless the Assessing Officer is so satisfied, after giving the other spouse an opportunity of being heard;

(iii) "substantial interest in a concern" means,—

(A) in case of a company, if its shares (not being shares entitled to a fixed rate of dividend whether with or without a further right to participate in profits) carrying not less than 20% of the voting power are, at any time during the tax year, owned beneficially by the individual or jointly with one or more of his relatives;

(B) in any other case, if such person is entitled, or such person and one or more of his relatives are jointly entitled, to atleast 20% of the profits of such concern at any time during the tax year;

(b) for sub-section (1)()(c), income of minor child shall be included—

(i) in the income of that parent whose total income before such inclusion is greater in case where the marriage of his parents subsists; or

(ii) in the income of the parent who maintains such child during the tax year in case where marriage of his parents does not subsist, and such income, once included in the total income of either parent, for a tax year, shall not be included in the income of the other parent for any succeeding tax year, unless the Assessing Officer is so satisfied, after giving the other parent an opportunity of being heard;

(c) for sub-section (3), "property" includes—

(i) interest in property; or

(ii) movable or immovable property; or

(iii) proceeds of sale of such property and any money, property or investment representing such proceeds; or

(iv) where property is converted into any other property by any method, such other property;

(d) for this section, "income" includes loss.

Liability of person in respect of income included in income of another person.

100. Where, income of a person, other than the assessee, arising from any asset, or income from membership of a firm, is included in the total income of the assessee under this Chapter or under section 25(a), then, irrespective of anything to the contrary contained in any other law in force,—

(a) such person, in whose name such asset stands, shall be liable to pay, that portion of the tax levied on the assessee which is attributable to the income so included, upon service of notice of demand by the Assessing Officer in this behalf;

(b) where any such asset is held jointly by more than one person, they shall be jointly and severally liable to pay such tax; and

(c) the provisions of Chapter XIX-D shall apply accordingly.

CHAPTER VI

AGGREGATION OF INCOME

Total income.

101. In computing the total income of an assessee, there shall be included all income on which no income-tax is payable under Chapter XVIIA-4.

Unexplained credits.

102. (1) Where any sum is found credited in the books of account maintained by the assessee for any tax year, and—

(a) the assessee offers no explanation about the nature and source of such credit; or

(b) the explanation offered by assessee is not satisfactory in the opinion of the Assessing Officer, then, the sum so credited shall be charged to income-tax as income of the assessee of that tax year.

(2) If the sum so credited consists of loan or borrowing, or any such amount, by whatever name called, the explanation offered by such assessee shall be deemed to be not satisfactory, unless,—

(a) the person in whose name such credit is recorded in the books of such assessee also offers an explanation about the nature and source of such sum so credited; and

(b) such explanation, in the opinion of the Assessing Officer referred to in sub-section (1), has been found to be satisfactory.

(3) If the assessee is a company (not being a company in which the public are substantially interested), and the sum so credited consists of share application money, share capital, share premium, or any such amount, by whatever name called, the explanation offered by such assessee company shall be deemed to be not satisfactory, unless—

(a) the person, being a resident in whose name such credit is recorded in the books of such company also offers an explanation about the nature and source of such sum so credited; and

(b) such explanation, in the opinion of the Assessing Officer referred to in sub-section (1), has been found to be satisfactory.

(4) Nothing contained in sub-section (2) or (3) shall apply if the person, in whose name the sum referred to in those sub-sections is recorded, is a venture capital fund or a venture capital company as referred to in Schedule V (Table: Sl. No. 6).

Unexplained investment.

103. Where in any tax year, any investment has been made by the assessee which is not recorded in the books of account, if any, maintained by such assessee, or, the Assessing Officer finds that the amount of such investment exceeds the amount recorded in such books of account (), and the assessee—

(a) offers no explanation about the nature and source of such investment, or such excess amount, as the case may be; or

(b) the explanation offered by the assessee, is not satisfactory in the opinion of the Assessing Officer, then, the value of such investment, or such excess amount, as the case may be, shall be deemed to be the income of the assessee of that tax year.

Unexplained asset.

104. (1) Where in any tax year, any asset has been found to be owned by or belonging to the assesse which is not recorded in the books of account, if any, maintained by such assessee, or the Assessing Officer finds that the amount of such asset exceeds the amount recorded in such books of account (), and the assesse––

(a) offers no explanation about the nature and source of acquisition of such asset, or such excess amount, as the case may be; or

(b) the explanation offered by the assessee, is not satisfactory in the opinion of the Assessing Officer, then, the value of such asset, or such excess amount, as the case may be, shall be deemed to be the income of the assessee of the tax year in which such asset has been found to be owned by, or belonging to, the assessee.

(2) In this section, "asset" includes money, bullion, jewellery, virtual digital asset or other valuable article.

Unexplained expenditure.

105. (1) Where any expenditure has been incurred by the assessee in any tax year, and—

(a) the assessee offers no explanation about the source of such expenditure or part thereof; or

(b) the explanation offered by the assessee is not satisfactory in the opinion of the Assessing Officer, then, the amount covered by such expenditure or part thereof, shall be deemed to be the income of the assessee for that tax year.

(2) Irrespective of any other provision of this Act, the amount deemed as income in sub-section (1) shall not be allowed as a deduction under this Act.

Amount borrowed or repaid through negotiable instrument, hundi, etc.

106. (1) Where any amount () is borrowed or repaid through a negotiable instrument or a hundi, other than an account payee cheque, or through any mode as specified by the Board in this behalf, the amount so borrowed or repaid (including interest thereof) shall be deemed to be the income of the person borrowing or repaying, as the case maybe, for the tax year in which the amount was borrowed or repaid.

(2) Where the amount borrowed under sub-section (1) has been deemed to be the income of any person, such person shall not be liable to be assessed again in respect of such amount under that sub-section on repayment of such amount.

Charge of tax.

107. Income referred to in sections 102, 103, 104, 105 and 106 shall be charged to tax as per the provisions of section 195.

CHAPTER VII

SET OFF, OR CARRY FORWARD AND SET OFF OF LOSSES

Set off of losses under the same head of income.

108. (1) Unless provided otherwise in this Act, for any tax year, if net result of computation from any source under any head of income (other than "Capital gains") is a loss, then assessee shall be entitled to set off such loss against his income from any other source under the same head for that tax year.

(2) Any loss, as a result of computation made under sections 72 to 90, for any tax year, arising from transfer of a capital asset as arrived at under a similar computation made for the tax year in respect of any other capital asset being,—

(a) a long-term capital asset, shall be set off only against gains, if any, from transfer of another long-term capital asset; and

(b) a short-term capital asset, shall be set off against gains, if any, from transfer of any capital asset.

Set off of losses under any other head of income.

109. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Chapter, for any tax year, if income computed under any head of income (other than "Capital gains") is a loss, such loss shall be set off against income of the assessee under any other head, including "Capital gains", if any, assessable for that tax year, subject to the following conditions:—

(a) loss under the head "Profits and gains of business or profession" shall not be set off against income chargeable under the head "Salaries"; and

(b) loss under the head "Income from house property" shall be set off to the extent of two lakh rupees against income under any other head;

(2) For any tax year, the loss under the head "Capital gains" shall not be set off against income under any other head.

Carry forward and set off of loss from house property.

110. (1) The unabsorbed loss from house property for any tax year shall be carried forward to the subsequent tax year, and shall be set off only against income from house property, if any, computed for such subsequent tax year, and so on.

(2) The unabsorbed loss from house property referred to in sub-section (1) shall be carried forward to the following tax year, not being more than eight tax years immediately succeeding the tax year in which such loss was first computed.

(3) In this section, "unabsorbed loss from house property" means, loss computed under the head "Income from house property" for the tax year, which has not been, or is not wholly, set off against income from any other head, under section 109, for the said tax year.

Carry forward and set off of loss from Capital gains.

111. (1) The unabsorbed capital loss for any tax year shall be carried forward to the subsequent tax year and shall be set off in the manner provided in sub-section (2).

(2) The unabsorbed capital loss arising from transfer of capital asset, being—

(a) a long-term capital asset, () shall be set off only against capital gains, if any, from transfer of any other long-term capital asset during the subsequent tax year and so on; and

(b) a short-term capital asset, shall be set off against capital gains, if any, from transfer of any other capital asset during the subsequent tax year and so on.

(3) The unabsorbed capital loss referred to in sub-section (1), shall be carried forward to the following tax year, not being more than eight tax years immediately succeeding the tax year in which such loss was first computed.

(4) In this section, "unabsorbed capital loss" means loss computed under the head "Capital gains" for any tax year, which has not been, or is not wholly, set off under section 108 for the said tax year.

Carry forward and set off of business loss.

112. (1) The unabsorbed business loss (other than loss from speculation business) for any tax year shall be carried forward to the subsequent tax year and shall be set off only against the profits and gains of business or profession, carried on by assessee and assessable for that tax year, if any, computed for such subsequent tax year, and so on.

(2) The unabsorbed business loss referred to in sub-section (1), shall be carried forward to the following tax year, not being more than eight tax years immediately succeeding the tax year in which such loss was first computed.

(3) The unabsorbed business loss referred to in sub-section (1) shall first be allowed to be set off before allowing set off of any carried forward allowance under section 33(11) or 45(7).

(4) In this section, "unabsorbed business loss" means, loss computed under the head "Profits and gains of business or profession" () for the tax year, which has not been, or is not wholly, set off against income from any other head, under section 109 for the said tax year.

Set off and carry forward of losses from speculation business.

113. (1) Any loss computed in respect of a speculation business carried on by the assessee, during any tax year, shall be set off only against profits and gains, if any, of another speculation business for the said tax year.

(2) The unabsorbed speculation business loss for any tax year shall be carried forward to the subsequent tax year and shall be set off only against the profits and gains of speculation business, if any, computed for such subsequent tax year, and so on.

(3) The unabsorbed speculation business loss referred to in sub-section (2) shall not be carried forward for more than four tax years immediately succeeding the tax year in which such loss was first computed.

(4) The unabsorbed speculation business loss referred to in sub-section (2) shall first be allowed to be set off before allowing set off of any carried forward allowance under section 33(11) or 45(7).

(5) In this section,—

(a) where any part of the business of the assessee (being a company) consists of purchase and sale of shares of other companies, then the assessee shall be deemed to be carrying on a speculation business, to the extent to which its business consists of purchase and sale of such shares;

(b) "unabsorbed speculation business loss" means any loss computed in respect of a speculation business carried on by the assessee during the tax year, which has not been, or is not wholly, set off against profits and gains, if any, of another speculation business under sub-section (1) for the said tax year.

(6) The provisions of sub-section (5)(a) shall not apply to an assessee, being a company, if—

(a) its gross total income consists mainly of income which is chargeable under the heads "Income from house property", "Capital gains" or "Income from other sources"; or

(b) its principal business is of trading in shares or banking or the granting of loans and advances.

Set off and carry forward of losses from specified business.

114. (1) Any loss computed in respect of a specified business carried on by the assessee, during any tax year, shall be set off only against profits and gains, if any, of any other specified business for the said tax year.

(2) The unabsorbed loss from the specified business for any tax year shall be carried forward to the subsequent tax year and shall be set off only against the profits and gains of any specified business, if any, computed for such subsequent tax year, and so on.

(3) In this section,—

(a) "specified business" means any specified business referred to in section 46;

(b) "unabsorbed loss from the specified business" means, any loss computed in respect of a specified business carried on by the assessee during the tax year, which has not been, or is not wholly, set off against profits and gains, if any, of another specified business under sub-section (1) for the said tax year.

Set off and carry forward of losses from specified activity.

115. (1) Any loss incurred by the assessee in the specified activity during any tax year, shall not be set off against the income, if any, from any source other than specified activity for the said tax year.

(2) The unabsorbed loss from the specified activity for any tax year shall be carried forward to the subsequent tax year and shall be set off,—

(a) only against the income from specified activity, if any, computed for such subsequent tax year, and so on; and

(b) only when the specified activity is carried on by the assessee in that tax year.

(3) The unabsorbed loss from the specified activity referred to in sub-section (2) shall not be carried forward for more than four tax years immediately succeeding the tax year in which such loss was first computed.

(4) In this section,—

(a) "income by way of stake money" means the gross amount of prize money received by the owner of race horses participating in horse races on their winning a particular position in such race;

(b) "loss incurred by the assessee in the specified activity" means the amount by which the income by way of stake money, if any, falls short of the expenditure, not being capital expenditure, incurred wholly and exclusively for maintaining race horses;

(c) "race horse" means a horse upon which wagering or betting may be lawfully made in a horse race;

(d) "specified activity" means the activity of owning and maintaining race horses;

(e) "unabsorbed loss from the specified activity" means any loss computed in respect of the specified activity carried on by the assessee during the tax year, which has not been, or is not wholly, set off against income, if any, of the specified activity under sub-section (1) for the said tax year.

Treatment of accumulated losses and unabsorbed depreciation in amalgamation or demerger, etc.

116. (1) Where there has been an amalgamation of,—

(a) a company owning an industrial undertaking or a ship or a hotel with another company; or

(b) a banking company referred to in section 5(c) of the Banking Regulation Act, 1949 with a specified bank; or 10 of 1949.

(c) one or more public sector company with one or more other public sector company; or

(d) an erstwhile public sector company with one or more company or companies, if the share purchase agreement entered into under strategic disinvestment restricted immediate amalgamation of the said public sector company and the amalgamation is carried out within five years from the end of the tax year in which the restriction on amalgamation in the share purchase agreement ends, then, irrespective of anything in any other provision of this Act, the accumulated loss and unabsorbed depreciation of the amalgamating company shall be deemed to be the loss or, allowance for unabsorbed depreciation of the amalgamated company for the tax year in which the amalgamation was effected, and other provisions of this Act relating to set off and carry forward of loss and allowance for depreciation shall apply accordingly.

(2) The accumulated loss and the unabsorbed depreciation of the amalgamating company, in case of an amalgamation referred to in sub-section (1)(d), which is deemed to be the loss or, as the case may be, the unabsorbed depreciation of the amalgamated company, shall not exceed the accumulated loss and unabsorbed depreciation of the public sector company as on the date on which it ceases to be a public sector company due to such strategic disinvestment.

(3) For sub-section 1(d),—

(a) "control" shall have the same meaning as assigned to it in section 2(27) of the Companies Act, 2013; 18 of 2013.

(b) "erstwhile public sector company" means a company which was a public sector company in earlier tax years and ceases to be so due to strategic disinvestment by the Government;

(c) "strategic disinvestment" means sale of shareholding by the Central Government or State Government or a public sector company, in a public sector company or in a company, which results in—

(i) reduction of its shareholding to below 51%; and

(ii) transfer of control to the buyer;

(d) for clause(c)(i), the reduction of shareholding shall apply only where shareholding of the Central Government or the State Government or the public sector company exceeded 51% before the sale of shareholding;

(e) the transfer of control referred to in clause (c)(ii) may be effected by the Central Government or the State Government or the public sector company or any two or all of them.

(4) Irrespective of anything contained in sub-section (1), the accumulated loss shall not be set off or carried forward and the unabsorbed depreciation shall not be allowed in the assessment of the amalgamated company unless,—

(a) the amalgamating company—

(i) has been engaged in the business, in which the accumulated loss occurred or depreciation remains unabsorbed, for three or more years;

(ii) has held continuously as on the date of the amalgamation, at least three-fourths of the book value of fixed assets held by it two years preceding the date of amalgamation;

(b) the amalgamated company—

(i) holds continuously for a minimum five years from the date of amalgamation at least three-fourths of the book value of fixed assets of the amalgamating company acquired in a scheme of amalgamation;

(ii) continues the business of the amalgamating company for a minimum five years from the date of amalgamation;

(iii) fulfils such other conditions as prescribed to ensure the revival of the business of the amalgamating company or to ensure that the amalgamation is for genuine business purpose.

(5) If any of the conditions laid down in sub-section (4) are not complied with, the set off of loss or allowance of depreciation made in any tax year in the hands of the amalgamated company shall be treated as the income of the amalgamated company chargeable to tax for the year in which the non-compliance occurs.

(6) Irrespective of anything contained in any other provisions of this Act, in the case of a demerger, the accumulated loss and the allowance for unabsorbed depreciation of the demerged company shall,—

(a) if directly relatable to the undertakings transferred to the resulting company, be allowed to be carried forward and set off in the hands of the resulting company;

(b) if not directly relatable to the undertakings transferred to the resulting company, be apportioned between the demerged company and the resulting company in the same proportion in which the assets of the undertakings have been retained by the demerged company and transferred to the resulting company, and shall be allowed to be carried forward and set off in the hands of the demerged company or the resulting company, as applicable.

(7) The Central Government may, by notification, specify such conditions to ensure that the demerger is for genuine business purposes.

(8) If there has been a business reorganisation where, a firm is succeeded by a company fulfilling the conditions laid down in section 70(1)(zd) or a proprietary concern is succeeded by a company fulfilling the conditions laid down in section 70(1)(zf), then, irrespective of anything contained in this Act, the accumulated loss and the unabsorbed depreciation of the predecessor firm or the proprietary concern, shall be deemed to be the loss or allowance for depreciation of the successor company for the tax year in which business reorganisation was effected and other provisions of this Act relating to set off and carry forward of loss and allowance for depreciation shall apply.

(9) If any of the conditions laid down in section 70(1)(zd) or (zf) are not complied with, the set off of loss or allowance of depreciation made in any tax year in the hands of the successor company, shall be deemed to be the income of the company chargeable to tax in the year in which the non-compliance occurs.

(10) If there has been reorganisation of business whereby a private company or unlisted public company is succeeded by a limited liability partnership fulfilling the conditions laid down in section 70(1)(ze), then, irrespective of anything contained in any other provision of this Act, the accumulated loss and the unabsorbed depreciation of the predecessor company, shall be deemed to be the loss or allowance for depreciation of the successor limited liability partnership for the tax year in which business reorganisation was effected and other provisions of this Act relating to set off and carry forward of loss and allowance for depreciation shall apply accordingly.

(11) If any of the conditions laid down in section 70(1)(ze) are not complied with, the set off of loss or allowance of depreciation made in any tax year in the hands of the successor limited liability partnership, shall be deemed to be the income of the limited liability partnership chargeable to tax in the year in which the non-compliance occurs.

(12) For any amalgamation referred to in sub-section (1) or reorganisation of business referred to in sub-section (8) or (10) effected on or after the 1st April, 2025, any loss forming part of the accumulated loss of the predecessor entity, being—

(i) the amalgamating company; or

(ii) the firm or proprietary concern; or

(iii) the private company or unlisted public company, as the case may be, which is deemed to be the loss of the successor entity, being—

(a) the amalgamated company; or

(b) the successor company; or

(c) the successor limited liability partnership, as the case may be, shall be carried forward for not more than eight tax years immediately succeeding the tax year for which such loss was first computed for the original predecessor entity.

(13) In this section,—

(a) "accumulated loss" means so much of the loss of the predecessor firm or the proprietary concern or the private company or unlisted public company before conversion into limited liability partnership or the amalgamating company or the demerged company, under the head "Profits and gains of business or profession" (excluding loss in a speculation business) which would have been eligible for carry forward and set off to such predecessor under section 112, had the reorganisation of business or conversion or amalgamation or demerger not occurred.

(b) "industrial undertaking" means any undertaking which is engaged in—

(i) the manufacture or processing of goods; or

(ii) the manufacture of computer software; or

(c) one or more Government company or companies with any other Government company under a scheme sanctioned and brought into force by the Central Government under section 16 of the General Insurance Business (Nationalisation) Act, 1972,

57 of 1972.

the accumulated loss and unabsorbed depreciation of such banking company or companies or amalgamating corresponding new bank or banks or amalgamating Government company or companies, shall be deemed to be the loss or, allowance for depreciation of the banking institution or company or amalgamated corresponding new bank or amalgamated Government company for the tax year in which the scheme of amalgamation was brought into force and other provisions of this Act relating to set off and carry forward of loss and allowance for depreciation shall apply accordingly.

(2) Where any scheme of such amalgamation is brought into force on or after the 1st April, 2025, any loss forming part of the accumulated loss of the predecessor entity, being—

(i) the banking company or companies;

(ii) the amalgamating corresponding new bank or banks; or

(iii) the amalgamating Government company or companies, as the case may be, which is deemed to be the loss of the successor entity, being—

(a) the banking institution or company; or

(b) the amalgamated corresponding new bank or banks; or

(c) the amalgamated Government company or companies, as the case may be, shall be carried forward in the hands of the successor entity for not more than eight tax years immediately succeeding the tax year for which such loss was first computed for original predecessor entity.

(3) In this section,—

(a) "accumulated loss" means so much of the loss of the amalgamating banking company or companies or amalgamating corresponding new bank or banks or amalgamating Government company or companies under the head "Profits and gains of business or profession" (excluding losses of a speculation business) which such amalgamating company or companies would have been entitled to carry forward and set off under section 112 had the amalgamation not occurred;

(b) "banking company" shall have the same meaning as assigned to it in section 5(c) of the Banking Regulation Act, 1949;

10 of 1949.

(c) "banking institution" shall have the same meaning as assigned to it in section 45(15) of the Banking Regulation Act, 1949;

10 of 1949.

(d) "corresponding new bank" shall have the same meaning as assigned to it in section 2(d) of the Banking Companies (Acquisition and Transfer of Undertakings) Act, 1970, or section 2(b) of the Banking Companies (Acquisition and Transfer of Undertakings) Act, 1980;

5 of 1970.
40 of 1980.

(e) "general insurance business" shall have the same meaning as assigned to it in section 3(g) of the General Insurance Business (Nationalisation) Act, 1972;

57 of 1972.

(f) "Government company" means a Government company as defined in section 2(45) of the Companies Act, 2013, engaged in the general insurance business and established under section 4 or 5 or 16 of the General Insurance Business (Nationalisation) Act, 1972;

18 of 2013.
57 of 1972.

(g) "original predecessor entity" means predecessor entity in respect of the first amalgamation;

(h) "strategic disinvestment" shall have the meaning assigned to it in section 116(3)(c);

(i) "unabsorbed depreciation" means the allowance for depreciation of the amalgamating banking company or companies or amalgamating corresponding new bank or banks or amalgamating Government company or companies which remains to be allowed and which would have been allowed to such entity, had the amalgamation not occurred.

Carry forward and set off of losses and unabsorbed depreciation in business reorganisation of co-operative banks.

118. (1) In a case of a co-operative bank, where amalgamation takes place during the tax year, the accumulated business loss and unabsorbed depreciation, if any, of the predecessor co-operative bank, shall be allowed to be set off against the income of the assessee, being a successor co-operative bank for that tax year, as if the business reorganisation had not taken place and all other provisions of this Act relating to set off and carry forward of loss and allowance for depreciation, shall apply accordingly.

(2) In case of a co-operative bank where demerger takes place during the tax year, and where the accumulated loss or unabsorbed depreciation—

(a) is directly relatable to the undertaking transferred, the whole of such loss and depreciation shall be allowed to be carried forward and set off against the income of the resulting co-operative bank; and

(b) is not directly relatable to the undertaking transferred, then such loss and depreciation shall first be apportioned between the demerged co-operative bank and the resulting co-operative bank in the same proportion in which assets of the undertaking are distributed between the demerged co-operative bank and the resulting co-operative bank, and be allowed to be carried forward and set off against their respective incomes.

(3) The accumulated loss shall be carried forward only up to eight tax years immediately succeeding the tax year in which such loss was first computed in the hands of the predecessor-in-business.

(4) The provisions of this section shall apply, if—

(a) the predecessor co-operative bank—

(i) has been engaged in the business of banking for three or more years; and

(ii) has held at least three-fourths of the book value of fixed assets as on the date of the business reorganisation, continuously for two years before () the date of business reorganisation;

(b) the successor co-operative bank,—

(i) holds at least three-fourths of the book value of fixed assets of the predecessor co-operative bank acquired through business reorganisation, continuously for a minimum five years immediately succeeding the date of business reorganisation;

(ii) continues the business of the predecessor co-operative bank for a minimum five years from the date of business reorganisation; and

(iii) fulfils such other conditions, as prescribed, to ensure the revival of the business of the predecessor co-operative bank or to ensure that the business reorganisation is for genuine business purpose.

(5) The Central Government may, by notification, specify such other conditions as it may consider necessary, other than the condition referred to in sub-section (4)(b)(iii), for the purposes of ensuring that the specified business reorganisation is for genuine business purposes.

(6) In a case where any of the conditions referred to in sub-section (4) or (5) are not complied with, the set off of accumulated business loss or unabsorbed depreciation made in any tax year in the hands of the successor co-operative bank shall be deemed to be the income of the successor co-operative bank chargeable to tax for the year in which such conditions are not complied with.

(7) The period commencing from the beginning of the tax year and ending on the date immediately preceding the date of business reorganisation, and the period commencing from the date of such business reorganisation and ending with the tax year, shall be deemed to be two different tax years for the purposes of set off and carry forward of loss and allowance for depreciation.

(8) In this section,—

(a) "accumulated business loss" means so much of the loss of amalgamating co-operative bank or demerged co-operative bank as referred to in section 112 in the hands of predecessor co-operative bank, which such predecessor co-operative bank would have been entitled to carry forward and set off under the said section, as if the business reorganisation had not taken place;

(b) "amalgamated co-operative bank", "amalgamating co-operative bank", "amalgamation", "business reorganisation", "demerged co-operative bank", "demerger", "predecessor co-operative bank", "successor co-operative bank" and "resulting co-operative bank" shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in section 65;

(c) "unabsorbed depreciation" means so much of the allowance for depreciation in the hands of amalgamating co-operative bank or demerged co-operative bank, which remains to be allowed and which would have been allowed to such banks, if the business reorganisation had not taken place.

Carry forward and set off of losses not permissible in certain cases.

119. (1) In case of change in constitution of a firm during a tax year, such firm shall not be entitled to carry forward and set off so much of the loss proportionate to the share of retired or deceased partner as reduced by his share of profit, if any, from the firm for that tax year.

(2) If any person carrying on any business or profession has been succeeded in such capacity by another person, otherwise than by inheritance, nothing in this Chapter shall entitle any person other than the person incurring the loss to have it carried forward and set off against his income.

(3) In case of change in shareholding of a company, not being a company in which public are substantially interested, during any tax year, loss brought forward from any preceding tax year shall not be allowed to be set off against the income of the said tax year and subsequent tax years unless the following conditions are satisfied:—

(a) () the beneficial owners of shares of the company carrying at least 51% of voting power, as on the last day of tax year in which loss was incurred, shall continue to be the beneficial owner of shares carrying at least 51% of voting power, as on the last day of the tax year in which such change in shareholding takes place; or

(b) even if conditions referred to in clause (a) are not satisfied in case of a company, being an eligible start-up referred to in section 140,—

(i) all shareholders of the company holding shares carrying voting power, as on the last day of tax year in which loss was incurred, continue to hold those shares as on the last day of the tax year in which such change in shareholding takes place; and

(ii) such loss was incurred during the first ten years beginning from the year of incorporation of the company.

(4) The provisions of sub-section (3) shall not apply—

(a) where a change in the voting power and shareholding takes place in the tax year referred to in that sub-section due to death of shareholder or transfer of shares by way of gift to any relative of the shareholder; or

(b) where change in shareholding of Indian company, being a subsidiary of foreign company, takes place due to amalgamation or demerger of the foreign company and 51% of the shareholders of amalgamating or demerged foreign company are shareholders of amalgamated or resulting foreign company; or

(c) where change in shareholding takes place in a tax year consequent to a resolution plan approved under the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016 and a reasonable opportunity of being heard was afforded to the jurisdictional Principal Commissioner or Commissioner; or

31 of 2016.

(d) to a company, its subsidiary and subsidiary of such subsidiary, if—

(i) the Board of Directors of such company were suspended by the Tribunal on an application moved by the Central Government under section 241 of the Companies Act, 2013 and new directors were appointed by the Central Government under section 242 of the said Act; and

18 of 2013.

(ii) the change in shareholding of such company and its subsidiary, and subsidiary of such subsidiary has taken place consequent to a resolution plan approved by the Tribunal under section 242 of the Companies Act, 2013 and a reasonable opportunity of being heard was afforded to the jurisdictional Principal Commissioner or Commissioner; or

18 of 2013.

(e) to a company to the extent that a change in the shareholding has taken place during the tax year on account of relocation referred to in section 70(2); or

(f) to an erstwhile public sector company where ultimate holding company of such company, immediately after the completion of strategic disinvestment, continues to hold, directly or through its subsidiary or subsidiaries, at least 51% of the voting power of such company in aggregate.

(5) Irrespective of anything contained in sub-section (4), if the conditions specified in sub-section 4(f) is not complied with in any tax year after the completion of strategic disinvestment, the provisions of sub-section (3) shall apply for such tax year and subsequent tax years.

(6) In this section,—

(a) a company shall be a subsidiary of another company, if such other company holds more than half in nominal value of the equity share capital of the company;

(aa) the expression "beneficial owner" means an individual who derives the benefits directly or indirectly from the shares during the tax year;

(b) the expression "erstwhile public sector company" shall have the meaning assigned to it in section 116(3)(b);

(c) "strategic disinvestment" shall have the meaning assigned to it in section 116(3)(c); 18 of 2013.

(d) "Tribunal" shall have the same meaning as assigned to it in section 2(90) of the Companies Act, 2013.

No set off of losses against undisclosed income consequent to search, requisition and survey.

120. (1) Irrespective of anything to the contrary contained in any other provision of this Act, any loss, whether brought forward or otherwise or unabsorbed depreciation, shall not be allowed to be set off against any undisclosed income which is included in the total income of any tax year, consequent to a search conducted under section 247 or a requisition under section 248 or a survey conducted under section 253, not being a survey under section 253(4).

Submission of return for losses.

(2) In this section, the expression "undisclosed income" for any tax year shall have the meaning assigned to it in section 301.

121. Irrespective of anything contained in this Chapter, no loss which has not been determined in pursuance of a return filed under section 263(1), shall be carried forward and set off under section 111(1) and 111(2), or 112(1), or 113(2), or 114(2) or 115(1).

CHAPTER VIII

DEDUCTIONS TO BE MADE IN COMPUTING TOTAL INCOME

A.—General

Deductions to be made in computing total income.

() 122. (1) In computing the total income of an assessee, the deductions specified in this Chapter shall be allowed from his gross total income, as per and subject to the provisions of this Chapter.

(2) The aggregate amount of the deductions under this Chapter shall not, in any case, exceed the gross total income of the assessee.

(3) If the deduction under section 133 or 135 or 137 or 138 or 141 or 142 or 143 is admissible in computing the total income of an association of persons or a body of individuals, no deduction under the same provision shall be made in relation to the share of income of a member of such association of persons or body of individuals while computing the total income of such member.

(4) Irrespective of anything to the contrary contained in any of the provisions of this Chapter under the heading "Deductions in respect of certain incomes", where, in the case of an assessee, any amount of profits and gains of an undertaking or unit or enterprise or eligible business is claimed and allowed as a deduction under those provisions for any tax year,—

(a) deduction in respect of, and to the extent of, such profits and gains shall not be allowed under any other provision of this Act for such tax year; and

(b) shall in no case exceed the profits and gains of such undertaking or unit or enterprise or eligible business.

(5) Deduction under the provisions of Part C of this Chapter shall not be allowed to an assessee, who fails to—

(a) furnish a return of income on or before the due date specified under section 263(1); or

(b) make a claim of deduction in return furnished under section 263(1).

(6) For the purposes of any deduction under this Chapter, irrespective of anything to the contrary contained in Part C of this Chapter, if any goods or services held for the purposes of—

(a) the undertaking, unit, enterprise or eligible business carried on by the assessee are transferred to any other business carried on by the assessee; or

(b) any other business carried on by the assessee are transferred to the undertaking or unit or enterprise or eligible business of the assessee; and

(c) the consideration, if any, for such transfer as recorded in the accounts of the undertaking or unit or enterprise or eligible business does not correspond to the market value of such goods or services as on the date of transfer, the profits and gains of such undertaking or unit or enterprise or eligible business carried on by the assessee, shall be computed as if the transfer in clause (a) or (b), had been made at the market value of such goods or services as on that date.

(7) For the purposes of sub-section (6), "market value",—

(a) in relation to any goods or services sold or supplied, means the price that such goods or services would fetch, if these were sold by the undertaking or unit or enterprise or eligible business in the open market, subject to statutory or regulatory restrictions, if any;

(b) in relation to any goods or services acquired, means the price that such goods or services would cost if these were acquired by the undertaking or unit or enterprise or eligible business from the open market, subject to statutory or regulatory restrictions, if any; and

(c) in relation to any goods or services sold, supplied or acquired means the arms length price of such goods or services as defined in section 173(a), if it is a specified domestic transaction referred to in section 164.

(8) Where a deduction under Part C of this Chapter, is claimed and allowed in respect of profits of a specified business as referred to in section 46(11)(d) for any tax year, no deduction shall be allowed for such specified business under section 46 for the same or any other tax year.

(9) Where any deduction is required to be made or allowed under Part C of this Chapter, in respect of any income of the nature specified in that section and included in the gross total income of the assessee, then, irrespective of anything contained in that section, for the purpose of computing the deduction under that section, the amount of income of that nature as computed under the provisions of this Act (before making any deduction under this Chapter) shall alone be deemed to be the amount of income of that nature which is derived or received by the assessee and which is included in his gross total income.

(10) In this Chapter, "gross total income" means the total income computed as per the provisions of this Act, before making deduction under this Chapter.

B.—Deductions in respect of certain payments

Deduction for life insurance premia, deferred annuity, contributions to provident fund, etc.

123. An individual or a Hindu undivided family, shall be allowed a deduction of the whole of the amount paid or deposited in the tax year, being the aggregate of the sums enumerated in Schedule XV, but not exceeding one lakh fifty thousand rupees, while computing the total income for that year, subject to the conditions specified in that Schedule.

Deduction in respect of employer contribution to pension scheme of the Central Government.

124. (1) Where in the case of an assessee, being an individual employed by any employer, if an employer makes any contribution in his account under a pension scheme notified by the Central Government, the assessee shall be allowed a deduction in the computation of his total income, of the whole of the amount contributed by such employer as does not exceed—

(a) 14%, where such contribution is made by the employer being the Central Government or the State Government; and

(b) 10%, where such contribution is made by an employer other than an employer referred to in clause (a),

of his salary in the tax year.

(2) Where the total income of the assessee is chargeable to tax under section 202(1), the provisions of sub-section (1) shall have effect as if for "10%" referred to in clause (b) of that sub-section, "14%" had been substituted.

(3) An assessee referred to in sub-section (1), or any other assessee, being an individual, shall be allowed a deduction in computation of his total income of the whole of the amount paid or deposited by such individual in the tax year in his account under a pension scheme notified or as may be notified by the Central Government, which shall not exceed fifty thousand rupees.

(4) The deduction under sub-section (3) shall also be allowed where any payment or deposit is made to the account of a minor under the said pension scheme, by the assessee, being the guardian of such minor, subject to the condition that the aggregate amount of deduction under sub-section (3) and this sub-section shall not exceed fifty thousand rupees.

(5) No deduction under sub-section (3) shall be allowed in respect of the amount on which a deduction has been claimed and allowed under section 123.

(6) Any amount standing to the credit of the assessee or a minor, in his account or the account of a minor, as the case may be, referred to in sub-sections (1), (3) and (4), in respect of which a deduction has been allowed together with the amount accrued thereon, received by the assessee or his nominee, in whole or in part, in any tax year,—

(a) on account of closure or his opting out of the pension scheme referred to in sub-sections (1) and (3); or

(b) as pension received from the annuity plan purchased or taken on such closure or opting out, the whole of the amount referred to in clause (a) or (b) shall be deemed to be the income of the individual or his nominee, in the tax year in which such amount is received, and shall accordingly be charged to tax as income of that tax year.

(7) The amount received by the nominee, on the death of the assessee, under the circumstances referred to in sub-section (6)(a), shall not be deemed to be the income of the nominee.

(8) The amount received by a person, being the guardian or nominee of a minor on account of closure of the pension scheme due to the death of the minor referred to in sub-section (4), shall not be deemed to be the income of such person.

(9) For the purposes of this section, the assessee shall not be deemed to have received any amount in the tax year, if such amount is used for purchasing an annuity plan in the same tax year.

(10) Where any amount paid or deposited by the assessee has been allowed as a deduction under sub-section (3), no deduction with reference to such amount shall be allowed as deduction under section 123 for that tax year.

(11) For the purposes of this section, "salary" includes dearness allowance, if the terms of employment so provide, but excludes all other allowances and perquisites.

Deduction in respect of contribution to Agnipath Scheme.

125. (1) An assessee, being an individual who has enrolled in the Agnipath Scheme and subscribes to the Agniveer Corpus Fund on or after the 1st November, 2022, shall be allowed a deduction in the computation of his total income, of the whole of the amount paid or deposited in his account in the said Fund during the tax year.

(2) Where the Central Government makes any contribution to the account of an assessee in the Fund referred to in sub-section (1), the assessee shall be allowed a deduction in the computation of his total income of the whole of the amount so contributed.

(3) In this section,—

(a) "Agnipath Scheme" means the scheme for enrolment in the Indian Armed Forces introduced vide letter No. 1(23)2022/D(Pay/Services), dated the 29th December, 2022, of the Government of India in the Ministry of Defence;

(b) "Agniveer Corpus Fund" means a fund in which consolidated contributions of all the Agniveers and matching contributions of the Central Government along with interest on both these contributions are held.

Deduction in respect of health insurance premia.

126. (1) An assessee, being an individual or a Hindu undivided family, shall be allowed a deduction of a sum as specified in sub-sections (2) to (8), payment of which is made by any mode as specified in sub-section (9), out of his income chargeable to tax in the tax year.

(2) In the case of an assessee, being an individual, the sum referred to in sub-section (1), shall be the aggregate of the whole of the amount paid—

(a) to effect or keep in force an insurance on the health (herein referred to as health insurance) of the assessee or his family, or any contributions made to the Central Government Health Scheme or such other scheme, as notified by the Central Government in this behalf, or any payment made for preventive health check-up of the assessee or his family, up to twenty-five thousand rupees in aggregate;

(b) to effect or to keep in force the health insurance, or any payment made for preventive health check-up, for the parent or parents of the assessee, up to twenty-five thousand rupees in aggregate;

(c) on account of medical expenditure incurred on the health of the assessee or any member of his family, up to fifty thousand rupees in aggregate; and

(d) on account of medical expenditure incurred on the health of any parent of the assessee, up to fifty thousand rupees in aggregate.

(3) The deduction in respect of amounts referred to in sub-section (2)(a) or (2)(b), which are paid on account of preventive health check-up, shall be allowed up to five thousand rupees in aggregate.

(4) The amount of sum referred to in sub-section (2) shall not exceed fifty thousand rupees in aggregate of the sum specified under sub-sections 2(a) and 2(c) or aggregate of the sum specified under sub-sections 2(b) and 2(d).

(5) In the case of assessee, being Hindu undivided family, the sum referred to in sub-section (1), shall be the aggregate of the whole of the amount paid—

(a) to effect or keep in force an insurance on the health of any member of that family, up to twenty-five thousand rupees in the aggregate; and

(b) on account of medical expenditure incurred on the health of any member of that family, up to fifty thousand rupees in the aggregate.

(6) The amount of sum under sub-section (5) shall not exceed fifty thousand rupees in the aggregate of the sum specified under sub-section (5)(a) and (b); or

(7) For the purposes of this section, where the amount is paid on account of medical expenditure incurred on the health of senior citizen under sub-section (2)(c) or (d) or (5)(b), deduction shall be allowed, if no amount has been paid to effect or to keep in force the health insurance of such person.

(8) Where the sum specified in sub-section (2)(a) or (b) or (5)(a) is paid to effect or keep in force the health insurance of any person specified therein, and—

(a) such person is a senior citizen, the amount of sum as provided in such clauses, shall be substituted with fifty thousand rupees for twenty-five thousand rupees; and

(b) such sum is paid in lump sum in the tax year for more than a year, a deduction shall be allowed for each of the relevant tax year equal to the appropriate fraction of such amount.

(9) For the purposes of deduction under sub-section (1), the payment shall be made by any mode,—

(b) such machinery or plant is imported into India; and

(c) no deduction on account of depreciation in respect of such machinery or plant has been allowed or is allowable under the provisions of this Act in computing the total income of any person for any period before to the date of the installation of the machinery or plant by the assessee.

(6) Where in the case of a start-up, any machinery or plant or any part thereof previously used for any purpose is transferred to a new business and the total value of the machinery or plant or part so transferred does not exceed 20% of the total value of the machinery or plant used in the business, then, for the purposes of sub-section (3)(b), the condition specified therein shall be considered to have been complied with.

(7) Irrespective of anything contained in any other provision of this Act, the profits and gains of an eligible business to which the provisions of sub-section (1) apply shall, for the purposes of determining the quantum of deduction under that sub-section for the tax year immediately succeeding the initial tax year or any subsequent tax year, be computed as if such eligible business were the only source of income of the assessee during the initial tax year and to every subsequent tax year up to and including the tax year for which the determination is to be made.

(8) The deduction under sub-section (1) from profits and gains derived from an eligible business shall not be admissible unless the accounts of the eligible business for the tax year for which the deduction is claimed have been audited by an accountant, before the specified date referred to in section 63 and the assessee furnishes by that date the report of such audit in the prescribed form duly signed and verified by such accountant.

(9) In a case where,—

(i) any goods or services held for the purposes of the eligible business are transferred to any other business carried on by the assessee; or

(ii) where any goods or services held for the purposes of any other business carried on by the assessee are transferred to the eligible business, and, in either case, the consideration, if any, for such transfer as recorded in the accounts of the eligible business does not correspond to the market value of such goods or services as on the date of the transfer, then, for the purposes of the deduction under this section, the profits and gains of such eligible business shall be computed as if the transfer, in either case, had been made at the market value of such goods or services as on that date.

(10) For the purposes of sub-section (9), where, in the opinion of the Assessing Officer, the computation of the profits and gains of the eligible business in the manner hereinbefore specified presents exceptional difficulties, the Assessing Officer may compute such profits and gains on such reasonable basis as he may deem fit.

(11) For the purposes of sub-section (9), "market value", in relation to any goods or services, means—

(i) the price that such goods or services would ordinarily fetch in the open market; or

(ii) the arm's length price as defined in section 173(a), where the transfer of such goods or services is a specified domestic transaction referred to in section 164.

(12) Where any amount of profits and gains of an undertaking or of an enterprise in the case of an assessee is claimed and allowed under this section for any tax year, deduction to the extent of such profits and gains shall not be allowed under any other provisions of Part C of this Chapter and shall in no case exceed the profits and gains of such eligible business of undertaking or enterprise, as the case may be.

(13) Where it appears to the Assessing Officer that,—

(i) owing to the close connection between the assessee carrying on the eligible business to which this section applies and any other person; or

(ii) for any other reason,

the course of business between them is so arranged that the business transacted between them produces to the assessee more than the ordinary profits which might be expected to arise in such eligible business, the Assessing Officer shall, in computing the profits and gains of such eligible business for the purposes of the deduction under this section, take the amount of profits as may be reasonably considered to have been derived therefrom.

(14) Where the arrangement as mentioned in sub-section (13) involves a specified domestic transaction referred to in section 164, the amount of profits from such transaction shall be determined having regard to arm's length price as defined in section173(a).

(15) The Central Government may, after making such inquiry as it may think fit, direct, by notification, that the exemption conferred by this section shall not apply to any class of industrial undertaking or enterprise with effect from such date as it may specify in the notification.

(16) In this section,—

(a) "eligible business" means a business carried out by an eligible start-up engaged in innovation, development or improvement of products or processes or services or a scalable business model with a high potential of employment generation or wealth creation;

(2) The deduction under sub-section (1) shall be allowed only if all of the following conditions are fulfilled:—

(a) the individual furnishes a copy of the certificate issued by the medical authority;

(b) if the certificate specifies that the disability needs reassessment of its extent after a period stipulated in it, the deduction shall not be allowed for any tax year succeeding the tax year in which the certificate expires, unless a new disability certificate is obtained and submitted; and

(c) the certificate referred to in clauses (a) and (b) of this sub-section shall be furnished in the form and manner, as prescribed, along with the return of income under section 263 for the tax year in which the deduction is claimed.

(3) For the purposes of this section, "disability", "medical authority", "person with disability" or "person with severe disability" shall have the same meanings as provided in section 127.

CHAPTER IX

REBATES AND RELIEFS

A.—Rebates and reliefs

Rebate to be allowed in computing income-tax.

155. (1) In computing income-tax on the total income of an assessee with which he is chargeable for any tax year, there shall be allowed from income-tax (as computed before allowing the deductions under this Chapter), subject to the provisions of section 156, the deductions specified therein.

(2) The deduction under section 156, shall not, in any case, exceed income-tax (as computed before allowing the deductions under this Chapter) on the total income of the assessee with which he is chargeable for any tax year.

Rebate of income-tax in case of certain individuals.

156. (1) A resident individual assessee shall be entitled to a deduction of 100% of income-tax payable or twelve thousand five hundred rupees, whichever is less, from the income-tax (computed before allowing the deduction under this section) chargeable on the total income for any tax year if the total income does not exceed five lakh rupees.

(2) Where the total income of a resident individual assessee for any tax year is chargeable to tax under section 202(1), then from income-tax (computed before allowing the deduction under this section) following deductions shall be allowed, if—

(a) the income does not exceed twelve lakh rupees, 100% of the income-tax payable or sixty thousand rupees, whichever is less;

(b) ()the total income exceeds twelve lakh rupees and the income-tax payable on such total income exceeds the amount by which the total income is in excess of twelve lakh rupees, an amount equal to the amount by which the income-tax payable on such total income is in excess of the amount by which the total income exceeds twelve lakh rupees.

(3) The deduction under sub-section (2), shall not exceed income-tax payable as per the rates provided in section 202(1).

Relief when salary, etc., is paid in arrears or in advance.

157. (1) Where the total income of an assessee is assessed at a rate higher than the rate at which it would otherwise have been assessed, due to the following receipts,—

(a) a sum in the nature of arrear or advance salary; or

(b) salary for more than twelve months in any one tax year; or

(c) a payment in the nature of "profits in lieu of salary" under section 18(1); or

(d) arrears of "family pension" as defined in section 93(1)(d), the Assessing Officer shall on an application made to him by the assessee in this behalf, grant such relief, as prescribed.

(2) No relief shall be granted on any income on which deduction has been claimed by the assessee in section 19(1)(Table: Sl. No. 12) for any amount mentioned therein, for such, or any other, tax year.

Relief from taxation in income from retirement benefit account maintained in a notified country.

158. (1) ()The income accrued to a specified person in a specified account shall be taxed in the manner and in a tax year, as prescribed.

(2) In this section,—

(a) "notified country" means a country as notified by the Central Government;

(b) "specified account" means an account maintained in a notified country by the specified person for his retirement benefits, the income from which is taxed by that notified country at the time of withdrawal or redemption and, not on accrual basis;

(c) "specified person" means a person resident in India having opened a specified account in a notified country while being non-resident in India and resident in that country.

B.—Double taxation relief

Agreement with foreign countries or specified territories and adoption by Central Government of agreement between specified associations for double taxation relief.

159. (1) The Central Government may enter into an agreement with the Government of—

(a) any other country;or

(b) any specified territory, for the purposes mentioned in sub-section (3), and may, by notification, make such provisions as necessary for implementing the agreement.

(2) Any specified association in India may enter into an agreement with any specified association in the specified territory for the purposes mentioned in sub-section (3) and the Central Government may, by notification, make such provisions as may be necessary for adopting and implementing such agreement.

(3) The agreement mentioned in sub-section (1) or (2) may be entered for—

(a) the granting of relief in respect of—

(i) income on which income-tax has been paid both under this Act and income-tax in that country or specified territory, as the case may be; or

(ii) income-tax chargeable under this Act and under the corresponding law in force in that country or specified territory, as the case may be, to promote mutual economic relations, trade and investment; or

(b) the avoidance of double taxation of income under this Act and under the corresponding law in force in that country or specified territory, as the case may be, without creating opportunities for non-taxation or reduced taxation through tax evasion or avoidance (including through treaty-shopping arrangements aimed at obtaining reliefs provided in the said agreement for the indirect benefit to residents of any other country or territory);

(c) exchange of information for—

(i) the prevention of evasion or avoidance of income-tax chargeable under this Act or under the corresponding law in force in that country or specified territory, as the case may be; or

(ii) investigation of cases of such evasion or avoidance; or

(d) recovery of income-tax under this Act and under the corresponding law in force in that country or specified territory, as the case may be.

(4) Where,—

(a) the Central Government has entered into an agreement with the Government of any country or specified territory, as the case may be, under sub-section (1); or

(b) a specified association in India has entered into an agreement with a specified association of any specified territory under sub-section (2) and such agreement has been notified under that sub-section, for granting relief of tax, or avoidance of double taxation, then, in relation to the assessee to whom such agreement applies, the provisions of this Act shall apply to the extent they are more beneficial to that assessee.

(5) The charge of tax,—

(a) in respect of a foreign company at a rate higher than the rate at which a domestic company is chargeable; or

(b) in respect of a company incorporated in the specified territory at a rate higher than the rate at which a domestic company is chargeable, shall not be regarded as less favourable charge or levy of tax in respect of such foreign company or such company incorporated in the specified territory, as the case may be.

(6) Irrespective of anything contained in sub-section (4), the provisions of Chapter XI shall apply to the assessee, even if such provisions are not beneficial to him.

(7) Where, any—

(a) term used in an agreement entered into under sub-section (1) or (2), is defined under the said agreement, the said term shall have the same meaning as assigned to it in that agreement and where the term is not defined in that agreement, but defined in this Act, it shall have the same meaning as assigned to it in this Act and the explanation, if any, given to it by the Central Government, and shall be deemed to have effect from the date on which that agreement came into force; or

(b) term is used but not defined in this Act or in the agreement referred to in sub-section (1) or (2), it shall, unless the context otherwise requires, and is not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act or the said agreement, have the same meaning as assigned to it in the notification issued by the Central Government in this behalf, and the meaning assigned to such term shall be deemed to have effect from the date on which that agreement came into force; or

(c) term is used in any agreement entered into under sub-section (1) or (2), and not defined under the said agreement or this Act, or in any notification issued under clause (b), then, unless the context otherwise requires, it shall have the same meaning as assigned to it—

(i) in any Act of the Central Government related to taxes; and

(ii) in any other case, in any other law of the Central Government, and shall be deemed to have effect from the date on which the said agreement came into force.

(8) An assessee, not being a resident, shall be entitled to claim any relief under an agreement mentioned in sub-section (1) or (2), only when—

(a) a certificate of his being a resident in any country or specified territory, is obtained by him from the Government of that country or Government of that specified territory, as the case may be, and

(b) he provides such other documents and information, as prescribed.

(9) In this section,—

(a) "specified associations" means any institution, association or body, whether incorporated or not—

(A) functioning under any law for the time being in force in India or the laws of the specified territory; and

(B) which may be notified as such by the Central Government; and

(b) "specified territory" means any area outside India which may be notified as such by the Central Government.

Countries with which no agreement exists.

160. (1) If any person who is resident in India in any tax year proves that, in respect of his income which accrued or arose during that tax year outside India (and which is not deemed to accrue or arise in India), he has paid in any country with which there is no agreement under section 159 for the relief or avoidance of double taxation, income-tax, by deduction or otherwise, under the law in force in that country, he shall be entitled to the deduction from the Indian income-tax payable by him of a sum calculated on such doubly taxed income,—

(a) at the Indian rate of tax or the rate of tax of the said country, whichever is the lower; or

(b) at the Indian rate of tax, if both the rates are equal.

(2) If any non-resident person is assessed on his share in the income of a registered firm assessed as resident in India in any tax year and such share includes any income accruing or arising outside India during that tax year (and which is not deemed to accrue or arise in India) in a country with which there is no agreement under section 159 for the relief or avoidance of double taxation and he proves that he has paid income-tax by deduction or otherwise under the law in force in that country in respect of the income so included he shall be entitled to a deduction from the Indian income-tax payable by him of a sum calculated on such doubly taxed income so included,—

(a) at the Indian rate of tax or the rate of tax of the said country, whichever is the lower; or

(b) at the Indian rate of tax, if both the rates are equal.

(3) In this section,—

(a) "income-tax" in relation to any country includes any excess profits tax or business profits tax charged on the profits by the Government of any part of that country or a local authority in that country;

(b) "Indian income-tax" means income-tax charged as per this Act;

(c) "Indian rate of tax" means the rate determined by dividing Indian income-tax after deduction of any relief due under the provisions of this Act but before deduction of any relief due under this section, by the total income; and

(d) "rate of tax of the said country" means income-tax and super-tax actually paid in the said country as per the corresponding laws in force in the said country after deduction of all relief due, but before deduction of any relief due in the said country in respect of double taxation, divided by the whole amount of the income as assessed in the said country.

CHAPTER X

SPECIAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO AVOIDANCE OF TAX

Computation of income from international transaction and specified domestic transaction having regard to arm's length price.

161. (1) Any income arising from an international transaction or a specified domestic transaction shall be determined having regard to the arm's length price.

(2) Any allowance for any expense or interest arising from an international transaction or a specified domestic transaction shall also be determined having regard to the arm's length price.

(3) If in an international transaction or specified domestic transaction, two or more associated enterprises enter into a mutual agreement or arrangement for—

(a) allocation or apportionment of any cost or expense incurred or to be incurred in connection with a benefit, service or facility provided or to be provided to any one or more of such enterprises; or

(b) any contribution to any cost or expense incurred or to be incurred in connection with a benefit, service or facility provided or to be provided to any one or more of such enterprises, the cost or expense allocated or apportioned to, or, contributed by, any such enterprise shall be determined having regard to the arm's length price of such benefit, service or facility.

(4) The provisions of this section shall not apply if the determination under sub-section (1) or (2) or (3) has the effect of reducing the income chargeable to tax or increasing the loss, computed on the basis of entries made in the books of account in respect of the tax year in which the international transaction or specified domestic transaction was entered.

Meaning of associated enterprise.

162. (1) In this Chapter, "associated enterprise", in relation to another enterprise, means an enterprise—

(a) which participates, directly or indirectly, or through one or more intermediaries, in the management or control or capital of the other enterprise in the following manner,—

(i) the persons who participate, directly or indirectly, or through one or more intermediaries, in management or control or capital of one enterprise, also participate, directly or indirectly, or through one or more intermediaries, in the management or control or capital of the other enterprise; or

(ii) an enterprise holds, directly or indirectly, shares carrying not less than 26% of the voting power in the other enterprise; or

(iii) which holds, directly or indirectly, shares carrying not less than 26% of the voting power in each of such enterprises; or

(b) which has advanced a loan to the other enterprise and such loan constitutes not less than 51% of the book value of the total assets of the other enterprise; or

(c) which guarantees not less than 10% of the total borrowings of the other enterprise; or

(d) whose more than half of the board of directors or members of the governing board, or one or more executive directors or executive members of the governing board, are appointed by the other enterprise; or

(e) whose more than half of the directors or members of the governing board, or one or more of the executive directors or members of the governing board, are appointed by the same person or persons, who has or have done so for the other enterprise; or

(f) in case of which, manufacturing or processing of goods or articles or business carried out by such enterprise is wholly dependent on the use of know-how, patents, copyrights, trademarks, licences, franchises or any other business or commercial rights of similar nature, or any data, documentation, drawing or specification relating to any patent, invention, model, design, secret formula or process, of which the other enterprise is the owner or in respect of which the other enterprise has exclusive rights; or

(g) in case of which, 90% or more of the raw materials and consumables required for the manufacture or processing of goods or articles carried out by such enterprise, are supplied by the other enterprise, or by persons specified by the other enterprise, and the prices and other conditions relating to the supply are influenced by such other enterprise; or

(h) in case of which, the goods or articles manufactured or processed by such enterprise, are sold to the other enterprise or to persons specified by the other enterprise, and the prices and other conditions relating thereto are influenced by such other enterprise; or

(i) which is controlled by an individual or his relative or jointly by such individual and relative of such individual, and the other enterprise is also controlled by the individual or his relative or jointly by such individual and relative of such individual; or

(j) which is controlled by a Hindu undivided family, and the other enterprise is controlled by a member of such Hindu undivided family or by a relative of a member of such Hindu undivided family or jointly by such member and his relative; or

(k) which is a firm, association of persons or body of individuals, and the other enterprise holds not less than 10% interest in such firm, association of persons or body of individuals; or

(l) which has any relationship of mutual interest with the other enterprise, as may be prescribed.

(2) ()

(3) In relation to a specified domestic transaction entered into by an assessee, associated enterprise shall also include—

(a) other units or undertakings or businesses of such assessee in respect of a transaction referred to in section 122 or 140(9);

(b) any other person referred to in section 140(13) or 205(4) in respect of a transaction referred to therein; and

(c) other units, undertakings, enterprises or business of such assessee, or other person referred to in section 140(13) in respect of a transaction referred to in section 144 or the transactions referred to in Chapter VIII to which the provisions of section 140(9) or (13) are applicable.

Meaning of international transaction.

163. (1) In this Chapter, "international transaction" means a transaction between two or more associated enterprises, one of which is necessarily a non-resident, and includes—

(a) the purchase, sale, transfer, lease or use of tangible property, including building, transportation vehicle, machinery, equipment, tools, plant, furniture, commodity or any other article, product or thing;

(b) the purchase, sale, transfer, lease or use of intangible property, including the transfer of ownership or the provision of use of rights regarding land use, copyrights, patents, trademarks, licences, franchises, customer list, marketing channel, brand, commercial secret, know-how, industrial property right, exterior design or practical and new design or any other business or commercial rights of similar nature;

(c) capital financing, lending and borrowing of money, including,—

- any type of long-term or short-term borrowing, lending or guarantee; or

(d) provision of services, including provision of market research, market development, marketing management, administration, technical service, repairs, design, consultation, agency, scientific research, legal or accounting service;

(e) a transaction of business restructuring or reorganisation, entered into by an enterprise with an associated enterprise, irrespective of the fact that it has any bearing on the profit, income, losses or assets of such enterprises at the time of the transaction or at any future date;

(f) a mutual agreement or arrangement between two or more associated enterprises for the allocation or apportionment of, or any contribution to, any cost or expense incurred or to be incurred in connection with a benefit, service or facility provided or to be provided to any one or more of such enterprises; and

(g) any other transaction having a bearing on the profits, income, losses or assets of such enterprises.

(2) A transaction entered into by an enterprise with a person other than an associated enterprise ("other person") shall, for sub-section (1), be deemed to be an international transaction entered into between two associated enterprises, if—

(a) there exists a prior agreement in relation to the relevant transaction between such other person and the associated enterprise; or

(b) the terms of the relevant transaction are determined, in substance, between such other person and the associated enterprise, and the enterprise or the associated enterprise or both of them are non-residents, irrespective of whether the other person is a non-resident or not.

(3) The expression "intangible property" shall include the following,—

(a) marketing related intangible assets, such as, trademarks, trade names, brand names, logos;

(b) technology related intangible assets, such as, process patents, patent applications, technical documentation such as laboratory notebooks, technical know-how;

(c) artistic related intangible assets, such as, literary works and copyrights, musical compositions, copyrights, maps, engravings;

(d) data processing related intangible assets, such as, proprietary computer software, software copyrights, automated databases, and integrated circuit masks and masters;

(h) human capital related intangible assets, such as, trained and organised work force, employment agreements, union contracts;

(i) location related intangible assets, such as, leasehold interest, mineral exploitation rights, easements, air rights, water rights;

(j) goodwill related intangible assets, such as, institutional goodwill, professional practice goodwill, personal goodwill of professional, celebrity goodwill, general business going concern value;

(k) methods, programmes, systems, procedures, campaigns, surveys, studies, forecasts, estimates, customer lists or technical data; and

(l) any other similar item that derives its value from its intellectual content rather than its physical attributes.

Meaning of specified domestic transaction.

164. In this Chapter, "specified domestic transaction" in case of an assessee means any of the following transactions, not being an international transaction—

(a) any transaction referred to in section 122;

(b) any transfer of goods or services referred to in section 140(9);

(c) any business transacted between the assessee and other person as referred to in section 140(13);

(d) any transaction, referred to in any other section under Chapter VIII or section 144, to which provisions of section 140(9) or (13) are applicable;

(e) any business transacted between the persons referred to in section 205() (5);

(f) any other transaction as prescribed, and where the aggregate of such transactions entered into by the assessee in a tax year exceeds a sum of twenty crore rupees.

Determination of arm's length price.

165. (1) The arm's length price in relation to an international transaction or specified domestic transaction shall be determined by any of the following methods, being the most appropriate method—

(a) comparable uncontrolled price method;

(b) resale price method;

(c) cost plus method;

(d) profit split method;

(e) transactional net margin method;

(f) such other method as prescribed by the Board.

(2) The most appropriate method referred to in sub-section (1) shall be,—

(a) selected having regard to the nature of transaction or class of transaction or class of associated enterprise or functions performed by such enterprises or such other relevant factors as the Board may prescribe;

(b) applied for determination of arm's length price in such manner as prescribed.

(3) The arm's length price shall be—

(a) in case, only one price is determined by the most appropriate method,—

(i) the price determined by that method; or

(ii) the price at which the international transaction or specified domestic transaction has actually been undertaken, if the variation between the arm's length price so determined and price at which the international transaction or specified domestic transaction has actually been undertaken does not exceed such percentage not exceeding 3% of the latter, notified by the Central Government in this behalf; or

(b) in case, more than one price is determined by the most appropriate method, the price determined in such manner as prescribed.

(4) The Assessing Officer, during the course of any proceeding for the assessment of income, may proceed to determine the arm's length price in relation to an international transaction or specified domestic transaction as per sub-sections (1), (2) and (3) if, on the basis of material or information or document in his possession, he is of the opinion that—

(a) the price charged or paid in an international transaction or specified domestic transaction has not been determined as per sub-sections (1), (2) and (3); or

(b) any information and document relating to an international transaction or specified domestic transaction has not been kept and maintained by the assessee as per section () 171(1); or

(c) the information or data used in determination of the arm's length price by the assessee is not reliable or correct; or

(d) the assessee has failed to furnish, within the specified time, any information or document which he was required to furnish by a notice issued under section 171(2).

(5) The Assessing Officer, before determining the arm's length price under sub-section (4), shall give a notice calling upon the assessee to show cause, on the date and time to be specified in the notice, why the arm's length price should not be determined on the basis of material or information or document in his possession.

(6) The Assessing Officer, on determination of arm's length price under sub-section (4), may compute the total income of the assessee having regard to the arm's length price so determined.

(7) No deduction shall be allowed under section 144 or under Chapter VIII in respect of income by which the total income of the assessee is enhanced after computation of income under sub-section (6).

(8) When the total income of an associated enterprise is computed under sub-section (6) on determination of the arm's length price paid to another associated enterprise from which tax has been deducted or was deductible under the provisions of Chapter XIX-B, the income of the other associated enterprise shall not be recomputed by reason of such determination of arm's length price in the case of the first mentioned enterprise.

Reference to Transfer Pricing Officer.

166. (1) Where,—

(a) the assessee has entered into an international transaction or specified domestic transaction in any tax year; and

(b) the Assessing Officer considers it necessary or expedient so to do, he may refer the determination of the arm's length price in relation to such transaction to the Transfer Pricing Officer, with the previous approval of the Principal Commissioner or Commissioner.

(2) No reference under sub-section (1) for computation of the arm's length price in relation to an international transaction or a specified domestic transaction shall be made, if the Transfer Pricing Officer has declared that option exercised by the assessee in sub-section (9) in relation to such transaction is valid for such tax year.

(3) If any reference for an international transaction or a specified domestic transaction under sub-section (1), in respect of a tax year, for which the option is declared valid under sub-section (9) is made before or after such declaration by the Transfer Pricing Officer, the provisions of sub-section (1) shall have the effect as if no reference is made for such transaction.

(4) Where a reference is made under sub-section (1), the Transfer Pricing Officer shall serve a notice on the assessee requiring him to produce or cause to be produced on a date specified therein, any evidence on which the assessee may rely in support of the determination made by him of the arm's length price in relation to such transaction.

(5) Where,—

(a) any international transaction or specified domestic transaction, other than an international transaction or a specified domestic transaction referred under sub-section (1); or

(b) any international transaction or a specified domestic transaction that the assessee has not included in the report under section 172, comes to the notice of the Transfer Pricing Officer during the course of the proceedings before him, the provisions of this Chapter shall apply as if such transaction is a transaction referred to him under sub-section (1).

(6) On the date specified in the notice under sub-section (4), or as soon thereafter as may be,—

(a) after hearing such evidence as the assessee may produce, including any information or documents referred to in section 171(2);

(b) after considering such evidence as the Transfer Pricing Officer may require on any specified points; and

(c) after taking into account all relevant materials which he has gathered, the Transfer Pricing Officer shall, by order in writing, determine the arm's length price in relation to the international transaction or specified domestic transaction as per section 165(4) and send a copy of his order to the Assessing Officer and to the assessee.

(7) Where a reference was made under sub-section (1), an order under sub-section (6) may be made at any time before sixty days before the expiry of limitation period referred to in section 286, or 296, for making the order of assessment or reassessment or recomputation or fresh assessment.

(8) If the period of limitation available to the Transfer Pricing Officer for making an order under sub-section (6) is less than sixty days in the circumstances referred to in section 286(3)(b) or (i) ,such remaining period shall be extended to sixty days and the aforesaid period of limitation shall be deemed to have been extended accordingly.

(9) The arm's length price, being determined in relation to the international transaction or the specified domestic transaction under sub-section (6) for any tax year shall apply to similar international transaction or specified domestic transaction for the two consecutive tax years immediately following such tax year, on fulfilment of the following conditions:—

(a) the assessee exercises an option or options to the above effect for the said two consecutive tax years;

(b) such option or options are exercised in such form, manner and within such period as prescribed; and,

(c) the Transfer Pricing Officer shall, within one month from the end of the month in which such option or options are exercised, by an order in writing, declare that such option or options are valid subject to the conditions, as prescribed.

(10) The provisions of sub-section (9) shall not apply to any proceedings under Chapter XVI-B.

(11) On receipt of the order under sub-section (6), the Assessing Officer shall compute the total income of the assessee under section 165(6) in conformity with the arm's length price as so determined by the Transfer Pricing Officer.

(12) Irrespective of anything contained in sub-section (11), where the Transfer Pricing Officer has declared an option exercised by the assessee as valid option under sub-section (9), he shall examine and determine the arm's length price in relation to such similar transaction for two consecutive tax years immediately following such tax year, in the order referred to in sub-section (4) and on receipt of such order, the Assessing Officer shall proceed to recompute the total income of the assessee for the said two consecutive tax years as per the provisions of section 288.

(13) For rectifying any mistake apparent from the record, the Transfer Pricing Officer,—

(a) may amend any order passed by him under sub-section (6), and the provisions of section 287 shall, so far as may be, apply accordingly; and

(b) shall send a copy of such order to the Assessing Officer who shall thereafter amend the order of assessment in conformity with such order of the Transfer Pricing Officer.

(14) The Transfer Pricing Officer may exercise all or any of the powers specified in section 246(1)(a) to (d) or 252(1)(a) or 253 for the purposes of determining the arm's length price under this section.

(15) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of sub-sections (9) and (12), the Board may, with the prior approval of the Central Government, issue guidelines for the purpose of removing such difficulty.

(16) No guideline under sub-section (15) shall be issued after the expiration of two years from the 1st April, 2026.

(17) Every guideline issued by the Board under sub-section (15) shall be laid before each House of Parliament while it is in session for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive session aforesaid, both houses agree in making any modification in such guideline or both Houses agree that the guideline, should not be issued, the guideline shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that guideline.

(18) In this section, "Transfer Pricing Officer" means a Joint Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner or Assistant Commissioner authorised by the Board to perform all or any of the functions of an Assessing Officer specified in sections 165 and 171 in respect of any person or class of persons.

Power of Board to make safe harbour rules.

167. (1) The determination of—

(a) income referred to in section 9(2); or

(b) arm's length price under section 165 or 166, shall be subject to safe harbour rules.

(2) For the purposes of sub-section (1), the Board may make rules for safe harbour.

(3) In this section, "safe harbour" means circumstances in which the income-tax authorities shall accept,—

(a) the transfer price; or

(b) the income, deemed to accrue or arise under section 9(2), declared by the assessee.

Advance pricing agreement.

168. (1) The Board, with the approval of the Central Government, may enter into an advance pricing agreement with any person, determining the—

(a) arm's length price or specifying the manner in which the arm's length price is to be determined, in relation to an international transaction to be entered into by that person;

(b) income referred to in section 9(2), or specifying the manner in which the said income is to be determined, as is reasonably attributable to the operations carried out in India by or on behalf of that person, being a non-resident.

(2) The manner of determination of the arm's length price referred to in sub-section (1)(a) or (b) may include, respectively,—

(a) the methods referred to in section 165(1); or

(b) the methods provided by rules made under this Act, with such adjustments or variations, as may be necessary or expedient so to do.

(3) Irrespective of anything contained in section 165 or 166 or the methods provided by rules made under this Act,—

(a) the arm's length price of any international transaction; or

(b) the income referred to in sub-section (1)(b), in respect of which the advance pricing agreement has been entered into, shall be determined as per the advance pricing agreement so entered.

(4) The agreement referred to in sub-section (1) shall be valid for such period not exceeding five consecutive tax years as specified in the agreement.

(5) The advance pricing agreement entered into shall be binding—

(a) on the person in whose case, and in respect of the transaction in relation to which, the agreement has been entered into; and

(b) on the Principal Commissioner or Commissioner, and the income-tax authorities subordinate to him, in respect of the said person and the said transaction.

(6) The agreement referred to in sub-section (1) shall not be binding if there is a change in law or facts having bearing on the agreement so entered.

(7) The Board may, with the approval of the Central Government, by an order, declare an agreement to be void ab initio, if it finds that the agreement has been obtained by the person by fraud or misrepresentation of facts.

(8) Upon declaring the agreement void ab initio,—

(a) all the provisions of the Act shall apply to the person as if such agreement had never been entered into;

(b) irrespective of anything contained in the Act, the period beginning with the date of such agreement and ending on the date of order under sub-section (7) shall be excluded for the purpose of computing any period of limitation under this Act; and

(c) if immediately after the exclusion of the aforesaid period, the period of limitation, referred to in any provision of this Act, is less than sixty days, such remaining period shall be extended to sixty days and the aforesaid period of limitation shall be deemed to be extended accordingly.

(9) For the purposes of this section, the Board may prescribe a scheme specifying therein the manner, form, procedure and any other matter in respect of the advance pricing agreement.

(10) The agreement referred to in sub-section (1), may, subject to such conditions, procedure and manner as prescribed, provide for determining the—

(a) arm's length price or specify the manner in which the arm's length price shall be determined in relation to the international transaction entered into by the person;

(b) income referred to in section 9(2), or specifying the manner in which the said income is to be determined, as is reasonably attributable to the operations, transactions and activities carried out in India by or on behalf of that non-resident person, during any period not exceeding four tax years preceding the first of the tax years referred to in sub-section (4).

(11) Where an application is made by a person for entering into an agreement referred to in sub-section (1), the proceedings shall be deemed to be pending in the case of the person for the purposes of this Act till such agreement is entered into, or such proceedings are closed as per rules prescribed.

Effect to advance pricing agreement.

169. (1) If a return of income for any tax year covered by an advance pricing agreement has been furnished by any person, before the date of entering into the said agreement, he shall, irrespective of anything to the contrary contained in section 263, furnish a modified return, in accordance with and limited to the agreement, in respect of such tax years, within three months from the end of the month in which the agreement was entered into.

(2) Except as provided in this section, all other provisions of this Act shall apply accordingly as if the modified return is a return furnished under section 263.

(3) Where a modified return is furnished under sub-section (1), and assessment or reassessment proceedings, in respect of a tax year to which the agreement applies, were initiated before the filing of such return then,—

(a) if such proceedings have been completed, the Assessing Officer shall pass an order modifying the total income of the relevant tax year; or

(b) if such proceedings are pending on the date of filing of modified return, the Assessing Officer shall proceed to complete them, as per the agreement after taking into consideration the modified return so furnished.

(4) Irrespective of anything contained in section 275 or 286 or 296,—

(a) the order in respect of a case falling under sub-section (3)(a) shall be passed within one year from the end of the financial year in which the modified return under sub-section (1) is furnished;

(b) in respect of a case falling under sub-section (3)(b), the period of limitation as provided in section 275 or 286 or section 296 for completion of pending assessment or reassessment proceedings shall be extended by twelve months.

(5) In this section,—

(a) "agreement" means an agreement referred to in section 168(1);

(b) the assessment or reassessment proceedings for a tax year shall be deemed to have been completed where—

(i) an assessment or reassessment order has been passed; or

(ii) no notice has been issued under section 270(8) till the expiry of the limitation period provided under the said section.

Secondary adjustment in certain cases.

170. (1) An assessee shall make a secondary adjustment in every case where primary adjustment of one crore rupees or more to transfer price—

(a) has been made on his own in his return of income;

(b) made by the Assessing Officer has been accepted by him;

(c) is determined by an advance pricing agreement entered into by him under section 168;

(d) is made as per the safe harbour rules made under section 167; or

(e) is arising as a result of resolution of an assessment by way of the mutual agreement procedure under an agreement entered into under section 159 for avoidance of double taxation.

(2) The excess money or part thereof available with its associated enterprise shall be deemed to be an advance made by the assessee to such associated enterprise if—

(a) as a result of primary adjustment to the transfer price, there is an increase in the total income or reduction in the loss, as the case may be, of the assessee; and

(b) such excess money or part thereof is not repatriated to India within the time as prescribed.

(3) The excess money or part thereof referred to in sub-section (2) may be repatriated from any of the associated enterprises of the assessee which is not a resident in India.

(4) The interest on advance as referred to in sub-section (2) shall be computed in such manner as prescribed.

(5) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (2), where the excess money or part thereof has not been repatriated within the prescribed time, the assessee may, at his option, pay additional income-tax at the rate of 18% on such excess money or part thereof, as the case may be.

(6) The tax on the excess money or part thereof so paid by the assessee under sub-section (5) shall be treated as the final payment of tax in respect of the excess money or part thereof not repatriated and no further credit thereof shall be claimed by the assessee or by any other person in respect of tax so paid.

(7) Deduction under any other provision of this Act shall not be allowed to the assessee in respect of the amount on which tax has been paid as per sub-section (5).

(8) In a case where the additional income-tax referred to in sub-section (5) is paid by the assessee, he shall not be required to make secondary adjustment under sub-section (1) and compute interest under sub-section (4) from the date of payment of such tax.

(9) In this section,—

(a) "arm's length price" shall have the meaning assigned to it in section 173(a);

(b) "excess money" means the difference between the arm's length price determined in primary adjustment and the price at which the international transaction has actually been undertaken;

(c) "primary adjustment" to a transfer price, means the determination of transfer price as per the arm's length principle resulting in an increase in the total income or reduction in the loss, as the case may be, of the assessee;

(d) "secondary adjustment" means an adjustment in the books of account of the assessee and its associated enterprise to reflect that the actual allocation of profits between the assessee and its associated enterprise are consistent with the transfer price determined as a result of primary adjustment, thereby removing the imbalance between cash account and actual profit of the assessee.

Maintenance, keeping and furnishing of information and document by certain persons.

171. (1) Every person,—

(a) who has entered into an international transaction or specified domestic transaction; or

(b) is a constituent entity of an international group, shall keep and maintain such information and document in respect thereof and for such period and in such manner, as prescribed.

(2) The Assessing Officer or the Commissioner (Appeals) may, during any proceeding under this Act, require any person referred to in sub-section (1)(a) to furnish any information or document referred therein within ten days from the date of receipt of a notice issued in this regard.

(3) The Assessing Officer or the Commissioner (Appeals) may, on an application made by such person, extend the period of ten days by a further period not exceeding thirty days.

(4) Every person referred to in sub-section (1)(b) shall furnish the information and document referred to in sub-section (1) to the authority prescribed under section 511(1), in such manner, on or before such date, as prescribed.

(5) In this section,—

(a) "constituent entity" shall have the meaning assigned to it in section 511 (10)(d);

(b) "international group" shall have the meaning assigned to it in section 511 (10)(g).

Report from an accountant to be furnished by persons entering into international transaction or specified domestic transaction.

172. Every person who has entered into an international transaction or specified domestic transaction during a tax year shall obtain a report from an accountant and furnish such report on or before the specified date in the prescribed form duly signed and verified in the manner as prescribed by such accountant and setting forth such particulars as prescribed.

Definitions of certain terms relevant to determination of arm's length price, etc.

173 In this section and sections 161, 162, 163, 165, 171 and 172, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) "arm's length price" means a price which is applied or proposed to be applied in a transaction between persons other than associated enterprises, in uncontrolled conditions;

(b) "enterprise" means a person (including a permanent establishment of such person) who is, or has been, or is proposed to be, engaged in any activity relating to—

(i) the production, storage, supply, distribution, acquisition or control of articles or goods; or

(ii) know-how, patents, copyrights, trade-marks, licences, franchises or any other business or commercial rights of similar nature; or

(iii) any data, documentation, drawing or specification relating to any patent, invention, model, design, secret formula or process of which the other enterprise is the owner or in respect of which the other enterprise has exclusive rights; or

(iv) provision of services of any kind; or

(v) carrying out any work in pursuance of a contract; or

(vi) investment or providing loan; or

(vii) business of acquiring, holding, underwriting or dealing with shares, debentures or other securities of any other body corporate, whether such activity or business is carried on, directly or through one or more of its units or divisions or subsidiaries, or whether such unit or division or subsidiary is located at the same place where the enterprise is located or at a different place or places;

(c) "permanent establishment", referred to in clause (b), includes a fixed place of business through which the business of the enterprise is wholly or partly carried on;

(d) "specified date" means the date one month before the due date for furnishing the return of income under section 263 (1) for the relevant tax year;

(e) "transaction" includes an arrangement, understanding or action in concert,—

(i) whether or not such arrangement, understanding or action is formal or in writing; or

(ii) whether or not such arrangement, understanding or action is intended to be enforceable by legal proceeding.

Avoidance of income-tax by transactions resulting in transfer of income to non-residents.

174. (1) Where there is a transfer of assets before and after the commencement of this Act, and by virtue or in consequence of it,—

(a) either alone; or

(b) in conjunction with associated operations, any income becomes payable to a non-resident, the provisions of this section shall apply.

(2) If any person ("first mentioned person"), by means of any transfer referred to in sub-section (1), either alone or in conjunction with associated operations, acquires any rights,—

(a) by virtue of which he has, within the meaning of this section, power to enjoy, whether forthwith or in the future, any income of a non-resident; and

(b) such income would have been chargeable to income-tax if it were such first mentioned person's income, then, that income shall, whether or not it would have been chargeable to income-tax under any other provisions of this Act, be deemed to be the income of such first mentioned person for all the purposes of this Act.

(3) If any such first mentioned person receives or is entitled to receive any capital sum,—

(a) the payment of which is in any way connected with the transfer or any associated operations; and

(b) whether before or after any such transfer,

then any income, which has become the income of a non-resident by virtue or in consequence of such transfer, either alone or in conjunction with associated operations, shall be deemed to be the income of such first mentioned person for all the purposes of this Act, whether or not it would have been chargeable to income-tax under any other provisions of this Act.

(4) Where any person has been charged to income-tax on any income deemed to be his under the provisions of this section and that income is subsequently received by him, whether as income or in any other form, it shall not again be deemed to form part of his income for the purposes of this Act.

(5) The provisions of this section shall not apply if the first mentioned person in sub-section (2) or (3) shows to the satisfaction of the Assessing Officer that—

(a) neither the transfer nor any associated operation had for its purpose or for one of its purposes the avoidance of liability to taxation; or

(b) the transfer and all associated operations were bona fide commercial transactions and were not designed for the purpose of avoiding liability to taxation.

(6) In this section,—

(a) references to assets representing any assets, income or accumulations of income include references to shares in or obligation of any company to which, or obligation of any other person to whom, those assets, that income or those accumulations are or have been transferred;

(b) any body corporate incorporated outside India shall be treated as if it were a non-resident;

(c) a person shall be deemed to have power to enjoy the income of a non-resident if—

(i) the income is in fact so dealt with by any person as to be calculated at some point of time and, whether in the form of income or not, to ensure for the benefit of the first mentioned person in sub-section (2) or (3); or

(ii) the receipt or accrual of the income operates to increase the value to such first mentioned person of any assets held by him or for his benefit; or

(iii) such first mentioned person receives or is entitled to receive at any time any benefit provided or to be provided out of that income or out of moneys which are or shall be available for the purpose by reason of the effect or successive effects of the associated operations on that income and assets which represent that income; or

(iv) such first mentioned person has power by means of the exercise of any power of appointment or power of revocation or otherwise to obtain for himself, whether with or without the consent of any other person, the beneficial enjoyment of the income; or

(v) such first mentioned person is able, in any manner whatsoever and whether directly or indirectly, to control the application of the income;

(d) in determining whether a person has power to enjoy income, regard shall be had to the substantial result and effect of the transfer and any associated operations, and all benefits which may at any time accrue to such person as a result of the transfer and any associated operations shall be taken into account irrespective of the nature or form of the benefits.

(7) In this section,—

(a) "assets" includes property or rights of any kind and "transfer" in relation to rights includes the creation of those rights;

(b) "associated operation" in relation to any transfer, means an operation of any kind effected by any person in relation to—

(i) any of the assets transferred; or

(ii) any assets representing, whether directly or indirectly, any of the assets transferred; or

(iii) the income arising from any such assets; or

(iv) any assets representing, whether directly or indirectly, the accumulations of income arising from any such assets;

(c) "benefit" includes a payment of any kind;

(d) "capital sum" means—

(i) any sum paid or payable by way of a loan or repayment of a loan; and

(ii) any other sum paid or payable otherwise than as income, being a sum, which is not paid or payable for full consideration in money or money's worth.

Avoidance of tax by certain transactions in securities.

175 (1) Where the owner of any securities (hereinafter referred to as "the owner") sells or transfers such securities and buys back or reacquires them or buys or acquires any similar securities, any interest that becomes payable in respect of such securities,—

(a) is receivable by a person other than the owner, shall be deemed, for all purposes of this Act, to be the income of the owner; and

(b) shall not be the income of the other person, irrespective of whether it would have been chargeable to income-tax under any other provision of this Act.

(2) Where similar securities as referred to in sub-section (1) are bought or acquired, the owner shall not be under greater liability to income-tax than he would if the original securities had been bought back or reacquired.

(3) If any person has had a beneficial interest in any securities at any time during a tax year, and the result of any transaction relating to such securities or the income from it is that, in respect of such securities within such year,—

(a) either no income is received by him; or

(b) the income received by him is less than what would have been if the income from such securities had accrued from day to day and been apportioned accordingly, the income from such securities for such year shall be deemed to be the income of such person.

(4) The provisions of sub-sections (1), (2) and (3) shall not apply if the owner, or the person who has had a beneficial interest in the securities, proves to the satisfaction of the Assessing Officer that—

(a) there has been no avoidance of income-tax; or
