

ACFESM

Association of Certified Fraud Examiners

Develop your professional identity

START NOW to acquire the professional contacts, leadership skills and visibility needed to establish your career.

Make Your Mark on the Future

Since opportunities for anti-fraud professionals are increasing rapidly, it is crucial to get into the loop as early as possible in order to stay informed of new opportunities and developments and make the connections that will help establish and advance your career.

That's where the ACFE's Student Membership comes in. When you become a Student Associate member, you are jump-starting your professional career by joining the premier global association for anti-fraud professionals.

Reap the Rewards of Membership

Visit the ACFE Career Center on ACFE.com

Find jobs or internships specifically targeted to the anti-fraud industry, post your resume and set up job alerts.

Distinguish Yourself from the Competition with the CFE Credential

Purchase the Student Package for $350 and receive the CFE Exam Prep Course (U.S. Edition), the CFE Exam and one year of membership after passing the exam. Eligibility is primarily for ACFE student members who are seniors or in graduate school.

Stay Informed with Fraud Magazine®

Devoted to timely, insightful articles on white-collar crime and fraud examination techniques, Fraud Magazine provides readers with practical, down-in-the-trenches information.

Utilize Anti-Fraud Articles and Resources

Find useful information about targeted topics and pertinent issues on ACFE.com. Learn important anti-fraud techniques, download useful information and search a database of anti-fraud articles, white papers, presentations, case studies and reports.

Your Future in the Anti-Fraud Profession: Unlimited Possibilities

Today's anti-fraud field is high profile, exciting, stimulating and offers unlimited opportunities for building the kind of career you want. A diverse range of career choices is available, offering competitive salaries with the potential for rapid career growth.

ACFE members are viewed as leaders in business, industry and government, performing a variety of duties depending on their positions and area of expertise. Some are more focused on the financial aspects related to fraud, while others focus more on the investigative side.

Key areas where you are likely to find ACFE Members:

- Internal Audit
- Independent Audit
- Accounting
- Law Enforcement
- Investigations
- Management Consulting
- Governance, Risk and Compliance
- Computer Forensics / IT Security
- Law

Review the Compensation Guide for Anti-Fraud Professionals

Examine the ACFE's Compensation Guide to learn salary ranges for anti-fraud professionals in multiple industries, functional areas and levels of seniority. Find out why it pays to be a Certified Fraud Examiner.

Connect with Specialists and CFEs Worldwide

Join a global network of anti-fraud specialists where you can share, learn from experienced professionals, sharpen your skills, make contacts and build a foundation for future opportunities. Connection opportunities include:

- Discussion Forums
- Membership Directory
- ACFE Chapter Meetings
- Network at ACFE conferences and seminars
- Specialized Online Communities

Apply for a Scholarship

Submit an application for the ACFE Foundation's scholarships of $1,000 per student. Scholarships, along with a one-year Student Associate Membership, are awarded annually to accounting and criminal justice students.

Become a Certified Fraud Examiner

Members with the Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE) credential experience professional growth and quickly position themselves as leaders in the global anti-fraud community. Earning the CFE credential sets you apart from the competition and launches you to the top of your profession.

The CFE denotes expertise in the four main areas of fraud: Criminology and Ethics, Financial Transactions, Law and Investigation. It is acknowledged globally and preferred by employers. A report by Robert Half International, a leading specialist in financial staffing, identified the CFE as an "in-demand credential."

On average, CFEs earn almost 18% more than their non-certified colleagues and continue to emerge as one of the most highly sought after individuals working today.

Join ACFE

Join as a Student Associate member and connect with a strong network of anti-fraud specialists around the world. Student members enjoy reduced membership fees with full access to ACFE's member resources and receive a FREE Fraud Examiners Manual on CD-ROM! We are committed to helping you succeed.

*Student Associate membership is open to undergraduate students enrolled in at least 12 semester hours or graduate students enrolled in at least 9 semester hours in a college or university. Proof of enrollment is required.

About the ACFE

The Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (ACFE) is a nearly 45,000 member global association dedicated to providing anti-fraud education and training. Together with its members, the ACFE is reducing business fraud worldwide and inspiring public confidence in the integrity and objectivity of the profession.

Questions? Contact Us!

memberservices@ACFE.com

(800) 245-3321 / +1 (512) 478-9000

Join Today!

Fill out the inserted application and mail to:

Association of Certified Fraud Examiners
World Headquarters • The Gregor Building
716 West Ave • Austin, TX 78701-2727

Or fax to:

+1 (512) 478-9297

ACFESM

Association of Certified Fraud Examiners

WORLD HEADQUARTERS • THE GREGOR BUILDING
716 West Ave • Austin, TX 78701-2727 • USA
(800) 245-3321 / +1 (512) 478-9000
Fax: +1 (512) 478-9297
www.ACFE.com • memberservices@ACFE.com

The ACFE Logo, Certified Fraud Examiner, CFE and Fraud Magazine[®] are trademarks owned by the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners, Inc.