Later, he came to know of the amendment by the Finance Act, 2008, consequent to which he could claim deduction in respect of such premium paid for his father, even if his father was not dependent on him. Therefore, he claimed the said deduction through a letter addressed to the Assessing Officer. SUGGESTED ANSWERS/HINTS

1. Mr. Rajiv is a non-resident for the P.Y.2009-10, since his stay in India is only for 30 days during the P.Y.2009-10. As per section 5(2), the scope of total income in the case of a non-resident would include the following -
 - (i) income received or deemed to be received in India in the previous year; and
 - (ii) income which accrues or arises or is deemed to accrue or arise in India during the previous year.

As per section 9(1)(iii), income chargeable under the head 'Salaries' which is payable by the Government to a citizen of India for services rendered outside India is deemed to accrue or arise in India. Therefore, salary of Rs.8 lakh would be taxable in the hands of Mr. Rajiv even if he is a non-resident, assuming that he is a citizen of India. However, allowances and perquisites paid outside India by the Government to a citizen of India for rendering service outside India is exempt under section 10(7). Therefore, Rs.4.50 lakh would be exempt under section 10(7).

2. (i) An employee opting for voluntary retirement scheme receives a lump-sum amount in respect of his balance period of service. This amount is in the nature of advance salary. Under section 10(10C), an exemption of Rs.5 lakh is provided in respect of such amount to mitigate the hardship on account of the employee going into the higher tax bracket consequent to receipt of the amount in lump-sum upon voluntary retirement.

However, some tax payers have resorted to claiming both the exemption under section 10(10C) (upto Rs.5 lakh) and relief under section 89 (in respect of the amount received in excess of Rs.5 lakh). This tax treatment has been supported by many court judgements also, for example, the Madras High Court ruling in CIT v.

PAPER – 7 : DIRECT TAX LAWS

G.V. Venugopal (2005) 273 ITR 0307 and CIT v. M. Abdul Kareem (2009) 311 ITR 162 and the Bombay High Court ruling in CIT v. Koodathil Kallyatan Ambujakshan (2009) 309 ITR 113 and CIT v. Nagesh Devidas Kulkarni (2007) 291 ITR 0407. However, this does not reflect the correct intention of the statute.

Therefore, in order to convey the true legislative intention, section 89 has been amended to provide that no relief shall be granted in respect of any amount received or receivable by an assessee on his voluntary retirement or termination of his service, in accordance with any scheme or schemes of voluntary retirement or a scheme of voluntary separation (in the case of a public sector company), if exemption under section 10(10C) in respect of such compensation received on voluntary retirement or termination of his service or voluntary separation has been claimed by the assessee in respect of the same assessment year or any other assessment year.

Correspondingly, section 10(10C) has been amended to provide that where any relief has been allowed to any assessee under section 89 for any assessment year in respect of any amount received or receivable on his voluntary retirement or termination of service or voluntary separation, no exemption under section 10(10C) shall be allowed to him in relation to that assessment year or any other assessment year.

Therefore, in view of the above amendment, Mr. Ganesh's tax treatment is incorrect. He has to either opt for exemption of upto Rs.5 lakh under section 10(10C) or relief under section 89(1), but not both.

- (ii) An electoral trust approved by the CBDT in accordance with the scheme to be made by the Central Government is eligible for exemption under new section 13B in respect of voluntary contribution received by it.

The voluntary contribution received by such electoral trust shall be treated as its income under section 2(24), but shall be exempt under new section 13B, if the trust distributes to a registered political party during the year, 95% of the aggregate donations received by it during the year along with the surplus, if any, brought forward from any earlier previous year.

Another condition for availing the benefit under this section is that the electoral trust should function in accordance with the rules made by the Central Government.

The benefit under section 13B is available only in respect of voluntary contribution received by an electoral trust and not in respect of its other income.

- 3. Section 2(15) defines "charitable purpose" to include relief of the poor, education, medical relief, and the advancement of any other object of general public utility. However, the "advancement of any other object of general public utility" shall not be a charitable purpose, if it involves the carrying on of any activity in the nature of trade, commerce or business, or any activity of rendering any service in relation to any trade, commerce or business, for a cess or fee or any other consideration, irrespective of the nature of use or application, or retention, of the income from such activity.

FINAL (NEW) EXAMINATION : NOVEMBER, 2010

Section 2(15) has been amended by the Finance (No.2) Act, 2009 to specifically include within its ambit, the preservation of environment (including watersheds, forests and wildlife) and preservation of monuments or places or objects of artistic or historic interest. Prior to the amendment, these would have been included under "advancement of any other object of general public utility" and hence, would have been subject to the restriction mentioned above. However, now, they would not be subject to the restrictions which are applicable to the "advancement of any other object of general public utility".

Therefore, an institution with the main object of preservation of wild life would continue to retain its "charitable status", even if it derives income from an activity in the nature of trade.

However, if an institution having as its main object "advancement of any other object of general public utility", derives income of Rs.12 lakh from an activity in the nature of trade during a financial year, it would lose its "charitable status" for that year.

Since Option 2 is more beneficial, Mr. Albert should opt to treat House II (House at Noida) as self-occupied and House I (House at Delhi) as deemed to be let out. His income from house property would be Rs.31,250 for the A.Y. 2010-11.

7. The Finance (No.2) Act, 2009 has introduced investment-linked tax incentives for specified businesses, which includes setting-up and operating warehousing facilities for storing agricultural produce, by insertion of new section 35AD.

100% of the capital expenditure incurred during the previous year, wholly and exclusively for the above businesses would be allowed as deduction from the business income. However, expenditure incurred on acquisition of any land, goodwill or financial instrument would not be eligible for deduction.

PAPER – 7 : DIRECT TAX LAWS

Further, the expenditure incurred, wholly and exclusively, for the purpose of specified business prior to commencement of operation would be allowed as deduction during the previous year in which the assessee commences operation of his specified business. A condition has been inserted that such amount incurred prior to commencement should be capitalized in the books of account of the assessee on the date of commencement of its operations.

Therefore, the amount of deduction allowable under section 35AD for A.Y.2010-11 would be –

Particulars	Rs.
Capital expenditure incurred during the P.Y.2009-10 (excluding the expenditure incurred on acquisition of land) = Rs.100 lakh – Rs.70 lakh	30 lakh
Capital expenditure incurred prior to 1.4.2009 (i.e., prior to commencement of business) and capitalized in the books of account as on 1.4.2009	25 lakh
Total deduction under section 35AD for A.Y.2010-11	55 lakh

Computation of total income of A Ltd. for the A.Y.2010-11

Income from the specified business of operating warehousing facilities for storing agricultural produce	40,00,000
Less: Deduction under section 35AD (as calculated above)	55,00,000
Loss from specified business to be carried forward	(15,00,000)
Total Income		50,00,000

As per section 73A(1), any loss computed in respect of any specified business referred to in section 35AD shall not be set off except against profits and gains, if any, of any other specified business. Therefore, in view of the provisions of section 73A(1), the loss of Rs.15 lakh from the specified business cannot be set-off against income of Rs.50 lakh from other businesses. Such loss has to be carried forward to be set-off against profit from any specified business referred to in section 35AD in the next assessment year.

8. The issue as to whether the expenditure in connection with the issue of shares would be allowable as a business expenditure was decided by the Supreme Court in the case of Brooke Bond India Ltd. v. CIT (1997) 225 ITR 798, where it was held that expenditure in connection with issue of shares, with a view to increase its share capital, is directly related to the expansion of the capital base of the company and is a capital expenditure. Hence, expenditure in connection with the issue of rights shares is not allowable as a business expenditure.

FINAL (NEW) EXAMINATION : NOVEMBER, 2010

However, the same is not true in respect of expenditure in connection with the issue of bonus shares. The Supreme Court, in CIT v. General Insurance Corporation (2006) 286 ITR 232, observed that there is no inflow of fresh funds or increase in capital employed on account of issue of bonus shares. There is merely a reallocation of company's fund on account of issue of bonus shares by capitalization of reserves. Therefore, the company has not acquired a benefit or advantage of enduring nature. The total funds available with the company will remain the same and there is no change in the capital structure of the company consequent to the bonus issue. Thus, issue of bonus shares does not result in the expansion of capital base of the company. Therefore, the expenditure incurred by the company on account of stamp duty and registration fees for the issue of bonus shares is allowable as revenue expenditure.

Therefore, in this case, the claim of Alpha Ltd. is not tenable in law, since the expenditure of Rs.5 lakh in connection with the issue of rights shares is not allowable while computing business income. However, the expenditure of Rs.4 lakh incurred in connection with the issue of bonus shares is allowable as deduction while computing business income for the A.Y.2010-11.

9. (1) In CIT v. Mihir Textiles Ltd. (2009) 316 ITR 403, the Gujarat High Court held that commitment charges payable in connection with issue of debentures for the purposes of financing the working capital needs of its existing business have been incurred wholly and exclusively for the purposes of the business of the assessee, and is, hence, allowable as deduction.
- (2) In CIT v. Geoffrey Manners and Co. Ltd. (2009) 315 ITR 134, the Bombay High Court observed that the advertisement expenditure cannot be disallowed where it is incurred for the purpose of promoting on-going products of the assessee and there is no enduring benefit. In such a case, the same shall be treated as revenue expenditure.
- (3) In CIT v. Liberty Group Marketing Division (2009) 315 ITR 125 (P&H), the High Court observed that the expenditure on display of glow sign and neon signs does not bring into existence an asset or advantage for the enduring benefit of the business. The expenditure is incurred to facilitate business operation and not with an object to acquire an asset of enduring nature. Therefore, such expenditure is revenue in nature and is, hence, deductible.
10. (i) This issue was considered by the Karnataka High Court in DCIT v. BPL Sanyo Finance Ltd. (2009) 312 ITR 63. The High Court held that when an assessee commits a default in payment of allotment money and consequently the share application money is forfeited by the company, it would be extinguishment of a right and consequently, result in short-term capital loss.

Consequent to Mr. Ashok's default in not paying the allotment money, his right in the shares stood extinguished on forfeiture by the company. The loss suffered by Mr. Ashok, i.e., the non-recovery of share application money, was consequent to the forfeiture of his right in the shares and has to be understood to be within the scope and ambit of transfer.

PAPER – 7 : DIRECT TAX LAWS

Therefore, the loss on forfeiture would be treated as a capital loss in the hands of Mr. Ashok.

Further, the share application money forfeited and credited to capital reserve shall not be taxable in the hands of X Ltd.

- (ii) Conversion of a capital asset into stock-in-trade falls within the definition of transfer under section 2(47). Therefore, in this case, transfer has taken place during the previous year 2008-09. However, as per section 45(2), the capital gains liability arises only in the year in which the stock-in-trade is sold i.e. previous year 2009-10 in this case. It is a long-term capital gain since the asset was acquired in 2000. The fair market value (FMV) on the date of conversion i.e. on 3.2.2009 is deemed to be the full value of consideration accruing as a result of transfer of the capital asset.

Therefore, in the year of sale of stock-in-trade (i.e. P.Y. 2009-10), both business income and capital gains would arise.

Business income = Sale consideration – FMV on the date of conversion of stock-in-trade

Capital gains = FMV on the date of conversion – Indexed cost of acquisition / improvement

12. (a) An Indian company is eligible for deduction under section 80GGB in respect of any sum contributed by it in the previous year to any political party or an electoral trust. Further, the word "contribute" in section 80GGB has the meaning assigned to it in section 293A of the Companies Act, 1956, and accordingly, it includes the amount of expenditure incurred on advertisement in a brochure of a political party.

Therefore, ABC Ltd. is eligible for a deduction of Rs.2,25,000 under section 80GGB in respect of sum of Rs.2 lakh contributed to an electoral trust and Rs.25,000 incurred by it on advertisement in a brochure of a political party.

It may be noted that there is a specific disallowance under section 37(2B) in respect of expenditure incurred on advertisement in a brochure of a political party. Therefore, the expenditure of Rs.25,000 would be disallowed while computing business income/gross total income. However, the said expenditure incurred by an Indian company is allowable as a deduction from gross total income under section 80GGB.

- (b) An undertaking deriving profit from the business of processing, preservation and packaging of fruits and vegetables or from the integrated business of handling, storage and transportation of foodgrains is eligible for deduction under section 80-IB(11A).

The benefit of deduction under section 80-IB(11A) has now been extended to an undertaking deriving profit from the business of processing, preservation and packaging of meat and meat products or poultry or marine or dairy products, if it begins to operate such business on or after 1.4.2009

The amount of deduction shall be 100% of the profits and gains derived from such business for 5 assessment years beginning with the initial assessment year i.e. the assessment year relevant to the previous year in which the undertaking begins such business. Thereafter, the deduction allowable is 25% (30% in the case of a company). The total period of deduction should not exceed 10 consecutive assessment years.

13. Computation of taxable income of M/s.ABC & Co. for the A.Y.2010-11

Particulars	Amount in Rs.
Income from business and profession
Net profit as per profit and loss account	30,00,000
Add : Items charged in profit and loss account which are not allowable
Salary to working partners (to be considered separately)	15,00,000
Interest in excess of 12% paid to partner B ($3,00,000 \times 3/15$)	60,000
Excess depreciation on building @ 5%(i.e. 15% - 10%) on Rs.50 lakh	2,50,000
Expenses on promoting family planning amongst the employees	2,00,000
Advertisement in brochure of a political party	65,000
Amount paid to a trader of marine products in cash	5,00,000
	25,75,000
Book profits	55,75,000
Less : Salary to working partners is subject to the limits specified in section 40(b)(v)	15,00,000
On the first 3 lakh of book profit [$3,00,000 \times 90\%$]	2,70,000
On the balance Rs.52.75 lakh [$52,75,000 \times 60\%$]	31,65,000
	34,35,000
Total Income	40,75,000

Reasons for treatment given to each of the items specified:-

- (i) Salary to working partners in accordance with the partnership deed is subject to the limits specified in section 40(b)(v) i.e., on the first Rs.3 lakh of book profit or in case of loss, the limit would be the higher of Rs.1,50,000 or 90% of book profit and on the balance of book profit, the limit would be 60%. In this case, since the salary paid is within the limits specified in section 40(b)(v), the entire salary of Rs.15 lakh is allowable as deduction.
- (ii) Interest payment to a partner exceeding 12% p.a. is to be disallowed as per section 40(b)(iv), even if the same is authorized by the partnership deed.
- (iii) Hotel building does not constitute plant and machinery and therefore, depreciation chargeable thereon is 10%. However, depreciation has been charged in the profit and loss account at the rate applicable to plant and machinery i.e. @ 15%. Accordingly, the excess depreciation charged in the profit and loss account @ 5% (15%-10%) has to be added to income.

FINAL (NEW) EXAMINATION : NOVEMBER, 2010

- (iv) Depreciation on motor car bought and used exclusively for the purposes of business is allowable though not registered in the name of the firm in view of the ratio of the decision of the Supreme Court in Mysore Minerals Ltd. v. CIT (1999) 239 ITR 775.
- (v) Expenses on promoting family planning amongst employees is allowable under section 36(1)(ix) only to a company assessee. In this case, since the assessee is a firm, such expenses are not allowable and therefore, the same has to be added back.
- (vi) Advertisement of any nature given in a brochure published by a political party is not allowable as per section 37(2B).
- (vii) The Apex Court in case of Dr. T.A. Quereshi vs CIT (2006) 287 ITR 0547 observed that loss of stock-in-trade has to be considered as a trading loss. Explanation to section 37(1) is not relevant here since it is not a case of business expenditure but one of business loss. Business loss is allowable on ordinary commercial principles.
Therefore, since liquor forms part of stock-in-trade of the firm, confiscation of the same has to be allowed as a business loss.
- (viii) The expenditure incurred on replacement of carpets by a hotel are in the nature of expenses incurred for the purposes of business and are allowable as revenue expenses under section 37(1).
- (ix) The amount of Rs.2 lakh paid in cash to the head of fishermen for supply of marine products would be covered under the exception contained in Rule 6DD(e)(iii), which refers to payment made to the producer for the purchase of fish or fish products. Hence, this amount would not attract disallowance under section 40A(3), even though each individual cash payment exceeds Rs.20,000.

However, the amount of Rs.5 lakh paid in cash to a trader of marine products would not be covered under the above exception, and would attract disallowance under section 40A(3), since each individual cash payment exceeds Rs.20,000.

This clarification has been given by the CBDT in its Circular No.10/2008 dated 5.12.2008.

Since tax payable on income computed as per the provisions of the Income-tax Act, 1961 is less than 15% of the book profit, the book profit of Rs.42,22,000 would be deemed to be the total income and tax is payable @15% thereon plus 2% education cess and 1% secondary and higher education. The total tax liability would be Rs.6,52,300.

Notes:

- (i) Income from new industrial undertaking qualifying for deduction under section 80-IB will not be reduced in computing book profit under section 115JB.
- (ii) Capital gains should not be excluded for the purposes of computing book profit [CIT v. Veekaylal Investment Co. (P) Ltd (2001) 249 ITR 597(Bom.)].
- (iii) Brought forward depreciation or business loss, whichever is less is deductible while computing book profit under section 115JB.
- (iv) Income from the units eligible for deduction under section 10B is not to be excluded while computing book profit.

PAPER – 7 : DIRECT TAX LAWS

- (v) Provision for gratuity based on actuarial valuation is a provision for meeting an ascertained liability. Therefore, it should not be added back for computing book profit.
 - (vi) The Finance (No.2) Act, 2009 has now provided that the net profit should also be increased by the amount set aside as provision for diminution in the value of any asset, if the same has been debited to profit and loss account, for computing the book profit. Therefore, provision for doubtful debts has to be added back to net profit for computing book profit.
 - (vii) Long-term capital gains on sale of equity shares through a recognized stock exchange on which securities transaction tax (STT) is paid is exempt under section 10(38). One of the adjustments to the book profit is that exempt income under section 10, which is credited to profit and loss account, would be deducted in arriving at the book profit. However, deduction of such long-term capital gains is not allowed for computing book profit. Section 10(38) also provides that such long term capital gain of a company shall be taken into account in computing the book profit and income-tax payable under section 115JB.
15. Section 133B(2) empowers an income-tax authority to enter any place of business during the hours at which such place is open for the conduct of business. The business premises is open from 10.00 a.m. to 8.00 p.m. for the conduct of business. The Assessing Officer entered the business premises at 7 p.m. which falls within the working hours. The claim made by the businessman to the effect that the Assessing Officer could not enter the business premises after sunset is not in accordance with law.
- Section 133B(3) provides that an income tax authority acting under this section shall, on no account, remove or cause to be removed from the place wherein he has entered, any books of account. In view of this clear prohibition in section 133B(3), the proposed action of the Assessing Officer to take away with him the books of account kept at the business premises is not valid in law.
16. A return of income filed within the due date may be revised by filing a revised return under section 139(5) where the assessee finds any omission or wrong statement in the original return subject to satisfying other conditions. There is no provision in the Income-tax Act, 1961 to make changes or modification in the return of income by filing a letter. In a case where a return of income has been filed within the due date, the only option available to the assessee to make an amendment to such return is by way of filing a revised return under section 139(5). Therefore, a fresh claim can be made before the Assessing Officer only by filing a revised return and not otherwise. The Supreme Court in Goetze (India) Ltd. vs. CIT (2006) 284 ITR 323 has held that there was no provision in the Income-tax Act, 1961 to allow an amendment in the return of income filed except by way of filing a revised return.
- Therefore, the action of the Assessing Officer in this case is correct.
17. (a) The proposition is correct in law. The Supreme Court has, in CIT vs. McMillan & Co. (1958) 33 ITR 182 and CIT vs. Kanpur Coal Syndicate (1964) 53 ITR 225, held that in disposing of an appeal before him, the appellate authority can travel over a whole range of the assessment order. The scope of his powers is co-terminus with that of the Assessing Officer. He can do what the Assessing Officer can do and can also direct him to do what he has failed to do. He can assess income from sources which have been considered by the Assessing Officer but not brought to tax. He can consider every aspect of the assessment order and give appropriate reliefs.

Further, the Apex Court has, in the case of Jute Corporation of India Ltd. vs. CIT (1991) 187 ITR 688, held that the appellate authority is vested with all the plenary powers which the subordinate authority may have in the matter. He also has the jurisdiction to permit the appellant to raise an additional ground, if the ground became available subsequently because of change in law or because of change in circumstances and such ground could not have been raised at the time of filing the return or at the time of making an assessment. He must be satisfied that the ground raised is bona fide and that the same could not have been raised earlier for good reasons.

Thus, the powers of the appellate authority in enhancing the assessment are very wide and plenary.

- (b) The proposition is not correct as per law. This is because section 254(2) specifically empowers the Appellate Tribunal to amend any order passed by it, on an application made by the assessee or Assessing Officer, with a view to rectifying any mistake apparent from record, at any time within 4 years from the date of the order sought to be amended.

The powers of the tribunal under section 254(2) relating to rectification of its order are very limited. Such powers are confined to rectifying any mistake apparent from the record. The mistake has to be such that for which no elaborate reasons or inquiry is necessary. Accordingly, the re-appreciation of evidence placed before the Tribunal during the course of the appeal hearing is not permitted. It cannot re-adjudicate the issue afresh under the garb of rectification. This issue came up for consideration before the Punjab & Haryana High Court in the case of CIT vs. Vardhman Spinning (1997) 226 ITR 296. The Court observed that the jurisdiction to review or modify orders passed by the authorities under the Act cannot be inferred on the basis of a supposed inherent right.

18. The basis for provision of depreciation as per AS-6 is the estimated useful life of an asset. However, under the Income-tax Act, 1961, the useful life of an asset is not relevant. The concept of "block of assets" is applicable and the rates of depreciation are higher under the Income-tax Act, 1961, with the objective of providing incentive to the assessee. Further, incentive is also provided by way of additional depreciation in respect of new plant and machinery installed by assessee engaged in the manufacture or production of any article or thing.

The Accounting Standard provides for allowance of depreciation on revalued amount in the case of revaluation. Under Income-tax Act, 1961, depreciation is allowed only on the written down value of block of assets. Revaluation is not recognized for income-tax purposes.

19. (a) With a view to strengthening the PAN mechanism, new section 206AA has been inserted to provide that any person whose receipts are subject to deduction of tax at source i.e. the deductee, shall mandatorily furnish his PAN to the deductor failing which the deductor shall deduct tax at source at higher of the following rates –

- (1) the rate prescribed in the Act;
- (2) at the rate in force i.e., the rate mentioned in the Finance Act; or
- (3) at the rate of 20%.

Both the deductor and the deductee have to compulsorily quote the PAN of the deductee in all correspondence, bills, vouchers and other documents exchanged between them.

If the PAN provided to the deductor is invalid or it does not belong to the deductee, it shall be deemed that the deductee has not furnished his PAN to the deductor. Accordingly, tax would be deductible at the rate specified above.

These provisions will also apply to non-residents where tax is deductible on payments or credits made to them.

- (b) This statement is not correct.

The definition of “work” under section 194C has been amended to resolve the issue as to whether outsourcing constitutes work or not. Accordingly, as per the new definition, the term “work” would include manufacturing or supplying a product according to the requirement or specification of a customer by using material purchased from such customer.

However, “work” shall not include manufacturing or supplying a product according to the requirement or specification of a customer by using raw material purchased from a person, other than such customer, as such a contract is a contract for ‘sale’.

20. Yes, penalty is leviable under the provisions of the Income-tax Act, 1961 in all the three cases.
- (i) Penalty is leviable under section 271FA for failure to furnish Annual Information Return within the prescribed time. The penalty would be Rs.100 for every day during which the default continues.
 - (ii) Penalty of Rs.25,000 is leviable under section 271A for failure to keep and maintain books of account as required under section 44AA.
 - (iii) For failure to comply with a notice issued under section 142(1), penalty of Rs.10,000 is leviable under section 271(1)(b), in addition to tax, if any, payable.
21. Section 92C(2) has been amended to provide that where more than one price is determined by the most appropriate method, the arm’s length price shall be taken to be the arithmetical mean of such price. However, if the variation between the transfer price and arithmetical mean, so determined, is within 5% of the transfer price, then the transfer price shall be deemed to be the arm's length price and no adjustment is required to be made.

22. (a) Document Identification Number [Section 282B]

- (i) In order to improve the standards of service and transparency in the functioning of the Income-tax Department, a computer based system of allotment and quoting of Document Identification Number (DIN) in each correspondence sent or received by the Income-tax Department has been introduced to facilitate tracking of documents and alleviate the taxpayers grievances.
 - (ii) Accordingly, a new section 282B has been inserted with effect from 1st October, 2010, to provide that every income tax authority shall allot a computer generated Document Identification Number in respect of every notice, order, letter or any correspondence issued by him to any other income-tax authority or assessee or any other person and such number shall be quoted thereon.
 - (iii) Where the notice, order, letter or any correspondence issued by any income-tax authority does not bear a Document Identification Number, such notice, order, letter or any correspondence shall be treated as invalid and shall be deemed never to have been issued.
 - (iv) Further, every document, letter or any correspondence, received by an income-tax authority or on behalf of such authority, shall be accepted only after allotting and quoting of a computer generated Document Identification Number.
 - (v) Where the document, letter or any correspondence received by any income-tax authority or on behalf of such authority does not bear the Document Identification Number, such document, letter or any correspondence shall be treated as invalid and shall be deemed never to have been received.
- (b) Mode and manner of service of notice or requisition under the Income-tax Act, 1961
- Section 282 has been substituted w.e.f. 1.10.2009 to provide that the service of notice or summon or requisition or order or any other communication under the Income-tax Act, 1961 may be made by delivering or transmitting a copy thereof to the person named therein -

- (1) by post or such courier services as approved by the CBDT; or
- (2) in such manner as provided in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 for the purposes of service of summons; or
- (3) in the form of any electronic record as provided in Chapter IV of the Information Technology Act, 2000; or
- (4) by any other means of transmission as may be provided by rules made by the CBDT in this behalf.

The CBDT is empowered to make rules providing for the addresses (including the address for electronic mail or electronic mail message) to which such communication may be delivered or transmitted to the person named therein.

- 23. Section 19 of the Wealth-tax Act, 1957 determines the liability of legal representative for the defaults committed by the deceased assessee. According to section 19(3), the provisions of sections 14, 15 and 17 shall apply to legal representative as they apply to any person referred to in those sections, whereas section 18 dealing with penalty does not form part of section 19(3). In view of the legal position, penalty under section 18 of Wealth-tax Act, 1957, can neither be levied nor penalty proceedings already initiated be continued on the legal representative for the defaults committed by deceased against whom penalty proceedings have been initiated prior to his death.

The Delhi High Court has, in CWT v. H.S. Chauhan (2000) 245 ITR 704, held that penalty proceedings initiated against an assessee cannot be continued on the legal heirs on the demise of such assessee.

SIGNIFICANT CIRCULARS/NOTIFICATIONS ISSUED BETWEEN 1.5.2009 AND 30.4.2010

I CIRCULARS

1. Circular No. 7/2009 dated 22.10.2009

The CBDT has, through this circular, withdrawn the following circulars:

- (a) Circular No. 23 issued on 23rd July 1969 regarding taxability of income accruing or arising through, or from, business connection in India to a non-resident, under section 9 of the Income-tax Act, 1961.
- (b) Circulars No. 163 dated 29th May, 1975 and No.786 dated 7th February, 2000 which provided clarification in respect of certain provisions of Circular No.23 dated 23rd July, 1969.

PAPER – 7 : DIRECT TAX LAWS

2. Circular No. 8/2009, dated 24.11.2009

The CBDT has, through this circular, clarified that TPAs (Third Party Administrator's) who are making payment on behalf of insurance companies to hospitals for settlement of medical/insurance claims etc. under various schemes including cashless schemes are liable to deduct tax at source under section 194J on all such payments to hospitals etc. This is because the services rendered by hospitals to various patients are primarily medical services and, therefore, the provisions of section 194J are applicable to payments made by TPAs to hospitals etc.

Consequently, all such past transactions between TPAs and hospitals would fall within the provisions of section 194J and consequence of failure to deduct tax or after deducting tax failure to pay on all such transactions would make the deductor (TPAs) deemed to be an assessee in default in respect of such tax and also liable for charging of interest under section 201(1A) and penalty under section 271C.

However, no proceedings under section 201 may be initiated after the expiry of six years from the end of the financial year in which payments have been made without deducting tax at source etc. by the TPA's. Further, the tax demand arising out of section 201(1) in situations arising above, may not be enforced if the deductor (TPA) satisfies the officer in charge of TDS that the relevant taxes have been paid by the deductee-assessee (hospitals etc.). A certificate from the auditor of the deductee-assessee stating that the tax and interest due from deductee-assessee has been paid for the assessment year concerned would be sufficient compliance for the above purpose. However, this will not alter the liability to charge interest under section 201(1A) till payment of taxes by the deductee-assessee or liability for penalty under section 271C, as the case may be.

3. Circular No. 3/2010, dated 2.3.2010

The CBDT has, vide this circular, given a clarification regarding deduction of tax at source on payment of interest on time deposits under section 194A by banks following Core-branch Banking Solutions (CBS) software. It has been clarified that Explanation to section 194A (See Note below) is not meant to apply in cases of banks where credit is made to provisioning account on daily/monthly basis for the purpose of macro monitoring only by the use of CBS software. It has been further clarified that since no constructive credit to the depositor's / payee's account takes place while calculating interest on time deposits on daily or monthly basis in the CBS software used by banks, tax need not be deducted at source on such provisioning of interest by banks for the purposes of macro monitoring only. In such cases, tax shall be deducted at source on accrual of interest at the end of financial year or at periodic intervals as per practice of the bank or as per the depositor's / payee's requirement or on maturity or on encashment of time deposits, whichever event takes place earlier, whenever the aggregate of amounts of interest income credited or paid or likely to be credited or paid during the financial year by the banks exceeds the limits specified in section 194A.

Note – The Explanation to section 194A provides that, for the purposes of this section, where any income by way of interest other than interest on securities is credited to any account, whether called 'Interest payable account' or 'Suspense Account' or by any other name, in the books of account of the person liable to pay such income, such crediting shall be deemed to be credit of such income to the account of the payee and the provisions of this section shall apply accordingly”.
