Subject: Enhancement of wage ceiling from Rs. 6,500 to 15,000 – urgent need of preparatory activities.

Sir,

The Hon'ble Union Minister of Finance in the Budget speech for 2014-15 has announced enhancement in statutory wage ceiling for enrolment under the EPF & MP Act 1952 to Rs. 15,000/- per month from the current maximum of Rs. 6,500/- per month. The notification for same is likely to be issued shortly.

2. In view of above, the following preparatory activities are required to be initiated immediately:

- a) The total number of establishments in your office be listed out Enforcement Officer wise. Further, in respect of each establishment "Enforcement Group" and "Enforcement task-id" shall be compulsorily marked in the Application Software;
- b) The Enforcement Officer may be directed to visit the establishments to check the total number of employees drawing salary beyond Rs.6,500/- and upto Rs. 15,000/- and not enrolled as members. The data so collected shall be required immediately after issue of the notification;
- c) The tour programme of Enforcement Officer shall be chalked out in such a way that they visit establishments where there is concentration of large number of workers particularly the building and construction industries, placement agencies etc.;
- d) Wherever the Enforcement Officers visit the establishment they should also meet the representatives of the workers' unions and apprise them about the said likely notification enhancing the statutory wage ceiling;
- e) Meeting may be arranged to apprise the establishments about the intent of the notification and assist them in implementing the same once it is issued.

Yours faithfully,

(P.K. UDGATA)
