- ❖ Gujarat HC allows tax credit on services under GST, signalling help to cos.

The Gujarat High Court has allowed a footwear company to claim credit for taxes paid on service inputs under the goods and services tax (GST) regime, likely signalling relief for ecommerce majors such as Amazon, Flipkart, and Urban Company. The court struck down an explanation given under Rule 89(5) under the Central GST Act, which the government used to deny claim on input tax credit on services in case of inverted duty structure. The structure means that raw materials draw higher taxes than final products.

❖ Centre in Talks with RBI for Loan Restructuring.

As the economy goes through a severe slowdown, which is likely to impact businesses further, finance minister (FM) Nirmala Sitharaman on Friday said that the government's focus is now on loan restructuring and talks are underway with the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) on this. "The focus is on restructuring. The finance ministry is actively engaged with the RBI on this. In principle, the idea that restructuring may be required is well taken," Sitharaman said at a FICCI webinar.
