THE INSTITUTE OF CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS OF INDIA (EXAMINATION DEPARTMENT) INSTRUCTIONS TO EXAMINEES-November, 2010

IMPORTANT NOTE: IPCE(Integrated Professional Competence Examination) Candidates must note the changed sequence of papers (as given in the time table printed on reverse of admit card) for November, 2010 examinations and that the examination for Group-I will commence on 9th November, 2010 and Group-II will commence on 11th November, 2010. Further all the IPCE UNIT candidates should check that their admit card is for a unit, otherwise they should inform to Examination Department of the Institute in writing requesting for correction and should appear only in papers of respective unit.

1. Immediately on receipt of the Admit card, every candidate is expected to verify all the facts, i.e. Roll No., Name, Group or Groups or Unit, Examination Timing/Session, Dates of examination, Sequence of Papers, Examination Centre etc. In case of doubt he/she is expected to approach the Superintendent concerned or the Sr. Deputy Director (Exams.), sufficiently in advance.
2. The doors of the examination halls will be opened half an hour before the time specified for the commencement of the examination in each session. All candidates should be inside the examination hall before the scheduled time of the commencement of the examination. It may be noted that the Superintendents have been advised to verify the identity of each candidate at the time of his/her entry into the examination hall. The admit card downloaded from our website which does not bear the photograph of the candidate is also a valid admit card and the identity of a candidate will be determined with the help of the image of the candidate and his specimen signature on the Attendance Register. Candidates are, however, advised, in their own interest, to carry with them (along with the admit card down-loaded from website) the identity cards issued to them at the time of their registration for articles (erstwhile Intermediate)/Professional Education Course/ Professional Competence Course / Integrated Professional Competence Course by the Board of Studies section of the Decentralized Office or the identity card issued to them by the Decentralized Office at the time of their registration as articled clerks or (where applicable) the identity cards earlier issued by the Examination Department of the Institute if the same are still valid.
3. No candidate shall be permitted to enter the hall after the expiry of half an hour after the distribution of the question paper. No candidate shall be permitted to leave the hall until the expiry of one hour after the distribution of the question paper.
4. Candidates will find their Roll Numbers written against the seats allotted to them. They should find and occupy their allotted seats.
5. Immediately on receipt of the question paper, every candidate must write his/her Roll Number on his/her copy of the question paper at the specified space provided on the cover page. By reference to the code of the question paper displayed on the notice board, every candidate is expected to satisfy himself/herself that he/she has received the correct question paper. By reference to the number of printed pages and the number of questions in the question paper which will be found printed on the front page, every candidate is expected to satisfy himself / herself that the question paper issued to him/her is complete. Similarly, if the answer book supplied is defective or the candidate has inadvertently written wrong Roll Number etc. or at wrong place, the answer book should be exchanged before the commencement of examination.

6. No candidate shall bring with him/her into the examination hall or carry on his/her person any paper, book, notes or any other material nor shall he/she communicate with any other candidate in the examination hall or in the premises, when the examination is in progress. Any infringement of this instruction is likely to result in the candidate concerned being expelled from the examination hall or otherwise dealt with.
7. Candidate should use all the pages in the main answer book/s supplied, before asking for the additional answer book/s. In order to avoid wastage, candidates will be issued additional answer books only after they have used the main answer book. No candidate shall tear a leaf of an answer book. The candidate should write answers on both sides of the paper. Rough work when necessary, should be done on the left hand side on the pages of the answer book only. Rough work should not be done on the question paper. The candidates are advised, in their own interest, to ensure that working notes should form part of the answer/s.
8. Statistical/Mathematical tables to be provided and graph paper, wherever needed, for solving the questions are indicated on the question paper itself and would be made available to the candidates on demand by the Superintendent.
9. (a) The answers should be written neatly and legibly and should, as far as possible, be brief.
(b) The answer to each question must be commenced on a fresh page and the question number clearly and prominently written at the top of each answer. Candidates are advised in their own interest not to leave full page/s blank in between the answers.
(c) The answer to each question in all parts should be completed fully in one page, or in a consecutive set of pages before the next question is taken up i.e. all parts of a question be done together.
10. The candidates should write the question number and the sub - question number, if any, very clearly. The Candidates should also leave a margin on each page wherever margin is not provided in the answer book.
11. Candidates should not tie up the unused answer books along with the used books. Unused answer books should be handed over to the invigilator.
12. The candidates are required to provide themselves with their own pen, ink and blotting paper.
13. The answer books should be fastened together with a tag supplied for the purpose. Candidates may bring their stapler and staple them after tagging, if they so desire. The number of answer books used must be clearly stated in the space provided on the cover page.
14. Similarly, the number of questions attempted should also be indicated, by way of a tick (P) mark against the question/s attempted, in the cages provided for the purpose on the cover page.
15. The candidates should not write anything in the portion provided on the cover page for noting the marks. It is intended for the use of the examiner.
16. No candidate shall, without the special permission of the Superintendent/ Invigilator, leave his/her seat in the examination hall during the hours of the examination. At the expiry of the time allowed for each paper, the answer books must be surrendered immediately to the Invigilator concerned.
17. The Institute has extended the facility of obtaining confirmation, from the Invigilator concerned for the answer books surrendered. Candidates may, therefore, obtain the signature of the Invigilator concerned, immediately on submission of their answer books, in the relevant column on the back side of the Admit Card. In the case of papers with two sections, i.e. Sections 'A' & 'B', signature of the Invigilator may be obtained against each section separately, after surrendering the answer books of each section. The Superintendents have been advised to issue receipt in the aforesaid manner 'through the Invigilator', for the answer books surrendered. Candidates should not leave the hall without surrendering their answer books to the Invigilator or the Superintendent.
18. All the answer books written by the candidates should be fastened together before surrendering to the Invigilator or the Superintendent of the examination. Any representation regarding omission to surrender the written answer book or any part thereof which tantamounts to adoption of unfair means will not be entertained after the examination is over.
19. The candidates should write their Roll number only in the space provided on the cover page of the main answer book and in no other part of the answer books. They should not write Roll Number in the additional answer book and graph paper. Writing of Roll number in place/s other than the space provided for the purpose in the cover page shall tantamount to adoption of "unfair means". Similarly, they should not make any distinguishing mark including religious symbols/prayers like God's name, Guru's name, Om, Swastik, 786 etc. in any part of their answer books. Infringement of these instructions is punishable, which may include debarment from appearing in the examination.
20. Similarly, the candidates are prohibited from writing their Articles Registration Number, Name, any extraneous notes, remarks, or appeals in their answer books and any violation shall tantamount to adoption of unfair means.
21. Every candidate must sign the attendance sheets in the appropriate column against his/her Roll No. and name and in no case shall leave the examination hall without signing these sheets.
22. The candidates should not write any matter on the question paper (except their Roll Number vide instruction No.5) or on the blotting paper. They should not remove any paper or papers from the examination hall (except the question paper given to them).

23. If a candidate is found to have resorted to or has made attempts to resort to unfair means pertaining to an examination, the Council may, on receipt of a report to that effect and after such investigation as it may deem necessary, take such disciplinary action against the candidate concerned as it may think fit. The Superintendent of the examination has absolute power to expell a candidate from the examination hall, if in his opinion, the candidate has adopted or attempted to adopt unfair means in connection with the examination. Any candidate expelled from the examination hall must, before leaving the hall, submit to the Council his/her explanation in writing through the Superintendent of the examination.
24. Smoking, chewing of tobacco/betel, intoxicant, etc are strictly prohibited in the examination hall.
25. Candidates should write the answers only in blue or blue black ink and in no other colour. Though there is no specific prohibition against the use of ball point pen, it will be advisable to use writing ink from the point of view of legibility and uniformity. Candidates are also advised not to use red, green ink, highlighter, sketch pen etc. for underlining or highlighting any sentence/para/phrase as it amounts to making distinguishing mark which is prohibited as stated in para 19 above. Candidates are permitted to use pencils for drawing graphs, diagrams etc. However, Candidates should take care not to use pencil for writing answers.
26. In the PCE (Professional Competence Examination), IPCE (Integrated Professional Competence Examination) and Final Examinations, the candidates have been allowed to answer in Hindi in all papers of a group or both groups in entirety as may be applicable and no paper-wise option is allowed.
