Provisions as to establishment of places of business in India

Applications of sections 592 to 602 to foreign companies (Section 591)

Question 1

Examine with reference to the provisions of the Companies Act, 1956 whether the following companies can be treated as foreign companies:

- (i) A company incorporated outside India having a share registration office at Mumbai.
  - (ii) Indian citizens incorporated a company in Singapore for the purpose of carrying on business there.
- (May, 2003)

Answer

“Foreign company” as per Section 591 of the Companies Act 1956, means a company incorporated outside India but having a place of business in India. Accordingly, to qualify as ‘foreign company’ a company must have both the following features:

- (a) it should be a company incorporated outside India; and
- (b) it should have a place of business in India.

As to what amount to having a place of business in India, Section 602 (e) provides that the expression ‘place of business’ includes a share transfer or share registration office.

Thus a company incorporated outside India having a share registration office at Mumbai is a foreign company.

But, the company incorporated in Singapore for the purpose of carrying on business in Singapore is not a foreign Company. Its incorporation by Indian citizen is immaterial. In order to be a foreign company it has to have a place of business in India.

Answer

Section 591(2) of the Companies Act, 1956, provides that where not less than fifty per cent of the paid up share capital (whether equity or preference or partly equity and partly preference) of a company incorporated outside India and having an established place of business in India, is held by one or more citizens of India or by one or more bodies corporate incorporated in India, or by one or more citizens of India and one or more bodies corporate incorporated in India, whether singly or in the aggregate, such company shall comply with such of the provisions of this Act as may be prescribed with regard to the business carried on by it in India, as if it were a company incorporated in India.

- (i) As 50% of the preference share capital and 20% of the equity share capital of Ashes Ltd. is held by companies incorporated in India, it shall be treated as if it were a company incorporated in India. As such it is not necessary for Ashes Ltd. to comply with the provisions relating to foreign companies. So the prospectus of the company shall be valid.
- (ii) If none of the shares (preference and equity) were held by companies incorporated in India, Ashes Ltd. would be a foreign company within the meaning of Section 591 of the Act. Section 595 of the Act provides that every foreign company shall in every prospectus inviting subscriptions in India for its shares or debentures, state the country in which the company is incorporated. As Ashes Ltd. did not mention the name of the country in which it is incorporated, the prospectus shall not be valid.
- (iii) Section 595 of the Act provides for the following additional disclosures to be made by a foreign company:
  - (a) conspicuously exhibit on the outside of every office or place where it carries on business in India, the name of the company and the country in which it is incorporated, in letters easily legible in English characters, and also in the characters of the language or one of the languages in general use in the locality in which the office or place is situated;
  - (b) cause the name of the company and of the country in which the company is incorporated, to be stated in legible English characters in all business letters, bill heads and letter paper, and in all notices, and other official publications of the company; and
  - (c) If the liability of the members of the company is limited, cause notice of the fact-
    - to be stated in every such prospectus as aforesaid and in all business letters, bill heads, letter paper, notices, advertisements and other official publications of the company, in legible English characters; and
    - to be conspicuously exhibited on the outside of every office or place where it carries on business in India, in legible English characters and also in legible characters of the languages or one of the language in general use in the locality in which the office or place is situated.
