

Are you still procrastinating?

Yeay.. Its common phenomena for any student. Book in one hand and Smart phone in second to check updates on Social Websites. Parents pushing for studying hard but we are not bothered about them. We jump to study table right on time & soon we get lost in our dream world. We take more breaks than number of pages we read. We ping our friend frequently on latest updates. Story doesn't end here there are many such foolish thing which we do instead of utilizing our precious time.

If you find such symptoms are common to you then wake up sid!!.. its an WAKE UP ALARM for you. Remember if its not NOW then its NEVER. If you think that you will make up later in eve or tomorrow or week end or next attempt then I would only say that you are already late. You know things which you are doing today is actually should have completed Yesterday. You are way behind the masses so forget about getting cleared if you study the way you are studying now.

Wait.. Wait.. Wait.. If you think this is all false!! You are doing well enough to get through of your exams & you will get through flying colour because your best friend say so or your neighbor say so, then ask yourself following Questions?

Is your preparation good enough to beat your friends around? If yes then ask yourself..

Is your preparation good enough to beat all students in your locality? If yes then ask yourself..

Is your preparation good enough to beat all students in your town? If yes then ask yourself..

Is your preparation good enough to beat all students in your City? If yes then ask your self

Is your preparation good enough to beat all students in your State? If yes then ask your self

Is your preparation best to get Rank!!, Can you beat all those who got rank till now.

If you haven't yet pulled up your socks, if you haven't fold your sleeves, then wake up

Good News for you is Tomorrow the day you was waiting always to start your studies is arrived...the next time on which you used to procrastinate is arrived now!!

So what you are going to do now??

Check!! Check!! Check yourself daily, evaluate yourself daily, Organise...

How much path you have traveled yet, How far is your destination,

The way you are studying now is good enough to surpass your daily target. Will you be able to finish your studies before time? Have you considered & given time for unforeseen events which may take away all your time!! There should not be a margin for error. Its mammoth game & not just child play.

If you are unable to meet your deadline... Stretch your Self as much as you can, this will expand your capacity & will help to build strength.

Remember Pain is temporary it can last for minute, an hour a day or week or more than that & Gain is Eternal!

Please please focus.. Make it happen now & no one can do it for you except you.

Arise Awake stop not till you become CA. Like Arjuna only focus on only one thing ... CA & nothing else... All the best
