Announcement

For the Members of the ICAI

The Committee on Economic, Commercial Laws & WTO of the ICAI has recommended to issue an Advisory to Members for incorporating the Standard Arbitration Clause in the various legal documents/deeds/contracts/agreements etc. in order to achieve the objective to make India as preferred choice for the Arbitration so that India may become the Arbitration Hub/Capital of the World. It is however clarified that the below suggested Arbitration Clause is in an Advisory in nature and not as mandatory.

Arbitration Clause

“Any dispute or differences whatsoever arising between parties in relation to the construction, meaning and operation or effect of this contract/agreement/deed or the breach thereof or any other commercial or professional or industrial or financial or accounting dispute amongst the parties, shall be referred to the Chartered Accountant(s) empanelled as arbitrator on the ICAI Panel of Arbitrators maintained by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.”

Secretary, ICAI

Accounting Standards Board of the ICAI constitutes Ind AS Transition Facilitation Group (ITFG)

Pursuant to the issuance of roadmap for Ind AS implementation issued by the MCA vide notification dated February 16, 2015, Ind ASs are applicable to certain companies from 1st April, 2016 on mandatory basis. Following which, various issues related to the applicability of Ind AS/implementation under Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015, are being raised by preparers, users and other stakeholders. Considering the need to address various issues raised on urgent basis an Ind AS Transition Facilitation Group (ITFG) has been formed by the Accounting Standards Board (ASB) of the ICAI.

Various issues referred to the group shall be addressed as follows:

1. Issues which are matter of clarifications on the application/implementation of Ind AS
The Group may directly provide the related clarification to the issues referred to it.
2. Issues pertaining to interpretation of Ind AS Interpretational issues with regard to Ind ASs requiring in-depth study and, thereafter, issuance of guidance or educational material may be referred by the Group to the concerned Board/Committee of the ICAI.

Although the ITFG has been formed by the ASB, clarification given or a view expressed by the Group represents the view of the members of the Group and not necessarily of the ASB or Council of the Institute. The clarifications/views are based on the accounting principles as on the date the Group finalises the particular clarification. The date of finalisation of each clarification will be indicated along with the clarification. The clarification must, therefore, be read in the light of any amendments and/or other developments subsequent to the issuance of clarifications by the Group.

The Group invites issues pertaining to the Ind AS Implementation and application of the Ind AS as well as the roadmap from preparers, users and other stakeholders. Issues may be submitted through e-mail at asb@icai.in.
