Pre-amendment Analysis & conclusion :-

- ❖ At the time when such supplier crosses the ATO of 20L, he can not take the benefit of exemption from registration under notification 3/2018 [IGST] and
- ❖ Since he is engaged in making inter-state supply, he is liable to take registration u/s 24(i) and
 - Therefore he can not use Notification No. 10/2019 even after he being an exclusive supplier of such goods.

Post-amendment Analysis & conclusion :-

- ❖ Since the increased threshold is incorporated in section 22(1) itself, so exclusive supplier of such goods even after being engaged in making inter-state supply, will be eligible for enhanced threshold of Rs. 40L

Similar impact is there if such supplier is operating as casual taxable person [CTP]

24(i) - Person making Inter-state taxable supply

Sec. 24(i) - Person making Inter-state taxable supply

Explanation

Extending D/L/A & Earning Interest or discount on them ⇒ Financial service

EXCLUSIVE supplier of Goods ⇒ YES

Included in ATO ⇒ YES

- ❖ For the purposes of this sub-section ^[22(1)], a person shall be considered to be engaged exclusively in the supply of goods
 - even if he is engaged in exempt supply of services provided by way of extending deposits, loans or advances
 - ◆ in so far as the consideration is represented by way of interest or discount.”.

Analysis :- Interest/discount on extending deposit, loans or advance :-

Section	Topic	Content
10	Composition scheme	Eligibility to opt/continue composition scheme Such Interest or discount is excluded from aggregate turnover [ATO]
	Computation of tax liability	Such Interest or discount is excluded from turnover in state or UT
22	Liability to register	Supply of such service will not bar the supplier from being an exclusive supplier of goods. However such interest/discount is not excluded from the computation of aggregate turnover.

Example 1:-

- ❖ Mr. X runs a stationery shop in the State of Maharashtra and has a turnover of 30L in a FY and apart from that he also has interest from FD, bank etc. of 3L.
 - Question 1 :- What is his aggregate turnover [ATO]?
 - Question 2 :- Will he be considered as exclusive supplier of goods?
 - Question 3 :- What is the applicable threshold for him to take registration and Whether he is liable to take registration?

Question	Answer
1	❖ As per section 2(6) of CGST Act, Aggregate turnover means the aggregate value of all taxable supplies (excluding the value of inward supplies on which tax is payable by a person on reverse charge basis), exempt supplies, exports of goods or services or both and inter-State supplies of persons having the same Permanent Account Number, to be computed on all India basis but excludes central tax, State tax, Union territory tax, integrated tax and cess. ❖ Earning interest by way of extending deposits, loans or advances is called as financing service. ■ Supply of such service is exempt from payment of tax as per exemption notification 12/2017] ❖ Since supply of exempted services is also included in the definition of aggregate turnover, therefore making aggregate turnover of Mr. X as ⇒ 30L + 3L = 33L.

2	❖ Answer to question 2 depends :- <table><tr><th colspan="2">If checking exclusivity for :-</th></tr><tr><td>Section 22(1)</td><td> ❖ Pre-amendment ■ He was not considered as exclusive supplier of goods ❖ Post-amendment ■ He is considered as exclusive supplier of goods even after providing exempt financial services. </td></tr><tr><td>Other provisions</td><td> ❖ Pre & Post amendment ■ He is not considered as exclusive supplier of goods </td></tr></table>	If checking exclusivity for :-		Section 22(1)	❖ Pre-amendment ■ He was not considered as exclusive supplier of goods ❖ Post-amendment ■ He is considered as exclusive supplier of goods even after providing exempt financial services.	Other provisions	❖ Pre & Post amendment ■ He is not considered as exclusive supplier of goods
If checking exclusivity for :-
Section 22(1)	❖ Pre-amendment ■ He was not considered as exclusive supplier of goods ❖ Post-amendment ■ He is considered as exclusive supplier of goods even after providing exempt financial services.
Other provisions	❖ Pre & Post amendment ■ He is not considered as exclusive supplier of goods
3	❖ After the insertion of explanation in section 22(1), he is treated as exclusive supplier of goods and ❖ He is not engaged in making supply of :- ■ Ice cream an other edible ice or ■ Pan masala ■ Tobacco & manufactured tobacco substitutes, & ❖ He is operating in Maharastra i.e. eligible for enhanced threshold of Rs. 40L, & ❖ He is neither registered nor intends to take voluntary registration, & ❖ He is not liable to take registration under section 24 ↓ ❖ Therefore, applicable threshold is of Rs. 40L [enhanced] for getting himself registered ❖ Conclusion - He is not liable to get himself registered as his ATO does not exceeds the applicable threshold.
Example 2 :- Suppose in example 1, if the interest is of ⇒ Rs. 12L. what will the answers of those 3 questions
<table><tr><th>Question</th><th>Answer</th></tr><tr><td>1</td><td> ❖ Since supply of exempted services is also included in the definition of aggregate turnover, therefore making aggregate turnover of Mr. X as ⇒ 30L + 12L = 42L. </td></tr><tr><td>2</td><td> ❖ Answer to question 2 would be same as given in example 1. </td></tr><tr><td>3</td><td> ❖ Applicable threshold is of Rs. 40L [enhanced] for getting himself registered ❖ Conclusion - He is liable to get himself registered as his ATO exceeds the applicable threshold. </td></tr></table>			Question	Answer	1	❖ Since supply of exempted services is also included in the definition of aggregate turnover, therefore making aggregate turnover of Mr. X as ⇒ 30L + 12L = 42L.	2	❖ Answer to question 2 would be same as given in example 1.	3	❖ Applicable threshold is of Rs. 40L [enhanced] for getting himself registered ❖ Conclusion - He is liable to get himself registered as his ATO exceeds the applicable threshold.
Question	Answer
1	❖ Since supply of exempted services is also included in the definition of aggregate turnover, therefore making aggregate turnover of Mr. X as ⇒ 30L + 12L = 42L.
2	❖ Answer to question 2 would be same as given in example 1.
3	❖ Applicable threshold is of Rs. 40L [enhanced] for getting himself registered ❖ Conclusion - He is liable to get himself registered as his ATO exceeds the applicable threshold.
