It is pertinent to acknowledge that “Research” promotes innovative thinking which ultimately leads towards advancements and breakthrough discoveries. The Accountancy discipline has also evolved significantly in recent decades and the Chartered Accountants are expected to provide the best improvised services and solutions to the stakeholders. It is necessary to update and upgrade the technical knowledge that the members possess considering the requirements of the time.

The Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) aims to achieve excellence by fostering the research aptitude amongst its members and building greater research capabilities. It aims to build an ecosystem of advanced research and publications in both traditional domains viz: accounting, auditing, taxation, etc as well as emerging domains such as Finance, Cryptocurrency, Blockchain, Data analytics to name a few.

We are happy to share that the Institute through its Research Committee is announcing the ICAI Doctoral Scholarship Scheme 2022 for the members who wish to pursue Ph.D. The scheme is aimed at encouraging larger number of Chartered Accountants to enrol in the scheme.

The above scheme seeks to provide requisite support by way of monthly scholarship to the eligible candidates with intellectual interest towards the discipline to make scholarly contribution. The candidates under the scheme need to demonstrate their independent research ideas through publications in top-tier academic journals as well as scholarly presentations of their work. Their contributions should incorporate insights about the business practices, public policy, and governance.

If you possess an aptitude and an inclination towards research, we invite you to apply and enrol for the ICAI Doctoral Scholarship Scheme 2022 which shall empower you academically and strengthen your career.

Overview

Doctoral scholarship will be awarded to registered Ph.D. scholars from any recognized University/College/ Institution to pursue and complete their Doctoral Research in Auditing, Taxation, Commerce, Management and Accounting. The candidates must have confirmed Ph.D. Registration.

- The scholar shall prominently acknowledge ICAI's support in all publications resulting from the research output of the scholarship and should submit a copy of the same to the ICAI.
- A scholar is not entitled for same type of scholarship more than once.
- While accepting doctoral scholarships from the ICAI, a scholar must not accept any other scholarship from any other University/College/ Institution.
- During the tenure of scholarship, the scholar will be governed by the rules of the affiliating/administering University/College/ Institution in all matters including holidays/leave, etc.

- The scholar should not have been subjected to any disciplinary/legal action/proceedings/ financial penalties in his/her research career.
- Books/periodicals/equipment purchased by the scholar out of the contingency grant should be deposited with the ICAI.
- Application submitted against a call will not be considered for the subsequent calls on its own.
- The ICAI reserves the right to reject any application without assigning any reason. It is also not responsible for any postal delay/loss.
- Incomplete applications in any respect shall not be considered for scholarship.
- The final authority related to the interpretation of the guidelines or any issue left is vested with the ICAI.

Other than the mandatory information accompanying each application, candidates should submit their research proposal in two parts:

- a) abstract of the research proposal (about 300 words)
- b) detailed research proposal (about 3000 words)
an indicative outline for the detailed research proposal is given below:

Title: The research proposal should have a clear, meaningful and concise title reflecting the scope of the investigation.

Introduction: The research proposal should begin by clearly stating the research problem to be investigated in the light of its theoretical and/or empirical context in the relevant area.

Objectives of the study: The general aim of the study as well as its specific objectives should be clearly stated in the proposal.

Research questions or hypothesis: Given the conceptual framework and the specification of dimension, the specific questions to be answered through the proposed research should be sharply formulated. In the case of an explanatory research design, specification of variables and positing of relationship among them through specific hypothesis must form a part of the research proposal.

Review of literature (National & International): The proposal should summarize the current status of research in the area and major findings, including the researcher's own work in the area. Existing empirical findings may also be discussed. The overview should clearly demonstrate the relevance as well as inadequacy of existing findings or approaches and provide a rationale for the proposed study.

Research Methodology: The researcher must describe in detail (a) the scope and coverage of her/his study; and (b) approach and methodology with adequate justification. Emphasis should be given to bringing out innovativeness in approaches proposed to be followed. The detailing of the methodology may include research design, data to be collected and empirical and analytical methods to be used. The description of the methodology must be clearly linked to the aims of the research and the research questions/hypothesis of the study.

Relevance and anticipated outcomes: The proposal should include a statement on the relevance of the study and the anticipated outcomes. It should bring out the significance of the research problem, the contribution which the proposed study is expected to make to theory and to methodology as well as its practical importance to society and policy making. It should also describe the proposed outputs from the study (books, research papers, occasional papers with themes etc.)

Tentative Chapterisation: Details chapterisation should be clearly spelt out in the research proposal.

Bibliography: Bibliography should be prepared in Chicago manual style.
